دەزگای
چاپ و پەخشی
سەردەم

SARDAM

هەوتەوە

فەرهەنگی ئینگلیزی - کوردی -فارسی

فتاح کاویان

بەشی ئینگلیزی

A

1- abide by [A2] accept; act in accordance with. S: contestants, parties, sides, members. o: rules, regulations; decision, verdict □ The two men agreed to abide by the referee's decision. □ Unless they abide by the rules of the club, they will have to leave.

2- abound in [A2 rel] be full of. S: place, institution, area of learning. o: opportunities; difficulties, snags; examples (of) □ Modern industry abounds in opportunities for young men with imagination. □ This language abounds in difficulties for the foreign learner. □ The countryside abounds in wild life of every kind. □ occasionally abound with.

3- abscond (from) [A2 emph rel] (formal) go away (from), leave (unlawfully). S: boy, prisoner. o: remand home, detention centre; custody □ 'You have twice absconded from an open prison, where you had every opportunity of living a reasonable, if restricted, life,' said the magistrate. 'I now have no alternative to sending you to a closed prison for the completion of your sentence.'

4- abscond with [A2 rel] (formal) go away, disappear, taking property to which one has no right. o: family jewels, firm's secret plans □ The accountant, after serving the company faithfully for twenty-odd years, absconded with at least ten thousand pounds, accompanied by the boss's attractive secretary!

5- absent oneself (from) [B2 emph rel] (formal) not attend, not be present (at); stay away (from)[1] (q v) □ The Chairman of the housing committee deliberately absented himself from the meeting, realizing that he could not face up to the criticisms of his opponents.

6- absolve from [B2 pass emph rel] (legal, formal) declare free from, release (from) (q v). S: priest; court, investigating commission, judge. O: dying man, repentant woman; accused person, company, jury. o: sin, guilt; blame, responsibility, obligation □ Having been absolved by the court from all responsibility in the death of the pedestrian, the man went to the nearest pub and got drunk by way of celebration. □ After a trial lasting for three weeks and ending in the conviction of all the accused, the jury were absolved from all further service for the rest of their lives.

7- absorbed in [pass (B2)] have one's attention totally occupied by. o: book, story; what was going on outside □ The children were so absorbed in their game that they did not notice the passage of time. □ passive with be, get, seem.

8- abstain (from) [A2] not do something; refrain (from) (q v). o: alcohol, sex; criticism □ Patrons are requested to abstain from smoking in the restaurant. □ Several MPs abstained from voting at the end of the debate. □ often followed by an -ing form.

9- abut on [A2 rel] (formal) touch the boundary of, border on □ The residence of the Archbishop abuts on the medieval walls of the city.

10- accede to [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) grant, meet. S: company; manager, doctor, principal. o: request, demand, application □ The Committee regrets that it cannot accede to your request for a month's unpaid leave. □ My application for a change of department was readily acceded to.

11- accord with [A2] (formal) match, be in agreement with; correspond (to/with) (q v). S: information, statement, claim, account. o: facts, data, our records □ My information does not accord with what this report states. □ His behaviour does not accord with my idea of a gentleman. □ usu neg or interr.

12- account for[1] [A2 pass] give a satisfactory record of. S: cashier, accountant. o: expenses, payments, outlay □ He was unable to account for the deficit in the firm's bank balance. □ I'm afraid that you'll have to account for every penny of the money that was entrusted to you.

13- account for[2] [A2 pass] explain. S: he etc; his state of mind; fact. o: presence, absence; attitude; surprise, shock; position □ Peter must be ill; it's the only thing that will account for his strange behaviour. □ 'The record-player's out of order.' 'Oh, that would account for the strange noise it's making.'

14- account for[3] [A2 pass] be responsible for killing, destroying, knocking out etc. S: gunner; ack-ack fire, fighter aircraft; guard, policeman. o: raider, bomber, tank; intruder, bandit □ The fighter screen accounted for three of the enemy aircraft. □ Two masked intruders were accounted for by security men.

15- not account for preferences/tastes [A2] not be able to explain why sb prefers one thing to another □ One simply can not account for tastes (or: There's simply no accounting for tastes).

16- account to [A2] give an explanation to; be responsible to; answer to (for) (q v). o: superior, manager; parent □ You'll have to account to me if anything happens to this girl while she is in your care. □ usu with the implication that failure to do sth will be punished.

17- accuse (of) [B2 pass rel] say that sb is guilty (of). S: police, prosecution; mother-in-law. o: stealing a car; theft, robbery; treason, perjury □ Alfred's teacher accused him of cheating in the examination. □ I've been accused of many things in my life, but never of cowardice. □ (ironic) 'You can never accuse Cyril of overwork.' □ often followed by an -ing form.

18- accustom oneself to [B2 rel] learn to accept; get used to. o: (new) conditions, situation; one's changed position; retirement, different kind of life; doing sth. A: quickly, slowly, with difficulty, at last □ The old man slowly accustomed himself to life without companionship. □ You'll just have to accustom yourself to the new conditions, and stop complaining. □ She thought she would never accustom herself to eating nothing but fruit and vegetables. □ often preceded by find it difficult/easy/hard to. ⇨ next entry.

19- accustomed to [pass (B2)] have learned to expect or accept; (be) used to (q v). o: conditions, situation; food, weather, light □ Conditions here are not what she's accustomed to. □ You'll soon get accustomed to [the] change of climate. □ He'd become accustomed to having his meals brought to him. ⇨ previous entry.

20- acquaint with [B2 pass rel] (formal) (help to) learn, discover. O: oneself; pupil; colleague, wife. o: facts, details, circumstances □ When I was a teacher I always made a point of acquainting myself with the home background of all my pupils. □ You should try to acquaint yourself with the facts, before you express an opinion. □ Are you acquainted with the works of Maria Edgeworth?

21- acquiesce (in) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) offer no opposition (to); agree (to) (q v). o: arrangement, action, change □ He said he would never acquiesce in his lifelong enemy being made a director of the company. □ I was annoyed to find that their proposal to take control had been weakly acquiesced in.

22- acquit (of) [B2 pass rel] (legal) find not guilty (of). S: magistrate, judge, jury, court. O: prisoner, accused. o: charge; aiding and abetting, causing grievous bodily harm, loitering with intent; murder, manslaughter □ After a trial of several days the jury acquitted the man (of the charge of murder). □ The accused was acquitted of manslaughter but found guilty of dangerous driving.

23- act for [A2 rel] represent; perform sb's duties etc on his behalf. S: solicitor; union, professional organization. o: private citizen, member □ Since old Mr Smith fell ill, his son has been acting for him in all his affairs. □ During the sergeant-major's absence on a training course, the senior sergeant acted for him.

24- act on/upon[1] [A2 pass emph rel] follow, take; take action (on) (q v). o: advice; (recent, the latest) information, news; one's own initiative; intuition □ Acting on your recommendation, I have decided to emigrate to Australia.* □ If my advice had been acted upon, the firm would not have gone bankrupt.

25- act on/upon[2] [A2 emph rel] affect; have an effect on. S: medicines, pills, drugs. o: organ; heart, liver, spleen, gland □ These pills act on the liver. □ On which part of the brain does this drug act?

26- act out [B1i pass] act or play a part to a conclusion (usu in a real-life situation). O: part, role; drama, comedy; scene □ She looked at the boy acting out his injured innocence and stared at him until he looked down. TT □ In the enclosed life of this small village, many passions are brought to the surface and acted out.

27- act up[1] [A1] (informal) react, respond appropriately to sth □ 'The young lady's rather easily upset,' the landlord said. 'When the chaps tease her she doesn't quite know how to act up.' PW

28- act up[2] [A1] (informal) behave in an annoying way □ 'You look a bit down in the mouth (= depressed). Boy friend acting up?' 'Oh yes, he acts up.' TOLY □ Don't take any notice of the baby. If you scold him, he'll only start acting up.

29- adapt (for) [B2 pass rel] rewrite, rearrange, modify (for). O: novel, play, story; machine. o: stage, radio, TV; children; use in; a special purpose. A: specially; skilfully □ The author is going to adapt his play for television. □ It's surprising that this novel hasn't yet been adapted for the cinema. □ These tractors have been adapted for use in very cold climates. □ adapt (for) and adapt (from) (⇨ next entry) may be combined: He appeared in a series adapted for radio from a French original.

30- adapt (from) [B2 pass rel] translate, change, modify (from). O: novel, play, story. o: French, Spanish; the original □ This play has been skilfully adapted from the original. ⇨ previous entry.

31- adapt to [B2 pass rel] modify, rearrange, make fit, for. O: building; ship, bus, plane. o: new conditions; the special needs of; the use of □ We'll have to adapt this building to the needs of the old people who are going to live in it. □ The ships were found to be unsuitable for the conditions to which they had supposedly been adapted.

32- adapt (oneself) to [A2 pass rel B2 rel] change one's outlook or behaviour to suit; adjust (oneself) to (q v). o: (new) circumstances, situation, conditions; way of life; environment, climate □ I don't think I shall ever adapt myself to this hot climate. □ The new teacher was very slow to adapt to the unusual rules of the school.

33- add in [B1i pass] put or pour in; include. O: flour, butter, egg. A: while, before, after, mixing, beating, stirring etc □ Should you add in the lemon juice before or after mixing the flour and sugar? □ often used in recipes, in the imper form.

add on [B1i pass] include; attach □ 'Here's your bill, sir. I've added on the ten per cent service charge.' □ She wrote me rather a cold letter; even the inquiry about my health looked as if it had been added on as an afterthought.

34- add to [A2 pass B2 pass rel] increase in extent or quantity; supplement. S: discovery, work, research. O: much, a good deal, something, nothing. o: (store of) knowledge, wealth, enjoyment, understanding, appreciation; difficulties, problems □ [A2] The recent excavations have 35- added greatly to our knowledge of life in Britain during the Stone Age.* □ [A2] The palace had been added to from time to time, and as a result incorporated various styles of architecture. □ [B2] Nothing has been added to our understanding of this disease by all the cruel experiments on animals. □ [B2] Will you add your name to this petition against abortion?

36- add up[1] [A1] (informal) make sense, present a reasonable picture; lead to an obvious conclusion. S: facts, evidence; their behaviour; it □ Sometimes she would greet him happily; sometimes he found her in tears. It just didn't add up. □ The murder had obviously been committed in the house, yet the snow around the house was smooth and undisturbed: it didn't add up.

37- add up[2] [A1 B1i pass] find the sum (of); combine, take together. O: figures, numbers, score; the effects (of sth) □ Try adding up this time instead of subtracting. □ Every time I add these figures up I get a different answer. □ The practical connections of Britain with her fellow-members are numerous and important, and when added up comprise a good part of Britain's external relations. SC

38- add up to[1] [A3] (informal) have a certain value, be equal to; amount to[1] (q v). S: information, news; contribution, discovery, acquisition. cr: (not) much, (not) a lot; very little □ Their knowledge of how other people live doesn't add up to much. □ Sir Percy said he was surprised that the annual leakage by theft, smuggling and illicit digging did not add up to more than the figures given to him. DS □ The entertainment is most notable for its male dancing, yet in total it adds up to little more than a fiesta of classical dancing. T □ usu neg or interr.

39- add up to² [A3] (informal) mean; amount to² (q v). S: refusal, statement, attitude. o: what (in initial position); the fact that □ 'What your statement adds up to is that you helped to kill the old woman.' □ 'Your evidence, then, really adds up to this — that you were nowhere near the scene of the crime?'

40- addicted (to) [pass (B2)] have formed, (be) devoted to, as a strong, almost unbreakable habit. cr: smoking, cigarettes; alcohol, drink; drugs, opium, LSD, heroin; women, sex; reading, television. A: hopelessly, strongly, desperately □ He became addicted to drugs at quite an early age. □ The two things that Appleby is most addicted to are big cars and big cigars. □ He was addicted to Westerns through regular attendance at the Saturday-morning shows for children.

41- address oneself to [B2 emph rel] (formal) tackle; give one's full attention to. o: (urgent) task, job, problem; matter, business in hand. A: with vigour, with (some) misgivings; energetically, single-mindedly □ When his father died, Paul had to address himself to the business of earning his own living. □ There are two questions to which I will address myself in this lecture.

42- adhere to¹ [A2 emph rel] (formal) remain attached to, stick to. S: material, preparation; paste, paint. o: surface, wall; wood, metal, glass, paper. A: firmly, securely □ This paint will adhere to any surface, whether rough or smooth.

43- adhere to² [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) maintain; not depart from. o: plan, original programme; (one's) principles, ideas; promise, offer; demand(s), proposal(s), suggestion(s). A: firmly, resolutely; through thick and thin; come what may □ He resolutely adhered to what he had said at the meeting: he had not changed his mind in any way. □ We decided to adhere to our original plan, in spite of the appalling weather.

44- adjourn to [A2 rel] interrupt proceedings in order to resume them at (another place) □ 'Well, gentlemen, if you've all finished, may we adjourn to the lounge for coffee?' □ The judge decided to adjourn to the scene of the crime so that the jury could see for themselves whether the arguments put forward by the defence were valid in terms of the actual lie of the land.

45- adjust (oneself) to [A2 pass rel B2 pass rel] change one's outlook or behaviour to suit; adapt (oneself) to (q v). o: new circumstances, environment, situation, condition(s). A: quickly, slowly, (im)perfectly, (in)completely, gradually □ I don't think I shall ever be able to adjust myself to life in this remote place. □ Jenkins was well adjusted to the society in which he lived.

46- admit of [A2] (formal) allow; leave room for. S: word(s), statement; facts, evidence. o: (only one) meaning, interpretation; no contradiction □ His problems did not really admit of any solution. HD □ His statement admits of one interpretation only: that he was fully aware of what he was doing. □ These facts admit of no contradiction.

47- admit (to) [B2 pass rel] allow to enter, or join. S: ticket, letter. O: the bearer; one, two. o: (football) match; tournament; ground, arena; museum, zoo, palace; membership □ This ticket will admit three (to the concert). □ He was admitted to the local branch of the Bird Watchers' Association.

48- admit to [A2 pass rel] (formal) not deny; confess to (q v). o: weakness, taste, liking for; doing sth; everything, nothing. A: willingly, reluctantly, readily □ Mr Pearson admitted readily to a great liking for horror films. □ 'Do you admit to taking these goods without paying for them?' □ Mrs Cross admits to being easily annoyed. □ She admits to being forty, so she must be about forty-five.

49- adorn (with) [B2 pass rel] (formal) make beautiful by decoration (with). O: oneself; maiden; (her) hair, body; building, temple, statue, boat. o: garlands, flowers; jewels, gold □ The girl adorned herself with flowers and garlands before she entered the hall. □ The Goddess's head was adorned with a crown of many jewels.

50- advance on/towards/upon [A2 rel] move in the direction of, e g in order to attack □ We were ordered to advance on the enemy's position under cover of darkness. □ As I advanced towards the trapped animal, it snarled and struck at me with its free paw. □ The villages upon which they now advanced had been turned into veritable fortresses.

51- advertise (for) [A2 pass rel] make known one's need (for), try to obtain, by means of notices in newspapers etc. o: house, bedsitter; daily help, gardener; second-hand bicycle, washing-machine □ It's no use just advertising for a 'secretary' these days. You've got to advertise for a 'girl-Friday', or a 'personality-girl' and you may even have to hint at office-romance. □ 'I suppose a suitable flat will turn up. It's been advertised for enough, hasn't it?'

52- advise on [A2 B2 pass] give advice about □ John makes a good living advising on interior decoration and lighting. □ 'Have you ever been advised on the best way of exploiting your talents as a singer?'

53- affiliate (to) [B2 pass rel] connect (with), perhaps as a branch □ This college is affiliated to the University of London. □ The Committee regrets that it cannot at present affiliate your group to our Society. □ usu passive.

54- affix (to) [B2 pass rel] add (to); attach (to) (q v). O: label, sticker, seal. o: letter, parcel □ Please affix your signature to the enclosed form and return it to us at once. □ Unless stamps to the correct value are affixed (to your letter), it will be sent by surface mail.

55- afflict with [B2 pass rel] cause to suffer or be preoccupied with; bother with. O: teacher, employer. o: (one's) troubles, worries, complaints □ I wish you wouldn't afflict me with your constant complaints. □ The poor boy was afflicted with diabetes. □ It's awful to be afflicted with a sense of inferiority.

56- agitate (for) [A2 pass emph rel] demand in an organized, sometimes disruptive, manner. S: movement, party; women, students. o: reform, change (in the law etc); freedom, independence; higher wages, lower taxes, better pensions, improved conditions; shorter hours □ Women had to agitate for the vote for many years before they finally got it. □ These were reforms for which they were prepared to agitate.

57-agree (on/upon) [A2 pass emph rel] reach or make an agreement concerning; find (sth) which is mutually acceptable. o: price; date; position; cease-fire; terms □ It seemed as though the two sides would never agree *(on an end to hostilities). □ Once the price for the land has been agreed upon, we can go ahead and build the house. □ On this we can agree: no sale before January.

58-agree (to) [A2 pass rel] accept; fall in with² (q v). o: terms, suggestions, proposals; plan, arrangement; conditions; what you say □ I find it impossible to agree to your terms. □ After much argument, his proposal was finally agreed to.

59-agree (with) [A2 emph rel B2 emph rel] have the same opinion as. o: you; what he says; John's father □ I entirely agree with you: that road is very dangerous. □ I'm afraid I shall never agree with you (or: we shall never agree) about corporal punishment in schools. □ Do you agree with me that fox-hunting is a cruel sport? □ followed by a that-clause in [B2] pattern.

60-agree with [A2] suit sb's digestion, health, temperament or character. S: food, fish, meat; climate; conditions, altitude □ I don't feel well. That meat pie hasn't agreed with me. □ That hot, damp climate didn't agree with him — he always felt tired or unwell. □ 'Does the sea-air agree with you?' 'Rather! I thrive on it.' □ usu neg or interr.

61-aim at¹ [A2 B2 pass emph rel] try to hit, have as one's target. O: rifle, fire, stone, missile; remarks, criticism. o: target; man, animal, bird; young people, the privileged few □ Mr Appleby aimed at a rabbit, but hit a bird. □ He aimed his gun at a policeman, and fired. □ I don't know at which union the Minister's remarks were aimed, but he ought not to say such things.

62-aim at² [A2 rel] have as one's objective, whether stated or not. o: goal, objective, position, job □ It isn't just a seat in the Cabinet at which he's aiming, but the Prime Ministership itself! □ I don't understand that girl's behaviour. What's she aiming at?

63-alienate from [B2 pass rel] (formal) cause to be estranged from. o: society, former friends, workmates □ The man's unsociable behaviour gradually alienated him from all his friends. □ The MP's views on Britain's joining the European Economic Community alienated him still further from some of his colleagues.

64-alight (from) [A2 rel] get off, out or down (from). o: horse, train, bus, taxi □ As the old lady was alighting from the car a child on roller-skates collided with her. □ The carriage from which the guests were now alighting had the royal coat-of-arms emblazoned on the doors.

65-alight on¹ [A2 rel] descend from the air and come to rest on. S: bird, bee, spider □ A long-tailed tit alighted on the window-ledge and began to peck at the nuts that had been placed there. □ Every evening the seagulls returned from their feeding-grounds, alighted on the rocks and settled down for the night.

66-alight on² [A2] encounter, find by chance. o: solution, answer to the problem; truth □ Sir Alexander Fleming alighted on the antibiotic properties of penicillin while he was engaged on research of a quite different nature.

67-align (oneself) with [B2 pass rel] adopt a common position with, come or bring into agreement. S: (political) party; minority; country; (party) leader. o: the Opposition, the Government; the West, Russia □ The Communist Party unexpectedly aligned itself with the Christian Socialists. □ This small country is now aligned with a major power.

68-allied (to) [pass adj (B2)] (be) associated (with), (be) similar to; sharing certain characteristics (with). S: organism; disease; humour. o: creativity; aggression. A: closely, clearly, in no way □ This disease is closely allied to malaria. □ Love is allied to hatred (or: Love and hatred are allied).

69-allocate (to) [B2 pass emph rel] give (to), earmark (for), reserve (for). S: government, committee, council, company. O: funds, duties, shares. o: building, education □ The Government has allocated ten million pounds to the stricken area. □ Half of the medical supplies have already been allocated *(to the victims of the earthquake).

70-allot (to) [B2 pass rel] decide who shall receive sth; make available (for). S: as for allocate (to). O: as for allocate (to); also: time; house, accommodation; work □ Where is the family to which the big house was allotted? □ How much time has been allotted to this work?

71-allow for [A2 pass emph rel] include in one's calculations etc; take into account/consideration (q v). S: he etc; measurement; instructions; estimate. o: expansion; (unexpected) difficulty; (any possible) delay, error, factor, miscalculation, eventuality; the fact that... □ Don't forget to allow for a little shrinkage when you're making that material up. □ He missed the target because the wind hadn't been allowed for.

72-allow of [A2] (formal) permit, leave room for. S: situation, position; attitude, behaviour, principles. o: no discussion, argument; (only one) interpretation; no relaxation (in, of); (no) deviation (from) □ His responsible position allowed of no unseemly behaviour in public. □ Mr Pearson's income allows of no extravagance in his way of living. □ The cult of success by which he lived could allow of no tolerance of his parents. HD □ usu neg.

73-allude to [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) mention, refer to¹ (q v) (indirectly or directly). S: book, article, letter, paper □ In the course of his lecture Sir Basil alluded many times to the work of his predecessors. □ If the question of his bequest must be alluded to, you will be discreet, won't you? □ This is the building to which I have often alluded in my broadcasts.

74-ally (oneself) with [B2 pass rel] have a close political or military link with; combine with. S: country, (political) party □ Britain has been allied with Portugal for many centuries. □ At one time the Blue Party was on the point of allying itself with the Green Party. □ His accident, allied with the news of his bankruptcy, caused him to suffer a complete nervous breakdown.

allied (to) [pass adj (B2)] ⇨ entry after align (oneself) with.

76-alternate (with) [A2 rel] happen, arrange, perform, by turns. S: (good) weather, fortune, times; success; tears. o: (bad) weather etc; failure; laughter. A: over a long period, throughout his career □ While they were on holiday sunshine alternated regularly with wintry conditions (or: sunshine and wintry conditions alternated). □ The cheerfulness with which his bad moods alternated brought welcome relief to his family.

77-amalgamate (with) [A2 rel B2 pass rel] combine with, unite (with) (q v). S: [A2] O: [B2] group, company, organization, society. S: [B2] director, board. o: an American company, former rivals □ If the ABC company amalgamates with XYZ, they will form the biggest shipbuilding organization in Britain. □ We've just been amalgamated with a Birmingham company.

78-amount to¹ [A2] be equal to, reach, a total; add up to¹ (q v). S: bill(s), debt(s), liabilities, assets. o: sum, total; quantity; very little; (not) much; nothing □ The British National Debt amounts to many thousands of millions of pounds. □ His total wordly possessions amounted to little more than the clothes he stood up in. □ often neg.

79-amount to² [A2] mean; add up to² (q v). S: it; statement, suggestion, proposal, offer, idea(s). o: this; (not) much; very little □ He always has a lot to say, but when you analyse it it never amounts to much. □ What it amounts to is simply that he is not willing to give us his support. □ Whether I pay or whether my wife pays amounts to the same thing, because we share all our money.

80-amount to³ [A2] become successful, make progress, in life. o: Δ (not) very much, (not) anything □ Jimmy doesn't know where he is or where he's going. He'll never do anything, and he'll never amount to anything. LBA □ usu neg.

81-angle for [A2 pass adj rel] (informal) try to obtain by means of hints; fish for (q v). o: compliment; promotion; useful information; invitation □ I wish that woman wouldn't angle for compliments in such an obvious way. □ The promotion for which he had long been angling eventually came his way. □ On the very day of the ball the long angled-for invitation at last arrived.

82-animadvert on/upon [A2 rel] (formal) express opinions on, often in a reflective or philosophical manner □ Old Sergeant is the classic bore: there is hardly a subject that you can mention that will not make him animadvert upon some aspect of human nature, usually in a series of unbearable clichés.

83-annex (to) [B2 pass] add to the territory of a country, estate etc □ In the years immediately preceding the outbreak of war in 1939, Hitler succeeded in annexing *various parts of Europe (*to Germany) without firing a shot.

84-answer back¹ [A1 B1ii pass] speak or interrupt in a rude manner when being scolded. S: child; servant; private. O: mother; employer; officer, NCO □ When your mother scolds you, you shouldn't answer (her) back. □ 'Don't answer (me) back, or I'll put you on a charge.' □ She longed to assert herself, and found herself being impertinent in small matters, almost answering back. PW

85-answer back² [A1 B1ii pass] defend oneself, speak up for oneself (perhaps impudently) □ Cressett complains of an injustice and John criticizes in public a man whose position forbids him to answer back. ASA □ It's unfair to attack a person in the newspaper when he can't answer (you) back.

86-answer for¹ [A2] be responsible for, be blamed for. o: actions, behaviour, madness, failure; the consequences □ Don't forget that one day you'll have to answer for your foolish behaviour—perhaps to the police, even. □ If you insist on carrying out this mad experiment I won't answer for the consequences. □ That poor woman seems to be more neurotic every time I see her: her husband's got a lot to answer for.

87-answer for² [A2 rel] speak, or accept responsibility, on behalf of. o: others, anyone else; (my) brother; our allies □ My opinion is that you are the best man for the job, but I can't answer for the other members of the committee, of course. □ They all agree with me except one person: Mr Johnson is the one for whom I can't answer.

88-answer (to) [A2] obey; be controlled by; respond (to) (q v). S: boat, car, aircraft. o: rudder, steering-wheel; movement, jerk, tug; wind, breeze □ The horse answers to the slightest pull on the rein. □ The boat seemed very slow to answer to any movement of the helm.

89-answer to (for) [A2] try to explain, and probably receive punishment (for); account to (q v) (for). o: (to) father, employer, police; (for) crime, misdeed, mistake □ You'll have to answer to me if any harm comes to this child. □ One day you will have to answer to a higher authority for your sins of omission and commission.

90-answer to the description (of) [A2] fit, match; correspond to. S: (stolen) car, handbag; (wanted) man □ This car exactly answers to the description of the stolen vehicle. □ Pearson was arrested because he seemed to answer to the description of the escaped prisoner.

91-answer to the name of [A2] (informal) be called, named □ They had an old goat that answered to the name of Smelly. □ There's no one here answering to that name.

92-apologize (to) (for) [A2 pass rel] express regret (to sb) (for sth). o: being late, forgetting his name; offence, inconvenience, delay □ She apologized profusely for treading on my toe. □ You'd better apologize to Mary for not writing to her earlier. □ He's not used to being apologized to. □ That's not something that has to be apologized for. □ two passive forms: be apologized to/for.

93-appeal (to) (for) [A2 pass rel] earnestly request (sb) (to give or grant sth). S: prisoner; manager, steward; mountaineer. o: (to) court, tribunal, crowd; workers, employees; rescue team, Red Cross; (for) clemency; quiet; assistance □ The condemned man appealed to the court for mercy. □ The police saw that the two sides might come to blows, and appealed for calm. □ The help for which the drifting ship had appealed seemed an age arriving. □ two passive forms: be appealed to/for.

94-appear for [A2] (legal) represent in court, at an inquiry etc □ Mr Peebles appeared for the defence in the case brought by the Crown against the alleged conspirators. □ The residents decided to invite a local solicitor to appear for them in the inquiry concerning the proposed establishment of a new airport near the village.

95-append (to) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) make a part of, affix (to) (q v). O: rider, codicil. o: document; lease, will □ To the original agreement between the parties an important clause concerning the disposal of assets had been appended.

96-appertain to [A2] (formal) properly concern; rightfully belong to. S: right to do sth; conditions. o: post; holder (of post) □ The duties and privileges appertaining to the post of warden of the students' residence have never been officially stated.

apply (for) [A2 pass emph rel] ⇨ apply (to) (for).

98-apply (to)[1] [A2 rel] concern; include. S: rules, restrictions, instructions; remarks, criticisms; what I say; taxes □ 'Do these regulations apply to me?' 'Yes, they apply to everyone, without exception.' □ The categories to whom the charges do not apply are: persons under the age of 21 and old age pensioners.

99-apply (to)[2] [B2 pass rel] put on, spread on (q v). O: paint, emulsion; cream, ointment, lotion; plaster, poultice. o: surface; burns, sore, cut. A: evenly, generously; sparingly, promptly □ Do not apply this ointment to the affected parts until all dirt has been removed. □ The lotion should be applied sparingly to the skin. □ The surface to which the paint was to be applied was full of cracks and dirt. □ often imper.

100-apply oneself to [B2 emph rel] put all one's energy and time into. o: work, task, job, passing one's exams; business, matter in hand. A: with a will; enthusiastically, wholeheartedly; with zest □ If you apply yourself to the job in hand, you'll soon finish it. □ Had he applied himself as enthusiastically to work as to pleasure he might have been very successful.

101-apply (to) (for) [A2 pass emph rel] make a request (to sb), usu in writing (for sth). o: (to) manager, secretary; address; branch, head office; post office, police station; (for) position, vacancy, promotion, increase (in salary); visa, permit, permission □ Miss O'Hara has just applied to the Coal Board for a job. □ For further information, apply to the Secretary of the Company. □ 'To whom should I apply for a licence?' □ Those over fifty need not apply. □ often imper.

102-appoint (to) [B2 pass rel] select (as the person to occupy a post); choose (as). S: employer, selection board. O: applicant, candidate. o: post; vacancy □ Mr Pearson was appointed to the Chairmanship of the Committee.

103-apprise of [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) make aware of; inform of. o: (true, grave) situation, facts; (sb's) feelings, intentions; peril, danger □ Nobody was willing to apprise the President of the great danger in which the country stood. □ It was only when he was twenty-one that he became apprised of his true origin.

104-approach (about) [B2 pass rel] talk to sb (concerning sth); put a request to sb. O: director, headmaster; Information Department, Inquiries (office). o: grievance, complaint, loss. A: informally, privately, confidentially □ Have you approached the manager about taking a day off next week?

105-appropriate (for) [B2 pass rel] (formal) make available (for); take, earmark (for). O: money; the best bedroom; area of land. o: the repair of the defective houses; one's own use; artillery practice □ The committee appropriated £5 000 for the provision of better sporting facilities in the local schools. □ The army appropriated some of the best houses in the district for the use of the senior officers.

106-appropriate to oneself/one's own use [B2 pass] (formal) take for one's own use, as one's own property □ The relatives of the dead man were extremely angry when they discovered that his executor had appropriated the Rolls Royce to himself.

107-approve of[1] [A2 pass rel] like, admire; consider to be acceptable. o: him etc; attitude, behaviour; manner, appearance □ 'His new mother-in-law doesn't exactly approve of him, does she?'

108-approve of[2] [A2 pass rel] accept; support. o: proposal, plan, scheme, policy; new-fangled ideas, ways of doing sth □ If my plan isn't approved of by the Committee, all my work will have been wasted. □ Don't expect him to approve of your design straight away.

109-approximate to [A2 rel] (formal) come near to; be nearly. S: account, description (of the event, proposal); cost of the completed building. o: facts, truth; (original) version, intention; estimate. A: roughly, on the whole, closely □ Your latest design approximates much more closely to what I understood the building to be like. □ His original conception, to which this sketch approximates roughly, was for a five-door saloon car.

110-arbitrate (between) [A2 rel] (legal) seek an agreement which is acceptable (to two contending persons etc). S: judge, referee, umpire □ An experienced lawyer has been asked to arbitrate between the contending parties. □ There is no statutory body whose duty it is to arbitrate between these workers and their employers.

111-arch over [A2 pass rel] overhang; form a sort of cover over □ At this part of the river, the trees on both banks arch over the water, affording an atmosphere of calm and seclusion which is a welcome relief from the bustle of the nearby city. □ The drive was arched over with thick foliage.

112-argue about [A2 pass rel] discuss in a controversial way; express disagreement about. o: meaning, origin (of); the best way to do sth; who should do it; size, weight, colour (of) □ 'What are you two arguing about?' □ While they were arguing about who should cook the dinner, the dog ran off with the meat. □ He's a crook; and that's not something that can be argued about.

113-argue against[1] [A2 rel] advance arguments opposed to. o: (proposed) plan, action; appointment, nomination; award □ Father argued fiercely against any increase in expenditure for the children's annual party. □ The scheme against which I had argued turned out to be a great success.

114-argue against[2] [A2 rel] (formal) indicate, suggest, the opposite conclusion of. S: information, evidence, previous experience □ All the evidence argued against the theory that the disease was transmitted by water.

115-argue (with) [A2 pass rel] try to persuade sb to change his mind; protest to sb against instructions he has given □ 'Don't argue (with me)! Just do as I tell you.' □ Mrs Burns is a very stubborn woman: she isn't to be argued with.

116-arise from [A2 rel] (formal) have its origin in; be due to, be caused by. S: problem, misunderstanding, difficulty; (his) poor condition, state of health. o: (poor) communications, distance; neglect, isolation, malnutrition □ The company's losses this year arise almost entirely from the new taxes. □ His condition will not improve until the cause from which it arises is removed.

117-arm (oneself) against [A2 B2 pass rel] (formal) prepare to resist and render ineffective. o: subversion, the undermining of the country's morale, the erosion of our rights □ It is up to every citizen to understand the motives of the anarchists in our midst and arm (himself) against their insidious propaganda.

118-arm (against) (with) [B2 pass rel] supply, or provide with, weapons etc, as a precaution or defence. O: oneself; friends, allies; the people. o: (against) invasion, threat; attack, subversion; (with) sword, gun; information, religious faith □ I armed myself with a poker and hid behind the curtain. □ It is not enough to condemn aggression: we must take steps to arm ourselves against invasion with guns, ships and planes. □ The students' leaders arrived at the inquiry armed with an impressive collection of facts and figures to prove that their grants were quite inadequate.

119-arouse (from) [B2 pass rel] (formal) make conscious; awaken (from) (q v). o: sleep, slumber; stupor, lethargy, apathy, indifference. A: gently, roughly, hurriedly □ Mr Murray was aroused from his slumber by his wife whispering urgently in his ear, 'There's a burglar downstairs!' □ The spread of disease among the refugees at last aroused local people from their indifference towards these unhappy people.

120-arrange (for)[1] [B2 pass rel] fix, set in order, on sb's behalf. S: secretary, receptionist; (travel) agency. O: appointment, meeting; trip, excursion, outing. o: employer, visitor, guest □ Ring up, and try to arrange an appointment for me with the dentist. □ You'll find that everything will have been arranged for you when you arrive.

121-arrange (for)[2] [B2 pass rel] make suitable for use (by). O: piece, composition. o: string quartet, chamber orchestra □ The composer has arranged Chopin's nocturnes for the full orchestra.

122-arrange for [A2] make plans for. o: sth to happen or be done; sb to do sth □ I'll arrange for the parcel to be delivered first thing tomorrow. □ They have arranged for the old man to be buried alongside his wife. □ I've arranged for a car to pick them up at the station.

123-arrive at [A2 pass rel] reach. o: hotel, town, village; coast, river; destination, goal; result, decision, conclusion □ We arrived at the station just as the train was leaving. □ The two scientists arrived at the same conclusion quite independently.

124-ascribe to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) consider to be the result of sth or the work of sb; attribute to[1,2] (q v). O: failure, success, achievement; mistake; illness; death, recovery. o: (good, bad) luck; fortune; tenacity, determination; carelessness; malnutrition, war wounds; a healthy life, sensible living □ His success as a novelist can be ascribed to the simple formula of sex, violence and suspense. □ For many years these poems were wrongly ascribed to Marlowe.

125-ask after [A2 pass] seek news of (the health of); inquire after (q v) □ Don't forget to ask after your uncle when you see Mary this afternoon. □ I met John yesterday: he was asking after you. □ They all seemed very concerned; and your health was asked after.

126-ask (for) [A2 pass rel] request. o: food, drink, shelter; help, sympathy; sth to be done □ If you get into difficulties, don't hesitate to ask for advice. □ I only wanted a little equipment for my research, but it was like asking for the moon. □ When he was found guilty, he asked for fifteen other offences to be taken into consideration.

127-ask for it/trouble [A2] (informal) invite or provoke punishment, retaliation etc □ You'd better not touch the apples in that orchard: if you do, you're just asking for trouble. □ 'You asked for it', the mother said as she slapped the child, 'and now you've got it!'

128-ask (of) [B2 pass rel] request sb to behave, hope he will behave, in a certain way; expect (of) (q v). O: a lot, a great deal, too much. o: anyone; such a (young) person □ You can't expect the man to work seven days a week: that's too much to ask *(*of anyone). □ 'Aren't you asking rather a lot of your son — expecting him to be top of his class in every subject?' □ 'May I ask a favour of you? Would you lend me your lecture notes?' □ the phrase does not necessarily imply a specific request.

129-ask out (to) [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] invite to go out (usu for a treat of some kind, whether stated or not). O: girl, neighbour. o: dinner, a dance, the theatre □ I've been asked out for the evening by the boy next door. □ When Mrs Hughes discovered that her husband had asked his secretary out to dinner, she was furious.

130-aspire to [A2 pass rel] (formal) desire, be ambitious, to obtain sth or become sth. o: fame, fortune; eminence, distinction □ My father never aspired to the job of managing director, and was very surprised when it was offered to him. □ The fame to which Mr Hastings aspired was quite beyond his reach.

131-assail with [B2 pass rel] (formal) trouble by asking, pester with □ As soon as the young man returned home, his parents assailed him with questions about the interview.

132-assent (to) [A2 pass rel] (formal) give one's approval (to), agree (to) (q v). o: suggestion, proposal, plan, scheme; (his) doing sth. A: willingly, readily, unhesitatingly □ My father will never assent to my spending a holiday abroad before I'm 16. □ The marriage, to which their parents finally assented*, turned out to be a complete failure.*

133-assess (at) [B2 pass rel] estimate to be. S: judge; Inspector of Taxes; valuer, surveyor. O: income, expenditure, value. o: sum, figure □ The Inspector of Taxes has assessed your income for the year 1974-5 at £3 000. □ The value of the property has been assessed at £20000.

134- assign to [B2 pass rel] (formal) reserve for the use of; give to. O: room, building; task, duty, work. o: staff, guest; office, department □ The Director assigned a wing of the building to the important visitors. □ The defence of the oil installation had been assigned to my regiment (or: My regiment had been assigned to its defence).

135- assimilate (into/with) [A2 B2 pass] (formal) (help to) become like, become indistinguishable from and a part of □ The great obstacle that prevents European immigrants assimilating quickly with the rest of the Australian population is that of language. □ In less than a century the Huguenot refugees had become fully assimilated into the local community.

136- associate with[1] [A2 rel] (formal) keep company with; spend a lot of time with. o: thieves, prostitutes, riff-raff; the rich, the successful □ I wouldn't trust him any further than I could see him — he associates with all sorts of undesirable characters. □ The people with whom Mr Smart associates are all highly respectable.

137- associate with[2] [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) connect with (often mentally). O: him etc; place, experience; sound, smell, feel (of sth). o: plan, proposal, activity; childhood, school; failure, success □ I always associate the smell of jasmine with Uruguay. □ The doctor was always associated in the child's mind with injections and pain. □ 'Do you wish your name to be associated with our fund-raising scheme?' 'No, it's something with which I'd rather not associate myself.'

138- assure of [B2 pass rel] (formal) give certainty or confidence to sb; promise. o: (one's) willingness, readiness; (great, warm, enthusiastic) reception, welcome; (careful, sympathetic) consideration of sth □ I can assure you of my full support for your plan. □ As soon as they adopted the new procedures, they were assured of success. □ Peter assured me of his continued interest in my work.

139- atone for [A2 pass rel] (formal) make repayment for; make amends (to) (for) (q v). o: offence, injury; failure to do sth □ Your son is doing his best to atone for his bad behaviour last night. □ I think you can now consider your unfortunate mistake to be fully atoned for.

140- attach (to) [B2 pass rel emph] fix (on or to). O: handle; buckle; codicil. o: door; belt; will □ Is it possible to attach this bracket (to the wall)? □ To the bridegroom's car his friends had attached a lot of old boots and empty tin cans.

141- attach to[1] [B2 pass emph rel] consider as having. O: (too much) importance, significance, meaning. o: news, report; what the papers say; announcement □ Too much importance should not be attached to the reports of impending revolution in Ruritania. □ You attach altogether too much significance to the Prime Minister's words.

142- attach to[2] [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) consider as being attributable or applicable to. S: court, crown. O: blame, suspicion; charge of neglect. o: accused, prisoner □ The court said that it could attach no possible blame to the driver of the lorry. □ No suspicion can be attached to the accountant.

143- attach to[3] [A2] (formal) be applicable or attributable to. S: (great, considerable) importance; credit for doing sth; (no) suspicion. o: decision, vote, outcome of the discussions; the Prime Minister, the Union leaders; accountant □ Far-reaching implications attach to the railwaymen's decision to go on strike. □ The main credit for the party's electoral success attaches to the coolness and confidence of its leader.

144- attach oneself to [B2 rel] join, sometimes in an unwelcome manner □ A stray dog attached itself to me while I was out walking and would not leave me. □ By attaching himself to a secret society he satisfied the sensation-seeking side of his nature.

145- attain to [A2 rel] (formal) reach, succeed in getting. o: (great) prominence, eminence, distinction; riches, wealth, prosperity; perfection; high office, power; stardom □ Mr Singleton's aim in life is quite modest. He wants to be moderately successful, but does not expect to attain to very great heights. □ The perfection to which the pianist had attained was achieved only by years of hard work.

146- attend (on/upon)[1] [A2 pass rel] (formal) tend; look after (q v). S: servant, doctor, physician, nurse. o: patient, sick man □ Two nurses attended night and day on the dying statesman. □ He was called out to a patient (on) whom he had attended some years previously.

147- attend (on/upon)[2] [A2 pass] (formal) accompany. S: dangers, consequences, hazards, difficulties. o: enterprise, adventure □ Many difficulties and dangers attended upon Sir Francis Chichester's single-handed voyage round the world. □ in the passive form on/upon are not required: The mission was attended (upon) by many risks.

148- attend (to) [A2 rel] listen carefully (to), pay attention (to) (q v). o: teacher, parent; advice, counsels; what people say □ If she had attended to what her mother told her, she wouldn't be in trouble now. □ If you don't attend *(to your teacher), you'll never learn anything.

149- attend to [A2 pass rel] tend, manage; look after (q v), take care (of) (q v). o: invalid; client, customer; shop, office □ If you go out, who will attend to the baby? □ He foolishly left an inexperienced young assistant to attend to some very important customers. □ 'Don't worry, everything will be attended to in good time!'

150- attire (oneself) (in) [B2 pass rel] (formal) dress in (usu for formal occasions). S: magistrate, judge, official; king, queen; the bride. o: formal dress, crimson, purple; robes of state, office; white. A: from head to foot, splendidly □ The Lords were attired in their ceremonial robes for the opening of Parliament. □ usu passive.

151- attract (to) [B2 pass emph rel] cause to move forwards; draw to. S: activity; noise; light, smell. O: crowd; onlooker(s), spectator(s), customer(s). o: market; fight, accident; stall, shop □ The bright lights and the noisy music attracted the children to the fairground.

152- attribute to[1] [B2 pass rel emph] (formal) explain by means of; give as the origin, cause or reason for. O: good, bad health, longevity; prosperity, misfortune, failure; success. o: hard work; regular habits; good, bad, luck □ Mr Dolittle attributes his good health to careful living.

□ To his father can be attributed his intelligence, and to his mother his frivolous attitude to life.

153-attribute to² [B2 pass rel] (formal) suggest as the author of. S: critic; musicologist. O: painting; sonnet; song, symphony. o: (minor) artist; poet; composer □ Shakespeare's plays have often been attributed to others, and especially to Bacon.

154-attune (to) [B2 pass rel] (formal) make appropriate to; bring into harmony (with) □ T S Eliot successfully attuned his language to the times in which he lived. □ When a man is about to die, his mind may well be attuned to prayer. □ His mind is attuned to mine (or: Our minds are attuned).

155-auction off [B1i pass] sell (off) by auction. S: Army, Navy, Air Force; Civil Service; store, factory. O: surplus; unwanted goods, supplies, stocks, materials □ From time to time the Army auctions off unwanted supplies of various kinds. □ The old machinery that was auctioned off turned out to be quite useless.

156-augur ill/well for [A2] (formal) indicate that sth will probably develop badly/well. S: action, behaviour; (recent) events, (new) taxes; his coming to power. o: us etc; the future (of); our hopes of doing sth □ John and Mary have started quarrelling already. That doesn't augur well for their future happiness. □ The arrival of our crack troops in the battle area augurs ill for the enemy.

157-avail (against) [A2 emph rel] (formal) be of use (against), be effective (against) or superior (to). S: nothing; only a supreme effort; (his) courage, skill, energy, determination. o: (as for S:) □ I'm afraid his courage will not avail (against his opponent's great strength). □ Against such an onslaught nothing could avail.

158-avail oneself of [B2 rel] (formal) use; take advantage of¹ (q v). o: facilities (provided); chance, opportunity; offer, proposal; every means in one's power. A: always, fully, without hesitation, with pleasure □ You should avail yourself of every opportunity to practise your English. □ The means of which he availed himself to achieve his ends were not beyond criticism. □ note the form in letters and speeches: May I avail myself of this opportunity to...; I should like to avail myself of....

159-avenge oneself (on) (for) [B2 rel] (formal) act against sb in return for some injury one has suffered; take revenge (on) (for) (q v). o: (on) (my father's) murderer; the destroyer of my reputation, happiness; the author of (my) misfortunes, ruin, disgrace; (for) shame, ruin, misfortune, disgrace, loss □ He swore to avenge himself (on his enemy) for the insult that had been offered to his name and reputation. □ The man on whom he avenged himself was quite innocent of the alleged offence. □ also: The young king avenged his father's murder on/upon the conspirators.

160-average out (at) [A1 A3 rel B1i pass B3 pass rel] show an average (of); calculate the average (of). S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] revenue, takings; salary, wages; cost; output; score, (number of) goals, runs; (hours of) sunshine, rainfall □ [A3] The rainfall for the period under review averaged out at about three inches a month. □ [B3] The income tax authorities averaged his profit out at £3 000 a year for five years. □ [A3] Our speed averaged out at 40 miles an hour (= We averaged 40 miles an hour all the way).

161-avert (from) [B2 pass rel] (formal) stop facing or contemplating; turn away (from)¹ (q v). O: eyes, gaze, mind, thoughts. o: problem; idea, thoughts, sight; consequences, results; (approaching) examination, trial, test; (his) predicament; poverty, misery, unhappiness □ I did my best to avert my thoughts from the dying man. □ It's no use averting your eyes (from the poverty and suffering which is all around you). □ His Finals were something from which he preferred to avert his mind.

162-awake(n) (from) [A2 rel B2 pass rel] wake up (from); return to reality (from). o: (deep, light, profound) sleep; dream. A: [A2] suddenly, gradually, slowly; with a start; [B2] roughly, gently □ He awoke (from a restless sleep) to find that all his fears were unfounded. □ He was roughly awakened from his dream of making a fortune when his partner decamped with £10 000.

163-awake(n) to [A2 rel B2 pass rel] (formal) (make sb) realize, understand. o: realities, facts, possibilities, dangers, risks, urgency, potentialities, opportunities. A: painfully, slowly, gradually □ It's time you awoke to the realities of the situation. □ We have at last awoken John to the fact that there's no easy way to success. □ During the 1930s Churchill tried to awaken the British people to the need for rearmament.

164-award (to) [B2 pass emph rel] give, grant, officially (to). S: judge, committee, jury. O: prize; medal, cup, certificate; sum, amount; damages, compensation. o: winner, runner-up, loser; plaintiff, widow □ The first prize was awarded to the youngest competitor. □ £12 000 was the amount that the court awarded (to the victim of the accident).

B

165-back away (from) [A1 A3 emph rel] move back (from), retreat (from) (q v), out of fear or dislike. S: prisoner, suspect; child, animal. o: guard, policeman; noise, fire □ As the men at the bar reached for their guns, the onlookers backed away. □ Even well-disposed people back away from Richard when they see that ingratiating smile.

166-back down [A1] retract, withdraw (charges, claims, accusations etc). S: critic, rival, opponent. A: completely, abjectly □ After being confronted with our evidence, the other side had to back down. □ Even those who seemed to have good reason to criticize have backed down.

167-back into [A2 pass B2 pass rel] drive (a vehicle) backwards into sth, esp through carelessness or inexperience. S: [A2] O: [B2] car, lorry, tractor. S: [A2 B2] driver, farmer. o:

(another) car; tree, gatepost □ I don't exactly enjoy being backed into by learner drivers. □ He succeeded in backing a new car into the only lamp-post in the street.

168- back off [A1] move (a vehicle) back from a position too close to sth else. S: driver; car, bus; line of traffic. A: a bit, a few yards □ 'Do you mind backing off a bit, Sir, while we clear this wreck out of the way?' □ 'I don't like that car sitting on my tail. Wave to him to back off.'

169- back on to [A3] have at its back, face at the back. S: house, shop; study, kitchen. o: courtyard; lane, alley □ The burglar is unlikely to have got in through the dining-room window — it backs on to several other houses.

170- back out/out of [A1 A2 pass] withdraw from an undertaking, promise. o: agreement, scheme, arrangement □ Once you've given your word, don't try to back out. □ It's no good backing out of it now — with my own ears I heard your last words. HSG back up² [A1] (cricket) (of the non-striking batsman) move down the wicket as the ball is delivered, to support a possible attempt at a run by the striker □ Jameson backed up, was sent back, struggled for a foothold, and was run out when a fielder hit the stumps. G

171- back up¹ [B1i nom pass adj] give moral, physical support to; supplement. O: subordinate, colleague, wife; attack, landing; course, programme. A: loyally, fully □ Alexander backed me up wholeheartedly as he always did. MFM □ Ada's been complaining that there's nobody to back her up if anybody gets nasty. HD □ Back-up materials, in the form of records and textbooks, are a normal accompaniment of TV language courses. □ The lectures and seminars of the course are to be backed up by a heavy programme of field work.

172- bail out¹ [B1i pass adj] (legal) free until trial by payment of a cash guarantee. S: friend, well-wisher. O: prisoner, accused □ An anonymous well-wisher bailed the prisoners out.

173- bail out² [B1i pass adj] empty of water (with buckets etc). S: sailor, passenger. O: boat □ The few survivors of the shipwreck bailed out their lifeboat. □ alt spelling: bale.

174- balance out [A1 B1ii] match, be equal (to). S: debits and credits, weights, teams; advantages, faults. O: each other, one another □ At the end of the financial year his accounts balanced out. □ The experience of our side and the youthful determination of the other balance each other out.

175- bale out/out of [A1 A2] (aviation) jump by parachute (from a damaged aircraft). S: pilot, crew. o: plane, balloon; cockpit □ Realizing he could do nothing to save his aircraft, the pilot baled out. □ You must practise your baling-out drill. □ alt spelling: bail.

176- balk at [A2 pass adj] hesitate or refuse to face or accept; jib at (q v). S: horse, mount; customer, authorities. o: fence, wall; conditions, terms □ His horse balked at the water jump. □ Our accountant balked at the high cost of the new proposals. □ alt spelling: baulk.

177- balls up [B1i nom pass adj] (taboo) ruin, mishandle; mess up (q v). O: organization, work; game, outing □ The public would laugh fit to burst if someone really ballsed up the Civil Service or the Cabinet. JFTR □ Don't let that firm handle your auditing: they made a complete balls-up of ours.

178- band together [A1 B1ii] unite, form groups. S: workers, employers, townspeople. O: themselves, ourselves □ The villagers banded (themselves) together to protect their homes and property from armed marauders.

179- bandy about [B1ii pass adj] (informal) pass from person to person (idly or with disrespect). O: story, name, word □ They are bandying his name about a good deal. □ Mr Charlton was not used to hearing the word virgin bandied about very much, especially in public. DBM □ Responsibility for the environment is a much bandied-about phrase in official circles nowadays.

180- bandy words (with) [B2 emph rel] argue, dispute (with) (usu in an undignified way) □ 'I don't propose to waste my time bandying words with you!' □ Palmer's dignity did not allow her to bandy words with her social inferiors. WDM

181- bang one's head against a brick wall [B2] (informal) continue trying to achieve sth after painful experience has shown that it cannot be achieved; run one's head against/into a brick wall (q v) □ 'Can't you see that he has no intention of paying you back? You're banging your head against a brick wall.' □ She hasn't a hope of getting him to change his mind. She's just banging her head against a brick wall. □ continuous tenses only.

182- bank on¹ [A2 pass adj rel] (informal) confidently expect, reckon on/upon (q v). o: change, success, co-operation; being first, winning the fight □ Stupidly, I had only banked on catching two or three animals, so had not brought a really large cage with me. BB □ The banked-on change of heart did not take place after all.

183- bank on² [A2 pass] (informal) find reliable, depend on/upon¹ (q v). o: food, fabric, car; service, company □ You can bank on this creamy-white wool. H □ Those brakes can't be banked on if we have to pull up suddenly. □ usu with can/could.

184- bank up¹ [A1 B1i pass adj] form into a heap or ridge. S: [A1] O: [B1] earth, gravel, snow, sand □ Seaweed banks up along the water's edge. □ Banked-up drifts of snow had made the roads impassable.

185- bank up² [B1i pass adj] heap with fuel (to ensure that a fire burns slowly for a long time, e g overnight). O: fire, furnace, stove □ 'Don't forget to bank up the fire before coming up to bed.'

186- bargain away [B1i pass adj] abandon in return for something of less value (often with an unworthy motive). O: rights, freedom, advantage □ They've bargained away in a few minutes privileges which took us many years to secure. □ Our hard-won liberties should not be bargained away lightly.

187- bargain for [A2 pass] (informal) expect, be willing or prepared to accept. o: change, reverse (of fortune); behaviour, treatment □ We didn't exactly bargain for him turning up like that, out of the blue. □ When he married for a second time, Fred got more than he bargained for. □ often preceded by more than.

188- barge in/into [A1 A2 pass] (informal) enter, interrupt, rudely or clumsily. o: house, room; discussion □ Midge doesn't like strangers barg- ing in. AITC □ 'Why must you always come barging into the conversation?'

189- bark up the wrong tree [A2] (informal) direct an inquiry or accusation at the wrong place or person □ If the police think I was mixed up in the train robbery, they're barking up the wrong tree.

barter away [B1i pass adj] = bargain away.

191- base on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] use as a basis or foundation for. O: policy, strategy; appeal, argument. o: fear, prejudice; reason, evidence □ His success in business is based on a shrewd assessment of what the customer wants. □ The Chancellor is basing his trading forecast on figures for the past five years.

192- bat around [A1 nom] (informal) hasten here and there (often with the suggestion that one is tired as a result) □ 'Don't bother me now: I've been batting around all morning and I'm just about ready to collapse.' □ 'Have a quick bat around and see what's in the shops.' □ nom form is usu not hyphenated.

193- batten down the hatches [B1iii pass] (nautical) secure hatches firmly (with battens); prepare a ship generally for a storm at sea. S: sailor, crew □ All hands were mustered to batten down the hatches.

194- batten on [A2 pass emph rel] exploit, grow fat on. S: unscrupulous trader, lazy colleague, parasite. o: work, generosity (of others) □ He was warning fellow traders against the parasitical practices of companies who batten on the efforts of others. T

195- battle it out [B1ii] (informal) fight to a conclusion. S: armies, ships; boxers, rivals □ That's just like you — try to battle it out on your own! □ This weekend, eight teams battle it out in the quarter-finals of the League Cup.

baulk at [A2 pass adj] ⇨ balk at.

197- bawl out [B1i pass] (informal) scold severely. S: referee, sergeant, traffic cop. O: player, subordinate, law-breaker □ The contender for the heavy-weight title was bawled out for punching low. □ John got a bawling-out for dangerous driving. □ nom form is bawling-out.

198- be about[1] [A2] have begun work, be busy working. S: workpeople, shopkeepers. o: △ one's affairs, business □ It was eight o'clock and most of the townspeople were already about their business. ⇨ go about[4].

199- be about[2] [A1] be present here and there (and likely to endanger health, safety etc). S: (a lot of) 'flu; fog, smog □ 'Be sure to wrap up well: there is a lot of 'flu about.' □ 'Drive home carefully: the weather report says there's a lot of ice about on the roads.' □ note the construction with there.

200- be about/around[1] [A1 A2] be present in a place (though the speaker is not sure exactly where). o: △ the place, the house □ 'Where's Bill?' 'Oh, he's somewhere about.' □ 'I haven't seen Nick all morning.' 'I have. He's around the house somewhere.' □ somewhere usu present.

201- be about/around[2] [A1] be available, be in circulation. S: (consumer) article, commodity; (rare) medal, coin; picture, antique □ These sports saloons seem to be gaining in popularity. There are certainly plenty of them about on the roads. □ You'll be lucky to find any of this furniture in the antique shops; there isn't much of it around. □ note the construction with there.

202- be above[1] [A2] not be open or liable to. S: remarks, behaviour, character. o: △ criticism, reproach, reproof, suspicion □ His handling of Government money during his term of office was not entirely above reproach.

203- be above[2] [A2] be too important, or morally superior, to undertake sth small or mean. S: Crown, judiciary, priest. o: party politics, mundane matters; taking bribes, influencing decisions □ Don't worry: Father is quite above trying to influence your choice in this matter. □ Some of the staff are not above putting their hands in the cash-box.

204- be above one/one's head [A2] (informal) be too difficult or obscure to understand. S: remarks, theory, lecture. m: miles, a long way □ The last paper he gave, on the theory of flight, was way above my head.

205- be abreast of [A3] have fresh or current knowledge of. S: research worker, teacher, civil servant. o: trends, events, progress □ He takes several learned journals and manages to be abreast of developments in his field. ⇨ get abreast of.

206- be after[1] [A2] pursue, try to catch. S: authorities; police, warder. o: prisoner, suspect, runaway □ 'We're still after the man who broke into your shop yesterday.' □ 'If you trespass on my land I'll be after you!' ⇨ come after[2], go after[1].

207- be after[2] [A2] seek, try to obtain. S: employer; applicant, unemployed person. o: staff; post, job, vacancy □ There are too many men after the same job. □ You may feel you are quite capable of handling the work you are after. H ⇨ go after[2].

208- be after[3] [A2] covet, wish to steal or take away. S: rival, thief. o: (another's) wife, job, valuables □ He's not after the pictures or the family silver. OMH

209- be against [A2] be contrary to, be in defiance of S: conduct, step; joining the party, signing the petition. o: (one's) interests, wishes, will □ Their joining the defensive pact would surely be against our interests. ⇨ go against[1].

210- be ahead/ahead of [A1 A2] have progressed beyond sb else; have reached a stage where others cannot easily follow. S: artist, thinker; industry. m: some way, a long way. o: contemporary, colleague; competitor □ America is way ahead in most important aspects of space technology. □ 'You're a long way ahead of me there. Do you mind going back over your argument?' ⇨ get ahead/ahead of.

211- be along (to) [A1 A3] come from one place to another, often a short distance (e g within the same building). o: house; office, room; meeting, reunion □ 'Come along to my office when you have a free moment.' 'All right, I'll be along in about half an hour.' □ Will he be along to the meeting of the housing committee this evening? ⇨ come along (to), bring along (to).

212- be around[1] [A1 A2] (informal) be active (and prominent) in a particular field or profession. S: actor, singer; politician. o: (movie) business, (pop music) scene; (political) arena □ The Beatles are going to be around, at least as individual performers, for a few years yet. □ Of course, he's been around the sports commentating scene for a good many years.

213- be around[2] [A1] (informal) have acquired worldly wisdom, and esp wide exper[illegible]e in sexual matters □ You can tell from t[illegible] [illegible]fident, rather self-satisfied gleam in his ey[illegible] that he's been around. □ Barbara — now there's a girl that's been around. Perhaps not quite the sort you should take home to meet your parents, though. □ perfect tenses only.

be around[3] [A1 A2] be present in a place. ⇨ be about/around[1].

be around[4] [A1] be available, be in circulation. ⇨ be about/around[2].

216- be around/round (at) [A1 A3] come to, visit, sb or a place (usu within the same town); be with sb, at a place, having come on a visit. o: John's, one's grandmother's; club, pub □ 'What time shall we expect you?' 'Oh, I'll be around by nine at the latest.' □ You can't accuse him of breaking into the shop. He was round at my house all evening. ⇨ bring around/round (to)[1], come around/round (to)[1], go round (to).

217- be at[1] [A2] (informal) try to persuade, in a carping, unpleasant way. o: husband, child. inf: to change, to improve, to return □ 'There you are, you see. She's at me again!' □ Hawkins was still at her to pick up the relationship where they had left off. NM □ inf usu present. ⇨ get at[6].

218- be at[2] [A2] (informal) attack; handle sth which is not one's property; tamper with (q v). S: pest, intruder, child. o: corn, wine, (another's) belongings □ The mice are at the cheese again: put it in a safer place. □ Geoffrey's been at my shaving things again. ⇨ get at[1].

219- be at attention [A2] (military) be standing in an alert posture, with the feet together. S: soldier, airman; policeman; company, squad □ The men were at attention as the inspecting officer passed through the ranks. ⇨ bring/come to attention.

220- be at a dead end [A2] have reached a point where no further progress is possible. S: work, studies, research; inquiry, investigation □ There came a point when his research was at a dead end — he couldn't see how to go forward. ⇨ bring/come to a dead end.

221- be at an end [A2] have ended; have been used up or exhausted. S: dispute, argument; fighting, bloodshed; patience, tolerance □ Leaders hope that serious differences on the issue among their followers are now at an end. □ I must warn you that my patience is almost at an end. ⇨ bring/come to an end; put an end/a stop to.

222- be at a halt/standstill [A2] (of sth moving, or in progress) have stopped. S: work, production; factory, yard □ Bus services in the city are practically at a halt. □ The docks have been at a complete standstill since Monday. ⇨ come/bring to a halt/standstill.

223- be hard at it/work [A2] (informal) be very busy, be working hard. S: staff; team □ Rescue gangs were already hard at it when we reached the scene of the crash. □ 'Still hard at work, Peter? Now, don't stay up too late!'

224- be at it [A2] (informal) behave mischievously, be a nuisance. S: rogue, scoundrel □ The apples keep disappearing from the trees in my garden; I suppose those children are at it again.

225- be at pains to do sth [A2] take great care to do sth. S: councillor, official, inspector. adj: great, considerable. inf: to explain, to justify, to seem fair □ The Inland Revenue were at some pains to point out how we might benefit from the revised schedule.

226- what be at [A2] (informal) what sb is trying to do or say □ I can never understand what on earth he's at. □ 'Do you mind telling me what exactly you're at?' □ in direct and indirect questions. ⇨ get at[4].

227- be at grips with [A2] be tackling; be engaged in a struggle with. o: (with) problem, issue, question □ I don't think the writer was ever at grips with any serious moral issue. □ At that time he was at grips with the disease which was later to kill him. ⇨ bring/come/get to grips with.

228- be at one (with) [A2] have the same views or feelings (as); agree (with) (q v). S: meeting, audience, follower. o: speaker, leader □ She is at one with her husband (or: They are at one) in believing that this is the best course to follow. □ They desire to enter, and be at one with, a vaguely conceived People, whose lives they could not even imagine. HD

229- be away [A1] be in a drawer etc, because one has finished using it etc. S: paper, book; knitting; linen, woollens □ I don't know that I can find the letters. They're away in old shoe boxes in the attic. ⇨ put away[1].

230- be well away[1] [A1] (informal) make a good start, be in advance of opponents. S: horse, runner; businessman □ The Queen's horse was well away at the start of the 3.15 race. □ With his father's name and his mother's money young Johnnie should be well away.

231- be well away[2] [A1] (informal) enjoy oneself noisily (through having drunk too much); be drunk □ By the time we arrived at the party, Dick was well away.

232- be back[1] [A1] return; have returned. A: soon, shortly; by lunch-time, before supper □ I'll be back in a minute with your tea. DC □ He'll be back in time to put them to bed. DC ⇨ bring back[1], come back[1], get back[1], go back[1], take back[1].

233- be back[2] [A1] have been replaced. S: book, ornament, clock. A: where it belongs, in its rightful place, with its owner □ The grandfather clock was back in its old place. □ 'Make sure the dogs are back in their kennels before you go to bed.' ⇨ get back[3], put back[1].

234- be before[1] [A2] be in front of sb else; (be going to) have or enjoy sth earlier than sb else. m: several places, some way □ 'Don't push! I was before you in the queue.' □ 'Don't forget I'm before you with that newspaper.' ⇨ come before[1].

235- be before[2] [A2] appear, be presented for a decision, the judgment of a court, etc. S: he etc; case; matter. o: court, magistrate; board, committee □ This is the third time that the accused has been before this Court. □ The question is before a Select Committee of the House of Commons at this very moment. ⇨ bring before, come before[2], go before[2], put before[2], take before.

236- be before sb's time [A2] (informal) happen, live, earlier than sb was in a certain place (e g school, university; regiment; club). S: it, that; change, event; he etc. m: way, long, considerably □ This used to be the master bedroom before we did the alterations upstairs. That was before your time, of course. DC □ 'Do you remember a French master with a squeaky voice? Or perhaps he was before your time?'

237-be behind[1] [A1 A2] be late (later than), be in arrears. S: tenant; firm, country. A: with the rent, in meeting commitments, on delivery dates □ Everybody seems to be behind this morning. TGLY □ John's often behind in making his payments. ⇨ fall behind with, get behind (with).

238-be behind[2] [A1 A2] be inferior (to), be losing (to). S: country, competitor □ They were well behind their nearest rivals in the production of fissile material. □ Jones was behind on points at the end of round three. ⇨ fall behind.

239-be behind[3] [A2] be the explanation for, be the cause of. S: fear, greed, clash of interests; change of policy, bid for power, rise in costs □ I wonder what was behind John's sudden interest in our welfare? ⇨ lie behind[2].

240-be behind bars [A2] (informal) be in prison. S: bandit, confidence trickster, murderer □ The last of the bank-robbers is now safely behind bars. ⇨ put behind bars.

241-be behind the times [A2] not be modern, not be up to date (in ideas, methods etc). S: plan, strategy; idea, philosophy, morality □ I found his thoughts on crime and punishment to be very much behind the times. □ His views on marriage are a bit behind the times.

242-be below[1] [A2] be lower than, inferior to. S: performance; output, production; attendance, capacity; quality. o: normal, (former) level; expectations, what was forecast; standard □ Figures for soft drinks sales were below what we are used to in the summer. □ Output is considerably below last year's level. ⇨ fall below.

243-be below[2] [A2] be junior to, or lower than, sb in rank. S: lieutenant; corporal. o: captain; sergeant □ A major is immediately below a lieutenant-colonel in rank. □ Jones was below Rogers when he joined the firm, but he was quickly promoted to a post of equal responsibility.

244-be below[3] [A1] (nautical) be below deck-level, e g in a cabin or the hold. S: crew, passenger; cargo □ Most of the timber was below in the hold, but some had to be stowed on the after-deck. ⇨ go below (decks), take below.

245-be beneath [A2] seem too unimportant, vulgar etc to be considered. S: money matters, household affairs, business dealings. o: △ (one's) attention, notice, regard □ 'Of course, the question of where the money for the next meal is coming from is beneath your attention!'

246-be beneath contempt [A2] be utterly despicable. S: conduct, behaviour, remarks □ I've lost all respect for him: I think his criticism of the monarchy was beneath contempt. □ To suggest that he was a petty agitator was beneath contempt. UTN

247-be beneath one's dignity [A2] be sth which one feels one cannot do without some loss of dignity (usu implying that the person has a high opinion of himself). S: housework, manual work; (it...) to help his younger brother, (it...) to play party games □ A little light weeding in the garden shouldn't be too much beneath your dignity.

248-be beside the point [A2] be irrelevant, have nothing to do with the matter in question. S: that, this; who it was, whoever did it □ Whether John or Patrick lost the tape-recorder is beside the point. □ The judicial argument over his interpretation of the Constitution is beside the point. OBS

249-be beside oneself (with) [A2] be overwhelmed by strong feelings. S: widow, victim, survivor; candidate; prisoner. o: (with) grief, anxiety, rage, frustration □ The headmaster was beside himself with alarm because raindrops were falling on the school prizes. SPL □ You can imagine how embarrassing it all is. I'm simply beside myself. UTN

250-be between ourselves/you and me [A2] (of a secret) be shared by the speakers (and not with others). S: △ this, that, it, this matter □ 'Now this is strictly between ourselves, but did you know that David is being promoted next month?' □ Eva has invited some friends up. Between you and me, it's for business reasons. RATT □ without be, used as an adv phrase; note the extended form: between you, me and the gatepost.

251-be beyond[1] [A2 emph] have gone beyond a point where he/it can be saved, mended etc. S: patient, case; machine, meter; crew, passenger. o: help; remedy, cure; salvation, redemption; repair; rescue □ One wing of the car was beyond repair — a rear mudguard half torn off. HD □ No one can ever be regarded as (being) beyond redemption.

252-be beyond[2] [A2 emph] be more than one can calculate, expect, believe etc. S: cost, total; success, result; problem; claim, statement. o: reckoning, calculation; hope, (one's) expectations; understanding, comprehension; belief, credibility □ So far, twenty-eight patients have been treated, and the improvement is said to be beyond all expectations. NS □ The intricacies of the law of libel are beyond my ken (= knowledge). SD ⇨ go beyond.

253-be beyond a joke [A2] (informal) be too serious to joke about. S: behaviour, manners, dress; situation, incident □ 'This is quite beyond a joke! Open the door, and let me out at once!' ⇨ go beyond a joke.

254-be beyond/past caring [A2] have reached a point where one no longer cares (about sth). O: (of caring) whether one lives or dies, how things will turn out, what to do in another crisis □ 'Don't you think we ought to find another music teacher for John?' 'Don't ask me, darling, I'm really past caring.' □ When an officer is beyond caring for the safety of his troops, he should be removed from his command.

255-be beyond/past (one's) endurance [A2] be more than one is prepared to bear or tolerate. S: behaviour, conduct; insolence, slovenliness □ His treatment of his mother is past endurance. □ This latest outburst of his — it's quite beyond my endurance.

256-be down[1] [A1] (informal) lack, be deficient by (some amount). S: stock, account. m: ten pounds, a thousand pairs; quite a bit □ I've checked the till and we're forty pounds down. UTN □ The bar is ten bottles of Scotch down. □ modifier usu present.

257-be down[2] [A1] have fallen, been reduced. S: price, cost; (level of) demand, output □ The level of demand is down since the new measures were introduced to reduce spending. ⇨ bring down[6], come down[8], go down[8].

258- be down³ [A1] be entered or written down. S: name, age; opinion, view. A: on paper, in a notebook; in black and white □ Is the date of the next meeting down in your diary? □ 'Don't try to deny that you said it. Your words are down here in black and white.' ⇨ get down⁴, go down⁹, put down⁸, set down², take down³.

259- be down as [A3] (informal) have one's name entered or recorded as (sometimes with the suggestion that the entry is false). S: name; he etc. o: Smith, Brown etc □ Her name's down as Smythe in the telephone book, but she's really just plain Smith. ⇨ put down as¹.

260- be down at heel [A3] (informal) be badly worn down; be in a generally shabby state. S: shoe, boot; Smith, Brown, etc □ He's always so down at heel*; is he hard up or just slovenly?* □ Our cases were collected by a down-at-heel hall porter. □ adj form is down-at-heel.

261- be down by the bows/stern [A3] (nautical) be sinking; have the bows or stern under water. S: ship, boat □ When the rescue craft arrived, the 'Discoverer' was already down by the stern*, and sinking fast.*

262- be down for [A3] have one's name entered for admission to a school (esp a preparatory or public school). S: child; name. o: Eton, Shrewsbury □ His name's been down for his father's school since birth: we wanted to be absolutely sure of getting him in. ⇨ put down for².

263- be down for a count of... [A3] (boxing) be knocked to the floor and stay there while the referee counts (not long enough, however, to be counted out) □ The British contender for the heavyweight title was down for a count of six in the fifth round. ⇨ be out⁹, count out².

264- be down (from) [A1 A3] have left a university (esp Oxford or Cambridge) □ Their son is just down from Oxford after taking a degree in chemistry. ⇨ come down (from), go down⁶, send down.

265- be down in the dumps/mouth [A3] (informal) be, appear, miserable or dejected □ Bill's been a bit down in the mouth ever since they put the tax up on beer. ⇨ get down in the dumps/mouth.

266- be down on¹ [A3] (informal) be critical of; be prejudiced against □ He can be a thoroughly bad writer. Some of the critics are terribly down on him. PW □ note nom form in: They have a down on him.

267- be down on² [A3] (informal) quickly note and point out. S: supervisor, manager; teacher. o: slip, error. A: at once, immediately, like a ton of bricks □ The examiners were down on his mistake in a flash. ⇨ come down on¹.

268- be down on³ [A3] (informal) demand money or redress from. S: creditor, victim (of an accident). o: (bankrupt) businessman, (negligent) workman □ When the news got about that Smith's business was failing, his suppliers were down on him for payment of his debts. ⇨ come down on².

269- be down on one's luck [A3] (informal) suffer a setback or misfortune □ 'Well, Lumley, I'm sorry you're down on your luck*. I should have thought you could have got a better job than this, though.'* HD

270- be down and out [A1] (informal) be destitute (without work or means and dependent on public assistance). S: worker, farmer; class □ After about ten years of casual work or none at all, they are practically down and out*.* □ A crowd of down-and-outs clustered around the soup-kitchen. □ nom form is down-and-out(s).

271- be down to [A3] (informal) have nothing left except. o: our last farthing, my last pair of stockings □ The garrison had held out for a month and were now down to their last cartridge.

272- be down with [A3] (informal) be ill with. o: stomach upset, bad cold □ They're both down with a nasty bout of 'flu. ⇨ go down with.

273- be (all) for [A2] (informal) (strongly) favour, support. S: minister, candidate, employer. o: increased pensions, reduced costs; sharing wealth, giving the young a chance □ He's all for getting what he can out of the firm; but he's not so keen on giving anything in return.

274- be for it/the high jump [A2] (informal) (be going to) be punished or reprimanded. S: (naughty) child; scamp, rascal □ 'You'll be for it when your father comes home!' □ 'If you mess about with my typewriter again, you'll be for the high jump*.'* □ often with shall/will.

275- be in¹ [A1] be fashionable, be the fashion. S: red, black; silk, leather; foreign travel □ Leather is in at the moment; plastic is out. □ This is very much an in style just now. □ note attrib use of in in last example. ⇨ come in¹; be in/bring into/come into fashion/vogue.

276- be in² [A1] be gathered, be harvested. S: harvest, crop; grapes, potatoes □ The fruit crop, the best they had had for years, was now safely in*.* ⇨ bring in¹, get in¹.

277- be in³ [A1] be in the shops (because they have been gathered etc). S: strawberries, pheasant, trout □ 'Have you any peaches?' 'No, sir, I am afraid they're not in yet.' ⇨ come in²; be in season, come into season.

278- be in⁴ [A1] (politics) be elected; be in office. S: party, representative □ 'Did you know our local MP is in again?' □ The Republicans have been in since the hand-over of power. ⇨ come in³, get in/into³, put in⁶.

279- be in⁵ [A1] (cricket) be batting. S: side, team; player □ The home side is in at the moment; but we shall be batting soon. ⇨ go in⁴, put in⁷.

280- be in⁶ [A1] remain alight. S: stove, furnace □ The fire we lit last night is still in this morning. ⇨ keep in².

281- be in⁷ [A1] (of the sea) have reached the highest point on the shore. S: ⚠ the tide, water □ 'Be careful about swimming when the tide's in*; the beach shelves steeply here.'* ⇨ come in⁷.

282- be in action [A2] (military) be active, be in a position where he or it can operate. S: force, troops; artillery, tanks □ Our men were in action within an hour of arriving in the front line. □ At that moment, there were only two guns in action*.* ⇨ bring/come/go into action.

283- be all in [A1] (informal) be exhausted, be tired out □ After six weeks' training, the recruits were just about all in*.*

284- be in being/existence [A2] have started its/their existence. S: body, organization; army; industry; university □ The negotiating machinery which they had worked so hard to set up was at last in being*.* □ At that time there was no procedure in existence for handling this kind of case. ⇨ bring/come into being/existence.

285- be in blossom/flower [A2] have blossomed, flowered. S: tree, shrub; rose, azalea □ On both sides of the road the cherry-trees were in blossom. □ The crocuses are now in flower. ⇨ bring/come into blossom/flower.

286-be in bud/leaf [A2] (of a bud, leaf, on a tree or bush) have appeared or shown itself. S: tree, shrub; branch, twig □ The roses are in bud early this year. □ The plane trees lining the main street are already in leaf. ⇨ come into bud/leaf.

287-be in employment/work [A2] be employed, have a job □ Those who are in part-time employment should leave this part of the form blank. □ The father's still in work, but the two teenage boys are finding it hard to get jobs.

288-be in fashion/vogue [A2] be fashionable. S: natural fabrics, plastic; maxicoat, miniskirt □ Styles which are now the latest thing may often have been in fashion thirty years ago. □ The cult of violence in the cinema is now in vogue: let us hope it is a passing fashion. ⇨ bring/come into fashion/vogue; be in[1], come in[1].

289-be in focus [A2] (of sth viewed through a microscope, telescope etc) be sharp and clear; (fig) be clearly visible, intelligible. S: microscope, specimen; question, problem, matter □ All the details of the insect's wing were in sharp focus. □ Two important aspects of the question are now in clear focus; shall we discuss those before moving on? ⇨ bring/come into focus.

290-be in force [A2] have begun to operate (and be in some way binding and enforceable). S: law, regulation, requirement □ A new code of practice for hoteliers is now in force. □ There was nothing in force to stop travel-agents misleading bookers. ⇨ bring/come/put into force.

291-be in hand [A2] have been started or undertaken. S: work; arrangements; checking, correction □ The editing of the manuscript is now in hand. □ Work is already in hand on the proposed extension of the motorway. ⇨ have/take in hand.

292-be in jeopardy [A2] be threatened, endangered. S: plan, scheme; chances, prospects; trade, employment; relations □ There has been a fall in demand for their products, and thousands of jobs in the area are in jeopardy. □ Because of infringements of the cease-fire, the peace talks are in serious jeopardy. ⇨ put in jeopardy.

293-one's luck be in [A1] (informal) (of sb) be fortunate, be lucky □ (horoscope) Your luck is in and you should be able to look forward to one of your smoothest weeks for some time. WI

294-be in the open [A2] be obvious, evident; have been made public. S: feelings; enmity, envy; dispute, differences (between people); matter, issue □ It is far better that your quarrel should be in the open; you now know where you both stand. □ The real causes of grievance are now in the open. ⇨ bring/come into the open.

295-be in the picture [A2] (informal) have been given up-to-date information, be fully informed (about sth). S: staff, colleagues □ 'All right, now that I'm fully in the picture what can I do to help you?' □ 'I'm not sure that we're quite in the picture. Can you tell us exactly what was said at that meeting?' ⇨ put in the picture.

296-be in play [A2] be involved, be at work, have started to influence sth. S: force, factor, circumstance □ Mighty forces are in play in the present round of negotiations. ⇨ bring/come into play.

297-be in sb's possession [A2] be held, possessed by sb (usu temporarily or illegally). S: (stolen) vehicle, firearms, drugs □ I don't know how the missing documents came to be in his possession (or: how he came to be in possession of the documents). □ the second pattern in the example is used by the police in statements of evidence: The accused was in possession of cannabis. ⇨ come into sb's possession.

298-be in power [A2] have reached, attained, (political) control. S: party, group; clique, junta; class □ A coalition government was in power in Britain during the Second World War. ⇨ come/put into power.

299-be in season [A2] be seasonable or available (in shops). S: oysters, (fresh) salmon; strawberries, grapes □ Don't buy imported strawberries; —they're so expensive. Wait till they're in season here. ⇨ come into season; be in[3], come in[2].

300-be in service/use [A2] have begun to serve the public, be used. S: bus, lorry; railway, road; bridge, tunnel □ A new Cross-Channel link will be in service for the holiday traffic. □ The footbridge over the river is no longer in use. ⇨ bring/come/go into service/use.

301-be in sight/view [A2] be visible, have appeared. S: coast; sea; train, car □ From our position on the hillside, every detail of the landscape was clearly in view. ⇨ bring/come into sight/view.

302-be well in hand [A2] have been controlled, be under control (q v). S: situation; crisis □ He said there was no cause for alarm: the situation was now well in hand. ⇨ have well in hand.

303-be in the wrong [A2] have acted wrongly; be made to feel that one has acted wrongly □ 'All right, I'm in the wrong—I shouldn't have lost my temper with him.' □ Why am I always in the wrong? Is it something about my face that sets people against me? ⇨ put in the wrong.

304-be in at the finish/kill [A3] (informal) be present at the conclusion (usu unpleasant) of a conflict or chase. S: tracker, huntsman, soldier □ That's a really bloodthirsty hound you've got there; he always loves to be in at the kill.

305-be in for[1] [A3] (sport) be going to compete in; enter for (q v). S: athlete, competitor. o: event, race □ I'm in for the 100 metres and the high jump. ⇨ go in for[1], put in for[1].

306-be in for[2] [A3] be an applicant for. o: job, post; vacancy □ I understand he's in for an administrative job in the Civil Service. ⇨ put in (for).

307-be in for[3] [A3] (informal) be likely to experience. o: shock, hard times, far-reaching changes □ It looked as if we might be in for a frosty spell. TBC □ Anyone who thinks that Kirkaldy's a dreadful industrial town is in for a very pleasant surprise. SC

308-be in charge (of) [A2] direct, be responsible for, some process or organization. S: official, businessman, academic; office, department. o: (of) business; sales, recruitment; field, area □ Jones was in complete charge while the manager was on holiday. □ We are looking for an experienced man to be in charge of research and development. ⇨ take charge (of).

309-be in control (of) [A2] manage, regulate, the behaviour of sb, or the movement, progress, of sth. S: teacher, parent; pilot, driver; scientist. o: oneself; child, pupil; plane, car; experiment □

How can he take control of a class when he's not in control of himself! □ The police were not satisfied that he was in complete control of the car. ⇨ have control of/over, take control (of).

310-be in on [A3] have a share in, participate (in) (q v); be informed of. o: plan, scheme, venture; idea, suggestion □ Most of the staff want to be in on the new pension scheme. □ The principal Trades Unions were in on the Minister's thinking from the start. ⇨ bring/come/get/let in on.

311-be in on the ground floor [A3] (informal) have joined a venture etc at its outset. S: investor, shareholder; partner, associate □ You're a lucky man. The business is bound to expand and prosper, and you're in on the ground floor! ⇨ come in on the ground floor²; get in³.

312-be in and out of [A2] (informal) be a frequent visitor to or inmate of. o: hospital, shop □ He's in and out of gaol all the time. □ You're an export delivery driver. You must be in and out of every principal dock in the country. HD ⇨ go in and out (of).

313-be in accord/harmony/tune (with) [A2] match, agree (with) easily and smoothly. S: statement, declaration; move, action; decision. o: (with) (previous, earlier) statement etc; (others') wishes, desires □ This document is hardly in accord with our earlier agreement. □ The Prime Minister's speech and that of his Deputy were not in harmony (with each other). □ This step is in tune with our entire policy to date.

314-be in collision (with) [A2] have struck, or collided (with). S: car, lorry; train; ship □ A van was in collision with an articulated lorry (or: A van and a lorry were in collision) on the M1. ⇨ come into collision (with).

315-be in collusion (with) [A2] (legal) have made a secret agreement, contrary to law, for some purpose □ The solicitor warned his client that he would not obtain a divorce if he was found to be in collusion with his wife (or: *if he and his wife were found to be in collusion).

316-be in contact (with) [A2] have touched or met. S: (electrical) lead, wire; agent, businessman. o: (with) surface, plate; author, customer □ Unless both the leads are in contact with the terminals, the current will not pass through (or: Unless the leads and the terminals are in contact, the current etc). □ I am already in contact with a London agent, who is trying to secure a booking. ⇨ bring/come into contact (with).

317-be in line (with) [A2] follow, conform with, the rules or discipline of an organization. S: member, follower. o: (with) the majority; official doctrine □ After several shifts of position he is now in line with the rest of the party. ⇨ bring/come/fall into line (with).

318-be in touch (with) [A2] contact sb (face-to-face, or by letter etc); communicate (with). o: (with) relation, friend; customer, client □ When were you last in touch with your wife's parents? □ Are you still in touch with the people you knew at college?* □ I think that the next meeting of the Association should be in York. I shall be in touch with my colleagues about this. ⇨ put in touch (with).

319-be (well) in with [A3] (informal) be on familiar terms with (and likely to profit from the connection). o: fashionable set, influential people □ He is in with the bosses. UL □ He's well in with all the theatre and television crowd. ⇨ get in with.

320-be inside [A1] (police slang) be in prison. S: thief, murderer □ 'Is Pearson still inside?' 'No, he was let out early.' ⇨ put inside.

321-be off¹ [A1 A2] have fallen, been thrown from. o: horse, pony; bicycle □ 'Can he manage to stay on? No, he's off!' ⇨ come off¹.

322-be off² [A1 A2] have become detached or separated. S: handle, knob; hook, plug. o: door, wall □ 'Half the buttons are off my shirt — can you sew them on?' ⇨ come off², take off¹.

323-be off³ [A1] (informal) hurry away, leave at once □ He glanced at his watch. 'And by the way, I must be off.' DS □ It's high time we were off. ⇨ get off³, set off (on)¹.

324-be off⁴ [A1] be cancelled, not be going to take place. S: wedding, party, match □ 'There is not going to be any wedding,' I told him. 'It's off.' DIL □ The threatened dock strike is off.

325-be off⁵ [A1] be no longer available (on the menu). S: meat, pudding □ 'Steak pie's off,' said the waitress. ⇨ take off⁸.

326-be off⁶ [A1] be disconnected. S: water, gas, electricity (supplies) □ The gas supply will be off while they repair the mains. ⇨ go off⁷, turn off¹.

327-be off⁷ [A1] (informal) smell or be bad or rotten. S: cheese, beer, milk □ 'This fish you've given me is slightly off.' ⇨ go off⁸.

328-be off⁸ [A2] (informal) lack interest in, lose appetite for. o: politics, golf, music, girls □ I've been off cigarettes ever since I heard of the connection with lung cancer. □ The cat's off his food. ⇨ go off⁴, put off⁵, turn off².

329-be off⁹ [A2] (slang) be mad; be extremely foolish; be out of one's mind (q v). o: △ one's head, rocker, chump, nut □ 'He must be off his nut to throw his money about like that.' ⇨ go off⁸.

330-be off¹⁰ [A1] (horse racing) start. S: △ they; the field, the horses □ 'The horses are under starter's orders. Now they're settling down. And they're off!'

331-be off one's hands [A2] (informal) have taken away from one the expense and responsibility of looking after sb or sth. S: daughter, elderly relative; guest; house, car □ 'I hear Mary's just got engaged. Well, that's the last of the girls off your hands!' □ We're finding it hard to get a buyer for the flat. We'll be relieved when it's off our hands. ⇨ take off sb's hands.

332-be (quick) off the mark [A2] (informal) be quick to grasp sth, seize an opportunity, etc. S: company, shop; manufacturer, inventor, salesman □ Watch out for jealous colleagues: some of them are very quick off the mark. □ Ned was off the mark at once. His pottery seemed to become a vogue overnight. CON

333-be well etc off (for) [A1 A3] (informal) be rich etc; be well etc supplied with sth. m: △ (very, fairly) well, comfortably, badly. o: cash; beer, cigarettes □ My family aren't well off. EHOW □ How are you off for money? TC □ He's pretty well off for food and drink. □ adj forms: well-off, comfortably-off, badly-off.

334-be off (on) [A1 A3] (informal) begin to speak, tiresomely and at length (about sth). o: favourite subject, pet theme, hobbyhorse □ 'Oh dear, he's off again. Isn't there any way of stopping him?' □ She's off on her pet subject, or rather obsession — sex and violence on TV. ⇨ set off (on)².

start off (on)[2].

335- be on[1] [A1] be going to take place. S: match; strike, ban □ The shut-down threatened for this weekend is still on, but union leaders are trying to avert a stoppage.

336- be on[2] [A2] (informal) be paid for by, be charged to. S: drink, lunch, party. o: the house, the management; me □ 'Now drink up and don't worry about expense: the beers are on me!' □ On Armistice Day, drinks were on the house.

337- be on[3] [A1 A2] (racing) be staked or bet on sb or sth. S: money; his shirt; he etc. o: horse, dog; fighter; team □ 'I want five pounds each way on "Golden Lad" in the next race.' 'Right, sir, you're on!' □ My money was on an outsider in the last race, and I couldn't afford to lose. ⇨ put on[8]; put one's shirt on.

338- be on[4] [A1] (cricket) (have begun to) bowl. S: (slow, fast) bowler □ Snow was on for two more overs after lunch; then he was replaced by an off-spinner. ⇨ bring on[4], come on[9], put on[10].

339- be on[5] [A1] be on stage (in a play, opera etc). S: actor; Hamlet; tenor, chorus □ It's a very arduous part: he is on for most of the second act. □ 'Hurry up, Peter, you're on!' (i e you should be on stage.) ⇨ come on[10].

340- be on[6] [A1] be being shown, performed. S: film, play, ballet □ There's a good film on at the Plaza this week. □ 'King Lear' was on at the Playhouse last season. ⇨ come on[11], put on[11].

341- be on[7] [A1] (legal) be being heard, considered (in court). S: ⚠ case, lawsuit, hearing □ 'Your case is on in Courtroom No 3, just along the corridor.' ⇨ come on[12].

342- be on[8] [A1] be alight, be burning. S: light, lamp; (electric/gas) fire, radiator; radio □ 'The light's on in the kitchen. Please turn it off.' □ 'Did you know the television was still on when you came up to bed?' ⇨ go on[16], put on[2], turn on[1].

343- be on the ball [A2] (informal) be alert, wide-awake (to opportunities etc). S: salesman, agent, negotiator □ He's not really on the ball — he lets so many chances slip by.

344- be on one's feet [A2] have stood up; be standing. S: spectator; delegate, councillor; housewife, shop assistant □ As soon as the guest speaker was announced, half the audience was on its feet, clapping and cheering. □ A busy housewife is on her feet for most of the day. ⇨ bring to his feet, come to/get on one's feet.

345- be on one's honour [A2] be trusted to do sth on pain of breaking one's oath. S: child, pupil Inf to behave, not to cheat □ 'Now, don't forget, you're on your honour to be absolutely quiet until Miss Jones gets back.' □ usu followed by the inf. ⇨ put on his honour.

346- be on ice [A2] (informal) be shelved, be deferred (e g until more time or money is available to deal with it). S: idea, plan, project □ The plan for the new book is on ice at the moment. I've been busy with too many other things. ⇨ put on ice.

347- be on the map [A2] (informal) be prominent, be before the public's attention. S: town, village; festival; sport □ Show-jumping as a spectator sport is increasingly on the map — largely because of TV coverage. ⇨ put on the map.

348- not be on [A1] (informal) not be possible or allowed. S: ⚠ it, this, that □ I told the Minister that we could not make proposals within the limits of £600 million — it was simply not on. MFM

349- (the) pressure be on [A2] (of moral, political etc pressure) be firmly applied. o: government, leader; labour leader, employer □ There is mounting pressure on the Government to resign. □ The pressure is now on the unions to reach a settlement. ⇨ put pressure on/upon.

350- to be on the safe side [A2] (informal) in order to be sure (of arriving in time etc); to be safe, secure (from danger) □ She looked at her watch. 'We'd better be going, to be on the safe side,' she said. QA □ He prefers to regard every animal as poisonous, just to be on the safe side. BB □ a non-finite adv clause of purpose.

351- be on the scene [A2] have appeared, become involved in sth. S: police, ambulance; reporter, eye-witness □ The fire brigade were on the scene within minutes of being called. □ Now that he's on the scene we can expect nothing but disharmony. ⇨ come on the scene.

352- be on trial [A2] (legal) be being tried in a court of law. S: accused, prisoner □ 'Let me remind the accused that he is on trial for his life.' ⇨ bring to trial.

353- be on about [A3] (informal) speak with tiresome persistence about. o: illness, money, smart friends; how clever one is □ I don't like the smart people your mother's always on about. □ What is she on about? RT ⇨ go on about.

354- be on one's guard (against) [A2] be wary of sth or sb (often given as a warning) □ 'I should be on my guard if I were you. He's not the sort of man I should trust.' □ Be on your guard against door-to-door salesmen with a smooth line of talk. ⇨ put on his guard.

355- be on at [A3] (informal) nag persistently, try to persuade. o: him etc; husband, boyfriend. Inf to improve, to change □ His wife's forever on at him to do something about the fence. □ I've been on at her to change her hairstyle. □ usu followed by the inf. ⇨ go on (at).

356- be well on in/into [A3] be late, be well advanced (in time); be old, be of advanced years. S: it; he etc. o: (in) the afternoon; years; (into) July; one's sixties □ Although it was well on in the evening, we decided to try our luck at fishing again. BM □ By now, he must be well on into his seventies.

357- be on to[1] [A3] (informal) be talking to, be in touch (with) (q v) (in order to inform or persuade). o: head office, headquarters; allies; aircraft, ships □ 'I've just been on to the accounts people about your expenses, Smith; I think they'll let you have them.' □ I've already been on to the spacecraft, telling it to go much slower. TBC ⇨ get on to[1], put on to[1].

358- be on to[2] [A3] (informal) become aware of (and be following up that knowledge); make contact with (in the course of pursuit). S: customs, tax authorities, police; reporter. o: dodge, fraud, little game; gang; secret hideout □ The CID are on to the men who were responsible for that break-in. □ The Inland Revenue are on to him for a currency deal he thought he'd got away with some years ago. ⇨ get on to[2], put on to[2].

359- be on to a good thing [A3] (informal) find a pleasant or remunerative occupation or style of life □ He's on to a good thing in his new job: high wages, practically no income tax and a rent-free house. ⇨ put on to[3].

360- be on/upon one [A2] have arrived (with the suggestion that the arrival may be sudden and unwelcome). S: dry season, winter, Christmas; election, Budget Day □ The wet season was on us, and on the Adriatic coast it became cold and damp. MFM □ We'd hardly had time to get over a series of birthdays before Christmas was upon us. ⇨ come on/upon one.

361- be out[1] [A1] (industry) have ceased work, be striking. S: workers, clerical staff. A: on strike; in sympathy, in protest against dismissals □ The workers are out after last night's threat to stop overtime. ⇨ bring out[1], come out[1].

362- be out[2] [A1] (informal) be released (from prison). S: prisoner, convict A: of gaol, on parole □ 'Stevens can't have cracked that safe, sergeant; he's not out until next week!' ⇨ come out[2], let out/out of.

363- be out[3] [A1] (informal) (be sure to) be removed, ejected (e g from a club). S: drunk, troublemaker □ 'Any more remarks like that and you're out for good!' □ I knew that if I had too much to drink and started picking fights I'd be out on my ear. ⇨ put out[2].

364- be out[4] [A1] flower, be in bloom. S: rose, almond blossom, bougainvillaea □ If this fine weather keeps up, my hyacinths will be out in a day or two. ⇨ bring out[4], come out[4].

365- be out[5] [A1] be visible (ie not covered by clouds, or not made invisible against bright sky). S: △the sun, moon, stars □ 'The sun's out; now I can get on with some gardening and you can sit out in a deck chair.' ⇨ come out[5].

366- be out[6] [A1] be on sale, be published. S: book, article, report □ A new magazine for the younger, smarter woman is out today. ⇨ bring out[5], come out[6].

367- be out[7] [A1] be disclosed or revealed, leak out (q v). S: △ secret, news □ The secret they'd kept hidden from the press for so long was now out. ⇨ come out[7], get out[1], let out[2].

368- be out[8] [A1] (cricket) be dismissed. S: batsman, side □ Smith was out trying to turn a ball to leg. □ The Indian touring team were all out for 260. ⇨ get out[4], give out[4].

369- be out[9] [A1] (slang) be fast asleep, be unconscious (after an exhausting day or knockout blow). S: boxer, soldier, worker. m: △ right, dead. A: △ for the count, like a light □ ASTON: Sleep well? DAVIES: Yes. Dead out. Must have been dead out. TC □ modifier or adjunct used, not both. ⇨ go out[2], put out[8].

370- be out[10] [A1] be no longer alight, be extinguished. S: fire, stove; candle, lamp, (electric) light □ The lights were all out when we got home from the theatre: Mother must have gone to bed. ⇨ go out[5], put out[10], turn out[1].

371- be out[11] [A1] (informal) be finished, be ended. S: night, week, month, winter □ There'll be changes made in the school before the year's out. □ usu in a dependent clause after before.

372- be out[12] [A1] be inaccurate, be wrong. S: research worker, doctor; figures, forecast. m: (some) way, not far, five minutes, well, miles. A: by a long way, by miles; in one's calculations, when predicting recovery □ Subsequent events show how well out he is in his diagnosis. SC □ His forecast of rapid growth in the public sector of industry was some way out. □ modifier or adjunct used, not both. ⇨ put out[12].

373- be out[13] [A1] (informal) not be permissible (and therefore not be tolerable). S: cheating, kicking, stealing from the poor □ 'Now we'll have a good, hard game, but any hacking or barging from behind is strictly out.'

374- be out[14] [A1] (informal) be no longer the fashion. S: jazz, short hair, long skirts □ That style's been out for some months; you ought to study fashion more closely. ⇨ go out[8]; be/go out of fashion.

375- be out[15] [A1] be announced, be declared. S: (examination) result, mark; class-list □ 'The results of the Bar exams are out—and you're through!' ⇨ come out[13].

376- be out[16] [A1] (of the water level at the seaside) be low, have receded. S: △ the tide, water □ When the tide is out, you can walk across the sand to St Michael's Mount without getting your feet wet. ⇨ go out[7].

377- be out to do sth [A1] (informal) aim, propose. S: government, firm. Inf to make changes, to improve exports, to reduce prices □ Like so many others involved in the case, she was out to make money. T

378- warrant be out [A1] (police) (of a written order to arrest sb) be issued. A: against sb, for the arrest of sb □ Warrants are out for the arrest of two men wanted in connection with the murder.

379- be out (at) [A1 A3] have left home (for an outing etc). o: the pictures, the theatre □ 'Mary's out with her boyfriend.' □ I'm sorry to have missed you. I was out at the pictures when you called. ⇨ come/go/take out (for/to).

380- be out for [A3] (informal) be determined to get; aim to further or serve. S: Government, industry; enemy, crook. o: better housing, good relations; their own ends, anything he can get; your blood □ It is not money alone, but some hard thinking, which the campaign is out for. TES ⇨ go (all) out (for).

381- be out from [A3] have left a port or airfield a stated time before; be a stated distance from. S: ship, boat, plane. m: ten hours, four days; fifty miles. o: London, Lagos, Orly Airport □ Our aircraft was barely half-an-hour out from Newfoundland when it developed engine trouble. □ We were a good sixty miles out from base. □ modifier usu present.

382- be out in [A3] be present in large numbers. S: police, troops, supporters, teenagers. o: △ force, strength, large numbers □ Loyal party men were out in strength at the rally held last night.

383- be out/out of[1] [A1 A2] have left (an enclosed space). S: owner, occupant; (caged) bird, animal; car. o: his etc office, house; town; cage; garage □ 'I'm afraid you can't see the manager today: he's out of town till Monday.' □ His car's out, so he must have left home early. □ 'How long has that parrot been out of its cage?' ⇨ bring out/out of, come out/out of[1], get out/out of[1], take out/out of[1].

384- be out/out of[2] [A1 A2] have left the place where it was fixed. S: nail, screw; thorn; teeth; cork, stopper. o: plaster, wood; flesh; gum; bottle □ 'Well, the splinter's out of your finger, now, so you can run along and have some iodine put on it.' □ We spent half a morning pulling carpet tacks out of the floor, so I think most of them are out now. ⇨ come out/out of[2], get out/out of[2], take out/out of[2].

385- be out/out of[3] [A1 A2] have disappeared, been removed (with cleaning). S: mark, stain; colour, dye. o: jacket; carpet □ 'Well, the mark's out, but it certainly needed a lot of rubbing.' ⇨ come out/out of[3].

386- be out of[1] [A2] be without (work), be unemployed. S: shipyard workers, half the town. o: △ work, a job, employment □ Nor did he give any reason why he himself came to be out of a job. HD

387- be out of[2] [A2] be too far away (to hear, or be seen or be reached). o: △ earshot, sight, view, range □ The French coast is out of sight from here but at Dover it's clearly in view. □ The enemy positions were out of range to all but our heaviest guns. ⇨ go out of sight/view.

388- be out of[3] [A2] (informal) have finished, exhausted, one's supply of. o: ideas, patience; breath; spare parts, soap, petrol, tea □ 'That was a stiff climb; I'm quite out of breath.' □ 'We're out of cigarettes; I'll go to the corner shop for some more.' ⇨ run out[1], run out/out of.

389- be out of[4] [A2] be inappropriate, be unsuited to the occasion. S: remark, interruption, behaviour. o: △ place, keeping with the occasion □ His dress and manner were out of keeping with the solemnity of the occasion. □ Father believed that children's conversation was out of place at the meal table.

390- be out of action [A2] (military) be no longer able to operate or function (esp because of enemy action). S: ship, tank; gun; radar □ 'Number 2 turret is out of action, Sir.' □ Because of accurate anti-aircraft fire, three of the raiders were already out of action. ⇨ go/put out of action.

391- be out of the blue [A2] (informal) have appeared, been uttered, suddenly, unexpectedly. S: arrival, appearance; statement, comment, remark; find, discovery □ His arrival was all the more pleasant for being completely out of the blue. □ The coins were lost for years, then they turned up one day, quite out of the blue. ⇨ come out of the blue.

392- be out of one's depth [A2] (informal) be in company where the discussion, knowledge of the others etc is strange and difficult to understand □ I was drinking with a group of car enthusiasts, and for much of the time was completely out of my depth. □ She's always out of her depth in intellectual circles. ⇨ get out of one's depth.

393- be out of fashion [A2] be no longer fashionable. ⇨ be out[14], go out[8]; go out of fashion.

394- be out of focus [A2] (of sth seen through a microscope etc) not be sharp and clear; (fig) not be clearly intelligible. S: slide; specimen; microbe; question, facts □ The image is blurred; the slide is a little out of focus. □ 'For me, the story is still a bit out of focus. Could you be more explicit?' ⇨ go out of focus.

395- be out of hand [A2] be uncontrolled, become uncontrollable. S: wages, prices; child, pupil □ The situation appears to be completely out of hand. □ 'And have you seen their children? They're quite out of hand.' ⇨ get out of hand.

396- be out of line [A2] not behave in a normal or acceptable way. S: remark, comment, criticism □ I must say I thought your behaviour at the meeting was a bit out of line. □ I felt you were out of line in suggesting that we expected to do a lot of business with them.

397- be out of one's mind [A2] be mad; be extremely foolish □ Some of the generals disregarded this latest order, which could only have come from a man who was already out of his mind. □ 'You must be out of your tiny minds if you think I would do anything of the sort!' ⇨ go out of one's mind.

398- be out of order[1] [A2] not be functioning properly S: system; stomach, bowels; telephone, lavatory □ There's no point in ringing the bell. There's a notice saying it's out of order. □ The lift's out of order. Please use the stairs.

399- be out of order[2] [A2] (legal, official) not be allowable by a court of law as a proper statement etc; be considered improper according to the rules of debate laid down for meetings. S: remark, comment, interruption; statement, question □ The judge ruled that the prosecution was out of order in introducing details of the accused's private life. □ 'You are out of order, Sir,' shouted the Chairman above the din. 'Kindly sit down.'

400- be out of play [A2] (sport) (of the ball in football etc) have crossed the line marking the edge of the playing area □ The linesman raised his flag to signal that the ball was out of play. ⇨ go out of play.

401- be out of season [A2] not be available fresh (because they are not now being caught etc). S: salmon; grouse; peaches □ There aren't any fresh strawberries: they're just out of season.

402- be out of service [A2] have ceased to be used. S: bus, train, aircraft □ Most of the steam locomotives which once drew trains on this line are now out of service. ⇨ go out of service.

403- be well out of it/that [A2] (informal) be lucky to avoid being involved in sth □ 'So you didn't take up that job abroad after all? Well, I think we can say you're well out of it.' □ 'Not married yet? You're well out of that!'

404- (be) out with it [A3] say what you want to say; say what is on your mind □ 'What's the matter boy? What? Come on, now. Out with it! What's the matter — can't you tell me?' FFE □ Reassured by her confusion, and really curious to know, Harold leaned back and said: 'Well, out with it.' PW □ imper form only.

405- be outside [A2] not be sth which one is able to handle, understand etc. S: subject, topic, matter. o: (one's) province, competence; field, area (of interest); brief □ I can't give you a decision on anything to do with housing. That's quite outside my competence. □ Have a word with my colleague about that text; Old English is a bit outside my field. ⇨ fall outside, stand outside.

406- be over[1] [A1] be ended, be finished. S: party, waiting, illness, winter □ That was the last window he was going to do that morning. And as it was Saturday, that meant that work was over for the weekend. HD ⇨ be over and done with, get over (and done with).

407- be over[2] [A1] remain, be left. S: meat, flour; sand, bricks □ A small piece of flannel was over when the tailor had finished cutting out my suit. □ If there's any cement over when you've finished, you might keep it for me. ⇨ leave over[1].

408- be over[3] [A2] spend a long time doing (sth). A: △ (too) long, a long time, ages. o: lunch, breakfast, coffee □ 'Don't be long over breakfast; I want to get started as soon as possible.' □ 'How long will they be over their tea-break?' ⇨ take (over).

409- be over[4] [A1] (informal) come, have come, to visit sb (usu by travelling some distance). S: friend, relative, husband □ 'Will you be over on Saturday?' 'No, I can't manage it this weekend.' □ I wasn't in Leeds last week. I was over with my parents in Liverpool. ⇨ bring over, come over[1].

410- be all over[1] [A2] (informal) be spread or passed from one person to another. S: news, scandal, rumour, report. o: office, factory, camp □ 'Haven't you heard about Peter and that new girl from the typing pool? It's all over the office!'

411- be all over[2] [A2] (informal) greet effusively (with the suggestion that the effusiveness is rather unwelcome). S: dog; hostess, welcoming party □ I'd hardly set foot inside the door when that great labrador of theirs was all over me.

412- be all over[3] [A2] (informal) dominate completely (at sport). S: team, players; visitors, tourists □ The visiting team were all over us for the first ten minutes of play.

413- be all over the place [A2] (informal) be very untidy, be in a disorderly state; be scattered here and there; be badly controlled. S: calculations, accounts; clothes, books, toys; service (at tennis), putting (at golf) □ Her hair was all over the place*; you would think she'd not combed it for a week.* □ Not a very good first over. His bowling was all over the place*!*

414- be over and done with [A1] (informal) be completely ended, or forgotten (not likely to recur or be remembered). S: ⚠ that, it, everything □ Their quarrels and misunderstandings were all over and done with*: nothing could disturb their friendship now.* □ That was a former life, over and done with*, something he had forgotten about.* HD ⇨ be over[1], get over (and done with).

be past caring [A2] ⇨ be beyond/past caring.

be past (one's) endurance [A2] ⇨ be beyond/past (one's) endurance.

417- be past it [A2] (informal) lack the skill or vigour (esp sexual) that one once had □ 'He was a tremendous one for the girls as a young fellow, but he's a bit past it now, isn't he?' □ John used to be very good at making these fine drawings, but I suppose, with his eyesight going, that he's past it now.

be round (at) [A1 A3] ⇨ be around/round (at).

419- be through [A1] (informal) reach the end of a relationship. S: couple, boy and girl □ 'I won't put up with any more broken promises from him: we're through*.'*

420- be through the mill [A2] (informal) have received, as training, hard practical experience. S: son; manager, officer □ The boss never believed in sending his sons to university. He'd been through the mill himself, and he thought it was the best possible training for management. ⇨ go/put through the mill.

421- be through (to) [A1 A3] be put in contact by telephone (with). o: New York, one's home, the police □ After a few minutes' wait in the call-box, I was through*.* □ 'You're through to London, sir!' ⇨ get through (to)[2], put through (to).

422- be through with [A3] (informal) be tired of, dissatisfied with (and therefore determined to abandon) sb or sth. o: husband, boyfriend; lies, deceit; smoking, gambling □ 'I'm through with hanging about all day, waiting for him to appear.' □ She was through with trying to pretend that she loved him.

423- be to the fore [A2] be prominent, noticeable. S: speaker; delegate, deputy □ If an argument develops, depend on it that he will be to the fore*.* □ A scramble for seats took place, with John well to the fore*.* □ be omitted after with. ⇨ bring/come to the fore.

424- be under control [A2] have been tamed, mastered. S: fire; epidemic; riot, disturbance □ The fire which threatened part of the business district this morning is now firmly under control*.* □ Teachers sometimes complain that their pupils are not properly under their parents' control*.* ⇨ bring/get under control.

425- be up[1] [A1] have risen or increased (in price). S: tax, tariff; beer, petrol. A: (by) ten pence, five pounds □ Cigarettes and whisky are up as a result of the last budget. □ Share dividends were £86 million up on the year. SC ⇨ go up[2], put up[4], send up[1].

426- be up[2] [A1] have travelled to, be in, an important town (e g London); be in residence, be a student (esp at Oxford or Cambridge). S: don, undergraduate □ 'Is the family still up in Edinburgh?' 'No, they came back a couple of days ago.' □ My son will be up at Cambridge for the next few years. ⇨ come up[2], go up (to).

427- be up[3] [A1] have finished or expired, have come to an end. S: time, leave, three weeks, term of office, period of tenure □ His time was up*: he'd have to hand over to a younger man.* □ My annual leave was up*.*

428- be up[4] [A1] remain out of bed. A: till all hours, all night □ She was up half the night with a sick child. □ They were up until well into the small hours counting the votes. ⇨ keep up[8], stay up[2].

429- be up[5] [A1] rise, get out of bed. A: late, at crack of dawn, early □ He's always up with the lark. BFA ⇨ get up[1].

430- be up[6] [A1] arise, be raised, be considered. S: subject, matter, question. A: for debate; during the discussion □ The housing policy of the Council is up for debate at the next meeting. □ Salaries are up for review at the next session of the teachers' panel. ⇨ bring up[3], come up[4].

431- be up[7] [A1] (legal) be considered (by a court); be on trial (q v). S: case; accused. A: before the court, judge; for petty larceny, on an embezzlement charge □ Two students were up in court for knocking off a policeman's helmet on Guy Fawkes' night. ⇨ bring up[4], come up[5].

432- one's blood be up [A1] (informal) (of temper) be fully aroused □ His tormentors had piled insult upon insult till now his blood was really up*.* ⇨ get sb's blood up.

433- the game be up [A1] (informal) (of a pursuit, search) be ended successfully (with the suggestion that the search has been long and the quarry elusive). A: for the escaped convict, for the enemy leaders □ And now his pursuers had caught up with him; for him, at any rate, the game was up*.*

434- (one's) hand be up [A1] be raised to attract attention etc □ 'Why is your hand up*, Jenkins? I said that nobody was to be allowed to leave the* room.' ⇨ put (one's) hand up.

435- be hard up [A1] (informal) be poor, be short of money. S: country, Exchequer; farmer □ Our nation is very hard up and we cannot afford the waste which comes from adding together the demands of three services. MFM □ His father was a hard-up teacher. □ adj form is hard-up.

436- something be up [A1] (informal) be about to happen, be impending, be in the air □ Something was up all right. The hotel bars were seething with rumours of big changes ahead.

437- the sun be up [A1] have risen □ He's out working in the fields before the sun's up. □ nom form is sun-up. ⇨ the sun come up.

438- be up and about [A1] (informal) be feeling better and able to get up. S: patient, invalid □ Now don't you worry about your husband, Mrs Davis. He'll be up and about again in a few days.

439- be up against [A3] be opposed by, be confronted by. O: (real) problem, difficulty; opponent, competitor □ This meeting should do John some good — he's up against some real opposition at least. ⇨ bring/come up against.

440- be up against it [A3] (informal) be faced with special difficulties or hardships □ After the fall of France, Britain was really up against it.

441- be up (as far as/to) [A1 A3] have reached, stretched, extended (to). S: sea, tide; fog, gas; climber, procession. O: sea-wall, house; ceiling, roof; summit □ The water was up as far as my shoulders. □ The sunflowers are up to the top of the kitchen window. ⇨ bring/come up (as far as/to).

442- be up for [A3] be a candidate, applicant, for a post etc. O: re-election, admission, membership □ I believe he's up for re-admission to the society at the next committee meeting. ⇨ come up for, put up (for)[1].

443- be up for auction/sale [A3] be available or offered for purchase, be on the market. S: house; furniture, painting, silver □ A rare collection of Chinese porcelain will be up for sale next week. ⇨ come/put up for auction/sale.

444- be up in arms [A3] (informal) declare opposition or disapproval, protest □ Kay was up in arms at once: her round, unmade-up face shone with high-minded intellectual disapproval. ASA

445- be up in the clouds [A3] (informal) be out of touch with reality. S: thinking, ideas, all this. m: rather, somewhat, a bit □ Of course, he's a bit up in the clouds. All this conservatism in religion makes him think we can put the clock back in everything. ASA

446- be well up in [A3] (informal) be very knowledgeable about, be well versed in. O: science, languages, foreign affairs, literature □ Not very well up in the law, are you? Otherwise you'd know that it isn't possible to get divorced until you've been married three years. TC be up (to) [A1 A3] have reached. ⇨ be up (as far as/to).

448- be up to[1] [A3] (informal) be doing, be engaged in (with the suggestion that the activity is mischievous or reprehensible). O: △ mischief, something, no good; his tricks, pranks; what □ A very strange fellow your friend Libby Dobson. What's he been up to all day? UTN □ I felt sure he was up to no good when I saw him hanging about the back door. ⇨ get up to[2], put up to[2].

449- be up to[2] [A3] (informal) be well aware of sb's dishonest tricks (and be capable of handling them). S: police, officials. O: △ all his fiddles, dodges, tricks □ But, surely, all that's taken care of by the customs authorities and the dock police? They must be up to all the dodges. HD

450- be up to[3] [A3] (informal) be sb's responsibility; rest with (q v). S: (it…) to help, whether to go, how to do it □ It's up to you to find out who will lend you the money. HD □ Whether you learn or not is entirely up to you. ⇨ leave up to.

451- be up to[4] [A3] (informal) be deep in, be overwhelmed by. O: △ here; his etc ears, eyes, neck. A: △ in debt, work □ He's up to his eyes in card debts. US □ I was up to my ears in paper-work.

452- be up to[5] [A3] (informal) be of an acceptable standard. S: work, performance, appearance. O: △ standard, scratch, the mark; expectations; not… much □ She had a boy who might or might not be her fiancé. He wasn't up to much, but he was her young man. PW □ It's such nonsense about his household not being up to scratch. UTN □ often neg. ⇨ bring/come up to, get up to[1].

453- be up to date/the minute [A3] be fresh or recent or modern; reflect current fashion. S: ideas, thought; house, car. m: right, bang, really □ Her clothes were bang up to date. TGLY □ His reports from Africa are really up to the minute. □ adj forms are up-to-date and up-to-the-minute. ⇨ bring up to date, get up to date (with).

454- (not) be up to [A3] (informal) (not) be capable of doing, (not) be equal to. O: task, work, responsibility □ I'm afraid he's not up to the job of President. □ None of us were up to going to town in that storm. ⇨ feel up to, put up to[1].

455- be up (with) [A1 A3] (informal) be amiss or wrong, be the matter. S: △ something, what. O: him etc □ I knew something was up as soon as I saw the miserable look in his eyes. □ 'What's up with you, now?'

be upon one [A2] ⇨ be on/upon one.

457- be with[1] [A2] be employed by. O: company, corporation; ICI, Shell □ 'What have you been doing since you qualified?' 'I was in insurance for a bit, but now I'm with a shipping firm.'

458- be with[2] [A2] (informal) follow, understand, what sb is saying. S: audience, class □ 'Did you follow that bit all right? Are you still with me — or shall I go over it again?'

459- be with[3] [A2] (informal) support, back up[1] (q v). A: all the way, to the (bitter) end □ If you do decide to oppose him, then we're with you all the way!

460- be within[1] [A2] be near enough (to be heard, seen or reached). O: △ earshot, sight, view, range □ If we move forward we shall be within range of the enemy guns. ⇨ bring/come/get within.

461- be within[2] [A2] be sth which one is able to discuss or handle knowledgeably. S: subject, topic, matter. O: (one's) competence, province; field, area (of interest); scope of the inquiry □ Perhaps this is something which another body should consider. It is not within the terms of reference of this committee. ⇨ fall within.

462- be within one's grasp [A2] be close enough to be attained soon. S: victory, success □ With the junction of the allied armies, the overthrow of the enemy power was now within our grasp.

463-be within one's rights (to do sth) [A2] have legal or moral support for sth one wishes to do. S: citizen, consumer, parent. Inf to protest, to take the goods back, to remove one's child □ You're perfectly within your rights to demand a choice of schools for the child. □ If you aren't satisfied with the service you're getting, you're quite within your rights to cancel the arrangement.

464-bear down [B1i pass] (formal) overcome, conquer. S: forces, strength. O: enemy, opposition □ Eventually, after much dogged fighting, our troops bore down all resistance.

465-bear down on/upon [A3 pass] move swiftly and threateningly towards. S: ship, tank, horse; society hostess. o: victim; guest □ The bird was bearing down upon us at a speed of twenty miles an hour. DF □ As he got to the doorway, Rose Lorimer bore down on him with Clarissa Crane in tow. ASA

466-bear in mind [B2 pass] remain aware, conscious, of; keep in mind (q v). O: fact, truth; statement, admission; that he was not present □ He urged MPs to bear in mind the serious offences committed nowadays by young persons. T □ Three factors must be borne in mind. T □ Please bear in mind that we don't know any Mr Hawthorne. OMIH

467-bear on/upon [A2] affect, relate to. S: action, remark, factor. o: matter at issue, question; what is at stake □ These were vital decisions that bore upon the happiness of everybody. □ How does his story bear on what they are investigating?

468-bear hard/severely on/upon [A2 emph rel] (formal) cause sb hardship or suffering. S: shortage, rationing; unemployment, short-time working; drought, flooding. o: townspeople; worker; farmer □ The latest price increases bear most severely on people with fixed incomes. □ It is upon the small farmer that the changes will bear hardest.

469-bear out [B1i pass] support, confirm. S: evidence, facts, events; he etc. O: theory, supposition, hypothesis; him etc □ Indeed, the facts bear out the hypothesis. SNP □ This expectation is not borne out. MFF

470-bear a resemblance to [B2 emph rel] be like, resemble. adj: some, a good deal of; no, (not) any/much, little, small; startling, uncanny. o: (one's) father, brother □ Tennessee Williams' own character bears no resemblance to the people depicted in his plays. TO □ The French uniforms bore a superficial resemblance to those of Chinese regulars. BM

471-bear witness to [B2 emph rel] (formal) provide evidence of, testify (to) (q v). S: garden, house, countryside. adj: eloquent, mute. o: work, efforts, skill □ The village bore silent witness to the passage of the cyclone.

472-bear up [A1] manage, cope; remain strong in face of hard conditions. S: patient, soldier; plant □ How do they bear up against distress and shock? AH

473-bear with [A2 pass] tolerate, put up with (q v); listen patiently to. o: him etc; mood, temper □ She neither liked nor trusted Jack Corelli, but she bore with him when he came to the flat with his violent opinions and his bombastic talk. AITC □ If you will all bear with me for just a few minutes, I will explain. AITC

474-beat about the bush [A2] (informal) go around a subject instead of coming directly to the point □ 'If you've got bad news, don't beat about the bush: come straight to the point.' □ 'It's no use beating about the bush, Wormold, you are in trouble.' OMIH beat one's head against a brick wall [B2] ⇨ bang one's head against a brick wall.

476-beat down [B1i pass] make sb reduce the price he first asked. O: price, figure; him etc □ He wanted eight hundred pounds for his car, but I managed to beat him down to six hundred.

477-beat down (on) [A1 A3 rel] shine with intense heat (on). S: ⚠ the sun, sun's rays □ The sun beat down on our necks and backs.

478-beat off [B1i pass] repulse, throw back³ (q v). S: defender, soldier. O: attack; attacker, enemy □ All their attempts to break into our position were beaten off. □ This policy is to provide a guard capable of beating off an attack, a guard that is armed, with firearms in reserve. MFM

479-beat out [B1i pass] remove by striking with a hammer etc. S: mechanic, panel-beater. O: dent, mark □ The dent on the wing of your car can be beaten out at the garage.

480-beat one's brains out [B1ii] (informal) struggle with a frustratingly long and difficult task □ Here am I beating my brains out on the accounts, and what thanks do I get? □ 'How much longer are you going to beat your brains out over that letter? You're not writing a novel, you know.'

481-beat one's/sb's brains out [B1ii pass] (informal) kill oneself, or sb, by being beaten, or beating him, severely about the head (though not necessarily by knocking out the brains) □ There would be nothing to stop me from plunging down the well of the staircase and beating my brains out on the stone floor at the bottom. CON

482-beat out (on) [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] produce or play by drumming. S: drummer, musician. O: tune, rhythm; message. o: drum; desk, table □ A small boy was beating out a tune on a tin can.

483-beat to it [B2 pass] (informal) get somewhere, reach an objective, before sb else. O: opponent, rival □ They had hoped to put their model on the market within the year, but a rival company beat them to it.

484-beat to his knees [B2 pass] force sb to submit, humble him. S: circumstances, environment; strain, competition □ The stresses of business had beaten him to his knees in middle life.

485-beat up [B1i pass adj] beat severely with fists, sticks etc. S: gang, thieves. O: guard, messenger, shopkeeper □ The bank manager received a severe beating-up in last night's raid. □ Next year another three Britons were arrested for beating up a taxi-driver. TO □ nom form is beating-up.

486-become of [A2] happen to, befall. S: ⚠ what, whatever. o: him etc; sister, wife; pet; property □ Whatever became of that house they used as a weekend cottage? □ I don't know what will become of her now her husband has died. □ occurs only in direct or indirect questions.

487-bed down¹ [A1 B1i pass] get, put, into a makeshift bed, e g of straw or sacks, in (usu) temporary quarters. S: [A1] O: [B1] scouts, hikers, soldiers □ We settled round the fire, making quite sure that before we bedded down for the night there was an ample supply of wood at hand. BM □ The troops were bedded down in a barn.

488- bed down² [B1i pass] provide with straw as bedding. S: groom, farmer. O: horse, cattle □ The horses were watered, fed, and bedded down with clean straw.

489- bed in [B1i pass adj] (military) lodge firmly in position in the ground in preparation for firing. S: gun crew. O: mortar, gun □ After a few ranging shots, the guns were firmly bedded in and could begin accurate firing.

490- bed out [B1i pass adj] (horticulture) transfer partly-grown plants from a greenhouse etc to beds in a garden. S: gardener, grower □ This is the right weather for bedding out your tomatoes. □ 'There'd better be no frost till I've got my stuff (i e plants) bedded out*.'* TT

491- bed with [A2] (informal) have casual sexual intercourse with; sleep together/with (q v) □ There aren't many girls in the office that he hasn't bedded with at some time or another. □ 'Yes, I'm keen on him, but I haven't bedded with him, if that's what you're trying to suggest.'

492- beetle off [A1] (informal) hurry, scurry, away □ We all supposed you had beetled off to Africa as you always threatened. □ 'Now, why don't you children beetle off into the garden and play?'

493- beg off [A1 B1i pass] ask to be excused from attending a function or giving help; have someone excused or released □ He promised to arrive early and lend a hand, but at the last moment he begged off*.* □ Those boys were to have been in detention last night, but the games captain begged them off to do nets practice.

494- to begin with¹ [A2] at the beginning, initially; to start with¹ (q v) □ To begin with*, we had very little support, but later on people began to rally to us.* □ They had few essential supplies to begin with*, so they had to improvise.* □ to begin with is an adv phrase with no object; it may occur at the beginning or end of the sentence.

495- to begin with² [A2] in the first place, first and foremost; to start with² (q v) □ To begin with*, you must realize I have very little money.* □ to begin with is an adv phrase with no object; it usu occurs at the beginning of the sentence.

496- believe in¹ [A2] have confidence in, trust in (q v). o: adviser, friend; honesty, goodness □ You can believe in him; he'll never let you down. □ Until now, I had always believed firmly in his good intentions.

497- believe in² [A2] feel sure of the existence of. o: God; ghosts, fairies; an afterlife □ Prissie gave an excited laugh. 'Oh! One doesn't really believe in ghosts, does one?' DC □ She was very pretty and so extraordinarily alive. She could almost make one believe in her world of fantasy. DC

498- believe in³ [A2] favour, support the idea of. o: not... giving too much freedom, taxing old people; boarding schools, penalties for motorists □ She doesn't believe in staying at home when her parents go to a party. W1 □ He believes very strongly in female emancipation.

499- believe of [B2 pass rel] believe that sb is capable of a particular (kind of) action. O: anything malicious, nasty, underhand; it, that □ You say he's going to be a father again at forty-five? I wouldn't have believed it of him. □ After all the changes of policy we've had recently I'd believe absolutely anything of that man. □ with would; often neg.

500- bent on [pass (B2)] (have) one's mind set on, (be) determined to. o: success, mischief; making trouble, getting on □ He declined on the grounds that he was bent on an early start the next day. OBS □ These men are bent on undermining the power of union officials. SC

501- bind over, (to keep the peace) [B1i pass] (legal) give warning to the accused that he will appear in court if he fails to keep the peace etc. S: judge, magistrate. O: accused, prisoner □ When his record had been considered, the accused was bound over for six months.

502- bitch up [B1i pass] (slang) spoil, undo, sb's good work (usu through spiteful gossip). O: it, the whole thing; my arrangements □ We had brought them together after their quarrel; then he had to come in and bitch the whole thing up*.*

503- bite back [B1i pass] quickly restrain oneself from saying sth embarrassing, confidential etc. O: remark; oath, exclamation; admission □ He was about to say, 'But I know I've passed; my tutor's told me,' but he bit back the remark, remembering where he was. □ John nearly launched into one of his attacks on the Church, but it struck him that Marcelle's family were Catholics and he bit the offending words back*.*

504- bite sb's head off [B1ii pass] (informal) show ill temper towards sb (often without good reason); snap sb's head off (q v) □ I must keep out of his way. I don't like having my head bitten off at the slightest provocation. □ It looks like I was on the right track that night, when you bit my head off in the Conservative Club. CON

505- bite off more than one can chew [B1iii] (informal) attempt too much, undertake more than one can manage. S: manager, administrator □ 'You've bitten off more than you can chew*,' said my brother, when he saw the trouble I was having with my new business.*

506- black out¹ [A1 nom] suffer temporary loss of consciousness or memory (esp during flight or after a severe blow). S: pilot, boxer □ The pilot suffered a complete blackout when his aircraft broke the sound barrier. □ I had a fight with the Old Man, and after it I blacked out*.* LLDR

507- black out² [B1i nom pass adj] make invisible from the air at night by covering windows, lights etc. S: householder, shopkeeper. O: house, factory; window, car headlights □ During the war, we had to make sure windows were carefully blacked out at night. □ Wolverhampton was the first town in Britain to impose a nightly blackout*.* TBC □ nom form (in current usage blackout — without a hyphen) refers both to the covering which blacks out windows etc and to the appearance of blacked-out streets etc.

508- black out³ [B1i nom pass adj] bring television transmission to a halt by strike action. S: technician; union. O: programme; speaker, performer □ Within seconds of going on the air, London Weekend Television was blacked out*.* G □ The possibility of further screen blackouts by television technicians was not ruled out. G

509- black out⁴ [B1i nom pass] not allow news etc to be released, suppress it. S: government, army, news agency. O: news, information □ There was a complete black-out on information. T □ Their first decision was to draw a black-out over today's discussions. G □ usu nom (in current usage blackout — without a hyphen).

510- blame (for) [B2 pass emph rel] attach to sb or sth the responsibility for sth (usu to escape blame oneself). O: partner, ally; staff; conditions, climate. o: failure, setback, disgrace; (poor) sales □ The poor health of key players can fairly be blamed for the disastrous opening to the season. ⇨ next entry.

511- blame on [B2 pass emph rel] fix, place, the responsibility for sth on sb or sth. O: disaster, setback; loss, disappearance. o: ally, colleague; youth, inexperience; time (of year), weather □ It's not much use blaming our defeat on the weather! □ He was looking round for someone on whom to blame his own mishandling of things. ⇨ previous entry.

512- blast off [A1 nom B1i pass] (space technology) (of a rocket-propelled space vehicle) be launched, launch. S: [A1] O: [B1] spacecraft; missile, rocket □ The Apollo spacecraft will blast off at ten a m local time (cf Blast-off for the Apollo spacecraft will be etc). □ It's difficult to imagine the sensations of these three men being blasted off into space.

513- blaze away [A1 B1i pass] (informal) fire at a rapid rate [A1]; exhaust one's ammunition [B1]. S: rifleman, gunner. O: cartridge, shell □ The boys blazed away with their airguns until the tin can was full of holes.

514- bleed to death [A2] die through loss of blood □ A vein in his neck was severed and he bled to death among the wild lavender. ASA

515- blend in (with) [A1 A3 emph rel B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] mix harmoniously (with), not (cause to) clash or jar (with). S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] building, development; design, pattern; colour. o: background, surroundings, setting □ [A1] 'That purple doesn't blend in too well, does it?' □ [A3] The curtains blend in perfectly with the carpet. □ [B1] Various herbs are blended in to make a good soup. □ [B3] There has been no attempt to blend in the new office blocks with their Victorian surroundings.'

516- blink away/back (one's) tears [B1i] try to control or hide one's tears (by blinking) □ Her voice rose higher and higher. She blinked away the tears. THH □ Brigit smiled, and blinked back tears. DC

517- block in [B1i pass adj] fill sth so that it is a solid block. O: outline, drawing; fireplace; window, door □ The previous owner blocked in most of the open fireplaces when central heating was installed.

518- block off [B1i pass adj] separate one place from another by using a solid barrier etc. O: street, alley; pipe; trench □ Police have blocked off all side-streets giving access to the main procession route. □ A landslide has blocked off traffic moving south towards the motorway.

519- block out [B1i pass adj] (photography; printing) mask part of a negative, when printing or enlarging, so that light does not pass through it; cover part of a stencil etc so that paint does not pass through it. O: negative; silk screen, stencil □ Block out this unimportant detail at the top of your picture.

520- blossom out [A1] mature, reach a developed or mature state. S: girl, pupil, athlete □ I see my daughter is blossoming out. I see my Josephine is branching out on her own and breaking new ground. THH

521- blot out [B1i pass] form a barrier between a person and an object, making the latter invisible, or difficult to recall to mind. S: cloud, smoke; confusion. O: sun, stars; scene; past memories □ The summer night was blotted out by a driving rainstorm. SD □ But his image kept blotting out the pages: she couldn't think of him without seeing him. PW

522- blow the cobwebs away [B1i pass] (informal) make the mind and spirits active and lively again. S: conversation; companionship; exercise, fresh air □ You've been cooped up in that study far too long. What you need to blow the cobwebs away is a couple of weeks in the open air.

523- blow down [A1 B1i pass] be knocked, knock, to the ground. S: [A1] O: [B1] tree; fence, gate; chimney, slate, tile. S: [B1] (strong) wind, gale □ A flowering tree blew down and some small shrubs were flattened. □ The gale raged all night and blew down a TV aerial from the roof.

524- blow in/into [A1 emph A2 emph] (informal) arrive, come in (esp in a lively or noisy way). S: politician, film-star, boss. o: town, New York; office □ The Adjutant General blew into my office. MFM □ John blew in for a chat on his way home.

525- blow off steam [B1iii] (informal) release pent-up energy, tension etc (e g in drinking, dancing, argument) □ Dancing started on New Year's Day. This is a traditional time to blow off steam. OBS ⇨ let off steam.

526- blow out[1] [A1 B1i pass] be extinguished, go out[6] (q v); extinguish, put out[10] (q v) (with a puff of air, draught etc). S: [A1] O: [B1] light; candle, lamp. S: [B1] be etc; wind □ Someone opened the door and the lamp blew out. □ *'*Blow the candles out before you come to bed.'

527- blow out[2] [A1 nom] (oil industry) (of petroleum vapour escaping from a well) emerge suddenly and violently at the surface. S: gas, vapour; well, drilling □ Gas came up the outside of the bore pipe and blew out, as we say in the oil industry. ITV □ We have to launch a massive operation to repair the blowout. ITV

528- blowout[1] [nom (A1)] bursting of a tyre on a motor vehicle □ Coming over those rough mountain roads you have to be prepared for a few blowouts.

529- blowout[2] [nom (A1)] (slang) a feast, a good feed □ Even when times were bad, there was always enough money for a good blowout at Christmas, or whenever someone got married.

530- blow one's brains out [B1ii] kill oneself by shooting in the head □ When finally his wife left him, Peter thought there was nothing left for him to do but blow his brains out.

531- blow itself out [B1ii] exhaust itself, dwindle to nothing. S: storm, wind, hurricane □ The gale had not quite blown itself out. Even now a hard breeze whipped at the flowers. US

532- blow over [A1] (informal) cease to excite feeling, no longer be thought important; die down (q v). S: scandal, controversy, trouble, business, affair □ 'You've really put the cat among the pigeons. But I shouldn't worry: the whole thing will have blown over in a few days.'

533- blow to[1] [B2 pass] shatter to small pieces by explosion. S: (explosive) charge; dynamite, guncotton. O: bridge, factory; dug-out, pillbox. o: △ pieces, smithereens, atoms □ The tanks were blown to pieces by high explosive. ⇨ blow up[4].

534- blow to[2] [B2 pass] kill sb by explosion. S: bomb, booby-trap. O: soldier, policeman. o: △ blazes, glory, kingdom come □ We were nearly blown to glory by the same flying-bomb. AH

535- blow up[1] [A1] (informal) lose one's temper. S: associate, partner; wife, parent. A: over his decision, at him □ I blew right up, saying that I disagreed completely with the conclusion of the report. MFM □ 'I'm sorry I blew up at you this morning.'

536- blow up[2] [B1i pass] (informal) lose one's temper with, reprimand severely. S: employer, parent. O: worker, child □ That new teacher blew me up for not raising my cap to him in the street. □ I got quite a blowing-up for being late for practice. □ nom form is blowing-up.

537- blow up[3] [A1] arise, work towards a crescendo or crisis. S: storm, gale; political storm, crisis □ It was one of those silly family rows that blow up over nothing and leave everyone shaking with rage. CON

538- blow up[4] [A1 B1i pass adj] (cause to) explode or smash to pieces. S: [A1] O: [B1] bomb, mine, shell; house, factory. S: [B1] enemy; raider, aircraft □ The bomb blew up with an ear-splitting crash. □ Our other house was blown up by enemy action. EHOW □ We passed the wreckage of blown-up bridges.

539- blow up[5] [B1i pass adj] inflate, pump air or gas into; pump up[2] (q v). S: mechanic. O: tyre, rubber raft, balloon □ I've got a flat tyre; I'll have to find a garage and get it mended and blown up.

540- blow up[6] [B1i nom pass adj] (photography) make bigger, enlarge. O: △ negative, photograph, picture, snap □ 'Those photographs look promising. Why not get an expert to blow them up a bit bigger?' □ His study walls were covered with blown-up pictures of sailing-ships. □ In this blow-up of the negative, you can read the date on the newspaper that Wilson's carrying.

541- blow up[7] [B1i pass adj] (informal) inflate, exaggerate. S: press, critics. O: reputation, achievements; story, affair □ His abilities as an actor have been greatly blown up by the weekend press; in fact, they are quite modest. □ It didn't really happen like that: the incident's been blown up out of all proportion.

542- bluff it out [B1ii] survive a situation (e g in which one is pretending to be sb else) by deceit □ When he was caught in the bank strong-room after hours, the cashier could tell the truth, and risk imprisonment, or try to bluff it out.

543- bluff one's way out/out of [B1ii B2] escape from a difficult situation by pretence, by deceiving others. S: criminal, spy. o: tricky situation, tight corner □ She turned to the officers. 'The man is trying to bluff his way out of the whole thing,' she said. PP

544- blurt out [B1i pass adj] exclaim suddenly (often nervously); reveal something suddenly (through nervousness). O: apology, confused statement; secret, confidence □ James was tongue-tied with embarrassment; then he blurted out to his guest, 'You needn't bother to come to this house again!' □ In his anxiety, the prisoner blurted out some of the information asked for.

545- board out [A1 B1i pass adj] have meals outside the place where one sleeps; give sb food and lodging in a separate place from the school, college etc where he works. S: [A1] O: [B1] student, trainee, boy. S: [B1] school, bursar, authorities □ Most students can still be accommodated in College, but increasing numbers are having to be boarded out in the town. □ Married men not living in camp receive a boarding-out allowance.

546- board up [B1i pass adj] cover with boards (because a house is no longer occupied, is about to be pulled down etc). O: house, shop; window, door □ The windows on the ground floor have been boarded up, chiefly to stop children climbing in and making nuisances of themselves. □ A row of boarded-up shops faced the sea-front.

547- boast (about/of) [A2 pass emph rel] speak in praise of oneself, one's achievements etc. o: talent, (personal) quality; success, wealth; family □ He was fond of boasting about his war record. In fact, as far as one could gather, he had spent the war years at Clacton-on-Sea. □ The Minister said that this Government had done more than any other to combat inflation. It was a record of which they could justifiably boast.

548- bob up [A1 emph] (informal) (of an elusive or irrepressible person) reappear, re-emerge (though often discouraged from doing so) □ The Scarlet Pimpernel kept bobbing up in the most unlikely places. □ You can't keep him down: he'll bob up when the police lose interest.

549- bog down [A1 B1ii pass adj] (informal) (cause to) stick fast (in mud etc); (cause to) be heavily involved with sth. S: [A1] O: [B1] tank, car; speaker, overworked person, ambitious youth. S: [B1] driver; work, routine □ Our transport bogged down in the thick mud. □ I hasten to reply before I get bogged down with other work. □ I like these people here only because I'm already on my way out. If I had to stay bogged down here, I'd hate them. CON

550- bog up [B1i nom pass] (slang) confuse, muddle. O: procedure, drill, instructions; the whole thing □ We carefully explained our very simple accounting system to her but in a few hours she'd got everything bogged up. □ They made a complete bog-up of the travel arrangements that we'd entrusted them with.

551- boil down [B1i pass] (informal) state in outline, summarize. O: case, argument, proposal □ I have tried to state briefly, to boil down, the most important area of conflict.

552- boil down to [A3 B3 pass] (informal) (may) be summarized, or stated in outline, as; summarize, state in outline, as. S: [A3] O: [B3] case, dispute, issue; advice, story. o: essence, essentials □ [A3] The good advice we gave him boiled down to this: that after tea he should stroll to the window. SD □ [B3] He boiled a boring rigmarole down to one or two brief sentences. □ [B3] The disagreements over nationalization can be boiled down to differences in their view of socialism.

553- boil over[1] [A1] (of liquid in a pan) overflow the sides of the pan (when the liquid reaches the b[illegible]). S: milk, water; saucepan; potatoes, greens □ 'You'd better turn the gas down or else the vegetables will boil over.'

554- boil over[2] [A1] reach a danger, or a crisis, point, explode. S: situation, quarrel. A: into violence, in an exchange of blows □ The Palestine Police

Force was fifty per cent below strength, and this at a time when the situation was clearly about to boil over. MFM

555-boil over[3] [A1] (informal) be extremely angry, furious □ John was boiling over and it was soon clear why; nobody had told him of our plans to move house.

556-boil up [A1] (informal) develop, be about to occur. S: quarrel, first-class row, crisis □ A dispute is boiling up over who should be the first to greet our royal visitors.

557-bolster up [B1i pass] (informal) support, buttress. S: government, Treasury, armed forces. O: ally, system, rebellion □ Our money has been used to bolster up unpopular regimes. □ Micky, trying to bolster up his own status, assumed an assurance that he did not feel. PE

558-bolt down [B1i pass] swallow one's food quickly (through hunger or greed, or because one is in a hurry). O: meal, snack □ You'll have violent indigestion if you bolt down your food like that. □ The surgeon on casualty duty just had time to bolt down a sandwich before the first case was wheeled in.

559-bomb out [B1i pass adj] make homeless through bombing. S: enemy, aircraft. O: family; street, neighbourhood □ Bombed-out families crowded into the public shelters.* □ Our firm was bombed out but we soon managed to get on our feet again. □ usu passive or adj.

560-bomb up [A1 B1i pass] (aviation) load with bombs. S: mechanic, ground-crew. O: aircraft, bomber □ While the crews were briefed on the operation, their planes were bombed up.

561-bombard (with)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] send a heavy shower of missiles at sb. O: troops; trench, fortification; prisoner; orator, actor. e: shell, rocket; (rotten) fruit, vegetables □ The allied positions were bombarded with shells of every calibre. □ The crowd expressed their dissatisfaction with the referee's decision by bombarding the pitch with beer cans.

562-bombard (with)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] direct sth in a heavy, continuous stream at sb. O: office, headquarters; manager, secretary. e: question, inquiry, complaint □ We've been bombarded with requests for the new model all week. Unfortunately, it will be some time before we can satisfy this level of demand. □ The invitations with which he was now bombarded he preferred to turn down, if he possibly could.

563-bone up (on) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) make a close study (of) (usu for some special purpose). e: mathematics, French; wine and food, travel □ I must bone up on my Italian if we are going abroad for a holiday.

564-book in [A1 B1i pass] register, enter the name of (a guest on arrival at a hotel). S: [A1] O: [B1] guest, visitor. S: [B1] clerk, receptionist □ 'Carry these cases upstairs while I book the guests in.'

565-book up [A1] reserve accommodation (on a train or aircraft, in a hotel). S: traveller, holiday-maker □ If you want to go to the Continent for your holiday, you ought to book up now.

566-booked up [pass adj (B1)] have no seats or rooms left (for a traveller, theatregoer etc); have no free time left (through pressure of engagements etc). S: hotel; steamer; theatre, stadium □ 'I'm afraid we can't even offer you a seat in the balcony, sir; we're fully booked up.' □ 'I might go out if I had anybody to go with. Are you very booked up yourself?' HD

567-bore to [B2 pass] (informal) be utterly dreary, tedious, to sb. S: story, joke; conversation, discussion; he etc. O: friend, audience. e: △ death, distraction, tears □ I don't want to bore myself to death reminiscing about those days. JFTR □ I couldn't decently leave my hosts, so I sat there, while their television bored me to distraction.

568-borne in on [pass (B3)] (formal) (of the person affected) be made to realize. S: the idea of a new approach, the realization that he is right, the truth of what I had been told □ The gravity of the situation was slowly borne in on him. □ It had been borne in on her how little she counted for him as a human being. PW

569-botch up [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) spoil, mar, through inattention, carelessness etc. S: builder, plumber; manager, executive; minister, civil servant. O: it, the whole thing, things; job, repairs; arrangements; discussion, treaty □ 'Don't give the job to him: he'll only botch it up (or: make a botch-up of it).' □ The Minister said that negotiations were lengthy because he did not want a botched-up agreement.

570-bother one's head about [B2] (informal) concern oneself in thinking about sth. e: poverty, hunger; problem, issue □ Why bother your heads about what's happening on the other side of the world? □ 'Now, don't bother your sweet little head about that.' □ This is something worth bothering one's head about. □ usu forms part of a suggestion or recommendation not to be concerned.

571-bottle up [B1i pass adj] (informal) suppress, not allow to show. O: emotion, desire, appetite; things, it all □ It's better to express your anger now and then, rather than bottle it up and have an almighty explosion. □ She shows the strain of bottled-up emotion.

572-bounce back [A1] (informal) recover jauntily from a setback. S: sportsman, entertainer; economy, sterling □ He's had no end of bad luck, but he just seems to bounce back every time. □ In the City share prices bounced back this morning. BBCR

573-bound up with [pass (B3)] be closely connected with or related to. S: position, life, future. e: his etc progress, science □ She had her own existence now, even if that existence was bound up with an unfaithful husband. PW □ Their own political position is bound up with his. SC

574-bow in/into [B1i pass B2 pass] welcome a visitor or customer with low bows. S: porter, doorman, shopwalker. O: guest, client □ A crowd of flunkeys stood by the entrance waiting to bow the guests in. □ She was bowed into a taxi.

575-bow out [A1] (informal) give up a prominent position (e g in politics, on the stage). S: minister, director □ So Sir Harold bows out, at the end of a distinguished career in broadcasting.

576-bow oneself out [B1ii] bow low to a superior (e g royalty) as one leaves his presence. S: retainer, courtier, servant □ After the meeting of the Royal Council, the peers and officials bowed themselves out.

577-bow out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] bow low to a visitor or customer as he leaves. S: waiter, manager. O: diner, guest □ Then, collecting up our purchases, we were bowed out of the shop

by the owner. DF

578- bowl along [A1] drive swiftly and smoothly. S: carriage, car □ His car bowled along at an even pace until it reached the village.

579- bowl out [B1i pass] (cricket) dismiss sb by striking his wicket with the ball. S: pace-bowler; Jones etc. O: opening batsman, tail-ender; side □ Half the side were bowled out before lunch.

580- bowl over[1] [B1i pass] knock down (and roll over, spin around). S: car; shot, throw. O: pedestrian; barrel, tin can □ He lent me his gun. I missed the first two, but then bowled over four rabbits in four shots. RFW □ The wing three-quarter was bowled over near the corner flag.

581- bowl over[2] [B1i pass] (informal) overwhelm, impress deeply. S: beauty, charm, wit; sudden arrival, attack. O: admirer, audience; defender □ The chef hadn't time to prepare the kind of speciality that would be likely to bowl over the taster. ARG □ You look devastating and I'm bowled over. EHOW

582- box in [B1i pass adj] prevent sb from going faster, manœuvring etc, by surrounding him on three sides at the edge of a racetrack. S: runner; car, horse. O: competitor, rival □ The favourite was boxed in against the rails by rival jockeys.

583- box up [B1i pass] confine or enclose in a small space. S: hunter, enemy; climate, geography. O: prey, inhabitant □ These Islanders have been boxed up here for hundreds of years and they think they know everything. RM □ usu passive.

584- branch off [A1 A2] turn from one road etc onto another usu smaller one. S: car, train. e: (main) road, line (of a railway) □ 'We've lost them — they must have branched off further back.'

585- branch out [A1] expand or develop in a new direction. S: factory, enterprise; he etc □ Hitherto we have only been concerned with heavy metal castings; now we are branching out into light alloys and plastics. □ I see my Josephine is branching out on her own and breaking new ground. THH

586- brave it out [B1ii] (informal) confront and defy hostility, threats or suspicion. S: country, person □ I don't want to see him, because I know he suspects me of disloyalty. But I suppose I'll just have to brave it out.

587- brazen it out [B1ii] (informal) behave, although one has done wrong, as if one has nothing to be ashamed of. S: thief, coward, naughty child □ Everybody ignored his remark for what it was, the lowest form of wit, and contemptible into the bargain — but Miller just sat there and brazened it out. TT

588- break away (from)[1] [A1 A3 rel] leave or escape (from) suddenly. S: friend, acquaintance; prisoner. e: him etc; guard, captivity □ Suddenly John spotted his bus pulling up opposite, and broke away. □ The prisoner broke away from his guards while being taken to another gaol.

589- break away (from)[2] [A1 nom A3 rel] cut one's ties or links (with). e: ideas, beliefs; family, tradition; the Old Guard, the Labour Party □ He's broken away from his family and all they stand for and gone to live in Australia. □ He decided to break away from the Party and seek re-election as an Independent. □ This break-away group stands to the left of the Labour Party.

590- break away (from)[3] [A1 nom A3 rel] end one's political dependence (on), become politically separate (from). S: province, region. e: state, country □ One part of a federal state may attempt to break away to form an independent entity. □ Several major powers have now recognized the break-away state. □ break-away is only used attrib, as here.

591- break back[1] [A1] (sport) suddenly reverse the direction in which one is moving (so as to upset the defence). S: fly-half, three-quarter (back); winger, striker □ The scrum-half suddenly broke back behind his forwards and set off down the touch-line.

592- break back[2] [A1 nom] (cricket) (of a ball striking the pitch) change its direction sharply □ The second ball of the over broke back and took off a bail. □ That delivery had a vicious break-back.

593- break down[1] [B1i pass adj] knock or smash to the ground. S: fireman, demolition gang, police. O: wall, door, fence □ Firemen had to break down a wall to get to families trapped on the ground floor.

594- break down[2] [B1i pass] overcome, conquer. S: statesman; host, teacher. O: obstacle, barrier (to understanding); shyness, hostility, suspicion □ We encountered a good deal of resistance to our pensions scheme, but by patient negotiation we broke it down. □ The new ambassador regards as his first objective the breaking-down of suspicion and fear between the two countries. □ Another woman might be able to break down their reserve and give them the sense of an unfolding love. PW

595- break down[3] [A1] give way completely to one's feelings, lose control □ She appeared to be pretty calm, but at times she would break down and start weeping. OBS □ He felt he must cut this interview short if she was not to break down in public. RFW

596- break down[4] [A1 nom] (mechanical) stop (through some mechanical or electrical failure). S: train, car, lorry, crane, lift □ He and Ed had gone to another race-meeting. Ed's car had broken down. AITC □ There was a breakdown on the main through-line to Edinburgh. □ A breakdown crew came to get the crane working again. □ breakdown crews (gangs, teams) service or remove vehicles that have stopped or crashed.

597- break down[5] [A1 nom] cease, fail; be severed; collapse. S: communications, contact, relations; law and order, control; resistance □ Telephone communication with all but a few outposts has broken down. □ A coalition of Christian Democrats and Liberals broke down. □ You can't imagine what it's like to feel that all your plans for the future have broken down. SPL □ There has been a complete breakdown of law and order.

598- break down[6] [A1 B1i nom pass] (may) be analysed or presented in detail; analyse, classify. S: [A1] O: [B1] results, totals; expenditure, outlay; budget. S: [B1] scientist; accountant, auditor □ Expenditure on the project breaks down as follows: wages £10m, plant £4m, raw materials £5m. □ The accountant gave a breakdown of the expenses. □ The results of my test can be broken down (or: break down) under four heads.

599- break down[7] [B1i pass adj] (chemistry) change the chemical composition of. S: body, organ, secretions. O: starch, fat; molecule □ The cow is an intermediary in our attempt to live off the land without having the bacteria which can break down cellulose in our stomachs. NS

600-break down[8] [A1 nom] collapse (so that the person needs rest, special treatment etc). S: △ health; sanity □ His health had been affected, and might break down altogether if the strain continued. □ She suffered a breakdown (in health). □ He's heading for a nervous breakdown. ⇨ break down[3], where the collapse is not lengthy or serious.

601-break in[1] [A1] interrupt. S: speaker, critic. A: sharply, abruptly, excitedly □ 'But what's going to happen to us?' one of the miners broke in. □ normally precedes or follows direct speech.

602-break in[2] [B1i pass] accustom to new discipline, make docile; make soft and pliable. S: trainer, drill sergeant. O: horse, mount; recruit, novice; pair of boots □ Petrucchio broke in a shrewish wife. □ New recruits are often broken in by repeated drilling on the barrack square.

603-break in/into [A1 nom A2 pass adj] force an entry (into), force one's way in(to). S: burglar, intruder. o: shop, private house, warehouse □ Tell them that those inside need protection against desperate characters who are trying to break in from outside. TBC □ There was a break-in at Smith's warehouse. □ Stores were broken into and looted during the riots.

604-break in on/upon [A3 pass emph rel] interrupt, disturb. S: noise, voice. o: thinking, meditation, conversation □ A sudden noise from outside broke in upon his day-dream. □ Their meeting was broken in upon by the arrival of a group of petitioners.

605-break into[1] [A2] suddenly change from a slower to a faster pace. S: horse, elephant, herd. o: △ a run, trot, canter, gallop □ As soon as they scented water, the whole herd broke into a gallop. □ 'I shall be late' — she was on the point of breaking into a run. PW

606-break into[2] [A2] suddenly begin to laugh etc. S: audience, crowd. o: (loud) laughter, song, cheers □ As the President's car appeared, the waiting crowds broke into loud cheers.

607-break into[3] [A2 pass] take time from, encroach on/upon (q v). S: overtime, extra duties, nightwork. o: evenings, leisure time □ 'I can't take on any extra overtime: my weekends have been broken into far too much as it is.'

608-break into[4] [A2 pass] use a high-value note or coin to buy an article costing less. S: customer, purchaser. o: pound note, ten-dollar bill □ 'I can't give you the forty pence I owe you without breaking into a five-pound note, so do you mind if I pay you back tomorrow?'

609-break into[5] [A2 pass] open and consume (sth held in reserve for emergency use). S: garrison, beleaguered population, expedition. o: (reserve stocks of) water, food, ammunition; iron-rations □ The stranded party broke into their emergency supplies of food and water.

break into[6] [A2 pass adj] force an entry into. ⇨ break in/into.

611-break off[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] become separated, separate, from a larger object (by breaking). S: [A1] O: [B1] piece of brick, section of wall; mast, pole. S: [B1] workman; blow; sea, high wind □ The mast had broken off at its base, and lay over the side of the boat. □ He broke off a piece of chocolate and offered it to me.

612-break off[2] [B1i pass adj] end abruptly, discontinue. S: country, firm; army; friend, fiancé. O: relations, association, connection; battle; negotiations, conversation, engagement (= agreement to marry) □ Napier broke off the pursuit. BM □ Our trading connection has been broken off owing to a disagreement over prices. □ No settlement of the dispute is in sight. The talks were broken off an hour ago and will not be resumed today. □ 'Aren't they getting married then?' 'No, they've broken it off.'

613-break off[3] [A1] (suddenly) stop talking, or interrupt one's remarks □ George rose. 'As for me...,' he broke off as Christine came out of her room. PE

614-break off[4] [A1] pause in one's work, take a break. S: workers, staff. A: for five minutes, at eleven o'clock. □ The whole cast broke off for coffee in the middle of rehearsals.

615-break out [A1] start suddenly and/or violently, flare up (q v). S: fire; epidemic, disease; rioting, violence, looting; quarrel; firing □ Pandemonium broke out and there was a free-for-all fight. DS □ Rationing was not introduced till some time after the outbreak of war. □ The Plague broke out in London that Summer, and hundreds died. W1 □ nom form is outbreak.

616-break out in[1] [A3] suddenly become covered in. S: patient; face, body. o: spots, pimples, sores; rash □ His face had now broken out in a rash of red and purple blotches. ⇨ break out on.

617-break out in[2] [A3] suddenly begin to express strong feelings. S: audience, person. o: tears, cries, curses □ The soft music of the jazz quartet was like people who had been locked up, breaking out in tears and laughter. THH □ He suddenly broke out in a rage of sobs and curses.

618-break out in a cold sweat [A3] (informal) be suddenly overcome with fear □ He began to imagine he heard strange noises, and broke out in a cold sweat.

619-break out/out of [A1 nom A2 pass] free oneself (from) (usu by forcibly removing barriers). S: prisoner; army; adolescent; writer, artist. o: cell, prison; trap, bridgehead, salient; bonds, strait-jacket □ The armies encircled at Stalingrad were not able to break out. □ There has been a mass break-out of prisoners. □ The more interesting playwrights have broken out of the old conventional strait-jacket.

620-break out on [A3 rel] appear suddenly upon. S: spots; rash. o: face, arm □ A mass of sores had broken out on her leg. ⇨ break out in[1].

621-break over[1] [A2] break upon, and sweep over, a floating or submerged object. S: sea, wave. o: ship, wreck; sea-wall □ Heavy seas broke over the bows as we headed in towards the shelter of the coast. □ Large waves broke over him as he tried to gain a footing in the shingle.

622-break over[2] [A2] sweep over sb in waves. S: (waves of) cheering, applause, abuse □ He sat quietly in his place, apparently unaffected by the burst of cheering which broke over him.

623-break through[1] [A1 nom A2 pass] penetrate. S: burglar, gang; army, tanks. o: wall, wire fence; front, defences □ Thieves broke through a wall and a steel partition to get at the safe. □ There was a massive breakthrough by enemy armour on a narrow front.

624- break through[2] [A1 A2] pierce, appear from behind. S: △ the sun, moon. o: clouds, haze, mist □ At half past eleven the sun broke through*, beginning to dry at last the heavy dew on the grass.* DBM

625- break through[3] [A1 nom] make discoveries of a new and important kind. S: scientist, inventor, engineer □ Chemists working on animal dye-stuffs have broken through in a number of directions. □ There was an exciting new break-through in cancer research. □ usu nom.

626- break through[4] [A2 pass] penetrate, overcome. S: visitor, host. o: shyness, reserve, timidity; façade, front □ No matter how hard one tries to bring him out, it's almost impossible to break through his reserve.

627- break through the sound barrier [A2] (aviation) reach a speed above that of sound. S: aircraft, pilot □ Residents have been complaining of the 'boom' which is heard whenever a jet breaks through the sound barrier*.*

628- break up[1] [A1] disintegrate, shatter; crack up[2] (q v). S: ship, aircraft □ The ship was caught in a south-easterly gale. She went aground and started to break up*.*

629- break up[2] [A1] crumble, disintegrate (mentally or physically); crack up[1] (q v). S: patient, old man □ I looked at his face again. If ever I saw a man on the point of breaking up*, I saw one then.* CON □ I know what he has to endure, but there is no sign of him breaking up under the strain yet.

630- break up[3] [A1] (of individuals in a group) disperse, go their separate ways. S: party, meeting, gathering, reunion. A: in disorder, in disarray □ We knew this before the party broke up*, on that crucial first evening.* CON □ Leicester stood up, stretched himself, and ambled out. The meeting broke up*.* TBC ⇨ next entry.

631- break up[4] [B1i pass] disperse, scatter (often by force). S: police, troops. O: crowd, demonstration, gathering, meeting □ The meeting was threatening to get out of hand and the police were forced to break it up*.* ⇨ previous entry.

632- break up[5] [A1] disperse (at the end of a term). S: school; children □ When do you break up for the Easter holidays? SC

633- break up[6] [A1 nom] dissolve, come to an end (not necessarily through outside interference). S: relationship, friendship □ Their marriage has virtually broken up — they are hardly ever in each other's company. □ The break-up of their partnership has been expected in the City for some time. ⇨ next entry.

634- break up[7] [B1i pass] bring to an end, destroy. S: rival, enemy; philanderer, adventuress. O: alliance, coalition; friendship □ But she broke up his home life: he had been perfectly happy until she came along. PW □ Plenty of marriages have been successfully broken up that way. AITC ⇨ previous entry.

635- break up (into)[1] [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] divide in pieces by cutting, smashing etc. O: beam, box; car, ship. o: length, firewood; piece, scrap □ The ships were broken up and sold as scrap to dealers. □ The wood is broken up into short lengths.

636- break up (into)[2] [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] divide by analysis, administrative decision etc. S: scholar, scientist; grammarian; government, ministry. O: task, problem; word, sentence; farmland. o: section; syllable, phrase; plot □ Sentences can be broken up into clauses, and clauses into phrases. □ The new regime is breaking the estates up into smallholdings.

637- break with [A2 pass] end a friendship or association with, sever links with. S: son, elector, businessman. o: family; party; ally; associate □ John has broken with his family; they can't agree over his choice of a wife. □ Several painters in the exhibition have broken with tradition.

638- brew up [A1 nom] (informal) prepare a drink of tea (often in the open and by makeshift arrangements). S: workman, soldier □ A group of men were brewing up in a sheltered corner of the building-site. □ 'Eleven o'clock; time for a brew-up*.'*

639- brick in/up [B1i pass adj] block or seal an opening, with bricks. S: builder, mason. O: window, doorway, fireplace □ In former times people had some of their windows bricked in to avoid paying tax on them.

640- brim over [A1] overflow, run over[1] (q v). S: cup, jug; barrel, sack; lorry □ The boys had loaded on too much sand; the wheelbarrow was brimming over*.*

641- brim over with [A3 rel] have an abundance of. o: confidence; high spirits, vitality; ideas □ The new designer was brimming over with ideas.

642- bring about[1] [B1i pass] cause to happen. S: time, circumstances, plan. O: change, death, failure □ How should she present herself to him? As a lady of leisure, reading a book? Three minutes could bring about this transformation. PW □ The politicians don't seem to have brought any miraculous changes about*.* ⇨ come about[1].

643- bring about[2] [B1i pass] (nautical) change direction of movement. S: crew, helmsman. O: sailing-ship; yacht, dinghy □ The helmsman brought us about and we went scudding off in a new direction. ⇨ come about[2], go about[5], put about[1].

644- bring a charge (against) [B2 pass emph rel] (legal) take steps that will lead to sb being accused of an offence in a court of law. S: private citizen; injured party □ If you found someone loitering at the back of your house after dark, you might feel justified in bringing charges against him. □ 'Of course, you could bring a charge of dangerous driving against him, but you might have some difficulty proving it in court.'

645- bring along/on[1] [B1i pass] help, encourage, to develop. S: tutor, coach. O: pupil, trainee, (young) athlete □ We're trying to bring along one or two promising young swimmers. □ That boy may get an Open Scholarship if we don't ruin everything by bringing him on too quickly. ⇨ come along/on[2], get along/on (with)[1].

646- bring along/on[2] [B1i pass] help to grow or flower more quickly. S: sun, fine weather, spell of rain. O: crop; vegetable, flower □ The fine spell we've been having will bring the crops along very nicely. ⇨ come along/on[3].

647- bring along (to) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] conduct from one place to another, often a short way (e g within the same building). O: brother, friend. o: office, house; party, meeting □ 'I'm having a short staff meeting in my office at eleven. Oh, and would you bring Smith along*, too?'* □ You can bring a friend along to the party if you like. ⇨ be along (to), come along (to).

648-bring around/round (to)[1] [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] conduct, lead, sb to a place (usu within the same town etc). O: wife, children. a: my place, house; club □ 'Do bring your wife around one evening. We're longing to meet her.' □ 'If you can't find room for these people you're welcome to bring them around to our place.' ⇨ be around/round (at), come around/round (to)[1].

649-bring around/round (to)[2] [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] convert sb to one's own point of view. O: opponent; colleague, friend. a: △ his (etc) way of thinking, point of view, assessment of the situation □ Father wasn't keen to let us have the flat for our party, but we managed to bring him round. ⇨ come around/round (to)[2].

650-bring away [B1iii] return home having formed a particular impression etc. O: (happy, pleasant) memories, (favourable, positive) impression □ We brought away rather mixed impressions of our holiday in Spain. ⇨ come away with.

651-bring back[1] [B1i pass] cause to return; restore borrowed property □ He's gone away from home and nothing will bring him back again. □ 'If you borrow my electric drill don't forget to bring it back.' ⇨ be back[1], come back[1], get back[1], go back[1], take back[1].

652-bring back[2] [B1i pass] recall to mind, remind one of. S: scene, smell, conversation. O: memories; visit, travels; day □ The river smell brought back a night some years before. NM □ How a few words can bring it all back! ⇨ come back[3].

653-bring back[3] [B1iii pass] reintroduce, restore. S: Government, the authorities, 'they'. O: monarchy, one-party rule, corporal punishment □ He's very much in favour of bringing back capital punishment. □ He feels that compulsory attendance at chapel should be brought back. ⇨ come back[4].

654-bring back to health/life [B3 pass] restore sb to good health; revive him. S: doctor, expert care □ And anyway he was dead. I couldn't bring him back to life. DC

655-bring before [B2 pass] present for discussion, decision or judgement. O: him etc; case; matter, claim. o: committee, board; court, magistrate □ We'd better have a word together now: the matter is being brought before the council tomorrow morning. ⇨ be before[2], come before[2], go before[2], put before[2], take before.

656-bring down[1] [B1i pass] cause to fall from the sky by destroying, killing or wounding. S: fighter aircraft, anti-aircraft gun; hunter. O: hostile aircraft, balloon; partridge, duck □ Several aircraft were intercepted and brought down. ⇨ come down[2].

657-bring down[2] [B1i pass] cause to fall over and stop (by killing or wounding). S: shooting party, gamekeeper, poacher. O: rabbit, deer, antelope □ We managed to bring down one or two of the herd, even though they were running fast.

658-bring down[3] [B1i pass] (sport) tackle (Rugby football); cause to fall down (by tackling or fouling) (Assoc. football). S: full-back, wing-half. O: forward, wing-three-quarter □ The attacking fly-half was brought down by a wing-forward before he had moved five yards. □ Our centre-forward was tripped and brought down inside their penalty area.

659-bring down[4] [B1i pass] cause the defeat or fall of. S: measure, scandal, controversy. O: Government, administration, tyrant □ The defection of a large number of back-benchers brought down the last Government.

660-bring down[5] [B1i pass] reduce, lower. S: government measures, increased production; wholesalers, shopkeepers. O: prices, costs, expenditure □ Grocers have agreed to bring down the cost of several basic commodities. □ Demand has been brought down by increases in imports. ⇨ be down[2], come down[3], go down[5].

661-bring down[6] [B1i pass] (mathematics) transfer digits from one part of a calculation to another (usu in problems involving multiplication or division). O: next figure, next digit; eight, nine etc □ To divide 7489 by 322 you first decide how many times 322 will go into 748. Having subtracted the product of this number (2) and 322 from 748, you bring down the next figure (9) and again divide by 322. □ When multiplying numbers ending in nought, bring down the noughts first.

662-bring the house down [B1i] (informal) make an audience laugh, applaud etc, uproariously. S: joke, song; entertainer, clown □ We had a real get-together at weekends. Everybody standing up and giving a song. I used to bring the house down with this one. TOH

663-bring down to earth [B3 pass] make sb return to reality. A: △ with a bump, with a bang □ Losing a child like that brought them down to earth with a bump. □ The louder they both shouted the higher the moral plane they felt it necessary to ascend to, until only physical violence could have brought them down to earth. HAA ⇨ come down to earth.

664-bring forth [B1iii pass] (formal or facetious) produce, yield. S: committee, conference, board, manager. O: idea, proposal, suggestion □ I suppose Smith is unlikely to bring forth any sparkling new suggestions for improving our product. ⇨ come forth.

665-bring forward[1] [B1i pass] raise, propose for discussion. S: councillor, chairman, member. O: issue, question, matter, proposal □ At our next Council meeting, he is proposing to bring forward the question of developing the city centre. ⇨ come forward[2].

666-bring forward[2] [B1i pass] transfer to an earlier date, advance. S: organizer, committee. O: meeting, party, fête; date; clock, watch □ Because of the possibility of a clash with another event, the organizers have decided to bring the barbecue forward from the 12th to the 5th June. □ Clocks and watches should be brought forward one hour from midnight tonight.

667-bring forward[3] [B1i pass] (accountancy) carry or transfer a total from the foot of one page (in a ledger) to the top of the next; or from the account for one period to the account for another. S: clerk, accountant, auditor. O: figure, total, amount □ A credit balance of fifty pounds was brought forward from his September account.

668-bring forward[4] [B1i pass] (commerce) in business practice, record that correspondence etc is to be produced for sb's attention at a future date; do this at the actual date. S: secretary, assistant. O: letter, file □ Please bring this letter forward at the beginning of next month. □ I brought this forward yesterday, and you've done nothing about it. □ often abbreviated to B/F or b/f.

669- bring home (to) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] make sth clear to sb, make him realize it. O: fact, truth; realization, understanding; it... that the end was near. o: public, audience; patient, sufferer □ These programmes do much to bring home to people the serious risks of smoking. □ What he says brings home the fact that the gods of the running-track are human like the rest of us. T □ It was brought home to me that every day I had much to learn. MFM ⇨ come/get home (to).

670- bring in[1] [B1i pass] gather, harvest. S: farmer, grower. O: harvest, crop □ They could be sure of a few more days of fine weather in which to bring in the harvest. ⇨ be in[2], get in[1].

671- bring in[2] [B1i pass] earn, produce, yield. S: property, farm; investment, stock; job, profession. O: return; dividend, profit; wage, salary, £100 a week □ Moral indignation was as much out of place in business as the emotions were: it was all a question of what would bring in money. PW □ Personal appearances bring him in money. PW □ note Indirect Object (him) in the last example. ⇨ come in[5].

672- bring in[3] [B1i pass] give sb a part to play in some scheme; give him a position of advantage. S: company, board; gang □ They have brought in a public relations man to advise on press coverage. □ 'Why bring Jones in*? He'll do nothing to help.'* ⇨ come in[6].

673- bring in[4] [B1i pass] (police) arrest; bring to a police station for questioning. S: constable, detective. O: wanted man, suspect □ 'If you see anyone loitering near the bank, bring him in*.'*

674- bring in[5] [B1i pass] (Parliament) introduce. S: Government, private member. O: Bill; measure, reform □ A back-bencher is bringing in a Bill designed to remove the present anomalies in the Purchase-Tax Schedule. □ Legislation is being brought in to revise the Homicide Act.

675- bring in a verdict [B1iii pass] (legal) return, pronounce, a verdict on an accused person. S: jury, court □ The jury brought in a verdict that Christine had died from falling off a cliff, but there was no evidence to show how she had come to fall off the cliff. PE

676- bring in on [B3 pass] give sb a share in, let him participate in; inform sb of sth. S: government; leader, manager. O: public; (political) party, work force. o: plan, scheme; discussion, negotiation; idea, proposal □ The Council greatly angered small shopkeepers by not bringing them in on the development of the city centre. □ People most likely to be affected must be brought in on our proposals from the beginning. ⇨ be/come/get/let in on.

677- bring into action [B2 pass] (military) make active, put sth in a position where it can operate. S: (military) commander; (naval) captain. O: force; division, battalion; tank, gun □ Because of the state of the ground, the artillery could not be brought into action at once. ⇨ be in/come into/go into action.

678- bring into being/existence [B2 pass] create, establish, set up[2] (q v). S: government, committee, board. O: body, organization; machinery, procedure □ A new army was brought into being as the result of moving divisions from another front. □ An information bureau was brought into existence to deal with inquiries. ⇨ be in/come into being/existence.

679- bring into blossom/flower [B2 pass] cause blossom, flowers, to appear. S: fine spell, early Spring. O: bush, shrub; rose, daffodil □ The mildness of the early Spring weather will have helped to bring the fruit trees into blossom quickly. ⇨ be in/come into blossom/flower.

680- bring into disrepute [B2 pass] give people an unfavourable impression of sth, give sth a bad name or reputation. S: advocate, supporter; servant, agent. O: cause, ideology; industry, service □ Unofficial strikes are so common, and shop stewards so often involved, that trade unionism is brought into disrepute. SC □ The inefficiency of one department can bring a whole industry into disrepute. ⇨ fall into disrepute.

681- bring into fashion/vogue [B2 pass] make sth fashionable, make it the vogue. S: (dress) designer, model. O: leather, plastic; maxicoat, (the) midi-length □ The growing prestige of British designers did a lot to bring the miniskirt into fashion all over Europe. ⇨ be in/come into fashion/vogue; be in[1], come in[1].

682- bring into focus [B2 pass] adjust a microscope, telescope etc so that the object viewed through it is sharp and clear; (fig) bring clearly to sb's attention. S: scientist, technician; observer, commentator; event, development. O: microscope; specimen; matter, problem, issue □ To bring the slide into sharp focus*, turn this small wheel.* □ Advances in space exploration have brought into focus one of the most dramatic questions in human history. TO ⇨ be in/come into focus.

683- bring into force [B2 pass] make sth (which is in some way binding or enforceable) begin to operate. S: government, (local) council; Chamber of Commerce; Trades Union. O: law, Bill; regulation, requirement □ If the present regulations are not effective, then others may have to be brought into force. ⇨ be in/come into/put into force.

684- bring into the open [B2 pass] reveal, make evident; make public. S: newspaper, reporter; meeting, speech. O: attitude, feeling; dispute, quarrel; matter, question □ If you had not allowed him to make that speech, this matter need never have been brought into the open. ⇨ be in/come into the open.

685- bring into play [B2 pass] involve, cause to have an influence. S: statesman, negotiator; commander; artist. O: force, circumstance, factor □ Old enmities have once more been brought into play in the struggle for the leadership. ⇨ be in/come into play.

686- bring into prominence [B2 pass] cause to be well known, prominent. S: policy, view; resistance (to sth), refusal (to do sth); discovery, invention. O: member (of a party, of Parliament); scientist, artist □ Liverpool was brought into new prominence by being the birthplace of several pop-groups. □ Expressing illiberal views may bring some politicians into temporary prominence. ⇨ come into prominence.

687- bring into service/use [B2 pass] introduce sth to serve the public, open for use. S: council; railway board, bus company. O: railway line, air link; bus, taxi; bridge, tunnel □ The Victoria

Line was brought into service*, as part of the London Underground, to link important parts of the city.* □ These canals were brought back into use for pleasure traffic. ⇨ be in/come into/go into service/use.

688-bring into sight/view [B2 pass] cause to appear. S: movement; descent, turning. O: destination; coast, town □ A sudden movement of the clouds brought the airfield into view*.* ⇨ be in/come into sight/view.

689-bring into the world [B2 pass] cause sb to be born, be his parent(s) □ 'And now, Heaven forgive me, I'm bringing another child into the world*.'* DC □ What a dreadful world to bring children into*!* ⇨ come into the world.

690-bring into contact (with) [B2 pass] help people to meet. S: friend, colleague; work, travel; (sheer) chance. O: author, artist; businessman; would-be suitor. o: (with) publisher, dealer; customer; his future wife □ These visits brought me into contact with a large public outside the army. MFM □ He was brought into contact with her (or: They were brought into contact*) through an interest in music.* ⇨ be in/come into contact (with).

691-bring into line (with) [B2 pass] make sb conform with the rules etc of an organization or movement. S: leader; party. O: disciple, follower; dissident, heretic. o: (with) official doctrine, the majority view □ It will take more than promises of a comfortable future to bring such an original mind (back) into line*.* □ It seems that nothing can bring him into line with his fellows. ⇨ be in/come into/fall into line (with).

692-bring off[1] [B1i pass] rescue, carry to safety. S: lifeboat, rescue launch, helicopter. O: crew, passengers (of vessel) □ The Yarmouth lifeboat brought off the crew of the stricken tanker.

693-bring off[2] [B1i pass] (informal) succeed in sth. S: planner, leader, general, criminal. O: ⚠ it, a coup, the thing □ If we had worked more closely together, between us we could have brought off a real coup. DS □ Now it seemed like a fine idea. He felt sure that he could bring it off*.* AITC ⇨ come off[5].

bring on[1] [B1i pass] help, encourage, to develop. ⇨ bring along/on[1].

bring on[2] [B1i pass] help to grow or flower. ⇨ bring along/on[2].

696-bring on[3] [B1i pass] cause, produce, lead to. S: cold weather, overwork, over-eating. O: influenza, eye-strain, attack of indigestion □ His heart hammered in a mad cadenza of exaltation that almost brought on an attack of nausea. ARG □ It was pneumonia brought on in winter. AH ⇨ come on[6].

697-bring on[4] [B1i pass] (cricket) ask sb to bowl. S: captain, skipper. O: fast bowler, spinner □ The fast bowlers were brought on again after the tea interval*.* ⇨ be on[4], come on[9], put on[10].

698-bring out[1] [B1i pass] (industry) cause to strike, to withdraw labour. S: union official, shop-steward. O: workers, labour force □ He has brought the engineering apprentices out on strike. SC □ It started as a strike in the foundry; then that brought out most of the assembly workers as well. ⇨ be out[1], come out[1].

699-bring out[2] [B1i pass] help to lose shyness or reserve. S: husband, father, admirer. O: shy girl, diffident child, guest □ She's a retiring sort of girl, but he's doing his best to bring her out*.*

700-bring out[3] [B1i pass] introduce to society (as a debutante). O: daughter, girl □ Mrs Fitzalan is bringing out her eldest daughter next season. ⇨ be out[3], come out[3].

701-bring out[4] [B1i pass] cause to open or flower. S: fine weather, sunshine. O: rose, tulip □ The hot weather has brought out all the blossom on the fruit trees. ⇨ be out[4], come out[4].

702-bring out[5] [B1i pass] introduce onto the market; publish. S: manufacturer, makers; (name of) publisher. O: model, make; novel, biography □ British Leyland are bringing out a new sports saloon next month. ⇨ be out[5], come out[6].

703-bring out[6] [B1i pass adj] reveal, show up[1] (q v), clearly. S: sun, light; treatment, enlargement. O: detail, small mark, hidden feature □ The low sun brought out the gold of the Cotswold masonry. ARG □ His photograph brings out the detail of the sculpture. ⇨ come out[8].

704-bring out[7] [B1i pass] speak, utter. O: ⚠ word, declaration, statement □ He didn't finish the sentence because if he had brought out the word it would probably have made him cry. CON ⇨ come out[9].

705-bring out[8] [B1i pass adj] reveal, make clear or explicit. S: teacher, lecturer. O: truth, sense, meaning, point □ The meaning of the poem was admirably brought out*.* □ That's a well brought-out point. ⇨ come out[10].

706-bring out[9] [B1i pass] elicit, call forth (q v). S: adversity, need, danger. O: the (very) worst/best in him; (all) his cunning, his greed □ The one person who never failed to bring out the spirit of competition in Robert was Ned Roper. CON □ Disaster brought out all that was best in the family. AITC ⇨ come out[11].

707-bring out in [B3 pass] cause sb to be (partially) covered with. S: heat, humidity; diet. O: skin; face, chest. o: ⚠ a rash; spots, pimples □ 'Don't allow him to get excited: it brings him out in a nervous rash.' ⇨ come out in.

708-bring out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] cause to leave; carry from. S: fireman, police. O: owner, occupant; furniture. o: house, room □ He rummaged about in the attic and brought out a pile of old documents. □ They gathered up the few belongings that they'd managed to bring out of the burning house. ⇨ be out/out of[1], come out/out of[1], get out/out of[1], take out/out of[1].

709-bring out of his shell [B2 pass] (informal) help sb to overcome his shyness, or show a bolder side to his character. O: child, girl; pupil □ It will take all of your patience and tact to bring John out of his shell*.* □ What brought him out of his shell was the invitation to talk about his only interest —astronomy. ⇨ come out of one's shell.

710-bring over [B1i pass] cause sb to come from overseas; accompany sb travelling or settling overseas. S: immigrant, settler. O: wife, family □ He's been teaching in this country for a year. Next summer he hopes to bring his family over from the States. ⇨ be over[4], come over[1].

711-bring over (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] cause sb to change his allegiance. O: supporter, ally; general, scientist. o: us, our side □ The rebel leader abruptly changed sides, bringing most of his fellow dissidents over with him. □ I don't think that many of the people in the centre can be brought over to the Government side. ⇨ come over (to), go over to¹.

712-. bring round¹ [B1i pass] (nautical) cause to face in the opposite direction. S: helmsman, coxwain. O: vessel, boat □ They brought the ship round with a wash of water astern. AH

713- bring round² [B1ii pass] cause to regain consciousness. S: doctor, nurse, first-aid man. O: spectator, patient □ George fainted in the heat but was soon brought round. ⇨ come round².

714- bring round (to)¹ [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] conduct, lead, sb to a place. ⇨ bring around/round (to)¹.

715- bring round (to)² [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] convert sb to one's point of view. ⇨ bring around/round (to)².

716- bring round to [B3 pass] direct or steer conversation so that one's own choice of topic is discussed. O: ⚠ conversation, discussion. o: one's own favourite subject; gambling, sport, cars □ By talking about Scotland, Brown managed to bring the discussion round to salmon fishing — his favourite pastime.

717- bring through [B1ii pass B2 pass] be responsible for sb's survival or recovery. S: skilled medical care, good doctors; sound leadership. O: patient; firm, business; country. o: illness; crisis, war □ He was very badly injured; only the very finest treatment could have brought him through. □ Cool heads will bring us through this crisis. ⇨ come through.

bring to¹ [B1ii pass] help to recover consciousness. ⇨ bring round².

719- bring to² [B1ii pass] (nautical) make sth stop. S: captain, mate. O: ship, boat □ The unidentified ship was brought to by the firing of a warning shot across its bows. ⇨ come to².

720- bring to³ [B2 pass] make sth equal, reach, a certain sum. S: spending, purchase. O: bill, account; total. o: five pounds; ten dollars □ If I buy the suit, it will bring my bill to rather more than I've budgeted for. ⇨ come to³.

721- bring to⁴ [B2 pass emph rel] approach, tackle sth with a certain attitude etc. S: manager, planner; scholar, craftsman. O: wisdom, knowledge; fresh mind, lack of prejudice. o: task, work; job, post □ The designer brings wide experience in this medium to his new task. □ To his new appointment the Minister brought knowledge gained at first hand. ⇨ come to (with).

722- bring to sb's aid/assistance [B2 pass] direct, summon, assistance to sb in difficulties. S: shout, call, telephone message. O: (police) patrol car, breakdown van, fire brigade. o: (of) motorist, owner, occupant □ A broadcast appeal brought rescue teams hurrying to the aid of the flood victims. □ Skilled mechanics can quickly be brought to the assistance of motorists. ⇨ come to sb's aid/assistance/help.

723- bring to attention [B2 pass] (military) make soldiers etc adopt an alert position, with the feet together. S: sergeant, officer. O: troops; platoon, company □ The sergeant brought the guard smartly to attention and saluted the inspecting officer. ⇨ be at/come to attention.

724- bring to sb's attention/notice [B2 pass] make sb notice, be aware of, sth. O: it... that she was absent, that sth was amiss; fact, matter □ An inspector first brought these deficiencies to the attention of the management. □ It has been brought to my notice that some senior boys are in the habit of visiting public houses in the town. ⇨ come to sb's attention/notice.

725- bring to blows [B2 pass] make people start fighting. S: disagreement, difference (of opinion); rivalry, enmity. O: (two) sides, parties □ The question of who should sit next to the guest of honour practically brought the two of them to blows. ⇨ come to blows.

726- bring to the boil [B2 pass] cause to reach boiling point; (fig) bring to a point of crisis. O: pan, kettle; vegetables, rice; situation, the whole thing □ Bring the water to the boil, put the rice in, and allow the pan to simmer until all the water has evaporated.* □ What really brought things to the boil was a newspaper article alleging embezzlement. ⇨ come to the boil.

727- bring to a climax [B2 pass] cause to reach a high level of intensity, drama etc. S: incident, interruption, fight. O: meeting, discussion, quarrel □ The meeting was brought to an excited climax by the appearance on the platform of the rebel leader. □ Some brilliant writing for the brass instruments brings the passage to a climax. ⇨ come to a climax.

728- bring to a dead end [B2 pass] make further progress impossible. S: interference, opposition; stubbornness; (lack of) clues, information. O: inquiry; research; discussion □ The reluctance of the local people to talk had brought his investigation to a dead end. ⇨ be at/come to a dead end.

729- bring to an end [B2 pass] end sth (often unpleasant or unsatisfactory). O: quarrel, hostility, misunderstanding; arrangement, treaty □ Leaders were anxious to bring to an end the dissensions of the last few months. T □ I hope we have brought our arguments on fundamentals to an end. OBS ⇨ be at/come to an end, put an end/a stop to.

730- bring to his feet [B2 pass] make sb stand up quickly. S: shock, blow; shout, cry; enthusiasm, excitement. O: onlooker, spectator □ It was finally a remark of Edith's that brought him to his feet in a rush of anger. HD □ A jolt nearly threw me from the bed, and a second jolt brought me to my feet. SD ⇨ be on/come to/get on one's feet.

731- bring to the fore [B2 pass] make prominent, give an active part to. S: situation; crisis, war; depression, revival. O: (able) leader, statesman; (dishonest) dealer, criminal □ The conditions of the postwar years brought many enterprising men to the fore. ⇨ be/come to the fore.

732- bring to fruition [B2 pass] cause sth to be fulfilled or realized. S: struggle, conflict; work, study; prayer. O: hope, dream; ambition; plan □ Years of patient work had at last brought all his plans to fruition. □ The scheme was locally conceived, and brought to fruition with help from overseas. ⇨ come to fruition.

733- bring to the ground [B2 pass] make sth fall to the ground or collapse. S: explosion, earth tremor; revolution, upheaval. O: tower, mast; regime □ The gales brought trees and telegraph poles to the ground. □ They wanted to launch a general strike which would bring the State to the ground. OBS ⇨ come to the ground.

734- bring to a halt/standstill [B2 pass] stop, arrest, the forward movement, or progress, of sth. S: driver; operator; striker. O: car, lorry; machine, production-line; factory □ He brought the car to a halt*.* HD □ A strike in the paint-shop brought production to a standstill this morning. ⇨ be at/come to a halt/standstill.

735- bring to a head [B2 pass] cause to reach a point where a decision, change etc is necessary. S: arrival, intervention; failure, success. O: ⚠ matters, things, it □ The arrival of a fourth child brought things to a head between husband and wife. He would have to get a job with more money. □ Matters were brought to a head when the boss tried to force still more work onto him. He resigned. ⇨ come to a head.

736- bring to heel [B2 pass] subdue, bring under control (q v). S: government, regime. O: (rebellious) subject, province □ It is no simple matter to bring a break-away region of several millions to heel*.* □ 'I brought them to heel*,' said Robert, gaily. 'I extracted some money from them, too, so drink up.'* CON ⇨ come to heel.

737- bring to himself [B2 pass] make sb conscious, aware, of what is happening. S: bang, explosion; light; door opening; (cold) air, water □ The mention of a name brought him to himself*. Had he heard it before?* ⇨ come to oneself.

738- bring to life [B2 pass] make sth live, give it vitality. S: actor, story-teller. O: story, poem; literature, history □ She couldn't act very well, but for me she brought the whole silly play to life*.* RATT ⇨ come to life.

739- bring to light [B2 pass] reveal sth which has been hidden. S: researcher, investigator, detective. O: fact, (piece of) evidence, detail □ One newspaper claims to have brought to light some important new evidence. □ Some little-known details of his early life have been brought to light*.* ⇨ come to light.

740- bring to a pretty pass/such a pass [B2 pass] allow, cause, things to reach a sad or sorry state. S: father; manager, director; government. O: things, affairs; us etc □ 'And who brought us to such a pass*? You did, by sheer mismanagement.'* ⇨ come to a pretty pass etc.

741- bring to rest [B2 pass] control sth so that it stops, reaches a final position. S: driver, pilot. O: car, train, plane □ Wrestling desperately with the controls, the pilot finally managed to bring his aircraft to rest in a cornfield. ⇨ come to rest.

742- bring to his senses [B2 pass] make sb think and behave sensibly. S: experience, shock, disappointment. O: immature, irresponsible person □ All I hope is that this recent accident will have brought him to his senses*.* □ Nothing but a strong letter from his bank manager will bring him to his senses*.* ⇨ come to one's senses.

743- bring to a (successful) conclusion [B2 pass] end sth well which is moving in a positive direction. S: statesman, negotiator; commander. O: talks, discussion; campaign □ Once a second front was opened in North-West Europe, we should be able to bring the war to a successful conclusion by the end of 1944. MFM ⇨ come to a (successful) conclusion.

744- bring to trial [B2 pass] (legal) try in a court of law. O: suspect, accused; case □ I sent the bomb which killed the postman. If brought to trial I should plead insanity. ARG □ Before we can bring our man to trial*, we must catch him in the act.* ⇨ be on trial.

745- bring to grips with [B2 pass] make sb confront or tackle sth, make him struggle with it. S: experience; awareness, knowledge; travel, work. O: statesman; scientist, scholar. o: (with) issue, problem □ Service in a developing country brought him to grips with the problems of poverty. ⇨ be at/come to/get to grips with.

746- bring together [B1i pass] reconcile two parties who are in conflict. O: divorced, estranged couple; (warring, hostile) factions, parties, elements □ I'm not sure that John and Margaret can be brought together*.* □ The Minister is trying to bring the two sides to the dispute together to discuss a new formula. ⇨ come together.

747- bring under [B1i pass] subdue, bring under control (q v). S: government, police. O: rebel, rioter □ After some incidents that the police could not prevent, the rioters were brought under completely.

748- bring under control [B2 pass] subdue, master; bring under (q v). S: fire brigade, health department; police, army. O: fire, epidemic; riot; crowd □ Five fire engines brought the blaze under control in just over an hour. OBS □ Such bodies may sabotage the trade union movement if they are not brought under control*.* SC ⇨ be/get under control.

749- bring up[1] [B1i pass adj] raise, rear, educate. S: parent, foster-parent, grandmother; nurse. O: child, family. A: properly, in style, in poverty □ The nurse, suffering from conscience, adopted Prissie and brought her up*.* DC □ The fact of being brought up in a shabby and dirty town was another thing that helped us to be competitive. CON □ compound adj forms: well-brought-up, badly-brought-up; nom form: upbringing.

750- bring up[2] [B1i pass] teach, persuade, sb in the course of his upbringing to do sth. S: parent, teacher, community. O: child, family. Inf to scorn convention, to respect his parents, to be courteous to strangers □ He had been brought up to think that his parents always knew best. □ They had brought up their sons to stand on their own feet. □ inf usu present.

751- bring up[3] [B1i pass] raise, call attention to. S: chairman, back-bencher, member of the board. O: question, matter, subject, proposal, point □ I bring this story up now only to compare my experience with that of some unhappy fellow on the United States Energy Commission. NS □ 'I think we're agreed on the main points. Does anyone want to bring up anything further?' TBC ⇨ be up[6], come up[4].

752- bring up[4] [B1i pass] (legal) cause to appear for trial. S: police, CID. O: habitual offender, suspected thief. A: before the magistrates, before the beak; on a charge of drunken driving □ They were brought up for causing a disturbance and obstructing the police. ⇨ be up[7], come up[8].

753- bring up[5] [B1i pass] (military) convey or summon (to the front line). S: general; enemy; transport. O: armour, troops; supplies, ammunition □ We would have to blast our way on shore and get a good lodgement before the enemy could bring up sufficient reserves to turn us out. MFM ⇨ come up[6].

754- bring up[6] [B1i pass] (informal) vomit (up). S: child, patient. O: food, breakfast, everything □ 'I don't seem to take my meals well,' he said. 'I bring up most of what I've taken, if you'll pardon the phrase.'* ASA ⇨ come up⁷.

755- bring up⁷ [B1ii pass] (informal) make remarks or a movement stop suddenly. S: noise, blow, interruption, sight. A: △ short, sharp, sharply, with a jerk □ What brought me up short and made my irritation evaporate was the sight of two bulging sacks lying at his feet. DF □ We were brought up short by a sudden bellow from our friend. BM

756- bring up the hard way [B1ii pass] (informal) give sb a severe upbringing (ie without special help or privileges). S: father, family □ Father believed in bringing us up the hard way. He always said that a 'good' education would make us too soft for the harsh battles of life. ⇨ come up the hard way; bring up¹.

757- bring up the rear [B1iii pass] come last (in a procession or column). S: heavy transport, cavalry, car □ A short distance behind came a Peugeot, and the rear was brought up by a powerful dark-green Mercedes. TO □ Ned, who had just opened the door to me, brought up the rear with a portfolio of drawings. CON

758- bring up against [B3 pass] make sb face or confront sb or sth. S: travel, experience; marriage, courtship; work. o: problem, difficulty; pressure, force; opponent □ Working in a multiracial community had brought him up against the realities of intolerance. □ He was brought up against his wife's fear and mistrust of strange people. ⇨ be/come up against.

759- bring up (as far as/to) [B1ii pass B3 pass] lead, conduct, cause to rise, (to). S: road, path; bus; conditions. O: traveller; sea, tide. o: top, summit; sea-wall, houses □ Strong winds brought the water swirling up the main street. □ 'Did the guide bring you right up to the top?' 'No, only as far as that checkpoint.' ⇨ be/come up (as far as/to).

760- bring up to [B3 pass] bring to an acceptable level or standard. S: authorities; teacher, coach. O: work, performance. o: △ standard, scratch, the mark □ His work in maths needs to be brought up to the standard of the others. □ After the recent inquiry, the electrical wiring in these houses has been brought up to scratch. ⇨ be up to⁵, come up to, get up to¹.

761- bring up to date [B3 pass] revise sth, adding current information, figures etc; give sb a report with current information. O: pamphlet, brochure; chart, map; ideas, thinking; employer, commander □ Booklets published in the series 'Choice of Careers' are constantly brought up to date. OBS □ I have only a few additional facts to add to bring the report up to date. EM □ Bring me up to date quickly on the fuel crisis.* ⇨ be up to date/the minute; get up to date (with).

762- bring within [B2 pass] cause to come near enough (to be heard, seen or reached). o: △ earshot, sight, view, range, striking distance □ Five minutes would bring the aircraft within range of our warning and interception system. ⇨ be within¹, come within, get within.

763- bristle with¹ [A2 rel] display a frightening or impressive array of; be fraught with. S: army, front; task, project, scheme; book, memoir. o: guns, bayonets; problems, snags; impressive titles, famous names □ The first chapter, which bristles with names, is essentially a regimental history of the purely scientific side of the plutonium project. NS

764- bristle with² [A2] show or display in an extreme form. o: rage, anger, indignation, displeasure □ Just mention her name to him and he positively bristles with anger.

765- broach (with) [B2 pass emph rel] raise, introduce, in conversation an important matter one wishes to discuss. O: matter, question, issue, subject. o: partner, employer; wife □ I still had to broach (with her) the matter of her taking a job in America. SPL □ I broached the subject with Elspeth one evening. SML

766- brood (on/over/upon) [A2 pass emph rel] think sombrely and at length (about). o: problem, difficulty; illness, disability; failure □ The problem won't improve for being brooded over. □ 'Yes, I know he's a sick man, but he will brood on it.' □ Then there was the much brooded-upon question of whether he'd made the right choice of career.

767- brown off [B1ii pass adj] (informal) bore; annoy. S: routine, food; voice, manner □ 'Why must he talk like that? It really browns people off.' □ 'You look browned off, Miss Traughton. Can I help?' HAA 768- brush aside¹ [B1i pass] push to one side (as being lighter or weaker than oneself). S: army, force. O: defences □ The enemy column brushed aside our defense and advanced south.

769- brush aside² [B1i pass] disregard, treat as of little or no importance. S: organizer, director, manager. O: objections, difficulties, complaints □ We had to learn to work with others, and many of our own ideas would be brushed aside for the good of the whole. MFM

770- brush down¹ [B1ii nom pass] clean with brisk strokes of a brush. O: oneself; jacket, coat □ Your jacket needs brushing down: it's covered with fluff. □ He always looks as if he could do with a good brush(-)down. □ the hyphen is optional in the nom form (brush down or brush-down).

771- brush down² [B1ii pass] (informal) scold, reprove. O: child, pupil, employee □ *The games master gave him a good brushing down (cf *He got a good brushing down) for not turning out for training. ⇨ the nom form in the previous entry.

772- brush off¹ [B1i pass B2 pass] remove with a brush. S: valet, cleaner. O: mud, dust, fluff □ *'I can't brush the dirt off (or: *It won't brush off).'

773- brush off² [B1i nom pass adj] (slang) reject, jilt, end a relationship with; avoid meeting or forming a relationship with. S: man, girlfriend; senior colleague, business associate. O: girlfriend, man; newcomer, junior □ His girlfriend has just given him the brush-off. □ I've tried to make contact with the neighbours but they've always brushed me off.

774- brush past [A1 A2] just touch sb as one passes him in a confined space □ 'Don't bother to move. I think I can just brush past.' □ Something that felt like a cat brushed past him in the darkness.

775- brush up [B1iii pass adj] (informal) revise or practise a skill in order to be proficient in it once again. S: tourist, salesman, learner-driver. O: French, Spanish; knowledge of the law, Highway Code □ You'll have to brush up your his- tory of art if you want a job in the museum. □ His spoken Arabic was hurriedly brushed up before he took off on a sales tour of the Middle East.

776-bubble over [A1] rise to a peak, reach a climax. S: enthusiasm, high spirits, good humour □ Then excitement seemed to bubble over inside her. 'Life's so interesting, isn't it?' she said. DC ⇨ next entry.

777-bubble over with [A3 rel] display a great deal of. S: child, holiday-maker. o: excitement, high spirits □ With us travelled Rafael, bubbling over with enthusiasm for the whole trip. DF ⇨ previous entry.

778-bubble up [A1] rise to the surface in bubbles and/or with the sound of bursting bubbles. S: gas, air; water, oil □ The warm gases bubbled up through the water.

779-buck up[1] [A1 B1i pass] (informal) become, make, more lively and cheerful; cheer up[1,2] (q v). S: [A1] O: [B1] patient, invalid. S: [B1] news; holiday, rest; meal, drink. A: no end, a great deal, a lot □ He'd got depressed about his work, but he bucked up at the thought that he'd soon be on holiday. □ It was clear that Bennie's visit had bucked him up no end. ILIH

780-buck up[2] [A1] (informal) make haste, hurry up (q v) □ *'Buck up, Peter, or you'll be late for school!'* □ 'He'll have to buck up if he wants to catch that train.' □ often imper, or with must, have to.

781-buck one's ideas up [B1i pass] (informal) become more wideawake or alert □ If he hopes to keep his job, he'll have to buck his ideas up a bit. □ often with have to, ought to, need to.

782-buckle down to [A3 pass] (informal) begin (work) in earnest, set to (work) seriously. o: ⚠ job, task, work; it □ MICK: But he won't buckle down to the job. DAVIES: He doesn't like work. MICK: Work shy. TC □ You can't play around with this assignment: it's something that needs to be buckled down to seriously.

783-buckle to [A1] (informal) unite efforts in the face of common danger or hardship. S: family, country, partners □ When their mother died, the children simply had to buckle to and run the house themselves. □ With Anna to lend a hand you'll be able to carry on until Laura gets here. It'll be a little adventure — buckling to and seeing it through. TGLY

784-bugger about/around[1] [A1] (taboo) behave in a foolish or irresponsible way □ 'Now stop buggering about*, Charlie. I've got work to do.'* □ 'If you carry on buggering around with that knife, you'll do yourself an injury.'

785-bugger about/around[2] [B1ii pass] (taboo) treat sb in a foolish or casual way; behave as though one had a poor estimate of sb's worth etc. S: firm, dealer; clerk, official □ 'Look, all I want is a simple answer to a simple question. Now stop buggering me about*!'* □ 'Don't try to be too clever with Fred. If he thinks you're buggering him around*, he'll clobber you!'*

786-bugger off [A1] (taboo) leave, clear off[1] (q v) □ He'd buggered off before I had a chance to get a word in. □ 'Yah! Get away! Bugger off*!'* PM □ often as imper.

787-bugger up [B1i pass] (taboo) spoil, ruin; make a hash/mess of (q v). S: workman, salesman; firm, agency. o: things, the whole thing, it; job, deal □ 'Don't go fiddling around with that spanner — you'll bugger the whole works up*.'* □ 'Things can easily be buggered up by twits like you taking a hand.'

788-build in/into[1] [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] make as a permanent fixture in a house. S: builder, carpenter. O: cupboard, wardrobe, desk □ Don't bother to buy cupboards: I'm arranging to have them built in (i e built into the walls). □ There was a built-in dresser in the kitchen. □ usu [B1] passive and adj forms.

789-build in/into[2] [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] make a firm and necessary part of sth. S: firm, solicitor, building-society, local authority. O: clause, proviso, requirement. o: lease, contract, agreement □ The landlord has insisted on building into our agreement a clause forbidding us to sublet. □ The new contract with the employers includes a built-in agreement on wages.

build into ⇨ build (up) into.

791-build on [A2 pass rel] use sth as a foundation for further progress. S: team, athlete; firm, factory. o: achievement, success, record □ In their latest design, the company is clearly building on the success of previous years.

792-build one's hopes on [B2 emph rel] choose sb or sth as the best means of achieving an objective. S: country; industry, agriculture; government, party. o: alliance, treaty; automation, mechanization; (new) leader, policy □ It was on Mr Maudling that this group within the Conservative Party now built its hopes*.*

793-build out [B1i pass] build as an extension to an existing structure. O: wing, extension; (extra) room; conservatory □ Extra classrooms were built out from the main block.

794-build over [A2 pass adj] cover with buildings. o: bomb-site, derelict land, marsh □ The woods where he used to play as a child have all gone. They're built over*, of course.* □ This area to the left of the road is built-over farmland.

795-build up[1] [A1 nom] accumulate, so as to form a block. S: traffic; queue, line □ At Easter, traffic builds up along the roads to the coast. □ There is a serious build-up of cars on the A6 near Manchester.

796-build up[2] [B1i pass adj] develop, cover with buildings. O: area, district, village □ The whole district is being built up*; soon you won't be able to see the fields for bricks and mortar.* □ There is normally a speed-limit for traffic in built-up areas. □ adj form built-up usu occurs with area.

797-build up[3] [B1ii pass] develop the strength or physique of. S: doctor, nurse, mother; exercise, diet □ 'Must go carefully all the same. Not too much excitement. You must build yourself up for the winter.' PW □ 'Your brother has the nicest manners, but he needs building up*; Vitamin B, I'd say.'* DC general, government. O: firm, practice; army; reputation, quality. o: scratch, zero, nothing □ The rebels may well be planning to build up this kind of army with foreign assistance. SC □ We had to build the firm up from scratch after the devastation of the war.

798-build up[4] [B1ii nom pass] (informal) speak in glowing terms of (the praise may be exaggerated or undeserved). S: friend, colleague; former employer, chairman. O: performer, actor, promising beginner □ Don't build me up too much: I'm really not that talented. □ He wasn't half the performer he was built up to be. □ The master of ceremony's build-up was effusive and largely insincere.

799-build up (from) [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] develop, extend, gradually and steadily (from a low level). S: leader, businessman.

800-build (up) into [A2 A3 B2 pass B3 pass] (of parts) come, put, together to form a whole. S: [A2 A3] O: [B2 B3] piece, scrap; stamp, medal, book. S: [B2 B3] artist; collector □ [A3] Eventually, these books will build up into a fine library. □ [B2] The sculptor has built these scraps of metal into a fine composition.

801-build up (to)[1] [B1i nom pass adj B3 pass emph rel] increase, accumulate. S: bank, City; ally, enemy. O: reserves, capital; force, army. o: level; strength □ The banks have built up sufficient reserves to cope with the crisis. □ The army has been built up to its wartime strength. □ A build-up of enemy forces has been reported.

802-build up (to)[2] [A1 nom A3 emph rel B1iii pass adj B3 pass emph rel] develop, increase, intensify. S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] pressure, tension; opposition, resistance. S: [B1 B3] overwork, stress; decision, attitude. o: pitch, intensity; climax □ [A1] More tightness and pressure build up and your headache gets worse. WI □ [A3] Tension is building up to a climax in this troubled city. □ [A1] These measures will only lead to a build-up in communal strife. □ [B1] The tax laws built up resistance to the regime.

803-bully off [A1 nom] (hockey) begin a game or period of play by striking sticks together. S: captain, player □ There was a bully-off in one corner of the field following an infringement.

804-bum around [A1] (slang) wander or hang about idly. S: scamp, wastrel, tramp □ I think he proposes to bum around and get money from his parents whenever he runs short.

805-bump into [A2] (informal) meet by chance (often after a long separation); run into[4] (q v) □ You know, you remind me of a bloke I bumped into once, just the other side of the Guildford by-pass. TC

806-bump off [B1i pass] (slang) kill (usu by shooting). S: gangster, husband, brother. O: crony, rival, wife □ 'We'll all get bumped off when the balloon goes up,' he said. RFW □ 'You bumped the old woman off, and you're going to pay or hang!' PE

807-bump up [B1i pass] (informal) increase, raise. S: examiner, accountant; employer; shortage, scarcity, increased demand. O: mark, total; salary; value, shares □ Towards the close of business prices were bumped up by news of changes in the tax laws affecting private incomes.

808-bumped up [pass adj (B1)] (informal) (have) risen rather quickly to a high position from humble beginnings; (be) in a job which is made to sound more important than it is (by some special title). S: clerk, office boy, messenger □ Mr Smythe wanted to speak to the real manager. He wasn't going to be satisfied with some bumped-up cashier. □ 'We must have struck him as rather bumped up. You know, no proper social background.' □ passive with be, seem, appear.

809-bung up [B1i pass adj] (slang) block, clog. O: drain, pipe; nose, bowels □ 'Don't throw tea leaves down the sink: you'll bung it up.' □ 'I've been bunged up (= constipated) since I changed my diet.'

810-buoy up[1] [B1i pass] keep afloat. S: life-jacket, 'mae-west'; driftwood. O: swimmer, survivor (of shipwreck) □ He seized a piece of wreckage; this would buoy him up till rescue came.

811-buoy up[2] [B1i pass] keep at a high or safe level. S: trading policy, improvement in the market. O: prices, share levels, trading figures □ These hopes have been buoying up share prices. OBS

812-buoy up[3] [B1i pass] keep cheerful or content. S: hope, thought; change of fortune □ I was buoyed up by thinking I might manage to get married myself. SML

813-buried under [pass (B2)] (be) overwhelmed by. o: (pile, mountain of) work, marking, correcting □ 'I can't get near him at the moment. He's buried under a pile of paperwork.'

814-burn away[1] [A1] continue to burn. S: (coal-, gas-)fire □ The fire was still burning away cheerfully in the grate.

815-burn away[2] [A1 B1i pass] become, make less by burning; destroy by fire. S: [A1] O: [B1] fuel, oil; wick, fuse; tissue, flesh □ Half the oil in the lamp had burnt away. □ When the pilot reached hospital, it was found that tissue had been burnt away from his face and hands.

816-burn down [A1 B1i pass adj] be destroyed, destroy, to the foundations by fire. S: [A1] O: [B1] house, factory, farmhouse. S: [B1] mob, fire-raiser □ The wood-shed burnt down in half an hour.

817-burn for [A2 emph rel] (formal or facetious) wish ardently that one could have. o: her etc; (moment of) glory, triumph □ These mercenary armies keep going because there's always some idiot burning for his moment of glory.

818-burn off [B1i pass] remove, strip, by burning. O: paint, varnish □ Burn off the old paint, fill any cracks in the woodwork, and rub down well with sandpaper.*

819-burn out[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] (technical) (cause to) damage and stop working (through electrical burning). S: [A1] O: [B1] motor, coil, armature □ The high current taken by the armature when the motor is thus semi-stalled causes it to burn out. WTR □ Burnt-out armatures in most cases are rewound.* WTR

820-burn out[2] [A1] (space technology) use up its fuel. S: rocket, missile; motor □ As the first rocket burns out, the second-stage motor ignites.

821-burn out[3] [B1i pass adj] gut, reduce to a shell by fire. O: house, factory; car, tank □ Burned-out lorries lined both sides of the road.* □ The factory was completely burnt out. □ usu passive or adj.

822-burn (itself) out [A1 B1ii] stop burning (because there is no more fuel). S: fire, flames; furnace, range □ When we got back from the theatre we found that the fire had burned itself out.

823-burn (oneself) out [B1ii pass] (informal) ruin one's health through overwork, dissipation etc □ If you don't give up this evening work, you'll burn yourself out. □ The last time I saw him, he looked completely burned out.

824-burn to [B2 pass] reduce sth by burning to ash etc. O: food; meal; fuel; (wooden) furniture, fitting. o: ⚠ (a) cinder(s), a crisp, ash □ 'Do I smell burning?' said Charmian. 'The pie and potatoes are burned to cinders.' MM □ 'You've burnt the bacon to a crisp!'

825-burn to death [B2 pass] kill by burning. S: fire, blaze. O: occupant; passenger □ Three people were burned to death in a blazing van which overturned and burst into flames late last night. DM

826-burn up[1] [A1] come to life, flare up (q v), as fuel is added. S: fire, stove □ He threw a log on the fire, and it burned up with a crackle.

827-burn up[2] [B1i pass adj] consume, get rid of, by burning. O: rubbish; leaf, twig □ Throw the scraps in the incinerator and burn them up.

828-burn up[3] [A1] catch fire and be destroyed as it enters the earth's atmosphere. S: meteorite; rocket □ A meteorite leaves a long, brilliant trail as it burns up on entering the atmosphere.

829-burn-up [nom (A1)] (slang) a race at high speed on a public road between young people riding motor-cycles □ In between burn-ups on the by-pass, the gang meet for talk and coffee.

830-burn with [A2] (formal) be filled with, or consumed by. o: passion, desire; ambition □ She burned with longing for her absent lover.

831-burst in/into [A1 A2] enter suddenly. S: messenger; stranger. o: room, hall □ Suddenly Mr Lee burst in, in his shirtsleeves, and rushed across the living room into his bedroom. OBS

832-burst in (upon) [A1 A3 pass] interrupt suddenly and excitedly. o: conversation, discussion □ A staff officer burst in upon their discussion with the news that the enemy was only five miles away. □ 'I don't see why I should be expected to help,' Peter burst in angrily. □ burst in usu follows direct speech.

833-burst into[1] [A2] begin, suddenly and/or violently, to cry, laugh, sing etc. S: listener, viewer; child, old lady. o: ⚠ tears, sobs; laughter, a guffaw, song □ Aunt Annabel, who has been nervous and jumpy lately, suddenly burst into tears. DC □ As the comic got into his stride, the audience burst into hoots of laughter.

834-burst into[2] [A2] begin suddenly to flower. S: (flowering) tree, shrub; bedgerow. o: ⚠ bloom, blossom, flower □ The orchards seemed to have burst into blossom overnight.

835-burst into flames [A2] begin, suddenly and violently, to burn. S: car, van; petrol tank; oil fire □ A child had knocked over an oil heater, which burst instantly into flames. □ The aircraft turned on its back and burst into flames.

836-burst into sight/view [A2] (of a brilliant spectacle) suddenly appear. S: procession, cavalcade; demonstrators, marchers □ The cavalry escort went by; then the royal coach with its outriders burst into view.

837-burst out [A1] declare suddenly and with feeling, exclaim (without necessarily interrupting) □ He angrily burst out, 'Why don't you stop pretending you know all the answers!'

838-burst out crying/laughing [A1] suddenly begin to cry/laugh; burst into[1] (q v) □ He looked about ready to burst out crying. TC □ I mentioned the incident later to a tailor friend and he burst out laughing. TO 839-burst out/out of [A1 A2 emph rel] leave abruptly and/or violently, free oneself by violent efforts (from). S: crowd, mob; prisoner. o: gaol; cage □ The gate suddenly gave way and an angry crowd burst out of the yard.

840-burst out of [A2] grow too big or fat for. S: (growing) child, adolescent. o: clothes; trousers, shorts, jacket □ All the children were bursting out of their school uniforms and there was no money to buy them new ones.

841-burst through [A1 A2 emph rel] make an opening and come through it with sudden violence. S: army; infantry, tanks; raider, bandit. o: front, defences; door □ Desperate efforts were made to seal off the gap through which the enemy divisions had burst.

842-burst upon [A2] occur suddenly to, dawn on/upon (q v). S: truth, realization; wisdom of a course of action □ The truth of what his wife had been saying suddenly burst upon him.

843-burst with [A2] show an abundance of sth. S: child, youth; athlete. o: ⚠ health, vitality, energy, enthusiasm, go □ Lady Emily and the Honourable Giles were bursting with health and good looks. WDM

844-bury (oneself) (away) in [B2 pass B3 pass] move to, be situated in, a remote place. o: country; university, library; monastery □ What made him go and bury himself in the country? □ We found the house at last. It was buried away in a remote part of the Yorkshire dales.

845-bury one's face/head in [B2 pass] hide one's face as a sign of grief or pain, or so that others will not see one's expression or tears. o: ⚠ one's hands, handkerchief, the apron, bed-clothes □ Suddenly the truth struck me, and I wanted to sit down and bury my face in my hands. TC □ Guy sat down and buried his head in the bed-clothes. He began to sob. DC buried under [pass (B2)] ⇨ entry after buoy up[3].

846-bury (oneself) in [B2 pass rel] become deeply involved in. o: work; paper, book □ Right after dinner, he would go into the study and bury himself in his paper-work. □ 'Don't disturb your father: he's buried in the crossword.'

848-bust up [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) destroy, break up[7] (q v). S: rival, competitor; philanderer. O: partnership; marriage □ Everything was fine between John and me until that woman stepped in and bust us up. □ Most of us could see the bust-up of their marriage coming. ⇨ next entry.

849-bust-up [nom B1] (informal) violent quarrel □ We could hear a tremendous bust-up going on in the next room — china being thrown all over the place. ⇨ previous entry.

850-bustle about/around [A1 A2] move about briskly and busily. o: place, house □ Mary bustled about in the kitchen getting a meal together while Peter found us something to drink.

851-busy oneself (with) [B2 rel] occupy oneself, be busy, with a task. o: preparations, housework; cooking a meal, cleaning the kitchen; car, boat; carpentry, decorating □ She always manages to find something to busy herself with. □ 'I brought a thermos-flask with me.' He leant over and busied himself with a basket. QA

852-butt in[1] [A1] (informal) interrupt (a conversation) rudely □ I wish you wouldn't keep butting in when we are in the middle of a conversation.

853-butt in[2] [A1] (informal) intervene, interfere, meddle □ Of course, I don't want to butt in on the technical side. RM □ It's better that his affairs should be handled by one man. It makes confusion if someone else butts in. FW insincerely (with a view to obtaining favours etc). S: employee, junior colleague. O: boss, employer, professor □ 'I wish he'd stop trying to butter me up. I hate hypocrisy.'

854-butter up [B1i pass] (informal) praise or flatter

855-butter up to [A3 pass] (informal) try to get close to sb by flattering him insincerely. S: junior boy; novice, recruit. o: prefect; boss, foreman □ 'Don't bother buttering up to me. I'm too old a hand to be won over by flattery.'

856-button up [B1 pass adj] (informal) conclude or finalize (arrangements). S: committee, organizer, team. O: it all, the whole thing, all the details □ I haven't said a word about it yet and I shan't, not till it's all buttoned up. RFW □ usu passive.

858-buttoned up [pass adj (B1)] (informal) (be) secretive; (be) reserved, shy □ He hasn't said a word about our part in the plan: he's terribly buttoned up. □ I've always found him an awkward, buttoned-up sort of fellow. □ passive with be, appear, seem.

859-buy in [B1iii pass] buy a stock of sth (as a precaution in the event of a shortage). O: stock, supply; sugar, soap □ People bought in stocks of tinned goods in anticipation of food rationing.

860-buy oneself in/into [B1ii B2] obtain a share in (the control of) a business by buying stock. o: firm, business, company □ A number of British companies are now buying themselves into European commerce and industry.

861-buy off [B1i pass] (informal) persuade sb, by paying him money, not to act against one's interests. S: intending purchaser; superstitious fellow; victim of blackmail. O: competitor, business rival; god, demon; blackmailer □ 'If you're trying to buy me off, I'm afraid you've come to the wrong person.' □ Don't ignore his threats to report you: he'll have to be bought off.

862-buy out[1] [B1ii pass] (military) obtain sb's release from the armed forces by a cash payment. S: soldier, sailor, airman; friend, relative. O: himself, themselves; son, brother □ Those who find they don't like the life can buy themselves out for £20 between their eighth and twelfth week of training. ST

863-buy out[2] [B1i pass] pay someone to give up a post, or a share in a business (often to secure a controlling interest oneself). S: partner, shareholder, chairman □ New members can join by buying out an existing member at the current price of units. H □ Balzac's associates had persuaded him to buy them out, so that he was now sole proprietor. PTLB 864-buy up [B1i pass] buy all, or as much as possible, of sth; obtain complete financial control over it. S: speculator, property tycoon, rival firm. O: land, property, office-space □ A Manchester finance house is making a bid to buy up the entire company. □ All the land for miles around has been bought up by one speculator.

865-buzz off [A1] (slang) leave, clear off[1] (q v) □ He just buzzed off and left his wife to cope with the house and children.

C

866-cage in [B1i pass adj] confine, limit sb's freedom of movement □ This animal is dangerous and should be caged in. □ After being confined for so long he began to get a caged-in feeling.

867-caked in/with [pass (B2)] thickly coated with, (be) encrusted with. S: hair, nails; clothes, shoes, boots. o: mud, grease, dirt, muck, soil, soap □ When he arrived home from the match, he was caked in mud from head to foot. □ His ears were caked with shaving soap when he went for his interview.

868-call (about) [A2] visit sb in his home, office etc (in order to discuss or investigate sth). o: the gas; sb's complaint, advertisement, inquiry □ 'Excuse me, madam, I've been asked by my Head Office to call about your outstanding debt on the cooker.'

call (at) [A2] ⇨ call (in) (at).

870-call away [B1i pass] summon from one's surgery etc to attend on sb. S: doctor, midwife, nurse; police constable; priest. A: a few minutes ago; on business; to an urgent case, an accident □ 'I'm afraid the doctor isn't in. He was called away a few minutes ago.' □ very often passive, with no agent mentioned.

871-call by [A1 A2] make a stop at (in the course of another, longer journey), often to collect sth or sb; call (in) (at) (q v) □ 'Will you be in at five o'clock this evening? If so, I'll call by and pick up my saw and other tools, if you don't mind.'

872-call down [B1i pass] (military) order artillery, aircraft, to attack enemy targets. S: (field, infantry) commander. O: bombardment; mortar-fire; air strike □ If the enemy advanced into the open, he would radio his field batteries and call down a pre-arranged bombardment.

873-call down on sb's head [B3 pass] (formal or facetious) summon, invoke. O: ⚠ the wrath of God, curses, fire and brimstone, the vengeance of Heaven □ It's no use calling down the wrath of God on the heads of your enemies; something more will be necessary to defeat them.

874-call (for) [A2 pass rel] go to sb's house in order to take him somewhere; go to a house, shop, cinema etc in order to collect goods, tickets etc. □ 'What time shall I call for you tomorrow?' □ 'Has the boy called for the laundry yet?' □ The goods will be called for by Mr White's son.

875-call for [A2 pass] require, demand, need. S: the present conditions; the age (in which we live); his state of health; success, achievements, good luck, failure. o: skill, care; (careful, discrete, tactful, delicate), handling, examination; the exercise of judgement; a new approach, new thinking, immediate action; celebration, party; our gratitude, commiseration □ The identification of blood groups and the analysis of ink in forged documents can call for considerable skill. NS □ 'You've got the job? This calls for a drink!'

876-call forth [B1iii pass] (formal) cause to appear, bring out[2] (q v). S: (difficult) situation, operation; performance, behaviour, action. O: courage, spirit; the will to fight or survive; criticism, protests □ The dark days of 1940 called forth the best in the character of the British people.

877-call forward [B1i pass] invite or order sb to approach the speaker, to take some steps out of a group, row etc □ The captain of the winning team was called forward to receive the cup.

878-call in [B1i pass] request, order, the return of sth, because it is now unsuitable or no longer needed. S: ministry, department; library, store, bank; manufacturer. O: all unsold tickets; (out-of-date, surplus), equipment; defective cars; empty containers. A: immediately, at once, without delay, urgently □ The Army is calling in all the unwanted ammunition. □ How many of the cars have been called in?

879-call (in) (at) [A1 A2 rel A3 rel] stop at one place on the way to another. S: he etc; ship, boat. o: café, public house; (friend's, relation's) home; the hospital, the police station; the butcher's, the chemist's; Marseilles, Karachi □ We called (in) at Joe's Bar on the way home from the cinema. □ The ship calls at several ports between Aden and London. □ 'Call in this evening, if you can; I've something important to discuss.'

880-call off[1] [B1i pass] stop or give the order to stop. S: military commander, police officer. O: pursuer; dog; chase, hunt; pursuit, attack □ As we were getting too far from our base, I decided to call my men off. □ The pursuit was called off when it was clear that we had won the day.

881-call off[2] [B1i pass] (informal) order dogs, pursuers, to stop searching, attacking or worrying sb. O: △ the dogs, hounds, bloodhounds □ 'Why don't you mind your own business?' he said. 'There's been no harm done, and this lady here has called off the dogs....' TT □ 'You can call your men off, Inspector. I give up.'

882-call off[3] [B1i pass] cancel, abandon, drop. O: the whole thing; arrangement, deal; scheme, plan, proposal; strike; journey, expedition; picnic, excursion; engagement (between a man and a woman) □ Why don't we call off this competition for her love? QA □ 'I don't see any point in going on with our idea of a picnic, in weather like this. Let's call it off.'

883-call (on) [A2 pass rel] visit (usu for business or official reasons). S: salesman, traveller, our representative; (health) inspector; doctor, vicar. o: customers; the sick; the aged and infirm; parishioners □ Our representative will call on you in the course of the next week. □ Have you been called on by the new parson?

884-call on/upon (to do sth)[1] [A2 pass rel] invite, request (sb to speak etc). S: Chairman; Best Man. o: speaker, lecturer; (distinguished) guest. Inf to deliver his lecture, to address us; to say a few words; to propose the health of the bride □ 'I will now call on Mr White to propose a vote of thanks to the Committee.' □ He was seldom called upon to speak at these gatherings.

885-call on/upon (to do sth)[2] [A2 pass rel] urge, appeal to (sb to act in some way). o: organization, institution, nation; friend, relation, student, colleague. Inf to help, support, protest □ We shall have to call upon our friends to help us. □ He called on other churches to dissociate themselves from the statement.

886-call out[1] [A1] give a greeting, make a request etc, in a loud voice □ 'A lovely evening,' the man called out to me. ARG □ 'If you want anything from the larder, just call out and I'll bring it.'

887-call out[2] [B1i pass] state, declare, in a loud voice. O: (list of) names, prices, times, quantities; score, marks; results (of a competition) □ 'Please keep quiet while I call out the names of the successful competitors.' □ When Bill's name was called out, another boy said 'Present, sir!'

888-call out[3] [A1] (of schoolchildren) try to attract the teacher's attention; speak in a loud voice, without permission □ 'How many times must I tell you not to call out, Jones?'

889-call out[4] [A1] shout, try to attract attention; cry out (q v). S: drowning man; injured child. A: for help; in pain □ The starving peasants called out for food, but the visitors had none to give.

890-call out[5] [B1i pass] summon sb (to restore order etc). S: Government, Home Secretary. O: militia, Home Guard, special constabulary □ A practical joker picked up the telephone and called out the fire-brigade.

891-call out[6] [B1i pass] (industrial relations) order or authorize workers to go on strike. S: (Trades) Union, Executive Committee. A: on strike; in sympathy □ Bus-drivers may be called out (on strike) in support of their recent wage-claim.

892-call round (at) [A1 A3] pay a visit (to). o: John's place, house □ 'Do call round when you have the time. We're at home most evenings.' □ 'I'll call round at my brother's this afternoon to pick up the book.'

893-call to account [B2 pass] make sb explain an error, loss, failure etc. S: manager, boss. O: clerk, cashier □ He may think that all this petty pilfering goes unnoticed, but one day he'll be called to account. □ The manager was called to account over some missing cash.

894-call to mind [B2] recall, remember. O: him etc; the occasion; saying, promising that... □ 'I'm sure I've met the girl you're referring to, but I can't just call her to mind.' □ 'Do you know her telephone number?' 'I ought to, but I can't quite call it to mind.' □ The accused said that he could not call to mind making any of the statements quoted by the police officer.

895-call to order [B2 pass] formally request a meeting to be silent so that business may begin or continue. S: chairman; mayor, president. O: meeting, assembly, gathering □ At two o'clock, the chairman called us to order and the afternoon session began. □ Despite attempts to call them to order, the audience continued to stamp.

896-call up[1] [B1i pass] reach, communicate with, by telephone. O: shop, restaurant, bar; airport; ticket-office □ 'I tried to call you up last night, but no one answered the phone. Were you out?'

897-call up[2] [B1i nom pass adj] (military) summon for military or national service. S: Government; Army. O: all able-bodied men, men between the ages of 18 and 25 □ He was called up right at the beginning of the war. □ Have you received your call(ing)-up papers yet? □ The call-up of the 40–42 age-group was announced on the radio.

898-call up[3] [B1i pass adj] (military) summon to one's aid. S: army, divisional commander. O: reserves, reinforcements; cavalry, armour □ He saw that he would have to call his reserves up if defeat was to be avoided.

899-call up[4] [B1i pass] recall to the memory, bring back[2] (q v). S: incident, smell, sound. O: memory, scene (from the past); past life, childhood □ The sound of seagulls called up happy memories of his childhood holidays.

900- call up the Devil [B1iii] (witchcraft) cause the Devil to appear, and obtain his assistance for some nefarious purpose □ The local coven of witches were accused of regularly calling up the Devil to help them in their evil work.

901- call upon[1] [A2 pass rel] invite, request (sb to speak etc). ⇨ call on/upon (to do sth)[1].

902- call upon[2] [A2 pass rel] urge, appeal to (sb to act in some way). ⇨ call on/upon (to do sth)[2].

903- calm down[1] [A1] become calm or quiet, recover one's temper □ The sea calmed down as soon as the wind fell. □ 'Here, Parkinson, have a cup of coffee and calm down!' 'To hell with a cup of coffee! Listen to this!' TBC

904- calm down[2] [B1i pass] make or help sb to become quiet, or control his temper. □ It was a real lesson in the power of a woman to calm a man down. CON □ Calming him down took longer than I had expected.*

905- camp out [A1] live in a tent (usu for a holiday) □ 'There is no possibility of accommodating any more visitors.' 'I see,' said the young man. 'But couldn't I camp out?' RM

906- camp up [B1ii pass] (theatre) overact to an absurd degree, and in such a way as to please an unsophisticated audience. O: performance; show, play; it, the whole thing □ 'If the play is intrinsically bad, you will never turn it into a success by camping it up like that! It's best to let it die a natural death, and look for something better.'

907- cancel out [B1i pass adj] reduce to nothing, wipe out[2] (q v). S: improvement, gain, success. O: failure, loss, deficit □ A large inflow of investments has cancelled out their indebtedness.

908- cancel (each other) out [A1 B1ii] (of similar or identical things) balance; make each other ineffective. S: factors, conditions, characteristics □ 'But hadn't they all been naughty, even Harold, even Irma naughty, and did not their naughtinesses cancel each other out?' PW □ In the long run the two sets of factors cancel out.

909- care for[1] [A2] be pleased or attracted by; like to have or own. o: neighbour, colleague; cigarette, cup of tea □ 'You don't care for Helena, do you?' 'You didn't seem very keen yourself, once.' LBA □ I don't care for her new curtains.

910- care for[2] [A2 pass adj] be responsible for, take care (of) (q v). S: family; the State; doctor, nurse. o: children; the sick, the wounded □ If a man is asked to risk his life for his country, he must know that, should he be killed, his wife and children will be properly cared for. □ We were impressed by the well-cared-for gardens.

911- carp (at) (about) [A2] (informal) continually complain to sb (about sth), refer insistently and irritatingly to sth. o: (about) conditions, terms; delay, inefficiency; cleanliness, service (in a hotel) □ 'It's no use carping at me about the rotten weather!' □ Don't waste time carping about their laziness — go and speak to them.

912- carry about (with one) [B1ii B3] take from place to place, take everywhere (with one). O: briefcase, umbrella, stick □ Why did you want to carry that document about with you all the time? You were bound to lose it sooner or later. DC □ Be sure to carry your passport about with you whenever you leave the hotel.

913- carry along [B1ii pass] help to continue or complete a task, race etc; give encouragement or support to. O: runner, swimmer, competitor, team □ The amateur football team was carried along by the enthusiasm of its supporters and finally defeated the more highly-rated professional club. □ Although he had spent years on his research, the scientist's conviction that he was on the threshold of a great discovery carried him along.

914- carry away[1] [B1i pass] take, remove, usu by overwhelming force. S: river, sea; raging waters, torrent, flood, tidal wave; hurricane, whirlwind, tornado. O: everything in its path; structure, house, building □ Several houses in the village were carried away when the swollen river suddenly changed its course.

915- carry away[2] [B1i pass] move or fill sb with emotion so that he no longer has full control over his thoughts etc. S: speaker; occasion; feeling, sentiment □ When he starts to sing, he just carries you away. □ 'I should have thought before I spoke. I just get carried away with enthusiasm.' DC □ Isabel was carried away by the thought that almost for the first time she was having a serious conversation with her husband about books. PW □ usu passive.

916- carry back (to) [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] recall to mind, cause to remember; take back (to) (q v). S: incident, smell, sound, voice. o: childhood, early days; first encounter, last reunion □ The sound of seagulls carried me back to my childhood holidays at the seaside. ⇨ bring back[2], call up[4].

917- carry all/everything before one [B2] advance irresistibly; sweep aside all opposition, capture all one's objectives. S: troops, army; team □ With the overwhelming forces that he had managed to build up, Montgomery finally carried everything before him in Africa. □ (humorously) 'She's a well-built woman, all right. She carries everything before her!'

918- carry forward [B1i pass] (finance) take a sum of money etc from one page or column to the next, or from one week, one year, to the next. O: total; (outstanding) debt; deficit, surplus □ It's no use carrying this debt forward; we might as well write it off. □ often abbreviated to c/f.

919- carry off[1] [B1i pass] seize and bear away (as a captive). S: enemy, gypsies, witch; bird of prey. O: child; (defenceless) women, child; small animal □ People used to be afraid that the gypsies might carry their children off. □ The eagle swooped and carried off a sleeping lizard.

920- carry off[2] [B1iii pass] win. S: competitor; entry. O: award; trophy, cup, shield □ The visiting team of athletes carried off most of the medals.

921- carry it off [B1ii] (informal) manage, handle, a difficult or embarrassing situation successfully □ If Mary's former husband had come in a little earlier, the guests would have been able to carry it off all right, but he had caught them off balance. CON □ My remark had obviously annoyed her. I tried feebly to carry it off. SPL

922- carry on[1] [A1] continue □ 'Please carry on as usual while I listen to the class.' □ Other dogs would growl at me — but not Bruce — he just wags his lovely thick tail and carries on playing. WI □ often followed by -ing form of a v.

923- carry on[2] [A1 nom] (informal) quarrel, argue, fuss, behave, noisily □ Old Mr Khnopff was carrying on about his pen; he made such a fuss you'd think it was his head. US □ 'Did you ever hear such a carry-on about nothing at all?' □ (i) in substandard English: carry on something awful, something dreadful (= in an awful or dreadful manner); (ii) the nom form carryings-on, used only in the plural: I heard him complaining about the carryings-on of some town council in the paper that he was reading. HAHA

924- carry on[3] [A1 B1iii pass] continue, maintain. S: [A1] O: [B1] life, existence; routine, pattern □ 'Life on earth is not going to be impossible, but it will have to be carried on in far less favourable circumstances.' TBC

925- carry on[4] [B1iii pass] conduct, hold. O: conversation, talk, discussion □ You shouldn't carry on long conversations with your friends when someone else is waiting to use the telephone.

926- carry on[5] [B1iii pass] conduct, transact, pursue. O: business, occupation □ A great many shady businesses are carried on through the small-ad columns of respectable newspapers.

927- carry on (with) [A1 A3 rel] (informal) have an irregular affair (with) □ 'Isn't it shocking! Everyone knows that Mary's husband is carrying on with the woman next door.' □ They'd been carrying on for years, but his wife never knew.

928- carry out[1] [B1iii pass adj] fulfil. O: (one's) obligations, promises, threats; plan, agreement; instructions, specifications. A: faithfully; punctually; to the letter □ If this difficult phase of highways planning is to be carried out efficiently, the engineer has to have all the help that modern methods of survey can supply. NS □ This order was not popular with the armoured units, but I was determined to see that it was carried out to the letter. MFM

929- carry out[2] [B1iii pass] perform, conduct. O: experiment, test □ Before testing this method on patients, Dr Baronofsky carried out tests for two years on three hundred dogs. NS

930- carry over [B1i pass] (finance, commerce) retain as an item to be dealt with at a later date □ 'I propose that some minor matters on the agenda should be carried over for consideration at the next meeting.' □ If you do not take the holidays at the appropriate time, you may find that you cannot carry them over to the next year. ⇨ carry forward.

931- carry through[1] [B1i pass] complete, pursue to completion. O: aim, plan, scheme, enterprise. A: to the (bitter) end; in the face of/in spite of every obstacle □ These aims will be carried through to the end. MFM □ Scheme after scheme, absolutely foolproof, has been spoilt from the beginning by my never having enough capital to carry it through. HAHA

932- carry through[2] [B1ii pass B2 pass] sustain; help to survive difficult period. S: God, trust in God, hope (for a better life); determination, courage, grit. o: crisis; war □ (hymn) He (i e God) is willing to aid you; He will carry you through. □ A growing confidence in the new leaders helped to carry the soldiers through.

933- carry with one[1] [B2] obtain or keep the support of; persuade sb to follow, agree with, one. O: majority; committee, jury; crowd, assembled company □ Nixon's rival in the 1972 Presidential Election appeared at first to be carrying the whole youth of the country with him.

934- carry with one[2] [B2] retain, be always aware or reminded of. O: memory, impression; guilt; happy recollection □ I shall always carry with me the memory of that child's tortured face.

935- carve out a career for oneself [B3] make, build, a career as a result of great effort □ He managed to carve out a career for himself as an actor, though at first he hardly earned enough to keep body and soul together.

936- carve up [B1i nom pass] (informal) dismember. S: victors, (victorious) allies. O: country, territory, state □ The victors mercilessly carved up the defeated country, each taking an equal share. □ The great powers stood by and watched the carve-up of this remote and seemingly unimportant country.

937- cash in (on) [A1 A3 pass rel] (informal) exploit, get the benefit of. S: (trade) rival, competitor; colleague, associate. o: shortage, scarcity; boom, expansion; discovery, success □ The great problem is to prevent others cashing in before we've had time to market the product. □ He cashed in on the sudden popularity of Victorian bric-a-brac by selling all his old unwanted ornaments at enormous prices. □ If I find some woman trying to cash in on my chivalry by lashing out with her frail little fists, I lash back at her. LBA □ note casher-in: He's a great casher-in on people's financial difficulties: he lends money at an exorbitant rate.

938- cast about for [A3 rel] seek, try to find, usu hurriedly or in an emergency; cast round for (q v). o: solution, answer; expedient, device; means, method (of escape) □ He cast about in his mind for some plausible excuse for not turning up at the meeting. □ The suspect cast about for some way of escaping from the police-car.

939- cast aside [B1i pass] remove, throw off[1] (q v); discard. O: coat, gloves; cares, anxieties, inhibitions; prejudice; (best) friend, (former) ally □ 'Are those your glasses, cast aside in the heat of passion?' TGLY □ As soon as he inherited his father's fortune, he cast his old friends aside. □ usu facetious, as in the first example, or formal as in the second.

940- castaway/cast away [nom pass (B1)] (be) sb left (whether by accident or deliberately); (be) sb washed ashore, after a wreck. A: on a desert island; far from civilization; somewhere in the Pacific □ 'If you were cast away on a desert island, would you be able to fend for yourself?' □ Robinson Crusoe is perhaps the most famous castaway in English literature.

941- cast down [pass adj (B1)] (be) depressed, unhappy □ He was not easily cast down, but circumstances had combined to depress him. □ *I've never seen such a cast-down (or: downcast) expression! □ passive with be, get, seem, look; note alt and more usu adj form: downcast.

942- cast in one's lot with [B3 emph rel] (formal) join, take the side of, share the fortune of. o: poor, needy, dispossessed; regime, established order; opposition; enemy, invader □ After much hesitation, he decided to cast in his lot with the rebels. □ 'If you cast your lot in with that crowd of layabouts, you'll soon be in trouble.'

943- cast off[1] [A1] (nautical) release the ropes or cables used to hold a boat or ship in position alongside a quay etc. S: sailor, crew; ship, boat □ The order was given to cast off and soon the ship was moving away from the quay.

944- cast off[2] [B1i nom pass adj] remove, temporarily or permanently; take off and throw aside carelessly. O: clothes; jacket, shoes □ He cast off his clothes and dived in to the cool water of the lake. □ She gives her cast-offs to her maid.

945-cast off[2] [B1i nom pass adj] abandon, reject. O: lover, mistress □ When he grows tired of a woman, he just casts her off like an old coat. □ He did not enjoy the role of the cast-off lover. □ This is a tale of Christian hope brought to the cast-offs of the affluent society. T

946-cast off (stitches) [A1 B1iii pass] remove stitches from the needles, in knitting □ At last she reached the end of the sleeve, and cast off with a sigh of relief. □ At the end of each line she cast off two stitches. ⇨ next entry.

947-cast on (stitches) [A1 B1iii pass] put the first line of stitches on a knitting needle. □ She had to cast on extra stitches to make the pullover wide enough.* □ How many (stitches) do you cast on — twenty or twenty-two? ⇨ previous entry.

948-cast out [B1i pass] expel, drive away. O: animals; weaklings; wrongdoers, perverts □ The old animals were cast out from the herd. LWK □ Cast out from the society of his fellow-men, he wandered aimlessly about the country.* □ nom form is outcast: The poor fellow had to live like an outcast when his last penny had gone.

949-cast an eye/one's eyes over [B2] study, but only superficially; examine quickly □ 'Would you mind casting an eye over these calculations to see if you can spot any obvious mistakes?' □ It isn't enough just to cast your eyes over a second-hand car that you're thinking of buying: you should get an expert's report on it.

950-cast round for [A3 rel] try to find, seek, usu hurriedly or in an emergency; cast about for (q v). o: pretext, excuse; explanation, answer □ I cast round for a reasonable excuse to leave my guests. In the end, I simply walked out.

951-cast up (on) [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] throw, deposit (upon). S: sea, wave, tide. O: flotsam and jetsam; dead fish; body; seaweed. o: shore, beach; reef, rock □ The shipwrecked sailors were cast up on the shore of a desert island. □ The sea casts up the detritus of civilization on rocks and beaches all over Europe.

952-catch at a straw [A2] try to grasp some slight means of rescue or escape □ (proverb) A drowning man will catch at a straw. □ Our close questioning had him floundering about, catching at straws. ⇨ grasp at a straw.

953-catch in the act [B2 pass] surprise sb while he is committing a crime, catch red-handed □ The police caught the thieves in the act: they were just opening the factory safe. □ He was caught in the act of embezzling money. □ often passive.

954-catch in (at the waist) [B1i pass B3 pass] draw a loose garment together with a belt etc. O: dress; robe □ This dress is rather loose, but it only needs catching in a little at the waist.

955-catch on [A1] (informal) understand, see the significance of sth □ 'He's not very quick at catching on, is he?' □ He followed the conversation rather blankly for a while, then his expression changed. He was catching on.

956-catch on (with) [A1 A3] (informal) become popular or fashionable. S: (new) idea, method, suggestion, fashion. o: the public; young people; customers; colleagues □ The President's idea of rapid-fire legislation has not caught on in Congress. SC □ We thought of opening a bar downstairs, but the suggestion never caught on with the older committee members.

957-catch out[1] [B1ii pass] show that sb is ignorant or doing sth wrong; and often, do this in a mean-minded way □ The little girl saw she had been caught out. She looked as if she were going to cry; but then her face brightened again. PW □ He wouldn't know a fraud if he saw one. I know, because I've caught him out. ASA □ He tried to catch me out with his smart questions. HD

958-catch out[2] [B1i pass] (cricket) dismiss a batsman by catching the ball after he has touched it with his bat and before it touches the ground □ Three of the batsmen were caught out by the wicket-keeper (= caught behind the wicket).

959-catch up[1] [B1i] seize, gather to oneself, hastily □ The woman caught up her basket and ran out of the shop before anyone could stop her. □ He caught the child up in his arms.

960-catch up[2] [B1i pass B3 pass] raise and fasten sth hanging free or loose. O: hem, skirt (of a dress); hair □ Her hair was caught up with a long pin.

961-catch up (in) [B1i pass B3 pass] trap O: hair; clothing. o: machine, machinery; wheel, cogwheel; (overhanging) branches, undergrowth □ The poor boy had caught his coat up in the chain of his bicycle, and this caused the accident. □ She disentangled the sleeve of her jumper, which had got caught up in a rose bush.

caught up in ⇨ entries after cater to.

963-catch up (on)[1] [A1 A3 pass] (informal) (make special efforts to) do sth which has been left undone, or neglected. o: reading, studies; sorting, tidying, cleaning □ The secretary had to work in the lunch hour to catch up on her neglected filing. WI

964-catch up (on)[2] [A1 A3 pass] get up-to-date with, become 'au fait' with. o: recent developments; the latest fashions; new thinking in sth □ These are clothes that you can make from fabulous American patterns — but if you don't sew you can still catch up on new fashion pointers from across the Atlantic. WI

965-catch up on [A3] (informal) overtake; defeat; change (a person's outlook or way of life). S: old age; rheumatism; marriage; (misspent) youth, (dubious) past □ Marriage has caught up on her, she explained after some hesitation and a little smile that made me think I ought to sympathize. HAHA □ 'I think his past is beginning to catch up on him.'

966-catch up (with) [A1 A3 pass rel B1ii pass] (informal) draw level (with), reach the same stage (as) (after lagging behind). S: runner; cyclist, driver; car; student, worker. o: [A3] O: [B1] pack, main body (of runners); (main) party, column; rest of the class □ [A1 A3] 'You go on ahead; I'll catch up (with you) later (or: [B1] I'll catch you up later).' □ [A3] He's working hard to catch up with the others (or: [B1] catch them up), after missing a term.

967-cater for [A2 pass rel] serve the public, by providing refreshments; aim to satisfy (the needs of) particular groups. S: hotel, public house; club, cinema, TV. o: class, type (of customer); teenager, married couple □ The management regrets that coach-parties cannot be catered for. □ This play centre caters for children of all ages. □

There are groups of viewers that television doesn't seriously attempt to cater for*: those interested in hunting, shooting or avant-garde music, for instance.* ⇨ next entry.

968-cater to [A2 pass rel] aim to satisfy a stated need or demand. ∝ sb's sick mind; depraved taste, base appetite; sb's whims □ Producers of pornographic material often claim that they are catering to a psychological need. ⇨ previous entry.

969-caught up in¹ [pass (B3)] (be) involved in, usu involuntarily and sometimes against one's will. ∝ crowd, circle, set (of people); intrigue, plotting; war, revolution; (mad) whirl, round (of activity) □ For a time my father, with a young wife, was caught up in a circle which included many famous names. SD □ He knew that one day he would be caught up in the war, like all his friends. ⇨ catch up (in).

970-caught up in² [pass (B3)] (be) lost in, completely absorbed in. ∝ speculation; day-dream, reverie □ When one is adolescent, one often gets (or: is) caught up in one's thoughts and dreams. HAHA

971-cave in¹ [A1 nom] collapse. S: roof, mine, dugout □ The roof of the mine caved in as a result of the explosion. □ The caved-in part of the passage was immediately beneath a row of houses. □ This tunnel is liable to sudden cave-ins*.* □ the adj form is unusual in this [A1] pattern.

972-cave in² [A1 nom] (informal) yield, collapse morally (under some kind of pressure). S: prisoner, suspect □ Under close questioning, the wretched man caved in abjectly and confessed all his misdemeanours. □ We'd expected some firm resistance on the part of the employers to the workers' demands, not a complete cave-in*!*

973-centre in/on/upon [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] have as, give to sth as, its focal point, its main concern. S: [A2] O: [B2] study, research; survey; attention, interest. ∝ field, area; problem □ For some time all my interests have centred in the people's methods of agriculture. NDN □ His current work is centred upon the activity of small rodents. ⇨ focus (on).

974-centre on/round [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] have, fix, as its centre; (cause to) revolve about/around (q v). S: [A2] O: [B2] movement, activity; commerce, industry. ∝ (key) figure, personality; port, capital city □ She became involved in the whirlpool of activity which centred round Joe. AITC □ To give access to markets, the new industries had been centred on a motorway junction. □ some purists object to the use of round with the v centre.

975-chain up [B1i pass adj] restrain movement by means of a chain, or chains. O: dog, hound, dangerous animal; prisoner, captive □ That dog ought to be chained up*; it's dangerous.*

976-chalk out [B1i pass adj] make, draw, (the outline of) sth in chalk. O: outline, plan; limit, edge; ring, square □ Goalposts were roughly chalked out on the playground wall. □ To explain his design to the visitors, the architect chalked out a simple plan on the blackboard.

977-chalk up¹ [B1i pass] (informal) add to the, or one's, record, or score. O: victory, achievement, another one □ In the first six months of this year the hotel-owner will have chalked up*, round the world, thirteen opening ceremonies.* OBS □ A group of Britons have chalked up a British record by descending nearly 4 000 feet down a cave in France. T

978-chalk up² [B1i pass] write on a board or slate; specifically, give credit to a customer in a public house for drinks consumed □ 'I see your name is chalked up on the messages board.' 'Oh, is it? Thanks very much for telling me.' □ 'Two double whiskies, and... oh, chalk it up*, please?'*

979-change back into [A3 B3 pass] return to one's/his etc former shape, character etc □ Dr Jekyll took a potion and changed back into Mr Hyde. □ When the princess went to bed she found that the toad had been changed back into a handsome prince. ⇨ change (from) (into).

980-change down [A1 nom] (in driving a car) move to a lower gear □ I didn't change down quickly enough, and stalled the motor. CON □ 'That was a sudden change-down*. You nearly threw me through the windscreen!'* ⇨ change up.

981-change (from) (into) [A2 rel B2 pass rel] (of the appearance, constitution or character of sb or sth) alter; transform. S: [A2] O: [B2] pumpkin; white rabbit; patient, invalid. S: [B2] magician; drugs, alcohol; disease □ As the fairy godmother waved her wand, the four mice changed into splendid white horses. □ His sickness changed him into a miserable, demanding old man. □ He suddenly changed from a well-behaved child into a loutish adolescent. ⇨ change back into.

982-change (into)¹ [B2 pass rel] break a larger unit of money into smaller ones; give for the currency of one country the equivalent currency of another. O: pound; dollar; francs; lire. ∝ new pence; dimes, quarters; sterling; deutschmarks □ 'Could you change this fifty pence into five tens for me, please?' □ You can change your sterling into the local currency at the airport.

983-change (into)² [A2 rel] put on a garment, or garments (having removed another, or others). ∝ (clean, fresh) clothes; (smart) suit; (casual, old) sweater □ 'Just a minute, I'll change into something smarter.' ⇨ next entry.

984-change (out of) [A2 rel] remove a garment, or garments (in order to put on another, or others). ∝ (old, dirty) clothes; overalls; (smart) suit □ 'Let's go for a walk.' 'All right; I'll just change out of these old things.' LBA ⇨ previous entry.

985-change over (from) (to) [A1 nom A3 emph rel] adopt something new or different; change one's activity or profession. ∝ (from) one system, diet, regime, scheme; (to) another, a new one □ Britain recently adopted the decimal system for its money; it changed over relatively smoothly (or: the change-over was relatively smooth). □ He used to drink tea at breakfast, but he's changed over to coffee. □ My wife wants to change over from gas to electricity for her cooking; she says it's cleaner. □ He decided against the Church, became a law student, but finally changed over to medicine. SNP

986-change over/round¹ [A1] (of two people) exchange places, positions or roles; change places (with) (q v) □ 'I think I'd better drive the car into Birmingham, so if you'll stop at the next parking-place, we'll change over*.'* □ 'Perhaps you and Brown had better change round*: you need more experience of office routine.'*

987-change over/round² [A1 nom] (sport) (of opponents) change positions, change ends. S: players, teams, competitors, bowlers □ After a certain number of points, the players changed round so that neither could benefit unduly from the wind or the position of the sun. □ After the change-over at half time, the visiting team had the benefit of the wind and scored three goals in quick succession.

988- change round (from) (to) [A1 A3] (of the direction of the wind) alter, shift □ The wind suddenly changed round from westerly to northerly, bringing with it the threat of snow.

989- change up [A1 nom] (in driving a car) move to a higher gear □ 'I grind the gears whenever I change up from second to third. Is there something wrong with the clutch?' □ (a driving instructor is speaking) 'Now a nice, smooth change-up to third. That's fine. Now just take it quietly along this straight bit of road.' ⇨ change down.

990- change places (with) [B2] (of two people or groups etc) make reciprocal changes in seats, places, positions; change over/round¹ (q v) □ 'Let me change places with you (or: Let's change places) so that you can be nearer the fire — I can see you're very cold!' □ 'I wouldn't change places with Joe for all the tea in China: working on a sewage farm must be hellish!'

991- charge (at) [A2 pass emph rel] make a headlong attack (towards). S: bull, goat, horse; tank; footballer. o: door, barrier, fence; adversary; goalkeeper, defender □ He charged at me with his head down and both fists flying.

992- charge (for) [A2 pass B2 pass] ask in payment (for). O: (a heavy) price, fee; ten pounds; ten per cent commission. o: admission, seat; treatment, service; cleaning, repairing □ 'How much do they charge for washing a car?' □ The conductor tried to charge me fivepence for a fourpence journey. □ often with an indirect object as in the second example.

993- charge (up) to [B2 pass emph rel B3 pass] put on sb's account for later payment; debit to (q v). O: goods, purchases; clothing, durables. o: him etc; his etc account □ 'Please charge these goods to my husband's account.' □ 'Why were the expenses of the reception charged up to me?'

994- charge (with)¹ [B2 pass emph rel] (legal) allege that sb is guilty of; accuse (of) (q v). o: crime, misdemeanour; murder, theft, unlawful possession; being an accessory after the fact □ The policeman charged him with driving a car while under the influence of alcohol. □ The offence with which he is charged carries a heavy penalty.

995- charge (with)² [B2 pass emph rel] fill, make heavy (with). O: atmosphere, air; situation; theatre. o: excitement, fear; tension, expectation □ His entry on stage had once again charged the scene with dramatic tension. □ The atmosphere was tense and charged with fear. □ It was a stucco wall, blank but unforgettably beautiful, empty but charged with all the meaning and the mystery of existence. DOP □ usu passive.

996- charge with [B2 pass rel] (formal) allot a duty (to sb). o: task, job; duty, responsibility □ The young officer was charged with the task of taking 200 prisoners to the rear. □ usu passive.

997- chase around/round (after) [A1 A3] (informal) pursue, occupy one's time and energy with or in pursuit of. o: girls, women, dollies, rich widows □ If he didn't spend so much of his time chasing around after girls he might have some chance of getting through his finals.

998- chase up [B1i pass] (informal) make an effort to find quickly. O: information, latest figures, title of the book □ While John was busy working out the main plot of the story, Peter was chasing up some relevant facts about a murder that had been committed in the village fifty years before.

999- chat up [B1i pass] (slang) talk to sb in such a way as to gain his or her confidence, usu for the purpose of having an affair □ 'Who was that girl I saw you chatting up in the café last night?' □ Mary was being chatted up by a bearded youth when I arrived on the scene.

1000- chatter away [A1] keep talking in an idle or foolish way □ Despite the horrors and anxieties of the previous two months, she chattered away as if it had all been a gay adventure.

1001- cheat (at) [A2 rel] (esp in games of skill or games involving gambling) play unfairly (at). o: cards, bridge, dominoes □ He was asked to resign from the club when he was discovered cheating at cards.

1002- cheat of [B2 pass emph rel] prevent from enjoying. S: (cruel) Fate, circumstances; war, (economic) slump. o: achievement (of sth), success; fortune, wealth □ The cat was cheated of its prey by the warning cries of the parent birds. □ It was the lack of a proper education, of which he had been cheated by his parents' poverty, which he felt most keenly.

1003- cheat out of [B2 pass rel] prevent from having by unfair or illegal means. S: (business) partner, associate; (dishonest) trader; relations. o: rights, privileges; share, portion; legacy □ The poor child was cheated out of his inheritance by a dishonest lawyer. □ 'Be careful! He'll cheat you out of your entitlement if he possibly can.'

1004- check in (at) [A1 nom A3 rel] sign the register, on arriving at a hotel etc; report one's arrival (to sb in authority at a place designated for the purpose). S: guest, visitor □ 'What time did they check in*?'* □ They had an accident on the road and did not check in at their hotel until after midnight. □ 'Don't forget we've got to produce our tickets at the check-in point.' □ Having got through the check-in*, they began to feel more relaxed.*

1005- check off [B1i pass adj] mark items on a list as correct or as having been dealt with. S: despatch clerk; storeman; receptionist. O: item, entry; spare part, tool, component; name, guest □ Please check off these parcels before they are despatched.

1006- check on [A2 pass] verify; investigate. o: presence, absence; number, tally, score; whether/if sb is present etc □ She wanted to find out whether the children had their coats or not; she looked in the cloakroom to check on that.

1007- check out [B1i pass] (esp US) make a systematic inspection of a number of (listed) things. O: instruments, various systems; tyre-pressures □ When all the instruments had been checked out according to the established routine, the pilot signalled that he was ready for take-off. □ We'd better check the whole place out in case it's been bugged.

1008- check out/out of [A1 nom A2] go through the formalities (such as paying a bill) before leaving. S: guest, visitor. o: hotel, self-service store, supermarket □ 'Has Mr Jones left yet?' 'Yes, he checked out five minutes ago.' □ We reached the check-out (counter), then discovered that we hadn't got enough money for all the things we'd collected from the shelves.

1009- check over [B1i pass adj] examine sth to find out if it is correct. O: bill, statement; list, letter, page □ The secretary always checked over the letters before putting them on the director's desk. □ Check the manuscript over carefully before passing it to the typist.

1010- check through [A2 pass B1ii pass] inspect; ensure that the objects that are supposed to be present are in fact present; read, and look for errors in, written or printed matter □ 'Please check through the laundry and then put it away.' □ [B1] 'Have you checked these proofs through (or: [A2] Have you checked through these proofs)?' □ 'This account is full of mistakes! Wasn't it ever checked through*?'*

1011- check-up [nom (A1)] medical examination (usu of sb who now feels anxious about his health) □ You'd better go to the doctor for a check-up*; that cough sounds serious to me.* □ I got a thorough medical check-up before going abroad.

1012- check up (on) [A1 A3 pass adj] investigate the behaviour, background etc of sb; test the truth or soundness of sth. o: him etc; story, account; movements; trustworthiness, reliability; the situation □ 'You've decided not to go back to your country?' 'You've been checking up*?'* QA □ An experiment was carried out to check up on the reliability of certain criteria. □ A fully checked-up(-on) set of figures was presented.

1013- cheer on [B1i pass] encourage (to further efforts). O: competitor, athlete □ The crowd cheered the runners on as they started on the last lap of the race.

1014- cheer up[1] [A1] (informal) become happier, more cheerful □ When she heard that her mother was safe she immediately cheered up*.* □ 'You must cheer up*, Mrs Gaye. You'll soon be walking again....'* DC □ (wryly humorous) *'Cheer up! The worst is yet to come!'*

1015- cheer up[2] [B1i pass] (informal) raise the spirits of, make more cheerful. O: patient, invalid. A: no end, enormously □ They sent the invalid a 'Get Well' card to cheer him up*.* WI □ The news of your return to this country has cheered me up no end. □ I'm going to see my father; he needs cheering up (or: to be cheered up*) after my mother's death.*

1016- cheese off [B1i pass adj] (slang) make heartily sick or tired (of sth), make despondent, fed up (with) (q v); brown off (q v) □ He's fed up with army discipline; every time I see him he tells me how cheesed off he is. □ What finally cheesed me off was being passed over when the Director's job fell vacant.

1017- chew on [A2 pass] (informal) consider slowly and carefully. o: offer, proposal, suggestion □ 'I'll give you till tomorrow to chew on my offer; you can take it or leave it.' ⇨ next entry.

1018- chew over [B1i pass] (informal) consider slowly and carefully. O: offer, proposal, suggestion □ 'You've had long enough to chew the matter over*; I want my answer now.'* ⇨ previous entry.

1019- chicken out/out of [A1 A3] (informal) lose one's courage (in the face of an enemy, or in a dangerous situation) □ They feared that their allies would chicken out at the last moment. □ 'You've come so far; you're not thinking of chickening out of the holdup now, are you?'

1020- chime in (with) [A1 A3] (informal) contribute to a conversation, interrupt it □ 'Can you think of some ready way of stopping him from chiming in*?'* □ The rest of us chimed in with short accounts of various ways we had developed of annoying the poor old chap. CON

1021- chime in with [A3] (informal) fit, suit. o: mood, feelings, wishes, desires hopes, plans □ What he had said chimed in perfectly with Isabel's own immediate reaction; she exclaimed: 'Well, I am glad!' PW

1022- chip in (with)[1] [A1 A3] (informal) interrupt (a conversation); comment □ I chipped in and said that in the Army whenever the Pay Code was mentioned everyone began to curse. □ 'Who asked you to chip in with your opinion?'

1023- chip in (with)[2] [A1 A3] (informal) contribute. o: loan, offer (of money) □ As usual, George was broke, so he couldn't chip in towards Mr Goatly's retirement present. □ 'When Dad offered to chip in with £50 toward our holiday, we realized that it might just be possible to buy an old car and do a tour of Europe.'

1024- chisel out of [B2 pass] (informal) obtain by a trick, or deceit; cheat out of (q v). o: his money, share of property; entitlement; free time, holiday, tea-break □ The boys were in a surly mood having been, as they thought, chiselled out of their right to a half holiday. □ 'Watch that chap. He'll chisel you out of every penny you've got if you're not careful!

1025- chivvy along [B1ii pass] (informal) urge sb (often in an irritating or officious manner) to do sth, esp work, and usu to complete it by a certain time □ The men were getting tired of being chivvied along by the corporal, and though they made a show of busy activity, progress in fact became slower and slower. ⇨ jolly along.

1026- choke back [B1i pass] suppress, restrain. O: tears, sobs; anger, fury □ When she saw the pitiful condition of the children, she could barely choke back her tears.

1027- choke off (for) [B1i pass B3 pass] (slang) interrupt somewhat rudely or abruptly; reprimand sb severely (for doing sth); tell off (for) (q v) □ Gerald felt a revulsion from the whole subject and hoped he would hear no more about it; he decided that if Vin phoned he would choke him off*.* ASA □ He got a terrible choking off from his father for borrowing the car without permission.

1028- choke the life out of [B2] kill by strangling; (fig) force to stop trading or operating □ He grasped her by the throat and started to choke the life out of her. □ The government has nearly choked the life out of privately-run schools.

1029- choke up [B1i pass] block. S: mud, dirt; leaves, sticks; rubbish. O: drain, pipe, grid □ The drains are all choked up with leaves.

1030- choked up (about) [pass (B1 B3)] (informal) (be) angry or upset, usu unnecessarily or neurotically so □ 'For God's sake don't tell Bill I've been seeing you,' she said. 'You know how choked up he gets about that kind of thing.' □ 'What's wrong with old Carstairs this morning?' 'Oh, he's all choked up about Gerald being promoted over him.' □ passive with be, get, look.

1031-chop about [A1] (informal) keep changing from one thing to another, from one direction to another □ 'First you say you want to be a doctor; then you're going to be a teacher; then you think you'll join the Army; I wish you wouldn't chop about so much.' □ the expression chop and change means much the same.

1032-chop down [B1i pass] bring to the ground by cutting at the base. O: tree, bush; post, pole □ I'm going to chop down some of the old apple trees; they've almost stopped producing fruit.

1033-chop off [B1i pass] remove by cutting (usu with an axe) □ These branches are overhanging the road; we'd better chop them off. □ In some countries, the hands of a thief are chopped off.

1034-chop up [B1i pass adj] cut into small pieces (usu with a heavy knife, or axe). O: meat, fish; fruit; mint, parsley □ This furniture is so old and useless that you might as well chop it up for firewood. □ You will need a few sprigs of chopped-up parsley for the sauce.

1035-chuck away [B1i pass] (informal) not use properly, fail to take advantage of; throw away[2] (q v). O: fortune, cash; chances, opportunities □ There were plenty of people ready to help Paul chuck his money away*, but few to stand by him when he ended up bankrupt.* □ He chucked away his opportunity of making a career for himself in the Civil Service and played around with some obscure religion in California.

1036-chuck oneself away on [B3] (informal) marry, keep company with, squander one's time, energy or money on, sb who is unworthy of one (in the opinion of others) □ He was a fool to chuck himself away on such a frivolous woman.

1037-chuck out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] (slang) remove forcibly, force to go. o: bar, club, pub; college, university; association □ He didn't leave of his own free will; he was chucked out. □ I met him shortly after he'd been chucked out of University for persistent idleness. □ note chucker-out: When he asked for a job at the night-club, the manager said: 'Well, you're a big strong chap, and it just happens that we need a chucker-out.' HD

1038-chuck under the chin [B2pass] (informal) touch or stroke affectionately or playfully under the chin □ The father chucked his little daughter under the chin and said 'Have you been a good girl today?'

1039-chuck up [B1i pass] (informal) abandon, leave. O: △ one's job, post, position; everything □ John just chucked up his job at the factory and said he intended never to work again. □ The job at the sewage farm was so unpleasant that it was chucked up by everyone who tried it.

1040-chug along [A1] move along slowly (accompanied by a deep note from its engine). S: (old) ship, boat; steamer, tug, tramp(-steamer) □ The old ship kept chugging along although it was almost falling to pieces with age.

1041-chum up (with) [A1 A3] (informal) get on friendly terms with □ George wondered whether he would enjoy a holiday in a small fishing village; but he soon chummed up with the fishermen's sons (or: he and the fishermen's sons soon chummed up) and they all had a wonderful time.

1042-churn out [B1i pass adj] (informal) produce regularly and in large quantities (usu with the implication that quality is poor). O: book; news, information; power; car, refrigerator, newspaper □ Some pulp writers churn out two or three thousand words a day. □ They've got factories working round the clock, churning out cheap cloth for the mass market.

1043-churn up [B1i pass adj] disturb or move violently. O: water, slush; mud, sand □ The ship's propellors churned up the water as it increased speed. □ The wheels churned up the mud in the road as the driver tried desperately to extricate his car. □ The churned-up mud made the country lanes impassable.

1044-circle (round) (over) [A1 A2 A3] (in flying) move (more or less) in circles over. S: plane, helicopter, glider; vulture, bird □ [A2] The reconnaissance plane circled over the enemy's position, reporting their strength and dispositions to the troops on the ground. □ [A1 A3] We knew from the number of vultures circling round *(*over us) that some living creature — whether an animal or a human being — was nearing its end below.

1045-claim back (from) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] ask for the return of, or simply take, sth to which one is or feels entitled. O: tax; the cost of the ticket; one's camera. o: the Inland Revenue; British Rail; the lost property office □ A lot of people do not understand why they cannot claim back the income-tax that has been paid on their interest by the Building Societies. □ Much distress was caused to the foster parents when, after six years, Susan's mother claimed her back. □ One day the seal, which had grown up as a family pet, simply swam away. The sea had claimed back its own.

1046-clam up [A1] (informal) become totally uncommunicative, through suspicion, fear, distrust etc. S: suspect, witness; patient □ When Inspector Smart began to question the arrested man's girl-friend about his whereabouts at eight o'clock the previous evening, she immediately clammed up and refused to say anything. □ I did not dare to suggest that Paul should see a doctor — still less a psychiatrist — because from previous experience I knew that he would clam up for a month if I did.

1047-clamp down (on) [A1 nom A3 pass rel] (informal) use one's authority against sb or to suppress or prevent sth. S: authorities; police, (law) court, magistrate; government; tax authorities; moral guardians (of society) □ There has been much tax evasion through expense accounts, but the Government is going to clamp down (or: there's going to be a Government clamp-down). □ It's high time they clamped down on violence in television programmes.

1048-clap in/into [B2 pass] put swiftly in/into jail etc, often without trial. o: △ jail, prison, solitary confinement, irons □ The prisoners were clapped in prison and kept there for several months without trial. □ In the old days it was commonplace for a sailor to be clapped into irons for some minor offence.

1049-clap on [B1i pass B2 pass] put on hastily. O: hat, cap; hand. o: head; arm; handle, knob □ He clapped his hat on and strode angrily from the room. □ He clapped his hand on the hilt of his sword to show that he was quite prepared to fight. □ The detective clapped the handcuffs on the man before he could escape.

1050-not (ever) clap eyes on [B2] (informal) not see □ I haven't clapped eyes on Bill for months. What's happened to him? □ How can I describe her? I'd never clapped eyes on her till five minutes ago. □ usu in present and past perfect tenses, as shown.

1051-clap on sail [B1iii] (nautical) (of a sailing ship) increase speed by increasing the amount of canvas □ When the privateer sighted the enemy warship, she clapped on every inch of sail.

1052-clap on/onto [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) add sth to the price etc of sth (esp in an unwelcome way); slap on/onto² (q v). S: Chancellor, Treasury, County Council. O: tax, another five per cent, an extra ten pence; standstill order; preservation order. o: petrol, cigarettes; the rates; the building of any more universities; the oak tree in my garden □ We shan't get much benefit from the removal of import duty from European goods, because the Government's going to clap on Value Added Tax. □ We had just decided to fly to the Canary Islands for a holiday when the air lines clapped twenty-five per cent on (or: onto) the fare. □ I can't make any structural alterations to my house because it was built in the nineteenth century and a preservation order has been clapped on it.

1053-clapped out [pass adj (B1)] (slang) (be) completely worn out and apparently beyond recovery or repair. S: he etc; car, lorry, bus; camera, radio □ Of course, they could drag Smithers out of retirement to make the speech of welcome, but he's pretty clapped out*, poor old boy!* □ A group of determined schoolboys, with the help of their even more determined teacher, managed to get a clapped-out minibus back into working order.

1054-clash (with)¹ [A2 emph rel] join in combat or rigorous argument (with). S: troops, police; Prime Minister. o: demonstrators; Leader of the Opposition □ Mr Wilson clashed with Sir Alec (or: Mr Wilson and Sir Alec clashed) in the debâte on steel nationalization.

1055-clash (with)² [A2] not match or harmonize (with) because of colour, design, etc. S:/o: colour, shade; purple, pink; blouse, skirt (because of their colour) □ The red of her scarf clashes with the purple of her hat. □ The cushion covers clashed violently with the carpet (or: The covers and the carpet clashed etc).

1056-clash (with)³ [A2 emph rel] occur at the same time as sth else (thus causing inconvenience). S: time, hour; meeting, ceremony, party. o: that set aside, arranged (for sth else); his, ours, one previously arranged □ 'You can't arrange a meeting for Friday: it would clash with my afternoon golf!' □ 'Make sure his appointment doesn't clash with mine (or: our appointments don't clash).'

1057-class (with) [B2 pass emph rel] put in the same class or category (as). S: registrar, examiner, librarian. O: trade, occupation; candidate, performer; document, journal. o: (similar) type, person □ I object to being classed with unskilled labourers; I'm a tradesman. □ It's a mistake to judge his work by the standards of men with whom he should never have been classed in the first place.

1058-claw back [B1i nom pass] (finance) recover, by taxation, money paid to individuals who are not considered in need of government assistance — a situation which arises when the individuals concerned cannot be conveniently or economically identified before payment is made □ *Back in 1968 the Government increased the family allowance but it was intended that only those with lower incomes should benefit. As family allowances are paid to everyone (with children) the tax system was used to recover this increase from those paying tax at the standard rate. This 'clawback', as it is unattractively called, has been achieved by reducing personal allowances by £42 for each allowance received.* OBS

1059-clean down [B1i pass adj] clean thoroughly, from top to bottom. O: house, place; door, wall □ My mother always insists on cleaning the whole house down at least once a month.

1060-clean out [B1i nom pass] clean, usu by carrying or brushing dirt away. O: farmyard, cowshed, barn; wash-house, latrine □ The stables are in a filthy condition. When were they last cleaned out*?* □ The whole place needs a good clean-out (or: cleaning-out).

1061-clean out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) take all a person's money or stock. O: tradesman, shopkeeper. o: beer, spirits, tobacco; change, cash □ I haven't a penny left; buying all those books has completely cleaned me out. □ The tobacconist was cleaned out of cigarettes by people who expected the price to go up.

1062-clean up¹ [A1 nom B1i nom pass] remove dirt, etc; make a place clean. O: rubbish, debris; room; work-bench, desk □ [A1] Now that the party's over, shall we clean up (or: have a clean-up)? □ [B1] I wish you'd clean up your mess after you've been repairing your bicycle. □ [B1] I think we might give the place a bit of a clean-up. □ one cleans up a mess or a place. ⇨ clear up¹.

1063-clean up² [B1i nom pass] (informal) suppress, get rid of sth; make a place free of sth. S: government, city council; vice squad. O: corruption, vice; racket, drug traffic; town, back streets □ It's time that the police took some effective action to clean up this town. □ There's been a considerable clean-up in the vicinity of the docks: you hardly ever see a prostitute there now.

1064-clean up³ [B1i pass] (military) suppress an enemy (usu small groups still resisting after a major advance); mop up² (q v). O: nest, outpost, pocket of resistance; rearguard □ The Battle of Normandy ended on the 19th August: it was on this day that we finally cleaned up the remnants of the enemy trapped in the 'pocket' east of Mortain. MFM

1065-clean up⁴ [A1 B1iii pass] (informal) make money. O: a (small) fortune, a packet, a (cool) thousand □ Don't just stand idly by while more enterprising people clean up. □ His invention was immediately successful, and in less than a year he cleaned up ten thousand pounds. □ Many a fortune has been cleaned up by confidence tricksters working on the greed and gullibility of others.

1066-clean (oneself) up [A1 nom B1ii pass] (informal) get washed (and possibly change into cleaner clothes) □ 'I'm just going home to clean up (or: to have a clean-up). I'll meet you in an hour outside the post-office.' □ 'Just give me five minutes to clean myself up; I'm covered in oil.' □ only the passive with get is possible: How long will you take to get yourselves cleaned up?

1067- clear away [A1 B1i pass] remove objects in order to leave a clear space. O: leaves; debris; dishes, tea things □ 'I'll clear these dishes away; then we'll be able to work at the table.'

1068- clear (of) [B2 pass emph rel] declare to be free (from); absolve from (q v). O: oneself; the accused (man); the prisoner. o: ⚠ guilt, suspicion, responsibility, the charge □ The signalman was cleared of all responsibility for the railway accident. □ The accusations you are making relate to charges of which my client has been cleared.

1069- clear one's mind of [B2 pass emph rel] dismiss from one's mind. o: (all, any) prejudice, thought of..., desire to..., wish for... □ The jury were told that in considering their verdict they must clear their minds of all feelings of repugnance for the behaviour of the accused during the trial.

1070- clear off[1] [A1] (informal) run away □ When the man saw the policeman, he cleared off as fast as his legs could carry him. □ 'You've got no right to be here. Clear off!'

1071- clear off[2] [B1i pass] pay, complete payment for. O: debts, mortgage (on a house), remaining payments, arrears □ The first thing I would do if I won a big prize in the football pools would be to clear off all my hire purchase payments.

1072- clear out [A1] (informal) leave home □ 'I'm fed up with being told what I can do and what I can't do; I'm clearing out. Goodbye!'

1073- clear out/out of[1] [A1 A3] (informal) leave quickly □ 'If you've got any sense, you'll clear out before my father comes home from work. He'll be furious if he finds you here.' □ 'You'd better clear out of here before you cause any more trouble.' HD clear out/out of[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] = clean out/out of.

1075- clear up[1] [A1 nom B1i pass] remove rubbish etc, make things tidy or orderly. O: rubbish, mess; muddle □ 'Aren't we going to clear up (or: have a clear-up) before we go out?' □ 'We can't go until all the litter has been cleared up.' □ one clears up a mess, not a place. ⇨ clean up[1].

1076- clear up[2] [B1i pass] remove doubt about, find the solution to. O: point, matter; mystery; difficulty, misunderstanding □ So far no lunar magnetic field has been detected, but rocket experiments should be able to clear the matter up. NS □ I decided to go and see him and get the point cleared up quickly, before trouble arose. MFM

1077- clear up[3] [A1] become fine. S: ⚠ the weather, it □ The weather was bad early this morning but it cleared up before ten o'clock.

1078- clear with [B2 pass] have inspected and approved by. O: passport, papers, documents; goods, luggage, personal effects. o: authorities, police, (the) Customs, Security, Immigration □ 'Have these cameras been cleared with Customs?' □ You'd better get the visitors cleared with Security before you take them to the Commandant's office.

1079- climb down[1] [A1 A2] descend; get down (from) □ Cats often find it easier to climb up a tree than to climb down (it).

1080- climb down[2] [A1 nom] (informal) retract, withdraw; admit a mistake □ When he was proved wrong by the new evidence he was forced to climb down and accept that he was mistaken. □ Admit that you're wrong now and you will avoid a humiliating climb-down later on.

1081- cling to[1] [A2 rel] keep a firm, desperate, hold on; not release one's grip on. S: shipwrecked sailor; mountaineer. o: raft, plank of wood; bush, projecting ledge □ Some of the victims of the fire climbed out of the building, clung to the window ledges for a minute or two and then dropped to their death a hundred feet below.

1082- cling to[2] [A2 rel] not relinquish; be unwilling to abandon. o: superstitious beliefs; outmoded customs; hopes, aspirations □ The refugees clung to the hope that one day they would all be able to return to their native land, though it was obvious to others that this could never happen. □ 'She still clings to him in spite of all his affairs — a sign of her own insecurity, I suppose.'

1083- clip on/onto [B1i nom pass B2 pass emph rel] fasten with a clip. O: brooch, bangle, earring; watch; microphone; paper, notice. o: arm, ear; lapel; board □ 'Can you clip these ear-rings on (or: Do these ear-rings clip on; or: Are these ear-rings clip-ons)?' □ He produced a board, onto which his secretary had clipped all the important documents.

1084- clock in/out [A1 nom B1i pass] record the time of one's arrival or departure (usu at a place of work) □ Workers are expected to clock in at 8.30 a m. □ They clocked the men out at five. □ The clockings-in-and-out irritate the factory workers, but they are necessary in the interests of fairness and efficiency. □ 'What is clock-in time (or: clocking-in time) at your office?' □ clock-in and clock-out are only used attrib.

1085- clock on/off [A1 nom B1i pass] often used in place of clock in/out.

1086- clog up [B1i pass adj] fill, in such a way as to prevent normal working. S: grease, dirt, oil, waste matter. O: works, machinery; pipes, drains, wheels; pores □ If you put too much grease into delicate machinery, it may clog up the works. □ The outlet-pipe had become clogged up with kitchen waste.

1087- close down [A1 nom B1i pass adj] (of production or activity) end, cease (permanently or for a time); shut down (q v). S: [A1] O: [B1] school; plant, factory; theatre; broadcasting. S: [B1] governor; owner, management □ The factory had to close down through lack of orders. □ Television closed down for the night just after eleven o'clock. DBM □ We're faced with inevitable close-down because of the losses of the past three years. □ The Medical Officer said that all schools must be closed down during the epidemic.

1088- the days close in [A1] grow shorter □ As autumn advances the days close in and the hours of light become fewer and fewer.

1089- close in (on/upon)[1] [A1 A3 pass] draw nearer to, or around sb, so as to attack or seize him. S: enemy; gunfire; pursuer. o: (defensive) position, outpost; fugitive □ The sound of mortar-fire seemed to be closing in. QA □ Before we could establish any strong defensive position the enemy closed in on us. □ When he realized that he was being closed in upon, the fugitive shot himself.

1090-close in (on/upon)[2] [A1 A3 pass] envelop in an unpleasant, threatening way. S: winter; night, darkness; jungle; city. o: traveller; stranger □ The night closed in again as the little oasis of light receded. BM □ When winter closed in on us, with constant rain and appalling mud, I sent for a waterproof suit. MFM

1091-close up[1] [A1] shut (temporarily). S: ⚠ (a) flower; (a) petal □ These flowers close up at night. □ close-up /ˈkləʊs ʌp/ is derived not from the verb close /kləʊz/ but from the adverb close /kləʊs/; thus: Take a close-up (photograph) of Mary.

1092-close up[2] [A1 B1i pass] shut (temporarily); shut up [1] (q v) S: trader, owner. O: shop, office, factory □ The Manager closes up; he is always the last to leave. □ She closes the office up at five o'clock. □ Is the shop closed up by the owner or by his wife?

1093-close up[3] [A1] (military) draw (nearer) together (usu in ranks). S: soldiers, troops □ The marching men had to close up to let the oncoming convoy go past.

1094-close with[1] [A2] (military) start fighting; join battle (with) (q v). S: (assault) troops, infantry. o: enemy □ After a long period of shelling, the infantry surged forward and closed with the enemy in hand-to-hand fighting.

1095-close with[2] [A2] agree on a price with, strike a bargain with. o: dealer, agent, salesman □ After a good deal of discussion over the value of the picture I finally closed with him at a reasonable figure.

1096-one's face cloud over [A1] lose (its) brightness; betray anxiety or worry □ When he heard the news of his friend's accident, his face clouded over.

1097-the sky cloud over [A1] become covered with clouds □ Just as we were beginning to enjoy the sunshine, the sky clouded over and a cold wind began to blow.

1098-club together [A1] make contributions of money so that the total sum can be used for a specific purpose. S: colleagues, pals, friends, patients, neighbours, fellow-students □ All the members of the orchestra clubbed together to present a silver baton to their conductor on his sixtieth birthday.

1099-cluster around/round [A1 A2 rel] surround closely □ Reporters clustered around the distinguished visitor. □ He admired the roses clustering round the cottage door.

clutch at a straw [A2] = catch at a straw.

1101-clutter up [B1i pass] (informal) occupy space, giving a room, house etc an untidy appearance; (of knowledge, information etc) exist copiously but in a muddled way in sb's mind. S: junk, bric-a-brac; china, silver; books; ill-digested facts. O: attic, study; head, mind □ Objects of every kind cluttered up the entrance to the house, so that it was almost impossible to get in. □ The passage was cluttered up with stacks of old books and pictures. □ His head's cluttered up with all manner of useless information.

1102-coast along [A1] ride or drive without much effort or, in the case of a car, without using the engine □ We coasted along on our bicycles with the wind behind us. □ As the fuel-gauge pointed to 'empty', he switched off the engine whenever he could and just coasted along.

1103-cock up[1] [B1i] raise. S: animal; horse, dog. O: ears, leg □ The horse cocked its ears up several seconds before I could hear anything. □ The dog cocked its leg up (i e in order to urinate) against the lamp-post.

1104-cock up[2] [B1i nom pass] (taboo) spoil, ruin; mess up (q v). S: organizer, manager, agent. O: arrangements, planning; tour, holiday; ceremony □ Don't let him organize your trip; he completely cocked up ours (or: he made a complete cock-up of ours). □ Trust Smith to cock the whole thing up!

1105-coil around/round [B2 pass emph rel] wind sth in a spiral; wind around/round (q v). O: rope; wire, thread. o: capstan, bollard; bobbin, spool □ The wire was coiled round the cylinder, and then the current was turned on.

1106-coil (itself) around/round [A2 B2 pass emph rel] wind (itself) in a spiral around. S: snake; rope, cable □ The constrictor coiled round its prey and crushed the life out of it. □ The rope slipped from my hands and coiled itself (or: got itself coiled) around the pulley.

1107-coil up[1] [B1i pass adj] form into a coil. O: rope, hawser, cable. □ The sailors coiled the ropes up neatly and left them on the deck.

1108-coil (oneself) up [A1 B1ii pass] form (itself) into a coil. S: snake, centipede; girl □ The snake glided under a stone and coiled up there. □ She coiled herself up in the corner of the sofa with a book.

1109-colour up [A1] (informal) blush, go red in the face (as a result of shyness, feelings of guilt or embarrassment) □ 'You — what's your name?' called the angry headmistress. 'Me, Miss?' he said, startled, and beginning to colour up. TT □ She coloured up at the mention of the young man's name.

1110-comb out [B1i pass] remove knots or tangles in hair, fibre etc. O: hair; skein, hank; knot, tangle □ The little girl hated having her hair combed out because her mother did it roughly, and hurt her.

1111-come aboard [A1] board, come on board (esp a ship or plane). S: crew, passenger □ A relief crew came aboard at Beirut to fly the aircraft on to Singapore. ⇨ go aboard, take aboard.

1112-come about[1] [A1] happen. S: it... that he was there; the accident; death, defeat, disgrace, failure; success □ Can you tell me how the accident came about? □ How does it come about that you did not report the theft until two days after it occurred? □ It came about in this way: one day I was.... □ Thus it came about that, one bright May morning, I swallowed four-tenths of a gramme of mescalin. DOP □ often used with How does/did it.... ⇨ bring about[1].

1113-come about[2] [A1] (nautical) change direction of movement. S: sailing-vessel; yacht, dinghy; motor-boat □ We came about and went off on a new tack. ⇨ bring about[2], go about[3], put about[1].

1114-come across[1] [A2] find, meet (usu by accident). o: (interesting) piece of information; (beautiful) wild flower; his etc name; (old) friend □ Did you come across any old photographs of the family when you were looking through the lumber-room? □ I came across an old friend in Oxford Street this morning.

1115- come across[2] [A1] be communicated, understood, heard. S: (his) voice; message; words □ The preacher spoke for a long time but I'm afraid his meaning did not come across. ⇨ get across (to), put across[1].

1116- come across (with) [A1 A3] (informal) give; hand over. o: money; information; keys □ He owes me five pounds, but I'm afraid he'll never come across. □ The robber gave the old man's arm a twist, and he at once came across with all the money he had in his pocket.

1117- come after[1] [A2 emph rel] follow in sequence □ B comes after A; C comes after B. □ Does the cheese come after the pudding in your country? □ After the banquet came a firework display in the gardens.

1118- come after[2] [A2] (informal) follow in pursuit of. S: dog; police; farmer. o: intruder; suspect; trespasser □ As soon as we started across the field the farmer came after us waving a big stick. ⇨ be after[1], go after[1].

1119- come along [A1] arrive, present (himself etc); turn up[5] (q v). S: he etc; chance, opportunity □ He went to London whenever the chance came along. □ Is your daughter married yet? No, she's still waiting for Mr Right to come along.

1120- come along/on[1] [A1] be quick; make an effort, try harder □ Come along Arthur; we can't wait all day! □ Come on, boys! Surely one of you can tell me the name of the author of 'Oliver Twist'! □ usu imper.

1121- come along/on[2] [A1] make progress. S: pupil, student; work, painting. A: well; nicely, quickly; like a house on fire; like nobody's business □ My son has begun to come along very well in French since the new teacher was appointed. □ The horse has come on a ton (= a great deal) since making his debut at Wolverhampton. DM □ John is coming on like a house on fire now that he is receiving the proper treatment. ⇨ bring along/on[1]; get along/on (with)[1].

1122- come along/on[3] [A1] grow, progress (esp in the early stages). S: plant; flower, vegetable □ 'Those seedlings are coming along well in the greenhouse; I'll plant them outside when the weather gets a little warmer.' □ I forgot to put the glass back on the cold frame last night, and the frost took the tops off some tomato plants I had coming on. TT ⇨ bring along/on[2].

1123- come along (to) [A1 A3] come from one place to another, often a short distance (e g within the same building). o: office; meeting, party □ Why doesn't your brother come along to the services in chapel as he used to? □ 'We're having a few people in for drinks tomorrow. Do come along if you're free.' ⇨ be along (to), bring along (to).

1124- come along (with) [A1 A3] (instruction or firm request to) move somewhere quickly (with sb) □ *'Come along, and please don't make a noise — you'll disturb your mother.' DC □ 'You'd better come along with me to the bar and have a drink. That's what you need to cheer you up.' □ usu imper.

1125- come apart [A1] fall into pieces. S: dress; table; cup, vase □ The camera just came apart the first time I used it. □ I swear I didn't drop the plate: it just came apart in my hands!

1126- come apart at the seams [A3] (informal) disintegrate, fail, become decrepit. S: he etc; scheme, project, idea □ Poor old Smith isn't the man he used to be; he's coming apart at the seams. □ The Government's financial policy is coming apart at the seams.

1127- come around/round (to)[1] [A1 emph A3] come to, visit, sb or a place (usu within the same town etc). o: (my) place, house □ 'I'm ringing to report a burst pipe. How soon can a plumber come round?' □ We'd love to come around to your place tonight, but I'm afraid we're a bit tied up with work at the moment. ⇨ be around/round (at), bring around/round (to)[1], go round (to).

1128- come around/round (to)[2] [A1 A3 rel] agree (after disagreeing), change one's attitude (so that it matches sb else's). o: ⚠ his etc way of thinking, point of view, assessment of the situation □ John's opposed to our ideas at present, but in time he'll come around. □ Mother came around to my way of thinking, thus making life a lot easier. □ A few boys don't like the experiment in mathematics teaching; but some have come round since we started. T ⇨ bring around/round (to)[2].

1129- come at[1] [A2] attack □ The crazed man came at me with a meat-axe.

1130- come at[2] [A2] reach, ascertain. o: facts; truth; causes □ The purpose of the official inquiry is to come at the true facts leading up to the loss of the ship at sea. ⇨ get at[3].

1131- come away [A1] (Scottish) an invitation to sb to enter a room. □ usu imper. ⇨ come in/into.

1132- come away (from) [A1 A3 rel] part, become detached (from). S: fitting, lock, post. o: base, door, socket □ I pulled the rotten wood and it came away without difficulty. □ If the chicken is properly cooked, the meat will come away from the bones very easily.

1133- come away with [A3] leave a place, the company of others etc, with. o: feeling, impression; memories □ We came away with the uneasy feeling that all was not well with their marriage. ⇨ bring away.

1134- come back[1] [A1] return. A: soon, shortly; in a year's time □ I'm going away and I may never come back. ⇨ be back[1], bring back[1], get back[1], go back[1], take back[1].

1135- come back[2] [A1 nom] become fashionable again. S: fashion; style, trend □ Long skirts have been out of fashion for a long time, but they are coming back (or: making a come-back) this year.

1136- come back[3] [A1] return (to the memory). S: it (all); former knowledge; sb's name; details □ At first I could not remember why everything seemed so familiar; then it all came back. □ The language I used to speak at my prep school came back to me. SML ⇨ bring back[2].

1137- come back[4] [A1] be restored. S: (former) system, regime □ There are some people who would be glad to see corporal punishment come back for certain offences. ⇨ bring back[3].

1138- come-back[1] [nom (A1)] a (successful) return (to a profession etc). S: boxer, film-star, politician. Verb make, stage; attempt, try □ After many years of obscurity, the once-famous film-star made an unexpected come-back.

1139- come-back[2] [nom (A1)] an answer; a re-assertion of oneself □ Harold was no longer the

Harold of the conference-room, dapper and self-assured. He tried to make a come-back*, however.* PW

1140- come-back[3] [nom (A1)] means of enforcing an agreement or invoking the law □ If you don't give the necessary details (date, name, address etc) when you buy the machine, you may have no come-back if it breaks down.

1141- come before[1] [A2] precede □ A comes before B; B comes before C, and so on. ⇨ be before[1].

1142- come before[2] [A2] be presented for consideration, decision, judgment. S: he etc; case; matter, claim. o: court, committee, magistrate □ My claim comes before the court tomorrow morning. ⇨ be before[2], bring before, go before[3], put before[2], take before.

1143- come before[3] [A2 emph rel] have greater importance than sth else. S: (one's) country, city; interests, needs (of the community). o: self, all else, personal advancement □ The building of homes and schools should come before the building of new office blocks. □ Before all else must come the development of the economy. ⇨ put before[1].

1144- come between [A2] interfere in the affairs of; cause the separation or estrangement of (two people) □ The lovers swore to let nothing and nobody come between them. □ It is often dangerous and never wise to come between a man and his wife.

1145- come between sb and sth [A2] prevent sb doing or enjoying sth. o: me etc; (and) my work, studies; rest, recreation □ I'm not going to let a small matter like that come between me and my sleep. □ He won't let anything come between him and his daily walk.

1146- come by[1] [A1] pass, esp of sth or sb moving towards the speaker □ I moved my car out of the way so that the heavy lorry could come by. ⇨ get by[1].

1147- come by[2] [A2] obtain, usu as a result of effort. o: money; job; medal, coin, stamp □ Jobs were not so easy to come by when I was a boy as they are now. □ It's difficult to come by first editions of Pope's works. □ I hope you came by all that money honestly.

1148- come by[3] [A2] receive, by accident; happen to get □ How did you come by that scratch on your cheek? KLT

1149- come down[1] [A1 emph] collapse, drop; fall. S: ceiling, wall; curtain, picture; rain, sleet □ I took out just one screw and the whole thing came down. □ The snow came down thick and fast. ⇨ take down[1].

1150- come down[2] [A1] fall to the ground (esp because of enemy fire or engine failure). S: (enemy) aircraft □ Two enemy intruders came down inside our lines. □ The second engine cut out and we were forced to come down in the sea. ⇨ bring down[1].

1151- come down[3] [A1 emph] fall, be reduced. S: prices, costs, expenditure □ Prices are much more likely to go up than to come down. ⇨ be down[2], bring down[5], go down[6].

1152- come down[4] [A1] (informal) make a present of money, give money (to sb) □ Just when I was at my wits' end wondering how to pay my bills, my old aunt came down handsomely; she sent me a cheque for £100.

1153- come down[5] [A1] reach a decision; decide to exert one's influence. A: (finally, after some hesitation) against or in favour of sb or sth; on sb's side □ The Prime Minister came down heavily on my side, and the Colonial Secretary was routed. MFM

1154- come down[6] [A1] come to a (country) place, either from London or the North □ There's a girl come down to live here — she's married to a painter. ASA □ in contrast, one goes up to London (as the capital), or to Scotland (if travelling north).

1155- come-down [nom (A1)] (informal) a loss of prestige, face, social position □ After owning her own little shop for so many years, it was quite a come-down for her to have to work for someone else. AITC □ commonly modified by rather a, a bit of a; a terrible, awful, dreadful; note also the exclamation: What a come-down!

1156- come down (from) [A1 A3] leave (a university, esp Oxford and Cambridge) □ 'So you were at Cambridge in 1964. When did you come down?' □ I have just come down from the University with a mediocre degree in History. HD ⇨ be down (from); go down[8].

1157- come down in the world [A3] (informal) suffer a change for the worse (in economic circumstances, standard of living or employment) □ Poor old George has come down in the world since his business failed.

1158- come down on[1] [A3] (informal) rebuke sb; criticize severely, often with a threat of punishment, for some fault. o: him etc; error, slip. A: like a ton of bricks (= with great severity), in a flash, instantly □ If any man was slow in obeying orders, the sergeant would come down on him like a ton of bricks. ⇨ be down on[2].

1159- come down on[2] [A3] (informal) demand money or redress from. o: (negligent) workman, motorists; (bankrupt) trader □ He came down on the driver of the car for heavy damages. □ All his creditors came down on him for prompt payment of his bills when they heard of his financial difficulties. ⇨ be down on[3].

1160- come down to[1] [A3] (informal) mean in essence, (can) be reduced to; boil down to (q v). S: it; the accusation; his story □ So what it came down to*, in the end, is that he'd got me the offer of a show from one of the better galleries.* CON □ It comes down to two choices: You can either stay here and obey me, or leave and never return. TGLY

1161- come down to[2] [A3] reach, be passed on to. S: stories, songs, myths, legends; traditions, customs. o: us, them; nations, groups, tribes □ These stories come down to us from our forefathers.

1162- come down to[3] [A3] (informal) have one's standard of living, behaviour, self-confidence etc so reduced that one is forced to do things that would normally be beneath one; be reduced to (⇨ reduce to[4]). o: seeking help, asking for money, begging in the streets □ I never thought she would come down to asking my advice about her affairs.

1163- come down to earth [A3] (informal) return to reality. A: △ with a bang, with a bump □ The lovers are living in a kind of dreamworld; but one day they'll come down to earth. □ cf (i) No matter how high you jump you always return to earth. (ii) Never lose sight of it, or you might come down with a bump. DBM ⇨ bring down to earth.

1164- when it comes down to [A3] (informal) (when it) is a question of. o: cunning, guile, greed; generosity, courage □ When it comes down to sheer strength, there is no animal that can match the elephant.

1165- come forth [A1] (formal or facetious) emerge, be produced. S: thought, idea; proposal, suggestion □ I had very great hopes of Jenkins' speech last night, but nothing very new came forth. ⇨ bring forth.

1166- come forward[1] [A1] present oneself; make oneself known; move to the fore □ The police want any witnesses of the incident to come forward and help them with their inquiries.

1167- come forward[2] [A1] be raised for discussion (esp at a formal meeting). S: issue, question, matter □ The matter was deferred at last evening's meeting, but will come forward at our next session. ⇨ bring forward[1].

1168- come from [A2 emph rel] be a native of; be a product of □ He comes from London. □ These toys come from Hong Kong. □ From this area come most of our best potatoes.

1169- come from/of[1] [A2] be descended from. o: (good, famous, notorious) family; a long line of artists, politicians, statesmen, drunkards □ He comes from a very good family. □ (a popular joke) He comes of a long line of bachelors.

1170- come from/of[2] [A2] be the result of. S: nothing, anything; (no) good, harm; (only) good, harm; that's what. o: one's work, endeavours, efforts; meddling, interfering □ 'I wonder if anything will come of our tea-party,' said Isabel. PW □ Carry on with your present research. Nothing but good can come of it. □ Joan is furious with me for cleaning her house while she was on holiday. That's what comes from trying to be a good neighbour. □ object is often the -ing form of a v as in the last example.

1171- come-hither [nom (A1)] (informal) a clear invitation by a girl or woman to a man to start a flirtation □ Sonja gave me such an obvious come-hither look that I felt myself blushing to the roots of my hair. □ used attrib, esp with look, smile; note that come hither, as a v + particle, is obsolete.

1172- come home (to) [A1 A3 rel] become painfully clear (to). S: fact, truth; danger; it... that he was dying. o: patient, sufferer; public □ It eventually came home to the people that the war would be long and bloody. ⇨ bring/get home (to).

1173- come in[1] [A1] become fashionable. S: long hair, whiskers; short skirts, full sleeves □ 'Do you know exactly when wigs first came in*, in this country?'* ⇨ be in[1]; be in/bring into/come into fashion/vogue.

1174- come in[2] [A1] become seasonable or available. S: strawberries, trout, pheasant □ 'Fresh salmon doesn't come in before February, does it?' □ 'We haven't any nylon net curtains in stock just at present; but they should come in any moment now.' ⇨ be in[3]; be in/come into season.

1175- come in[3] [A1] (politics) gain power. S: (present) government; Wilson, Heath etc □ When the present government came in the country was in a difficult financial situation. ⇨ be in[4], get in/into[3]; put in[6].

1176- come in[4] [A1] (sport) finish a race. S: athlete; horse, dog; yacht, car. A: first, second, last □ He led most of the way but suddenly lost his strength and came in last. □ Where did Peter come in — second or third?

1177- come in[5] [A1] be received as income. S: dividend, profit; wage, salary □ He doesn't work; but he has at least a thousand a year coming in from investments. □ She has a tiny bit coming in from a few shares that were left to me. LBA ⇨ bring in[2].

1178- come in[6] [A1] get some advantage from, have a part to play in, some concerted action. S: colleague, partner, member (of a team) □ 'Yes. I understand the scheme perfectly; but I don't see where I come in*.'* □ 'This is where you come in*, Bill: while we are getting round to the enemy's rear, you will distract them by a few bursts of machine-gun fire.'* ⇨ bring in[3].

1179- come in[7] [A1] move towards the land. S: △ the tide, the water, the sea □ Don't stay on the rocks too long; the tide is coming in fast and you might get cut off. □ The tide's out now, but it starts to come in at about six o'clock. ⇨ be in[7].

1180- come in[8] [A1] (broadcasting, journalism) be received; reach the office, editor's desk etc. S: △ (the) news, details; a story, report □ News is just coming in of an air-crash over the Atlantic. We will give further details as soon as they are received.

1181- come in[9] [A1] (broadcasting) continue with, or contribute to, a commentary, discussion etc. S: reporter, commentator; member of the panel, audience □ 'And now for his impressions of the first round of this heavyweight contest, I pass you over to J. Barrington Dolby. Come in*, Barry!'* □ 'I should like to come in here, as I happen to know a good deal about how people live in these high-rise flats.'

1182- come in[10] [A1] (radio communication, eg between police-cars and their control points) ask sb to speak, report his position, that he has heard a message etc □ *'Come in, Victor.* Come in*, Victor. Over!'*

1183- come in handy/useful [A1] be found useful on some future (usu unforseeable) occasion □ 'Don't throw those old jars away; they may come in useful (or: handy*) one of these days.'*

1184- come in pat [A1] say without hesitation and just at the right moment □ 'I wonder where Eileen lives?' said Mary; and her five-year-old sister came in pat with the answer: 'At 23 Rose Gardens.'

1185- when one's ship comes in [A1] when one has plenty of money to spend □ Perhaps, when their ship came in*, they would be able to change some of their ugly chairs for some more beautiful ones.* PW

1186- come in for [A3] attract, be the object of. S: work, conduct, idea. o: (some, a lot of) admiration, attention; criticism, blame □ The young artist's pictures came in for a great deal of attention. □ The Government's foreign policy has come in for a storm of criticism from the newspapers.

1187- come in/into [A1 emph A2 emph] enter. o: house; room, hall □ The door opened, and Bill came in*.* □ Into the hall came a wet, bedraggled figure.

1188- come in on [A3] join, have a share or part in. S:

public; tradesman, worker. o: plan, scheme, venture □ If you want to come in on the venture, you must decide quickly. ⇨ be/bring/get/let in on.

1189- come in on the ground floor [A3] (informal) join a venture etc at the start. S: investor, speculator; partner, associate □ Those who came in on the ground floor have seen their capital doubled in under three years. ⇨ be in on the ground floor; get in[3].

1190- not have enough imagination/intelligence/sense to come in out of the rain [A3] (informal) be very stupid or foolish □ You think he's a great scholar, just because he reads old manuscripts. How could he be a great scholar? He hasn't enough imagination to come in out of the rain. ASA come into[1] [A2 emph] enter. ⇨ come in/into.

1191- come in with [A3] (informal) join sb in a venture. o: firm, partnership, group □ You can come in with us if you can put up (= contribute) five hundred pounds.

1193- come into[2] [A2] inherit. o: fortune, legacy; one's share of sth □ She came into a fortune when her uncle died. □ I don't come into my share of the legacy until I'm twenty-one.

1194- come into action [A2] (military) begin to act, operate. S: troops; guns □ There was a lull of a few seconds before the oiled machinery of pursuit came into action. HD ⇨ be in/bring into/go into action.

1195- come into being/existence [A2] start, begin, to exist. S: body, formation; industry □ Later, two more armies came into being — the First Canadian under Crerar and the Third American under Patton. MFM □ Do you know when Parliament first came into existence? ⇨ be in/bring into being/existence.

1196- come into blossom/flower [A2] (of blossom, flowers) open, show. S: bush, shrub; crocus, daffodil □ The trees are late coming into blossom this year. ⇨ be in/bring into blossom/flower.

1197- come into bud/leaf [A2] (of a bud, leaf, on a tree or bush) appear, show itself. S: tree, shrub; branch, bough □ The rose-bushes have come into bud much later than usual. ⇨ be in bud/leaf.

1198- come into effect [A2] begin to operate, take effect. S: regulation, provision; arrangement, schedule; timetable, programme □ The new cuts in income-tax will not come into effect until the beginning of August. □ The revised work-schedule comes into effect next week. ⇨ put into effect.

1199- come into fashion/vogue [A2] become fashionable. S: leather, plastic; long hair, gaudy ties □ Short hair and short skirts came into fashion at about the same time during the 1920s. ⇨ be in/bring into fashion/vogue; be in[1], come in[1].

1200- come into focus [A2] (of sth viewed through a microscope, telescope etc) become sharp and clear; (fig) become clearly visible, intelligible. S: microscope, specimen; question, problem, issue □ Draw the eyepiece towards you and the object will come into sharp focus. □ Now that you've explained the important issues, everything comes into much clearer focus. ⇨ be in/bring into focus.

1201- come into force [A2] begin to operate (and be in some way binding or enforceable). S: law, regulation, requirement □ New regulations will soon come into force for the drivers of heavy vehicles. □ The Industrial Relations Bill came into force gradually — over a period of months. ⇨ be in/bring into/put into force.

1202- come into the open [A2] be frank, speak frankly; become obvious; be made public. S: he etc; view, attitude; feelings; hostility, greed; quarrel, controversy □ Why don't you come into the open and say exactly what's on your mind? □ His hatred of his brother would have come into the open long before if he had not left home at such an early age. TST ⇨ be in/bring into the open.

1203- come into one's own [A2] reach fulfilment (of one's personality, capabilities etc) □ I am thinking of the woman in early-middle or middle age, when she has fully established herself as the mother of the family, when she comes into her own. □ The Lotus car came into its own when Jim Clark won the great American race at Indianapolis.

1204- come into play [A2] become involved, start to have an influence. S: force(s), circumstance(s), factor(s) □ All kinds of forces come into play when a nation's vital interests are threatened. □ If we want to sell abroad, a new set of factors — different tastes, local competition, and so on — come into play. ⇨ be in/bring into play.

1205- come into sb's possession [A2] come to be held, possessed, by sb (often temporarily or illegally). S: money, jewels; firearms □ The police asked the arrested man how the revolver had come into his possession (or: how he had come into possession of the revolver). □ the second pattern is used by the police in statements of evidence: On that date the accused was said to have come into possession of a stolen vehicle. ⇨ be in sb's possession.

1206- come into power [A2] (politics) reach, attain, (political) power. S: party; administration; clique, faction □ The present government came into power a year ago. ⇨ be in/put into power.

1207- come into prominence [A2] become well known. S: politician, (party) member; industrialist, trades unionist □ He suddenly came into prominence as a result of his refusal to obey the party-line on the nationalization of steel. ⇨ bring into prominence.

1208- come into season [A2] become seasonable or available (in shops). S: oysters, (fresh) salmon; raspberries, peaches □ Tomatoes come into season much earlier in Italy than in Northern Europe. ⇨ be in season; be in[3], come in[2].

1209- come into service/use [A2] begin to serve the public, begin to be used, available. S: (railway, air) line; ferry, bridge, road □ The new type of bus comes into service later this month. □ This stretch of motorway will not come back into use until extensive tests have been made. ⇨ be in/bring into/go into service/use.

1210- come into sight/view [A2] appear. S: traveller; car, train; coast; town □ As the plane came down through the clouds, green fields and white houses came into sight. □ The church spire came into view as we rounded the next bend. ⇨ be in/bring into sight/view.

1211- come into the world [A2] be born. S: infant, child □ One of the arguments in favour of birth control is that only those children come into the world who are genuinely wanted.

1212- come into collision (with) [A2] hit; collide (with). S: car, lorry; ship; train □ His car came into collision with a bus at the crossroads. □ The two vehicles came into collision at great speed. ⇨ be in collision (with).

1213- come into contact (with) [A2] touch; meet. S: (electrical) lead, wire; agent, official □ When this piece of metal comes into contact with the wires (or: When the metal and the wires come into contact) the circuit is complete. □ In his job as Public Relations Officer he comes into contact with all kinds of people. ⇨ be in/bring into contact (with).

1214- come into line (with) [A2] conform with the rules etc of a movement, party etc. S: disciple, follower, adherent. O: (with) (party, church) doctrine, the official view □ He is not the sort of man to come easily into line with the rest of his colleagues. □ The prospect of a Cabinet post is a strong inducement for him to come back into line. ⇨ be in/bring into/fall into line (with).

come of[1] [A2] be descended from. ⇨ come from/of[1].

come of[2] [A2] be the result of. ⇨ come from/of[2].

1217- come of age [A2] reach the age of legal responsibility: reach (in England) the age of 18 (formerly 21); reach maturity □ When she comes of age*, she will be able to do what she likes with the money her father left her.* □ The Hire Purchase system, which recently came of age*, now faces the problems of maturity.* OBS

1218- come off[1] [A1 emph A2] fall from. O: horse, pony; bicycle □ The horse refused at the first fence, and that's when I came off. □ He came off his horse when it refused to take (= jump over) a fence. ⇨ be off[1].

1219- come off[2] [A1 emph A2] become detached. S: handle, knob; paint. O: door; wall □ When I lifted the jug up, the handle came off. □ The first time the baby played with the toy, a lot of the paint came off. ⇨ be off[2], take off[1].

1220- come off[3] [A1] be removable. S: handle; cover, lid; paint, varnish; glue □ 'Do these knobs come off*?' 'No, they're fixed on permanently.'* □ 'The lid of this tin won't come off for me; can you move it?'

1221- come off[4] [A1] (informal) take place. S: marriage; race, hunt, moon-shot; royal visit □ When does the next American moon-shot come off*?* □ My friend's marriage didn't come off*; his fiancée broke off the engagement at the last minute.*

1222- come off[5] [A1] (informal) be successful. S: trick, scheme; effort, attempt, manœuvre, experiment □ It was a good scheme and it nearly came off. DS □ Their attempt to rob the mail-train didn't come off. ⇨ bring off[2].

1223- come off[6] [A1] (informal) fare. S: competitor, rival, opponent. A: well, badly; second best □ (horoscope) Don't argue with a superior if you can avoid it. This is a week when you are likely to come off second best. W1 □ How did Mary come off in the affair?

1224- come off[7] [A2] have finished doing sth, no longer be involved in sth. S: salesman, executive; detective. O: job, assignment; case □ The journalist had just come off an assignment which had taken him half way round the world. □ 'I want you to come off that fraud case,' said the inspector. 'I've got some more urgent work for you to do.' ⇨ take off[5].

1225- come off[8] [A2] be removed from (so that an overall price etc is less). S: fifty pence, £5; tax, surcharge, tariff. O: price; petrol, refrigerator; medical supplies □ I'm waiting until Budget Day to see if something will come off the price of cars. □ Under the new trade agreement, the import tariff comes off certain kinds of goods. ⇨ take off[6].

1226- come off the gold standard [A2] abandon the system by which the value of a currency is based on that of gold □ When Britain came off the gold standard*, in 1931, the economy of many other countries was affected also.*

1227- come off it [A2] (informal) not say things which one knows can't be true; stop trying to mislead others □ 'Oh, come off it*! You can't expect me to believe that nonsense!'* □ 'We know you're just pretending to be concerned — now come off it*!'* □ usu imper.

come on[1] [A1] be quick, make an effort. ⇨ come along/on[1].

come on[2] [A1] make progress. ⇨ come along/on[2].

come on[3] [A1] grow, progress. ⇨ come along on[3].

1231- come on[4] [A1] leave a place in order to arrive at a destination later than sb else □ 'You had better go to the station now; I'll come on later.'

1232- come on[5] [A1] be cheerful or strong; pull oneself together (q v) □ *The woman had been weeping for more than an hour. At last her husband said gently: 'Come on, now, my dear! Bear up! It isn't the end of the world, you know.'* □ imper only.

1233- come on[6] [A1] start. S: fever, cold; headache, migraine; attack of hay fever □ 'My throat's dry and a bit sore; perhaps I've got a cold coming on.' ⇨ bring on[3].

1234- come on[7] [A1] begin to arrive. S: ⚠ night; winter □ The travellers wanted to reach the inn before night came on. □ Winter is coming on*: you can feel it in the air.*

1235- come on[8] [A1] begin. S: ⚠ (the) rain, snow □ Just as we were beginning to enjoy ourselves, the rain came on and spoilt everything □ cf It came on to rain/snow, in which rain and snow are verbs.

1236- come on[9] [A1] (cricket) begin to bowl. S: pace bowler, leg-spinner □ A new bowler came on and soon succeeded in reducing the batsmen's rate of scoring. □ Trueman came on (to bowl) after the tea interval. ⇨ be on[4], bring on[4], put on[10].

1237- come on[10] [A1] (theatre) appear on, walk on to (the stage in a play, concert, opera etc); (sport) join a team (football etc) in the course of a match. S: actor; player □ When Laurence Olivier came on for the first time, the audience applauded. □ Marsh came on as a substitute for Cooper only ten minutes before the end of the game. ⇨ be on[5].

1238- come on[11] [A1] be shown, performed. S: film, play, opera □ 'The big film doesn't come on until nine o'clock, so there's plenty of time for us to get to the cinema.' □ There's a very good play coming on at The Lyric next week.* ⇨ be on[6], put on[11].

1239-come on[12] [A1] (legal) be considered (by a court). S: △ the case, lawsuit, hearing, action □ They have been waiting a long time for their case to come on. ⇨ be on[7].

1240-come-on [nom (A1)] (informal) gesture, tone of voice etc, which indicates that sb (esp a woman) is trying to make amorous advances □ She had very large dark eyes. But she didn't look like a pick-up and there was no trace of come-on in her voice. TLG

1241-come on the scene [A2] appear; become a participant in some activity. S: police, fire-brigade, ambulance; (new) child, (second) wife □ When their first child came on the scene, they had to change their way of life completely. □ I came on the scene long after the treasure had been largely plundered, but I am still enchanted by the glimpses I get, from time to time, of the riches that remain. LWK ⇨ be on the scene.

1242-come on down/in/out/round/up [A3] a more persuasive invitation than 'come in' (⇨ come in/into) □ 'Come on in and have a chat.'* □ 'Come on up. The front door's open.'* □ imper only.

1243-come on in, the water's fine [A3] (informal) an invitation to sb to bathe in the sea, a river, a lake, a swimming pool; (fig) an invitation to sb to join an enjoyable or profitable activity □ 'If you're thinking of becoming a journalist like me, I'd be the last to discourage you. Come on in, the water's fine!'

1244-come on top of [A2] follow (often as a complicating or aggravating factor). S: additional burden, extra expense, family illness □ This embarrassment, coming on top of a row with Berthe and Nicholas, was more than she could stand. HAA

1245-come on/upon [A2] encounter; find. o: traveller, stranger; book; antique; coin, medal □ As we turned the corner we came on a group of men who were waiting for the public house to open. □ I came on this old edition of Pope's works while I was going through some trunks in the attic of my grandfather's house.

1246-come on/upon one [A2] (of sth unwelcome) arrive; affect, strike, one. S: winter, chilly spell, the rains; crisis, catastrophe □ Many misfortunes came upon us during that harsh winter. ⇨ be on/upon one.

1247-come out[1] [A1] (industry) stop work, strike. S: workers (of any organized group). A: on strike; in support, in sympathy □ The dockers have come out to a man. CSWB ⇨ be out[1], bring out[1].

1248-come out[2] [A1] leave, be released from, prison. S: prisoner, convict; detainee. A: of gaol, on parole, early □ Jones got a three-year sentence, but he may come out early for good conduct. ⇨ be out[2], let out/out of.

1249-come out[3] [A1] formally enter society (of a debutante) □ My eldest daughter comes out next season. □ restricted to 'high' society; note coming-out as a modifier in: She met a charming young man at her coming-out ball. ⇨ bring out[3].

1250-come out[4] [A1] flower, blossom. S: tulip, rose; bud □ The crocuses have come out early this year because of the mild winter. ⇨ be out[4], bring out[4].

1251-come out[5] [A1] appear, become visible. S: △ the sun, moon, stars □ The child loved to watch the stars come out at night. □ During the morning the sky was overcast, but in the afternoon the sun came out. ⇨ be out[5].

1252-come out[6] [A1] appear in the shops; be published. S: model, brand; book; novel, article □ We have several additions to our very successful 'Primula' range coming out this month. □ 'Have you found a title for the book?' 'No, not yet.' 'When will it come out?' asked Isabel. PW ⇨ be out[6], bring out[5].

1253-come out[7] [A1] be told; be disclosed, revealed. S: the (real) truth; the news, the (whole) story, all the facts □ The news has just come out that the Princess is going to have a baby next March. □ When Puchert was killed in 1959 by a bomb placed in his car in Frankfurt, the story of the Red Hand murders came right out into the open. TO ⇨ be out[7], let out[2].

1254-come out[8] [A1] be revealed or shown up clearly. S: detail; spot, work; curve, moulding; letter, engraving; face, feature; subject, sitter (of portrait painter) □ The detail of the carving comes out very sharply in this oblique light. □ Everyone came out well in the wedding photograph except the bride, unfortunately. ⇨ bring out[6].

1255-come out[9] [A1] be spoken. S: △ a/the word(s); a declaration, statement □ No sooner had the words come out than I regretted my indiscretion in speaking them. □ The things she had prepared to say fled from her, and instead words came out which had no origin in her conscious mind. PW ⇨ bring out[7].

1256-come out[10] [A1] become clear or explicit, be revealed. S: truth, sense, meaning □ I think the inner meaning of the composition comes out very clearly in his interpretation. ⇨ bring out[8].

1257-come out[11] [A1] emerge, be elicited. S: the best/worst in sb; strength, dependability, steadiness; weakness, shiftiness □ At such testing times, only the good in him came out, and none of the bad. □ His eyes glinted and you could see the low cunning coming out in him as he sang the praises of the clapped-out car he was trying to sell. ⇨ bring out[9].

1258-come out[12] [A1] produce a satisfactory answer. S: sum, calculation, problem □ 'Can you help me with this sum, please? It won't come out.' ⇨ get out[6], work out[3].

1259-come out[13] [A1] be announced, be declared. S: (examination) result, mark, class-list; election results □ When do the psychology results come out? □ I hope my A-level marks come out before I go on holiday. ⇨ be out[16].

1260-come out[14] [A1] be placed (in an examination, test etc). A: top, bottom; second, fifth □ They were very disappointed when their son came out bottom in the examination.

1261-come out against [A3] show that one is opposed to sth, speak against it. o: proposal, suggested change; legislation, reform □ In his speech to the House, the Minister came out clearly against any change to the existing law.

1262-come out at [A3] cost, be calculated at; work out at (q v). S: total; party; excursion, move □ If you pay a pound for a hundred, they come out at 1p each. □ What is the cost of putting your car back on the road going to come out at?

1263-come out (for/to) [A1 A3] leave home (with a friend) for an excursion, etc. o: (for) drive, walk, picnic; (to) the pictures, the theatre □ Would you like to come out for a drive in the country? □ (old song) 'Boys and girls, come out to play, the moon is shining bright as day.' □ Will you come out to dinner with me on Friday? ⇨ be out (at), go out¹, go/take out (for/to).

1264-come out in [A3] become (partially) covered with. S: skin; face, chest, arms. o: ⚠ pimples, hives, a rash, spots □ Shortly after I had eaten the lobster I came out in spots. ⇨ bring out in.

1265-come out in the wash [A3] (informal) be set right, right itself/themselves (in the end); be made clear. S: it; things; everything □ The modern tendency is to avoid taking decisions, and to procrastinate in the hope that things will come out all right in the wash. MFM

1266-come out in favour (of) [A3] make a decision for, support. o: change, reform; law, Bill □ The Liberals, who held the balance of power in Parliament, came out in favour of the Government.

1267-come out/out of¹ [A1 emph A2] leave, emerge from. o: house, school, cinema □ We were caught up in a rush of people coming out of the football ground. □ Police went into the house to try to persuade the man to come out. ⇨ be out-/out of¹, bring out/out of.

1268-come out/out of² [A1 emph A2] leave the place where it has been fixed. S: peg, nail, bolt. o: ground, wall, metal □ The little girl's front tooth came out when she bit the apple. □ 'Can you help me to open this bottle? The cork won't come out.' □ The screw was rusty and wouldn't come out of the wall. ⇨ be out/out of², take out/out of².

1269-come out/out of³ [A1 emph A2] disappear (with cleaning). S: mark, stain, spot; colour, dye □ Do you think these ink-marks will come out of my dress if I boil it? □ The colours in these materials are guaranteed not to come out. ⇨ be out/out of³.

1270-come out/out of badly/well [A1 A2] (informal) be revealed (as behaving or having behaved badly/well). S: nobody, everyone □ In the scandal caused by the Minister's foolish behaviour, nobody came out well. □ In the comparisons that were made between the two women, Isabel seldom came out best. PW

1271-come out of the blue [A2] (informal) happen, appear, be said, suddenly, unexpectedly. S: he etc; arrival, return; comment, statement; discovery, success □ She had come out of the blue just when she was wanted but, like so many others involved in the case, she was out to make money. T □ Those remarks of his tend to come right out of the blue, and anyone not knowing him is invariably shocked. ⇨ be out of the blue.

1272-come out of one's shell [A2] (informal) overcome one's shyness; show a bolder, perhaps unexpected, side of one's character □ I think she was rather pleased with me and the way I was coming out of my shell. HAHA □ He has to know you for a long time before he really begins to come out of his shell. ⇨ bring out of his shell.

1273-come out on the right/wrong side [A3] (informal) (not) lose money. S: dealer, trader, salesman □ He sold his goods at very low prices but he always managed to come out on the right side.

1274-come out on top [A3] (informal) win, overcome difficulties, prove oneself superior to others □ He had a long struggle in his early days as a manufacturer, but he came out on top in the end.

come out (to) [A1 A3] ⇨ come out (for/to).

1276-come out with [A3] (informal) speak, say (perhaps after some hesitation). o: the truth, facts; shocking, filthy language; some strange remarks, statements; the (astonishing) theory, statement that... □ When Steve dropped his nonsense and came out with the truth, he was at his most engaging. SPL □ He came out with a string of four-letter words that brought blushes to quite a few of the elderly ladies present.

1277-come (over) [A2] (informal) try to impress, persuade etc, by assuming a false manner or behaving in an insincere way. noun complement: it; the high and mighty, the barrack-room lawyer, the wronged wife □ Of course, she tries to win sympathy by coming the badly-used little woman over everybody. □ Just let him try coming the big boss over me! □ It gives me a pain in the neck watching that fool coming it over people who are ten times better at the job than he is.

1278-come over¹ [A1] visit sb (usu after crossing the sea or making a journey by air or land) □ If you can get leave, please come over this weekend. RFW □ My French pen-friend is coming over for a holiday this summer. ⇨ be over⁴, bring over.

1279-come over² [A1] reach (England, America) as a migrant □ My ancestors came over with the Normans (the Pilgrim Fathers).

1280-come over³ [A2] (informal) overtake, seize, affect. S: (sudden) feeling, sense, wave, fit of; attack of hopelessness, futility; dizziness, nausea, fear; what ever...? □ A fit of stubbornness came over him and he refused to have anything further to do with the scheme. □ 'I've never seen him looking so cheerful! What has come over him?'

1281-come over⁴ [A1] (suddenly) feel or become. adj complement (all, quite, rather) tired, sick, faint, dizzy; nasty, bad-tempered; canny, crafty □ I thought of this, and thought of that, and altogether I came over quite absent-minded. TC □ somewhat sub-standard esp when all precedes the adj.

1282-come over (to) [A1 A3] change sides, one's allegiance etc. S: country; power; agent, general, scientist. o: us, our side, the allies □ At a crucial point in the war, one of the enemy's most powerful allies came over to our side. □ How would you like to come over to us? You could double your salary within a year. ⇨ bring over (to), go over to¹.

1283-come round¹ [A1] arrive (of a periodical event or occasion). S: Christmas, Easter; pay-day, my birthday; the annual Conference □ The Commonwealth Prime Ministers' Conference comes round next month. SC

1284-come round² [A1] regain consciousness □ 'Thank goodness, dear, you're coming round. You fainted you know.' DC ⇨ bring round².

1285-come round³ [A1] (informal) recover one's good humour □ He's sulking because his parents wouldn't let him go to the pictures; but he'll soon come round*.*

1286-come round (to)[1] [A1 emph A3] come to, visit, sb or a place (usu within the the same town etc). ⇨ come around/round (to)[1].

1287-come round (to)[2] [A1 A3 rel] agree (after disagreeing), change one's attitude. ⇨ come around/round (to)[2].

1288-come round to [A3] (informal) reach the point of doing sth after procrastination or unavoidable delay □ When he finally came round to writing the letter, he found his feelings were easier to express than he had expected. ⇨ get around/round to.

1289-come through [A1 A2] recover from a serious illness (mental or physical); survive. S: patient; business, enterprise; country. o: illness; crisis, war □ I knew there was something that I ought to say, something that would reassure my doctor that I had come through*, only I did not know what it was.* □ He considered himself fortunate to have come through two world wars unscathed. ⇨ bring through.

1290-come through (on) [A1 A3] make communication with sb (by means of); be received (by); (of a message) arrive. S: he etc; message, communication; news, results; order. o: telephone, line; wireless, radio □ I was just leaving the office when Robert came through on the phone from London. CON □ A message was coming through from Brazil when the signal went completely. TBC ⇨ be through (to), get through (to)[2], put through (to).

1291-come to[1] [A1] recover consciousness □ When he came to*, he could not, for a moment, recognize his surroundings.* ⇨ come round[2].

1292-come to[2] [A1] (nautical) stop; heave to (q v). S: ship, boat □ The boat came to with a few feet of clear water to port. □ A police patrol boat hailed to us to come to*.* ⇨ bring to[2].

1293-come to[3] [A2] be equal to, reach, a total; amount to[1] (q v). S: bill, account; shopping, purchases, goods □ The bill came to five pounds, fifty pence. □ I didn't expect those few items to come to so much. ⇨ bring to[3].

1294-come to sb's aid/assistance/help [A2] give aid etc to sb. S: rescue team, fire brigade, police. o: (of) climber, swimmer; occupant, owner □ Firemen came to the aid of a man trapped on the top floor of a burning house. □ The motorist was asked to give his position, so that the breakdown truck could come to his assistance*.* ⇨ bring to sb's aid/assistance.

1295-come to attention [A2] (military) adopt an alert straight-backed posture, with the feet together. S: soldier; company, platoon □ 'When the officer speaks to you, come smartly to attention*, and stand still!'* ⇨ be at/bring to attention.

1296-come to sb's attention/notice [A2] be noticed, remarked. S: it... that he was there; fact, matter, circumstances □ It came to his attention that his wife was often seen in the company of another man. □ It has come to my notice that you have not been working as well as you used to. ⇨ bring to sb's attention/notice.

1297-come to blows [A2] start fighting. S: (two) sides, parties, teams; rivals, opponents □ We didn't actually come to blows*, but we spent the rest of the day staring out of opposite windows.* DIL ⇨ bring to blows.

1298-come to the boil [A2] reach boiling-point; (fig) reach crisis point. S: water, milk; situation, discussion □ The kettle was coming to the boil*, and he made quite certain that its spout was directed out of harm's way.* TT □ Just as the rather heated exchange was about to come to the boil*, the Chairman called the speakers to order.* ⇨ bring to the boil.

1299-come to a climax [A2] reach a high level of intensity, drama etc. S: noise, din; disturbance, rioting; quarrel, disagreement □ Their discussions came to a noisy climax late in the evening. □ Their argument came to a climax when she threw a plate at him. ⇨ bring to a climax.

1300-come to a bad etc end [A2] (informal) meet an unpleasant fate. adj: ⚠ bad, no good; sticky (= unpleasant), nasty □ Give my regards to Carlo; tell him George came to no good end*.* US □ I always knew that chap would come to a sticky end*.*

1301-come to a dead end [A2] (informal) reach a point beyond which no progress can be made. S: inquiry, investigation; survey, research; conversation □ It was puzzling; we seemed to have come to a dead end*. 'Have you any idea why she did it?' 'None at all', he replied.* ⇨ be at/bring to a dead end.

1302-come to an end [A2] end, finish; be exhausted. S: campaign, war; trouble, turmoil; patience, forbearance □ We are all relieved that the month-old strike seems to be coming to an end*.* □ The good relationship which existed between managers and men has come to an end*.* ⇨ be at/bring to an end, put an end/a stop to.

1303-come to one's feet [A2] stand up quickly. S: audience, crowd (at a match) □ Several members (of Parliament) came to their feet at once to answer the accusation. □ The audience came to their feet as the National Anthem was played. ⇨ be on one's feet, bring to his feet.

1304-come to the fore [A2] become prominent. S: member (of a group); politician, industrialist; scholar, writer □ Past memories, which are overlaid during the waking state by our sensory impressions, come to the fore during sleep in the form of dreams. SNP □ He first came to the fore in a rather lean time for British politics. ⇨ be/bring to the fore.

1305-come to fruition [A2] be realized, fulfilled. S: hope, dream, ambition; plan, scheme □ Their hopes of a happy life together never came to fruition*.* WDM □ After years of work, he had the pleasure of seeing all his plans come to fruition*.* ⇨ bring to fruition.

1306-come to grief [A2] be destroyed; be a failure. S: car, plane; scheme, plan; business □ The ship came to grief on a hidden rock □ The cocktail party nearly came to grief*, for the chief guest did not arrive until it was well under way.*

1307-come to the ground [A2] fall down. S: pole, tent; chimney, tower □ The chimney came crashing to the ground in a cloud of dust. ⇨ bring to the ground.

1308-come to a halt/standstill [A2] (of the movement or progress of sth) stop, be unable to progress further. S: car, convoy; production, factory □ Don't open the door until the car comes to a complete halt*.* □ Production has come to a standstill owing to the lack of raw materials. ⇨ be at/bring to a halt/standstill.

1309-come to harm [A2] be hurt, harmed; fall under a bad influence. adj: (no) great, (no) real, (no) serious □ I shall really have to accompany you, if only in order to see that you come to no harm. US □ Most parents think that their children will come to no great harm if they go to a discotheque now and then.

1310-come to a head [A2] reach a critical or culminating stage. S: matter, argument, quarrel, crisis; (our) fears, doubts □ The matter may come to a head at an early meeting of the Parliamentary Labour Party. DM ⇨ bring to a head.

1311-come to heel [A2] obey; accept an obedient role; fall into line (q v) □ He had only to speak one word and his dog would come to heel at once. □ As I walked I threatened the universe. If it did not come to heel soon, my reprisals would begin and they would be terrible. CON ⇨ bring to heel.

1312-(if it) come to that [A2] (informal) if it is, were, a question of that (= 'now that (I) think about it'; 'since you mention it' etc) □ He hated taking favours from her family. If it came to that, it was her family who was to blame for the whole thing. DC □ *She went on to confess that she had never been to a cocktail party, and Pop said: '*Come to that, neither have I!' DBM

1313-if/when it comes to the crunch/push [A2] (informal) if or when it becomes unavoidable; if the need is great enough □ It was easy enough to visualize him blowing up the bridge if it came to the push and given the right company. ILIH □ If it comes to the crunch and we have to sell up I can always go back to my old job.

1314-come to it [A2] (informal) reach a state (usu unpleasant) as a result of a change in age, strength, ability, wealth, etc □ 'I hear that poor old Smith has had to resign from the Board because of ill-health.' 'Ah, well; I suppose we all have to come to it in the end.' □ 'So John has got to start earning his living? We all have to come to it,' he said with a smile.

1315-come to life [A2] become lively, interested, animated; arouse oneself from a passive state □ You're very awkward with Anne and Johnny. But with Alice you really come to life. RATT □ Only when I have a high temperature do my mental images come to independent life. DOP ⇨ bring to life.

1316-come to light [A2] be revealed or discovered. S: fact, evidence; truth □ So far no case has come to light where false confessions have been produced because of the psychological effect of the instrument. SNP □ The accountant's part in the fraud came to light when a customer asked for an up-to-date statement of payments and withdrawals. ⇨ bring to light.

1317-(never/not) come to anything/come to nothing [A2] have no useful or interesting result; be a complete failure. S: inquiries; plans, scheme; hopes, work, agreement, deliberations, negotiations; love affair; be etc □ No one had mentioned the security inquiries, which I assumed had come to nothing. NM □ The two men had brave schemes for making big money quickly. They never came to anything. AITC □ He never came to anything in the end. ⇨ next entry.

1318-(never/not) come to much [A2] (informal) (never/not) be, or do anything of any importance or consequence. S: he etc; scheme, plan, plot, conspiracy □ As an artist, he'll never come to much: he lacks the creative fire. □ I doubt whether John's new venture will come to much; he hasn't got enough capital to make a success of it. ⇨ previous entry.

1319-come to oneself [A2] return to one's normal state; recover (full) consciousness □ I didn't realize how ill I had been, how not myself, till I came to myself in that pretty, sunny sitting-room of yours. PW ⇨ bring to himself.

1320-come to the point [A2] deal directly with what is of chief importance (in a speech, letter, book etc). A: straight, straight away, directly, immediately; after some hesitation □ The Home Secretary was both brusque and tactfully subtle at the same time. He came to the point straight away (or: came straight to the point). TBC

1321-come to a pretty pass/such a pass [A2] (informal) reach (such) a sad or sorry state. S: things, events, affairs; they etc □ Things have come to a pretty pass when she says she can't live on £25 a week. □ How did we come to such a pass that we could stand by while he took over control? ⇨ bring to a pretty pass etc.

1322-come to sb's/the rescue [A2] save sb from a difficult or dangerous situation. S: warden, gamekeeper; fireman; bank, insurance company □ Let's not wait for somebody to come to our rescue — let's build a raft. □ The International Monetary Fund came to the rescue when Britain was in financial difficulties. SC

1323-come to rest [A2] stop, reach a final position. S: missile; spear; ball; train, plane □ The car skidded off the road and came to rest a foot or two from somebody's front door. ⇨ bring to rest.

1324-come to one's senses [A2] behave, act, in a normal reasonable way, after having behaved unreasonably □ Don't worry about John's obstinate refusal to collaborate; he'll come to his senses before long. ⇨ bring to his senses.

1325-come to something [A2] (informal) be surprising, strange. S: ⚠ it; (occasionally) we □ 'It's coming to something when I have to ask you for a kiss,' she said. 'Are you tired?' DBM □ We've come to something when workers turn down the offer of a fourteen per cent pay increase. □ usu in the continuous and perfect tenses; often followed by a clause beginning with when.

1326-come to a (successful) conclusion [A2] end well, successfully. S: meeting, negotiations; campaign, war □ Talks aimed at settling the fisheries dispute have at last come to a successful conclusion. ⇨ bring to a (successful) conclusion.

1327-come to this [A2] (informal) reach a certain state or result. S: ⚠ it, things; he etc □ This sudden clear view of his face, coupled with his fast, wild talking, suddenly made me realize that he was half-crazed. So this was what he had come to! CON □ I never thought things would come to this: you asking me for advice!

1328-come to the same thing (as) [A2] equal, be equivalent to, one another. S: it... if/whether you do A or B; (two, alternative) policies, plans, systems; answers, solutions □ Whether you drink beer or whisky, it comes to the same thing: most of what you pay goes to the Government. □ Helen's elaborate speeches came in the end to the same thing as Miss Small's brisk pronouncements.* AITC

1329-come to (with) [A2] approach, tackle (with). S: scholar, scientist; planner, builder. o: (to) task, problem; post, position; marriage; (with) open mind, no preconceived ideas, complete lack of bias; unrealistic, romantic ideas □ The young scientist came to the subject with a fresh, lively mind. □ The attitude with which you come to your new job is all-important. ⇨ bring to[4].

1330-come to grips with [A2] tackle; engage in a struggle with. o: (with) problem, question; disease; life □ Man was really coming to grips with the question of how his newly acquired skills could help in the process of economic and social development. T □ This was a problem with which he never quite came to grips. ⇨ be at/bring to/get to grips with.

1331-come to terms with [A2] (learn to) manage or handle; reach a modus vivendi with. o: life, world, situation; (his) handicap, limitations; oneself □ As Chris Kingsley says, 'Man will have to come to terms with his environment.' TBC □ 'Every great artist has come to terms with life — think of Beethoven — how tortured he was in middle-age, and how serene at the end.' PW

1332-come together [A1] (of two parties in conflict) settle their differences, be reconciled. S: divorced couple; factions, sects □ I doubt if they will come together again, even for the sake of the children. ⇨ bring together.

1333-come up[1] [A1] come upstairs □ 'Please don't wait down there; come straight up.' ⇨ go up[1].

1334-come up[2] [A1] travel to town (esp London) or towards the north; come into residence at a university (esp Oxford and Cambridge) □ When you visit Britain next year, please come up to Edinburgh for a few days. □ He came up last year to read Modern History. ⇨ be up[2], go up (to).

1335-come up[3] [A1] appear above the soil; begin to grow. S: bean, pea, celery □ I sowed some runner beans three weeks ago, but they haven't come up yet.

1336-come up[4] [A1] arise; be mentioned. S: question, problem, matter (of); (his) name. A: during, in, the discussion; in the course of conversation; for a decision, review □ The question of drug-taking is bound to come up at the next Conference. □ His name came up whenever the matter of nuclear energy was discussed. ⇨ be up[6], bring up[3].

1337-come up[5] [A1] (legal) come to be considered (by a court); appear (in court). S: case; the accused, offender. A: for review; before the court; on a fresh charge; for attempted murder □ The paper announced the cases that were to come up at the assizes the following day. HD ⇨ be up[7], bring up[4].

1338-come up[6] [A1] (military) move, be transported (to the front line). S: reserves; supplies; food, ammunition □ All our supplies have to come up by this single railway. □ Roads and bridges were destroyed to prevent the enemy's reserves from coming up. ⇨ bring up[5].

1339-come up[7] [A1] (informal) be vomited. S: food; dinner □ The child doesn't seem to be able to keep anything down. Everything it eats comes up again. ⇨ bring up[6].

1340-come up[8] [A1] rise through water to or above the surface. S: diver; fish, whale □ He breathed like a diver coming up for air. LWK □ note come up for the third time = have a last opportunity to be saved; be very close to death (the phrase refers to a belief that a drowning person rises three times to the surface of the water before being drowned).

1341-come up[9] [A1] occur, arise. S: vacancy; opportunity □ I can't offer you a job now, but I'll let you know as soon as a vacancy comes up. ASA 1342-come up[10] [A1] appear (by chance); win (in a lottery). S: number, ticket, premium bond; he etc □ One of my bonds came up in the last draw: I won a £25 prize. □ John's very lucky; he's always coming up on the (football) pools.

1343-come-uppance [nom (A1)] (one's) deserts, a punishment inflicted by Fate on sb richly deserving it □ In the old melodramas the villain, often in the shape of the local squire-cum-capitalist, would inevitably get his come-uppance in the third act. □ a humorous and unique nominalized form, not related to any common meaning of come up.

1344-come up the hard way [A1] (informal) reach one's present position through hard work, without assistance or privileges etc □ I came up the hard way: my father died before I was born, and I had to leave school when I was twelve. ⇨ bring up the hard way; bring up[1].

1345-come up smiling [A1] (informal) emerge bravely and cheerfully (from an unpleasant experience, defeat etc) □ He's been disappointed in love three times already, but he always comes up smiling. AITC

1346-the sun come up [A1] rise □ At this time of year the sun comes up at five and goes down at about eight-thirty in the evening. ⇨ the sun be up.

1347-come up against [A3] be faced with, be opposed by. o: problem, question (of); stubbornness, will; (fierce, strong, powerful) opposition; difficulty; enemy forces □ (horoscope) Your carefree nature often comes up against the problem of money, for it just slips through your fingers. WI □ Not for the first time her will came up against her husband's. NM ⇨ be/bring up against.

1348-come up (as far as/to) [A1 A3] reach, extend to. S: town, houses; sea, fog; lawn, flowers □ The tide never comes up as far as the road, even though the water is only a few feet away. □ The water in the swimming pool came up to my chin. ⇨ be/bring up (as far as/to).

1349-come up for [A3] be considered as an applicant, candidate etc, for. S: name; member (of a board). o: re-election, admission □ Members of the faculty come up for election to the Board of Studies every two years. ⇨ be up for, put up (for)[1].

1350-come up for auction/sale [A3] come on the market, become available for purchase. S: house, farm; collection (of jewels, paintings) □ An unusual collection of firearms dating from the 16th century comes up for auction next week. □ Is his house likely to come up for sale in the foreseeable future? ⇨ be/put up for auction/sale.

1351-come up (to)[1] [A1 A3] approach, move towards □ The beggar came up (to me) with outstretched hand.

1352-come up (to)² [A1 A3] reach, extend (to). ⇨ come up (as far as/to).

1353-come up to [A3] reach an acceptable level or standard. S: he etc; work, performance, result. o: ⚠ standard, scratch, the mark; sb's expectations, hopes □ He didn't really come up to scratch in the end-of-year exams. □ For one reason or another their holiday in France didn't come up to expectations. ⇨ be up to⁶, bring up to, get up to¹.

1354-come up to sb's chin/shoulder [A3] be (only) as tall as the height of another person's chin, shoulder; (shoulder—fig) be noticeably inferior to another person in accomplishment, ability □ Mrs White only comes up to her husband's chin but there's no doubt who is the boss in that marriage! □ Some people would say that as a poet Wordsworth does not come up to Browning's shoulder. □ often neg.

1355-come up with¹ [A3] draw level with. o: convoy; car, lorry, traveller, stranger □ The horseman came up with a group of people who were making the pilgrimage on foot.

1356-come up with² [A3] (informal) produce; find. o: suggestion, idea, information; (right) answer; solution; (plausible, convincing, reasonable) explanation □ Scientists will have to come up with new methods of increasing the world's food supply. □ Some people apparently have an almost uncanny ability to come up with the right answer.

come upon [A2] encounter. ⇨ come on/upon.

come upon one [A2] (of sth unwelcome) arrive. ⇨ come on/upon one.

1359-come within [A2] come near enough (to be heard, seen or reached). o: ⚠ earshot, sight, view, range □ At that moment a patrol came within view of our observation post. □ No aircraft came within range. ⇨ be within¹, bring within, get within.

1360-compare to [B2 pass rel] say, suggest, that one person or thing is like another. O: him etc; face, nose; house, machine. o: monster, angel; moon, turnip; rabbit-hutch □ She was most offended when her husband compared her hat to a pudding basin. □ The sculpture of Rodin has been compared by some critics to that of Michelangelo. ⇨ next entry.

1361-compare (with) [B2 pass emph rel] set one person or thing beside another, examine them together, so as to find similarities or differences between them; do this in order to suggest similarities. O: figure, rate, output; machine, device; place, climate. o: another, others; that of... □ If we compare the figure for crimes of violence with that of previous years, we see that there has been a great increase. □ The south of England is certainly beautiful, but it can't be compared with (or: it can't compare with) the south of France for sunshine. □ compare to (q v) may be used in the second of the senses given. ⇨ previous entry.

1362-compensate (for) [A2 pass emph rel B2 pass emph rel] pay sb, offer him sth, because or a loss of injuries he has suffered; redeem some weakness. S: employer; insurer; nothing. O: worker; person insured, victim. o: loss, injury □ Nothing will ever compensate (him) for the injuries he received in the accident. □ A firm which dismisses an employee on the grounds of redundancy is obliged to compensate him (for loss of employment). □ The car has a low top speed, but this is more than compensated for by superb road-holding.

1363-compete against [A2 pass emph rel] oppose, play against, sb in a contest etc. S: sportsman, athlete; business, trader □ The young golfer has often competed against famous players, but so far he has always been beaten.

1364-compete (for) [A2 pass emph rel] rival others in trying to obtain sth. S: competitors, teams; trees, plants. o: cup, prize, medal; championship; sunshine □ All the clubs in the Football Association are allowed to compete for the FA Cup. □ Where trees compete for space, air and light in the wild state, some are bound to fail to establish themselves.

1365-compete (with) [A2 emph rel] rival others (successfully). o: trade rival; industry, store; (fellow) student, pupil □ Small suburban shops can't compete with the chain-stores in price, though they can do so in personal service. □ We are satisfied that we can compete with continental firms in an enlarged market.

1366-complain (about) [A2 pass rel] express an unfavourable opinion (about). o: wages, costs; work, employer; being neglected □ If old Pearson isn't complaining about one thing he's complaining about another. □ The heating is so often complained about that I'm surprised it hasn't been improved. ⇨ complain of².

1367-complain of¹ [A2] mention some pain, discomfort etc; give as a symptom of illness. o: loss of weight, of appetite; fatigue; heartburn □ The night before the woman had a heart attack she was complaining of indigestion. □ Several patients were admitted complaining of acute stomach pains.

1368-complain of² [A2] express dissatisfaction about. o: being ignored, not being consulted □ You don't often hear a woman with two or three children complaining of not having enough to do. □ object is usu the -ing form of a v. ⇨ complain (about).

1369-compliment (on) [B2 pass rel] express one's admiration of. o: her hat, hair-style, new dress, his etc success, performance; promotion, appointment □ Mrs Hunt was complimented on her choice of material for the bridesmaid's dresses. □ This is an achievement on which he should be complimented. ⇨ congratulate (on/upon).

1370-comply with [A2 pass emph rel] obey, abide by (q v); follow. o: direction, instruction, (club) rule; request, wish, desire □ When you become a member of a club you generally agree to comply with the rules. □ Certain of their conditions are not easily complied with.

1371-composed of [pass (B2)] (of a group) have as members, or parts, a certain number or kinds (of people, things) □ The jury was composed entirely of men. □ The village was composed of two or three groups of thatched cottages, a church, a post-office and a small general store. □ not often used in the present; never be comprised of.

1372-compress (into) [B2 pass rel] reduce to a concentrated form; state concisely or briefly (in). O: wood chips, sawdust; story, facts. o: board, sheet; (small) space, compass □ Wood cuttings and sawdust can be compressed into boards for furniture making. □ It is impossible to compress the story of the First World War into a few pages.

1373- compromise (with) (over) [A2 emph rel] reach agreement (with sb) (about sth), by abandoning part of one's demands. o: (with) trades union, work force; salesman, representative; (over) wages, conditions; contract, conditions □ Nearly every strike is settled by employers compromising with their labour force. □ Over fishing rights in the North Sea the trawler-men are in no mood to compromise.

1374- compute at [B2 pass rel] (formal) calculate as; work out[2] (q v) at. O: cost, expenditure; loss. o: (a total of) £10 000, (a figure in excess of) £2 million □ The public was astonished when Rolls Royce computed their debts at several hundred million pounds.

1375- conceal (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) keep secret (from); hide (from). O: (true) facts, truth; house, building, fortifications. o: patient, dying man, (distraught) mother; view, road □ The Doctor decided that he could not conceal the truth from the old man any longer. □ From a person as inquisitive as Janet it's hard to conceal anything. □ The house was concealed from the road by a small wood.

1376- concede (to) [B2 pass] (formal) acknowledge that one's opponent has won. O: election, victory. o: adversary, other side, opposing party □ When three-quarters of the votes had been counted the Prime Minister conceded the election to his opponents.

1377- conceive of [A2 pass] (formal) imagine. o: situation, circumstances (in which...); period (when); reason (why) □ The modern child finds it difficult to conceive of a time when there was no radio or TV. □ I can't conceive of anyone wanting to disturb the excellent relationship that has been built up with our allies. □ The remarkable thing is that the novel was written at a time before motor-cars and aeroplanes were even conceived of. □ often preceded by difficult, not easy, hard, (scarcely) possible, (well nigh) impossible.

1378- concentrate (at) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] collect (at); bring together (at). S: [A2] O: [B2] troops, forces, men; tanks; fire-power, strength □ The rioters concentrated at the main square in the town. □ An enormously powerful fleet was concentrated at Pearl Harbour.

1379- concentrate (on/upon) [A2 pass emph rel B2 pass emph rel] give one's full attention etc to; focus (on) (q v). O: △ (one's) attention, thoughts; one's mind; one's efforts, energies. o: the job in hand; problem, work, plans; doing a good job; book, music □ 'I can't concentrate on what I'm doing while that noise is going on.' □ The girl concentrated her attention on the swinging watch and soon fell into a trance. □ If all one's efforts are concentrated upon reducing disharmony, there must be some improvement.

1380- concern (oneself) (about/over/with) [B2 pass] become occupied (about/over sb or sth, showing some anxiety; with sb or sth, in a legitimate, straightforward, or sometimes interfering, way). o: loss, damage; sb's injuries; sb's movements, whereabouts □ There is no need for you to concern yourself about where I was last night. □ He was much concerned over the plight of the refugees. □ 'You would do better to concern yourself with your own business and not mine!' □ passive form with be, become, get.

1381- concerned (in) [pass (B2)] (be) a party (to), (have) taken part (in). o: disturbance, riot; shouting, affray; demonstration □ The police are anxious to interview everyone concerned in last night's incident □ He was only indirectly concerned in what took place.

1382- concur (with) [A2 emph rel] (formal) be of the same opinion as; agree (with) (q v). o: colleague, partner; opposing speaker, chairman □ The Opposition concurred with the Government in their decision to grant asylum to the escaped political prisoners. □ usu followed by a noun phrase introduced by in, as in the example, or by in doing sth.

1383- condemn to [B2 pass emph rel] (legal; also fig) award the punishment of. O: prisoner, guilty man, the accused (person); traitor, slave, hostage. o: a month's, thirty years' imprisonment; life; hard labour; death; (a lifetime of) pain, misery, loneliness □ The two men were found guilty of armed robbery, and condemned to four years' imprisonment. □ When the poor woman was widowed, she realized that she was condemned to a lonely old age.

1384- condition (to) [B2 pass emph rel] make a person or animal able to bear or endure. S: childhood, upbringing; training. o: hardship, poverty; strain □ When a child has become conditioned to life in a city, he may feel quite at a loss in any other environment. □ The navy tries to condition its men to life in extreme climates.

1385- condole (with) (on) [A2] (formal) express sympathy (with sb) (for sth). o: (with) bereaved (woman etc), widow, distraught mother; (on) loss, death □ It is natural to wish to condole with anyone who has lost a dear friend or relative. □ Peter wrote to condole with his friend on the death of his mother.

1386- conduce to [A2 emph rel] (formal) favour the development of, add sth to; contribute to[1] (q v). S: violence, anger, intolerance. o: good relations, racial harmony □ Overcrowding in small houses hardly conduces to happy family relationships.

1387- conduct away (from) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] (formal) lead away, often with some show of force or compulsion. S: police, stewards, bodyguard. O: intruder, troublemaker, heckler. o: scene; meeting, platform □ The hecklers were conducted away from the hall at the request of the Chairman. □ A steward took the man by the arm and conducted him firmly away.

1388- cone off [B1i pass] close one lane, carriageway etc of a (main) road (with cone-shaped markers) □ Repairs are in progress on a two-mile stretch of the M1. Police have coned off the fast lane. □ Sections of the motorway have had to be coned off. BBCTV

1389- confer (on) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) award, give, grant (to). O: title, peerage, knighthood; (honorary) degree □ The title of Warden of the Cinque Ports was conferred on Winston Churchill.

1390- confer (with) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) consult; discuss (with), in order to decide a course of action. o: solicitor; associates, board; director, manager □ I shall have to confer with my Executive Committee before expressing an opinion on the possibility of the members of my Union returning to work. □ When everyone has been conferred with perhaps I can give you an answer (cf When we have all conferred, perhaps etc).

1391-confess to [A2 emph rel] acknowledge, admit to (q v). o: crime; stealing; killing, assaulting sb; (unreasonable) fear, dread; liking for, partiality to sth; being unable to appreciate modern art, literature etc; (a sneaking) admiration for sb; knowing nothing at all about sth □ She confessed readily to what she described as an abysmal ignorance of politics and economics. □ Henderson would never have confessed to visiting strip clubs while he was in London, but...!

1392-confide in [A2 pass emph rel] tell one's secrets to sb (whom one trusts not to reveal them to sb else). o: sister, girlfriend, colleague □ Modern girls seldom confide in their mothers. □ He is not the sort of man in whom I would readily confide.

1393-confine to[1] [B2 pass emph rel] limit, restrict, to. O: oneself; one's attention, remarks, criticism, observations. o: essentials, pertinent details, the matter in hand □ I wish you would confine yourself to the matter under discussion. □ The jury were instructed to confine their attention to the facts, and to ignore anything that could be described as hearsay.

1394-confine to[2] [B2 pass emph rel] restrict sb's movements to a place, keep him within limits. o: one's room; the house; a certain area □ As a result of the accident, the child was confined to the house for six weeks. □ As a punishment, the soldiers were confined to barracks for a week. □ usu passive.

1395-confirm in [B2 pass] (formal) reinforce (sb's opinions, habits etc). S: statement, revelation. o: suspicion, idea, belief; his tendency, habit; prejudice □ What you have told me about Mr Bloggs confirms me in my suspicion that he beats his wife.

1396-conflict (with) [A2 emph rel] not match, be different. S: account, report, statement. o: evidence, facts, findings □ The policeman's story conflicts with that of the accused (or: The policeman's story and that of the accused conflict) in several particulars. □ Your tale conflicts with what I have on the paper in front of me.

1397-conform (to/with) [A2 pass emph rel] be in accordance with; obey, observe, comply with (q v). o: specifications; rules, regulations; standards (of behaviour, manufacture etc) □ Do these plans conform to the official specification for the building? □ If you are a member of a club, you must conform to the rules of that club. □ These are very simple requirements, but they must be conformed with. □ Joe's a born rebel: he just can't conform (to the ordinary rules of society).

1398-confront with [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) bring face to face with. o: facts; evidence, testimony □ When the accused was confronted with the evidence of half a dozen witnesses, he broke down and confessed.

1399-confuse (with) [B2 pass emph rel] be unable to distinguish (between); mistake for (q v). O: geniune, authentic (article, product). o: fake, imitation (product) □ I always confuse John Waite with John White (cf: I always confuse the two Johns; I always confuse John Waite and John White). □ This non-alcoholic cider must not be confused with the real stuff they drink in Somerset.

1400-congratulate (on/upon) [B2 pass] give one's good wishes, express pleasure and approval, to sb (in connection with some event or achievement). o: his etc engagement, marriage; the birth of a son, daughter; being awarded first prize, coming first; his good sense, sang froid, wise decision; promotion; appointment, nomination, election □ I am writing to congratulate you most sincerely on your appointment as Headmaster of the Grammar School. ⇨ compliment (on).

1401-congratulate oneself (on/upon) [B2 emph rel] feel or express great satisfaction as a result of sth one has done or that has happened □ You can congratulate yourselves on a very narrow escape; it's a miracle you weren't all burned alive. □ The bank-robbers were just congratulating themselves on the success of their raid when the police burst in on them.

1402-conjure up[1] [B1iii pass adj] evoke, suggest, a mental picture of. O: vision(s) of the past, of past glory, of days gone by; image, picture □ The speaker's words conjured up a vision of a perfect world, where every man loved his neighbour. □ He tried to imagine the night-club proprietor and could only conjure up a picture of a fat, oily man. PE □ Hollywood's conjured-up visions of fabulous wealth suddenly assumed reality in Saudi Arabia.

1403-conjure up[2] [B1iii pass adj] cause to appear. O: spirits of the dead; the devil □ Women practising witchcraft persuaded their clients that they could conjure up the spirits of their ancestors.

1404-conk out [A1] (slang) die; cease to function. S: he etc; car, lorry; radio, TV □ It's hard for him to get to work and he pretty nearly conked out in November with that pleurisy. □ 'You're quite welcome to have this old gramophone, but I'm afraid it's conked out.'

1405-connect up (to) [B1i pass adj B2 pass rel] join to a main supply or system; join together. O: telephone; wiring; electricity, gas, supply □ There's a phone in our new flat, but it hasn't been connected up to the exchange. □ No current will flow until you connect the battery up.

1406-connect with [A2] arrive in time for a traveller to catch some other convenient form of transport. S: bus, coach; plane □ The early bus from the village connects with the 8.30 train.

1407-connected (with) [pass (B2)] (be) a member (of), have links (with) □ 'Excuse me. Are you connected with the visiting circus?' 'No, madam, this illuminated nose is merely to help me to see better.' □ Was Marie Antoinette connected with the Hapsburgs? □ This business is in no way connected with the shop next door (or: This business and the shop next door are in no way connected). □ The visit of the police was not connected with the lost child.

1408-connive at [A2 pass rel] give one's passive or moral support to. S: employer; local authorities; police. o: deceit, fraud; pilfering; immorality □ The accountant refused to connive at his client's attempts to cheat the Income Tax authorities. □ A certain amount of petty thieving is connived at by the storekeepers.

1409- consecrate (to) [B2 pass] (formal) devote to some sacred or other specified purpose. O: oneself, one's life; cathedral, temple □ The men solemnly consecrated their property and their lives to the liberation of their country. □ The new church was consecrated (to the glory and service of God) in the presence of a large congregation.

1410- consent (to) [A2 pass emph rel] not oppose, agree (to) (q v). o: engagement, attachment; (his) leaving home, going abroad; proposal, scheme, plan □ The girl's parents reluctantly consented to her marriage, although she was only seventeen. □ The owner wouldn't consent to our making any structural changes in the flat.

1411- consign to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) place in, deposit in (esp as a last resting place). O: coffin, body; prisoner; possessions. o: flames, waves; deepest dungeon; rubbish heap □ In a simple ceremony the bodies of four sailors were consigned to the deep. □ He was consigned to a bleak prison in the old part of the city.

1412- consist in [A2] (formal) mean, be sth which is shown by; be equivalent to. S: happiness, serenity; loyalty, service. o: accepting one's limitations, making do with little; putting others before self □ True patriotism consists in putting the interests of one's country above everything, including one's own life. □ Education does not consist simply in learning a lot of facts.

1413- consist of [A2] comprise, be composed of (q v). S: family, club; regiment, fleet; organism. o: members; tanks, ships; cells, nerves □ The full set consists of 72 glasses, that is one dozen of six different types. □ In Scotland, the jury consists of fifteen people, not twelve as in England.

1414- console oneself with [B2 rel] find comfort in. o: knowledge, knowing; reflection □ You may have failed the examination, but you can at least console yourself with the thought that you did your best.

1415- consort with [A2 emph rel] (formal) keep company with, spend one's time or leisure in the company of. o: rogues, vagabonds, layabouts; prostitutes; professional gamblers □ Mr Bloggs was distressed to discover that his daughter had been consorting for some time with drug addicts.

1416- conspire against [A2 rel] plot against, plan to overthrow. S: rebels, dissidents; underground army. o: state, regime, established order □ A group of men were charged with conspiring against the duly elected government.

1417- conspire with [A2 emph rel] plot with, usu for an illegal purpose; (fig) join with, combine with. o: thief, crook; rebels, dissidents □ A young policeman has been accused of conspiring with a gang of criminals. □ The bad weather conspired with a thoroughly disgusting hotel to make my holiday a resounding failure. □ often followed by a to-inf as in the last example.

1418- consult with[1] [A2] (esp US) seek the advice of. o: solicitor, attorney; bank; insurance company □ You'd better consult with your doctor before you take on a job in such an extremely hot climate as that of the Congo. □ American usage, where British English would normally have consult only.

1419- consult with[2] [A2] (of equal participants) hold discussions, meet, in order to discuss matters of mutual interest □ Senator Murphy, the Australian Attorney General, is to consult with the British Government on the ending of all residual powers over the Dominion (= Australia) held by Westminster and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. T

1420- (not) contain oneself (for) [B2] be unable to conceal or control a specified emotion. o: joy, anger, enthusiasm, delight □ When the children were given a pony, they could hardly contain themselves for joy, but the novelty soon wore off. □ with can/could.

1421- contend (for) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) struggle, compete, with others to win sth. o: prize, trophy; championship, leadership □ How many teams are contending for the Cup this year? □ The boxer didn't consider such a small purse worth contending for.

1422- contend with [A2] handle, manage; bear, tolerate. o: much, a lot; family, mother-in-law; creditor, solicitor; problem, situation □ I have enough to contend with, without bothering myself with your problems. □ If we've got to contend with your relatives for a week, we shall need a month's holiday afterwards. □ What with one thing and another, the poor chap has too much to contend with. □ usu after have (got) to.

1423- content (oneself) with [B2 pass emph rel] be satisfied with, not want more than. o: little money, a sufficiency; simple fare, basic necessities; what one has □ We can't go abroad this year, so we'll have to content ourselves with a family holiday in London (or: *we'll have to be contented with etc).

1424- continue (with) [A2 pass] not interrupt; go on doing sth, carry on[1] (q v) (with). o: work, study, task; hobby, pastime □ The teacher told the class to continue with their work while he was out of the classroom. □ I don't propose to continue with chemistry beyond Form IV.

1425- contract out/out of [A1 A2 pass rel] withdraw (esp from a formal arrangement). S: country, ally; partner, associate. o: treaty, pact, alliance; undertaking, show, scheme □ I've decided that after all I don't want to be associated with your scheme: I'm contracting out. □ We've had too many cases before of tenants contracting out of their obligations.

1426- contract (with) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) form, enter into, a relationship (with). O: friendship, marriage; alliance, association □ In her old age, my aunt had contracted a strong friendship with a retired sea-captain. □ And this is the country with which they now propose to contract a trade agreement!

1427- contract (with) (for) [A2 rel] make a formal agreement (with sb) to do sth. o: (with) builder, plumber, decorator, electrician; (for) repairs, extension, wiring □ We contracted with a local carpenter for the woodwork (or: We contracted with him to do the woodwork) in our new boat.

1428- contrast (with) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (of one thing) be sharply different from another; find, point out such differences. S: [A2] O: [B2] appearance, outward show, manner, voice. o: character, record, background □ [A2] His wild threats contrast strangely with the mildness he displays when face to face with his rival. □ [B2] When the synthetic fabric is contrasted with the natural one, the difference is very apparent.

1429- contribute to[1] [A2] give, add, sth to. S: presence; wisdom; ideas, suggestions; speech, remarks. o: success; failure □ The Queen's presence contributed to the success of what would otherwise have been a very ordinary affair. □ Bertrand Russell's speeches in Trafalgar Square contributed in an important way to the protest against nuclear proliferation.

1430- contribute to[2] [A2 pass emph rel B2 pass emph rel] give help towards. O: money, gifts, moral support. o: appeal, fund; resources, coffers □ A great amount of money was contributed to the Bangladesh disaster fund by people from all walks of life. □ This is the kind of appeal to which most people will be glad to contribute (something).

1431- converge on [A2 emph rel] (all) move towards one point from two or more directions at once. S: forces; columns, patrols; assailants; shoppers. o: rendezvous, assembly-point, objective □ Half-a-dozen groups of specially trained troops converged silently on the secret headquarters of the rebels. □ As the bulk of the German mobile reserves were located north of the Seine, they would have to approach our bridgehead from the east and would thus converge on Caen. MFM

1432- converse (with) [A2 emph rel] (formal) talk (to). o: guest, visitor, stranger; class, pupils □ 'If you want to converse with Japanese people, why don't you start learning Japanese?' □ The tutor will be expected to converse with the students on various aspects of British life.

1433- convert (from) (to)[1] [A2 emph rel] change from being, doing or using sth to sth else. o: (from and to) Catholicism, Judaism; gas, electricity; non-decimal system; fahrenheit scale □ She converted from Christianity in order to marry a Muslim. □ We're thinking of converting from solid fuel to natural gas before the cold weather sets in. □ Britain converted to decimal currency on February 15th 1971.

1434- convert (from) (to)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] persuade sb, cause sth, to change from being, doing or using one thing to another. O: wife, fiancée; house, factory; car. o: faith, religion; solid fuel, electricity; diesel fuel □ The preacher succeeded in converting a number of people to Unitarianism. □ The transmission on his car has been converted from manual to automatic — an expensive job.

1435- convert (into) [B2 pass rel] change, alter sth (into sth else). O: barn, attic, bakery; pounds, dollars. o: house, studio, workshop; francs, lire □ They converted an old stable into a comfortable little house. □ 'Do you think you could convert this candlestick into an electric lamp?' □ A lot of old people had difficulty in converting the old currency into the new.

1436- convict (of) [B2 pass rel] (legal) find or declare sb guilty (of sth). o: offence, crime; conspiracy; breaking and entering □ The woman was convicted of murdering her old father, but she claimed that she had done so out of kindness. □ The offence of which he was convicted carries a stiff penalty.

1437- convince (of) [B2 pass emph rel] persuade sb of the truth (of sth); (in the passive) be sure (of sth). o: truth, validity; risk, peril; effectiveness, usefulness □ 'How can I convince *you (*of the dangers of drug-taking)?' □ Nothing that I could say had the slightest effect: my daughter was convinced of the young man's good intentions. □ Of this I am convinced*: that Britain stands to gain by a close association with her neighbours.*

1438- cook up [B1i pass adj] (informal) concoct, invent, often in haste. O: story, tale, plot; excuse, pretext □ He arrived home at midnight with some cooked-up story of having been kept late at the office. □ If she meets a man who suits her, she'll soon cook up a resemblance to her ideal mate. TC

1439- cool down [A1 B1i pass] become or make cool or calm. S: [A1] O: [B1] it (= the weather); passion, temper; atmosphere; situation □ 'Thank heavens it's cooled down a little; I can't stand such hot weather for long.' □ 'Keep these two men apart until they've cooled down a bit.' □ 'Put them in a cell for an hour or two — that'll cool them down*.'*

1440- cool off [A1 B1i pass] become or make less warm, excited, ardent or interested □ 'I've got to cool off*!' Mariette said, 'I'm going into the wood to* cool off*!'* DBM □ After a while, these people cool off towards me and either answer in monosyllables or are plain rude. WI □ The Industrial Relations Act provided for a cooling-off period before a strike could take place.

1441- coop up (in) [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] (informal) keep or confine sb/sth in a limited space. o: (this/that) place, room, house □ *She would implore me to come outside for a 'breather' when I felt like it, and not to stay all day '*cooped up in that furnace'. THH □ I won't stay cooped up here for ten minutes longer even if your damned mother is lying in wait for me. US □ She refused to spend any more of her life cooped up *like this (*in such a tiny house).

1442- co-operate (with) [A2 pass emph rel] work together (with). o: authorities; local council; police, security forces; staff, management □ If you will co-operate with us in organizing a fête, we will have a much more successful show than if we were each to organize our own. □ If John can co-operate with me, and I with him (or: If John and I can co-operate*), everything should run smoothly.*

1443- cope (with) [A2 pass adj emph rel] overcome some difficulty or personal crisis; deal effectively (with), manage adequately. o: crisis, situation; rush, pressure, numbers □ Our collection of antiques reached such proportions that we were barely able to cope with it. □ The death of her parents is very sad, but it's something she will have to cope with*.* □ 'A few extra people for the weekend? Well, that's something that's easily coped with*.'*

1444- copy down [B1i pass] write down sth which is spoken, or displayed on a large surface. O: speech, words; joke, saying; notice □ The reporters copied down every word spoken by the Prime Minister. □ 'When you've copied down the exercise that's on the blackboard, we'll go on with the next one.'

1445- copy out [B1i pass adj] write or type a copy of sth appearing in a book or document. O: chapter, paragraph; section, clause □ This passage is well worth copying out*.* □ 'Please copy out this let- ter and send the original to Mr Smith.'

1446-cordon off [B1i pass adj] place a barrier across or round a place to prevent or check movement in and out. S: police, army, fire brigade. O: danger zone; street, house, beach □ The whole area will remain cordoned off until the escaped lion is recaptured.

1447-cork up[1] [B1i pass] put a stopper (made of cork, plastic etc) in sth in order to keep out air. O: bottle, wine, beer, brew □ 'It's dangerous to cork up these bottles while the wine is still fermenting, you know!'

1448-cork up[2] [B1i pass adj] (informal) suppress. O: feelings, (natural) emotions, (healthy) reactions; hatred, love □ It is very bad for you to cork your emotions up like that: you'd feel much better if you could 'let yourself go'.

1449-correlate (with) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] statistically, match sth closely; establish such a relationship. S: [A2] O: [B2] results, findings; figures; linguistic ability, intelligence; size, weight. o: each other; (other) sets, series (of figures etc) □ The results of British research into the effects of smoking correlate with those of workers in other countries. □ We generally find that we cannot correlate performance in Mathematics with achievement in, say, English or History (cf: We cannot correlate performance in Mathematics and English etc).

1450-correspond to [A2 emph rel] be equivalent to. S: monarchy, Parliament, Foreign Office. o: presidency, Congress, State Department □ An infantry company corresponds roughly to a cavalry squadron. □ In this engine the rotary section corresponds to the cylinders of a conventional model.

1451-correspond (to/with) [A2 emph rel] be equal or similar (to), match. S: story, report, version; figure, estimate. o: that given, the one made, what he had received □ The witness's account corresponded fairly closely to the policeman's observations. □ I'm afraid your offer doesn't correspond with the figure I've heard mentioned.

1452-cotton on (to) [A1 A3] (informal) realize, fully understand, become fully aware of. o: fact, danger; implication, meaning, intention, what it all means □ The man-in-the-street seems to be very slow in cottoning on to the significance of the new tax laws. □ 'Don't you understand what she's trying to do to you? Haven't you cottoned on yet?' □ It was surprising how quickly the younger children cottoned on when they were taught English orally.

1453-couch (in) [B2 pass emph rel] express (in). O: protest, application, agreement; document, letter. o: strong, mild terms; legal, formal language □ If his application for the job had been couched in more modest terms, he might have got it. □ You'll have to couch your statement to the court in rather more discreet language.

1454-cough up [A1 B1i pass] (slang) pay (usu reluctantly). O: money, cash □ She asked a sum of money which was about the maximum that I would cough up*, and then hastened to indicate a way in which I might recoup myself.* UTN □ As you have no alternative, you might as well cough up*.*

1455-cough it up [B1ii] (slang) say something in the nature of a confession or that is in some way difficult to reveal □ I can see that you've got something on your mind. I wish you'd cough it up*, and stop trying to hide it.'*

1456-count against [A2 B2 pass] be considered, consider, as a factor against, hold against (q v). S: [A2] O: [B2] failing, fault; mistake, slip; background, origins □ His inability to arrive at work on time counted against him when he asked for promotion. □ The family will count it against you that you weren't at the funeral. □ One careless mistake can hardly be counted against him.

1457-count among [A2 B2 pass] be or regard as one of; reckon among [1] (q v). o: friends, acquaintances □ Mr Heffer no longer counts among my friends since he refused to lend me his lawnmower. □ There was a time when we were proud to count Mr Paterson among our supporters.

1458-count down [B1i nom pass] (esp space technology) count numbers in reverse order towards zero, as in launching a rocket, detonating an explosive charge etc □ Millions of people saw Apollo 10 being counted down*, on television.* □ The count-down went perfectly until minus 13 minutes 47 seconds, when it was held for nearly three hours.

1459-count for [A2] be of (little etc) importance. o: ⚠ little, (not)... much, nothing □ When it came to money, all his friendly promises counted for little: he was as mean as Scrooge. □ Surely all our hard work can't count for nothing! We deserve some reward, don't we?

1460-count (from) (up) to [A2 A3] (be able to) use or say numbers as far as. □ Most children of five have no difficulty in learning to count (from one) up to a hundred. □ Each time you feel like having a violent quarrel with somebody, count (up) to ten before speaking.

1461-count in [B1i pass] include □ If the cost of the trip is no more than five pounds, you can count me in*.* □ There are more than a hundred places of worship in the town, if we count in all the churches, mosques and synagogues.

1462-count on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] trust sb to help, give support etc; rely on/upon (q v). o: relative, friend; solicitor, bank manager □ He counted on his sister for everything — the care of his children, the nursing of his sick wife, and even for a little pleasant company in the evenings. □ This house is the only thing in my life that has stayed in the same place. It's the only thing I can count on*.* EHOW □ You can always count on Bill for a pound or two when you're in difficulties.

1463-count out[1] [B1i pass] count things one by one, perhaps placing them on a surface. O: money, change; buttons, counters □ The old lady laboriously counted out fifteen pence, snapped her purse shut and said 'There! Is that right?'

1464-count out[2] [B1i pass] (boxing) of a referee, count up to ten over a boxer who has been knocked down □ The poor fellow was counted out in the first round.

1465-count out[3] [B1i pass] (informal) not include; discount as unimportant □ If the coach is not going to return before midnight, you'd better count me out*.* □ He had never liked Alec as well as he did at that moment. As a rival he had counted Alec out*.* PW adjourn a meeting of the House of Commons because too few members are present □ It is many years since the House was counted out during discussions of an important piece of legislation.

1466-count the House out [B1ii pass] (Parliament)

count to [A2] ⇨ count (from) (up) to.

1468- count up [B1i pass] find the total of. O: times, occasions, marks; coupons, stamps □ Now count up the points you've scored and compare them with the table. This will show you whether you are above or below average. □ Try counting up the number of people who come into the shop each day.

count (up) to [A3] ⇨ count (from) (up) to.

count upon [A2 pass emph rel] ⇨ count on/upon.

1471- counter (with) [A2 B2 pass] make, advance, sth in opposition; retaliate (with). O: threat, attack, thrust; rebellion; suggestion, proposal. o: more powerful weapons; uppercut to the jaw, sharp jab; punitive expedition; one's own proposal, (new) idea, argument □ There was always the danger that if the enemy were too hard pushed on the ground they would counter with a heavy air strike. □ The ginger group that had been formed by the shareholders countered the Board's resolution with one of their own.

1472- couple on/onto [B1i pass B2 pass] link, attach (to); join on/onto (q v). O: (railway) wagon, coach; caravan, trailer. o: engine; car, van □ Several coal-wagons were coupled on at Crewe. □ They covered a thousand miles with a heavy trailer coupled onto the back of their family saloon.

1473- couple up [B1i pass] join together (esp to form a railway train). O: wagon, coach □ When all the coaches had been coupled up, they formed a train nearly three hundred metres long.

1474- couple (with) [B2 pass emph rel] join (to), esp in one's thoughts or remarks; associate with [2] (q v). O: name; place; occasion □ It is natural that Stratford on Avon should always be coupled with the name of Shakespeare (cf: It is natural that the place and the name should always be coupled). □ In his mind, the Normandy beaches will always be coupled with the allied landings in 1944.

1475- course through [A2 emph rel] (formal) rush, run, through. S: blood; sap; thoughts, ideas, fancies. o: veins, body; trunk; brain, mind □ He felt the blood coursing through his veins as his excitement grew. □ Through his mind coursed all manner of confused thoughts.

1476- cover (against) [B2 pass rel] protect oneself etc by means of an insurance policy (against); insure against (q v). O: oneself, life; house, property; car. o: accident, incapacity, illness, death; fire, storm, flood, damage, burglary; theft □ Insurance companies try to persuade young married men to cover themselves against illness or death. □ Are you covered against loss of earnings resulting from an accident? □ Does your car insurance cover you against damage to third parties?

1477- cover in [B1i pass adj] place a protective covering over. O: hall, driveway; yard, terrace □ We decided to cover in the passage between the main building and the annex. □ The covered-in area gave shelter to the cattle during the winter.

1478- cover in/with [B2 pass rel] protect with, coat with; make dirt etc fly and fall on. o: paint, creosote; material, protective sheeting; soot, mud, lime □ The walls had been covered with a dark-green paint. □ The room would look much brighter if we covered the sofa with a light-coloured material. □ A passing lorry ran through a puddle and covered us in mud from head to foot.

1479- cover in/with confusion/shame [B2 pass] embarrass, make confused or ashamed. S: remark, accusation, charge □ Albert's young wife was covered in confusion when her in-laws called unexpectedly and found her still in bed at midday. □ usu passive.

1480- cover over/up [B1i pass] hide from view; protect with clothing etc □ I'm glad to see that the police have covered the blood-stains over. □ *'*Cover the baby's feet up; he'll catch cold.'

1481- cover up (for) [A1 nom A3 pass B1i pass] (informal) hide the true state of affairs on one's own (or sb else's) behalf. O: blunder, error; inefficiency, inadequacy □ [A1] The inefficient who successfully cover up are those who know how to put on a big display of efficiency when it will be noticed, and let the rest go hang. OBS □ 'Don't try to convince me that nothing's been happening. I suspect that it's all a big cover-up*!'* □ [A3] If I'm late tomorrow you'll cover up for me, won't you. □ [B1] There are too many people in this office trying to cover up the mistakes of the past few years. □ President Nixon often wished that the Watergate cover-up affair would simply 'go away'.

cover with ⇨ cover in/with.

1483- cover with confusion/shame [B2 pass] ⇨ covered in/with confusion/shame.

1484- cow into submission [B2 pass] make sb surrender through fear. O: occupied territory, conquered people □ He is not the kind of man who is likely to be cowed into submission.

1485- crack down (on) [A1 nom A3 pass] (informal) use one's authority (against), suppress, attack. o: rebels, dissidents; minority; vice, crime; prostitution, gambling □ The police are always being urged to crack down on drug addicts. □ If the Inland Revenue officers had time they would crack down on tax evaders more quickly. □ What depresses some people here is that these crack-downs (i e Khrushchev's attacks on abstract artists) seem to be more or less regular occurrences. OBS

1486- crack up[1] [A1 nom] (informal) lose one's health or mental stability; break down[8] (q v) □ If John goes on working and worrying as he has been doing he's bound to crack up sooner or later. □ 'What's come over you? This isn't the time to crack up.' YA □ Then, one day at the office, the crack-up came and Joe was carted off to hospital. It was the end of his career.

1487- crack up[2] [A1 nom] (informal) disintegrate, shatter; break up[1] (q v). S: machine; organization □ Suddenly, without warning, the plane seemed to crack up as it was about to take off. □ The crack-up of the Rolls-Royce company surprised and shocked everyone in Britain.

1488- crack up[3] [B1i pass] (informal) praise highly. O: (new) fashion, fad, invention; town, country, area; comprehensive schools □ Water ski-ing isn't all it's cracked up to be, in my opinion. □ I don't know why young Jones is cracked up as such a paragon: I find him rather dull, myself. □ Do you think the new aircraft is everything they crack it up to be? □ usu followed by to be, or as and noun phrase.

1489-cram into [B2 pass emph rel] push, force, into. O: (too much) food; (too many) people; everything, a lifetime's experience. o: one's mouth; bus, train; suitcase, bag; a few days □ Children often cram too much into their mouths. □ It's dangerous for too many people to be crammed into a bus. □ The lovers tried to cram a lifetime into the six months they had together. ⇨ next entry.

1490-cram (with) [B2 pass rel] put, push, concentrate, a great deal or too much of sth into. O: drawer, room, house, desk; pocket, bag, purse; sb's head; book, encyclopedia. o: clothes, rubbish, furniture, letters, knick-knacks; odds and ends, scraps of paper; (useless) facts, nonsense; information, good advice □ The Victorians crammed their houses with furniture and ornaments. □ It's no use cramming your head with a lot of unrelated facts: what you need is a system. □ This encyclopedia is crammed with information about everything under the sun. ⇨ previous entry.

1491-crane forward [A1] stretch one's neck forward in order to see better. S: onlooker, viewer, spectator □ The audience craned forward as the conjuror came to the crucial part of his trick.

1492-crank up [A1 B1i pass] start an engine by means of a starting-handle □ 'The battery's flat! I'm afraid you'll have to crank up!' □ 'Once the engine has been cranked up, she'll probably start easily on the battery.'

1493-crash about [A1] move about in a clumsy, noisy manner, knocking things over and so on □ 'I wish you wouldn't crash about like that as soon as you get home from school.'

1494-crash about one's ears [A2] collapse disastrously. S: his etc whole world; everything that he had achieved; his dreams, ambitions □ When Bob's fiancée broke off their engagement, his whole world came crashing about his ears. □ often in the form come crashing etc, as in the example.

1495-crash across, along, away etc [A1 A2] move across etc, causing noise and damage □ The tanks crashed ruthlessly through the lines of infantry. □ The maid put the tray on an unsteady table, and everything crashed to the floor. □ The lorry went out of control and crashed into a group of people standing at a bus-stop.

1496-crash down [A1] fall noisily, heavily and often dangerously. S: tree, rock, house, waves □ The rocks crashed down on to the road below. □ With gigantic waves crashing down upon her, the lifeboat made her way to the crippled ship. □ As the wind rose to eighty miles an hour, tree after tree crashed down.

1497-crave (for) [A2 pass emph rel] have a great desire or wish for; long (for) (q v). o: change; (new) role, environment □ After a lifetime of work in the noisy city, Mr Stewart craved (for) a few years of peace in the country. □ He claimed to be a democrat, but secretly he craved for absolute authority. AH □ He had at last secured the position for which he craved.

1498-crawl across, along, away etc [A1 emph A2 emph rel] move slowly across etc (esp — of humans — on hands and knees) □ Somehow the wounded animal managed to crawl away from its pursuers and into a hole. □ The traffic was so thick that we could only crawl along at about fifteen miles an hour.

1499-crawl (to) [A2 pass] (informal) act in a humble, submissive manner towards sb to obtain favours □ The manager lost the respect of his staff when they saw him crawling to the Chairman. □ 'Don't you come crawling (back) to me now that all your money's gone!' □ If there's anything he despises it's being crawled to by people wishing to curry favour.

1500-crawl with [A2] be full of, covered with, 'alive' with. o: small creatures, lice, maggots, vermin □ The neglected child's clothes were found to be crawling with lice. □ The fields are crawling with mice and other pests. □ usu continuous tenses.

credit to [B2 pass rel] ⇨ next entry.

1502-credit with[1] [B2 pass rel] (finance, commerce) enter a sum of money, in sb's account, equal to the value of. o: the unsold goods, the damaged articles, the missing parts □ We are returning the materials covered by your invoice number 108432 as they were not according to specification. Please credit our account with (or: credit to our account) the returned goods. □ We can't refund cash but we'll credit you with the value of the suit. □ note credit sb/sb's account.

1503-credit with[2] [B2 pass rel] believe sb to possess or be capable of. o: more intelligence, sense; being such a good tennis-player, long distance runner, footballer, cook, artist, mechanic □ Who would have credited old Harold with being able to jump onto a moving bus at his age? □ 'What on earth did you put your finger in the boiling sugar for? I credited you with more common sense than that!'

1504-creep across, along, away etc [A1 emph A2 emph rel] move across etc gradually, steadily. S: ivy, honeysuckle, vine; patrol, intruder; car, train □ His particular dream was of a small country cottage, with rambler roses creeping along the fence. □ Down the path crept a long line of ants.

1505-creep in/into[1] [A1 emph A2 emph rel] enter very quietly □ The erring husband, returning home at one a m, removed his shoes and crept in as silently as he could. □ She crept into the room and kissed the sleeping child.

1506-creep in/into[2] [A1 A2 emph rel] enter imperceptibly. S: sour, unpleasant, tone; unpleasantness □ You should try to argue calmly and not allow any unpleasantness or bitterness to creep in. □ Once complications are allowed to creep in, the outcome is in danger. MFM □ A distinct note of acrimony had crept into their conversation.

1507-creep over [A2] affect gradually. S: feeling, (strange) sensation; the suspicion that □ There crept over him, vaguely at first and then more strongly, the suspicion that he was being deliberately poisoned.

1508-creep up (on) [A1 A3 pass] approach silently or unobserved □ We crept up (on them) and, peering through the brambles, saw they were having a picnic. □ 'I dislike the feeling of being crept up on. Why don't you walk in boldly and say what you have to say?'

1509-creep up on [A3] approach imperceptibly. S: day of decision, time of parting, moment of truth

□ The years went by and all the time the day for him to retire inexorably crept up on him.

1510- cringe away/back (from) [A1 A3 emph rel] (of animals and human beings in a state of fear or terror) retreat, draw back □ The dogs would cringe away from a man with a whip in his hand. □ If we made any overtures of friendship she would cringe back, gazing at us with wide-eyed horror, her little hands trembling with fright. DF ⇨ draw away/back (from).

1511- cringe (before) [A2 emph rel] behave in a timid, cowardly or ingratiating way. o: father, schoolmaster, magistrate, policeman □ The sight of a big strong man cringing before a member of the aristocracy would disgust most people. □ Before such emblems of authority as a police uniform, he would invariably cringe.

1512- crisp up [A1 B1i pass adj] of sth which has gone soft from a hard or crisp state, become or make crisp again; similarly, of things that were not previously hard (e g bacon) □ These cornflakes have gone soft, but they'll be all right if you crisp them up in the oven.

1513- crock up [A1 B1i pass adj] (informal) become or make weak or useless. S: [B1] accident; fall, tumble; shock; exertion □ A lot of people crock up suddenly these days — it's the effect of modern living, sedentary work and an over-rich diet. □ The news of his son's death finally crocked him up.

1514- crop up[1] [A1] (informal) be mentioned. S: topic, subject; theme □ Wherever I went in Japan, the names of Harold Palmer and A S Hornby kept cropping up. □ If their daughter crops up in the conversation, remember you don't know anything about her affair with John! □ The pills must be good because the name was always cropping up in the Seattle papers. RFW

1515- crop up[2] [A1] (informal) happen, occur, appear. S: opportunity, job, chance; something □ Things were always cropping up which forced Ned to demonstrate who was the boss. CON □ Things have cropped up that make my position here rather difficult, for myself and others. HD □ 'Why don't you stay at home tomorrow? I can call you if anything crops up in the office.'

1516- cross (in) [B2 pass] obstruct, oppose sb (in sth he proposes to do). o: design, intention, ambition, objective □ He is a friendly enough person, so long as you don't cross *him (*in his business plans). □ 'What's the matter with Sally?' 'I would say she's been crossed in love!'

1517- cross off [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove sth from a list etc by putting a line (or more rarely, a cross) through it; tick off [1] (q v). O: name; item; task, job, place. o: list; agenda □ I found that my name had been crossed off the list of players, and somebody else's substituted. □ You can cross that job off — I've already mended the lamp.

1518- cross out [B1i pass adj] delete, put a line (or more rarely, a cross) through sth (usu because it is wrong). O: name, mistake, misspelt words, half the exercise □ The teacher had crossed out much of what the boy had written. □ The envelope arrived with the old address crossed out, and the new one written alongside it. □ The exercise was made almost illegible by many crossings-out. □ nom form: crossing(s)-out.

1519- cross with [B2 pass] in breeding, mix one kind with another. o: breed, strain □ This dog looks like the result of an alsatian being crossed with a spaniel.

1520- cross sb's hand/palm with silver [B2 pass] place a silver coin in sb's hand or palm (esp of a fortune-teller, gypsy etc) □ *'*Cross my palm with silver, Sir, and I'll tell you what the future holds for you — and I can see you're a lucky gentleman by your face!'

1521- cross swords (with) [B2 emph rel] have a dispute (with), enter into (verbal) conflict (with). o: neighbour, colleague, (child's) teacher □ When the Prime Minister crossed swords with the Leader of the Opposition (or: When they crossed swords) across the floor of the House, the former usually got the worst of it.

1522- crow one's head off [B1ii] (informal) talk in a boastful way □ The Tories crowed their heads off when they won the 1970 General Election against the predictions of all the Opinion Polls.

1523- crow over [A2 pass] boast about a victory, taunt an enemy with his defeat. o: success, victory; wealth, strength; (another's) weakness, failure □ It is unwise to crow too noisily over a defeated enemy, when you are in danger of suffering the same fate at the hands of another.

1524- crowd in (on/upon) [A1 A3 emph rel] thrust (themselves) forward, into the mind; press too closely around one. S: memories, thoughts, recollections; houses, traffic □ Scenes of his past life came crowding in upon the drowning man. □ 'Where we lived before, the scenery tended to crowd in on us.' T

1525- crowd in/into [A1 emph A2 emph B1i pass B2 emph] move in a crowd into a relatively small space. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] spectators, audience; passengers. o: room, ball; carriage, compartment □ [A2] Hundreds of people crowded into the village hall to hear the local MP. □ [B1] I think we could manage to crowd a few more in. □ [B2] Into one small van the men crowded about twelve frightened sheep.

1526- crowd out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] be the cause of keeping people out (of a place); because of one's own numbers, cause others to leave, or stay outside. O: newcomers, late arrivals, would-be spectators. o: hall, theatre, lecture-room □ Pressure on study-space has crowded out new students from many university libraries (or: has crowded new students out of many etc). □ A fairly large proportion of expectant mothers are crowded out of Britain's maternity hospitals. OBS

1527- crowd round [A1 A2] form a large group round, press round. S: reporters, onlookers; students. o: celebrity; prisoner; teacher; platform, desk □ Why do people crowd round, staring stupidly, whenever there's an accident? □ Passers-by crowded round the policeman as he made his arrest.

1528- crumble away [A1] fall in small pieces, disintegrate, gradually. S: rocks, walls, cliffs; ruins; opposition □ The people living in the houses on the cliff-top grew more and more worried as it crumbled away into the sea. □ It is remarkable how completely the opposition to the nationalization of the railways crumbled away.

1529- crumple up[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] crease or break, and crush; (cause to) lose its former recognizable shape by compression, change of air pressure etc.

S: [A1] O: [B1] packet, tin; shell, crust; bodywork (of car) ◻ The small car just crumpled up on impact with the lorry. ◻ Eventually, I found the letter crumpled up into a ball in the baby's cot.

1530-crumple up[2] [A1] fail, collapse, give way. S: he etc; army, opposition, resistance ◻ All organized resistance crumpled up when the tanks went in. ◻ One day Mr Moreton was a fine, healthy-looking man, the next he looked old and helpless: he had just crumpled up*.* ◻ In the face of the numbers, audacity, and precision of the attackers, the train's security, such as it was, crumpled up*.* T

1531-crusade (for) (against) [A2 emph rel] take part in a vigorous campaign (in support of, or against). o: changes (in the law, in society), reform; abolition, restoration (of sth) ◻ In Britain there are groups constantly crusading for supposed improvements and against alleged evils.

1532-crush in/into [A1 A2 B1i pass B2 pass] (cause to) enter too small a space. o: theatre, cinema; compartment, bus ◻ [A1] As soon as the train stopped, about two hundred people tried to crush in (or: [A2] into the few empty compartments). ◻ [B1] More than thirty head of cattle had been crushed in (or: [B2] into a lorry that was only big enough to take twenty).

1533-crush into [B2 pass] reduce, by the use of a heavy weight, or great pressure, to. o: pieces, dust, powder; an unrecognizable shape ◻ The rocks were crushed into powder by a gigantic hammer.

1534-crush into submission [B2 pass] force to submit, by the exercise of superior force. O: occupied territory, subject people; opposition, hostile minority ◻ The few remaining pockets of resistance were finally crushed into submission by the ruthless methods of the conquering army.

1535-crush out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass] extract, remove, by crushing. O: juice, moisture; spirit, life. o: sugar-cane, fruit, vegetable; people ◻ The sugar-cane is taken to the factory where the juice is crushed out*.* ◻ When I last saw Mr Smith he looked like a man who had had the spirit crushed out of him.

1536-crush to death [B2 pass] kill by the weight of sth. S: rock-fall, avalanche ◻ There is always the danger that someone will be crushed to death whenever great crowds of people panic. ◻ usu passive.

1537-crush up [B1i pass adj] press so as to soften, flatten or reduce to powder. O: stone, rock, rubble; chocolate, lump-sugar ◻ (instructions in a recipe) The root-ginger should be crushed up before it is added to the boiling jam.

1538-cry down [B1i pass] (informal) belittle, give little importance to. O: attempt, initiative, move; achievement, success ◻ The Opposition cried down every effort of the Government to improve the lot of working people. ◻ 'Don't cry down the very real progress these people have made.'

1539-cry for [A2] cry or weep in an attempt to obtain sth. o: food, drink; attention, a cuddle; something, nothing ◻ 'That child is always crying for something. What does it want now?' ◻ 'If you don't shut up,' shouted the angry mother, 'I'll damn well give you something to cry for (= I'll beat you).' ◻ 'Don't take any notice of Johnny; he cries for nothing (= he cries for no good reason).'

1540-cry for the moon [A2] want the impossible ◻ 'They're always wishing they could afford a cottage in Sardinia, or take a cruise round the world, or something equally impossible. Just crying for the moon*.'*

1541-cry off [A1 A2] withdraw from some previous arrangement or agreement. o: attending, visiting sb, going to the cinema ◻ It was the only foggy night in November and Gerald was sorely tempted to cry off going to dinner but Leonie got him there somehow. ASA ◻ 'I don't think I'll go swimming after all.' 'Oh, you're not going to cry off now are you, when I've persuaded everyone else to join us?' ◻ in the [A2] pattern, the object is the -ing form of a v.

1542-cry out [A1] exclaim, usu involuntarily (in pain or alarm); call out[4] (q v) ◻ As the rocks thundered on down the mountain-side, the trapped men cried out in fear. ◻ As he drove, too fast, into the first of the bends, his passenger cried out to him to slow down.

1543-cry one's eyes/heart out [B1ii] (informal) weep in misery and for a long time ◻ When the woman finally came down from the bedroom she looked as if she'd been crying her eyes out*.* ◻ The poor little girl cried her heart out when her father came home and told her that her dog had been run over.

1544-cry out (for) [A1 A3 rel] plainly invite, be a natural subject for ◻ Across the moors, the roads, winding, narrow, steep are perilous. If ever a stretch of country cried out for a swift, clean cut, this is it. T ◻ The coastline is full of possibilities, industrial, commercial, and residential: it's just crying out for development (or: it's just crying out to be developed). ◻ note alt pattern with inf as in the second example.

1545-cry over [A2 pass] lament, grieve, about. o: one's lost opportunities, misfortunes; injustice; the unfairness of sth; what's past ◻ As usual I found Betty in her room, crying over her misfortunes — both real and imagined — and told her to pull herself together. ◻ These losses have been much cried over*, and too seldom made good.*

1546-it's no use crying over spilt milk [A2] (it's no use) complaining about something that cannot be rectified or changed. ◻ 'Look! The sooner you realize that your money has gone, the better it will be for you. It's no use crying over spilt milk*.'* ⇨ previous entry.

1547-cry oneself to sleep [B2] weep until one falls asleep ◻ While the parents were laughing their heads off at some nonsense on television their unhappy son lay in bed and cried himself to sleep*.*

1548-cuddle up (to) [A1 A3 pass] draw closer to another person (usu for warmth or comfort). S: child, pet ◻ The twins cuddled up close together and fell asleep. ◻ The child cuddled up to her mother. ◻ Most mothers enjoy being cuddled up to*.*

1549-cull from [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) collect from. O: flowers, gems; poems ◻ *General Wavell made a collection of poems '*culled from other men's gardens'.

1550-culminate in [A2 rel] (formal) reach a climax in, end in. S: riots, disturbances; hopes, endeavours; search for; career. o: a lot of damage, many deaths, civil war; success, the discovery (of oil etc); his etc being made Managing Director □ Everyone feared that the sectarian strife in Northern Ireland would culminate in civil war. □ The intensive search for gas and oil in the North Sea culminated in the discovery of several enormous finds.

1551-cure (of)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] restore to (health from sickness). o: malaria, yellow fever; stammer; shyness □ Before the discovery of antibiotics it was extremely difficult to cure a person of tuberculosis.

1552-cure (of)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] cause to lose a harmful or unpleasant habit. o: nail-biting, snoring □ Some people claim that they have been cured of smoking by hypnosis. □ That black eye that Joe got last night should cure him of minding other people's business.

1553-curl up[1] [A1] from being flat or straight, turn up into a curl or something like a curl; settle down to sleep (like a dog). S: paper, leaves, material □ The pages of the book had curled up from the heat of the fire. □ She could only dream of the time when she could curl up between clean linen sheets again.

1554-curl up[2] [A1 B1ii] (informal) feel, make, nauseated □ 'His fawning manner whenever the boss is around just makes me curl up*. I tell you — it* curls me up*.'*

1555-curry favour (with) [B2] behave ingratiatingly towards sb for one's own advantage. o: superior; boss, manager; teacher, prefect □ If I can't get what I want by earning it, I'll do without: I'm not going to curry favour with any man.

1556-cursed with [pass (B2)] (be) unfortunate in having. o: ill luck, (every) misfortune; stammer, limp □ Mr Yates was cursed with a snore that shook the foundations of the house. His wife had to sleep in a separate room. □ Mr Fair seems to be cursed with the ability to see the other fellow's point of view, with the result that he has no firm opinions on anything.

1557-curtain off [B1i pass adj] separate by means of a curtain. O: recess, cupboard; part, extension (of a room) □ A corner of the room had been curtained off as a kind of improvised wardrobe. □ He slept in a curtained-off alcove.

1558-cut across[1] [A1 A2] take a short route (or short cut) across. o: the field(s), playing-field, meadow, ice □ Whenever the grass was dry the children would cut across the fields instead of keeping to the road.

1559-cut across[2] [A2] be contrary to, act in a manner contrary to. o: normal procedure; customary arrangements; beliefs, expectations □ The voting on the laws relating to Sunday recreation cut across the traditional political border-line. □ Feeling on the Common Market cuts clean across normal party loyalties.

1560-cut at [A2 pass] attempt to sever, open, or wound with a knife. o: cord, rope; covering, wrapping; face, hand □ He cut desperately at the rope in an attempt to free his foot. □ One of the men cut at her with a razor; the blade nicked the skin.

1561-cut away [B1i pass adj] remove by cutting. O: diseased tissue; undergrowth; dead wood, branches; torn sail, broken mast □ The surgeon cut away the tumour with expert skill. □ You won't be able to make a good lawn here unless you cut away most of these overhanging branches.

1562-cut back[1] [B1i pass] (horticulture) cut or prune. O: tree, bush, shrub; branch □ Some gardeners believe in cutting rose-bushes back very hard indeed — almost down to the ground.

1563-cut back[2] [B1i nom pass adj] reduce. O: production, investment, expansion □ Owing to the unfavourable economic climate, the motor-car industry has cut back production by fifteen per cent. □ The cut-back (or: cutback) in investment over the country as a whole is bound to increase unemployment.

1564-cut down[1] [B1i pass adj] fell. O: tree, bush □ When I returned to my childhood home I was distressed to find that all the apple trees had been cut down*.*

1565-cut down[2] [B1i pass adj] (formal) kill. A: in his youth, prime; in a battle □ Over the mantlepiece there was a portrait of their eldest son, cut down in the Second World War in the full vigour of his manhood.

1566-cut down[3] [A1 B1i pass] consume less; reduce. O: expenses, consumption, ration □ 'We must cut our expenses down somehow. I'll stop smoking and you had better spend less on beer.' □ 'The doctor told me to cut down my consumption of carbohydrates.' □ 'By the way, smoke if you want to — I'm trying to cut down*, not with very much success as yet, I'm afraid.'* TT ⇨ cut down on.

1567-cut down[4] [B1i pass adj] reduce the length of. O: clothes (usu implying that the cutting down is to make them fit a younger member of a family; otherwise 'shorten' is more frequently used); written article, report □ The poor boy is terribly conscious of being the only one in the class who is wearing his father's cut-down trousers. □ If you can cut your article down to about 1000 words, we will publish it in our next issue.

1568-cut down on [A3] reduce consumption of. o: (excessive) eating, drinking, spending, smoking □ What with increased taxation and rising prices, I'm going to have to cut down on quite a lot of things — clothes, records and so on. □ When people cut down on tobacco, they often start eating too many sweets and put on weight. ⇨ cut down[3].

1569-cut down (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] in bargaining, persuade sb to reduce his price □ At first he wanted £400 for his car, but I succeeded in cutting him down by £50. □ The tourist cut the hawker down to £4 for the vase and was very pleased with himself, little realizing that this still gave the man four hundred per cent profit.

1570-cut down to size [B3 pass] (informal) reduce the power or importance of sb or sth (whether real or imagined). O: problem; power of sth; groupings of nations □ Will Mr Khrushchev try to make a deal with America, in order to cut the new Franco-German combination down to size*?* OBS □ It always pleases me to see some upstart 'financial genius' cut down to size and shown up as the charlatan he is.

1571-cut for [A2] (card games) lift a number of cards from the top of a pack and look at the card which is at the bottom of that 'slice' of the pack. The person who 'cuts' the card lowest (or highest) in value is entitled or obliged to do a specified thing. o: dealer; who makes the coffee, pays for the drinks □ As there were five of us we cut for who would not play the first rubber (= round of games in bridge). □ 'The fire's going out. Let's cut for who gets the coal.' □ in many card games, the first step is to cut for trumps, ie select the suit which is to be trumps by following the procedure already described.

1572-cut the ground from under sb's feet [B2 pass] (informal) remove a cause of complaint, thus making it irrelevant; or, so change the circumstances that sb's action is pointless etc □ For weeks we had pressed our demands, when suddenly the Government declared such deals to be illegal, so cutting the ground from under our feet. □ I was about to raise my offer for the farm when a neighbour cut the ground from under my feet by offering a sum that I couldn't possibly match.

1573-cut in[1] [A1] interrupt another person or a conversation between two other people □ Edith's mouth had opened to yelp out the prepared condemnation, when Robert unexpectedly cut in. HD □ 'The facts, Robert, the facts!' Ned cut in. CON ⇨ cut into[2].

1574-cut in[2] [A1] (of a driver) overtake a vehicle and turn dangerously into its path (to avoid oncoming traffic) □ Impatient drivers who habitually cut in are bound to cause an accident sooner or later.

1575-cut in[3] [B1i pass] (informal) include sb, usu as a member of a group engaged in some profit-making activity and in return for an initial contribution of money, advice or service □ Next time you form a syndicate, don't forget to cut me in. □ The gang decided they would have to cut the Weasel in if only to keep his mouth shut about their plans.

1576-cut in/into [B2 pass] divide by cutting. o: (a number of) pieces; halves, quarters; equal parts etc □ The warship hit the submarine amidships and cut it in two. □ Cut this paper into one-inch strips, and then I'll explain how the game is played.

1577-cut into[1] [A2] make an incision in; start to divide up, carve or slice. o: flesh; meat; cake □ As the little girl cut into her birthday-cake, everyone cheered and clapped their hands.

1578-cut into[2] [A2] interrupt. o: discussion, conversation; the silence □ John's unwelcome voice cut gratingly into their quiet discussion. ⇨ cut in[1].

1579-cut off[1] [B1i pass] remove by cutting. O: piece, section; branch, leg □ From the carcass roasting over the fire, the man cut off a succulent piece and handed it to me on a knife. □ The workman had a finger cut off by the machine he was operating — a moment of inattention, and it was too late.

1580-cut off[2] [B1i pass adj] interrupt, make unavailable. O: power; electricity, gas, water; supplies (of any commodity); sb's allowance of money, food, etc □ The oil-producing countries threatened to cut off all supplies of petrol to Europe unless their terms were met. □ Final notice: Unless your outstanding account is paid within seven days of the date on this notice, we regret that we shall be obliged to cut off your supply of electricity.

1581-cut off[3] [B1i pass adj] prevent sb from leaving, or communicating outside, a place, by surrounding him. S: flood, avalanche; enemy, encircling movement. O: town, village; men, forces □ The village was cut off by the snow for more than a month. □ Although the platoon was cut off by the enemy, they managed to hide until nightfall and regain their own lines under cover of darkness. □ The children were cut off by the tide and had to be carried up the cliff to safety. □ usu passive.

1582-cut off[4] [B1iii pass] occupy a position to prevent or block. O: ⚠ sb's retreat; every avenue of escape, sb's escape route □ Although their retreat had been cut off, the men fought on to the bitter end. □ They will cut off all our escape routes except this one — which they can't know about.

1583-cut off[5] [B1i pass] interrupt a telephone conversation □ Just when she had reached the most interesting part of the story we were cut off. □ 'Operator! I've just been cut off while I was on the line to London. Could you reconnect me, please?' □ Somebody on the switchboard must have cut us off for a minute.

1584-cut-off[1] [nom (B1)] division, separation □ There is no hard-and-fast cut-off between semi-skilled and unskilled workers. □ (used attrib) The cut-off point between 'great heat' and 'excessive heat' cannot easily be defined.

1585-cut-off[2] [nom (A1)] exit road from a motorway □ 'You've just passed an exit, but I think there's another cut-off about ten miles farther on.'

1586-cut off one's nose to spite one's face [B1iii] respond to a real or assumed offence in such a way as to harm oneself only, and not the offending person or agency □ If the Trades Unions refuse to register under the Industrial Relations Act they will be cutting off their noses to spite their faces.

1587-cut off (from) [B1ii pass adj B3 pass] prevent sb from having contact (with). O: oneself; him etc. o: friends; one's family; a circle of people, a kind of life; the outside world □ It takes a very special kind of person to man a lighthouse — one who can stand being cut off from friends and society for weeks at a time. □ She's a strange person — very solitary — seems to cut herself off quite deliberately.

1588-cut off with a shilling [B3 pass] disinherit, except for a small amount that shows that the action is deliberate and that there has been no mistake □ The old man's patience was finally exhausted and, in disgust at his eldest son's behaviour, he cut him off with a shilling.

1589-cut out[1] [B1i pass adj] take, by cutting from a piece of material, the shapes that are required for making something. O: dress, skirt, jacket □ Before Mary could cut her dress out, she had to flatten the pieces of the pattern and pin them carefully to the material. □ The shoemaker carefully examined the leather before starting to cut out the uppers.

1590-cut out[2] [B1i pass adj] (informal) defeat; eliminate. O: his etc enemy, rival, competitor; best friend; (all) competition □ Sam was getting on very well with Mavis until his best friend arrived with his new sports car and cut him out.

1591-cut out[3] [B1i pass adj] delete, not include. O: word, phrase, expression, paragraph, section; (all, any) reference to, mention of, discussion of, allusion to, description of □ Before we can print this book, you will have to cut out all the four-letter words and slighting references to the royal family. □ I think it's got the makings of a fairly good yarn, provided of course that you cut out this verbal tomfoolery and make it clean cut. HD

1592 cut out[4] [B1i pass adj] stop taking, eating, drinking or using; stop any harmful activity or bad habit. O: cigarettes, tobacco, alcohol, drugs; fat, meat, sugar, carbohydrates; game, sport; watching television, going to bed late □ In a vain attempt to regain her youthful figure, she cut out carbohydrates completely — for about a week! □ I'm afraid the time has come when I shall have to cut out my weekly game of squash — I'm not as young as I was! □ (words of a man on being arrested) 'You can cut out the rough stuff; I'm not armed.' T

1593 cut out[5] [A1] stop functioning; pack up [3] (q v). S: engine, motor □ The investigation into the crash established that the two port engines had cut out shortly after take-off. □ As we were circling the field preparatory to landing, the engine cut out. MFM

1594 cut out[6] [A1 nom] automatically stop providing heat, cool air. S: central heating (system); radiator, heater □ When the temperature of the room reaches 70 degrees the convector heater cuts out. □ The central heating system is fitted with an automatic cut-out (i e an electrical device which causes the boiler to cut out when a given temperature is reached).

1595 cut out (the) dead wood [B1iii pass] (informal) remove those parts which confuse or spoil a picture, description, test etc □ The methods used have helped enormously in making questionnaires more reliable, in cutting out dead wood, and generally in improving measurements along these lines. SNP □ Before we can hope to make this industry more efficient and competitive, there's a tremendous amount of dead wood to cut out.

1596 cut it/that out [B1ii] (informal) stop doing or saying something that angers or irritates sb else □ 'Stop quarrelling, you two! Can't you see that I'm trying to concentrate. Just cut it out!' □ 'I'm not going to be told what I must or must not do by you or anyone else, so you can cut that out!' □ 'You blame me for everything that goes wrong and I wish you'd cut it out.'

1597 cut out for [pass (B3)] (informal) (be) well matched, have the right abilities or qualities for. o: each other (esp of an engaged or married couple); particular job, kind of life □ Peter and Susan seem to be cut out for each other. □ Something reasonable always turns up once you've abandoned the idea that one particular job is the only one you're cut out for. HD □ 'I don't know that I'm cut out for religion, but I'd like to know a good deal more about it. I can understand a lot of it, but this business of the Pope rather stands in the way.' ASA

1598 cut out/out of [B1i nom pass adj B2 pass] remove by cutting (from). O: picture, figure, coupon, article. o: newspaper, magazine, book □ The children showed their teacher all the pictures of English towns that they had cut out of magazines. □ 'I'm going to cut this advertisement out and send it to Alice; she may be interested in the job.' □ The table was covered with cut-out figures and shapes of animals, buildings, trees and people.

1599 cut through[1] [B1ii pass B2 pass rel] open a way by the removal of obstacles. O: one's way, passage, route. o: forest, jungle, defences; ice □ The escaping prisoners managed to cut their way through the barbed wire round the camp. □ Only a powerful, specially equipped ship could cut a way through such tightly-packed ice.

1600 cut through[2] [A2] overcome or by-pass difficulties (esp bureaucratic). o: red tape, formalities □ Every newly-elected Town Councillor swears that he will cut through the red tape of the local bureaucracy, but no one ever succeeds. □ If you have the patience to cut through all the verbiage you will find that there is much sense in the Committee's proposals.

1601 cut to [A2] (cinema, TV) change from one scene or aspect of a scene to another □ '... so just as the escaped murderer is about to break into the farm, we'll cut to the tracker-dogs following the scent....' □ 'While Peter and Arthur continue quarrelling, cut to Cynthia in close-up....'

1602 cut to pieces/ribbons/shreds [B2 pass] defeat utterly, inflicting great losses on; annihilate, decimate. O: defenders, attacking forces, armed raiders □ The retreat turned into a rout and the would-be attackers were cut to ribbons by the enemy, who gave them no respite. □ The heavy cavalry caught the foot soldiers in line before they could form a square, and cut them to pieces. □ Our group tried to persuade the meeting that the most effective course of action would be to strike, but we were utterly cut to shreds by Cavendish and his supporters.

1603 cut (prices) to the bone [B2 pass] (informal) reduce prices to the lowest possible level □ The competition between the supermarkets in the High Street was such that (the prices of) many products were cut to the bone, leaving practically no profit-margin.

1604 cut to the quick [B2 pass] (informal) hurt sb's feelings deeply □ Helen's sarcastic remarks about my efforts to help her and her family, cut me to the quick. □ He was cut to the quick by such a display of callousness.

1605 cut up[1] [B1i pass adj] cut or chop into pieces. O: meat, vegetables, branches □ The vegetables should be cut up into small pieces and dropped into the boiling water. □ You can cut this wood up very easily (or: This wood cuts up very easily) with an ordinary saw.

1606 cut up[2] [B1i pass] (informal) injure, damage with cuts, bruises etc □ All the occupants of the two cars were badly cut up in the smash. □ Those fellows weren't too gentle with him. They cut him up very badly.

1607 cut up[3] [pass (B1)] (informal) (be) emotionally upset □ Eve was very cut up when she heard that her friend had been sacked. □ The parents were naturally cut up at the news of their son's arrest on a charge of fraud. □ There's no need to be so cut up at not getting the job: it's only a matter of time before you fall on your feet □ passive with be, feel, seem.

1608 cut up rough [A1] (informal) react violently; behave aggressively □ If the left wing of the Labour Party continues to be ignored by the party leader, they are liable to start cutting up rough. □ The potential clients were lining up, tumbling over themselves, only waiting for a word from Alec. Would that word be given, if Harold started to cut up rough? PW is as mean as a miser but it wouldn't surprise me if he cut up for a million pounds.

1609 cut up (for) [A1 A3] (informal) be worth, or leave, a quantity of money at death □ Old Amos

1610-cut no ice (with) [B2 pass] (informal) not influence, not affect, carry no weight with. S: argument, defence, submission; evidence, so-called facts □ All these statistics about increased wages cut no ice with me*. What I want to know is how the government proposes to reduce unemployment.*

D

1611-dab off [B1i pass adj] absorb, remove, with quick, light movements. S: housewife, cleaner. O: water, excess liquid; oil, dirt, mud □ If you apply this cleaning fluid, you'll find you can simply dab the dirt off. □ Only allow a thin film of water to settle on the plates; any excess should be dabbed off.

1612-dab on/onto [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] apply, put on, lightly or gently. S: artist, painter; housewife, cleaner. O: paint, turpentine; polish, cleaning-fluid. o: canvas; furniture □ The painter slowly built up his landscape, dabbing on small areas of green and yellow. □ The furniture cream should be dabbed on with a soft cloth.

1613-dabble (in) [A2 emph rel] study, give some attention to (without becoming seriously involved). S: businessman, gentleman of means/leisure. o: painting, the theatre; politics, law □ Trevor dabbled in what he called art, until he was called up, when he got into the intelligence corps. SPL □ There were various pursuits in which he had dabbled from time to time — the piano was his latest.

1614-dally with[1] [A2 pass emph rel] consider, contemplate, idly in one's mind; play with[3] (q v), toy with[3] (q v). S: manager, developer, farmer, householder. o: scheme, project; idea, notion □ The Electricity Board have been dallying with the idea of building a power station down here. But I doubt very much whether anything will come of it. □ We discussed a proposal with which he had been dallying for some time, but about which little had been done.

1615-dally with[2] [A2] appear to show an interest in sb (without intending a serious relationship); play with[2] (q v), toy with[2] (q v). S: philanderer, sponger. o: girl, woman □ He dallied with her affections for a bit, but quickly moved on when she showed signs of wanting a more permanent relationship.

1616-dam up[1] [B1i pass adj] close by means of a dam; check, retain (waters) with a dam. S: government; (water, electricity) authorities; engineer. O: valley, gorge; river □ When a river valley is dammed up*, the waters contained by the barrage rise to form an artificial lake.*

1617-dam up[2] [B1i pass adj] suppress, restrain; bottle up (q v). O: emotion, feeling; anger, resentment □ Dammed-up feelings will burst out at some stage in a more violent form than if they had been expressed in the first place.

1618-damp down[1] [B1i pass adj] cause to burn more slowly (by adding ash or reducing the draught of air). S: stoker, caretaker, housewife. O: furnace, boiler, fire □ The boilers are producing too much pressure: they'll have to be damped down.

1619-damp down[2] [B1i pass adj] restrain, control. S: teacher, leader. O: enthusiasm, high spirits, ebullience □ The party spirit was considerably damped down by the news that all leave had been stopped. □ Now he wanted to go back, but to damp down the urge he was sent to his brother's home in France. RT

1620-damp off [A1] (horticulture) rot and die through excessive damp. S: young plant, cactus □ Don't give those plants too much water; they'll damp off.

1621-dance across, along, away etc [A1 emph A2 emph rel] move across etc rhythmically, often to music □ Off she danced*, all thoughts of her examinations for the moment forgotten.* □ The bridal procession danced down the street and into the groom's garden.

1622-dance attendance (on) [B2 emph rel] (formal) follow about attentively and/or slavishly (usu in the hope of obtaining favours). S: suitor; courtier, hanger-on (at court). o: young woman, pretty girl; prince, minister; rich relative □ A swarm of would-be suitors danced attendance on the best-looking girls. □ He had for a long time danced attendance on the great, though without obtaining any special privileges in return.

1623-dangle before/in front of [B2 pass emph rel] offer prospects of wealth etc enticingly. O: promotion, advancement; profit, gain. o: employee, candidate; sb's eyes □ The days may be past when graduates had prospects of dazzling careers in industry dangled in front of them.

1624-dart across, along, away etc [A1 emph A2 emph rel] move quickly, sharply, in a given direction. □ Bill darted back into bed as his father's step was heard on the stairs. □ She opened the box and out darted a mouse.

1625-dart a glance/look at [B2 pass emph rel] look suddenly, sharply, at sb; shoot a glance (at) (q v). adj: furtive, anxious, hostile. o: stranger, visitor; watch, clock □ She darted an interested glance at the handsome newcomer from under lowered eyelids. □ The villagers were guarded in their reception. So many suspicious looks were darted at him.

1626-dash against [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) crash violently against. S: [A2] O: [B2] boat, raft; body, skull. S: [B2] sea, wave; storm; (force of the) explosion, blast. o: rock, cliff; wall, pavement □ The tanker dashed against the reef with a force which opened a great hole in her side. □ The force of the blast dashed him against the wall of the cave.

1627-dash (oneself) against [A2 B2] crash, hurl, oneself etc, against. S: heavy sea, big wave, breaker; assault troops, wave of attackers. o: shore, promenade; trenches, lines □ Heavy seas dashed against the sea wall. □ Attacking waves of infantry dashed themselves in vain against a well-entrenched enemy.

1628-dash away a tear/one's tears [B1iii] brush

tears from one's eyes with a hand or handkerchief. S: girl, child □ Brigit dashed away her tears. DC

1629-dash off [B1i pass adj] write, draw, very quickly; tear off [2] (q v). S: secretary, journalist; artist. O: article, letter, note; sketch, drawing □ The thing had obviously been dashed off but it consisted of just the right number of lines. CON □ They would dash off one of these notes of credit as they stopped in some oak-dark room for port and steak. OBS

1630-dash one's/sb's brains out [B1i pass] kill oneself, or sb, by smashing the skull open. S: (violent) blow; bullet, stone, shell-splinter □ He fell over the cliff-edge and dashed out his brains on the rocks below. □ One of the bodyguard dashed his brains out with a single blow from his club.

1631-dash over[1] [A2] crash, hurl itself, over. S: heavy sea, big wave. o: promenade, coast road, breakwater, promontory □ As the storm built up, heavy seas dashed over a row of cottages built near the water's edge.

1632-dash over[2] [B2 pass] throw over in a stream. S: car, bicycle; clumsy fellow, comedian. O: water, mud; paint, whitewash. o: suit, trousers; floor, wall □ A passing car dashed muddy water all over my clothes. □ The circus clowns dashed buckets of whitewash over each other.

1633-date from/back to [A2 emph rel A3 emph rel] have existed since, originate in. S: castle, church; custom, tradition; agreement, association, alliance; hostility, misunderstanding. o: Norman times, the Stone Age; the war, pre-war times □ The connection with Hanover dates back to the 18th Century. □ The present harmony in the factory dates from a sensible agreement on wages and productivity. □ From what period do the ceremonies date?

1634-daub on/onto [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] apply thickly and/or crudely (to). S: painter, sculptor; decorator. O: paint, clay, plaster. o: canvas, framework, wall □ The children were encouraged to daub the colours on liberally. □ Modelling clay was daubed thickly onto a small metal framework and then worked into shape (or: A small metal framework was thickly daubed with clay etc).

1635-daub onto/over [B2 pass emph rel] smear sth thickly over a surface (staining it, or making it dirty). S: painter; mechanic; child. O: paint; oil, tar; jam, treacle. o: wall, woodwork; overalls; dress □ Mary had daubed jam and chocolate all over her apron (or: had daubed her apron all over with jam etc). □ Oil and grease were daubed onto his shirt (or: His shirt was daubed with oil etc).

daub with[1] [B2 pass rel] ⇨ daub on/onto.

daub with[2] [B2 pass rel] ⇨ daub onto/over.

1638-dawn on/upon [A2] occur to sb, become clear to sb. S: sense, truth; the realization that...; it... that he might be dead, it... that she was seriously ill □ The sense of all that he had been saying suddenly dawned on her. □ It dawned on them that they might be cut off by the tide.

1639-deal in[1] [B1ii pass] include sb in a game by dealing him a hand of cards etc. S: banker, croupier □ Peter arrived late for our bridge party, but somebody quickly gave him a drink and then we dealt him in.

1640-deal in[2] [A2 pass rel] handle, do business in. S: shopkeeper; store, trading company. o: second-hand cars, stationery, stocks and shares □ The small post-office on the corner deals in a lot else besides stamps and postal orders. □ Most foreign trading companies in West Africa deal in rubber, cocoa and vegetable oils.

1641-deal out [B1iii pass] administer; mete out (q v). S: father, boxer; magistrate. O: (good) hiding, thrashing; punishment, justice □ The frontier town had set up a primitive court, which dealt out justice of a kind. □ The lighter boxer had a good deal of punishment dealt out to him by the end of the first round.

1642-deal with[1] [A2 rel] trade with, do business (with) (q v); talk with in order to reach a settlement etc. o: firm, company; supplier, wholesaler □ We've dealt with the same firm for years and can thoroughly recommend them to you. □ They are bad people to deal with; always late on delivery dates. □ 'Banda in jail was a myth, but Banda out of jail is a man, and one can deal with a man.' SC

1643-deal with[2] [A2 pass adj rel] handle, tackle, confront (so as to settle, remedy, reform etc). S: government, official; police, prison service; doctor, teacher. o: inquiry, complaint, grievance; crime wave, indiscipline; disease, learning problem □ Any complaints about the quality of our goods will be quickly dealt with by local branches. □ The galloping increase of traffic in recent years must be dealt with. SC □ The problem of unemployment is the most serious of those with which the Government has to deal.

1644-deal with[3] [A2 pass] handle some offence (with the suggestion that the reckoning will be unpleasant). S: father, employer, superior officer □ 'I'll deal with you when I get home from the office!' □ 'I'll get Father to deal with him later on.' □ In Cuba the police can deal as harshly as they like with émigrés from Latin America. OMIH □ often used with shall/will.

1645-deal with[4] [A2 pass rel] have as its subject, be concerned with; cover. S: article, lecture, book. o: Asia, the population problem, the English Romantics, coal □ His first lecture dealt with relief and drainage; this week he's talking about rainfall. □ The subject isn't very well dealt with in his latest book.

1646-debar (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) exclude by law or regulation from use or membership of. S: committee, Chamber of Commerce, trades union. O: member, associate. o: voting, using club premises; membership □ Insane persons are debarred from voting at elections. □ New legislation may have to be introduced if clubs are to be prevented from debarring people from membership on grounds of race or colour.

1647-debit to [B2 pass emph rel] (commerce) subtract from the amount held in sb's account by a bank or commercial organization. S: bank, finance company; store. O: sum, amount; charge. o: customer; account; department □ Would you kindly explain why this large sum has been debited to me (or: why I have been debited with this large sum)?

debit with [B2 pass rel] ⇨ previous entry.

1649-deceived in [pass (B2)] (formal) (have) come to realize that sb is not what one thought, (be) disappointed in. S: father, teacher, employer □ I've been deceived in Smith: he has an impressive manner, but no real staying power or brains.

1650-deceive into [B2 pass] make sb believe sth which is untrue (esp for purposes of gain). S: enemy, rival; salesman, agent, confidence trickster. O: firm, purchaser, shopper. o: supposing, believing, thinking; buying, selling □ The Prussians deceived Napoleon into thinking they had withdrawn away from the British. □ We were deceived into buying a house that was scheduled for demolition. □ -ing form of a v as object of into.

1651-decide against[1] [A2] (legal) deliver a verdict or judgment against; find against (q v). S: judge, magistrate, jury. o: plaintiff, accused, defendant, Crown □ The Court decided against the Crown in the case of Regina v Carruthers. ⇨ decide for/in favour of.

1652-decide against[2] [A2 pass rel] resolve not to (have). o: continental holiday, boarding school, efficiency campaign; having guests, sending a letter, giving a party □ We've decided against having a big family gathering this Christmas. □ They had decided against an expensive education for their children. ⇨ decide on.

1653-decide for/in favour of [A2] (legal) deliver a verdict or judgment in favour of; find for (q v). S: judge, magistrate. o: plaintiff, defendant □ I doubt whether any court in the country would decide in his favour. His record must tell against him. ⇨ decide against[1].

1654-decide on [A2 pass rel] resolve to (have). o: sports car, saloon; bungalow, flat; expansion, reduction (of activity) □ Finally, she decided on the white and yellow striped material. □ They need a new car, but the precise model is still to be decided on. ⇨ decide against[2].

1655-deck out/up (in) [B1ii pass B3 pass] (informal) put on as for a special occasion. S: girlfriend, young man, teenager, overblown matron. O: herself etc; child, wife. o: all her finery, his Sunday best, party frock □ The female guests had decked themselves out in satin frocks and flowery hats. □ Sometimes she gets decked up in her black jeans and goes off to some sexy club. FFE

1656-deck with [B2 pass rel] decorate with; festoon with. S: council, townspeople, priest, child. O: street, wall; house, shop; Christmas tree. o: flag, bunting; garland, flower; paper-chain □ The horns of the sacred cattle were decked with garlands. □ The authorities gave orders to deck the streets with flags and bunting.

1657-declare war (against/on) [B2 pass rel] announce officially that a state of war exists between two countries □ Britain declared war on Germany on 3rd September, 1939. □ Hostilities were opened without war being declared.

1658-dedicate to[1] [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) give oneself to a purpose believed to be important; devote to (q v). O: oneself; one's life, career; energies. o: purpose, cause; helping the needy, caring for the sick □ Members of religious communities have dedicated their whole lives to God's service. □ He felt that Socialism was the most important cause to which he could dedicate himself.

1659-dedicate to[2] [B2 pass emph rel] write one's name at the beginning of a work as a mark of gratitude, admiration etc. S: writer, composer. O: novel, poems; symphony, opera. o: parents, wife □ Beethoven at first dedicated his 'Eroica' Symphony to Napoleon but afterwards tore out the fly-leaf in disgust.

1660-deduce (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) arrive at a conclusion by examining and weighing evidence. O: knowledge, theory. o: facts, data; observations, measurements □ You will notice water rising in the tube; now what do you deduce from that? □ From the presence of people of Asiatic stock in America we may possibly deduce that the two continents were at one time linked.

1661-deduct (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) take one amount (esp a compulsory levy) from a larger. S: employer; bursar; tax office. O: contribution, insurance payment, income tax. o: wage, salary □ Nowadays income tax is normally deducted from a person's wages before he receives them. □ Staff are requested to instruct the Bursar's Office to deduct common room subscriptions from their monthly salaries.

1662-defect (from) (to) [A2 emph rel] transfer one's allegiance from one country (or power bloc) to another, esp with the knowledge and encouragement of one's intending host or employer. S: (intelligence) agent, (military) expert, scientist □ The year began with the bad news that two of our best agents had defected to the other side. □ 'So you are the man who is going to make Semitsa defect from the Moscow Academy of Sciences and come to work in the west.' L DEIGHTON: FUNERAL IN BERLIN

1663-defend (against/from) [B2 pass emph rel] guard, protect, sb (from attack etc). S: dog; fence, barbed wire; law; ombudsman, trades union, professional body. O: house, factory; field, emplacement; (ordinary) citizen; worker, member. o: thief, trespasser; attack, invasion; invasion of rights, encroachment on privacy; discrimination □ Here we are well defended against a surprise attack. □ The association exists to defend the consumer against unscrupulous traders.

1664-defer (to) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) out of respect, treat as more important or authoritative. S: young man, pupil, newcomer. o: elder, senior; master, teacher; opinion, view □ Generally the young should defer to the opinions of their elders, but such deference can be overdone. □ Grandfather ruled his family with a rod of iron; his views were invariably deferred to. □ There were some self-appointed experts to whom he was not prepared to defer.

1665-define (as) [B2 pass] state the characteristics peculiar to an object, quality etc. O: substance, element; acid, salt; virtue, vice. o: lacking flavour; something which corrodes; that which corrupts □ A 'sentence' has been variously defined as 'the expression of a complete thought', 'something beginning with a capital letter and ending with a full stop' and 'the largest unit of grammatical description'. □ How can one define visual beauty? As something which arouses pleasant sensations in the viewer?

1666-deflect (from) [B2 pass emph rel] cause to change course; turn aside (from). S: armour-plate, steel helmet; heckler, reporter; visitor; interruption. O: shell, bullet; speaker, lecturer; attention. o: target; path, course; purpose, task; theme, topic □ The steeply-sloped armour of the tank was designed to deflect anti-tank shells from their target. □ He was momentarily deflected from this train of argument by a knock on the door.

1667- delegate (to) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) give a task etc to a trusted person (usu a subordinate). S: manager; commander; headmaster. O: duty, responsibility; task, work; organizing, planning. o: assistant, deputy; second-in-command □ A mark of a good leader is his readiness to delegate a certain amount of decision-making to his assistants. □ The routine office work had all been delegated to his executive staff.

1668- delete (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) remove, cross out (q v) (from). S: editor, censor. O: name; figure, amount; statement, remark; detail, reference. o: list, roll; report, accounts; record, transcript □ When one dictator replaces another, a fresh set of names has often to be deleted from the history books. □ He turned to the end of the article; from the list of works consulted, all references to himself had been deleted.

1669- delight in [A2] enjoy, take (unkind) pleasure in. S: elder brother, bigger pupil. o: teasing his small sister, ragging younger boys, pulling my leg, proving us wrong □ Peter seems to delight in making other people suffer. □ object of in is usu the -ing form of a v.

1670- deliver oneself of [B2 rel] (formal) state, express (pompously, self-importantly). o: opinion, view; statement, claim, proposal □ The judge delivered himself of the view that young people were treated far too leniently nowadays. □ A German General had delivered himself of an all-embracing classification about officers: the clever, the stupid, the industrious and the lazy. MFM

1671- deliver over/up (to) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] (formal) surrender, hand over[1] (q v) (to) (usu under duress). S: garrison, besieged army, gaoler. O: castle, town, prisoner, stores □ The governor was ordered to deliver over the keys to the citadel. □ In an unpleasant moment he saw himself recaptured and delivered up again to his gaolers.

1672- delude (into) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) deliberately mislead sb or oneself (into a particular state of mind). S: government, politician; press, radio. O: public; supporter, follower; oneself. o: belief, supposition; believing, supposing, expecting □ For years we have been deluded into expecting a sudden economic recovery. □ They couldn't go on deluding themselves into thinking that in six months or a year their marriage would somehow right itself.

1673- delve into [A2 pass emph rel] search thoroughly (for facts, knowledge). S: scholar, archivist. o: manuscript, document; past, memory □ He has been delving into accounts of daily life in the 16th Century. □ I had to delve pretty hard into my memory to recall where I had seen him before.

1674- demand (of) [B2 pass rel] require that sb should give or offer. S: work, task; office, job. O: sacrifice; persistence; a readiness, willingness (to do sth); that one should give up one's family life □ Have you any idea what a full-time political career will demand of you? □ As director of these courses a great deal will be demanded of him.

1675- denude (of) [B2 pass rel] (formal) remove the covering from, strip bare of. S: wind and rain, storm; bad husbandry. O: tree; hillside, countryside. o: leaves, branches; soil □ Intensive cultivation had denuded the hillsides of their covering of fertile soil. □ Trees were denuded of their leaves.

1676- depart from [A2 pass adj emph rel] (formal) do sth not in accordance with, make a break from. o: accepted practice, custom; established tradition, routine □ The chairman departed from normal procedure by allowing reporters to be present during Council business. □ These were hallowed traditions from which he had no intention of departing. □ The rules were rigid in principle, sometimes departed from in practice.

1677- depend on/upon[1] [A2 pass rel] (be able to) believe that sb or sth will prove reliable; bank on[2] (q v). o: him etc; product, commodity; firm, service □ You can't depend on this bus service — it's never punctual. □ He's a man who can be depended upon in a crisis. □ They could depend on John to support them. □ usu with can/could.

1678- depend on/upon[2] [A2 pass emph rel] be sure of, confidently expect, an event; reckon on/upon (q v). o: him/his turning up, him/his being on time, him/his supporting the motion; his support, co-operation, sympathy □ You can depend on his support for your Bill. □ One could never depend on his arriving on time. □ He'll be there when he's needed; on that you can depend. □ usu with can/could.

1679- depend on/upon[3] [A2 emph rel] get income, material support or sustenance from. S: town, port, industry; family, child; painter, writer. o: manufacturers, trade, coal; father, parent; steady sales, rich patron A: for its existence, for his livelihood; to survive; as a source of income □ He depends for his livelihood upon a small income from investments. □ The town depends almost solely on the tourist trade. □ To remain in existence, the theatre must continue to depend on a state subsidy.

1680- depend on/upon[4] [A2 emph rel] follow directly or logically from; turn on[4] (q v). S: a great deal; whether we succeed, how we set about it. o: how they respond, the way it's tackled; the forces at our disposal □ A great deal will depend on the way the Government responds. SC □ It all (= the answer) depends on what you mean by truth! □ How successful they were would depend on the speed with which the product could be distributed to the shops.

1681- depend on/upon it [A2] one may be sure or certain (of the fact); without any doubt □ For depend upon it, my boy, the monster won't understand a word of this new-fangled language called English. RM □ He may depend upon it that we shall never surrender. □ 'You can depend on it. I shall be there.' □ depend on/upon it is often followed by a main clause or a that-clause; there is often no Subject.

1682- deprive of [B2 pass emph rel] stop sb enjoying or using. S: gaoler, invader, tyrant; tall buildings, trees. o: freedom; luxuries, necessities; sunshine, heat □ The new laws threaten to deprive many people of the most elementary freedoms. □ Civilians were deprived of food and clothing in order to supply the growing armies.

1683- deputize (for) [A2 pass emph rel] act in the place of sb in authority during his absence. S: assistant-director, sub-manager, second-in-command □ Mr Jones will be deputizing for me during my absence abroad. □ I dare say Stephens can be deputized for — we seem to have managed without his directing hand before.

1684- derive from[1] [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) get, obtain, from; draw from[2] (q v). S: patient, invalid; student, reader. O: relief, benefit; pleasure, instruction; income. o: course of treatment; studies, books; investments □ Mary has derived a good deal of benefit from her tuition. □ Lonely people listening to the wireless can derive some comfort from the fact that every wireless in the street is linking the neighbours together. UL

1685- derive from[2] [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (formal) have, take, as its starting point or origin. S: [A2] O: [B2] product; word, name; ceremony, ritual. o: mineral; (Latin, Sanskrit) root, source; ancient custom □ Margarine is derived from vegetable oils. □ The word derives from a Greek noun with a quite different meaning. □ The May-Day ceremonies are said to be derived from the fertility rites of the Ancient Britons.

1686- descend to [A2 pass emph rel] act in a mean or base way; stoop to (q v). o: (low) level, (such etc) depths; vulgar abuse, gossip; cheating, fraud; personalities □ I never thought he would descend to abusing his former colleagues in public. □ There are no depths to which he will not descend in attempting to discredit his opponents.

1687- descend upon [A2] attack suddenly; swoop (down) (on) (q v). S: bandits, raiders; cavalry. o: encampment, village; column, stragglers □ Bands of marauding horsemen would descend upon their isolated trading posts.

1688- describe as [B2 pass] say that sb is; claim that one is. O: him; oneself. o: clever, able; being very tall; an expert, an authority □ His employer had described him as lacking in initiative and drive. □ He describes himself as a business executive; in fact, he is a clerk.

1689- deserve better/well of [A2] merit good or better treatment from. o: country, firm, employer □ He deserved rather better of his employers than to be pensioned off at a few pounds a week. □ Lincoln deserved well of his country.

1690- despair of [A2 pass] be extremely doubtful of, sceptical about. o: ever seeing them again, ever succeeding; success, outcome, issue, recovery □ After being cut off from the main party for two weeks they began to despair of rejoining their companions. □ Don't despair of being slim again until you know what this new, reducing idea can do for you. DM

1691- destine for [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) decide or ordain in advance that sb will be or do sth. S: family, schoolmaster. O: eldest son, brightest pupil. o: the church, law, medicine, army □ From the beginning his father had destined him for a career at the Bar. □ By family tradition he was destined for Sandhurst and a career as a regular army officer.

1692- detach (from) [B2 pass emph rel] separate, remove (from). S: mechanic; railwayman; commander. O: engine, gearbox; tender, waggon; staff, personnel. o: car, chassis; train; regiment □ Two carriages were detached *(*from the Edinburgh train) at York. □ Officers detached from their units may be given staff appointments.

1693- detail off [B1i pass] (usu military) assign, designate, appoint (usu to a specific task or for a particular purpose). S: sergeant-major, duty NCO; manager, foreman. O: fatigue party, squad; ten men; team, group □ Half-a-dozen men were detailed off for guard duty. □ The best technique is to detail off known and stalwart supporters to enter into conversation with the other side before the meeting actually begins. THH

1694- detect (in) [B2 pass emph rel] find evidence of sth (in materials being examined, in sb's manner etc). O: sign, trace, mark; note, hint (of frivolity, seriousness, defiance). o: specimen, sample; voice, manner; suggestion □ We detected minute quantities of copper in the rock samples. □ 'Do I detect a certain lack of seriousness in what you're proposing?' □ In the way they talk about the job you can detect early signs of disillusionment.

1695- deter (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) make sb lose the desire to do sth; discourage (from) (q v). S: industrial unrest, distance from markets. O: industry, investor. o: moving North, investing overseas, installing new machinery □ Several factors deter new industry from coming to Cornwall. OBS □ Countries have not been deterred from waging conventional wars by their opponents' possession of nuclear weapons. □ object is the -ing form.

1696- detract from [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) lessen, diminish; weaken; take from[3] (q v). S: small size, power (of the engine), tiny cabin, awkward handling; length, difficulty, complexity. o: usefulness, appeal, attractiveness (to buyers); worth, value □ Poor visibility forward and the bounciness of the suspension may detract from its appeal as a general-purpose farm vehicle. □ His high voice and unpleasing appearance detracted from his effectiveness as a speaker.

1697- develop (from) (into) [A2 rel B2 pass rel] (cause to) grow larger, become more powerful etc (from being small, weak etc). S: [A2] O: [B2] country, city; farm, factory; school, course. S: [B2] government, regional board; owner, director. o: (from) village; small-holding; family firm; obscure country. o: (into) metropolis; vast complex; multi-national company; major power □ The area to the south of the Maas has developed into Europoort, a complex of docks, refineries and warehouses. □ This great industry has developed from quite modest beginnings. □ The directors have plans to develop the club grounds into a stadium holding 40 000 people.

1698- deviate (from) [A2 pass emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (formal) (cause to) abandon, move away (from); diverge (from) (q v). o: chosen course, straight path; truth; policy, course of action □ We shall not deviate by a hair's breadth from the mandate which the electorate has given us. □ They could not be deviated from what they believed to be their duty.

1699- devolve upon [A2 emph rel] (formal) be passed to, become the responsibility of. S: office, job, duties, function. o: second-in-command, Vice-Chairman, chief clerk □ When the Ambassador is on leave, his duties devolve upon the First Secretary. □ It devolved upon his assistant to ensure that the guests were found hotels.

1700- devote to [B2 pass emph rel] give oneself to a purpose thought to be important; dedicate to[1] (q v); spend time, effort, doing sth. O: oneself; energies, thoughts; a lifetime, twenty years. o: golf, hunting; family, children; education; improving standards, curing disease, helping the poor □ Ghandi devoted his whole life to the cause of peace. □ The centre pages of this issue will be devoted to an important feature on housing. □ Livestock breeders are devoting much thought and ingenuity to the improvement of this strain.

1701- dictate (to) [A2 rel B2 pass rel] say or read aloud sth which is to be written down (in shorthand or longhand). S: manager, executive; teacher. O: letter, draft; poem, problem. o: secretary; class □ He dictated to his secretary for ten minutes. □ 'Copy into your books the passage which I've dictated (to you).'

1702- dictate to [A2 pass] give orders to, boss about. S: officious person, self-appointed authority. o: subordinate, wife, partner □ I won't have him dictating to me. □ The shop stewards won't allow themselves to be dictated to by the official union leadership.

1703- die away [A1] recede, become fainter (or weaker) until eventually inaudible (or invisible); fade away (q v). S: voice; sobbing, shouting; commotion, din, tumult; anger, resentment □ (stage directions) Sound of hooves walking on hard road. They die rapidly away*.* E □ Brigit's voice died away in stifled sobs. DC □ The thunder and lightning died away in heavy rain and her mind too faded away in vague confusion. ASA 1704- die back [A1] (horticulture) (of the shoots or stems of plants) die as far as the roots, which stay alive and send out new shoots the next year □ The dahlias died back when we had that first cold spell.

1705- die down [A1] subside, become less intense (though without necessarily disappearing). S: flames, fire; storm; revolution, uprising, quarrel; anger, passion, tension, excitement □ The feeling between them had died down considerably. □ Both affairs have died down here, but they have added to the uncomfortable situation.

1706- die for [A2] (informal) badly need or want. o: cigarette, pill, cup of tea; walk, bit of exercise, a sit down □ 'Go and see to that coffee. I'm dying for a hot drink.' TOH □ She was dying for a break, away from her family and household commitments (cf She was dying to have a break etc). □ continuous tenses only.

1707- die from/of [A2 emph rel] have as the cause of death. o: starvation, exposure; cancer, pneumonia □ Climbing parties marooned in the open can easily die of exposure unless they know the proper precautions to take. □ The disease from which he died was at that time incurable.

1708- die of [A2] (informal) be in an extreme state of. o: hunger, thirst; boredom, curiosity □ We're all dying of curiosity. AITC □ The cleverer children had been deliberately held back from advanced work. As a result they were dying of boredom.

1709- die off [A1] die one after the other. S: plant, tree; bird, animal; man, child □ A water shortage had struck the area and the wild life was dying off alarmingly in the intense heat. □ They had to watch their young family die off through lack of food and proper medical attention.

1710- die out [A1] become extinct; disappear, no longer be practised. S: family, line, species, race; custom, practice □ Only those species sufficiently adaptable to cope with changing conditions survived. The others died out*.* □ With the development of transport and the building of new factories many of the traditional crafts have died out*.*

1711- differ (from) [A2 emph rel] be different (from); not be of the same opinion (as sb) about. S: private industry; civilian life; university teaching. o: nationalized concern; service life; schoolmastering □ Russian differs from English in having a distinct alphabet and many inflected forms. □ Patrick differs from his brother in many ways (or: They differ (from each other) in many ways). □ The two parties differ very sharply from each other over which remedies to apply.

1712- dig in [B1i pass adj] (military) position sb or sth below ground level by digging an emplacement or trench. S: commander, crew. O: tank, gun, mortar; troops, company □ The tanks were dug in so that only the gun turrets remained visible above the ground. □ Our officers had dug their platoons in along the reverse slope of a ridge. ⇨ dig (oneself) in.

1713- dig one's heels/toes in [B1ii] (informal) stubbornly refuse to give way (usu on a point of principle); stick one's heels in (q v) □ But when it came to separation, his wife dug her heels in firmly. □ I have stood a great deal from you without complaint, but after your last ridiculous and offensive letter I am going to dig my toes in*.* US

1714- dig (oneself) in [A1 B1ii pass] (military) dig a trench (for protection against enemy attack). S: company, platoon, troops □ As soon as they had seized the enemy position, the infantry dug (themselves) in*.* □ 'Get yourselves dug in*!'* ⇨ dig in.

1715- dig oneself in [B1ii pass] (informal) establish oneself firmly in a place or job (often with the suggestion that one is determined not to move or be moved). S: new neighbour, employee, member of staff □ Smith seems to have well and truly dug himself in on the ground floor. □ 'Do you work here or something? We all thought you would dig yourself in at Oxford.' THH

1716- dig in the ribs [B2 pass] (informal) poke an elbow into sb's ribs (to draw attention to sth) □ Jones is tiresome. Throughout the play he kept digging me in the ribs whenever anyone said anything remotely funny. □ Ma dug him sharply in the ribs and started laughing like a jelly. DBM

1717- dig in/into[1] [B1i pass B2 pass] (horticulture) sow, mix with soil, by digging. S: gardener, nurseryman. O: vegetable, plant, tree; compost, manure. o: field, soil □ You'll need to dig those young trees in a bit deeper, unless you want the wind to blow them over. □ Manure should be well dug into the soil.

1718- dig in/into[2] [A1 nom A2] (informal) attack food hungrily; dive in (q v), tuck in/into[1] (q v). o: pie, cake; pile of bread and butter □ 'Don't stand on ceremony — dig in!' (cf have a good dig-in!) □ An enormous first course of turkey did not prevent them from digging into the Christmas pudding.

1719-dig out/out of[1] [B1i pass B2 pass] remove soil etc by digging; by so doing, form or construct sth. S: navvy, miner; soldier. O: sand, coal; tunnel, emplacement. o: quarry, mine □ Ore dug out of these open-cast workings is loaded directly on to trucks.

1720-dig out/out of[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] rescue by digging. S: rescue-party, civil defence worker, fireman. O: victim, survivor, body. o: avalanche, fallen tunnel; wreckage, debris □ A whole family was dug out from underneath a tangle of fallen beams and masonry. □ In the severe winter of 1947, farmers had to dig their livestock out of huge snowdrifts.

1721-dig out/out of[3] [B1i pass B2 pass] catch or capture by digging. S: farmer, poacher, rat-catcher. O: rabbit, fox, rat. o: burrow, lair, hole □ If we can't smoke the rats out, we'll have to dig them out.

1722-dig out/out of[4] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) obtain by diligent searching or research. S: student, researcher. O: facts, information, details, figures. o: library, archives □ 'Where did he get hold of that information?' 'He managed to dig it out of some private library.'

dug-out [adj (B1)] ⇨ entries after duck out/out of.

1724-dig up[1] [B1i pass adj] break and turn over by digging (often to bring under cultivation land used for other purposes, e g pasture). O: potato patch, field; meadow, lawn □ They were using machinery to dig up the front garden. □ When food was in short supply we dug up the tennis-court in order to grow more vegetables.

1725-dig up[2] [B1i pass adj] remove from the ground by digging. O: plant, bulb, tree □ We must dig up those bushes; they're blocking the view.

1726-dig up[3] [B1i pass adj] reveal and remove from the ground, by digging (sth that has been deliberately hidden and/or has remained hidden for some time). S: dog; police; collector, explorer. O: bone, skeleton; firearms; coins, sculpture, pottery, human remains □ Police have dug up the body of his first wife. □ A remarkable collection of terracotta heads has been dug up by archaeologists.

1727-dig up[4] [B1i pass] (informal) discover, reveal, by careful searching, sth which has remained hidden. S: reporter, detective. O: information; story; scandal □ Jeffries is said to have been living in Bristol between 1965 and 1967. See what you can dig up about those years.

1728-digress (from) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) wander away from a topic (when speaking or writing). S: speaker, lecturer, teacher. o: (main) theme, subject, central issue □ As boys we had various ways of making the history master digress from the subject of a lesson.

1729-din in sb's ears [A2] sound, echo, in sb's ears. S: cry, shout; noise, tumult □ The noise of the traffic was still dinning in his ears after he had shut the doors and windows.

1730-din in/into [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] repeatedly urge sb to remember or be guided by; drum in/into (q v). S: teacher, parent, leader. O: lesson, precept, moral; need to work, necessity of honouring obligations. o: class, pupil, child, follower □ 'Of course I remember the code numbers. I've had them dinned in enough, haven't I?' □ The importance of exports had been dinned into manufacturers by successive governments, but to little effect.

1731-dine in [A1] have dinner at home □ 'My meeting has been cancelled, Marion. I shall be dining in after all.'

1732-dine off [A2] make one's dinner of, have as one's dinner. o: soup, melon, fish, asparagus □ When he could afford it, he used to dine off half a chicken and salad, washed down with white wine.

1733-dine out [A1] dine either in a restaurant, or at a friend's house □ 'Don't prepare anything for me tonight, I shall be dining out.'

1734-dine out on [A3] (informal) have dinner at another's expense because of one's achievements or reputation. S: actor, musician, novelist, painter, popular entertainer. o: one West End appearance, his ability to tell funny stories, the growing popularity of her work □ He would go back to town and dine out on the story of how he had freely ventured into the very heart of the industrial provinces and rubbed shoulders with the aborigines. CON

1735-dip into[1] [A2 pass] (informal) take money from. S: government, bank, industry. o: gold reserves, savings, party funds, account □ The bank had to dip into its investments overseas to meet a financial crisis at home. □ Mother had to dip into her holiday money to pay the butcher.

1736-dip into[2] [A2 pass] (informal) make a brief study of. o: author; subject; book, article □ I can't say that I know a great deal about modern painting — I've just dipped into one or two books on the subject.

1737-direct to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) send to, address to (orally or in writing). O: remarks, comments, complaints, thanks. o: manager, officer, bursar □ If you have any complaints to make concerning your food or accommodation, please direct them to the house manager. □ Inquiries about grants or scholarships should be directed to the College Bursar.

1738-direct one's/sb's attention to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) (cause to) think carefully about or look closely at; draw (sb's) attention to (q v). o: problem, question, issue, matter □ The shortage has been ignored for some months, but I am glad to say that the new minister is directing his attention to it. □ A policeman directed the driver's attention to a notice which read 'No Entry'.

1739-direct to/towards [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) spend time and effort doing sth. S: statesman, research worker, manager. O: efforts, energies, endeavours, resources. o: improvement of trade, betterment of the poor; building up defences, finding a new treatment □ While in office he directed all his energies to finding a new solution to the race problem. □ Considerable thought had been directed towards improving the quality of the product.

1740-disabuse of [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) free, rid, sb or oneself of. O: him etc; oneself; the mind. o: idea, notion; prejudice; opinion, attitude □ Once we can disabuse ourselves of the word, all sorts of arguments go by the board.

MFM □ His new followers held many strange views, of which he sought in various ways to disabuse them.

1741 disagree (with) [A2 emph rel] not match, not agree (with). S: statement, account, record; figure, sum. o: earlier, official, more reliable report, story; previous total. A: totally, in all respects, at all points □ I'm afraid that the total I've arrived at disagrees with the one on your bill. □ Simon's estimate of the time it will take disagrees with mine (or: His estimate and mine disagree).

1742 disagree with [A2 rel] (informal) have a bad effect on one's health etc. S: food, meal; fish, wine; heat, humidity □ He's not feeling well: something he ate must have disagreed with him. □ Hot climates disagree with her.

1743 disagree (with) (about/over) [A2 emph rel] not be of the same opinion (as sb) (about sth); express such a difference of view. S: wife, brother; colleague, friend. o: (about/over) method, means, procedure; how to do sth, whether to take part. A: heartily, strongly, emphatically □ The landlord disagreed with his tenants (or: He and they disagreed) over where the new cottages should be built. □ I know you disagreed with me yesterday about the terms of a settlement; can we agree today?

1744 disappear (from sight/view) [A2] no longer be visible. S: ship, aircraft; column, procession □ As we rounded the next bend, we found that the lorry had disappeared completely from view. □ For a while Mick disappeared from sight —reportedly to work for his Finals.

1745 disapprove (of) [A2 pass adj emph rel] (formal) have, express, a low opinion of, not think highly of. S: father; principal, head-teacher; employer. o: (son's) friend; pastime, habit; smoking, keeping late hours; perfume, lipstick; long hair □ Tony shaved off his beard before the interview: he knew of employers who strongly disapproved of facial hair. □ Father is remarkably tolerant: there are few teenage tastes of which he actively disapproves.

1746 discharge (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) allow sb to leave; make sb leave. S: doctor, surgeon; army authorities, medical board; employer. O: patient, casualty; recruit; servant □ She was discharged from the intensive care unit last week and transferred to a general ward. □ Rather than punish men regularly as habitual offenders, the Army may decide to discharge them from service altogether.

1747 discharge (from) (into) [B2 pass emph rel] pass, transfer, from one place to another. O: cargo, freight; oil, coal; corn, rice; gas, electricity. o: (from) ship, hold; container, wagon; gasholder, battery; (into) lighter, barge; lorry; tub, bin □ Firmer action will be taken against companies discharging industrial waste into rivers. □ Grain is discharged from giant holders into long lines of trucks.

1748 disconnect (from) [B2 pass emph rel] separate one thing from another. O: condenser, loudspeaker; engine, coil. o: circuit, (source of) power; wheels, battery □ If you push down the clutch pedal, the engine is disconnected from the transmission. □ Make sure you disconnect *the television (*from the mains supply) before you open up the back.

1749 discourage (from) [B2 pass] try to persuade sb not to do sth; make sb lose interest (in doing sth). O: motorist; climber, explorer; student, pupil. o: driving too fast; venturing too far; doing one's best, achieving all one might □ Try to discourage him from driving back to London tonight. □ We were effectively discouraged from having anything further to do with mathematics by his inept teaching. □ the object is the -ing form of a v.

1750 discriminate (against) [A2 pass emph rel] treat sb differently (and usu less favourably) because of his race, religion etc. S: system, regime; law; police. o: Catholic, Jew; (coloured) immigrant, migrant worker; drug addict; woman □ There is evidence that some employers discriminate against women applicants. □ We're not discriminated against, we're patronized—which is far worse.

1751 discriminate between [A2 emph rel] (formal) because of training, sensitivity etc, be able to judge which of two things is better etc. o: (two) performances, recordings; editions; wines; tobaccos; good and bad; ordinary and superior □ You don't need to be a professional musician to discriminate between two performances of the same work (or: to discriminate one performance from the other). □ Between two such obviously fine instruments I find it hard to discriminate.

1752 discriminate from [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ previous entry.

1753 disembark (from) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] go, put sb, ashore (from). S: [A2] O: [B2] crew, passenger. S: [B2] captain, master. o: ship; liner, tanker □ Troops can be disembarked from ships lying off shore and carried in shore in flat-bottomed craft.

1754 disengage (from) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (formal) (cause to) separate, detach (from an involvement). S: [A2] O: [B2] country, political party; business, firm; army, soldier. o: alliance, pact; association, enterprise; struggle, battle □ De Gaulle was anxious that France should disengage from military dependence on the United States. □ Stephen's parents tended to disengage him from any relationship that would help his growing-up.

1755 disentangle (from) [B2 pass emph rel] separate, free (from a complicated state). O: truth; essential fact, central thread, main point. o: falsehood; garbled tale, complicated account □ Trollope discussed the difficulty that arises in novel-writing of disentangling men and women from their surroundings. SPL □ From this complex pattern of events we can disentangle two important trends.

1756 dish out [B1i pass] (informal) distribute, give out² (q v). S: storekeeper, quartermaster; employer, commander; government. O: tool, weapon, map, clothing; praise, commendation, thanks; medal, 'gong' □ New overalls and helmets were dished out before the party went underground. □ The boss is delighted, he's been all over the works dishing out bonuses and handshakes.

1757 dish it out [B1ii] (informal) inflict punishment; cause pain or distress; hand it/(the) punishment out (q v) □ There he was in the thick of the fight, dishing it out with the best of them. □ I can damage people too. I can dish it out just like

everybody else. FFE

1758-dish up[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] (informal) put into plates, serve. O: meal, supper; stew, vegetables □ I was just about ready to dish up TGLY □ Mother dished the food up straight out of the saucepan.

1759-dish up[2] [B1i pass] (informal) offer, present. S: newspaper, editor; producer, playwright, author. O: concoction, mixture; brand (of humour, entertainment) □ In his latest article Smith dishes up a familiar mixture of reactionary opinions and thinly-disguised personal abuse.

1760-disinclined (for) [pass (B2)] (formal) not (be) in the mood (for), (be) unwilling to undertake. o: real effort, hard work, serious conversation □ Having just eaten a heavy meal, he felt disinclined for any serious work. □ I had been talking all morning; I was disinclined for further argument (or: disinclined to argue any further). □ passive with be, feel, seem.

1761-dislodge (from) [B2 pass emph rel] move sth or sb from a place where it or he is fixed. S: gale, gust; attack, thrust. O: slate, tile; enemy. o: roof; position, nest □ A careless movement can dislodge sharp pieces of stone from the rock-face. □ Artillery will not dislodge the enemy from his well-entrenched positions.

1762-dismiss (from) [B2 pass emph rel] take away sb's employment. O: official, servant. o: office, post; employment, service □ No lecturer may be dismissed from his post for misconduct without a proper inquiry being held. □ He'd had teaching jobs abroad; from each of them he was dismissed.

1763-dismiss (from one's mind/thoughts) [B2 pass] not think any further about sth. O: problem, difficulty; matter, question; doubt, anxiety □ 'I'm sure I hurt their feelings.' 'Nonsense. Don't let it bother you, dismiss it from your mind.' □ These suspicions weren't easily dismissed from his thoughts. After all, Janet had been seen out with Carter on two occasions.

1764-dispense with[1] [A2 pass] (manage to) exist, function, without; do without[1] (q v). S: country, industry. o: assistance, aid, co-operation, services □ You may dislike having to depend upon him, but it will be some time before you can dispense with his support altogether. □ The patient's recovery has reached a point where the doctor's services can be dispensed with. □ usu with can/could.

1765-dispense with[2] [A2 pass] suspend, set aside[3] (q v). o: formality, protocol, procedural rules □ I suggest we dispense with formality and proceed with our discussions on an informal basis.

1766-dispose of[1] [A2 pass] settle, resolve. o: objection, argument, criticism; difficulty, problem □ The problem of who to select as his successor was quickly disposed of. □ The statement does not, however, dispose of the doubts about the Government's earlier posture. OBS

1767-dispose of[2] [A2 pass] get rid of, destroy. o: political opponent, rival contender; wife; dead body, incriminating evidence; rubbish □ Most of the opposition had been disposed of; only a few remained alive and out of prison.

1768-dispose of[3] [A2 pass] sell. o: house, boat, land, possessions □ When the crash came, the family was forced to dispose of all its possessions. □ The silver was disposed of to an antique dealer.

1769-dispose of[4] [A2] possess, have at one's disposal. S: army, commander; industry, economy. o: forces, reserves; guns, men; resources □ Between them Rokossovski and Vatutin (two Russian generals) disposed of enough strength to hold off the German attack. B □ The Russian artillery disposed of over 20 000 pieces, of which over 6 000 were 76-mm anti-tank guns. B

1770-well etc disposed towards [pass (B2)] (feel) sympathetic etc towards, (be) inclined to speak well etc of. A: △ well, kindly, favourably; ill, unkindly, unfavourably. o: regime; policy, idea; change, innovation □ Students seem well disposed towards the idea of moving their accommodation nearer the University site. □ The middle classes are favourably disposed towards the new military junta. □ passive with be, feel, seem; an adv is present.

1771-dispossess (of) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) take away property etc from sb (often in order to distribute it to others). S: workers' government, popular regime. O: landowner, industrialist, foreign investor. o: property; land, factory □ The upper classes may be dispossessed of their special powers and privileges by a slow process of evolution.

1772-dissociate from [B2 emph rel] (formal) say that one (or sb) opposes or is in disagreement with. O: oneself; board, panel, committee. o: opinion, view; remark, statement □ The chairman dissociated himself and his colleagues from the views expressed in the report. □ The Archbishop called on other churches to dissociate themselves from the Dutch Reformed Church. SC distinguish from[1] [B2 pass] ⇨ previous entry.

1773-dissuade (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) persuade sb not to follow a course of action. O: child, pupil; follower, member. o: course, undertaking; fighting, rebelling; leaving, resigning □ The police finally dissuaded the marchers from entering Whitehall. □ John allowed himself to be dissuaded from taking up a post overseas.

1774-distinguish between [A2 emph rel] (be able to) tell the difference between. o: good and evil, truth and falsehood, one species and another □ He can't distinguish between a genuine antique and a reproduction (or: distinguish one from the other). □ He could never distinguish with certainty between the Scandinavian colours. OMIH □ with can/could.

1776-distinguish from[2] [B2 pass emph rel] be a mark of the difference between persons or things. S: language, higher intelligence; organizing ability, urban culture. O: species, mankind; race, community. o: non-human animals; most others, any other □ Superior intelligence and the use of language distinguish man from the other primates. □ He was not easily distinguished from the general run of people we get here — until he began to talk.

1777-distract (from) [B2 pass emph rel] draw sb's attention etc away from. S: noise; explosion, report; visitor, caller; telephone, television. O: △ sb's thoughts, mind; sb's attention. o: work, reading; what one is saying; anxieties, fears □ His thoughts were distracted from this painful topic by the sudden arrival of a neighbour. □ He needs to concentrate. Don't distract his mind from his studies.*

1778-distribute (among/to) [B2 pass emph rel] give, hand out[1] (q v), sth among/to a number of people. O: leaflets, brochures; tools, weapons; food, warm clothing. o: crowd, audience; workers, soldiers; refugees □ Duplicated notes were distributed to the class at the end of each lecture. □ Rice was distributed among the children thronging around the lorry.

1779-dive in [A1] (informal) begin eating hungrily, attack one's food; dig in/into[2] (q v), tuck in/into[2] (q v) □ 'Don't wait for us to join you at the table: just dive in.' □ 'Find a seat, then you can dive in. You want milk, don't you?' YA

1780-dive in/into [A1 emph A2 emph rel] plunge headfirst into water □ 'You dive in first and test the temperature of the water!' □ In he dived and emerged spluttering half-way across the pool.*

1781-dive (one's hand) into [A2 B2] (informal) thrust one's hand quickly into. o: pocket, purse, handbag □ He dived into his jacket pocket to make sure his wallet was still there. □ Someone dived his hand into my handbag and made off with my purse.

1782-diverge (from) [A2 emph rel] (formal) move away (from), become more and more separate (from); deviate (from) (q v). S: path, course; views, policy; development, growth, career. o: that/those of one's colleagues, associates □ I find that his thinking diverges increasingly from what is officially taught and recognized. □ From that point onwards his career diverged from Philip's (or: *his career and Philip's diverged).

1783-divert (from) [B2 pass emph rel] turn aside from one course or purpose to another. O: traffic, shipping; cargo, produce; worker, scholar. o: route, destination; use, purpose; aim, objective □ The country's leaders were not prepared to allow such large stocks of timber to be diverted from military uses. □ Police have diverted all south-bound traffic from the motorway for a ten-mile stretch near Nottingham. □ He had fixed on his target for the next six months. From this nobody and nothing would divert him.

1784-divest of [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) remove sth (as one would a garment) from sb or sth; take away from sb, as a mark of disgrace, sth granted or conferred earlier. O: himself; scene, building; officer, public servant. o: mark, sign, trace; charm, mystery; honour, title □ George Orwell could never fully divest himself, as he tried to do while living amongst working-class people, of his upper-class identity. □ She was beautiful by candlelight. In the cold light of day she was divested of the unusual attractiveness which had made him choose her rather than any of the others. □ At a formal ceremony the officers were divested of their badges of rank, medals and decorations. This was the visible sign that the right to command had been taken from them.

1785-divide among/between [B2 pass emph rel] share sth among/between people. S: brothers, associates, criminals. O: inheritance, booty, proceeds, profits. o: themselves; family, shareholders □ How many children has the legacy to be divided between? □ The members of the investment club divide their profits equally among themselves.

1786-divide between [B2 pass] give, allow, about the same length of time to. O: time; day, afternoon; holiday. o: golf and gardening, swimming and sunbathing, reading and writing □ He usually divides his holidays between the beach and the casino. □ His day is evenly divided between work and relaxation.

1787-divide from[1] [B2 pass emph rel] keep separate from, form a barrier between. S: railway, Maginot Line, fence, path. O: poorer area, Germany, his land, airfield. o: fashionable district, France, my farm, surrounding ploughland □ His study is divided from the living-room by a thin wooden partition. □ The Red Sea divides Africa from Asia.

1788-divide from[2] [B2 pass rel] make separate from, (actively) set apart from. S: law, policy; resettlement, migration. O: mother, husband; tribe. o: children, wife; land □ God divided the sea from the land. □ This test will divide the sheep from the goats.

1789-do (as/for) [A2] serve in place of, as a substitute for. S: plank, stick, saucer, blanket. o: shelf, weapon, ashtray, tent □ 'Don't throw those bricks away. They'll do as supports for my bookshelves.' □ These pieces of scrap timber will do perfectly well for the frame of the bed, but we'll need a proper spring mattress. □ 'What about this bale of straw — that'll do as a pillow, won't it?'

1790-do away with[1] [A3 pass adj] (informal) abolish, get rid of. S: government, ministry, board. o: restriction, rule; institution; tax, surcharge, penalty □ The death penalty has been done away with in many European countries. □ You can't do away with the House of Lords.

1791-do away with[2] [A3 pass] (informal) kill, destroy. o: oneself; cat, horse □ Hymns of the sort that made you want to do away with yourself had been sung. TGLY □ The horse broke a leg at the first jump and had to be done away with.

1792-do well by [A2] (informal) treat sb kindly or generously. S: guardian, benefactor; employer, industry. o: dependant; employee □ A humane society always does well by its old people. □ She did very well by me at first, just like you, mam, but then she grew tired of it all. LLDR ⇨ entry after doll (oneself) up.

1793-do down [B1i pass] (informal) try to make sb or sth appear small, mean, unimportant etc. O: parent, class, country □ They're all so incredibly catty and dishonest, all trying to impress each other or do each other down the whole time. ILIH □ 'I hope I'm not doing down the national Exchequer,' I said anxiously. DIL do (for) ⇨ do (as/for).

1795-do for[1] [A2] (informal) keep house for, clean and keep a house tidy for □ They can't afford domestic help, so they have to do for themselves. □ Mrs Bloggs has done for us for over twenty years.

1796-do for[2] [A2] (informal) manage to obtain. o: supplies, fresh meat, water □ How will the crews do for drinking water when they're afloat in an open raft? □ What shall we do for fresh fruit while the dock strike is on? □ only in questions and after what and how. ⇨ do badly/well for.

1797-do for[3] [A2 pass] (informal) act in such a way that sb is ruined, killed etc. S: (incompetent) doctor, surgeon; general; minister, government. o: patient, case; troops; industry, agriculture □ There were heavy casualties on the first day. The general nearly did for the lot of us with his plan of attack. □ The bank won't come to the rescue for ever — we'll be done for in six months. □ usu passive; no continuous tenses.

1798- do badly/well for [A2] (informal) have a bad/good supply of, obtain a small/large number of. o: tips, gratuities, luxuries; duty-free cigarettes, cheap drink; awards, scholarships □ The staff at that hotel did very well for tips and presents. □ The independent schools do well for open scholarships at the older universities. □ We didn't do too badly for coal during the miners' strike; we'd managed to stock up. ⇨ do for [2].

1799- do well for oneself [A2] (informal) become prosperous; improve one's social position. S: tradesman, salesman; doctor, solicitor □ Now's the time when accountants can do well for themselves. RATT □ Frank was doing very well for himself. Import-export was booming. TO

1800- do in [B1i pass] (slang) kill sb or oneself □ These were professional killers who 'did in' John Regan, and they knew more about fingerprints and ballistics than I did. CON □ I was feeling black and ready to do myself in. LLDR done in [pass (B1)] ⇨ entry before doomed to.

1802- do out[1] [B1i pass] (informal) make clean by scrubbing, sweeping etc; clean out (q v). S: cleaner, charwoman, housewife; groom. O: hall, room; yard, stable □ She did out the bathroom with lots of soap and hot water. □ The yard needs to be done out thoroughly (or: needs a thorough doing-out) with a stiff broom.

1803- do out[2] [B1i pass] (informal) make tidy or orderly (by removing scrap paper, unwanted clothes etc). S: clerk, student, child, housewife. O: desk, cupboard, wardrobe, drawer □ 'You must do out your desk drawer: it's full of waste paper and unanswered letters.' □ It's time the children's toy cupboard was done out. It looks a mess and they can never find anything they want.

1804- do out of [B2 pass] (informal) prevent sb from having sth (often by trickery or neglect). S: employer, landlord; colleague, rival. o: pension, paid holiday; grant, allowance; job, promotion □ Of course I'm furious. He just did me out of a trip to the West Indies this summer. □ But I was not to be done out of the truth so easily. 'Are these illnesses curable?' I persisted. THH

1805- do over[1] [B1ii pass] clean or redecorate (all the surfaces of). O: house, place; bathroom; cooker □ 'Haven't you noticed how the paintwork is chipped and flaking? It really needs doing over (or: to be done over).' □ 'The kitchen's always so messy after we've had guests. Give me a hand to do it over, will you?'

1806- do over[2] [B1ii pass] (slang) give sb a severe and thorough beating; beat up (q v). S: gang; raider, bandit. O: shopkeeper, bank clerk; (innocent) bystander □ Poor old Mike, he got done over by a gang of roughs after a football match.

1807- do (ample/full) justice to [B2 pass emph rel] give to sb or sth the care, attention, fair treatment etc, that he or it deserves. S: report, account; observer, critic; guest, diner. o: achievement, character; performance; meal □ She felt that her brother's works did not do justice to the depth and courage of his humanity. HAA □ The fact that we had eaten an hour earlier prevented us from doing full justice to her cooking.

1808- do to death [B2 pass] kill. O: prisoner, hostage □ The few guards soon lost their nerve and simply did their charges to death in some wood or quarry. B

1809- do something to [B2] (informal) excite, stir sb's feelings; concern, disturb. S: expression, voice, figure; song, performer □ (popular song) You do something to me! □ But I can hear her coughing. That little cough does something to me. AITC

1810- do up[1] [B1i pass adj] renovate, modernize, (by making repairs, installing modern amenities); redecorate. S: property developer, owner, tenant; decorator, builder. O: derelict cottage, old farmhouse, mews; kitchen, bathroom, front of house □ I did all this (indicating the cottage) for Mr Harrington. A very clever boy I was recommended to, did it up for us. FFE □ We're getting a professional decorator to do the boys' bedroom up.

1811- do up[2] [B1i pass] make into a bundle or parcel. O: washing, books, magazines, presents, firewood □ I must do up some old clothes for the church jumble sale. □ She did her hair up in a bun to keep it out of her eyes. □ Under her arm was what looked like a framed picture done up in brown paper. TGLY

1812- do up[3] [B1i pass] fasten. O: zip(-fastener), shoelaces, buttons, hooks and eyes; dress, coat □ *'*Do your flies up.' CSWB □ He was in his trousers and shirt, doing up his braces. TC

1813- do up[4] [A1] be fastened, may be fastened. S: suit, coat, dress, skirt □ The skirt does up at the back. □ 'How does this jacket do up*?'* □ usu with simple tenses.

1814- do with [A2] (informal) need, want. o: drink, meal, cigarette; break, holiday □ 'I could do with two weeks away from the children and the washing-up.' □ 'You can both stop leaning against the wall: I can do with a helping hand.' □ This car could do with a good polish. □ occurs only with can/could.

1815- do business (with) [B2 emph rel] trade (with), deal with [1] (q v). o: manufacturer, supplier; store, shop □ One likes to do business with a British firm. One knows where one is. OMIH □ They aren't good people to do business with. They keep you waiting for deliveries.

1816- what do with[1] [B2] where did you etc put, lose, hide, sth. o: handbag, keys, papers □ 'Miss Smith, what have you done with the United Cement Holdings file?' □ *'*What did the porter do with our luggage?' □ usu perfect and simple past tenses.

1817- what do with[2] [B2 pass] how shall we etc handle, treat, use. o: complaint, inquiry; delegation, visitor; prisoner, delinquent □ What on earth are we going to do with all these young people drifting in from the countryside? □ What do the Government propose to do with all the surplus stores left over after the war? □ What's to be done with all this stuff in the attic? □ usu with shall, will, be going to etc.

1818- what (to) do with oneself [B2] how should one occupy one's time, give meaning to one's existence □ *'*What do the children do with themselves during the holidays?' □ Now that her husband's dead, she doesn't know what to do with herself. □ what do with etc may form the Object of a larger sentence (as in the second example).

1819-do without[1] [A1 A2 pass] exist, function, manage, without: go without (q v), dispense with (q v). o: services, help; food, warmth □ Most householders seemed to have decided to do without professional care for their windows. HD □ You must buy sweets with your own pocket-money or do without.

1820-do without[2] [A2] (informal) not require, and resent having. o: interference, unkind comment, criticism, innuendo □ We can certainly do without John poking his nose in every five minutes. □ 'I can do without that kind of advice, thank you.' □ with can/could only.

1821-dole out [B1i pass adj] distribute, serve (sometimes with the suggestion that the portions are small and grudgingly given). O: soup, bread; money □ Receipts from the mails go straight to the US Treasury, which then doles out only whatever sum is authorized by the purse-holders on Capitol Hill. OBS □ If this is the kind of thing you and your pals dole out for the proletariat and its poor, grubby artists, you had better think again. EGD

1822-doll (oneself) up [B1ii pass adj] (informal) dress smartly, as for a special occasion (sometimes with the suggestion that the dressing-up is extreme or vulgar) □ She could put on her Number Ones (= best uniform) and doll herself up smartly to go home and cut a dash. RFW □ She was dolled up without being over-dressed. CON □ 'P'raps you think I'm not good enough to meet your bleedin' dolled-up friends.' PE

1823-hard done by [pass (A2)] (informal) (be) unfairly treated. S: employee, son, wife □ He always claimed to be hard done by. In fact, he'd always been very generously treated by his employers. □ If he's not getting more than the minimum gratuity after so many years in their service he's being hard done by. ⇨ do well by.

1824-done in [pass (B1)] (informal) (be) exhausted, (be) dog tired. A: thoroughly, completely, a bit, rather □ 'What's the matter, Simmonds? You look all done in.' ITAJ □ ASTON: Any time you want to... get into bed, just get in. DAVIES: I think I will. I'm a bit... a bit done in. TC □ passive with be, feel, look, seem.

1825-doomed to [pass (B2)] (be) bound to meet or suffer. S: scheme, plan, enterprise. o: disappointment, failure, frustration, inefficacy □ His plan to drive a trunk-road across the central desert was doomed to failure. □ This species was doomed to extinction (or: doomed to become extinct). □ Every embodied spirit is doomed to suffering (or: doomed to suffer). DOP

1826-doss down [A1 nom] (slang) get into a make-shift bed (e g of straw or sacking, and often on the ground); get into a rough or simple bed in a doss-house. S: tramp, down-and-out □ In Paris tramps often doss down under the bridges or on the gratings of ventilator shafts. □ The vicar gives them a cup of soup and lets them doss down in the crypt. □ I was annoyed to find somebody having a doss-down (or: a doss down) on my favourite park bench.

1827-dote on/upon [A2 pass adj emph rel] show much, or too much, affection for; centre one's affections on. S: mother, husband. o: children, wife □ They dote on the younger child, and the older one's naturally very envious. □ I'm afraid he dotes upon his wife and she's not above abusing his affection. □ Conversation centred on a much doted-upon first baby.

1828-double back[1] [A1] quickly turn around and retrace one's footsteps (to elude pursuers). S: fox, wolf; bandit, escaped convict □ Half-way through the wood we lost the fox; it must have doubled back on its tracks.

1829-double back[2] [B1i pass adj] fold back (so as to form a double thickness or layer). O: sheet, blanket, coverlet; paper □ When making a bed you double the top edge of the sheet back over the blankets.

1830-double up[1] [A1] bend, fold up; be convulsed (with). S: body; he etc. A: in agony, with pain, with laughter □ This made him double up with laughter. BB □ Funny thing is that when you say it on the stage half the audience double up just like Fred Zombie himself. JFTR

1831-double up[2] [B1ii pass] cause to bend in the middle. S: pain, attack, blow; comedian, joke, performance. O: body; audience, onlooker □ Someone struck him hard in the stomach; the pain doubled him up. □ The bystanders were doubled up with mirth.

1832-double up (on) [A1 A3] (informal) form pairs in order to share sth. o: space; room, bed; food, ration □ There's enough corned beef to go round, but you'll have to double up on the baked beans. □ 'We haven't any single rooms left. Do you mind doubling up?'

1833-doubt of [A2 pass] (formal) have doubts about, be pessimistic about. o: success, outcome, result □ The enterprise had begun badly and we doubted of its further progress.

1834-dovetail (into) [A2 rel] fit snugly (into); conform harmoniously (with). S: panel, cross-piece; idea, proposal. o: frame, upright; scheme, design □ The sides of the cigar-box dovetail beautifully (into each other). □ 'They're interesting suggestions but they don't quite dovetail into the rest of the plan, do they?'

1835-doze off [A1] fall into a light sleep; drop off[2] (q v), nod off (q v) □ After a substantial lunch, he dozed off in his armchair. □ He waited, hoping desperately that he would not doze off. T

1836-drag down [B1i pass] bring to a low physical or moral level. S: illness; influenza, malaria; dissolute life; drudgery, routine □ She can't stand the intense heat — it really drags her down.

1837-drag in/into[1] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) make sb take part in an activity or be the subject of discussion etc against his will, or against the will of other interested persons. O: him etc; (his) wife, family; name. o: helping, working; argument, debate, discussion; controversy □ 'No, John, I won't be dragged into making polite conversation with the wives while you have one of your interminable meetings with the men.' □ 'You're free to write what you like about me. But you mustn't drag my wife's name in. Keep her out of it.'

1838-drag in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) constantly (and tiresomely) introduce a particular topic into the conversation etc. O: pet topic, favourite theory; sport, money. o: discussion, debate, argument □ Why must he keep dragging in references to his medals? We know he's a war hero, but must he keep reminding us? □ There are some people about with only one thought in their heads: they must drag sex into every conversation.

1839-drag off (to) [B1ii pass B3 pass] (informal) lead sb against his will (to). o: concert, film, play; meeting, service □ He will drag her off to parties, and she spends the whole evening trying to look inconspicuous in some corner.

1840-drag on [A1 emph] continue endlessly and tediously. S: quarrel, war, unhappy marriage; speech, concert □ We could take no chances; if we failed in Normandy the war might drag on for years. MFM □ The partnership might have dragged on indefinitely if Peter hadn't decided on a clean break.

1841-drag out [B1i pass adj] make sth longer than it need be, thus causing tedium. O: meeting; discussion, debate; performance □ 'Do you think we might end the discussion there? I see no point in dragging it out any further.'

1842-drag through the mire/mud [B2 pass] disgrace sb or sth by shameful behaviour. O: name; family, school; reputation □ The wretched boy was solemnly accused of dragging the honoured name of the school through the mud, when what he needed (and probably expected) was a good hiding.

1843-drag up[1] [B1i pass adj] (informal) allow a child to grow up without proper discipline or training. O: child, ward □ Their children are allowed to roam the streets and come and go as they please—they're simply being dragged up any old how. □ usu passive.

1844-drag up[2] [B1i pass] (informal) deliberately recall or revive an event (usu unpleasant) from the past which is generally forgotten (and should perhaps have remained forgotten); rake up (q v). S: reporter, gossip columnist. O: event, episode, incident □ What made you drag up that particular episode in my murky past? □ Some newspapers haven't anything better to do than to drag up the past indiscretions of well-known public figures.

1845-dragoon into [B2 pass rel] force, bully, into doing sth. S: father, schoolmaster, sergeant, salesman. o: taking up the law, doing Latin, accepting promotion, buying a second car □ He was dragooned into joining the police by his father. Left free to choose for himself he would have worked in a bank. □ Voices from loudspeakers dragoon housewives into buying unwanted soap powders. □ the object is the -ing form of a v.

1846-drain away[1] [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) flow away down a waste-pipe, or drain. S: [A1] O: [B1] (dirty) water, slops, dregs □ The bath is fitted with double filters through which the waste could drain away. WI

1847-drain away[2] [A1] decrease, disappear, gradually. S: fear, anxiety; anger, fury; energy □ Robert yawned. His tension seemed to have drained away, leaving him, if anything, rather bored with the discussion. CON

1848-drain from [B2 pass emph rel] gradually reduce the volume or strength of. S: demand, pressure; (economic) expansion, development; exertion, effort. O: resources, talent; strength, energy. o: country, area; body □ You'd be moving into a department from which the liveliest minds have been drained (or: a department which has been drained of its liveliest minds). □ The very will to survive had been drained from him (or: He had been drained of the very will etc).

drain of [B2 pass] ⇨ previous entry.

1850-drain off [B1i pass] draw liquid from sth until it is empty. O: water; petrol, oil; reservoir, tank □ A nurse lanced the boil to drain off the pus. □ The main cylinder will have to be drained off before I can change the fittings.

1851-drape over [B2 pass emph rel] hang a cloth etc in folds over sth. O: bedspread, counterpane; flag, bunting. o: bed, couch, table; monument □ The Union Jack was draped over the bier (or: The bier was draped with the Union Jack).

drape with [B2 pass rel] ⇨ previous entry.

1853-draw ahead/ahead of [A1 A2] move forward or in front; progress beyond, get ahead/ahead of (q v). S: car, bicycle, runner; competitor, trading concern. o: rest of the field, nearest rival □ A policeman on a motor-cycle came alongside to give us a message. Then he drew ahead. □ We have drawn ahead of our nearest continental competitors in this field.

1854-draw alongside [A1 A2] (of sb approaching from behind) stop, or move along, at the side of. S: car, motor-cycle □ A police patrol car drew alongside and signalled for me to stop.

1855-draw apart (from) [A1 A3 emph rel] move away (from); become emotionally separate (from). S: ship, vehicle; (political) group, movement; lover, friend □ A small group was seen to draw apart from the others and move off into the forest. □ There are signs that he is drawing apart in his political sympathies. □ I don't share your pessimism about Peter and Hilary. Far from drawing apart, I think they're coming closer together.

1856-draw aside[1] [B1i pass] pull to one side. O: curtain, blanket, covering □ An inquisitive neighbour drew the lace curtain aside to see what was going on. □ The sheet was drawn aside to reveal the patient's ribs.

1857-draw aside[2] [B1i pass] take sb on one side (to talk to him quietly or confidentially). S: chairman, colleague; umpire, referee □ The visiting captain drew the fast bowler aside to warn him about throwing. □ The manager drew me aside and muttered something about security.

1858-draw the line (at) [B2 pass emph rel] not go beyond a certain limit in one's conduct. o: dishonesty, deceit; backbiting, malicious gossip; cheating one's friends, being unfaithful to one's wife □ I may be an attractive woman, but I draw the line at cradle snatching. DBM □ Stephens liked to think that he was a tolerant man, but he wouldn't have that couple in his house again. The line had to be drawn somewhere (or: at some point).

1859-draw away/back (from) [A1 A3 emph rel] withdraw, move away (from). A: in distaste, in horror; shyly, suspiciously □ 'Why don't you kiss me? Come.' Prissie's body stiffened. She tried to draw away from his embrace. DC □ It seemed that he drew back for a moment, alarmed, as if the scrappy, grubby piece of paper frightened him. DC

1860-drawback [nom (A1 B1)] disadvantage, snag, pitfall. adj: serious, considerable, unfortunate, irritating □ I don't see any serious drawbacks in the plan as you've outlined it. □ Your design has two important drawbacks*: the wheel-base is too narrow and too much of the car's weight is forward of the front wheels.*

1861-draw down [B1i pass] lower, pull down[1] (q v). O: blind, curtain; hat, veil, peak □ He drew the blinds down to keep out the direct rays of the sun. □ The peak was well drawn down over the batsman's eyes.

1862-draw down (upon one's head) [B1iii pass B3 pass] by one's conduct, attract sb's anger etc. S: remark, comment; action, step. O: △ sb's anger, fury; the wrath of God, scorn, opprobrium □ 'Don't prop your feet on the Old Man's desk. You'll draw down the wrath of God upon your head*.'*

draw from[1] [B2 pass rel] ⇨ draw out/out of[4].

1864-draw from[2] [B2 pass emph rel] obtain from, derive from[1] (q v). O: comfort, consolation, relief. o: thought, realization, knowledge □ I don't see why I should draw comfort from the fact that I'm paid in ten days' time. How do I manage for food in the meantime?

1865-draw in [A1] (of the hours of daylight as summer changes to autumn) become shorter. S: △ the days, the evenings □ The days are beginning to draw in*: I shan't get so much gardening done in the evenings.*

1866-draw one's horns in [B1i pass] become defensive or cautious. S: trader, investor; spending public, customer □ The building societies have drawn in their horns following the increase in Bank Rate. You won't be able to get your mortgage now. □ If Malouel was going to draw in his horns he would need every penny he could lay his hands on. US

1867-draw in/into[1] [A1 A2] arrive (at); pull in/into[1] (q v). S: train; express, Pullman, Inter City. o: station; platform □ As I reached the ticket barrier the London train was just drawing in*.* □ The 'Cornish Riviera' drew into Plymouth a few minutes ahead of schedule.

1868-draw in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] lead sb gradually but firmly to take part in sth. o: involvement; struggle, battle; debate, discussion; fighting, arguing □ Originally, the dispute was confined to the paint shop, but little by little other groups of workers were drawn in*.* □ The armoured spearheads were not to be drawn into battle with the men they surrounded: the task of mopping up was to be left to the infantry. □ The argument into which he had allowed himself to be drawn followed the usual irritating pattern.

1869-draw off[1] [A1] withdraw, retreat. S: enemy; troops, forces □ The enemy drew off as soon as we made a show of superior strength.

1870-draw off[2] [B1i pass adj] remove liquid from. S: publican, wine-merchant; doctor, nurse. O: wine, beer; pint, litre; fluid, matter, blood □ The pressure inside one of the casks was building up and some liquid had to be drawn off*.* □ Doctors were able to draw off the matter which had collected near the wound.

1871-draw off[3] [B1i pass adj] remove, pull off[1] (q v). O: sock, stocking, glove (and other close fitting garments) □ John drew his socks off and bathed his sore feet.

1872-draw on[1] [B1i pass adj] don (clothing), pull on[2] (q v). O: sock, stocking, glove (and other close-fitting garments) □ He drew on his gloves, picked up his umbrella and went out.

1873-draw on[2] [B1ii pass] make sb continue steadily forward on his course. S: thought, prospect; greed, curiosity, ambition □ He was drawn on by the hope of improving his own social position and that of his family. □ The feeling that he was near his destination drew him on*.*

1874-draw on[3] [A1] approach, come near; come on[7] (q v). S: △ night, winter □ As winter drew on we felt the lack of an efficient way of heating the house.

1875-draw on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] use, exploit. o: experience, knowledge, wisdom, skill □ Your expert knowledge will be drawn upon increasingly as negotiations proceed. □ He draws on his childhood memories for the material of most of his stories. □ It is on these skills that the Weizmann Institute has drawn*.* NS

1876-draw out[1] [B1ii pass] help to feel less shy or reserved; bring out[2] (q v) □ From his mother, Eric had learnt the wonderful gift of drawing people out*.* HAA □ He had chattered away to her in German; he had drawn her out*, he had made her laugh.* PW

1877-draw out[2] [A1] (of the hours of daylight as summer approaches) become longer. S: △ the days, the evenings □ Thank goodness the days are drawing out again, though. I'm so sick of the winter. EGD

1878-long drawn out [pass adj (B1)] (be) unduly or tiresomely prolonged or protracted. S: fight, argument, debate, discussion □ The debate over the residual powers of the States has been long drawn out*.* □ There followed a long-drawn-out legal tussle over the compensation to be paid to the bereaved families. □ adj form has two hyphens.

1879-draw out/out of[1] [B1i pass B2 pass rel] produce (from an inner space). O: pistol, knife, wallet, handkerchief, pipe. o: holster, belt; pocket, handbag □ He opened his safe and drew out a petty-cash box.

1880-draw out/out of[2] [B1i pass B2 pass rel] remove, extract (from); pull out[1] (q v). O: cork, thorn, nail, stump (of a tooth). o: bottle, toe, plank, gum □ He tore his hand trying to draw a nail out of a piece of wood. □ The stump was drawn out quite painlessly.

1881-draw out/out of[3] [B1i pass B2 pass rel] (banking) withdraw (from). O: sum, amount, balance, savings. o: bank, post-office; current account □ He was wondering how much of his fifty pounds Robert had drawn out to squander on wine, women and drugs. CON

1882-draw out/out of[4] [B1i pass B2 pass rel] elicit, persuade sb to tell or offer. O: information, story, episode; confession, admission □ They managed to draw out of him (or: from him) a full account of his escape from captivity. □ The story was drawn out by slow degrees.

1883-draw out/out of[5] [A1 A2] leave, depart (from); pull out/out of[1] (q v). S: train; the 5.30, the night express. o: station; King's Cross, Waterloo □ The last train to Leeds was drawing out as I ran into the station.

1884-draw a veil over [B2 pass emph rel] conceal unpleasant etc events when telling a story, so as not to offend or upset the hearer or reader. S: narrator, author; history. o: events, proceedings; (undignified) scene, (angry) exchange □ Under- standably, a veil was drawn over the reactions of the villagers as they returned to their devastated houses. □ Over the events taking place in the bedroom the censor drew a discreet veil.*

1885- draw (sb's) attention to [B2 pass emph rel] make sb notice, or be aware of. o: oneself; case, situation; discrepancy, anomaly □ 'You talk about this bird Reilly drawing attention to himself — but weren't you captain of the team?' HD □ A headline on the front page draws attention to the fuller story inside. CON □ Mr Woodburn's attention was drawn to this question by visiting French MPs.* SC

1886- draw to a close [A2] finish, reach its end. S: evening, weekend; holiday, visit; (period of) service, office; life □ My stay in Bafut eventually drew to a close. BB □ The long day of work which had been their lives was drawing to a close. UL

1887- draw to/towards [B2 pass] by force of personality etc, attract people to oneself. S: charm, warmth (of manner); beauty, good looks □ He had a rather austere manner which kept some people at a distance. Yet many were drawn to him by his lack of artifice and his fondness for plain speaking. □ Those eyes of hers draw many poor victims towards their doom!

1888- draw up[1] [A1] stop, come to a halt. S: car, taxi, carriage □ One day we drew up on the quay-side at Dunkirk. BM □ A taxi drew up in front of the house.

1889- draw up[2] [B1i pass] bring near to, place close against. O: chair, sofa, table □ The table was drawn up against the wall. □ Irma made her sit down in the easy chair and drew up the other. PW

1890- draw up[3] [B1i pass] place or arrange (close together in lines). S: officer, NCO. O: soldier, competitor, vehicle. A: in three ranks, in revue order; on the square □ 10 000 men or more were drawn up in a hollow square and I first spoke individually to the unit commanders. MFM □ The cars had to be drawn up close together in a dead straight line to facilitate loading. HD □ often passive.

1891- draw up[4] [B1i pass adj] prepare, draft, compose. S: committee, board; solicitor, attorney. O: agreement, treaty, report, contract □ A new arrangement was drawn up. NM □ The society have drawn up a similar list of six conditions. T □ He instructed a new will to be drawn up. □ You'll find it's a carefully drawn-up document.

1892- draw oneself up [B1ii] straighten oneself (often in a solemn, formal or pompous way) □ When I apologized for the mess in his car, he drew himself up, looked me in the face, and said: 'Sir, it's an honour.' MFM □ Robert's manner changed in an instant. He drew himself up portentously, walked stiff-legged over to the table, and sat down. DC

1893- draw up sharp/sharply [B1il pass] make sb stop abruptly; cause to pause and consider or reflect. S: remark, comment, reflection □ A noisy interruption from the back of the hall drew the speaker up sharp. □ Drawn up sharply by the second mention of the word milord that day, Angela Snow had no time to make any sort of comment.* BFA □ The absence of all the familiar landmarks drew me up sharp.

1894- draw oneself up to one's full height [B3] strike a dignified or important attitude □ The teacher had put up with quite enough indiscipline. He drew himself up to his full height and thundered at the class. □ Drawing herself up to her full height, she swept from the room.*

1895- long drawn out [pass adj (B1)] ▷entry after[1] draw out[2].

1896- not dream of [A2 pass] (informal) not, on any account, do sth, not conceive of doing sth. o: interfering, intervening; arguing, opposing; permitting □ At this age (fifteen) no self-respecting middle-class parent would dream of allowing his own children to leave school.* OBS □ I wouldn't dream of insisting on your taking a picture against your will. MFM □ with could/would; the object is the -ing form of a v.

1897- dream up [B1i pass] (informal) devise; create (esp sth wildly fanciful, foolish etc). O: scheme, project; character, plot, situation □ Everything has worked out wonderfully. This is better than anything we ever dreamed up in Earls Court Road. UTN □ For his first play, Charles Hamblett has dreamed up a seedy bunch of riff-raff — drunks, lay-abouts, morons. DM □ Trust you to dream up a script in which the hero — that's me — gets shot in the first act.

1898- dredge up[1] [B1i pass adj] raise from the bottom of the sea, or the bed of a river, by dredging. O: silt, sand, mud; rubbish □ The wreckage of a wooden ship was dredged up from the harbour bottom.

1899- dredge up[2] [B1i pass adj] recall to the conscious mind some event, not necessarily unpleasant, which has been long forgotten. O: story, incident; moment □ His grandfather was a fine raconteur, dredging up quite effortlessly, and with a great wealth of detail, scenes and incidents from his early life.

1900- dress down [B1il pass] (informal) reprimand, admonish; tell off (for) (q v). S: father, foreman, officer □ He got up and stood over him, arms akimbo like a caricaturist's washerwoman dressing someone down. ASA □ The force of his personality was so blasting that for a moment he had me feeling that I was in for a dressing-down myself. CON □ often occurs in the nom form dressing-down.

1901- dress up[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] put on formal clothes, as for a party, ceremony etc; (esp of children) put on clothes normally worn by another person, or at another period □ There's an official reception at the High Commissioner's next week. It will mean dressing up. □ Children often enjoy dressing up in their parents' clothes. □ Mary dressed up in Elizabethan costume for the annual Fancy-Dress Ball.

1902- dress up[2] [B1i pass adj] (try to) make one's thoughts seem more impressive by adding details, using special language etc. O: argument, statement, evidence □ It's perfectly simple and understandable. You needn't dress it up with all this nonsense. RATT

1903- drift along [A1] go through life without aim or purpose □ His upbringing seems to have left him incapable of sustained effort; he just drifts along.

1904- drift apart [A1] become gradually estranged, slowly lose interest in each other. S: friends, husband and wife, brothers □ He and his wife have never had a serious quarrel. Through mutual indifference they've just drifted apart. □ Having been close friends in the war Viola was genuinely worried to find that they had drifted so far apart that she had lost all touch with her. RFW

1905- drift away/off [A1] move slowly, casually, away. S: crowd, audience; smoke, cloud, mist □ He thought of a pleasure-garden where entertainment would vary with the weather and couples could drift off into the dark between a meal and a show. OBS □ The smoke pall drifted away to reveal the blackened shell of the building.

1906- drill in/into [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] teach by persistent exercise, repetition. S: teacher, instructor. O: rule, multiplication table, procedure. o: class, pupil □ The language patterns were thoroughly drilled in. □ I simply don't believe that spoken skills can be drilled into learners in a language laboratory.

1907- drink down/off [B1i pass] drink until nothing remains (often at one draught). O: milk, medicine, beer □ I drank the stuff off in one gulp. It burned my throat. □ suggests faster drinking than drink up (q v), but is less likely to occur in commands.

1908- drink in[1] [B1i pass] (informal) listen with eager attention to. S: pupil, disciple, follower, party member. O: ⚠ his words, every word, his remarks; it all □ A packed audience drank in every word he uttered. □ A quiet little man sat in a corner of the hall, drinking it all in.

1909- drink in[2] [B1i pass] (informal) absorb by eager attention. S: traveller, visitor. O: atmosphere; calm, tranquillity; beauty, picturesqueness □ They sat outside on the terrace, drinking in the particular quality of the light at that time of day.

1910- drink oneself to death [B2] kill oneself by excessive drinking □ It would be very easy, cheap and pleasant to drink oneself to death in Portugal. ILIH □ If Finn was drinking himself to death somewhere, it would be my last sad act of friendship to leave him to it. UTN

1911- drink under the table [B2] (informal) drink more alcohol than sb else while remaining more sober than he. O: everyone, most people □ This time, if he met Tillie, she wouldn't drink him under the table. PE □ You pride yourselves on your capacity, but he can drink you all under the table!

1912- drink up [A1 B1i pass] drink until nothing remains in a cup or glass (often in one draught), finish one's drink (up). O: milk, medicine, beer □ 'I brought them to heel,' said Robert gaily, tapping his inside pocket. 'I extracted some money out of them, so drink up, lads.' CON □ *'*Drink your milk up, Johnnie, or you won't go out and play!' □ very often in commands. ⇨ drink down/off.

1913- what be driving at [A2] (informal) (what) is he etc trying to do or achieve; (what) is he etc trying to say or explain □ *'*What on earth are you driving at*? Can't you come to the point?'* □ 'You can see what I'm driving at, can't you? It would surely be easy for you to get me in on your visits to the docks.' HD □ continuous tenses only. ⇨ what be at; get at[4].

1914- drive back [B1i pass] force to withdraw. S: police; troops, planes. O: crowd, rioters; enemy □ The attacking force was driven back to its starting point. □ The police drove the spectators back behind the crash barriers.

1915- drive back on [B3 pass] oblige, force, sb (as a last resort) to use sth he would rather avoid. o: one's own resources; subterfuge, deceit; cruder methods; local food, cheaper petrol □ I had finished all my cigarettes and couldn't find any of Robert's Gauloises lying about, so I was driven back on my pipe. CON □ This last retort of Peter's had driven him back on methods he seldom used. He turned to personal abuse.

1916- drive a wedge between [B2 pass] separate, cause disharmony between, sets of people. S: issue, question; movement, change (of home, of job). o: two wings (of a party); colleagues, partners; married couple □ Differences of outlook may drive a wedge between the various national groups which make up the team.

1917- drive in [B1i pass] (military) force to withdraw towards the main body of one's unit. O: sentry, piquet (picket), outpost □ Our piquets were driven in as a prelude to the main enemy attack.

1918- drive-in [nom (A1)] (US) public facility (esp a bank, cinema, church or restaurant) into which one drives and where one is served, entertained etc, while remaining seated in one's car □ Because of their greater dependence on the motor car, Americans have a greater range of drive-in facilities than the British, though drive-in banks are found in some large cities in Britain. □ usu attrib, as in: drive-in (movie) theater.

1919- drive in/into [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] force to enter by striking with a hammer etc. O: stake, peg, nail. o: ground, wall, plank □ A wooden stake was driven firmly into the ground.

1920- drive into a corner [B2 pass] (during an argument) force sb into a position from which it will be difficult to reply □ Quoting facts and figures quickly drove him into a corner. □ When he's driven into a corner he invariably loses his temper.

1921- drive off[1] [A1 B1ii pass] (of a car etc) leave, go away; (of a passenger) leave, be taken away □ The first of the starters in the Monte Carlo Rally were already driving off in a flurry of powdered snow. □ Teresa's movements were designed to produce the greatest effect. For example, she arrived and was driven off in a yellow vintage Rolls.

1922- drive off[2] [A1] (golf) drive the ball from the tee at the start of a game or 'hole' □ TV cameras were set up near the first tee, where competitors were soon to drive off in the first round of the championship.

1923- drive off[3] [B1i pass] (military) repel, defeat. O: enemy; attack, assault □ The counter-attacks by mixed forces of tanks and infantry were driven off with heavy loss.

1924- drive out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass rel] expel, force to leave (an enclosed space); make sb forget, overlook sth. S: government, police, soldier; anxiety, preoccupation. O: alien, intruder, invader; thought, memory. o: country, position; mind, head □ Russian emissaries were driven out of Afghanistan at pistol point. TBC □ The prosaic question drove out all others. NM □ Any misgivings they might have felt were driven out by the sight of his cheerful face.

1925- drive out of his mind/wits [B2 pass] make mad, drive insane; reduce to a very nervous or anxious state. S: noise, tension, strain, conflict □ 'You're asking for a bloody good hiding, lady, just be careful. Oh! She'd drive you out of your mind.' TOH □ Everyone seems completely tired out — as if he had been driving them right out of their wits. HSG □ She was driven almost out of her mind with anxiety.

1926- drive round the bend/up the wall [B2 pass] (informal) drive sb mad; infuriate sb, annoy him unbearably; send up the wall (q v) □ You two will drive me round the bend soon. I know you're going to drive me mad. LBA □ I'm fed up to the back teeth with all this caper. It's driving me up the wall. TT

1927- drive to despair/desperation [B2 pass] cause to give up all hope, make desperate. S: state of trade, collapse of one's business; laziness, deceitfulness, bad manners □ Tim's casual attitude to work had driven his serious-minded father to despair. □ The condition of the market at present almost drives one to desperation.

1928- drive to drink [B2 pass] (informal) make sb so desperate that he seeks forgetfulness, or relief, in drinking. S: failure, neglect, unkindness, insensitivity □ It is understandable that certain situations might drive anyone to drink. UL drive up the wall [B2 pass] ⇨ drive round the bend/up the wall.

1930- drone on [A1 emph] speak tediously and at length. S: parson, politician, boring acquaintance □ Is there an easy way to stop him droning on about the internal combustion engine? □ On he droned interminably until we felt our nerves could stand no more.

1931- drool over [A2 pass] (informal) give foolish or slavish attention to. S: collector (of antiques, etc), connoisseur (of food etc); parent, proprietor. o: wine, food; child, new car □ Drool over a favourite meal, then start a cook-book of magazine and newspaper recipes.* WI □ He drools over his hoard of bric-a-brac like a doting parent.

1932- drop back [A1] be left behind; move back (deliberately). S: runner, member of party, car □ We found that one of the three escort trucks had dropped back in the dust with a mechanical defect. SD □ The sergeant had dropped back to pick up any stragglers.

1933- drop behind [A1 A2] be left behind, fall behind (q v); (deliberately) allow others to move ahead. S: runner, car; country, industry. o: main party, rest of field; rival, competitor □ Britain has dropped behind Japan as a producer of cheap cotton fabrics. □ Jones had dropped behind on the back straight and Morley went on to win the race by a clear twenty metres. □ John and Mary had dropped behind in order to be alone.

1934- drop by/in/in on [A1 A3 pass] (informal) call on casually, pay a casual visit to □ She should say to the parents, 'Come to tea on Friday,' rather than ask them just to drop in at any time. WI □ They would just drop in on us for a chat at any odd moment.

1935- drop in/into [A1 A2] (informal) enter casually, pay a casual visit to (a place). o: church, club, pub □ In the evening we would drop into a roadside pub for a beer and sandwich. □ They hear the single melancholy church bell, and drop in and sit peacefully in some richly carved old stall. PW

1936- drop off[1] [A1] (informal) diminish, decrease, slacken; fall off[1] (q v). S: attendance, production, business □ Our sales of ice-cream and soft drinks start to drop off at the beginning of September. □ Takings at the pier have dropped off this season.

1937- drop off[2] [A1] (informal) fall into a light sleep or doze; doze off (q v), nod off (q v) □ I felt myself dropping off in the middle of the second act. □ Just as he was dropping off, there was a loud bang from downstairs.

1938- drop off[3] [A1 B1i pass] (informal) alight; allow to alight, set down[1] (q v) □ I dropped off at the corner of Bouverie Street. □ Get the driver to drop you off at the Central Station.

1939- drop out [A1 nom] leave school prematurely (before the end of a secondary or high-school course) □ I dropped out, right at the beginning, and said that Higher Cert. was good enough for me and they could keep Oxford and Cambridge. CON □ The drop-out rate is highest in the poorest urban areas. □ There is a close connection between early drop-out and delinquency.

1940- drop out/out of [A1 A2] withdraw (from), leave; abandon. S: minister; player, competitor; runner, horse, pursuer. o: government; team, match; race, contest, struggle □ He has dropped out of politics. EHOW □ Peter dropped out before completing one circuit of the track. □ Jack was joining our party for the theatre, but he's had to drop out.

1941- the bottom drop out of the market/price [A2] (informal) (of prices) fall to a very low level □ This was Cornwall's closest brush with disaster since the bottom dropped out of the world price of tin in the nineteenth century. OBS □ Are you prepared to hang on to your shares until the bottom drops out of the market?

1942- drown out B1i pass adj make sth impossible to bear by covering it with a louder noise. S: (noise of) traffic, music, thunder; heckler. O: speaker, conversation □ I started shouting, but Mike drowned me out. JFTR □ A gang of rowdies tried to drown out any speaker who tried to present a quietly reasoned case.

1943- drum in/into [B1i pass B2 pass] make sb bear in mind or remember, by frequent repetition; din in/into (q v). S: teacher, parent. O: rule, table, formula; need to be tidy, virtue of hard work. o: pupil, son □ He'd had the fear of the Lord drummed into him from an early age.

1944- drum on [A2] beat against, pound on (continuously). S: finger, foot; rain, hail. o: table, piano, floor; window, roof □ The rain drumming on the corrugated iron roof kept me awake last night.

1945- drum out of [B2 pass] expel publicly to the sound of the drum; expel in a solemn or formal manner. O: officer, soldier; member, official. o: regiment, army; club, association □ His behaviour is so awful that he ought to be drummed out of decent society. □ first sense military (and now archaic).

1946- drum up [B1ii pass] summon by beating on a drum; obtain by canvassing or solicitation. O: troops, reinforcements; support, backing, extra votes □ Fresh soldiers were drummed up from a nearby wood. □ The minister has managed to drum up some support for the idea. □ first sense military (and now archaic).

1947- dry out [A1 B1i pass] become, make, quite free of water. S: [A1] O: [B1] land, soil; corn, hay, rick; clothing. S: [B1] sun, wind □ The flood-waters subsided and the hot sun dried out the wooden buildings. □ We waited for our wet clothes to dry out.

1948- dry up[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] evaporate, turn into water vapour. S: [A1] O: [B1] stream, well, reservoir, pond. S: [B1] drought, heat □ The smaller rivers and streams dry up in the summer. □ I was walking over the dried-up bed of a Breckland mere recently. G

1949- dry up[2] [A1 B1i pass adj] make dry by wiping with a cloth; wipe up[2] (q v). O: cups and saucers, tea-things □ 'Help me dry up after lunch.' □ I gave Mother a hand with the drying-up. □ nom form (the) drying-up commonly occurs.

1950- dry up[3] [A1] be exhausted, come to an end. S: savings, capital; wit, humour, resourcefulness □ He was very glad of Betty's allowance! This was £2.10s. a week, and it seemed never to dry up. HD □ They feared a drying-up of their inventiveness. AH

1951- dry up[4] [A1] become unable to speak (through shyness or nervousness). S: actor, speaker, broadcaster □ He paused, and John, knowledgeable in such things, feared that he was about to dry up. ASA □ I dried up after a bit and presently he got me talking about myself. RFW

1952- dry up[5] [A1] (informal) stop talking, be quiet, shut up[2] (q v) (the speaker has said too much and further remarks will be unwelcome) □ 'Now I'm going to dry up and let someone else have his say.' □ JIMMY: I will tell you the simple truth about her. She is a cow. CLIFF: You've gone too far, Jimmy. Now dry up! LBA □ often imper.

1953- duck out/out of [A1 A2 pass] (informal) avoid, shirk, escape. o: duty, obligation, responsibility, chore □ When I saw it coming I ducked out: I didn't want to be there when it was presented. CON □ He's ducked out of producing the school play this year.

1954- dug-out[1] [adj (B1)] (military) shelter hollowed out of the ground, esp at the back of an open trench, and covered with material affording protection against enemy fire □ Chuikov's own command post was in a dug-out sunk into the side of the river-bed. B □ While the bombardment continues, the men huddle in their dug-outs. □ an adj form, but used as a noun. ⇨ dig out/out of[1].

1955- dug-out[2] [adj (B1)] (boat) made by hollowing out the trunk of a tree □ In the general area of the Niger Delta, dug-out canoes (or: dug-outs) are an important means of transport: they are used for fishing, carrying goods to market, or simply ferrying people about. □ an adj form, which may also be used as a noun. ⇨ dig out/out of[1].

1956- dug-out[3] [adj (B1)] (slang) retired officer, civil servant etc, brought back into employment (e g in an emergency) □ Dug-outs, convalescents and boys without battle experience are not likely to stand up to continuous bombardment. □ It was hard to find young men to fill teaching posts during the war, so the schools employed a number of dug-outs. □ an adj form, but used as a noun.

1957- dust down [B1i pass] remove dust etc from sth by brushing or flicking; brush down[1] (q v) □ Peter was coated in cement and sand, but we picked him up and dusted him down. □ Dust yourself down — you're covered in plaster from the ceiling.

1958- dwell on/upon [A2 pass adj emph rel] think, speak, write, often at tedious length, about. o: past glories, achievement; failing, weakness, disability □ It doesn't do to dwell over much on one's shortcomings. □ He was repeating criticisms that had been made of him, dwelling on them, sometimes agreeing with them. NM □ These were objects by which she could dwell a little sadly on the lost hopes of the past. HAA

E

1959- earmark (for) [B2 pass emph rel] intend sth to be used for a (special) purpose (sometimes by using an identifying mark). O: supplies, stores; money, funds. o: customer; purpose, use □ Your article on tropical diseases has been earmarked for future publication. □ The antique dealer's wife always earmarked the best pieces for her own collection.

1960- earth up [B1i pass] (horticulture) cover or partially cover with soil. O: roots, asparagus, celery □ The gardener conscientiously earthed up the young plants. □ The earthing up should be done in the winter, to protect the asparagus from frost.

1961- ease back (on) [A1 A3 B1i pass] pull gently towards one. o: [A3] O: [B1] joystick, controls, throttle □ (in gliding) 'We're flying too fast, so I'll ease back (on) the stick and gain a little height.' □ (in powered flight) 'You can ease (the throttle) back now that we have climbed high enough.' □ may be used also of the throttle in cars, motor-boats.

1962- ease across, along, away etc [B1i pass B2 pass] move sth across etc by the use of gentle pressure, careful judgement etc □ The men skilfully eased the pillar down until it stood exactly where it was required. □ My foot was rather sore, but I managed to ease it into a large slipper.

1963- ease down [A1] reduce speed □ There's a narrow bridge ahead, so you'd better ease down.

1964- ease of [B2 pass] remove, to lighten sb's burden; relieve of[1] (q v); take away from, by means of deception, cheating; relieve of[3] (q v). o: pain, burden; anxiety, worry, feelings of guilt; money □ The doctor promised that the medicine he had prescribed would ease the poor man of his suffering. □ In London, as in all large cities, there are plenty of people ready to ease you of a few pounds if they see that you are a stranger.

1965- ease off [A1] (informal) become less severe; do sth with less severity or intensity; slacken off (q v). S: pressure, intensity; work, business; worker, athlete □ The tension between the two countries has eased off. □ 'You're working too hard; you'd better ease off.' □ He looked casu- ally to left and right and, when the flow of traffic had eased off*, crossed the road.* LLDR □ For four days and nights the curve continued to decline but on the fifth day the decline eased off*.* TBC

1966- ease up[1] [A1] move along, usu to make space for sb □ 'I wonder if you could ease up a little, as there are several people without seats.'

1967- ease up[2] [A1] (informal) become less pressing; do sth with less intensity □ I'm very busy just now, but when things have eased up a little, I'll come and see you. □ 'Don't take life so seriously! Ease up*!'*

1968- eat away (at) [A3 B1i pass] erode. S: sea, river. o: [A3] O: [B1] support, base; rock, cliff □ The sea has been eating away at the coast for years, and now the houses on the cliff-top are in danger. □ You can see from here how the river bank is slowly being eaten away*.*

1969- eat into[1] [A2 pass] dissolve, consume. S: acid, caustic; rust. o: metal, steel; plate, pipe, superstructure □ The sulphuric acid eats into those parts of the metal that remain exposed after the wax coating has been applied.

1970- eat into[2] [A2 pass] consume; use unwillingly. o: savings, reserves, nest-egg, capital □ The costs of the legal action ate deep into my savings. □ He's only been able to keep up appearances by eating into his capital.

1971- eat one's head off [B1ii] (informal) eat excessively □ The children came in an hour ago from their long walk, and now they're in the dining-room eating their heads off*.*

1972- eat out [A1] have a meal at a restaurant etc, rather than at home □ It's a good idea to eat out once in a while: a change of scene and cooking is good for you. Not to mention the fact that somebody else has to do all the work!

1973- eat one's heart out [B1ii] grieve bitterly □ Ever since her boyfriend walked out, the poor girl has been eating her heart out*. She doesn't sleep, and she's lost interest in life.*

1974- eat out of sb's hand [A2] be completely docile or compliant to another person's wishes (as of a wild animal that has been tamed) □ Owing to the importance of Paula's position she had everyone, including the local constabulary, eating out of her hand*.* DF □ usu have (got) sb eating etc.

1975- eat out of house and home [B2 pass] (informal) ruin by eating □ 'These friends of yours are eating us out of house and home*! When are they going to leave?'* □ There isn't a thing left in the larder. I was eaten out of house and home during the school holidays. □ usu humorous or semi-humorous.

1976- eat up[1] [A1 B1i pass] eat heartily; finish the food served □ 'There's plenty for everyone, so eat up*!'* □ 'You're not going out to play until you've eaten all your carrots up*.'*

1977- eat up[2] [B1ii pass] consume; bother, worry. S: ⚠ curiosity; envy, jealousy □ 'I can tell that there's something wrong by the way you've been behaving. What's eating you up*?'* □ Curiosity was simply eating her up (or: She was simply eaten up with curiosity) — she had to know who had given me such an expensive present. □ usu passive.

1978- eavesdrop (on) [A2 rel] listen secretly to sb's conversation □ 'How do you know that Mrs Hill is going to have a baby? You must have been eavesdropping on our conversation.'

1979- ebb away [A1] recede slowly; fade. S: tide, daylight; life □ As daylight ebbed away*, the lights of the village came on one by one.* □ Life, Mr Charlton felt, was ebbing away from him. DBM □ The old sense of being subservient to those mysterious Powers which had to be appeased and humoured was gone. Perhaps it had ebbed away during those lonely nights in bed.... CON

1980- economize (on) [A2 pass emph rel] reduce one's spending (on). o: housekeeping; clothes; entertainment; travel; holidays □ It was typical of Augustus to spend pounds on the meal and then try to economize on the wine — spoiling the ship for a ha'porth of tar. □ If you have an expensive car, it's foolish to try to economize on servicing it.

1981- edge (one's way) across, along, back etc [A1 A2 B1ii B2] move slowly and with great care across etc □ The climber edged warily along the narrow shelf (cf around the protruding rock), with a fall of 2 000 feet below him. □ The policeman edged his way forward*, towards the distraught woman who was threatening to throw herself and her child from the roof to the street below.*

1982- edge with [B2 pass] put around the edge of □ My old Grannie always used to edge her tablecloths with lace. □ The plates were all edged with a rich border of gold.

1983- edit out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] remove words, phrases etc, from the draft of a book or article in the process of editing it □ The four-letter words were always edited out of radio scripts until quite recently.

1984- eff off [A1] (taboo) leave, go away (a euphemism for fuck off (q v)) □ The leader of the gang walked up to one of the bystanders and told him to eff off*, if he didn't want to get hurt.*

1985- egg on [B1i pass] encourage to do sth (usu of a foolish, adventurous or criminal nature) □ A certain curiosity egged me on*, a quite un-morbid desire to explore the magnitude of my loss.* SD □ The older children were egging the younger ones on to steal money from their parents.

1986- eject (from)[1] [B2 pass] remove sb forcibly (from a place) because of his bad behaviour. O: drunk, undesirable □ Henry has been ejected from more pubs than you've had hot dinners.

1987- eject (from)[2] [A2 B2 pass] (aviation) cause (oneself) to be thrown clear of (a plane). S: [A2] O: [B2] pilot, navigator; crew □ The pilot saw that his plane was out of control and ejected from it while it was still possible to do so.

1988- eke out [B1iii pass] find some way, however meagre, to live; broaden, enlarge, sth. O: a living; miserable existence; book, article □ His last reading of Byron had been aimed at eking out his review of a new biography.... ILIH □ In some countries thousands of graduates are forced to eke out a living by doing work of a menial nature.

1989- elbow one's way across, along, back etc [B1ii B2] progress, advance, using one's elbows to move people aside. o: crowd, spectators, bystanders, row □ The ambulance-men had to elbow their way through the huge crowd standing round the crashed cars.

1990- elect to [B2 pass emph rel] give a sufficient number of votes to sb to give him a place in. o:

Council, Parliament, Senate; Presidency □ Eisenhower was elected to the Presidency for a second term of office.

1991- elevate to [B2 pass] (formal) increase a person's status by promoting him to. ex: the peerage, House of Lords, position of President of the company □ When a politician becomes an embarrassment to his party in the Commons, he may be 'kicked upstairs', i e elevated to the peerage.

1992- eliminate (from) [B2 pass] extract, remove from. O: waste matter; poison; lead; possibility of suicide; candidate; competitor. ex: body; liquid; paint; our considerations; election; race □ Once you have eliminated the obvious causes of death from your list you must, I am afraid, consider the possibility of foul play. □ In the first round of the FA Cup most of the amateur teams were eliminated *(*from the competition).

1993- elope (with) [A2 rel] leave home (with) in order to marry; run away (with) (q v) □ My mother eloped with my father when she was seventeen, and got married at Gretna Green.

1994- emanate from [A2 emph rel] (formal) come, proceed, issue, from. S: light; smell; influence, power. ex: a hidden source; a vase of gardenias; a group of high ranking officers □ The strength of the Trades Union Congress emanates from the support of millions of individual workers.

1995- emancipate (from) [B2 pass emph rel] make free (from); release (from). O: women; working class, minority groups, black people. ex: drudgery, tyranny of the home, child-rearing; slavery, inferior status, inequality, exploitation, ignorance, prejudice □ The Women's Liberation Movement is by no means the beginning of their struggle to emancipate themselves from what they consider to be the injustices of a world run by and for men. □ The aim of Black Power is to emancipate *(*from an inferior status) those whose skin is not white.

1996- embark on/upon [A2 pass rel] make a start on, begin. ex: project, scheme, campaign; journey, voyage □ Whatever made John embark on such a hair-brained scheme? He'll be ruined!

1997- embed (itself) in [B2 pass rel] stick or secure (itself) in. S: arrow, bullet, splinter. ex: tree; leg, finger □ A shell splinter embedded itself in the wall above his head. □ The sword was so deeply embedded in the rock that no one could move it.

1998- embodied in [pass (B2)] (be) contained in, represented by. S: rights, law, principles. ex: constitution, rules, treaty □ The rights and obligations of all the member countries of the Common Market are embodied in the Treaty of Rome.

1999- embroiled in [pass (B2)] (formal) (be) engaged or involved in (possibly unwillingly or through lack of foresight etc). ex: argument, row; futile discussion, somebody else's fight □ The Independent member for Wigan said that he did not intend to get embroiled in the inter-party strife over the Royal family. □ passive with be, get.

2000- emerge (from) [A2 emph rel] (formal) be the result (of,) become apparent (from). ex: discussion, correspondence, negotiations, exchanges □ It was clear from the communiqué that no agreement was likely to emerge from the week-long talks between the foreign ministers of the two countries. □ It emerged from John's letter to his wife that he had already made up his mind to leave her for good.

2001- emigrate (from) (to) [A2 emph rel] leave, go away (from one country in order to live in another) □ The tendency for young people to emigrate from Scotland to England shows no sign of being reversed. □ The family decided to uproot themselves en bloc and emigrate to Australia.

2002- empty (itself) into [A2 B2] take out all the contents of, and put, pour etc, into another. S: river, stream; Indus. ex: sea, ocean, lake □ The river Ganges empties (itself) into the Bay of Bengal.

2003- empty out [B1i pass] remove all the contents of; allow to fall out. O: room, attic, barn; bag, pockets □ The boys who were suspected of stealing were made to empty out their pockets in the headmaster's study. □ The bag had broken and emptied its contents out along the road.

2004- enamoured of [pass (B2)] (formal) (be) greatly attracted by, in love with □ I must confess that I am not greatly enamoured of life in the tropics: the heat is too great for my northern blood! □ The young man became enamoured of an attractive widow — a femme fatale who left him after a few weeks of high living. □ passive with be, become.

2005- encase in [B2 pass rel] cover completely with, enclose in. O: coffin; baked chicken; packet. ex: sarcophagus; clay; waterproof covering □ The old wooden chest was richly encased in leather, protected at the corners with ornamental metalwork. □ Medieval knights, encased in armour from head to foot, had to be lowered into their saddles on ropes.

2006- encroach on/upon [A2 pass] (formal) erode; take a part of, occupy. S: sea; visitors; neighbours; legislation. ex: land, coast; his time; civil rights □ If the sea encroaches any further on the cliff, the houses at the top will be in great danger. □ I apologize for encroaching upon your valuable time, but I should appreciate your advice in an important matter.

2007- encumber (with) [B2 pass rel] (formal) assume, or give to sb the burden or liability of; pile or load upon. O: oneself; troops; room. o: responsibilities, obligations; family, debts, large mortgage; excessive baggage, useless equipment; old-fashioned furniture □ One should not encumber oneself with hire purchase repayments at the beginning of a marriage. □ The army was encumbered with tanks that could move at only half the speed of the enemy's. □ The estate was so encumbered with debts that it was not worth inheriting. □ often passive.

2008- end in[1] [A2] have as its extremity, tip or termination □ The tube ended in a large bulb, where the gas condensed into a colourless liquid. □ The scorpion's tail ended in a menacing point, and the child sensibly decided to leave it alone! □ Not all English words which end in -ly are advrebs.

2009- end in[2] [A2] reach, come to, an end in. S: path, road; marriage. ex: field, farmyard; divorce-court □ The track became less and less distinct, ending finally in an impassable marsh. □ It was obvious to everyone that the marriage would sooner or later end in separation if not divorce.

2010- end in[3] [A2] have as its result or culmination. S: long struggle; battle; trial, jury's deliberations; argument, discussion, debate. ex: failure, success; victory, defeat, chaos, the capture of a thousand prisoners, the route of the enemy; a verdict of guilty (not guilty); uproar, confusion, pandemonium □ The Liberals were disappointed when all their attempts to improve their position in Parliament ended in a gain of only two seats. The long-drawn-out struggle between the drug company and the Government over prices finally ended in a satisfactory settlement. □ The argument between the two drunks ended in a free-for-all in which about twenty people became involved.

2011- end up [A1] finally be or do sth; finish (as). A: Prime Minister; dead, bankrupt, in jail; like everyone else, the same as his father □ The nuts are pressed for their vegetable oil, which ends up as margarine. NS □ If we take her too seriously, we'll all end up in a mental home. YA □ 'Carry that box of explosives carefully or we'll end up dead ourselves!' □ JIMMY: That's how you'll end up*, my boy — black-hearted, evil-minded and vicious.* LBA □ Every time she tried to argue with her husband she ended up crying her eyes out.

2012- end up (with) [A1 A3 B1i B3] finish by doing or having; finish off/up with (q v). S: [A1] O: [B1] concert, meal, party □ The party ended up with the singing of Auld Lang Syne. □ We ended the dinner up with fruit and coffee.

2013- endear to [B2] cause to be liked. S: habit, practice; character, temper. O: him, himself; child, guest, lodger □ His habit of interrupting the speakers endeared him to nobody, and he found himself excluded from one activity after another. □ The little girl's unselfishness endeared her to the old lady, who gave her a ruby ring as a birthday present.

2014- endowed with [pass (B2)] (be) the possessor of, (be) fortunate enough to have. o: second sight, a sixth sense; the gift of beauty, eloquence □ Few men are endowed with the brain of an Einstein. □ She was endowed with the beauty of Helen of Troy, and the tongue of a fishwife.

2015- enfold in one's arms [B2 pass] hold close and protectively. O: baby, child, woman □ When she found the abandoned child on her doorstep, she lifted it up and enfolded it in her arms.

2016- engage in [A2] be a participant in, a party to. o: hostilities, warfare; politics; backbiting □ If you engage in local politics, you cannot expect to have much time for your family. □ I have no time to engage in gossip, so please don't come to me with your rumours and complaints.

2017- engaged in [pass (B2)] (be) busy doing sth, occupied with. o: petty theft; preparing for the party, building a garage □ John and his brother are engaged in some plan for acquiring land and starting in business as market gardeners. □ 'Those men are behaving very suspiciously. They're engaged in some fishy business, I'll be bound.'

2018- engage with [A2] make effective contact with; begin fighting sb, join battle (with) (q v) □ If the big cogwheel does not engage with the small one, the clock stops. □ We decided to engage with the enemy at dawn, unless he had retreated during the night.

2019- engrave on [B2 pass emph rel] cut a mark or series of marks on; establish firmly on or in. O: name; face, incident, place. o: presentation cup, plate; memory, mind □ On one side of the cup were engraved the names of all the teams who had won the championship.! □ The old man's words were engraved on my memory: I could never forget them.

2020- engrossed (in) [pass (B2)] (formal) (have one's mind) completely occupied (with). o: work, problem; book, story; one's thoughts □ Alfred was so engrossed in his own problems that he did not notice that the cakes were burning.

2021- engulfed in [pass (B2)] (be) so covered as to be obliterated by; (be) overwhelmed by. S: town, city, village; coast; fields, crops. o: lava, water, mud □ The countryside was engulfed in a sea of mud left by the receding flood-water. □ The country was engulfed in an economic crisis of the utmost severity.

2022- enlarge on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] expand, add details to. o: statement, original version, theory, proposal □ I should be grateful if you could enlarge a little on your recent suggestions for improving the club's premises. □ The Chairman thought that it would be in everybody's interests if the unfortunate incident in which two of the members had come to blows was not enlarged upon.

2023- enlighten (about/on) [B2 pass] (formal) give the important facts (about). o: what happened; the subject of nuclear fission; their private relations □ Nobody seemed to be anxious to enlighten me about the events that had led up to the dispute. □ When I walked into the room it was obvious that Helen had been enlightening my wife about why I was so often 'delayed at the office'.

2024- enlist in [A2 B2 pass] (military) (cause to) join, become a member of. o: army, navy, air force; his father's regiment □ Some young men enlist in the army while they are still at University. By doing so, they receive an immediate income a good deal higher than their normal grant as a student. □ A boy can't be enlisted in the Army without his parents' consent.

2025- enmeshed in [pass (B2)] (formal) (be) inextricably caught or trapped in. S: youths; debaters; litigants. o: crime; argument; the toils of the law □ Before we become too enmeshed in legal niceties, may I suggest that we bear in mind the need for a quick decision in the interests of the children?

enquire ⇨ inquire.

2027- enroll in [A2 rel B2 pass rel] enter one's name (or another person's name) in. o: evening class, Mr Jones's Art class □ Have you enrolled in the car maintenance class this year? □ Mrs Jones has enrolled her daughter in the Ballet class.

2028- ensconce (onself) in [B2 pass rel] settle, install, oneself well and comfortably in □ The old man had, as usual, ensconced himself in his favourite corner of the bar, a pint of mild ale on the table in front of him. □ Bloggs is too comfortably ensconced in his modest, undemanding, job ever to consider making a change.

2029- enshrined in [pass (B2)] (formal) (be) stated, described, formally and solemnly in □ The rights of all men are enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations. □ The glorious history of the regiment is enshrined in the official records.

2030- ensnare (in) [B2 pass rel] (formal) catch (in), generally by the use of deception, trickery etc. O:

bird, rabbit; the beardless youth; the unwary. e: net, trap; her toils; wild scheme ◻ A whole flock of Icelandic geese was attracted by the decoys and ensnared in the cleverly contrived tunnel of nets. ◻ The confidence trickster has little difficulty in ensnaring the greedy in his clever plots.

2031- entangle in [B2 pass rel] (cause to) become intertwined in such a way as to make separation difficult or impossible; catch up (in) (q v). O: itself, himself; clothes, hair. e: bushes, branches ◻ 'How did Alice manage to entangle her hair so badly in the brambles?' 'She was playing hide-and-seek with her brother.'

2032- entangled (with) [pass (B2)] (be) intertwined or connected (with sth) so that the two cannot easily be separated; (be) involved (with), in such a way that one cannot easily free oneself. S: fishing line; legitimate business; husband, secretary. e: weeds; criminal operations; woman next door, boss ◻ The weeds were so entangled with the plants (or: The weeds and plants were so entangled) that it was impossible to remove them without spoiling the flowers. ◻ His private expenditure was so entangled with his business expenses that his accountants despaired of ever sorting out his affairs to the satisfaction of the Income Tax authorities. ◻ I hear that young Woodley is entangled with some woman old enough to be his mother.

2033- enter for [A2 B2 pass] officially present oneself or another person as a competitor in; put in for[1] (q v). e: race, contest, competition ◻ I'd like to know what joker entered me for the cake-making competition! ◻ It is incredible what plain-looking women will enter for beauty contests.

2034- enter in/into [B2 pass] make a record of sth in, by writing it. O: note, transaction, name. e: diary, ledger, register ◻ Every night before she went to sleep, Mary entered the events of the day in (or: into) her diary. ◻ When the last item had been duly entered in the ledger, the clerk closed it and put it in its usual place before locking up and going home.

2035- enter into[1] [A2 pass] begin, start. e: conversation, negotiations, relations ◻ Susan could see that the man in the opposite seat was dying to enter into conversation with her, and as she found him quite attractive she helped him by asking 'Do you happen to know what time this train is due at Euston?' ◻ The two governments entered into preliminary discussions in the hope of reaching complete agreement at a full conference.

2036- enter into[2] [A2] give, provide, mention. e: details, particulars; a long account ◻ 'There's no need to enter into a lot of unnecessary detail: just tell the court the main facts of the case.'

2037- enter into[3] [A2] be considered as a (necessary, vital) part of. e: calculations, considerations; plan, scheme; it ◻ The possibility of an air-attack from the west did not enter into the calculations of the General Staff. So they were entirely unprepared when the apparently impossible actually happened. ◻ 'If you had any charity at all, you'd forgive him for what he did.' 'Charity doesn't enter into it. It's a matter of sticking to one's principles.'

2038- enter into the spirit (of) [A2] act, behave, with a spirit, an attitude, which suits the occasion ◻ Scrooge found it impossible to enter into the spirit of Christmas until he had learnt to appreciate its true meaning. ◻ When George arrived home and found a party in progress, he soon entered into the spirit of it.

2039- enter up [B1i pass] record (in a book etc, provided for the purpose). S: nurse; warden; chemist. O: temperature, blood pressure, pulse rate of a patient; names of visitors; drugs, poisons sold ◻ It is very important that every sale of a dangerous poison should be entered up at the time of sale.

2040- enter upon [A2 pass rel] (formal) begin, commence. e: career, duties, term of office; a period of peace, calm, prosperity ◻ When the President entered upon his second term of office, everyone hoped that he would show more wisdom than in his first.

2041- entice away [B1i pass] cause sb to leave another person (or his/her home) by means of promises, often unfulfilled. O: daughter, wife, servant, youth ◻ The girl was so innocent and unsuspecting that she was enticed away by the first man who offered her some pretty dresses and a few pieces of jewellery. ◻ Mrs Brown is not speaking to Mrs Green any more. She reckons that Mrs Green enticed her gardener away.

2042- entitle to [B2 pass emph rel] give sb the right to enjoy sth. S: rank, position. e: privileges; a fair hearing ◻ I don't know that his rank entitles him to special treatment from the court (cf that he is entitled to special treatment because of his rank). ◻ His position as a friend of the family doesn't entitle him automatically to a share of the inheritance.

2043- entrap into [B2 pass rel] (formal) make sb do or say sth by a trick; trap into (q v). S: interrogator, police; wife; girl. O: suspect, thief, prisoner; husband, young man. e: giving himself away, confessing to the crime; marriage, eloping with her ◻ Experienced guerrilla fighters are not easily entrapped into revealing their positions.

2044- entrust to [B2 pass rel] give to sb for safe keeping. O: money, documents; children. e: (the care of) a solicitor; friend ◻ I wouldn't advise you to entrust anything of value to Kingsley-Smith. ⇨ next entry.

2045- entrust with [B2 pass rel] make sb responsible for the safety, custody etc, of. O: messenger; pilot; inexperienced maid. o: a large quantity of money; one's life; children ◻ I'm sorry to say that Kingsley-Smith is not the kind of man who can be entrusted with either money or secret information. The first he will try to keep, the other he will try to sell. ⇨ previous entry.

2046- enveloped in [pass (B2)] (be) surrounded by, wrapped in (q v). S: countryside, lake; house; affair, subject. e: mist, fog; flames, smoke; mystery, obscurity, confusion ◻ 'And now, ladies and gentlemen,' shouted the diver, 'I shall perform the most dangerous dive of all! I shall set fire to myself and plunge into the sea, enveloped in flames!' ◻ The whole business of the Director General's appointment has been enveloped in mystery from start to finish.

2047- equate (to/with) [B2 pass rel] state that two things are equal or compatible; liken to (q v) ◻ In his speech he equated the Government's attitude on pensioners with the practice of ancient tribes who used to abandon their old people once they were of no more use.

2048- equip (for) [B2 pass rel] give to sb the necessary equipment for. o: task, work; climb; campaign, attack □ Can the Council really claim that they had equipped their road-workers adequately for such dangerous conditions (or: to face such conditions) as they experienced in last week's storms? □ John turned up for the ten-mile walk equipped for something more like an assault on Everest.

2049- equip (with) [B2 pass rel] provide with, fit up (with) (q v). O: expedition; hospital; school; every normal child. o: many tons of supplies; latest apparatus, devices, kidney machine; every luxury, splendid laboratories, bright classrooms; what is necessary for his survival □ Nature had equipped the boy with two hands, but not, apparently, with the brains to use them properly. □ The Russian trawler was equipped with masses of electronic devices.

2050- escape (from) [A2 emph rel] break free (from); be released involuntarily (from). S: prisoner; lion, pet hamster; cry of pain. o: captors, jail, captivity; cage; lips □ Within a period of only three weeks, five prisoners succeeded in escaping from the 'top security' prison. □ An involuntary exclamation of joy escaped from her lips. 'Oh, John! Is that for me?'

2051- escort (from) [B2 pass rel] accompany, lead, away (from). S: police; guard. O: arrested man; distinguished visitor. o: magistrates' court; platform □ Several policeman had to escort the referee from the football field to protect him from the angry spectators. □ The young woman was escorted from the court by her solicitor. ⇨ next entry.

2052- escort (to) [B2 pass rel] accompany as a partner, guard or protector (to). O: prisoner; young lady; ambassador □ At the eleventh hour an attractive young man was found to escort Laetitia to the ball. □ The ambassador was escorted to the plane by the Foreign Secretary. ⇨ previous entry.

2053- estimate at [B2 pass] roughly guess, assess, calculate, to be. O: attendance, crowd; profit; size, scale farm □ The police estimated the number of demonstrators at about 2 000 though the organizers estimated it at 5 000. □ The tax inspector estimated Sir Joseph's income at £25 000 for the current year.

2054- estranged (from) [pass (B2)] (formal) (be) no longer on friendly terms (with) □ I didn't realize that Arthur was estranged from his wife (or: *that Arthur and his wife were estranged). They seemed to be a perfect match. What went wrong?

2055- etch in [B1i pass adj] draw in, with a pen, pencil etc. O: background, details, horizon, trees □ 'Your drawing would look better,' he said, 'if you were to etch something in over on the left, to give the composition more balance.'

2056- evacuate (from) (to) [B2 pass rel] remove (from a dangerous building, or area) (to a safer one). O: troops, women and children, noncombatants, inhabitants □ During the war hundreds of thousands of children were evacuated from the industrial to rural areas.

2057- even out [B1i pass] spread evenly over a period or among people. O: payments, load, work, responsibility □ Not everyone likes to pay large sums for electricity or gas. It is much better if payments can be evened out on a monthly or perhaps weekly basis.

2058- even up [B1i pass] obtain, restore, a balance; make equal. O: things, matters; sides, teams □ We gave the Smiths a bottle of gin last Christmas, so this year they gave us a bottle of scotch to even things up a bit. □ When the German relay team dropped their baton, we were lucky to be able to even the score up, so that everything depended on the result of the marathon.

2059- evict (from) [B2 pass rel] compel, force, sb to leave. O: farmer; tenant, occupier; squatter. o: farm; house, flat; office block, building □ All the tenants on the estate marched in protest when the Council evicted an old man (from his home) because he had neglected the garden.

2060- evolve (out of) [A2 B2 pass] grow, develop, slowly (from); produce, elaborate (from). S: [A2] O: [B2] machine, process, fruit. S: [A2] mammal, all life □ This method of manufacture evolved out of a long process of trial and error (cf This method was evolved by a long process etc). □ The inventor evolved his complex machine out of a relatively simple device. □ Life on this planet earth evolved out of some very minute unicellular creatures.

2061- exact (from) [B2 pass] (formal) require or force sb to give. O: money, taxes; an apology, homage, obedience □ If the government goes on exacting so much from the taxpayer, it will not last long. □ The old woman exacted an apology from the tradesman for having questioned her honesty.

2062- examine in [B2 pass rel] test sb's knowledge about a stated subject. o: physics, chemistry; business management, accountancy □ My son was examined in First Aid last week. He's got about six Scout badges now.

2063- examine on [B2 pass] test sb's knowledge of a specific point. o: detail, point, aspect □ Each student was examined on a different aspect of the nervous system.

2064- excel at [A2 emph rel] perform outstandingly well in some activity. o: games; cricket, archery, gymnastics □ John did not make much of a mark at school in his studies, but he excelled at playing the fool!

2065- excel in [A2 emph rel] reach a high standard in an academic subject etc. o: French, Latin; music, painting □ Churchill, who had such a distinguished career as a statesman and writer, excelled in nothing at all at school.

2066- exchange (with)[1] [B2] give sth in exchange for sth similar that another person has. O: badges, souvenirs; seats, places □ Bill amused the children in the car by exchanging his hat with Mary's. □ 'Would you like to exchange places with me? I don't think you're very comfortable in that seat, are you?' □ After the final whistle blew, the England captain exchanged shirts with his opposite number (cf the two captains exchanged shirts).

2067- exchange (with)[2] [B2 rel] have some form of communication with. O: (a few) words; ideas, views □ I usually exchange a few words of greeting with my neighbour after breakfast. □ 'I found it very refreshing to exchange ideas with your father. He has some very original views on how to deal with modern industrial pollution.'

2068- exchange words with [B2] have a disagreement or argument with; bandy words (with) (q v) □ 'Come on home, George! It's ridiculous to waste your time exchanging words with such an ignorant hypocrite!'

2069- (not) exchange more than a few/half a dozen words (with) [B2] (not) have much communication (with), (not) have any real acquaintance (with) □ A lot of people in England don't know their neighbours. I'm ashamed to say that I haven't exchanged more than half a dozen words with the chap who lives next door since last Christmas! □ usu in the perfect tenses. exchange (with) [2].

2070- excuse (for) [B2 pass emph rel] forgive (for). o: his offensive remarks, behaviour; failing to recognize you, arriving late □ 'Please excuse me for using your telephone without asking permission: I thought you wouldn't mind.' □ Nothing can possibly excuse him for such rude behaviour in the presence of a lady.

2071- excuse (from) [B2 pass emph rel] allow sb not to fulfil some duty, obligation □ As you were kept working so late today, you will be excused from attending the early meeting tomorrow morning. □ I'd like to be excused from any further participation in this scheme: it takes up too much of my time.

2072- exempt (from) [B2 pass emph rel] officially, legally, free sb from the obligation or duty to do sth. o: military service; preliminary examinations; any further jury service □ Bill was exempted from national service because he was in a 'reserved occupation'. □ also be exempt from: Nobody should be exempt from doing some of the unpleasant jobs in the running of the camp.

2073- exercise in [B2 pass rel] give practice in. O: horse; team; students. o: jumping over ditches; new tactics; giving ready responses to questions □ The recruits are exercised every day in the art of self-defence.

2074- exercise over [B2 pass rel] use, in dealing with sb. O: influence, authority, power □ People with strong personalities should be very careful how they exercise their influence over weaker people. □ Rasputin exercised some strange hypnotic power over the Tsar and his wife.

2075- exile (from) (to) [B2 pass rel] send away (from) (to), as a punishment or precaution. o: (from) Court, Moscow, his native land; (to) the country, Siberia, France □ Many a political rebel has ended his days exiled from the land that was dear to him.

2076- exonerate (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) pronounce free from, not guilty of. o: (all) blame, responsibility; charge □ After a long inquiry, the Manager was exonerated from the charge of neglect and from any responsibility for the fire that destroyed the factory.

2077- expand into [A2 B2 pass] become, make larger. S: [A2] O: [B2] short story; small town. o: full-length novel; large industrial centre □ The BBC has decided to expand the programme on the Common Market into an open-ended discussion. □ This once small family business has expanded into a public company employing many thousands.

2078- expatiate upon [A2 emph rel] (formal) talk at length and with (sometimes boring) authority or enthusiasm about, hold forth (q v) upon. o: the delights of the English countryside; the virtue of moderation in all things; his latest discovery □ 'There goes James again! What is he expatiating upon this time?' 'How the Romans made glass, I believe. I haven't been listening really!'

2079- expect (of) [B2 pass] hope that sb will do sth or behave in a certain way; ask (of) (q v). O: too much, a great deal; great things □ The boy's parents expected too much of him, with the inevitable result that they were disappointed, and he left home at the earliest opportunity.

2080- expel (from) [B2 pass emph rel] force to leave, send away (from). O: air; enemy; boy, girl; member. o: tube; occupied territory; school; club. □ In such a small house it is important to have some method of expelling the smell of cooking from the kitchen. □ Two boys were expelled from the Grammar School for smoking marijuana and offering it to others.

2081- expend energy (on) [B2 pass emph rel] use, consume, energy on. o: task, work; building, reorganizing □ It isn't worth expending too much energy on redecorating the house if you're going to move out of it next year.

2082- experiment on/upon [A2 pass rel] test the effectiveness of techniques, drugs etc, on. o: criminals, human beings, guinea-pigs □ Antivivisectionists are opposed to research which involves experimenting on live animals. □ My wife experiments on me before she serves a new dish to our guests. She calls it 'trying it out on the dog'!

2083- experiment with [A2 pass] adopt, use, to test the effectiveness of or discover the effect of. o: new methods, form of government, traffic control, drugs □ The children were warned not to experiment with such dangerous drugs as LSD and amphetamine. □ Uruguay was at one time famous for its readiness to experiment with new forms of government.

2084- explain away [B1i pass] give a satisfactory reason for; remove objections to sth by means of a convincing argument. O: behaviour, slip of the tongue, attitude; difficulty, apparent inconsistencies □. We left John trying to explain away the lipstick mark on his collar to his angry, tearful wife. □ Mr McCrea advances a theory to explain away some of the difficulties connected with this process (of the aggregation of matter in the Universe). NS

2085- explain (to) [A2 pass rel] make clear (to); tell (sb) the facts (about). O: the workings, plan, situation, meaning □ 'Would you be kind enough to explain the meaning of this expression to me?' □ The teacher explained the principles of nuclear fission (to the class), but only a few of them seemed to understand. □ not * explain me the meaning of this expression.

2086- explode with [A2] exclaim loudly as a result of. o: anger, fury, rage; frustration □ When I arrived home at midnight I found my father purple in the face and about to explode with rage at his guests' failure to leave at a reasonable hour.

2087- expose to [B2 pass rel] put in a vulnerable position in respect of. O: child; population; country. o: danger, corruption, vice; the cold of winter, disease, starvation; invasion □ In 1971 the people of East Bengal (now known as Bangladesh) were exposed to every kind of danger — flood, famine, disease and war.

2088- expunge (from) [B2 pass rel] (formal) remove (from) and thus treat as never having been stated or recorded; delete (from) (q v). O: name, words; conviction. o: record(s), minutes □ Following the prosecution on a charge of perjury of the main witness at the youth's trial, his conviction and sentence were ordered to be expunged from the record. □ Time had expunged from his memory all recollections of the terrible events he had witnessed.

2089- extort from [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) obtain from, by means of threats or violence. O: money; confession, admission of guilt □ The gang specialized in extorting large sums of money from men in important positions, by threatening to expose certain connections or activities which they wanted to keep secret.

2090- extract (from) [B2 pass rel] obtain (from), by means of a mechanical or chemical process. O: oil; dyes; juice; essence. o: earth; coal; orange; flowers □ It is one thing to locate oil, but it is quite another to extract *it (*from the earth) and transport it to the centres of industry.

2091- extract from [B2 pass] obtain from, by any means ranging from physical violence to gentle persuasion. O: money; information, confession; new dress, hat, washing-machine; promise □ Mrs Smith extracted a new refrigerator from her husband when he told her about his Christmas bonus. □ When he has extracted everything he can from a new acquaintance, he drops him like a hot brick.

2092- extricate (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) free, remove (from). O: himself, friend, colleague; lorry; lump of meat. o: difficulties, an embarrassing situation, predicament; mud, quagmire; child's throat □ Mr Mason had a good lunch at the restaurant and then discovered that he had no money in his pocket to pay for it. He was wondering how to extricate himself from this difficulty when he saw an old friend sitting at another table. 'Saved!' he exclaimed to himself.

2093- exult at [A2 rel] (formal) feel overjoyed, triumphant, because of. o: the prospect of winning a fortune, the thought of completing the task, one's new-found freedom □ Few people would not exult at the overthrow of the ruling junta.

2094- exult in [A2 pass rel] (formal) take pride in, derive pleasure from. o: the defeat, humiliation, of his enemy; one's own strength, one's ability to overcome difficulties □ Mr Smeeth, with the drudgery of the office a thing of the past, exulted in the sense of freedom that came from his longed-for release. □ It is not pleasant to see a triumphant politician exulting in the downfall and discomfiture of his opponent. ⇨ next entry.

2095- exult over [A2 pass rel] (formal) meanly enjoy the sight or thought of. o: his disgrace, downfall, misfortune, defeat; defeated enemy, team, champion □ I left the scene quickly, not wishing to witness the crowd exulting over the capture and lynching of the unfortunate bandits, however cruel they themselves had been. ⇨ previous entry.

F

2096- face away (from) [A1 A3] (turn, so as to) look or point in the opposite direction (from). S: listener, spectator; building. o: platform, speaker; street, traffic □ Sarah was overcome with embarrassment. She faced away to hide her blushes. □ The estate is so designed that the front of each house faces away from busy roads.

2097- face up to [A3 pass adj] accept honestly and courageously. S: parent, teacher; government, local council. o: responsibility, burden, task; prospect, possibility (of loss, failure) □ He had to face up to the depressing possibility of the creature's death. RM □ There's no running away from the facts; the truth just has to be faced up to*.*

2098- fade away [A1] gradually become weaker; become less audible, die away (q v). S: strength, vitality; inventiveness, inspiration; music, cheering □ Old soldiers never die, they only fade away*.* □ The clip-clop of the horse's hooves faded away into the distance.

2099- fade out [A1 nom B1i pass adj] gradually become or make invisible or inaudible (esp on radio, TV etc). S: [A1] O: [B1] voice, music, sound effects; image, picture; speaker, performer. S: [B1] broadcasting company, studio; producer □ When you turn on a transistorized radio the sound comes on immediately; when you turn off, it fades out gradually. □ I hope that during his television appearance, there will be no fade-outs or blackouts! □ Fade out the storm effect here, and turn up the music.

2100- fade up [B1i pass] gradually make louder (esp in a radio or TV studio). S: technician, sound effects man. O: music, voice; announcer □ As the signature tune was faded out, the voices of a group talking around a table were faded up*.*

2101- fag out [B1ii pass adj] (informal) make quite tired, exhaust; tire out (q v). S: exercise; game, race; entertaining, being sociable □ Standing on your feet all day really fags you out*.* □ After ten minutes of his conversation I feel quite fagged out*.* □ usu passive or adj.

2102- fall about one's ears [A2] collapse utterly; crash about one's ears (q v). S: his (whole) world; their achievements □ Soon the secure, enclosed life he had built up for himself would fall about his ears*.*

2103- fall about (laughing/with laughter) [A1] (informal) laugh uproariously, uncontrollably. S: audience; listener, viewer □ Nick's a born clown. Just the sight of him is enough to make you fall about laughing*.* □ People fell about when he told them he was doing 'O' Level woodwork and music. BBCR

2104- fall apart [A1] disintegrate, fall to pieces (q v). S: car, house; alliance, coalition; defence, case; marriage, partnership □ I don't know how Mick managed to keep the car on the road for so long. At the end, it was practically falling apart*.* □ Ann did what she could to keep the marriage from falling apart*. If she and Robert broke up, she decided, it wouldn't be her fault.*

2105- fall away (to)[1] [A1 A3] slope steeply (towards). S: field, meadow; garden, orchard. e: river, road □ Beyond the garden, an area of woodland fell sharply away to the river bank.

2106- fall away (to)[2] [A1 A3] sink, drop (to a lower level). S: demand, supply; production, output. e: level; zero, nothing □ As demand for funds slackened off, the rate fell away to the clearing banks' basic level of 3.3/8 per cent. T □ Output from the power stations fell away steeply as restrictions on the movement of coal took effect.

2107- fall back [A1] (military) withdraw, retreat. S: troops; army, division □ The Russians were finding an offensive war of movement very different from the fluid fighting of 1941 and 1942, when they had been falling back towards their dumps and railheads. B

2108- fall back on [A3 rel] approach, consult for support or comfort (in difficult times); use sth as a last resort if other things fail. e: mother, family; religion; pension, savings; simpler plan, more straightforward approach, threat of dismissal □ He grasps at things greedily, like a child, just because he hasn't any inner certainty to fall back on. PW □ And if the scheme didn't work there was always the Home Secretary's plan to fall back on. TBC □ If the men didn't respond to a reasoned approach there were other methods we could fall back on. □ fall back on usu occurs as inf immediately following n: less often as a main (finite) v.

2109- fall behind [A1 A2] move back behind others; be overtaken by them; drop behind (q v). S: runner, horse; company, industry. e: rest of the field; competitor, rival □ This country has fallen behind several of its competitors in the manufacture of cheap cotton goods. □ Fears of falling behind in the arms race lead eventually to more of the expansion which first prompted the fears. ⇨ be behind[2].

2110- fall behind with [A3] fail to pay sth for some time. e: payment, instalment; deliveries, quota □ Teenagers were more likely to fall behind with the rent. H □ He'd stopped deliveries, because I fell behind with the bill. CON ⇨ be behind[1], get behind (with).

2111- fall below [A2 emph rel] drop lower than a permitted or desired level etc. S: oil, water; wage, earnings; intake, recruitment; production, demand. e: point, level; figure, percentage; standard □ This group of workers is determined that its earnings will not fall below the average for the whole industry. □ Output for the current year will fall below that for last year. ⇨ be below[1].

2112- fall between two stools [A2] fail to be either of two satisfactory alternatives. S: policy, scheme, plan; show, performance; speech, statement □ The display falls between the two stools of an historical exhibition and a survey of the visual arts of the period — it is not wholly satisfactory as either. T

2113- fall by the wayside [A2] (euphemism for) fail to make progress in life; slip into dishonest ways □ In Mr Robert Hollis's play 'June Fall' on BBC television, the discards are the people who fall by the wayside and stop developing, the world's rejected guests. T □ 'It's a funny thing, but even the best of us can fall by the wayside and yours truly (= the speaker) is no exception.' OBS

2114- fall down[1] [A1 emph] collapse, fall to the ground. S: building, tent, scaffolding; old man, cripple □ The steel scaffolding fell down and narrowly missed a couple of bystanders. □ The old lady fell down in the street and broke her leg.

2115- fall down[2] [A1] collapse, be shown to be false or inadequate; fall to the ground (q v). S: argument, case; policy, approach □ The Council's answer to the population expansion is to build high blocks of flats, but that's where the plan falls down — who wants to live in them?

2116- fall down on it/the job [A3] (informal) fail to make a success of sth, not be able to handle it. S: employee, workman, contractor □ I don't want Jeremy to be Prime Minister or anything of that sort. He'd only fall down on it. PW □ Don't put him in charge of planning: he's sure to fall down on the job.

2117- fall for (in a big way) [A2 rel] (informal) be (strongly) attracted to; fall in love (with) (q v) (madly) □ A man who's on the way up is continually raising the standard of the women he can fall for. CON □ I fell for Irma in a big way, Harold. PW

2118- fall for (hook, line and sinker) [A2 rel] (informal) allow oneself to be persuaded by. e: line of talk, argument, propaganda □ I never take my wife to the market. She falls for all that sales talk much too easily. □ The garage said the car had been driven carefully by one previous owner, and of course I fell for it hook, line and sinker. □ If you fall for that, you'll fall for anything!

2119- fall from grace [A2] lose one's position as a trusted favourite of those in power; lapse from grace (q v). S: minister, adviser, courtier, favourite □ Becket fell from grace because of his supposed interference in the temporal realm.

2120- fall from power [A2] lose a position of power, relinquish office. S: Government, party □ This administration fell from power over its handling of the economic crisis.

2121- fall from/out of favour (with) [A2] (formal) lose a favoured or privileged position; fall from grace (q v). S: minister, courtier □ Jones has fallen out of favour with the party leadership. □ I had fallen from favour and would be lucky to pass out of the College at all. MFM

2122- fall in[1] [A1] collapse, give way. S: roof, ceiling, wall; sides of a trench □ The roof of the new tunnel hasn't been properly supported: it shows signs of falling in.

2123- fall in[2] [A1 B1i pass] (military) form into ranks (as when on parade). S: [A1] O: [B1] soldier, troops; platoon, battalion. S: [B1] sergeant-major, officer □ The company fell in and took up their dressing from the right. □ Platoon sergeants fell their men in on the barrack square.

2124- fall in[3] [A1] (legal) expire. S: △ the lease, leasehold □ As the leases of these old properties fall in, they are being pulled down to make way for office blocks.

2125- fall in alongside/beside [A3] join a person or group that is already walking or marching along □ I fell in beside him and the three of us, with the kid sitting aloft, walked over the line. CON □ Onlookers left the pavement and fell in alongside the marching demonstrators.

2126- fall in/into [A1 emph A2 emph rel] drop accidentally into sth (e g by tripping over an obstacle). A: head over heels, head first, headlong. o: river, swimming-pool □ He thrust the hands forward, tore at the water and fell flat in the pool. PM □ This reminded me of a rather fat boy who had once fallen head foremost into a muddy puddle. SNP

2127- fall in with[1] [A3 pass rel] encounter, meet; join or rejoin (after an absence) □ We fell in with a party of nomads encamped by a water-hole. □ I crossed into Assam and fell in with our forces in Imphal. ARG

2128- fall in with[2] [A3 pass rel] show support for. o: scheme, arrangement; proposal, suggestion □ He believed he had been looking forward to falling in with Alec's request. PW □ For if Isobel had fallen in love with Alec, would she have fallen in with his scheme for getting hold of Irma? PW

2129- fall in love (with) [A2] feel a sudden, strong attraction etc for sb of the opposite sex. A: madly, head over heels. o: (one's) pupil, neighbour, secretary □ But if Guy were falling in love with her, was she genuinely returning Guy's affection? DC □ You're still crazy about Fergus. What are you going to do if he falls in love with another woman? DC

2130- fall into[1] [A2 emph rel] (may) be divided into; have as components. S: lecture, article, subject. o: three sections, two parts □ The present talk falls into three parts. □ The three sections into which my argument may be said to fall are these.

2131- fall into[2] [A2 emph rel] become comatose; fall fast asleep; move into a hypnotic state; pass into[3] (q v). o: △ a coma; a deep sleep; a trance □ The patient was given an injection and afterwards fell into a deep sleep. ⇨ go into[4].

2132- fall into[3] [A2] acquire, develop. o: △ bad, undesirable habits, ways; the habit of doing sth □ It was to be expected that a young man with easy-going parents and considerable private means should keep bad company and fall into undesirable habits. □ Paul had fallen into the habit of calling at his brother's flat on Thursday evenings.

fall into[4] [A2 emph rel] drop accidentally into sth. ⇨ fall in/into.

2134- fall into decay [A2] gradually become rotten or decayed (physically or morally). S: house, boat, factory, installation; monarchy, parliament, university □ During the long period of the Depression, the sheds and warehouses were allowed to fall into decay. □ The laws and institutions of the republic had long fallen into decay.

2135- fall into a decline [A2 rel] begin to sink to a low level. S: country, economy; morals, arts □ The intense competition from overseas has caused the cotton industry to fall into a decline. □ Without government help, these local theatres will not recover from the serious decline into which they have fallen.

2136- fall into a (deep) depression [A2 rel] become dispirited, morally depressed □ After the loss of her second child, she fell into a depression from which it was difficult to rouse her.

fall into disfavour [A2] = fall from/out of favour.

2138- fall into disgrace [A2] reach a state where one is no longer respected or well regarded. S: courtier, official; schoolboy □ A little indiscreet gossip isn't enough to make you fall into disgrace with all your friends. □ From a level of easy success I suppose it's a simple matter to fall into disgrace.

2139- fall into disrepair [A2] through neglect, reach a state where repairs are needed. S: building; church, palace; machinery, mechanism □ The stonework of the tower was crumbling, and the great clock had fallen into disrepair.

2140- fall into disrepute [A2] lose one's good name or reputation. S: press, television; police, civil service □ The company has fallen into disrepute in recent years. □ An examination system which cannot provide an objective measurement of aptitude must fall into disrepute. ⇨ bring into disrepute.

2141- fall into disuse [A2] reach the state of no longer being used. S: expression, phrase; practice, custom; ceremony □ Words which fall into disuse may sometimes be revived with a new meaning. □ The practice of wearing gowns to attend lectures has now fallen into disuse.

2142- fall into place [A2] (begin to) form an orderly, intelligible pattern. S: (scraps of) evidence, (parts of) the story, (pieces of) the puzzle □ 'Of course, now that you tell me about the man's relationship with his wife, the whole picture falls into place. It explains, for instance, why he was always desperately short of money.'

2143- fall into sb's/the right etc hands [A2 emph rel] be seized by sb, pass into sb's possession, care etc. S: document, map; evidence; refugee, escapee. adj: (the) right, wrong; enemy, foreign; friendly, allied □ Old Mother Curry's always there to help. It's a good thing you've fallen into the right hands. HAA □ But what if our distinguished guest fell into the wrong hands? What if the other side got hold of him?

2144- fall into line (with) [A2] accept, conform to, what others do or propose. A: tamely, abjectly; reluctantly. o: (with) the others, the majority, public opinion, the general view □ When the Chairman proposed a tightening-up of credit facilities, most of the Board fell into line. □ After a period in the political wilderness, he has fallen back into line with the rest of his party. ⇨ be in/bring into/come into line (with).

2145- fall into step (with) [A2] begin to walk in step with sb; (fig) start to accept or follow rules, procedures etc laid down by others. o: (with) companion; marchers, procession; committee, political masters □ Charles followed him into the street, and fell into step as they trudged along. HD □ The militants on the executive are unlikely to fall into step with leaders they regard as over-conciliatory.

2146- fall off[1] [A1] become smaller or fewer; lessen, decrease; drop off[1] (q v). S: orders, exports, takings, income □ Attendances at our matinees have fallen off this season. □ There has been a marked falling-off in admissions to the advanced course. □ nom form is falling-off.

2147- fall off[2] [A1] worsen, deteriorate. S: standard, quality; service, catering □ The cooking fell off remarkably; I remember I several times had to go out to a restaurant to quell my hunger. CON □ Our customers complain of a distinct falling-off in quality. □ nom form is falling-off.

2148- fall on [A2] occur on, take place on. S: Easter, New Year's Day, Bank Holiday; his birthday, their anniversary. o: Monday, weekday □ His birthday falls on a Sunday this year. □ What day

does Christmas fall on?

2149- fall on deaf ears [A2] not be heard or noted (because others are not present, or not wishing to listen). S: cry, shout (for help); appeal, plea; request, application □ His suggestion for a three-Power world-wide Western directorate fell on deaf ears. SC □ Claims for a twenty per cent salary increase are likely to fall on deaf ears.

2150- fall on one's feet [A2] (informal) make a quick recovery after difficult times (often through good luck) □ 'He came back from the war penniless and landed a good job right away.' 'Yes, he has the knack of falling on his feet, hasn't he?' □ 'You got extra (in prison) because you looked so clean and Nordic. Oh yes, you always fall on your feet.' RATT

2151- fall flat on one's face[1] [A2] (informal) fall to the ground suddenly and in an undignified way □ With a mighty heave, he succeeded in lifting both feet from the ground, and promptly fell flat on his face. DF □ He had not gone many steps before he stumbled on the uneven ground and fell flat on his face. BM

2152- fall flat on one's face[2] [A2] (informal) suffer an undignified setback or defeat (esp after attempting sth which is beyond one's powers). S: (young, inexperienced) politician, negotiator, salesman □ Don't imagine that you can get the better of him in argument. More experienced debaters than you have fallen flat on their faces before now. □ If he tries to tackle that kind of market before he's made a thorough study he'll fall flat on his face.

2153- fall on/to one's knees [A2] kneel down (to beg for favours or mercy). S: slave, suppliant, subject □ The prisoners fell on their knees to beg for clemency.

2154- fall on/upon[1] [A2] attack fiercely; seize greedily. S: soldier; bandit, thief; hungry child. o: convoy, column; booty, plunder; food □ The 2nd Cavalry roamed the marshy length of the river Teberev, falling upon isolated units of German infantry. B

2155- fall on/upon[2] [A2 emph rel] be borne by, be incurred by. S: expense, cost; blame; burden, work; attack, fighting □ When anything goes wrong, the blame usually falls on his younger brother. □ The full cost of the wedding fell on me. □ On this part of the front fell the main weight of the attack.

2156- fall on/upon[3] [A2 rel] (formal) (of sb) catch sight of, see. S: ⚠ his etc eye, gaze □ His gaze fell upon a small party of men moving up the hill-side. □ His eyes fell on the looking-glass. EHOW

2157- fall on/upon sb's ears [A2 emph] (formal) be heard, become audible. S: sound, noise; cry, shriek □ As we entered the temple, a curious chanting fell upon our ears. □ Upon their ears fell a low, humming sound.

2158- fall on/upon evil days/hard times [A2] (formal) suffer hardship, misfortune. S: country; industry, farming; class, family □ During the reign of Henry VI the country fell on evil days. □ It was a nobleman's house, though fallen upon evil days. WDM

2159- it fall on/upon sb to do sth [A2] (formal) be, become one's responsibility to do sth □ It fell upon me to open the exhibition in the mayor's absence* (or: The responsibility for opening etc fell upon me). ⇨ fall on/upon[2].

2160- fall out[1] [A1] happen, occur. S: ⚠ things, events, everything. A: thus, in this way; as arranged, as we had anticipated □ I was pleased with the way things had fallen out. UTN □ Everything fell out as we had planned. □ an adv phrase or clause is usu present.

2161- fall out[2] [A1 B1i pass] (military) dismiss, (cause to) go off parade. S: [A1] O: [B1] soldier, platoon. S: [B1] sergeant, officer □ At the end of the drill parade, the battalion fell out. □ The troops had been fallen out by the roadside.

2162- fall-out [nom (A1)] radioactive dust (resulting from a nuclear explosion) □ The claim made for the shelters is that they will protect people from radioactive fall-out. OBS □ 'Dirty' bombs produce a higher level of fall-out than 'clean' ones.

2163- it fall out that [A1] (formal) happen, come about[1] (q v), that □ Thus it fell out, to Muriel's delight, that she was able to cross to Little Today without arousing any possible suspicion. RM □ How did it fall out that the two men arrived to address the same meeting at the same time? ⇨ fall out[1].

2164- fall out out of [A1 A2] fall from an enclosed space at a high level to a lower level. S: bird; baby, spectator. o: nest; cot, window □ 'I'm so glad you didn't hurt yourself when you fell out of bed, Mrs Baye.' DC □ 'Hold on to the side of the boat. You'll fall out!'

2165- fall out (with) [A1 A3 rel] (informal) get on bad terms (with); quarrel (with) (about/over) (q v) □ He has a knack of falling out with everyone. PP □ 'Did you and mother fall out?' R fall out of favour (with) [A2] ⇨ fall from/out of favour (with).

2167- fall out of love (with) [A2] no longer be strongly attracted to, convinced by etc. o: wife, witness; politician, party □ Sarah's not particularly fickle. She's just of an age when girls fall in and out of love all the time. □ How would the leader's morale stand up if there are to be repeated demonstrations that the voters are falling out of love with him? OBS

2168- fall outside [A2] not be sth which one can handle, understand etc; stand outside (q v). S: matter, question; finance, housing. o: (one's) province, competence; field, area (of interest) □ The future expansion of secondary school building falls outside the scope of the present inquiry. ⇨ be outside.

2169- fall over[1] [A1] fall forward and to the ground (usu after slipping or tripping). S: old lady, small boy, footballer □ Johnny slipped on a banana skin and fell over. □ Mrs Jenkins missed her footing and fell over.

2170- fall over[2] [A1] (of a stationary object) fall from an upright to a horizontal position. S: vase, lamp-standard, monument □ A suit of armour fell over with a loud crash.

2171- fall over backwards to do sth [A1] (informal) take special care, go to great pains (esp to please sb). Inf to appease, to placate; to meet objections □ But I think everybody falls over backwards to be fair to female doctors. DL □ They fall over backwards to lay on gracious service on a few favoured express trains. T

2172- fall over oneself to do sth [A2] (informal) strive anxiously or eagerly (esp to achieve or obtain sth). S: host, salesman, employer. Inf: to buy, to win, to acquire; to retain, to protect □ The oil firms were falling over themselves to obtain concessions from the Government. □ These people are falling over themselves to keep the British space effort confined to small satellites. NS

2173- fall overboard [A1] (nautical) fall from the deck of a ship etc into the water □ The spaces between the rails on the promenade deck are so wide that it would be easy for a child to slip through and fall overboard. ⇨ go overboard.

2174- fall through [A1] (informal) fail, miscarry. S: scheme, plan, project □ The scheme fell through because of some big business deal Ned had to stay and attend to. CON □ We're not going to Spain after all — the whole thing's fallen through.

2175- fall to¹ [A1] begin (to eat, fight, work). S: guest, diner; contestants, team. A: with gusto, with enthusiasm □ A meal had been prepared. I fell to with ravenous appetite. DOP

2176- fall to² [A2] start, begin. o: asking, thinking, considering, quarrelling □ I fell to brooding. PP □ And she fell to wondering again who her enemy might be. MM □ the object is the -ing form of a v.

2177- fall to the ground [A2] collapse, crumble (for want of proof or evidence); fall down ² (q v). S: theory; argument, case, contention □ This hypothesis falls to the ground because intelligence correlates only to a slight extent with 'good taste'. SNP fall to one's knees [A2] ⇨ fall on/to one's knees.

2179- it fall to sb/sb's lot to do sth [A2] (formal) become sb's task or responsibility. Inf to arrange, to organize; to design, to devise; to welcome, to receive □ It fell to my lot to form an administration. EM □ It fell to Mr Johnson-Smith, a former TV broadcaster, to interrupt Mr Heath at the end of the programme. G

2180- fall to pieces [A2] be broken, shattered, utterly; fall apart (q v). S: jug, cup; car, van; defence, argument, case □ No wonder the car's falling to pieces. Have you seen how he drives it? □ He was the coward whose cloak of broadminded, humane conduct had fallen to pieces in one moment. HAA

2181- fall under [A2] be classified as, be placed within a certain category. S: matter, question; item. o: heading, head; (the heading of) petty cash, foreign trade □ Does the entertainment of visitors fall under the heading of miscellaneous expenditure? □ 'No, we're not discussing the Christmas appeal just yet. That falls under "any other business".'

2182- fall under sb's/the spell [A2 rel] be charmed, captivated, by. S: woman; pupil, patient □ The young candidate addressed the women's branch: the entire audience fell under his spell. □ His fellow-townsmen fell under the same spell, but finally it was broken and he had to carry out his great plans in actual fact. SNP

fall upon¹ [A2] attack fiercely. ⇨ fall on/upon¹.

fall upon² [A2 emph rel] be borne by. ⇨ fall on/upon².

fall upon³ [A2 rel] catch sight of. ⇨ fall on/upon³.

fall upon sb's ears [A2 emph] ⇨ fall on/upon sb's ears.

fall upon evil days/hard times [A2] ⇨ fall on/upon evil days/hard times.

it fall upon sb to do sth [A2] ⇨ it fall on/upon sb to do sth.

2189- fall within [A2] be sth which one is able to discuss or handle. S: question, matter. o: (one's) competence, province; field, area (of interest) □ The allocation of funds for research projects does not fall within the competence of this committee. ⇨ be within².

2190- fan out [A1] move away from each other, while advancing; spread out² (q v). S: troops, search party, hunters □ The Army was fanning out north of Naples. SD □ Police with tracker dogs were fanning out over the moor.

2191- fancy oneself as [B2] (informal) consider that one is well suited to a certain role, or that one does a particular job well, even though one may have little aptitude, training etc. o: lover, father; actor, painter; driver, handyman □ He was a clerk at the works. Fancied himself as a writer. RATT □ If you fancy yourself as a nurse then go down to Aldgate, we've got a first-aid post there. CSWB

2192- farm out [B1i pass] give sb or sth to others to be responsible for or manage. S: mother; firm. O: child; work, responsibilities □ You are farming your baby out on that unspeakable woman. AITC □ The work of producing the many electrical components has been farmed out to small manufacturers.

2193- fasten on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] choose, in a keen, alert way, for special comment or criticism; seize on/upon (q v). o: idea, suggestion, proposal; weakness, □ Defence counsel fastened on this flaw in his line of reasoning. □ One of his points was fastened upon by the treasurer. 'Have you considered the likely cost of another sales campaign?' he asked.

2194- father on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] claim that sb is the father, author or originator of. O: child, offspring; manuscript, book; device, gadget □ 'Don't pin the blame on me: I had nothing to do with the idea. Try fathering it on someone else.'

2195- fathom out [B1i] (informal) (try to) discover, or devise, an explanation for sth. O: it, things; why he had done it, where they had gone □ I could have sworn I left my keys on the desk. I can't fathom out where they've got to. □ Don't tell me the answer; let me try to fathom it out for myself.

2196- fatten on/upon [A2 emph rel] grow fat, rich etc at the expense of sb else. S: idler, parasite, sponger. o: efforts, toil, sweat (of others, of the poor) □ It is now a distortion to represent the owners of industry in western countries as a small and indolent class fattening on the labours of others.

2197- fatten up [B1i pass adj] give a person or animal plenty to eat, causing him or it to gain weight. O: underweight child; livestock □ I'm trying to fatten him up as fast as I can. BFA □ The pigs are being fattened up for market.

2198- fawn (on) [A2 pass] attempt to win sb's favour by servile behaviour. o: employer, teacher; the rich, the powerful □ He fawns on anyone in an influential position. □ Don't try to win his support in that way — he hates to be fawned on.

2199- fear for [A2] feel anxious about the health etc of sb, or the future development of events. o: sb's health, life, survival; the future, the development (of sth) □ The miners' families fear for the lives of the men trapped underground. □ 'Don't attempt to climb on that very difficult rock-face. I should fear for your safety.' □ There is no need to fear for the future of the economy. It is now on a sound course.

2200- fed up (with) [pass adj (B1)] (informal) (be) depressed or irritated (by); have had enough (of); (be) tired of (q v). o: manner, attitude; climate, place, job; wife, husband. A: thoroughly, utterly; to the back teeth □ They were getting a bit fed up with her by that time, so they wrote her rather a sharp letter. RFW □ I'm fed up with being wholesome. I long to be seductive and tempting. RATT □ 'Why the long face, Frank? I've never seen you look so fed up.' □ passive with be, feel, get, look.

2201- feed back (into/to)¹ [B1i nom pass B3 pass] (radio, electronics) return part of the output of a circuit as an input to the preceding stage of that circuit. O: signal, oscillation; information. o: stage; circuit; appliance, device □ Part of the output of an amplifier can be fed back to get rid of sound distortion (cf Amplifier feedback can get rid of sound distortion). □ usu nom or passive as here.

2202- feed back (into/to)² [A1 nom A3] (of a hearer's unconscious gestures or expressions, or conscious comments) indicate to a speaker, teacher etc how well he is being received, so enabling him to adapt to his audience; (of ideas etc) return in an altered or extended form to their point of origin, so making possible still more progress. S: response, reaction; experience, knowledge; ideas, techniques. o: research, industry □ The teachers complain that nothing is feeding back to them from the classroom (cf that there is no feedback from the classroom). □ A lot of ideas are feeding back from the applied sciences (such as agriculture or metallurgy) into the pure sciences (such as botany or chemistry) (cf There is a lot of feedback from the applied to the pure sciences).

2203- feed off¹ [A2 pass rel] use as a source or supplier of food, materials, energy etc. S: outpost, station; factory, machine; newspaper, radio station; author, teacher. o: base, depot; power-station, generator; news agency; idea, thought □ When fresh food and water are not available, the camel can feed off its hump. □ The central services of the BBC to some extent feed off the regional stations. ⇨ feed on.

2204- feed off² [A2 rel] take food from a flat, open utensil. o: plate, platter, dish □ The guests sat cross-legged around a low table and fed off silver dishes.

2205- feed on [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] have, give to sb, as food or sustenance. S: [A2] O: [B2] cattle, chickens; dog, goldfish; child; public, electorate; student. S: [B2] farmer; owner; parent; dictator, propaganda machine; teacher. o: cake, corn; scraps; milk, meat; lies, pap □ Of course the children look undernourished. Their mothers can't afford to feed them on meat and fish every day. □ I'm not surprised that his classes never express an original thought when the stuff they're fed on is second and even third hand. ⇨ feed off¹.

2206- feed up [B1ii pass] bring a person to his proper weight by giving him nourishing food. O: patient, convalescent; orphan, refugee □ 'I think he looks half-starved. Wants feeding up. I'll find him a good fat kipper.' DBM

2207- feel for¹ [A2 rel] search for sth (with the hands). o: light-switch, door-knob; wallet, purse; wall, door □ Prissie's fingers pressed the catch of the locket and from habit felt for the folded paper within. DC □ In the fog he felt for the kerb with his walking-stick.

2208- feel for² [A2] feel sympathy for, sympathize with. o: unhappy, distressed (person); the bereaved, the homeless; orphan, refugee □ It's easy to feel for people in need; it's harder to bring yourself to do something practical about it.

2209- feel in one's bones (that) [B2 emph] (informal) sense, suspect (instinctively or intuitively) that sth is the case. O: it; that he is untrustworthy, that something was amiss, that trouble was afoot □ I felt in my bones that Archer didn't do him justice and I wanted to make sure. HAA □ I knew that something of the sort would happen. I felt it in my bones.

2210- feel like [A2] fancy, feel in the mood for. o: party, night out, drive in the country; walking, drinking, dancing □ He didn't feel like anything to eat. TO □ Those who felt like hearing the story again came over and added themselves to the audience. HD

2211- feel on top of the world [A2] (informal) feel very light-hearted, in good spirits □ 'You look depressed, Peter.' 'I'm not depressed. I'm feeling on top of the world.' 'Are you? You don't sound very convincing.' □ 'He's got every reason to feel on top of the world — a beautiful wife, talented children, no financial worries.' 'It all sounds marvellous. Where's the catch?'

2212- feel out of it/things [A2] (informal) feel that one is not fully sharing in an occasion, either because of shyness, or because one is unused to the company, conversation etc □ Not that she felt out of it; her nature was a silent one and she could sit quietly while people talked without feeling out of things herself or making other people feel embarrassed. WDM

2213- feel out of place [A2] not feel at home, comfortable, at one's ease (because the place, or one's companions, are foreign, of a different social class etc) □ Many of us would feel out of place in a duke's drawing room or a bishop's palace. □ I want to work here, where I know what people are like. Not in another country, where I would feel out of place. AITC

2214- feel up to [A3] (informal) feel able to (make), feel capable of (undertaking). o: much; sustained effort, long journey; meeting, working; it □ I don't know whether George feels up to opening presents. EGD □ When I suggested that I should walk part of the way, he said: 'Of course, if you feel up to it.' NM ⇨ (not) be up to; put up to¹.

2215- fence in¹ [B1i pass adj] enclose a space, or animals, with a fence. O: garden, orchard; field, meadow; stock, cattle □ Thousands of acres of open range were fenced in to prevent cattlemen trespassing on what had become private property. □ It was some two acres in extent, neatly fenced in with tall palms. DF requirement, duty □ He felt fenced in by domesticity, by his nine-to-five daily routine, by the social demands of suburban living. □ 'Don't fence me in, Mary, don't make me feel trapped.'

2216- fence in² [B1i pass adj] restrict a person's freedom. S: regulation; rule; manners, custom;

2217-fence off (from) [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] separate one area (from another) by means of a fence. O: playground, flower-garden; private land; rubbish tip □ The children can't play in the front garden until it's been fenced off from the main road.

2218-fend for oneself [A2] keep house, feed oneself etc, without outside assistance □ The old couple have no one to do the washing and heavy cleaning: they have to fend for themselves. □ The rations issued to the patrols would last for two days; after that they would fend for themselves.

2219-fend off [B1i pass adj] deflect, turn aside; prevent from coming near, keep at a distance. O: blow, thrust; visitor, envoy, acquaintance □ He neatly fended off a jab at his chest. □ Instead of bothering to fend off the sneer, I just said simply, 'Yes.' CON

2220-ferret out [B1i pass] (informal) find, discover, by diligent searching. O: letter, document; reference, detail; information, fact □ He ferreted out my address from somewhere, and wrote to ask how I was doing. CON □ They have overlooked another aspect, one that's more difficult to ferret out. HD

2221-festoon with [B2 pass rel] decorate with chains (of flowers etc) which hang in loops; deck with (q v). O: street, house; wall, door; curtain; book. o: flowers, leaves; ivy; paper-chains, ribbons; squiggles, notes □ The children had festooned the Christmas tree with tinsel and fairy lights. □ The margins of his notebook were festooned with doodles.

2222-fetch up [A1] (informal) eventually arrive (in a place) □ We all fetched up simultaneously at the same spot. SPL □ She left him a little time before she fetched up in Forfar and came to you. RFW

2223-fight (one's way) back (to) [A1 A3 emph rel B1ii B3 emph rel] return, by struggling hard (to a position previously held). S: country, firm; politician; patient. o: position, place; the top; health □ [A1] Still he fought back, and there were even moments when he felt, fleetingly, the old symptoms of vitality and spiritual health. HD □ [B3] After several reverses, they fought their way back to their old seats on the Board.

2224-fight down [B1i pass] suppress, control, hold in check. O: anger, rage, disappointment □ He told me what the trouble was. He fought it down and as the minutes passed I thought he was going to win out. TBC

2225-fight off [B1i pass adj] repel, drive off [3] (q v); not allow to approach. O: attack, aircraft; suitor, salesman; insect, pest; cold, depression □ All the bombing attacks were fought off with heavy loss. □ He's been fighting Monica off for years but she'll catch him in the end.

2226-fight it out [B1ii] (informal) fight until a conclusion is reached. S: lawyers, accountants; troops, armies □ Don't interfere in a matrimonial squabble — let husband and wife fight it out among themselves. □ Mixed groups of tanks and infantry fought it out with the enemy in sub-zero temperatures.

2227-figure in [A2 emph rel] appear as a character in; have a (prominent) part in. o: play, novel; account, report; list, programme; talks, negotiation □ Many characters in Balzac's 'Human Comedy' figure in more than one novel or story. □ In the discussions leading to Britain's accession to the European Community Mr Rippon figured prominently.

2228-figure out [B1i pass] (informal) understand sth by thinking about it; work out[3] (q v); reckon, calculate. O: problem, snag, difficulty; it (all); cost, expenses □ We can't figure out why he's been behaving so oddly. □ The cost of the operation will need to be figured out very precisely.

2229-file across, along, away etc [A1 emph A2 emph rel] go across etc in a single line □ The men filed across a narrow foot bridge. □ The staff filed into the canteen for their mid-morning break.

2230-file away [B1i pass] put away in an (office) file. S: secretary, clerk. O: letter, circular; report, record □ 'Just file this correspondence away under 'Forecasts of Sales', will you, Miss Brown?' □ Heaven knows what the Ministry does with our production figures. Files them away somewhere, I suppose.

2231-fill in[1] [B1i pass] enter in writing, write in/into[1] (q v). O: particulars, details; name, occupation □ There were many details to be filled in and a detailed plan to be drawn up. MFM □ Fill in your address at the bottom of the application form.*

2232-fill in[2] [B1i pass adj] make a hole etc level with the surrounding surface by filling it. O: hole, trench, fireplace □ If we fill in that old fireplace, we'll have a wall free for bookshelves. □ The ruts must be filled in so that traffic can pass.

2233-fill in time [B1iii] (informal) spend the interval between two stages in one's career in a temporary job □ Girls who are not so much in demand often fill in time working in department stores and coffee bars. H □ She's not really interested in nursing — just filling in time until she gets married.

2234-fill in (on) [B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) give sb up-to-date information (on), bring up to date (q v) (on). o: latest exploit, recent move, future plan, actual situation □ She always fills us in on what her programme is. TGLY □ As we drove off, I was filled in on the latest developments at the London office.

2235-fill in/out/up [B1i pass adj] complete sth in writing (by supplying the information required). O: form, application, tax-return □ What's a doctor for? Not to sit all day filling out forms for the National Health. AITC □ We asked Mr Charlton if he had yet filled up the forms. BFA □ 'I'm afraid your application for benefit is incorrectly filled in.'

2236-fill out[1] [A1] gain in weight; grow rounder or fatter. S: face, cheeks □ He's filled out a lot with all the good food and regular exercise.

2237-fill out[2] [B1i pass adj] make fuller, more substantial (by adding material). O: story, account; treatment □ The manuscript might be usable, the editor wrote, if the author could fill it out a little. ARG □ As a series of episodes, I find this book entertaining; it would be even more successful if the story-line were filled out.

2238-fill up[1] [A1 B1i pass] become, make, completely full. S: [A1] O: [B1] gutter, channel; reservoir; stadium, theatre □ Following the heavy rains, the storage tanks were filling up again. □ All parts of the theatre were quickly filling up. □ 'I've filled up all the buckets I can lay my hands on.' □ 'Please fill up (the hall) from the front — the speaker's voice won't carry to the back.'

2239-fill up[2] [B1i nom pass] make completely full (esp with drink or fuel). O: glass, jug; (petrol–) tank □ (request to a barman to refill glasses) 'Fill 'em up again!' □ (request to a garage attendant to fill one's tank) 'Fill her up!' □ 'Stop at the next garage for a fill-up.' □ 'Here's a glass that needs filling up (or: a fill–up).'

2240-find against [A2] (legal) find sb guilty in a court of law; decide against [1] (q v). S: court; magistrate, jury. o: plaintiff, defendant □ We find against the defendant and order him to pay costs in the sum of £100. ⇨ next entry.

2241-find for [A2] (legal) reach a verdict in favour of; decide for/in favour of (q v). S: court, jury. o: plaintiff, defendant □ When the case was retried, the jury found for the defendant. ⇨ previous entry.

2242-(not) find it in oneself/one's heart to do sth [B2] be unable (through kindheartedness or delicacy of feeling) to do sth. O: it... to criticize, to blame, to punish, to kill □ I cannot find it in myself to condemn a mother who steals food for a hungry child. □ He nearly found it in his heart to apologize. OMIH

2243-find out[1] [A1 B1iii pass] learn by study, calculation, or inquiry. O: answer, cost, size; when we leave, whether to go; that the disease is curable, that resistance is futile □ When you can't account for money, do you feel a need to find out what you have done with it? WI □ I know nothing about this job, but finding out will be enjoyable. □ It was found out that some evacuees progressed faster at school than children who had not left the home environment.

2244-find out[2] [A1 B1iii] discover a mistake, a loss, sb's dishonesty etc. O: where the money went, what has been happening, how the loss occurred □ You'd better send on another fifty pounds to stop their finding out. DC □ One day someone will start asking questions and find out precisely why we've been losing so much money.

2245-one's sin(s) will find one out [B1ii] (formal or facetious) (one's) wrongdoing will be discovered □ Mark my words: his sins will find him out! □ Your sin will find you out. □ the latter is a text from the Bible.

2246-find an answer/a solution (to) [B2 pass emph rel] be able to solve. S: science, technology; religion, philosophy; government, industry. o: question; riddle, puzzle; dilemma, quandary □ A solution has not yet been found to the fundamental problems of industrial relations. SC □ These are questions to which we shall not find easy answers.

2247-find favour with [B2 emph rel] (formal) appear favourable to sb (and so be well received by him). S: petitioner, suitor; scheme, project; proposal, idea. o: king, court; committee, board; public, electorate □ This was obviously a reasonable suggestion; it didn't, however, find favour with the men. ARG

2248-finish off [B1i pass] end rapidly; kill, destroy. O: discussion, dispute; victim, prey □ I finally said we must finish off the war in Italy quickly. MFM □ This last unhappy warrior had been finished off by a cut on the head. SD □ That last climb nearly finished me off.

2249-finish off/up [B1i pass] eat or drink every bit or drop of □ Old Smith came round for a chat and finished off the remains of my whisky. □ 'Do finish up the fruit salad — it'll only go to waste if you don't'.

2250-finish off/up (with) [A1 A3 emph rel] end, conclude, a festive occasion, performance etc, by having or doing sth; end up (with) (q v). o: cigar, brandy, port; loyal toast, rousing speech, Old Lang Syne □ The Male Voice Choir finished off with a rousing chorus (or: finished off by singing etc). □ We had Madeira and nuts to finish up with.

2251-finish with[1] [A2] end a relationship or connection with. o: girlfriend, husband; firm, business; academic life □ I've finished with our grocer for good: that's the third time he's tried to give me short change. □ He's finished with gadding about — it's the quiet life for him now.

2252-finish with[2] [A2] finish using, consulting etc; have no further need of. o: newspaper, book □ 'Have you finished with our lawn-mower yet? We shall be needing it this weekend.' □ Scobie stood up. 'May I go, Sir, if these gentlemen have finished with me?' HOM □ usu with perfect tenses.

2253-finish with[3] [A2] finish chastising or punishing □ 'Before I've finished with you, you'll regret the day you were born!' □ 'No, he can't go. I haven't finished with him yet!' □ usu with perfect tenses.

2254-fire ahead/away [A1] (informal) start questioning □ 'I want to ask you something.' 'Ask on', Pop said. 'Fire away'. BFA

2255-fire off [B1i pass] expend, use up, esp by shooting. O: ammunition; magazine, belt (of cartridges); bullets, rockets; questions, curses □ With this machine gun you could never fire off more than two magazines without a break. The barrel would get too hot, and would need to be changed or allowed to cool down. □ 'Now then, ladies and gentlemen, if you've fired off all your questions I think we might let the speaker have a rest.'

2256-fish for [A2 pass adj] (informal) try to obtain (by indirect methods); angle for (q v). o: compliments, applause; story, information □ Don't be taken in by his charm: he's fishing for an invitation to the big party. □ She was a vain but constantly sought-after young woman: the fished-for compliments were never slow in coming.

2257-fish out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) extract, raise (from). O: coin, handkerchief; tin can, dead body. o: pocket, drawer; river, canal □ (stage direction) Mrs Bryant leaves washing up to fish out some curtains. R □ Several derelict cars are fished out of the canal every month.

2258-fit in/into[1] [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] find space or room for. O: table, bed; case, box. o: room, office; boot (of a car), chest, trunk □ 'I don't see how we can fit in any more chairs'. □ 'Try to fit the record-player into the space beside the bookcase'.

2259-fit in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] find a time for. O: patient, customer. o: programme, list (of appointments), schedule □ 'Sorry, I can't fit in any more callers this morning.' □ Mrs Smith will have to be fitted in next week. □ into one hour on Monday afternoon I have to fit about five appointments.

2260-fit in (with) [A1 A3 rel] live in harmony (with one's companions), adjust well to one's surroundings. S: newcomer, immigrant. o: neighbour, native □ How would they fit in, in this new land? WI □ The new boy fitted in well with his room-mates.

2261-fit in with [A3] match, suit, not clash (with). S: statement, claim; behaviour; arrangement, plan. o: facts, appearance, declared aim; yours □ The answer disappoints you or doesn't appear to fit in with your temperament. WI □ At least my ideas work. Because they fit in with the way life's lived. TGLY □ Our holidays must be timed to fit in with yours.

2262-fit out [B1i pass adj] supply to sb or sth new equipment, stores, or clothes. O: ship, garrison; house; children, recruit □ The 'Discoverer' is being fitted out for a new expedition to the Arctic. □ I went to a large clothes shop where they could fit you out for anything. DIL □ a shop that fits people out with a wide range of clothes (complete outfits) is an outfitters.

2263-fit up [B1i pass] install, mount. O: lamp, washbasin, desk □ There's room at the end of the garage to fit up a work-bench. □ The most up-to-date appliances have been fitted up in the new flats.

2264-fit up (with) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] give as equipment to sb; equip (with) (q v). O: patient, handicapped person; house, workshop. o: artificial limb, hearing aid; appliance, gadget □ If you speak to your oculist he'll see that you're fitted up with new spectacles. □ He's had the new place fitted up with every labour-saving device.

2265-fix on/onto [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] attach, fasten (to). O: button, clip; switch, dial. o: jacket, dress; radio, motor □ I want the garage to fix a rev-counter onto the dashboard — a sports car should look sporty. □ *'*Fix on a new zip for me — the old one's broken'.

2266-fix on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) look intently at; gaze at (q v). O: △ one's gaze; one's eyes, attention. o: scene, spectacle □ Throughout the display his gaze was fixed on the horsemen in the foreground. □ On this golden prospect all his attention was now fixed.

2267-fix up [B1i pass] arrange, organize. O: meeting, talks; lunch; trip, tour □ 'I haven't done anything about my visit to Madrid yet.' 'Why not get a travel agent to fix it up for you?' □ 'Try to fix me up an appointment for eleven tomorrow morning.' □ the second example has an Indirect Object after the v.

2268-fix up (with) [B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) arrange for sb to have. O: friend, relative; oneself. o: room, job, meal, girlfriend □ He's fixed himself up with a very smart flat on the sea-front. □ 'You can sleep here if you like.... Till you... get yourself fixed up. TC

2269-fix it/things up (with) [B1ii pass B3 pass] (informal) arrange the matter (often by getting sb to make special concessions) □ 'You won't go to gaol. I've fixed it up.' AITC □ They can leave school early today to play football. John's fixed it up with the Headmaster.

2270-fix with [B2] (formal) look intently at (esp in an unfriendly or hostile way). o: △ a (cold, fishy) stare, an intent, angry) look; (terrifying) glare □ Small boys should not burst into a master's study unannounced. The housemaster fixed Jenkins with a decidedly hostile look.

2271-fizzle out [A1] (informal) end in a feeble and unsatisfactory way. S: scheme, attack, argument, enthusiasm □ His protest fizzled out. NM □ The first and only attempt to tax the British gambler fizzled out. SC

2272-flag down [B1i pass adj] stop by waving with a flag or the hand. S: traffic police, hitchhiker. O: passing car, taxi □ A student hitchhiking to London flagged me down on the Great North Road.

2273-flake away/off [A1] separate, detach itself, in flakes. S: paint, stucco, pebbledash, rust □ We scraped at the woodwork, and the paint just flaked away.

2274-flake out [A1] (slang) collapse from exhaustion; faint □ After the guests had gone and the dishes were cleared away, we simply flaked out in a couple of armchairs. □ Some poor old dear had flaked out in the waiting-room.

2275-flare up [A1 nom] suddenly begin to burn more brightly or fiercely; burst into a sudden rage; reach a more violent state. S: fire, candle; boss, husband; fighting, battle □ Robert looked as if he were about to flare up and tell me to mind my own business. CON □ The war will all flare up again and everyone says it will be much worse than before. RFW □ The Southern Area commander reported a sudden flare-up of fighting on his front.

2276-flash across [A1 A2 emph] cross (a surface etc) like a sudden, bright light. S: lightning, meteor, rocket; expression, smile. o: sky, horizon; face □ A flight of aircraft flashed low across the field. □ A sudden smile of recognition flashed across his face.

2277-flash (at) [B2 emph rel] send a sudden bright look etc at sb. O: △ a look, glance; a smile □ Mother flashed a reassuring smile at the child. □ She flashed a discreet glance at the young man seated in the corner of the compartment (or: She flashed the young man in the corner a discreet glance).

2278-flashback [nom (A1)] (cinema) a return during a film either to events that have already been shown, or to events that occurred before the main action of the film began □ The main action of the film portrayed the hero's adult life; scenes from his boyhood were shown in flashback.

2279-flash into [A2 emph] enter, like a sudden bright light. S: aeroplane, train; thought, idea; recollection. o: sight, view; sb's mind □ A small, brilliantly coloured bird flashed into view.

2280-flash on [A1] be lit, with sudden brightness. S: light, illuminations □ Someone pressed a switch and all the lights on the Christmas tree flashed on together.

2281-flash out [A1] appear like a sudden bright light; speak in a sudden outburst of passion. S: brilliance, radiance; anger, temper; he etc □ She flashed out at Martin: 'Do you really believe that no one has any idea what's in the wind?' NM □ The sheer exuberance of the man flashes out even in what we would call a normal conversation.

2282-flecked with [pass (B2)] (be) marked with small patches of. S: sky; ground. o: small clouds; flowers, leaves □ The grass underneath the trees was flecked with patches of sunlight.

2283- flick from/off [B2 pass] remove with a sharp tap or brushing movement of the finger(s). O: dust, fluff; fly, wasp; ash. o: sleeve; cheek; cigar □ The waitress flicked the bread crumbs from the table cloth and brought plates and glasses.

2284- flick out [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) emerge, come forward, in a sudden, sharp, light movement. S: [A1] O: [B1] tongue, tail, paw □ The lizard's tongue flicked out and trapped an insect. □ The cat flicked out a paw and drew the ball of wool towards it.

2285- flick through [A2 nom pass] (informal) scan a book etc, turning the pages with a quick movement of the thumb; thumb through (q v). o: magazine, review; (pile of) photographs, exam scripts □ Patients in the waiting room idly flicked through magazines as they waited for their names to be called. □ 'Have you read the report yet?' 'I've hardly had time to do more than flick through it (or: give it a flick(-)through).'

2286- flicker out [A1] (of a naked light) gradually go out with small spurts of flame; (fig) be extinguished little by little. S: flame; match; candle, lamp; fighting, resistance □ The candles flickered out one by one and the room was plunged in darkness. □ The flame of resistance never entirely flickered out in occupied Europe.

2287- flinch from [A2 pass emph rel] try to avoid (through fear, moral cowardice etc). o: truth; unpleasant task, responsibility □ Don't flinch from the facts! □ It is an unpleasant decision to take, but it should not be flinched from.

2288- fling (at) [B2 pass emph rel] express (to sb) in a sudden, violent way. O: accusation, charge; taunt, jibe; insult, curse. o: prisoner, accused; servant, menial □ Perhaps you should check your facts before flinging charges of corruption at half the Board of Directors. □ You'd think that all the criticism that had been flung at him might have dented his self-esteem — but nothing of the kind!

2289- fling one's head back [B1i pass] stand generally erect, with the head pressed back (from feelings of pride, arrogance etc) □ 'That story you told about your royal blood isn't true, is it?' Prissie flung back her head and seemed momentarily to gain height. DC

2290- fling down a challenge [B1iii pass] challenge dramatically. S: politician; boxer, promoter; newspaper □ The Party has flung down a challenge to its political rivals to debate the issue on television.

2291- fling out/out of [A1 A2] leave in an angry and dramatic manner. o: room, meeting □ Following an angry exchange with the Chairman, Jones gathered up his papers and flung out of the room.

2292- fling one's arms up in horror [B3] express surprise and shock (on hearing news) □ Smith flung his arms up (or: flung up his arms) in horror at the news that his son was living on the Riviera with a rich divorcee.

2293- flip over [A1 B1i pass] turn over with a sharp, sudden movement. S: [A1] O: [B1] plane, glider; screen; card. S: [B1] (gust of) wind, breeze; player □ The plane stalled, flipped over onto its back and crashed near the perimeter fence. □ He flipped over the thin piece of pasteboard and read the address scribbled on the back.

flip through [A2 nom pass] = flick through.

2295- flirt (with) [A2 pass emph rel] (usu of a woman) talk, behave, in an attractive, enticing way, without intending a serious involvement; run risks. o: sb else's boyfriend; danger □ Don't take her too seriously, she's only flirting with you. □ Deal gently with the poor boy — he's not used to being flirted with.

2296- flock in/into [A1 emph A2 emph rel] enter in a flock. S: audience, spectators; fans; students. o: theatre, cinema; stadium, ground; lecture-hall □ Munich hotels were unable to cope with the huge numbers flocking in for the Olympic Games. □ Thousands of Scots flocked into Barcelona for the European Cup tie.

2297- flock together [A1] (esp of people with common interests or loyalties) gather, come together, in a crowd. S: scientists, teachers; trade unionists, (political) party members □ Brighton was full of Conservative Party stalwarts, flocking together for their annual conference. □ (proverb) Birds of a feather flock together.

2298- flog to death [B2 pass] (informal) try to persuade sb of the worth or desirability of sth so persistently that he loses interest in it. S: advertiser, salesman; politician; inventor. O: product; scheme; idea □ The need to 'export or perish' has been dinned into manufacturers so fervently that this worthy cause may have been flogged to death.

2299- flood in/into [A1 A2 emph rel] arrive in great quantities (at). S: letters, entries, applications, offers of help. o: office, bank, college □ Donations have been flooding in since the appeal made for help over the radio (or: We have been flooded with donations etc). □ If oil pollution does eat into that £50 million flooding into Cornwall each year, everyone in the county will feel it in his pocket. OBS flood with [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ flood in/into.

2300- flood out [B1i pass adj] (of flood waters) force sb to leave his home. O: villager, farmer □ Hundreds were flooded out when the canal burst its banks. □ usu passive.

2302- flop about/around [A1] make a dull, flapping sound as one moves about (usu because one is wearing loose shoes) □ Grandmother flopped around comfortably in a pair of old carpet slippers.

2303- flop down [A1 emph] fall heavily or clumsily (e g through tiredness) □ At the end of a working day all he feels like doing is flopping down in an armchair to watch television.

2304- flounder about/around [A1] move about clumsily (and often helplessly, as in mud); (fig) react in a clumsy, helpless way (as when faced with a difficult problem). S: walrus, seal; prisoner, accused □ A heavy lorry was floundering around in thick mud at the entrance to the building site. □ The next question from counsel left the witness floundering about for an answer.

2305- flow across, along, away etc [A1 emph A2 emph rel] move across etc in a steady stream. S: water, oil, lava; pedestrians, traffic; reinforcements, supplies □ Requests for blankets, tents and medical supplies are flowing into the offices of the relief organizations. □ Fresh material and drafts of infantry continued to flow up to the front. B

2306- flow from [A2 emph rel] follow logically from, result from (q v). S: improvement, benefit; wealth, prosperity; conclusion, result. o: change, decision; development; argument □ This is an important technical innovation from which will flow many benefits to industry. □ From the court's decision these consequences must surely flow.

2307- flow over [A2] (of noisy or disturbing events) take place all around sb without greatly affecting him; wash over (q v). S: noise, hubbub, din; tensions, jealousies; rebukes, reprimands □ He doesn't allow himself to be excited by the children's squabbles. The bickering and fisticuffs simply flow over him.

2308- fluff out/up [B1i pass adj] shake into a soft mass like fluff. S: bird, animal; housewife, maid. O: feather, fur; pillow, cushion □ Birds fluff out their feathers as a protection against the cold. □ A nurse smoothed out the sheets and fluffed up the pillows.

2309- flutter about [A1 A2] move here and there in a nervous, restless way. S: woman, girl □ Our hostess fluttered about, taking quick nervous puffs at her cigarette. □ 'Stop fluttering about the place. Sit down, and I'll buy you a drink.'

2310- flutter down [A1 emph] descend, come down, with sharp irregular flapping movements. S: bird, leaf, petal; letter, paper □ Tons of ticker-tape fluttered down into Fifth Avenue from office windows.

2311- fly in the face of [A2] oppose sth which is customary, reasonable etc. S: he etc; action, step; decision. o: (of) tradition, custom; reason, logic; fact, evidence; unity, comradeship □ Revolutionization of long distance road haulage would fly in the face of all commonsense. SC □ Being more hard-headed than Dr Heck, they will avoid attempting to fly in the face of international unity. TES

2312- fly in/into[1] [B1i pass B2 pass] cause to land (at an airfield). S: pilot, co-pilot. O: aircraft, plane, jet; passenger, cargo. o: London Airport; Madrid, Kano □ The pilot flew the badly crippled bomber in on one engine. □ Tons of freight are flown into this airport every day. ⇨ next entry.

2313- fly in/into[2] [A1 A2] (of a pilot) cause to land; (of a passenger) arrive aboard an aircraft; (of an aircraft) come in to land. S: pilot; tourist, visitor; jet, cargo-plane. o: Rome □ My partner has just flown in from London; we can begin discussions at once. □ Aircraft arriving later today will have to fly into Gatwick through heavy fog. ⇨ previous entry.

2314- fly into [A2] suddenly become very angry. o: △ a (fit of) temper, rage, passion; an angry fit □ The child flew into a rage and began scattering its toys about. □ He'll fly into a temper and tell me the contract for the murals is off. CON

2315- fly off the handle [A2] (informal) lose one's temper. S: wife, husband, school-teacher □ She's always flying off the handle at the children. □ Don't fly off the handle every time you run up against a small problem.

2316- flyover [nom (A1)] bridge carrying one (main) road over another at an important junction □ Flyovers or underpasses will be built wherever the motorway cuts across existing trunk-roads.

2317- fly past [A1 nom] fly in formation as part of a ceremonial parade (often over the route of the parade on the ground). S: fighter, bomber □ The crowd looked up as a squadron of jet-fighters flew past. □ The ceremony ended with a flypast of new aircraft. □ usu nom.

2318- foam at the mouth[1] [A2] send out foam from the mouth (as during an epileptic fit). S: epileptic, rabid dog □ A symptom of rabies is foaming at the mouth.

2319- foam at the mouth[2] [A2] (informal) show extreme anger (without literally foaming at the mouth) □ When Smith was told that children had been trampling on his prize vegetables, he practically foamed at the mouth.

2320- fob off onto [B3 pass] trick or deceive into buying or accepting; palm off (on) (q v). S: dishonest trader, door-to-door salesman, confidence trickster. O: inferior goods, shoddy article. o: gullible customer, innocent shopper □ Unscrupulous firms are fobbing these goods off onto the unsuspecting housewife. □ Last year's model was fobbed off onto us. ⇨ next entry.

2321- fob off (with) [B1ii pass B3 emph rel] trick or deceive into buying or accepting; stop sb achieving his aim or purpose by trickery or delaying tactics; palm off (with) (q v). S: dishonest trader, confidence trickster. O: gullible customer. o: inferior goods; half-truth, yarn, tale □ We were entitled to be treated as equals and we would not be fobbed off with Skybolt. T □ Let me make my point, and I am not to be fobbed off this time. TBC □ He might fob Madame La Botte off with 50 francs, if he happened to be in the mood. US ⇨ previous entry.

2322- focus (on) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] think of one thing to the exclusion of others; concentrate (on/upon) q v). O: △ (one's) attention, thoughts; one's mind; one's efforts, energies. o: problem; question, matter; speaker, lecturer; process □ He finds it hard to focus his thoughts on one thing for longer than five minutes. □ Public attention at the moment is focused on the problems of industrial relations.

2323- foist (off) on [B2 pass emph rel B3 pass emph rel] trick or deceive into buying or accepting; pass an unpleasant responsibility on to. S: dishonest trader etc; superior. O: inferior goods etc; problems, difficulties. o: gullible customer etc; subordinate □ He foisted off a few cases of inferior scotch on a too eager customer. □ I'm sorry all this has been foisted on you. EHOW ⇨ fob off onto.

2324- fold back [B1i pass adj] turn one (part of a) thing back over itself. O: page, sheet (of paper); canopy, hood (of a vehicle); cover, sheet (on a bed) □ They drove in bright sunshine, with the hood of the car folded back.

2325- fold in/into [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] (cooking) mix with (existing ingredients). S: chef, cook. O: eggs, sugar. o: flour, mixture □ (recipe) Then fold in the rest of the sugar and flavouring.

2326- fold up[1] [B1i pass adj] make a neat (and perhaps portable) package etc of sth by turning parts of it back upon themselves. O: newspaper; sheet, tablecloth; deck-chair, camp bed, tent □ The table linen was neatly folded up and put away. □ 'Would you fold up the garden chairs and put them in the conservatory?'

2327- fold up[2] [A1] (informal) collapse with mirth or pain. S: audience, spectator; boxer, patient □

From the moment he appeared on stage, the audience folded up in their seats. □ He jabbed me just once in the solar plexus and I folded up.

2328-fold up[3] [A1] (informal) suffer moral or spiritual collapse; finish trading. S: country, enemy, industry, □ They felt that if she didn't fold up when her boy died, she wouldn't fold up when the balloon went up (= when war began). RFW □ Several national newspapers have folded up in the past ten years.

2329-follow in sb's footsteps [A2] continue a tradition or process established by a predecessor; adopt the same trade or profession as one's father □ We shall not recount the many experiments carried out by Rhine and by others who have followed in his footsteps over the years. SNP □ One of my passes was in Maths, so my old lady decided that I should follow in my poor father's footsteps. JFTR

2330-follow on [A1 nom] (cricket) (of the second side to bat in a match) bat again, having failed in the first innings to come close enough to one's opponent's score □ Australia were all out for 120 in their first innings and had to follow on. □ He defended his decision not to enforce the follow-on against India at Edgbaston. G

2331-follow through[1] [B1ii pass] continue doing sth until a conclusion is reached. S: thinker, scientist; designer, builder. O: argument, experiment; project, development □ 'Don't keep breaking off. I'd like to hear you follow the argument through to a conclusion.' □ He takes several schemes in hand, but lacks the persistence to follow them through.

2332-follow through[2] [A1 nom] (sport) continue a stroke to the full extent of one's arm after hitting the ball. S: batsman, tennis player, golfer □ To hit the ball clean and hard you must develop a smooth follow-through.

2333-follow up[1] [B1i nom pass adj] continue, develop, by doing sth better or more ambitious; extend, exploit. O: process, series; campaign; achievement, success, victory □ This production team have had one successful television series; how will they follow it up (or: what will they do for a follow-up)? □ Don't rest on your laurels: follow up your success and start looking for new markets now.

2334-follow up[2] [B1i pass] investigate closely; follow where something leads. O: story, rumour; lead, clue □ I decided to follow up one or two hints that had been dropped at her cocktail party. □ The night editor decides which of the stories that are phoned in should be followed up.

2335-fool about/around [A1] behave in a casual and silly way; play about/around (with) (q v). A: with a revolver, in a sports car, on a golf course □ He should know that you don't fool around on a rifle range. □ 'What the blazes are you fooling about at, Joe?' CON □ Everyone knows he's been fooling around with some girl at the office.

2336-forbear (from) [A2 emph rel] (formal) not begin to do, stop doing, sth (esp sth which offends or irritates others); refrain (from) (q v). o: interference (in sth), over-attention (to sth), indulgence (in sth); comment, criticism; being drawn in, giving an opinion □ This was a warning to forbear from being too deeply involved in the company's affairs.

2337-force down sb's throat [B2 pass] (informal) compel an unwilling listener etc to accept sth; ram/stuff down sb's throat (q v). S: regime, (political) party; radio, TV; advertiser, public relations man. O: dogma, doctrine; slogan, catchphrase; product, merchandise □ We would have to walk delicately and not force our ways down the throats of all and sundry. MFM □ You're not obliged to sit in front of a television set and have that rubbish forced down your throat.

2338-force on/upon [B2 pass] compel to accept. S: shopkeeper, salesman; victorious power, strong neighbour. O: goods; terms, conditions; war. o: housewife; small country □ This country didn't want the war. It was forced upon us by powers that needed our coal and iron. □ Madge had forced a crisis on me. UTN

2339-force up [B1i pass adj] cause to rise (by applying strong pressure). S: shortage; bad harvest; strike; wage increase. O: price, cost □ Increasing the wages of the bus crews will force up fares. □ The gloomiest forecast was that Britain's entry into Europe would force the cost of living up very considerably.

2340-foredoomed to failure [pass (B2)] (be) destined to fail before it starts. S: scheme, development, venture □ Since the bigger firms were not prepared to give it their backing, the project was foredoomed to failure.

2341-forget about [A2] lose remembrance of; fail to keep in the memory; not think further about, dismiss (from one's mind/thoughts) (q v). o: the past; experience, event; visit, arrangement, appointment; (unpleasant) experience, (nasty) shock □ Helping his son with his physics homework reminded him of things he'd long forgotten about. □ 'Thanks for reminding me — you know, I'd forgotten all about him coming this afternoon.' □ 'Don't worry,' she said soothingly, 'just go away and forget about all this.' DC

2342-fork out [A1 B1iii pass] (informal) pay, usu unwillingly. S: public, tax-payer. O: cash, money □ 'That will be another half-crown.' Brownsworth forked out. RM □ It would be laughable if we weren't always having to fork out money for the police which ought to be spent on roads. RM

2343-form from [B2 pass emph rel] make a whole from parts; (passive) have as its components. O: rock, stone; cloud; lake, sea; company, association. o: liquid; drop, particle; pool; (smaller) unit □ These substances are formed from a mixture of liquids solidifying under great pressure. □ There is a proposal to form a new political party from those breaking away from the major groups. ⇨ next entry.

2344-form into [A2 rel B2 pass rel] assemble to make a group etc. S: [A2] O: [B2] followers, young people. o: committee, club, brotherhood; company, brigade □ The children were formed into small groups, which went from door to door collecting money and old clothes. □ On the word of command, the company formed smartly into three ranks. ⇨ previous entry.

2345-form (a) part of [B2 emph rel] be a part of, an element in. S: episode, incident; chapter, section; limb, organ; company, regiment. o: story, film; book, article; trunk, abdomen; army □ There is discussion over whether the new Department should form part of the Faculty of Arts. □ There is a complex rehousing plan of which this development forms only a small part.

2346- form up [A1 B1i pass] (military) (cause to) assume parade order or formation. S: [A1] O: [B1] troops, company, battalion; vehicles. S: [B1] officer, sergeant □ The battalion formed up by companies on the barrack square. □ The troops had been formed up in review order.

2347- fortify (against) [B2 pass emph rel] make stronger, more resistant (against). O: town, position, emplacement; oneself. o: attack, invasion; cold, flu □ The forward positions were strongly fortified against artillery bombardment. □ There were more difficult times ahead, against which his natural resources would do little to fortify him.

2348- foul up [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) spoil, mess up (q v); make unpleasant, sour. O: things; arrangements, organization; relationship, marriage □ When everything is running smoothly, why must he step in and foul things up? □ His easy-going ways with other women have fouled up a good working partnership. □ We'll finish the building on time provided there are no foul-ups in supplying materials.

2349- frame up [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) arrange (by falsifying evidence, corrupting witnesses etc) to make an innocent person appear guilty. S: enemy, rival; police, official □ It's hard to frame you up. BBCTV □ In most cases in which a person is framed up by the police, the victim is too surprised, or ignorant, to help himself. BBCTV □ We have been expecting a frame-up for a long time. But this time we have got witnesses. G

2350- freak out [A1 nom] (slang) move into a heightened or depressed state of mind (esp now, after taking drugs); behave in a lively, fanciful or abandoned way (e g during a party or celebration) □ He took a lot of acid (LSD) and really freaked out. □ John's party last weekend was wild — a real freak-out.

2351- free from [B2 pass emph rel] make free, independent, of. O: oneself; country, people; client; patient. o: slavery, dependence; obligation, undertaking; anxiety □ A local authority grant freed John from financial dependence on his parents. □ Are we freed from anxieties about the future by taking out another insurance policy?

2352- freeze off [B1i nom pass] (informal) keep at a distance by being too unfriendly or remote; drive away O: suitor, visitor, customer □ If this were all, outsiders could hardly succeed with working-class people; they would be likely to impress them but also to freeze them off. UL □ Before he had got half-way through his sentence she was giving him the Siberian freeze-off, a routine she must have known all about. CON

2353- freeze out [B1i pass] (informal) prevent from doing business by boycotting goods etc; exclude from society by unfriendly behaviour. S: rival, competitor; neighbour, club member □ Some of the smaller traders are being frozen out by the big combines.

2354- freeze over [A1] become covered with ice. S: lake, river, sea □ During the severe winter of 1947 even the sea froze over. ⇨ frozen over.

2355- freeze to death [A2] die through exposure to extreme cold. S: men, livestock □ Flocks and herds were cut off by deep snowdrifts and froze to death in the open.

2356- freeze-up [nom (A1)] period of extreme cold, with ice and snow □ During last year's freeze-up, traffic was brought to a halt along the full length of the motorway. □ I must do something about protecting the water-pipes in case we have another bad freeze-up.

2357- freshen up [A1 nom] (informal) wash, shave etc, so as to feel fresh after a journey etc □ I shall have time for a quick freshen-up at the hotel before the meeting begins.

2358- frighten away/off [B1i pass] frighten, thus causing to stay away or go away. S: dog, guard; loud noise. O: intruder, thief; stranger □ Of course the job won't frighten her away. She likes babies, otherwise she wouldn't be here. DC □ The sound of us moving about upstairs must have frightened the burglar off.

2359- frighten into [B2 pass] cause sb to do sth by means of threats, terrorization. O: population; child; victim. o: submission, obedience; stealing; handing over his money □ The villagers were frightened into surrendering nearly all their grain by the drunken soldiers. □ The older boys frightened the younger ones into stealing money from their mothers' purses.

2360- frighten to death [B2 pass] frighten very severely. S: crowd, traffic; air travel; animal, bird □ The baby monkeys would get stricken with all sorts of complaints and frighten us to death. BB □ His wife is frightened to death on the few occasions when she has to travel by air.

2361- fritter away [B1i pass] (informal) waste money etc by spending it in a number of separate and unimportant ventures. O: money, time, energies □ I do hope that all you've got to give the world won't be frittered away in side-tracks and bypaths. HAA □ I didn't want us to fritter it away on things we don't really need. AITC frost over [A1] become covered with frost. S: window(-pane), gate, pavement □ The windows had frosted over in the night; Mary breathed on them and scraped with her finger nails. ⇨ next entry.

2362- frosted over [pass adj (B1)] (be) covered with frost. S: window, glass □ After the severe cold of last night, the windows were frosted over. ⇨ previous entry.

2363- frozen over [pass adj (B1)] (be) covered with ice. S: pond, lake, river □ Farmers broke the ice on the drinking troughs that were frozen over. □ Even heavy lorries could cross the frozen-over rivers. ⇨ freeze over.

2364- fuck about/around[1] [A1] (taboo) behave in a foolish or irresponsible way; bugger about/around[1] (q v) □ 'When's he going to stop fucking about and do an honest day's work?' □ 'Is it you that's been fucking around with my camera?'

2365- fuck about/around[2] [B1ii pass] (taboo) treat sb in a foolish or thoughtless way; behave as though one has a poor estimate of sb's worth etc; bugger about/around[2] (q v). S: boss, sergeant, teacher □ 'Now don't fuck me about. I came here looking for proper service, not to be palmed off with dud equipment.' □ 'Don't fuck me around, Harry. Give me the money and let's get out of here.'

2366- fuck off [A1] (taboo) leave, go away; bugger off (q v) □ 'If he comes here bothering you, tell him to fuck off.' □ 'We wanted to have a word with Geoff, but he'd fucked off home.'

2367- fuck up [B1i nom pass] (taboo) mismanage, spoil, ruin; bugger up (q v). O: things, the whole works; engine, suspension; scheme, project □ He said he didn't want his motor fucked up by some kid with oil on his hands. □ 'The meeting was a complete fuck-up from start to finish.'
2368- fulminate (against) [A2 emph rel] (formal) criticize, condemn, fiercely; thunder against (q v). o: luxury, idleness, vice □ From every pulpit, clergymen fulminate against sin.
2369- fume (at) [A2 rel] show irritation (without fully expressing it) in response to sth. S: motorist; shopper, consumer. o: delay, hold-up; incompetence, rudeness □ We fumed at the casualness of waitresses who could keep us waiting for half-an-hour and then serve half-cold soup.
2370- fur up [A1] become coated with a white crust (the result of e g boiling water which contains lime). S: kettle, saucepan □ In areas where the water is 'hard' pots and kettles quickly fur up.
2371- furnish (to) [B2 pass emph rel] give, hand, to sb for his use or exploitation; supply (to) (q v). O: supplies, stocks; equipment; excuse, pretext, justification. o: customer; store, factory; rival, opponent □ The firm won a contract for furnishing boots to the army (or: furnishing the army with boots). □ Don't go out of your way to furnish opportunities to your rivals (or: furnish them with opportunities). □ sentences like: They were well furnished with the basic necessities have no corresponding passive using furnish to.
furnish with [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ previous entry.
2373- fuss about[1] [A1] (informal) move about, behave, in a nervous, excited way □ 'Stop fussing about: the taxi will arrive on time, and we shan't miss the train.'
2374- fuss about[2] [B1ii pass] (informal) unsettle, irritate sb by giving too much attention to him. S: wife, mother; teacher □ She does fuss the children about so (or: She does fuss over the children so) — making sure they're well wrapped up, and worrying about minor illnesses.
fuss over [A2 pass] ⇨ previous entry.

G

2376- gabble away [A1] (informal) talk rapidly and possibly indistinctly, insensitive to the reactions of bystanders or listeners □ The two women gabbled away twenty to the dozen while the waitress noisily cleared the table — cloth and all.
2377- gad about [A1 nom] (informal) go from place to place, usu for pleasure; gallivant about (q v) □ The way Tom gads about, I can't see how he will ever pass his finals. □ Unless one exercises some self-control, it is only too easy to become a gadabout — going from one party to another, from one friend's house to another, and never doing anything useful.
2378- gain in[1] [A2] become heavier, taller etc. S: child; company, firm; army. o: weight, size, girth; height; strength, power □ You seem to have gained a lot in weight since I last saw you. □ The army has gained greatly in striking power with the acquisition of five hundred of the latest tanks.
2379- gain in[2] [A2] acquire more of a particular moral or intellectual quality; grow in (q v). S: parent; manager; politician. o: experience; knowledge, wisdom, understanding; cunning, astuteness; (moral) stature, authority □ Alfred is a person who never seems to gain in wisdom, no matter how painful the results of his actions may be. □ The Leader of the Opposition gained significantly in stature as a result of his speech on Northern Ireland.
2380- gain on[1] [A2] draw closer to sb or sth pursued. S: our car, ship; runner; Labour; police. o: the car, the ship, ahead; leaders in the race; the Conservatives; thieves □ The police-launch was gaining on the boat when suddenly a shot was fired from it. Then the police were sure that they were after the right man.
2381- gain on[2] [A2] move further ahead of sb or sth. S: car, ship; runner; Labour. o: others; the enemy; the rest of the field; the Conservatives □ The leading group of three continued to gain on the rest of the runners and were soon half a mile clear of them.
2382- gain on/upon [A2] (formal) consume part of, erode. S: sea, river, floods. o: land, cliffs, bank □ Year by year the ocean gained upon the shore, and finally took toll of the houses that had once been the pride of the town.
2383- gallivant about [A1] (informal) go from place to place, usu for pleasure; gad about (q v) □ Coffee-parties in the morning, theatre in the evening, car-rides every day — if she spent more time looking after her family and less time gallivanting about, everyone would be a lot happier.
2384- galvanize into action/activity [B2 pass] cause to act instantly □ A shot rang out and galvanized the patrol into action. They rushed for cover and began to move in the direction from which the firing had come.
2385- gamble away [B1i pass] lose by gambling. O: fortune, inheritance; week's wages □ Having gambled away half his salary at cards and spent the rest on drink, Bottomley had to borrow from his friends to pay the rent and buy some food. □ Many a family fortune has been gambled away on the Stock Exchange.
2386- gamble on [A2 B2 pass] make bets on; make plans in the hope that certain unpredictable things will happen that will assist their fulfilment. O: money, savings; everything, one's future. o: horses, dogs, the Stock Exchange; the outcome; the occupants of the house being asleep, the weather being favourable, the train being on time □ Only a fool would gamble his life's savings on the Stock Exchange in the hope of making easy money. □ 'I wouldn't gamble on James's footing the bill, if I were you.' □ 'We must allow plenty of time to get to the airport — we can't gamble on the road being clear.'
2387- gang up against/on [A3 pass] (informal) organize or form groups, alliances, against □ It isn't pleasant to see a lot of young men ganging up against their distinguished, if aging, seniors. □ The spokesman said that Australia, Canada and New Zealand would not gang up against Britain's joining the Common Market. BBCTV □ If ever the two boys tried to tease their sister, all her friends used to gang up on them.

2388- gape (at) [A2 pass rel] look open-mouthed (at); goggle (at) (q v) □ 'Don't just stand there gaping at the poor man, help him to his feet!' □ The villagers were so astonished at the appearance of a Rolls Royce in their midst that they could only gape at it. □ also gawk (at), gawp (at).

2389- garner up [B1i pass] (formal) harvest and store; gather in (q v). O: crop, grain □ When the potatoes had been garnered up, the ground was ploughed over for sowing.

2390- garnish with [B2 pass] add as a trimming to food, decorate with. O: dish; roast chicken, lamb, sole meunière □ The salmon was brought to the table whole, and was garnished with parsley and slices of tomato and cucumber.

2391- gasp (at) [A2 pass rel] show great surprise, horror etc, by a sudden involuntary release of one's breath. o: news; his nerve; risk; the intensity of the bombing, the pictures of the starving people □ When theatre audiences first saw 'Oh Calcutta!' they gasped at the audacity of some of the scenes. □ People have seen so many horrible things on television that scenes they would have gasped at ten years ago they now view with apparent indifference.

2392- gasp for breath [A2] have great difficulty in breathing; be very surprised by sb's remarks, behaviour etc □ The low punch made him gasp for breath. □ The sheer insensitivity of his remarks leaves one gasping for breath.

2393- gasp out [B1i pass] say, while struggling for breath. O: message, warning, last request □ The dying man gasped out a few incomprehensible words and then collapsed in his wife's arms.

2394- gather (from) [B2 pass emph rel] learn, understand (by or from). O: nothing, very little; how much, what; that he means to attend. o: remark, statement □ Did you gather from what the man said that he intended to make a bid for the house or not? □ From what John said I gather he'll be giving up his job in the summer.

2395- gather in [B1i pass] harvest, collect a crop; garner up (q v). O: crop; oats, barley □ There was a week of rain which ruined the wheat crop before it could be safely gathered in.

2396- gather round[1] [A1 A2 emph rel B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] (cause to) assemble round. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] crowd, group, spectators. o: accident; entrance to the palace, newly-arrived ship □ [B2] The barker managed to gather a small group of curious passers-by round the platform. □ [A1] *'*Gather round, folks, and see some of the biggest bargains you ever set your eyes on!'

2397- gather round[2] [A1 A2] come to sb's side and give him moral, physical or material support. S: the family; friends, comrades, companions; Masons, Rotarians □ As soon as one of their number was threatened by the law, the Mafia closed ranks and gathered round him. □ 'A man ought to be given a chance to be born at home, and he certainly ought to have a chance to die there. The family gathers round, you know, and it's only right he should feel the event is something of an occasion.' DIL gawk/gawp (at) [A2 pass rel] = gape (at).

2398- gathered to one's fathers [pass (B2)] (euphemism) die □ I write to tell you that my dear old friend Jonathan, who suffered so uncomplainingly for so many years, has at last been gathered to his fathers. □ usu with has/have been.

2399- gather together [B1i pass] collect, assemble. O: tools, books, toys; things □ 'Please tell the children to gather all their games together so that we can take our visitors into the lounge for a cup of tea.'

2401- gaze around/round [A1 A2] look round in surprise, amazement etc □ Unable to believe his good fortune, he gazed round at the gifts that his friends had showered upon him.

2402- gaze at [A2 pass rel] look at, in a steady, concentrated way □ When we found Joe, he was sitting on a rock, gazing at the sea. □ She dropped the sheet of paper as if she had been stung. She gazed at it in complete horror, as if it were some horrible insect. DC gaze round [A1 A2] ⇨ gaze around/round.

2403- gaze on/upon [A2 pass rel] (formal) let one's eyes remain on. o: such beauty, perfection; such a sight, view, prospect □ Never in his life had he gazed upon such splendour. The haughty ladies of his provincial home-town were like washerwomen besides these eastern beauties in their splendid palaces.

2405- gear down [A1 B1i pass] change into a lower gear in order to lose speed, or to increase speed effectively, or to keep better control of a car or machine; reduce in force or intensity. O: machine; activity, production, output □ He geared down as he came into the corner, but was already accelerating before he came out of it. □ The dosage was geared down to a level which would work on the infected cells but not upset their normal metabolism. □ in the first example change down (q v) is more common.

2406- gear up [A1 B1i pass] increase in operational efficiency. S: [A1] O: [B1] industry, economy; administration; army □ The party organization is ready to be geared up to the election, whenever it takes place. □ The Department is gearing up for an increased intake of students.

2407- gee up [A1] an order traditionally used (or thought by others to be used) by a person to a horse = move faster!, start moving! □ *'*Gee up there, Neddy,' shouted the little boy, and Tom obediently set off at a smart trot with the child clinging to his neck.

2408- gen up (about/on) [A1 A3 B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) learn or teach (about), obtain or give sb the essential facts (about) □ [A3] To my surprise, the visitors had genned up about the project very thoroughly and there was little I could tell them that they didn't already know. □ [B3] I went in to see MacGilvery, and he was all genned up about my genius and how Braithwaite was going to turn my book into a best-seller. JFTR □ [B3] One of the second-form children had genned his older brother up on where the headmaster kept his cane, and during prayers he had nipped into the headmaster's study and stolen it. □ probably derived from 'obtain or give general information about, on'.

2409- get about[1] [A1] move from place to place, often with the implication of overcoming difficulty to do so □ Considering his age, the old man gets about a great deal. □ Now that the traffic has been restricted in the centre of the city, it's easier to get about. □ My father isn't able to get about since he had his stroke last year.

2410- get about[2] [A1] circulate, spread; get abroad (q v). S: news, rumour, story; it □ It got about that the British Centre was recruiting more teachers. □ I don't know how such a rumour got about. There's absolutely no truth in it. ⇨ go about[2], put about[2].

2411- get above oneself [A2] have too high an opinion of oneself, have ideas above one's station □ That young man is getting above himself. He's only been in the firm two weeks and he's already telling his seniors how to do their work.

2412- get abreast of [A3 B3] draw or bring level with. o: competitor; ship, boat; latest thinking, discoveries □ As soon as the lifeboat got abreast of the foundering ship, the captain got a line aboard her and started to take the crew off. □ It did not take China long to get abreast of Russian and American technology in guided missiles. ⇨ be abreast of.

2413- get abroad [A1] spread, circulate; get about[2] (q v). S: news, rumour, report □ The news got abroad that the Chancellor had decided to make cuts in the VAT on some goods.

2414- get across[1] [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] (cause, help, to) cross, usu implying some difficulty or obstacle. o: bridge, river, street; border, frontier □ [A2] Only half the company got across the bridge before it was blown up. □ [B2] The young officer was congratulated for getting all his men across the river. □ [A1] The frontier is so well guarded that no one can get across. ⇨ go/send/take across (to).

2415- get across[2] [A2] (informal) annoy, offend, irritate; form a bad relationship with; get on the wrong side of (q v) □ Those two men are so different in temperament that they were bound to get across each other. □ Be careful how you talk to Mr Swann. He's an unpleasant man to get across.

2416- get across (to) [A1 A3 B1ii pass B3 pass] communicate, transmit, make clear (to); get over (to) (q v). S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] message, joke, information □ [B1] So if this Cloud contains separate individuals, the individuals must be able to communicate on a vastly more detailed scale than we can. What we can get across in an hour of talk they might get across in a hundredth of a second. TBC □ [B3] The comedian didn't seem to be able to get his jokes across to his audience—they all fell flat! □ [A3] The class was so stupid that it seemed impossible to get across to them by mere language. ⇨ come across[2], put across[1].

2417- get ahead/ahead of [A1 A2] progress (beyond) □ As soon as he settled down to the routine of his new job, Alex got ahead splendidly. □ By doing just a little extra homework each day, the girl got well ahead of the rest of the class. ⇨ be ahead/ahead of.

2418- get along [A1] succeed in doing sth; manage; get by[3] (q v). □ 'How are you managing to do your work without an assistant?' 'Oh, I get along somehow.' □ John's getting along in France better than he expected, considering he could hardly speak a word of French when he arrived.

2419- get along/away with you! [A3] an exclamation of mild rebuke or disbelief; go along with you! (q v) □ *'I'm going to see 'West of Suez' with Arthur this evening.' 'Get along with you! Arthur wouldn't be seen dead at a play by Osborne!' ⇨ get on![6], go on![14].

2420- get along/on (with)[1] [A1 A3] make progress (with a task etc). o: work, studies; German; new novel, painting □ 'How is Tim getting along with the old car he bought? Has he got it into working order yet?' □ I'm not getting on very fast with this pile of marking. ⇨ come along/on[2], bring along/on[1].

2421- get along/on (with)[2] [A1 A3 rel] have a harmonious relationship (with); live or work together (well etc). S: child, schoolboy, employee. o: parents, classmates, colleagues. A: (not) very well; splendidly, badly; like a house on fire; like nobody's business, like one o'clock □ My mother and I don't always get on very well, but I believe in the saying, 'Home is where the heart is.' H □ In my view, the fact that Bevin and Morrison never got on was due to Ernie's (= Bevin's) distrust of Herbert as 'a slick wire-puller'. OBS □ You two have so much in common that you should get along like a house on fire. □ If only 'them' and 'us' had the same ideas we'd get on like a house on fire, but they don't see eye to eye with us and we don't see eye to eye with them, so that's how it stands and how it will always stand. LLDR □ (reading from a letter:) 'We're getting on like a house on fire.' How peculiar, she thought, similes are: why should getting on like a house on fire mean that everything was going well? And again, 'The children are getting on like one o'clock, especially Janice.' PW □ Her mother was quiet and good-natured—the easiest person in the world to get along with. □ She got on well with Aunt Ellen (or: She and Aunt Ellen got on well), but found her rather a sick woman with mysterious internal pains. RFW

2422- get along without [A3] succeed reasonably well, manage to live or work, without sth or sb. o: (any) help, assistance; apparatus, equipment, spare parts; (regular) water supply; friends, other people □ I don't know how Mrs Briggs gets along without domestic help in that large house. □ I have to get along without even proper equipment and work in a damned shack like this. HD

2423- get around/round[1] [A2 pass] (informal) gain the confidence, trust, favour of sb, usually for a special purpose □ The girl told her boyfriend that she would try and get round her father to lend them the car for the day. □ 'You seem to have got round Mrs Williams all right. Tea in bed every morning! It's unheard-of.'

2424- get around/round[2] [A2] tackle successfully, overcome. o: problem, obstacle, difficulty; incompatibility (of two things) □ When the prisoners had burrowed their way twenty yards towards the perimeter of the camp they came up against a concrete wall sunk deep into the ground. There didn't seem to be any way of getting around that. □ There seems to be no way of getting round the difficulty of keeping prices down when the cost of imports goes on rising.

2425- get around/round to [A3 pass] find the necessary time for; reach the point of tackling sth after settling other matters that must take priority (sometimes implying procrastination). o: thinking about our holidays; taking out an insurance policy; digging the garden over; writing to my parents □ He had long had the idea of starting a market-garden, but it was only last year that he got round to looking at possible pieces of land. □ When I finally got round to buying the Christmas cards it was too late. The shops were all sold out. □ I did plenty of designs he hasn't got around to using yet. CON □ The so-called 'weekly letter' from boarding-school was often not got around to by several of my friends. □ the object is usu the -ing form of a v.

2426-get at[1] [A2 pass] reach, gain access to (and take, eat etc). S: curious eyes; thieving hands; children; mice. o: private papers, books; jewellery, deeds of the house, family silver, housekeeping money; jam, honey; dangerous medicines; flour, cheese □ A sensible man keeps his savings in the bank — not in the house where some thief can get at them. □ I'm afraid that rabbits have been getting at your chrysanthemums again. □ note the unusual adj forms get'atable and unget'atable (= can/cannot be got at). ⇨ be at[2].

2427-get at[2] [A2] tackle, start to work on. o: job, roof; serious business □ I wish the snow would thaw so that I could get at the garden.

2428-get at[3] [A2 pass] learn, ascertain, discover. o: truth, facts; real wishes, intentions; the root of the trouble; the cause of the disturbances □ The members of the official board of inquiry had great difficulty in getting at the truth of the matter: there seemed to be a conspiracy of silence. □ What I'm trying to get at is whether you want to marry the girl for her money or because you love her. ⇨ come at[2].

2429-get at[4] [A2] suggest, in an indirect way □ 'I don't know what you're getting at exactly, but if you're suggesting that my brother is dishonest you'd better think again.' □ 'Don't you see what I'm getting at? If we shared a flat we could each live much more cheaply.' □ nearly always in a clause introduced by what. ⇨ what be at.

2430-get at[5] [A2 pass] (informal) criticize; nag □ Clive is always getting at her husband because he doesn't keep the garden tidy. □ Whenever his mother-in-law started talking about men who drink too much, he had a feeling he was being got at. ⇨ be at[1].

2431-get at[6] [A2 pass] (informal) (try to) influence, esp by improper means. o: witness, jury □ 'You didn't use to be so anti-religious. Who's been getting at you?' □ The judge said it was obvious from the man's behaviour in the witness-box that he had been got at.

2432-get away (from)[1] [A1 nom A3 rel] manage to leave the place one is in; escape (from) (q v) □ It was nice of you to invite me to tea tomorrow, but I'm afraid I can't get away (from the office). □ There's so much still to be done before we go on holiday that I can't see us getting away on time. □ Nobody knows how more than a hundred Tupamaros got away (from prison) without being noticed. □ Their get-away was very well planned, obviously. □ The gang's get-away car was found abandoned in a cul-de-sac not far from the scene of the robbery. □ note also the expression to make one's get-away (in a fast car, under cover of night etc).

2433-get away (from)[2] [B1ii pass B3 pass] assist sb to leave a place, esp for his own good; remove sth unwanted (from). O: women and children; spectators; ivy; net. o: the fighting, the danger; the fire; the wall; the propeller □ The nail had gone rusty in the wood and I couldn't get it away. □ The poor woman must be got away from her children for a while and allowed to have a good rest. □ 'Get all these dirty dishes away! The place is like a pigsty!'

2434-get away from [B3 pass] win, secure, sth or sb in a struggle from; attract sb back from. O: bone, stick; children. o: dog; estranged husband □ 'How are we going to get the ball away from the dog?' □ 'You'll never get Doris away from Madrid now. She's fallen in love with the place.' ⇨ take away (from)[2].

2435-get away from it all [A3] (informal) go away in order to gain relief from one's worries, responsibilities, excessive work etc □ He just couldn't wait for the day when he could pack up his bags and get away from it all. The rat race had finally got him down. □ It's no use getting away from it all if the cause of all your troubles lies within yourself.

2436-get away with[1] [A3] steal and escape with. S: thieves, burglars, bandits, confidence tricksters, con-man, (armed) gang, smash-and-grab raiders. o: property; jewellery, antiques, pictures, gold to the value of £10 000; the contents of the safe; £2 000 in notes and money-orders; one of the biggest hauls this year □ Bandits wearing stockings over their faces raided the Midland Bank in Beckenham this morning and got away with over £20 000.

2437-get away with[2] [A3] (informal) go unpunished (even if caught); not suffer for. o: anything; outrageous behaviour, slander; impudence, indiscipline; it □ What was amusing him was the thought that he, forty years old and weighing twelve stone, had punched a fourteen-stone international footballer of twenty-eight in the mouth and got away with it. PE □ 'Don't side with him, David, because if you side with him he knows he can get away with it.' ITAJ □ 'You can't write to Head Office over your manager's head! You'll never get away with a breach of the rules such as that.' □ Other men knocked off early and got away with it. Joe was always the one who got pulled up.... AITC ⇨ next entry.

2438-get away with[3] [A3] receive the relatively light or negligible punishment of; get off[6] (q v). o: a reprimand, mild rebuke, warning; a fine of five pounds; seven days in gaol; suspension for a month □ 'As it's a first offence,' the solicitor said, 'I think she'll get away with a fine. It'll be a heavy one, though; the magistrate'll aim at frightening her.' ASA ⇨ previous entry.

2439-get away with murder [A3] (informal) (be able to) do anything, however outrageous, and not be punished for it, or be thought the less of because of it □ With that innocent, smiling face of his, he could get away with murder. □ 'You have no real sense of justice, James. People you don't happen to like never get a bloody chance, and the others can get away with murder.' ILIH get away with you! [A3] ⇨ get along/away with you!

2441-get back[1] [A1] return to one's starting point □ 'When Tom gets back, please tell him that Jill phoned.' □ 'Good heavens! It's nearly midnight! I must be getting back. My wife will be wondering what's happened to me!' □ Johnny's mother told him that he was to get back home before dark. □ When did Jarvis get back from India? □ The nurse was annoyed to find the patient wandering round the ward and told him to get back into bed at once. ⇨ be back[1], bring back[1], come back[1], go back[1], take back[1].

2442-get back[2] [A1] go to a reasonable, sensible distance; stand away □ The police had great difficulty in making the curious crowd get back and let the ambulance through. □ 'Get back! There's a bomb in this building!' □ usu in direct or indirect commands.

2443-get back[3] [B1ii pass] return sth or sb to its, his, place □ He took the spring out of the clock, but now he can't get it back. □ If you take Mary out for a drive you must promise to get her back for her music lesson. □ 'I'm afraid we are very busy and can't get your TV set back for this evening; but we can lend you one.' ⇨ be back[2], put back[1].

2444-get back[4] [B1i] recover possession of □ 'Don't lend Bill your umbrella! If you do, you'll never get it back.' ⇨ give back (to)[1], have back[1].

2445-get one's own back [B1ii] (informal) retaliate, get revenge, give tit for tat □ Margaret had a habit of snubbing her lover in public; perhaps it was her way of getting her own back for the way he completely dominated her in private. □ If Kate ever smacked her little brother she knew that somehow he would get his own back —perhaps by scribbling all over one of her drawings or breaking one of her china dogs.

2446-get back at [A3 pass] (informal) retaliate, give tit for tat. o: his critics, boss; shopkeeper, supplier; bully, know-all □ The shopkeeper refused to change the faulty radio, maintaining that it was all right when I bought it, so I decided to get back at him by writing to the local paper about it. □ Civil servants have no way of getting back at individuals who criticize them, so they sometimes take it out of the public in general.

2447-get back into circulation [A3] (informal) return to normal life, mix once more with one's friends and colleagues □ You could have a few things done to your face by a surgeon and get back into circulation again, but even false passports have to be renewed from time to time, and the whole business is pretty tricky. DS □ It's about time you got back into circulation, isn't it? After all, you can't spend your whole life here sitting against that wall,... THH

2448-get back into harness [A3] (informal) return to work □ 'I'm glad to say,' the doctor told him, 'that if you continue to make such good progress, you'll be able to get back into harness within a month.'

2449-get back to [A3] resume; return to. o: work, one's studies, the job in hand; the main point in the argument; what you were saying (about...) □ The student was glad to get back to his books after a vacation that had seemed too long. □ 'But to get back to the question of your immediate plans... What are you doing next week?'

2450-get back to the grindstone [A3] return to one's job, with the implication that the job is uninteresting, difficult or tiring. □ To think that in three days' time our holiday will be over and we'll have to get back to the grindstone. □ sometimes simply 'Back to the grindstone!' ⇨ keep one's nose to the grindstone.

2451-get behind (with) [A1 A3] not progress at the necessary rate, in business, studies etc; fall into arrears □ Owing to his illness, Peter couldn't keep up with the rest of the class and got badly behind. □ Mr Jones got behind with the payments on his car and had to surrender it to the garage. ⇨ be behind[1], fall behind with.

2452-get by[1] [A1 A2] pass (an obstacle) □ There was such a crowd outside the shop window that the young woman with the pram couldn't get by. □ The traffic had come to a halt. Nothing could get by the accident. ⇨ come by[1].

2453-get by[2] [A1] be accepted; pass scrutiny, inspection □ Ramsbottom didn't possess a dinner-jacket, but he was told that he would get by in a dark suit. □ Mike thought that he could get by with the minimum of work. His tutor quickly disabused him!

2454-get by[3] [A1] be successful in life or in a situation, survive; get along (q v) □ 'Don't worry, Johnnie,' she said, 'I'm not prophesying ruin. You'll get by—indeed, you'll probably drift from strength to strength, but I don't want to go with you.' ASA □ The old lady never seemed to have much money, but somehow she managed to get by—though I don't know how. ⇨ next entry.

2455-get by on/upon [A3 emph rel] survive by means of, by recourse to. o: small income, pension, allowance, grant; a handful of rice; native intelligence, wit □ Without the breakdown she would have got by upon her native wit, and with her competence she would have made her way in peace time. RFW □ 'You've got a job, haven't you, on that fancy magazine? We can get by on that for a start.' AITC ⇨ previous entry.

2456-get down[1] [A1 emph A2] descend □ The cat climbed to the top of the tree and then became afraid to get down. □ A man escaped from the burning building by getting down a ladder.

2457-get down[2] [A1 emph] of children, leave the table at mealtimes □ The children sat through the meal in complete silence and spoke only to ask permission to get down. □ 'Now, down you get!'

2458-get down[3] [A1 emph] assume a stooping or kneeling position. A: on all fours; on one's knees □ Her back was aching from having to get down in order to put things in and out of the bottom drawer. □ I thought I heard a mouse under the bed, and got down on all fours to have a look. □ She got down on her knees and prayed that her husband would survive the storm. ⇨ go down on one's knees (to).

2459-get down[4] [B1i pass] write, record, note, sth, usu implying speed or difficulty. O: everything, the main points, the gist of what he said; lecture, message, confession, the number of the car, address □ I didn't get down every word, but I certainly got a good deal of the conversation down. □ 'Make sure you get his confession down, and his signature at the bottom of it.' ⇨ be down[3], go down[9], put down[8], set down[2], take down[3].

2460-get down[5] [B1i pass] swallow, usu with difficulty. O: medicine, pill; wine, whisky; meat, rice □ The little boy got his medicine down with the help of a spoonful of jam. □ I could hardly get the last of the cous-cous down*. It was delicious, but my hostess had given me too much.* ⇨ go down[3].

2461 get down[6] [B1ii pass] (informal) depress, demoralize. S: weather; things in general, life, work; sb's attitude, behaviour; disease, drink □ He wished he had the courage to inflict on her the pain of being told the ways she got him down*.* ILIH □ Going straight (= being honest) was getting Vin down a little. ASA □ Don't let your work get you down*. You must try to forget about it when you leave the office.* □ It's a terrible state of affairs when you let drink get you down like that. DBM □ Considering what Barbara has had to put up with, she doesn't seem in the least got down*.*

2462 get down[7] [B1i pass B2 pass] cause to fall or descend □ Several nurses tackled the intruder and got him down*. Then three of them sat on him while the others fetched the police.* □ 'Will you give me a hand to get this trunk down (the stairs)?' ⇨ go down[4].

2463 get down (from) [A1 emph A3] dismount (from). ◦: horse, pony □ The drunken rider did not exactly get down *(*from his horse); it would be truer to say that he fell off (it) into his friends' arms.

2464 get down in the dumps/mouth [A3] (informal) become depressed, miserable □ He's one of those people who can't stand his own company. As soon as he finds himself alone he gets down in the dumps*.* ⇨ be down in the dumps/mouth.

2465 get down to [A3 pass] (informal) tackle, take steps to manage or settle. ◦: work, job; his writing; things, it; thinking about sth □ From the day our schooldays began, we were taught, implicitly, that every other boy was a potential rival and that we must all get down to the sacred task of outdoing one another. CON □ Their eldest son is returning from Britain to Australia for good, to get down to managing the estate. □ 'Look! You'll never finish that job unless you forget everything else and get down to it.'

2466 get down to brass tacks [A3] (informal) discuss, talk about, sth in practical, businesslike terms □ 'It's time George stopped all this theorizing and got down to brass tacks*. What we want to know is how much the job will cost, not how scientific the method is going to be.'*

2467 get down to business [A3] start serious discussion about sth, perhaps after some time has been spent on irrelevant or social talk □ The two men had a couple of drinks together, talked about their families and their holidays for a while, and finally got down to business*.* □ 'I hope you don't mind if we get down to business straight away, as I've got to catch the four o'clock train.'

2468 get down to a fine art [B3 pass] (informal) learn to do sth with perfection. O: carving the joint; catching rats; getting money out of his father; making beer □ Betty always manages to have something urgent to do — homework, music practice, feeding her pets — when it's time to wash the dishes. She's got it down to a fine art*.* □ usu in the perfect tense, as in the example.

2469 get home[1] [A1 B1ii pass] arrive at one's house; bring or take sb to his house □ 'What time did you get home last night?' □ 'If you'll come round for coffee, I'll promise to get you home before ten o'clock.' □ *This package is not intended to mend a puncture perfectly. It is more in the nature of a 'get-you-home' kit.*

2470 get home[2] [A1] (racing, athletics) reach the winning-post, target etc, first. S: favourite, team, record-holder □ My horse got home by a nose! □ The hundred metres champion managed to get home by a tenth of a second.

2471 get home (to) [A1 A3 B1ii pass B3 pass] (cause to) be understood, hit the target. S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] point; criticism, barb, satire □ [A1] The TV programme got home all right. The next morning, the papers were full of it. □ [B1] Politicians are adept at getting their point home*, even in the face of constant interruption from their opponents.* □ [B3] We left the meeting confident that we had at last got the essential part of our proposal home to the more conservative members of the Council. ⇨ bring/come home (to).

2472 get in[1] [B1i pass] collect, harvest; bring back (e g nets to a boat); bring indoors. O: debts, rent, rates, taxes; crops, fruit; nets, lines; washing; children □ The farmers were delighted to get the hay in so early in the year. □ The fishermen went to get the lobster pots in and were delighted to find one in each pot. □ *'*Get the washing in quick! It's raining.' □ The firm went bankrupt because their bad debts couldn't be got in*.* ⇨ be in[2], bring in[1].

2473 get in[2] [B1i pass] send a message to, obtain the services or advice of. O: specialist, another doctor; plumber, electrician; management consultants □ When he saw how ill his mother was he told the doctor he would like to get a specialist in*.* □ When the pipe burst, a plumber had to be got in as no one knew where the stopcock was, and water was pouring through the ceiling. ⇨ have in.

2474 get in[3] [A1] (informal) gain an advantage by being the first or one of the first to do sth. A: ⚠ first; early; on the ground floor; at the start □ The charter firm got in first with a £50 return fare to the Caribbean. □ It was obvious, when I came to give my account of how the quarrel had started, that Beryl had got in first and prejudiced her friend against me. □ Reg had got in on the ground floor, and as the firm had progressed, so had he. ⇨ be/come in on the ground floor.

2475 get a blow/punch in [B1i pass] (boxing) succeed in hitting one's opponent; (informal) attack or retaliate verbally □ The challenger was so outclassed that he couldn't get a single blow in*.* □ He got several good punches in with his left. □ When his wife dragged up his infidelities, he was not slow in getting a blow in about her flirtations.

2476 get one's eye/hand in [B1ii] develop the ability to judge distances etc in games, especially ball-games, and consequently play well and easily; develop skill with one's hands □ If Sobers can get his eye in*, he'll score a century off this bowling.* □ Once the girl got her hand in*, she was soon getting through as much work as the more experienced machinists.* ⇨ keep one's eye/hand in.

2477 get a word in (edgeways) [B1ii] (informal) succeed in saying something, where many people are talking or where another will not stop talking

□ The scorn, ridicule, slander and threats poured over him in a remorseless stream that flowed so steadily he had no chance to get a word in. DF □ The three old friends had so much to talk about that I couldn't get a word in edgeways. □ usu neg.

2478-get in/into[1] [A1 emph A2] enter □ The thieves got in through the floor by means of a tunnel. □ They got into the strongroom through the floor. □ 'Don't stand there dithering! Get in! The water's not all that cold.' □ I believe in getting into the water as quickly as possible. ⇨ come in/into, let in/into.

2479-get in/into[2] [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] (cause to) enter, arrive (at). S: train; ferry; bus. o: station, Dublin, town. A: on time; late, early, punctually □ [A1] 'What time does the 2.05 from Euston get in, please?' □ [A2] The coach gets into Carlisle at about 6.15. □ [B2] In spite of the heavy seas the Captain got his ship into Liverpool on time.

2480-get in/into[3] [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] (politics) (cause to) be elected (to). S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] government; the Tories, Labour, the Liberals. S: [B1 B2] the floating vote; the defence issue, the Common Market issue □ [A1] The Conservatives got in with a small majority. □ [A2] The independent candidate got into Parliament with a thumping majority. □ [B1] The Prime Minister's support got the official party man in. ⇨ be in[4], come in[3], put in[8].

2481-get in on [A3 B3 pass] (informal) join an activity, with the implication that joining is desirable but possibly difficult. o: new organization; grants for restoring old property; the play; trip to Italy; the act □ It's important that you should get in on the discussion about the property that the firm is considering acquiring. □ Don't let Matthew know we are thinking of forming a new society — he would try to get his wife in on it and they would try to run it. □ When the children started to kick the ball about the dog tried to get in on the act as usual. ⇨ be/bring/come/let in on.

2482-get in with [A3] (informal) (try to) form a relationship with, often with the implication that one has an ulterior motive in doing so □ 'If you want to drink — drink with others. Everyone likes a drink. You come over to the Golf Club with me, you'll soon find that out. I'll make you a member. You'll get in with them in a jiffy if you'll only try.' FFE □ I tried hard to get in with a pretty girl who was sitting by herself, but she wouldn't have anything to do with me. □ He managed to get well in with some of the local nobs by joining the golf club. □ note the occasionally used expression: get in bad with: The new man was unfortunate enough to get in bad with the foreman on the first day. ⇨ be (well) in with.

2483-get in contact/touch (with) [A2 B2 pass] (help to) meet or make contact (with) □ I've been intending to get in contact (with you) about a plan I have for opening a small shop as a sideline. □ Bill and Sally miss each other badly. Somebody ought to get them in touch with each other again. ⇨ be in/bring into/come into contact (with); be/put in touch (with).

2484-get into[1] [A2 B2 pass] get dressed in, put on[1] (q v); force sb or sth into. O: himself, feet; baby; actor. o: suit, shoes; clothes; mask □ At the end of the six-hour flight, I couldn't get my feet into my shoes as they had swollen so much. □ At the dress rehearsal the hero couldn't be got into the armour he was supposed to wear.

2485-get into[2] [A2] penetrate. S: sand, dust; flies, wasps; smell, stink, gas, fumes. o: hair, eyes, nose, mouth, ears; everything; jam, honey, room; every corner of the house, the hall □ The molten lava got into every nook and cranny on its downward path. □ Spiders seem to get into every corner of the woodwork. They're everywhere.

2486-get into[3] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) suffer, become a victim of. o: trouble, hopeless mess, tangle; debt □ It's easier to get into debt than to get out of it again! □ 'Please don't make so much noise. You'll get me into trouble.' □ How on earth did Sally get herself into such a ridiculous situation? □ get (sb) into trouble sometimes means become or make pregnant.

2487-get into[4] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) acquire, develop, learn, become familiar with. o: ⚠ (the way, hang, of) it; the habit (of doing sth) □ The children got into the bad habit of switching on the television as soon as they came in from school. □ You'll find changing gear difficult at first, but you'll soon get into the way of it. □ Painting is a fascinating hobby once you get into it. □ 'Who or what got you into the habit of taking drugs?' ⇨ get out of[2].

2488-get into[5] [A2 B2 pass] enter involuntarily, cause sb to enter, a certain emotional state. S: [A2] O: [B2] father, teacher. o: rage, fury, temper; tizzy, stew, paddy □ When Johnson found that his wife had gone out without waiting for him he got into a blind fury and smashed the furniture up. □ 'Try not to get your father into a temper tonight. I want a bit of peace and quiet.' □ 'You shouldn't let yourself get into a stew about nothing. It's bad for your blood pressure!'

2489-get into[6] [A2] seize, possess, a person's emotions, thoughts. S: ⚠ something, the Devil, I don't know what □ We could not understand why the child was being so deliberately contrary and unco-operative. Something must have got into him. □ I don't know what got into me to say a thing like that to Mollie. I had absolutely no intention of offending her, but it just came out.

get into[7] [A2] enter. ⇨ get in/into[1].

get into[8] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) enter, arrive at. ⇨ get in/into[2].

get into[9] [A2 B2 pass] (politics) (cause to) be elected to. ⇨ get in/into[3].

2493-get into the act [A2] (informal) figure in some activity □ Whenever there was a birthday-party in the family and they sang 'Happy Birthday to you!' the dog tried to get into the act by barking in support. ⇨ get in on.

2494-get into sb's black books [A2] (informal) incur sb's strong disapproval □ I got into Lady Whatsit's black books as soon as I mentioned that I was a Labour supporter.

2495-get into deep water [A2] become involved in matters that are too difficult, beyond one's capacity or ability to handle □ 'We'd better not talk about starting up a new company before the first one is operating successfully, or we'll be getting into deep water.'

2496-get into a fix [A2 B2 pass] (informal) cause sb/oneself to be in a difficulty of some kind □ George has got (himself) into a fix by arrang- ing absent-mindedly to take two girls out on the same evening. □ Trust him to get into a fix with his landlord; he never has been able to organize his finances.

2497-get into one's head [B2] (informal) understand fully, appreciate the significance of sth; imagine. O: these facts; it... that I'm not God □ 'I wish you would get it into your head*, once and for all, that I'm not made of money.'* □ How did Tom get it into his head that Medicine is an easy profession? □ Mollie got it into her head that her problems would cease to exist if she went to Australia.

2498-get one's hooks into/on [B2] (informal) win sb's attention or affections; exercise power over. o: man; boss, tutor □ The secretary was so busy getting her hooks on the new manager, that she hardly noticed that everyone in the office was laughing at her. □ Subject is usu feminine and object is usu masculine.

2499-get into hot water [A2 B2 pass] (informal) find oneself in serious trouble, do sth that results in trouble for oneself or others □ The young clerk got into hot water for handing over the documents without obtaining a receipt. □ 'You'll be getting yourself and me into hot water if you take the car out again. The insurance doesn't cover a second driver.'

2500-get into a rut [A2] (informal) be trapped in one's routine, a set pattern of life; become fixed in one's ways, no longer have any ambition or initiative □ By the time Harold was forty, he realized that he had got into a rut and that there was nothing he could do about it.

2501-get into one's stride [A2] reach the stage when one is performing an action at one's best, speaking fluently and enthusiastically etc □ When the preacher got into his stride it became obvious that we were in for a very long sermon. □ CLIVE: Let us therefore not gasp too excitedly at the loftiness of Mother's family tree. Unbeknownst to Father it has, as you see, roots of clay (Clive pours himself some coffee. Walter stares at him in silence, as he gets into his stride*).* FFE

2502-get one's teeth into [B2] grip firmly with the teeth; eat; (informal) tackle with determination, work with concentration on. S: dog; hungry boys; new manager. o: rat; dinner; job, problem □ It was obvious that being put in complete charge of the office gave her something to get her teeth into*.* □ I don't like my new job at all. There doesn't seem to be anything that I can get my teeth into*.* □ 'Sally is in her father's business. She's got her teeth into poor John's neck feathers.' HAHA □ often preceded by have something to.

2503-get the better of [B2 pass(o)] master, defeat, overcome; get one's own way in opposition to, or after argument with. S: he etc; events, fears, curiosity. o: wife; them □ It was natural for Tom not to let pass an opportunity for getting the better of me. SPL □ Don't always try and get the better of her over every stupid incident. H □ He was got the better of by an older hand at the investment game.

2504-get the hang of [B2] (informal) understand, appreciate; see how to do sth. o: him, what he said; this type of art, architecture; driving this car, riding a horse □ 'I can't exactly make him out. Just can't get the hang of him, that's all.' TC □ That lecture was beyond me. I couldn't get the hang of what he was saying at all. □ Not many people seem to have got the hang of this new kind of music: it's just a lot of squeaks, crashes and groans without any apparent meaning.

2505-get hold of [B2 pass(o)] (informal) obtain; reach, contact □ 'How did you get hold of her address?' 'Easy! I looked it up in the telephone directory.' □ At that time travel permits were not easily got hold of*.* □ If it is very urgent, I may be able to get hold of the doctor for you during the lunch-hour.

2506-get hold of the wrong end of the stick [B2] (informal) completely misunderstand the situation or something said □ 'If you owe John five pounds, why don't you stop arguing and pay him?' 'Me pay him! You've got hold of the wrong end of the stick*, my dear! It's John who owes me five pounds!'* □ 'Mother thinks that Sally has been unfaithful to Bill. Trust her to get hold of the wrong end of the stick*!'*

2507-get wind of [B2 pass(o)] hear news of, usu in an indirect or roundabout way □ Whenever we got wind of a fat parcel of diamonds on its way out of Africa towards Monsieur Diamant or his friends, we tipped off London. DS □ If your brother gets wind of our plans to go to Iceland for a holiday, he'll want to come with us. □ It was amazing that preparations for the landing were not got wind of by the enemy.

2508-get the worst of [B2] be defeated, be overcome. o: it, things; argument, fight □ The young man up till then had been adopting a non-belligerent attitude, and he had, I felt, been getting the worst of things; the women, I decided, were taking an unfair advantage of him. □ When two armies come to blows, it is usually the ordinary people who get the worst of it. ⇨ get the better of; have the best/worst of.

2509-get off[1] [A1 emph A2] dismount, alight (from). o: horse, bicycle; train, bus □ The policeman told the child to get off the pony. □ The absent-minded professor forgot to get off at Newcastle and was taken on to Edinburgh. □ *'*Off you get and let me have a ride!' ⇨ let off[1], put off[6].

2510-get off[2] [A2] not sit, stand, walk, sail, drive etc on. o: father's chair; your behind; ladder, wall, roof; grass, flowerbeds, tennis-courts □ 'We'd better get off the lake before the storm breaks, or we'll get soaked.' □ The children were told to get off the scaffolding round the building. ⇨ keep off[2].

2511-get off[3] [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) leave, start a journey □ 'What time are you leaving tomorrow?' 'We hope to get off before seven o'clock.' □ The children had to get themselves off to school as both their parents went out to work at eight o'clock. ⇨ be off[3], set off (on)[1].

2512-get off[4] [B1i pass B2 pass] (manage to) remove (from). O: feet; clothes; paint; hands; boots. o: the mantelpiece; the floor; the door; my property; feet □ Her finger had swollen so much that she couldn't get her ring off*.* □ *'*Get that stinking animal off the table and back into its cage.' ⇨ take off[2].

2513-get off[5] [A1 B1i pass] go, dispatch, by post, radio etc; supervise the sending of. S: [A1] O: [B1] message, cable, wire, letter □ Our man in Sydney is the obvious person to make the neces- sary contacts in Papua. We ought to get a cable off to him immediately. □ 'Please make sure these letters get off by the five o'clock post.' ⇨ send off[1].

2514-get off[6] [A1 B1ii pass] escape or nearly escape punishment; save sb from punishment; get away with[3] (q v). A: lightly; with a suspended sentence, with a warning, with a caution, with a fine; scot-free □ Considering his record, he was lucky to get off with a six-month sentence. □ The lawyer got his client off with a fine of five pounds. □ It was her youth that got her off, not her innocence. ⇨ let off[2], let off with.

2515-get off[7] [A1] escape or nearly escape injury in an accident. A: lightly, unscathed; with only a few scratches and bruises, with a broken rib or two, with minor injuries □ Fortunately the two cars did not crash head on, so Bill got off with nothing worse than a bad fright. □ The advance party was ambushed but got off relatively lightly. They suffered only one killed and four wounded.

2516-tell sb where he gets off/where to get off [A1] (informal) reproach, reprove, admonish □ That bully has been throwing his weight around for too long. It's high time somebody told him where he got off. □ The old lady told the policeman where he got off in no uncertain terms.

2517-get off one's chest [B2 pass] (informal) say something which one has long wanted to say and thus relieve one's feelings; not suppress one's opinions. O: it; home truths; load □ 'Don't just sit there brooding! If you've got something you want to tell me, for heaven's sake get it off your chest and let's discuss it.' □ When her husband arrived two hours late for dinner she got a few home truths off her chest and felt all the better for it.

2518-get the weight off one's feet/legs [B2] (informal) sit or lie down (often said to a pregnant woman, or anyone who has some weakness or who has been standing for a long time) □ 'Come on, sit down, Kathy. Get that weight off your legs.' LLDR □ 'You're looking a bit tired. Why don't you get the weight off your feet?' ⇨ take the weight off one's feet.

2519-get off on the right/wrong foot [A3 B3 pass] (cause to) make a good/bad start; start off on the right etc (q v) □ Stalin was deliberate in making the best of his disadvantages and often he liked to get his interlocutor off on the wrong foot. OBS □ The professor seemed to have a gift for getting off on the wrong foot with a new colleague. □ The marketing director took pains to get the campaign off on the right foot. □ the expression is perhaps derived from marching, where it is important that all the men should start with the same (i e the correct) foot.

2520-get off to a good etc start [A3 B3 pass] begin (sth) well etc. S: [A3] O: [B3] competitor, horse; enterprise, campaign. S: [B3] steward, official; manager. adj: good, bad, poor, slow, splendid, flying □ The runners got off to a flying start and looked like beating the record. □ The widespread publicity failed to get the fund off to a good start. People were just not interested in Victorian Gothic architecture.

2521-get off (to sleep) [A1 A3 B1ii pass B3 pass] fall asleep; send to sleep □ [A3] Although I was absolutely exhausted from the long journey, I simply could not get off to sleep. That's what happens to me when I'm overtired. At other times I can drop off with the greatest of ease! □ [B3] It took the girl half an hour to get the baby off to sleep.

2522-get off with [A3 B3 pass] (informal) become friendly with, or deliberately attract, a person of the opposite sex; arrange such a relationship for sb □ We never thought our Gertie would get off with anyone, let alone a chap with a Jaguar. □ He got off with my secretary, a thing he no doubt imagined I was secretly burning to do myself. □ 'It's time Sam had a girlfriend. Can't you get him off with that nice girl you keep talking about?'

2523-get on[1] [B1i] get dressed in; put into position. O: things (= hat and coat); something warm, bathing costume, swim-suit; lid, cover □ 'I'll just get my things on and we'll go for a short walk.' □ He took the top off the jar but couldn't get it on again. ⇨ have on[1], put on[1].

2524-get on[2] [A1 B1ii] (cause to) make progress in general; advance. A: nicely; at work, in business, in life, in the world □ 'Well, Mrs Jones, you're getting on very nicely. Keep taking your pills, and come and see me again in a month's time.' □ When the brain runs out of sugar, the undernourished ego grows weak, can't be bothered to undertake the necessary chores, and loses all interest in those spatial and temporal relationships which mean so much to an organism bent on getting on in the world. DOP □ He looked upon his new car as a symbol of his success, the proof that he was getting on in the world. □ Most people find that if they want to get on, they must conform to the conventions of the society in which they live. □ The instructor got his students on so well that they had covered the course three weeks before the allotted time.

2525-get on[3] [A1] fare, perform, in a particular situation; make out[6] (q v) □ 'How did you get on in your oral examination?' 'Not too badly. I don't think I failed, anyway!' □ I didn't get on too well in France. My school French was quite useless; nobody could understand a word I said. □ 'Hello, Simon! Haven't seen you for ages. How are you getting on these days?' 'Can't complain. And you?'

2526-get on[4] [A1] (of time) become late; (of people) advance in age or grow old. S: it, year; father □ 'Time's getting on, so will you all start getting ready, please? The bus will be here for you in twenty minutes.' □ The year is getting on. There was a touch of frost last night. □ 'The headmaster is getting on a bit, isn't he? He'll have to retire soon, I should think.' □ When a woman's getting on in years, and not very well, it's a great comfort to have a girl about the place who's sensible and responsible. RFW □ usu in continuous tenses. ⇨ get on for, go on (for).

2527-get on![5] [A1] (informal) used as an exclamation of disbelief, surprise etc; go on![14] (q v) □ 'Guess how far I walked yesterday?' 'Ten miles?' 'No, thirty-two miles!' 'Get on!' ⇨ get along/away with you!, go along with you!

2528-get on sb's back [A2] (informal) harass, bother, sb □ 'You were late arriving at work today, Jones.' 'Oh, Lord, are you going to get on my back, too? I had two hours of complaints from my wife last night, and a load of bills by this morning's post!' □ FLINT: Look, George — nobody else has seen these reports, especially Grace, thank God. Far as I'm concerned they were never written, but man, what's happened to you? DIXON: Don't get on my back*, Sarge* (= Sergeant) — I've had enough. BBCTV

2529-get on one's feet [A2] stand up for a special purpose, e g to speak in a debate □ When the member for Sefton gets on his feet in the Commons, there's no knowing when he will sit down again. ⇨ be on/come to one's feet, bring to his feet.

2530-get on one's/his feet [A2 B2 pass] (cause or help to) recover. S: [A2] O: [B2] firm, company, party; the wounded, injured; patient □ After the recent unrest the car industry will need time to get on its feet again. □ A quick way of getting a malingerer on his feet is to cut down his unemployment allowance.

2531-get a grip on [B2] gain or regain full control of. o: oneself; things, affairs, events □ 'I could see years ago that you hadn't got a grip on things. But I didn't think you would have come down to this.' HD □ 'Look here, Bill! You really must get a grip on yourself. You can't let your wife see you in this state.'

2532-get one's hands on[1] [B2 rel] obtain sth, often as a fulfilment of one's desires or as an essential part of a long-cherished plan; lay one's hands on[1] (q v). o: money, an electric drill, her private diary, a nice plot of land, a cottage in the country □ He's a second-hand dealer. It doesn't matter what it is: anything he can get his hands on*, he sells.* □ If only I could get my hands on a couple of hundred pounds, I'd be able to get married.

2533-get one's hands on[2] [B2] (informal) get near enough to sb or sth to seize or hit him, it etc; lay one's hands on[3] (q v) □ 'That woman's got a nerve. Just let me get my hands on her!' □ 'Those cats kept me awake again all last night. If I could get my hands on them, I'd kill them.'

get one's hooks on [B2] ⇨ get one's hooks into/on.

2535-get a move on [B1ii] (informal) be quick; take urgent steps to do sth □ 'If you don't get a move on*, you'll miss the last bus.'* □ That student is going to have to get a move on if he wants to pass his finals.

2536-get on the move [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) start moving. S: [A2] O: [B2] army; family; holiday-makers; animals; swallows; traffic □ After the terrible crashes in the fog, it was several hours before the traffic could get on the move again. □ It was dawn before the men could be got on the move over the difficult, unfamiliar terrain.

2537-get on sb's nerves [A2] annoy, irritate, sb □ Tony and Bill discussed the idea of sharing a flat but sensibly decided that, in view of their differing tastes and habits, they would soon get on each other's nerves. □ She gets on my nerves*, the way she never stops talking about her brilliant son.* □ The constant noise of aircraft flying overhead gets on everyone's nerves.

2538-get one's skates on [B1ii] (informal) be quick, make haste □ If you're going to meet your friends at the station, you'll have to get your skates on*, because the train is due in five minutes!*

2539-get on sb's wick [A2] (slang) annoy, irritate, sb; get on sb's nerves (q v) □ 'The boss gets on my wick with his everlasting complaints about timekeeping. And he thinks nothing of rolling up to the office at ten o'clock himself.'

2540-get on the wrong side of [A2] form a bad relationship with; get across[2] (q v) □ The unfortunate girl got on the wrong side of her mother-in-law from the start by refusing her offer of some old curtains. □ I would advise you not to get on the wrong side of Smith. He can be very awkward and is capable of making life very uncomfortable for you.

2541-get on for [A3] approach, draw near to, a stated time or age. S: it (of time); old Bloggs □ 'What time is it?' 'I don't know exactly, but it must be getting on for midnight.' □ 'I've got to go. It's getting on for five and I promised to meet my wife at the bowling-club.' □ The old woman continued to look after herself in her own little house although she was getting on for a hundred. ⇨ get on[4], go on (for).

2542-get on/onto [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] (cause, help, to) mount, board. o: horse, bicycle; bus, tram, train; boat, ship, hovercraft, hydrofoil; plane □ The bus was full when it stopped at the school, so the children couldn't get on. □ Before you can learn to ride a horse you have to be able to get on (or: onto) it. □ The plane wasn't large enough to take all the people, and the travel agent couldn't get them all on. □ Will you help me to get these sheep onto the cart? □ The ticket-inspector asked me whether I'd got on at Edinburgh or Newcastle.

2543-get on to[1] [A3 pass] contact, often by telephone but also by letter etc. o: electricians, suppliers; emergency service, police, fire-station; HQ, our man in Bristol □ I was told that the garage did not carry the necessary spare parts, but that they would get on to the makers and order them straight away. □ If the fire-station had been got on to at once, the hotel might have been saved. ⇨ be on to[1], put on to[1].

2544-get on to[2] [A3] trace, find, detect; become aware of sb's presence or activity. o: the scent, trail; his movements, whereabouts □ The murder squad followed every bit of information and eventually got on to the wanted man's trail in a remote area of Scotland. □ The secret service got on to the enemy agent shortly after he arrived in the country and watched his every move. ⇨ be on to[2], put on to[2].

2545-get on to[3] [A3 pass] realize, become aware of. o: his double life; the girl's real intentions; his dishonesty, deceit; the fact that... □ When Maureen got on to the real reason for her husband being 'kept late at the office', it was not long before the whole affair was out in the open.

2546-get on to[4] [A3] move from one activity, or phase, to another; pass on (to)[3] (q v). o: more important matters; something more interesting; the next item on the agenda □ 'Now that we've cleared up those necessary routine matters we can get on to what we've all been looking forward to: Mr Cowley's report on his visit to Thailand.' □ 'I hate all this theory. When do you think we're going to get on to something useful?' □ We don't get on to anatomy until next year.

get on (with)[1] [A1 A3] make progress (with). ⇨ get along/on (with)[1].

get on (with)[2] [A1 A3 rel] have a harmonious relationship (with). ⇨ get along/on (with)[2].

2549-get on with [A3] continue to do. o: work, job; homework, the gardening, housework □ 'Put that novel away and get on with your work!' □ 'Excuse me if I get on with this letter, but the post goes in twenty minutes. Then we'll have a cup of tea and a chat.' □ 'I wish you'd get on with your dinner and go out! I want to clear up and have a rest.' ⇨ go on[5], go on with.

2550-let sb get on with it [A3] (informal) an expression of exclamatory force, implying that sb is intent on doing sth and should be allowed to do it, regardless of the consequences, and the speaker's disapproval □ 'If Ethel and Mavis think they can run the boutique without any help, well, all I can say is, let them get on with it.'

2551-get on without [A3] manage, survive, keep going, without □ How will Mr Andrews get on without a housekeeper? He's never had to look after himself before.

2552-get out[1] [A1] become known, leak. S: news, secret, information, date of the invasion □ Somehow the news got out that Cassius Clay was in the hotel, and a crowd gathered outside in the hope of seeing him. □ 'If it ever gets out that you were behind the raid on Barclay's Bank today, you'll be in real trouble, because a man was killed by the gang.' ⇨ be out[7], come out[7], let out[2].

2553-get out[2] [B1ii] receive, draw, be given. O: (not) a lot, much; nothing □ In most walks of life you only get out what you put in. Only the lucky few strike it rich and get big rewards for little effort. ⇨ get out of[3].

2554-get out[3] [B1i] speak, utter. O: a word, the words, the message; it □ The woman was in such a state of shock after the accident that she couldn't get a word out. □ When John finally plucked up enough courage to ask for an increase in wages, he had quite a job to get the words out. □ Although the old man was deeply moved, he nevertheless managed to get out a short speech in which he thanked everyone for his retirement present.

2555-get out[4] [A1 B1ii pass] (cricket) (cause to) lose one's wicket; be dismissed, dismiss □ 'How did Edrich get out?' 'He was caught behind the wicket.' □ When England got Sobers out, there seemed to be a faint chance that they would win the match. ⇨ be out[8], give out[4].

2556-get out[5] [B1ii pass] succeed in solving, or finding the correct answer to; work out[3] (q v). O: calculation, sum; puzzle, problem □ Not a single boy in the class could get the problem out. ⇨ come out[12].

2557-get one's rag out [B1ii] (slang) become angry □ 'Now keep your hair on, Bill! There's no need to get your rag out every time Doris comes home a bit late. She's a good girl and you must trust her.'

2558-get out/out of[1] [A1 emph A2] go away, usu from a building, room etc; escape from danger □ It's easy to get into a good seat at the theatre, but not so easy to get out if you want to leave early. □ 'The police are coming. We'd better get out, and quick!' □ 'I advise you to get out while the getting is good (= while it is still possible to do so).' AITC □ 'Anyone with poor nerves should not stay in the motor manufacturing business. He should get the hell out!' ⇨ be out/out of[1], bring out/out of, come out/out of[1], take out/out of[1].

2559-get out/out of[2] [B1ii pass B2 pass] cause to leave a room, building; extract (from). O: children; armed man; rabbit; screw; splinter. o: room; house; burrow; wood; finger □ We had to find some way of getting the nurse out (of the house) for a few minutes so that we could talk freely. □ Our car couldn't be got out (of the garage) because there were several other locked cars around it. ⇨ be out/out of[2], come out/out of[2], take out/out of[2].

2560-get out/out of[3] [A1 A2] leak, escape (from). S: gas, water, acid; tiger, snake; prisoner; patient. o: pipe, tank, container; cage, basket; jail, cell; bed □ 'I don't know how the acid got out. The battery isn't broken, and it hasn't been moved.' □ The villagers were terrified when they heard that the lion had got out of its cage.

2561-get out of[1] [A2 pass] avoid; not do what one ought to do. o: all the dirty work, night duty, obligations, war; going to school □ Her sons were experts at getting out of hard work. □ I wish I could get out of going to the party this evening; I don't feel like standing round and talking for three hours. □ Some men would do anything to get out of the war. It was not unknown for a recruit to shoot himself in the leg 'accidentally'. □ Going to the dentist is something which can't always be got out of.

2562-get out of[2] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) lose, abandon. o: ⚠ (the way, hang, of) it; the habit (of doing sth) □ After living for two years in a hotel, I had completely got out of the way of doing things for myself. □ 'If only you could get out of the habit of smoking, you would soon feel better.' □ 'Can't you get this child out of the habit of repeating everything I say?' □ Since her family grew up and left home, she's quite got out of the way of cooking and baking. It seems pretty pointless now.

2563-get out of[3] [B2 pass] obtain, gain, from. O: something, (next to, practically) nothing; ten per cent; a good profit □ Too many people spend their time wondering what they can get out of others, instead of what they can give to others. □ 'Don't imagine that I'm going to get a huge profit out of this deal. I'm probably going to lose money on it.' □ There's nothing to be got out of this book: it's years out of date. ⇨ get out[2].

2564-get out of[4] [B2 pass] make sb yield sth, sometimes by dubious means. O: truth; admission, confession; the whole story □ The interrogators finally got a statement out of the prisoner, but it was not a true one. He was simply too exhausted to resist their pressure any longer. □ Nothing could be got out of the Minister. All he would say was that the talks with the Union would continue in the morning. □ I held my breath. I had to step carefully now if I was to get out of him the full confession for which I thirsted; and as I inhaled slowly I could smell Hugo's thoughts. UTN

2565-get out of bed (on) the wrong side [A2] (informal) be in a bad mood or temper from the moment one gets up □ 'What's the matter with Percy? He's cursing at everyone this morning.' 'I don't know. He must have got out of bed on the wrong side, or something.' □ an alt construction is get out of the wrong side of the bed.

2566 get the best/most/utmost out of [B2 pass] use to the best advantage, employ most effectively. o: him, employee; car, horse; Parker pen; life, holiday □ You don't get the best out of men by treating them as a bunch of idiots. □ To get the best out of your Kenwood mixer, follow the directions carefully. □ The doctors have told him that he has only six months to live, so he's trying to get the most out of them.

2567 get blood out of a stone [B2 pass] (informal) extract something (esp money) from a 'source' which does not contain it or which does not easily yield it □ Persuading John to part with his annual subscription to the Liberal Party is like getting blood out of a stone. □ It's no use asking your father for a loan. You can't get blood out of a stone (or: Blood can't be got out of a stone).

2568 get out of one's depth [A2] (of a non-swimmer) be in water in which one cannot stand or walk, and thus be in danger of drowning; be in a situation which one cannot manage, which one cannot understand □ Peter managed quite well in chemistry at school, but when he went to the university he soon got out of his depth. ⇨ be out of one's depth.

2569 get out of the groove/rut [A2] abandon one's boring, unadventurous mode of life □ 'I don't suppose I'll like America, but it's time I got out of the groove here.' RFW □ 'Why don't you do something to get out of the rut if you're so dissatisfied with your job?'

2570 get out of hand [A2] become uncontrollable. S: children, horse; business, organization □ I could see that the children were getting out of hand because of my presence, so I said goodbye and left. □ He tried to expand the firm too quickly. His staff did not have enough experience, production got out of hand, and he went bankrupt. ⇨ be out of hand.

2571 get out of one's head/mind [B2] stop thinking about, forget if only for a short time. O: it, idea (...that); picture, fear, prospect, thought (of...) □ I wish I could get the picture of that awful accident out of my head. □ You must try to get your work out of your mind. You ought to take up a hobby! □ Try as he might, he could not get the idea out of his head that there was a conspiracy to cheat him of his entitlement under his father's will. □ 'If you think I'm going to pay all your debts, you can get the idea out of your head now, because I'm not.'

2572 get out of it! [A2] (slang) do not exaggerate, do not say things that nobody can believe □ *'I'm going to give Harry a piece of my mind next time I see him.' '*Get out of it! You couldn't give a sick mouse a piece of your mind!' □ imper only.

2573 get a kick out of [B2 pass] (informal) enjoy, find great etc pleasure in. adj: no, not much of a; terrific, tremendous □ (song) 'I get no kick from champagne, But I get a kick out of you.' □ 'I'm no good,' said Bill, 'no good at all and, as you well know, I don't even get a kick out of admitting it any more.' HAA □ 'Selling brushes from door to door — you wouldn't think that a kick could be got out of that sort of life, would you?'

2574 get no change out of [B2 pass] (informal) be unsuccessful in one's attempts to persuade, manipulate, seduce or exploit sb. adj: not any/much, (very, precious) little □ 'He was a critic who tried to take liberties with all the lady novelists... You'll remember him, I daresay.' 'Vaguely,' said Lettie. 'He never got much change out of me.' MM □ 'If that man is a Jehovah's Witness he won't get any change out of your father!' □ 'I suppose several people have been inquiring about him since he died?' 'A lot from the newspapers did, but they got no change out of me. I keep meself to meself.' PP □ 'I can see there's not much change to be got out of him!'

2575 get out of sb's sight [A2 B2 pass] remove oneself or sb from another person's presence □ *'*Get out of my sight, you wretch! I never want to set eyes on you again.' □ I'm going to get out of your sight as soon as I can get a bit of money in my pocket. TOH □ 'I wish you would get these quarrelling kids out of my sight for an hour or two.'

2576 get out of one's system [B2 pass] (informal) stop wishing that one had; no longer be attracted to or fascinated by; satisfy a desire in order to make oneself free of it □ 'Do you think you'll want to go back and live in England?' he asked. 'I don't think so,' I said. 'I think I've got that much out of my system.' RFW □ 'You look so miserable! I suppose it's that man again. Why don't you try and get him out of your system?' □ A religious upbringing — now that's something that can't easily be got out of one's system. RFW

2577 get out of sb's/the way [A2 B2 pass] remove oneself, sb or sth from the scene; step aside from the path of sb or sth; complete a job, task etc □ 'If you don't get out of the way, you're liable to be knocked down by a bicycle or something.' □ 'If your father comes home drunk, get the little children out of the way before he starts hitting them.' □ 'Once I've got this pile of marking out of the way, I'll come for a walk with you.'

2578 get over[1] [A1 emph A2 pass B1ii pass B2 pass] (cause to) climb, cross. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] sheep, horse; children, troops. o: wall, fence, stream, bridge □ 'How did the cattle manage to get over the road?' □ We got ourselves safely over the fence.

2579 get over[2] [A2 pass] surmount. o: obstacle, difficulty, problem □ Three scientists at Stanford University think they can get over the barrier by exploiting the properties of macrophages. NS □ The negotiators had considerable difficulty in getting over the linguistic problems in the drawing-up of an agreed statement.

2580 get over[3] [A2 pass] become calm, healthy etc, again; recover (from)[1] (q v). o: shock, disappointment, surprise; handicap, illness; effort; being made redundant, being disinherited; the loss of his wife; it □ I can't get over a thing like that happening to him. QA □ She never quite got over being jilted by Geoffrey. □ Being held up at gun-point and robbed isn't an experience that is easily got over. □ John was disappointed that he didn't get the job, but he'll get over it.

2581 get over[4] [A2] (not) fully believe, appreciate or understand. o: the wonders of modern science; the ease with which they robbed the bank; sb's impudence, madness, bad behaviour □ 'I can't get over that woman's cheek. Coming in here and complaining about a dress she bought six months ago!' □ The astronaut couldn't get over the fact that in spite of the accident to the space- vehicle he had returned safely to Earth. □ usu neg in statements.

2582- get over[5] [A2 pass] overcome, master, suppress. o: one's embarrassment, confusion, shyness, inhibitions; stutter; disinclination to work □ When I last saw Marie she had almost completely got over her nervousness in the presence of strangers.

2583- get over[6] [A2] travel over, cover. o: a lot of ground, the distance □ These new tractors get over twice the acreage that the old ones used to cover. □ The athlete failed to get over the distance in the minimum time to qualify for the final.

2584- get over (to) [B1ii pass B3 pass] make clear, convey (to); impress sb with; get across (to) (q v). O: oneself; one's personality, sincerity; anger, distress □ Dressed in deepest black, possessing more personal force than anyone else in court, and more ability to get it over*, she made a great impression.* FW □ The lecturer, though he knew his subject inside out, was quite incapable of getting anything useful over to the students. ⇨ put over (to).

2585- get over with [B3 pass] (informal) do sth necessary but unpleasant (finally, once and for all). O: it; work; formalities □ 'If we must visit your parents today let's go early and get it over with*.'* □ He looked upon the marriage ceremony as a mere formality — something to be got over with as quickly as possible. □ 'Let's get the goodbyes over with and go!' □ in this expression, with has no object of its own. ⇨ next entry.

2586- get over (and done with) [B1ii pass] (informal) do sth necessary but unpleasant (finally, once and for all). O: work; formalities, the serious business □ 'I'll be glad when we've got this job over*. It's so boring!'* □ When the usual form-filling and signing had been got over*, he was at last free to look for the friends he knew would be there to welcome him.* □ If your tooth is aching you should go to the dentist, and soon! You might as well get it over and done with*.* □ in the complete expression, with has no object of its own. ⇨ be over[1], be over and done with; previous entry.

2587- get round[1] [A1 A2 pass] (sport) succeed in completing a course, a test etc for a stated score or in a given time. o: course, track, circuit, speedway; dartboard □ Jack Nicklaus got round the course in 67 — five under par. □ The runners got round the first lap in just under sixty-one seconds. □ The champion got round the board with 25 throws.

2588- get round[2] [A2 pass] avoid, legally if not honourably. o: law, regulations, rules □ The lawyer was well known for his skill at getting round the law, usually on technical points. So that many of his clients, while obviously guilty of traffic offences, got off scot-free. □ He believed that there were no tax-laws that couldn't be got round somehow or other.

get round[3] [A2 pass] gain the confidence of. ⇨ get around/round[1].

get round[4] [A2] tackle successfully. ⇨ get around/round[2].

2591- get round the table [A2 B2 pass] (of two or more groups in dispute) (cause to) sit down together in order to discuss a problem and find a solution to it. S: [A2] O: [B2] workers and employers; the government and the unions; the management and the cleaners □ What the strikers want is that the dismissed men should be reinstated. Until they are, they say they won't get round the table with anybody — employers or arbitrators. □ 'Surely what we all want is to get the two sides round the table and talking?'

2592- get one's tongue round [B2 pass] pronounce, articulate. o: word, name □ Chinese students of English have great difficulty in getting their tongues round some English words — especially those containing the sounds of r and l. 'Rival librarians' is for them an almost unpronounceable expression. □ English tongues simply can't be got round the sounds of some African languages.

get round to [A3 pass] ⇨ get around/round to.

2594- get through[1] [A1 A2] manage to pass through. o: hole, gap, aperture, eye of a needle, crack □ You would wonder how such a large animal could get through such a small hole. ⇨ go through[1].

2595- get through[2] [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] (help to) be successful in; (help to) pass. o: (the first round); driving-test □ [A2] I got through the written papers but failed in the oral examination. □ [B1 B2] I wouldn't expect that instructor to get anyone through (the driving-test).

2596- get through[3] [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] of a Bill, (cause to) be approved by Parliament and so become an Act of Parliament. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] the Industrial Relations Bill; new law on capital punishment; reform of the law on divorce □ [B2] The Government rarely has any difficulty in getting its annual Finance Bill through Parliament. □ [A1] People began to doubt whether the Bill would ever get through*.* ⇨ go through[8], put through[2].

2597- get through[4] [A2 pass] consume, drink, eat, spend. o: ten aspirins a day; a bottle of gin a week; enough for two people; a fortune, a lot of money □ They say that the old man got through a fortune when he was young, and lived in poverty for the rest of his life. □ You would wonder how so much food could be got through by such a small child. ⇨ go through[2].

2598- get through[5] [A2 pass] manage to do, read, write etc. o: homework; all these files; fifty letters a day; a lot of reading □ My new secretary is very quick; she gets through a lot of work in a morning. □ 'I've brought you a very interesting book on the Sudan.' 'Thanks, but I haven't got through the one you brought yesterday yet!' □ When I've got through the 'get through' entries I'll get on with the 'get to' ones!

2599- get through (to)[1] [A1 A3 pass B1ii pass B3 pass] reach, or bring to, its/one's destination, after overcoming difficulties. S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] message; survivor; supplies, reinforcements □ [A1] If more supplies do not get through*, thousands of refugees will die.* □ [B3] The ammunition could not be got through to the men, and they had to surrender.

2600- get through (to)[2] [A1 A3 B1ii B3] (help to) make contact, by radio etc (with). o: police, London □ [A1 A3] 'The telephone operator told me that all the lines were engaged. That's why I couldn't get through (to you).' □ [B1 B3] At the fifth attempt the operator got me through (to New York). □ [A1] At midday a messenger arrived from the radio station, to say that the American had got through to inform them that there was a lull in the fighting in Asunción. DF ⇨ be/put through (to).

2601-get through to[1] [A3 B3 pass] (sport) (help to) reach, get as far as. o: the final (stage), the semi-final(s) □ Colchester were lucky to get through to the fifth round of the Cup. □ How many times did Laver get through to the final of the men's singles at Wimbledon? □ The new manager got the team through to Wembley in his first season.

2602-get through to[2] [A3] make sb understand the meaning of what one is saying; communicate with sb □ The boy is just stupid: I can't get through to him at all, even when I explain things in words of one syllable. □ The police were told that the injured man was still in a dazed state and that it would be impossible to get through to him. ⇨ get through (to)[2].

2603-get through with[1] [A3 pass] finish, complete. o: job; housework; selling the house □ By the time we had got through with all the formalities, all we wanted to do was go to the hotel and rest. □ No sooner had the tedious job of decorating the house been got through with than a pipe burst in the attic and ruined everything.

2604-get through with[2] [A3 pass] (informal) finish dealing with sb, implying physical attack or verbal correction □ 'When I've got through with that bastard even his own mother won't recognize him.' □ When the Matron had got through with the grumbling patients, they felt thoroughly ashamed of themselves.

2605-get to[1] [A2] reach, arrive at (q v). o: village, hotel, destination; coffee; the most interesting part □ We didn't get to the hotel until midnight. □ An unpleasant grin spread over the boy's face as he got to the juicy part of the novel. □ note the expression Cut the cackle and get to the horses (or: 'osses), often reduced simply to Cut the cackle, meaning 'Cut out the unnecessary preliminaries, and tell us the important news or facts.'

2606-get to[2] [A2] begin to do sth, reach the point of doing sth. o: wondering, asking himself; the point where..., the stage of thinking... □ In his disturbed state, he got to screaming obscenities at anyone who troubled him in any way. □ Lying in bed, unable to sleep, I got to thinking how nice it would be to go away and start a new life somewhere else.

2607-get access to [B2 pass rel] (formal) reach, sometimes by overcoming some obstacle. o: attic, roof, secret room; the White House; classified information, state secrets; rival's plans □ The police are still not sure how the thieves got access to the safe. No damage seemed to have been caused to the building. □ We realized too late that access could easily be got to our stronghold by means of a long-forgotten tunnel. ⇨ have access to.

2608-get to the bottom of [A2 pass(o)] find the cause of, solve (a problem), fathom. o: mystery, affair, goings-on; it □ 'I'm determined to get to the bottom of this outrageous rumour.' □ Sherlock Holmes had a reputation for getting to the bottom of any crime, however baffling it might seem to others. □ 'I shan't be satisfied till this whole business is got to the bottom of*!'*

2609-get to the top (of the ladder/tree) [A2] reach the highest position in one's chosen career □ This is a go-ahead organization, where every girl has every chance to get to the top. H □ From the earliest age, you could see that he would get to the top of the tree — no matter what profession he chose.

2610-get to work (on) [A2] start working, operating, studying etc; tackle, begin, sth □ The men piled out of the coach, rushed into the restaurant and immediately got to work on the meal that had been prepared for them. □ (book review) I wish that she would chuck her tape-recorder off Brighton pier and get to work on a real book again. OBS

2611-get to first base with [A2] (esp US informal) make significant progress towards achieving an objective, esp of a man making amorous advances to a woman □ Sam was crazy about Helen, but he never even got to first base with her. □ We ran out of money before we could get to first base with our project to open an antique shop in the village. □ from the game of baseball; usu neg or with neg implications.

2612-get to grips with [A2 pass(o)] tackle in earnest. o: problem, work; opponent, enemy □ It's time you stopped tinkering about with those trifling repairs on your car, and got to grips with the basic trouble by decarbonizing the engine. □ When Alex gets to grips with a problem, he doesn't leave it alone until he's found the solution. □ The question of where our energy is coming from in the next decade needs to be got to grips with in a serious way. ⇨ be at/come to/bring to grips with.

2613-get together[1] [A1 nom] meet socially; discuss sth with a view to forming a common front □ 'Hello, Bill! Haven't seen you for ages!' 'That's a fact. Look! Let's get together later and have a long chat about old times.' □ The younger members of the staff decided to get together over the question of weekend duty. They didn't see why the older men shouldn't do their fair share. □ The firm had its annual get-together at the Anchor Inn. A good time was had by all.

2614-get together[2] [B1i pass] assemble, collect. O: body, party, group, army of men; papers, documents; impressive amount of information □ Enough volunteers were got together to keep the beaches clean all through the summer. □ 'I want you to get your things together*, so that we can leave at a moment's notice.'*

2615-get it together [B1ii] (informal) (be able to) manage, organize, sth satisfactorily □ (Jean Shrimpton in an interview) 'I didn't seem to get on at all well during my session with Cecil Beaton (the photographer). Perhaps I was too young to see what he wanted. I couldn't get it together.' BBCTV □ 'People don't dance like that these days, Dad! Why don't you go and see some real dancing? Try and get it together!'

2616-get under [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) pass beneath; shelter, hide under. o: barbed wire, rope, hedge; tree, tarpaulin, stairs □ The rabbits couldn't get under the wire netting, so for once we were able to grow a few vegetables. □ The dog had the sense to get under some old boxes to shelter from the storm. □ The children had to be got under the stairs whenever there was an air-raid.

2617-get under control [B2 pass] subdue, master. O:

fire, floods; people, mob, crowd; children; riot, uprising, rebellion, mutiny, revolt □ The fire-brigade arrived within minutes of the alarm and quickly got the conflagration under control. □ The government hasn't got enough troops to get the rebellious province under control. □ When the mob had been got under control, several of the ring-leaders were arrested. ⇨ be/bring under control.

2618- get under sb's skin [A2] be a constant source of irritation to sb □ I don't know what it is about that fellow Fotheringay, but he always manages to get under my skin. □ note that the words I've got you under my skin, the title of a song, mean 'I can't stop thinking about you' — where the irritation is of a pleasant nature! Note also that the expression here is have/have got sb under one's skin, which has a transitive construction and is grammatically different from the headphrase.

2619- get up[1] [A1 emph B1ii pass] rise from one's bed; call or awaken sb, and possibly lift him out of bed. S: [A1] O: [B1] baby; father; boys. A: early, late; at the crack of dawn, in time for □ (old song) 'Oh, it's nice to get up in the morning, But it's nicer to lie in bed!' □ 'Isn't it time you got the baby up for its bottle (= for its milk)?' □ 'If I'd been got up earlier I wouldn't have missed my train.' 'It's high time you were able to get yourself up, my boy!' ⇨ be up[5].

2620- get up[2] [A1 emph] rise to one's feet from a chair, the ground; stand (up) (q v) □ When the Chairman asked if there were any questions, about four people got up at once. □ The man fell to the floor with a crash and couldn't get up again. He was hopelessly drunk. □ I got up from the table and left the room as quickly as possible.

2621- get up[3] [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] (help to) climb; carry up. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] old man, car, lorry; load, furniture. o: hill, mountain, incline, cliff; stairs, steps, ladder □ [A2] Your car will never get up that hill... □ [A1] ...but mine will get up in second gear! □ [B2] 'How do you expect to get this filing-cabinet up all those stairs?' □ [B1] 'I don't know. All I know is that it has got to be got up! And it's your job to get it up!' ⇨ go up[1].

2622- get up[4] [A1 B1ii pass] (cause, help to) mount a horse, bicycle etc □ 'Can you get up by yourself, or shall I help you?' 'Thank you. I can manage to get up by myself.' □ 'Quick! Get the girl up behind me and let's start before her father arrives!'

2623- get up[5] [A1] rise, increase in force, become violent. S: △ the wind, storm, sea □ Although the wind was obviously getting up, and with it the sea, the foolish couple left harbour in their flimsy catamaran. □ get the wind up (q v) has an entirely different meaning.

2624- get up[6] [B1i pass] organize, arrange. O: party, concert, exhibition; appeal, petition (against/on behalf of/for) □ What a miserable way to earn a living! Getting up dreary leg-shows in the provinces. □ The prisoners-of-war kept their spirits up by getting up bingo sessions, art classes, sing-songs and so on. □ The students got up a country-wide campaign in support of nuclear disarmament.

2625- get up[7] [B1ii nom pass adj] dress in a special way, dress up[1] (q v); make beautiful or attractive O: daughter, child; oneself; book, present, room □ She may not be very beautiful but she certainly knows how to get herself up effectively. □ 'Do you like my get-up? 'I do! The colour suits you perfectly.' □ The girl's mother had got her up as Marie Antoinette — not very successfully, however! □ 'I envy you the village,' Gerald said; 'it's charming.' 'Is it?' Dollie asked. 'It always seems to be a bit got-up for tourists.' ASA

2626- get up[8] [B1i pass] prepare, study; memorize. O: German, chemistry; part, role □ When we went to see John he was busy getting the Law of Torts up for his exam. □ 'What are you going to do next, after you've got up your Hamlet?'

2627- get up a(n)/one's appetite/thirst [B1i pass] develop an appetite or thirst, do sth which produces an appetite; work up[3] (q v) □ Mariette has gone for a ride now to get her appetite up. DBM

2628- get sb's back up [B1ii pass] (informal) annoy, antagonize, sb □ No, Borstal (a kind of prison for young offenders) didn't get my back up, because it's always been up, right from when I was born. LLDR □ 'Why should a simple request get your back up? I only asked you if you would like to wash the dishes.' 'But I always bloody-well wash the dishes! That's what's so annoying.' □ When he came in and threw his coat on a chair it was obvious that his back had been got up by something or other. ⇨ put sb's back up.

2629- get sb's blood up [B1ii pass] enrage, anger, make sb feel aggressive □ His insolent manner really got my blood up and for two pins I would have punched him on the nose. ⇨ one's blood be up.

2630- get one's/sb's monkey up [B1ii] (slang) become or make angry, work oneself or sb up into a temper □ The class got the teacher's monkey up by deliberately asking a lot of irrelevant questions.

2631- get up steam [B1iii] develop enough pressure of steam to drive sth; (informal) (of persons) prepare oneself to make an effort. S: ship; ferry, tug; he etc; □ We saw the boat in the harbour getting up steam for the daily crossing to the island. □ 'Do you think you could get up enough steam to take these letters along to the post-office for me?'

2632- get the wind up [B1ii] (informal) become frightened, alarmed □ When somebody knocked at the door and asked if Mr Philpotts was in, Jo got the wind up. He thought it was the police! □ Every time I hear about more redundancies in the electronics industry, I get the wind up. The factory I work at produces only radar equipment. □ With the approach of the General Election, the Government got the wind up and cut taxes by more than fifteen per cent. ⇨ have/put the wind up.

2633- get up against[1] [A3 B3 pass] stand, sit, huddle very close to; place very near to. O: piano, sacks, ladder. o: wall, partition □ The child got up against the radiator in his efforts to keep warm. □ 'Can you help me to get this load of sand up against the tree, where it will stay dry?'

2634- get up against[2] [A3] form a bad relationship with; find oneself in conflict with. S: new shop-steward; French assistant; students. o: manager, management; headmaster, head of the French department; authorities, Vice-Chancellor □ I had only been working in the hotel for a week when I got up against the head waiter, and he began to make life unbearable for me.* □ She's hopelessly headstrong; she always gets up against people in authority.

2635-get up on one's hind legs [A3] (informal) rise to one's feet in order to speak to a group of people □ Mr Clark had been in the House of Commons for nine months before he found the courage to get up on his hind legs and make his maiden speech. ⇨ get up².

2636-get up to¹ [A3 B3 pass] (cause to) reach; raise to. o: standard, required level □ The boy despaired of ever getting up to the high standard required for entry to the University. □ It is inadvisable to pay too much attention to advertisements that promise to get you up to managerial status in one or two years. ⇨ be up to⁵, bring up to, come up to.

2637-get up to² [A3] be occupied in, be busy with (usu with the implication that the activity is undesirable, foolish or surprising). o: what; mischief; his old tricks □ What on earth will Mike be getting up to next? First he bought antiques, then it was old houses, and now it's old ships. He'll soon be trying to buy Tower Bridge and take it to the States. □ Old Juppers has been getting up to his dirty tricks with young children again; he's back in gaol for a couple of years. ⇨ be up to¹, put up to².

2638-get up to date (with) [A3 B3 pass] do sth which is due or overdue; inform (oneself) about. o: the latest developments, news □ The teacher spent five hours on Sunday getting his marking up to date (or: [A3] getting up to date with his marking). □ 'What's been going on in the world while I've been ill? I really must get myself up to date!' ⇨ be up to date/the minute, bring up to date.

2639-get with child [B2 pass] (formal) make pregnant. O: girl; fiancée, wife, mistress □ 'Sin' is getting a girl with child before marriage and then not marrying her. UL □ She couldn't name the father; all that emerged was that she had been got with child while she was under the influence of alcohol.

2640-get within [A2] reach a position where one can hit or be hit, see or be seen etc. o: △ striking distance, earshot, range, sight □ It was obvious that they would never get within striking distance of the guest of honour, so they just sat on the stairs and enjoyed the free drinks. □ We were now getting within range of the enemy batteries (i e we could hit or, more likely, be hit by, them). ⇨ be within¹, bring within, come within.

2641-gibe (at) [A2 pass] mock, scorn, jeer (at) (q v). o: sb's modest attempts, efforts; misfortunes, poverty; mistakes □ Children can be very cruel; they often gibe at the feeble efforts of their younger brothers and sisters to do what the older members of the family can do with ease.

2642-ginger up [B1i pass] (informal) put more life, energy, enthusiasm, into sb or some activity. O: him, the Party; fund-raising campaign, movement for equal pay for women □ 'It's obvious that the Liberal Party needs gingering up; it's dying on its feet.' □ He asked me to 'ginger up' the evacuation of the (Nile) Delta cities. MFM

2643-gird on [B1iii pass] (formal, dated) fix or fasten on. O: sword, armour, suit of mail □ The young knight girded on his father's sword and went forth to avenge him.

2644-gird up one's loins [B1iii] (formal, dated) prepare for action, esp for battle □ He girded up his loins and called upon his enemy to come forward and meet him in single combat. □ It was becoming clear from its actions that the Government was girding up its loins for another confrontation with the Unions.

2645-girdle about/around [B1ii pass] (formal) surround (in a picturesque way). O: island, lake, castle □ A thick forest girdled the castle about. □ The loch was pleasantly girdled about with beech, fir and aspen. □ The tiny tropical island was girdled round with a coral reef. □ usu passive.

2646-give away¹ [B1i nom pass adj] give, free of charge; sell at a very low price. O: money, possessions, old clothes; everything; samples, free packets □ The young man gave his entire fortune away, and went to live on a small island. □ (letter) Why do politicians, and newspapers, give the impression that a Chancellor has money to give away? T □ 'Four pounds for that book! It isn't exactly given away, is it?' □ 'Please don't bring any more of those plastic give-away tulips into the house.' □ 'Have you seen the latest give-away? A packet of bird-seed with every jar of coffee. Grow your own hemp, I suppose!'

2647-give away² [B1i pass] distribute, present. O: prizes, medals, diplomas, certificates □ 'Do you really think it necessary to drag the Mayor in, just to give away a few certificates to kids who have passed their first swimming test?'

2648-give away³ [B1i nom pass adj] betray, reveal, voluntarily or involuntarily. O: secret; someone, something, nothing; oneself, itself □ He had invented secrets, he hadn't given them away. OMIH □ Love is its own torturer; and, like cruder tortures, it makes its victim want to tell the truth — the truth about itself. It is by nature self-betraying; if nothing else, the eyes give it away. PW □ He was aware as he spoke that the tremble in his voice was the give-away that the police had been waiting for.

2649-give away⁴ [B1i pass] fail to take or use, through foolishness or neglect; throw away² (q v). O: opportunity, the chance of a lifetime; game, match □ Whether from laziness or ineptitude Sam gave away his last chance to make his reputation as an actor. □ If you give your chances away like that, how can you expect to win the game?

2650-give away⁵ [B1i pass] in a marriage ceremony, lead the bride to the groom's side and 'give' her to him. S: Mr Jones; the bride's father, brother, uncle, guardian. O: bride; daughter, sister, niece, ward □ As her father was too ill to be present, the bride was given away by her uncle.

2651-give away⁶ [A1] yield, give way. S: wall, floor, roof; ground, river bank □ It was no use to say that the floor of the wardrobe was rotten and had given away with Nurse Ellen's heavy body. DC □ the form give way is found much more often than give away in this meaning.

2652-give the game/the show away [B1ii] (informal) betray sb's plan, intentions, voluntarily or involuntarily □ Hour after hour we lay in silence, waiting for some movement from the enemy. If only they would open fire and give the show away. SD □ We wanted to go out without telling the children, but my wife asked me about the times of the buses and gave the whole game away*.* ⇨ give away[3].

2653-give back (to)[1] [B1i pass B3 pass] return to its/sb's owner; hand back (to) (q v). O: confiscated goods; catapult; pen, book, suitcase □ The teacher said he would give the boy's white mouse back to him at the end of the school-day. □ 'Isn't it time you gave Mary her ear-rings back*? She may want to wear them herself!'* □ The photographic equipment was given back to the tourist when he proved that it belonged to him. ⇨ get back[4], have back[1].

2654-give back (to)[2] [B1i pass B3 pass] allow to enjoy again. O: sight; freedom, liberty; dead son □ There was nothing the doctors could do to give me back the use of my legs. The paralysis was complete and irreversible. □ 'Give me back my husband!' the woman screamed at the President. 'Don't leave him to rot in gaol' (cf 'Give my husband back to me!').

2655-give back (to) with interest [B1i pass B3 pass] repay with interest; reply to (an insult, offence, attack etc) but with greater force or effectiveness; pay back (for) (q v) □ Morris borrowed heavily from his brother when he started his business, but eventually gave it all back to him with interest*.* □ Whatever slanders she had suffered from the tongues of her neighbours she gave back with interest in the fullness of time. □ usu in the fig rather than in the lit meaning.

2656-give for [B2] sacrifice, exchange, for. O: △ one's eyes, eye-teeth, back teeth, right arm; one's life, one's all □ Sarah would have given her eyes for a ballet dress. DC □ 'What a very romantic story! And now of course he would give his life for you.' OMIH □ She missed the company of children so much that she would have given her right arm for the slightest sound from the tiniest throat. HSG □ As they stumbled across the dusty plain, John said, 'I'd give my back teeth for a pint of cold beer.' □ with the words life, all, the expression usu indicates the literal sacrifice of one's life: He gave his life for his country.

2657-give cause for [B2 pass] arouse, be the reason for. o: alarm, anger, concern □ ...the state of the Defence Services of Britain gave cause for 'grave concern' and unless steps were taken to put the matter right we could look forward only to great disasters if we became involved in war. MFM □ During the night the old lady took a turn for the worse and today her condition gives us cause for deep anxiety. □ the second example has a Direct Object (cause) and an Indirect Object (us); note the passive transform: We are given cause for deep anxiety.

2658-give credit for [B2 pass emph rel] believe that sb possesses; credit with[2] (q v). o: him etc; pupil, soldier; (for) intelligence, common sense, ability, determination, initiative, performance □ Harry's actions gave evidence of a will stronger than I would have given him credit for*.* □ I wouldn't have given him credit for such fine feelings. I always thought he was rather a coarse fellow. But I was wrong. □ the second example has a Direct Object (credit) and an Indirect Object (him) followed by the prep phrase with for; cf the active and passive patterns in: We can't give him credit for much sense. □ He can't be given credit for much sense. ⇨ give credit (to) (for), take credit for.

2659-give scope for [B2 pass emph rel] allow, encourage, the use of. o: imagination, expansion, his talents □ ...the search for a neat code of rules of civilized behaviour, though it would give scope for ingenuity, would be largely a waste of time. SC □ It is ironic that only war has seemed to give young men scope for their spirit of adventure. □ the second example contains a Direct Object (scope) and an Indirect Object (young men) followed by the prep phrase with for; note the passive transform: Young men seemed to be given no scope for the spirit of adventure.

2660-give forth [B1iii pass] (formal, jocular) emit, produce. O: cry, yell; smell, stench □ The strange animal did not run away, but stood its ground giving forth a mooing sound. □ On summer evenings the flowers gave forth an almost intoxicating scent. □ The engine gave forth a horrible grinding noise, and stopped.

2661-give in [B1i pass] give sth to a person who is authorized to receive it; hand in (q v). O: script, exercise; kit □ All papers should be given in before 12.30. Candidates disobeying this rule may be disqualified. □ 'Who gave my name in for the cross-country run on Saturday? I certainly didn't!'

2662-give in (to) [A1 A3 pass] allow oneself to be overcome by; give way to[2] (q v), yield (to) (q v). o: pressure, force; persuasion, argument; self-pity □ All sorts of other things I've had — tempers, scenes, reconciliations, giving in sometimes, sometimes holding out..... PW □ The rebels were obliged to give in to the superior strength of the loyalists. □ Since she took up Women's Lib she has stopped giving in to her husband on every point of difference between them: she sticks to her guns. □ It would have been easy to give in to sentimental melancholy. ILIH □ Blackmail is something that should never be given in to*; but that is easier said than done.*

2663-give of one's best [A2] work or perform as well as one possibly can □ When a man is not properly nourished, you can hardly expect him to give of his best whether at work or play. □ The general gave of his best in order that the army should be well prepared for all eventualities. MFM □ 'If every one of you gives of his best today, I'm sure you can win the Cup.'

2664-give evidence of[1] [B2 pass] produce witnesses or other proof in support of. o: court, magistrate; (of) identification, negligence □ The prosecution gave the court evidence of identification before proceeding with the case against the accused. □ the example has a Direct Object (evidence) and an Indirect Object (the court) followed by the prep phrase with of.

2665-give evidence of[2] [B2] show signs of. S: room, clothes, objects, antique furniture. o: having been searched, worn, damaged, touched up □ The packing-cases which were examined by the foreman gave evidence of having been tampered with; that is why he sent for the police.

2666-give off [B1iii pass] emit, release, produce. O: smoke, vapour; fumes, odour, scent, aroma; radiation, gamma rays □ The Daimler (a car) stood patiently in the sun outside, its leather giving off a hot smell. HD □ The acid gives off a characteristically pungent odour. □ So much smoke was given off by the lignite that the air soon became unbreathable.

2667-give on to [A3] overlook; allow access to. S: entrance, door; window, french window. o: garden, street, stream, park, courtyard □ The front of the house gave on to the street, and the back on to a long, narrow garden, with a gate opening on a rough sandy path. CON □ The lounge window gave immediately on to an immaculately-kept rockery.

2668-give out[1] [A1] become exhausted. S: supplies, strength; the road, track; patience; memory, ingenuity □ The engine spluttered ominously. We exchanged anxious glances. Our worst fears were about to be realized. The petrol was giving out. □ Conversation ground slowly but surely to a halt as reminiscence and invention both gave out. An embarrassed silence fell on the company. □ The hunted animal's strength finally gave out, and the hounds were upon it like lightning.

2669-give out[2] [B1i pass] distribute; hand out[1] (q v). O: pencils, examination papers, books; leaflets, handbills, brochures; free cigars □ When the papers had been given out the supervisor rang a bell and the students began to read them. □ Several people have been arrested in Red Square for giving out leaflets without permission.

2670-give out[3] [B1i pass] announce, make known. O: news, figures; it... that the Minister had resigned □ He gave out that he would come to my headquarters and investigate the matter. MFM □ 'Whatever made you give such a terrible piece of news out on the morning of the girl's wedding? It was sheer cruelty.' □ It was given out that casualties from the air-raid had been very light. This was intended to deceive the enemy, but of course it did nothing of the kind. □ The accused man had given himself out to be a qualified doctor.

2671-give out[4] [B1ii pass] of an umpire, say that a batsman (cricket) or striker (baseball) is dismissed, has failed, and that his innings (cricket) or inning (baseball) is at an end □ The umpire raised his hand without hesitation. The white hope of the England side had been given out. ⇨ be out[8], get out[4].

2672-give over [A1] (substandard) stop (doing sth), be quiet □ *'We want boiled eggs, too!' the twins said, as in one voice. 'Can we have boiled eggs?' 'Give over. Can't you see I'm cutting the pineapple?' Ma said.* DBM □ *'*Give over pushing me, Maisie! You'll have me off the chair altogether in a minute.'

2673-give over to [B3 pass] abandon to. O: oneself; village, defeated population □ He seemed to give himself over entirely to the gratification of his senses. All thought for others had been pushed out of his mind. □ The ruthless officers gave the city over to their men, who raped and pillaged without mercy.

2674-given over to [pass (B3)] (be) used for, have as its particular end or purpose □ A large part of our productive capacity has been given over to the new model as a result of its enormous popularity. □ We have to make a translation of the electrical activity in our brains. To do this, quite a bit of the brain is given over to the control of the lip muscles and of the vocal chords. TBC

2675-given to [pass (B2)] (be) prone to, (be) in the habit of, have a tendency to □ Old Baker is much given to boasting about his wartime exploits. □ 'I'm not given to (making) predictions, so don't ask me what's going to happen in the next general election.' □ the object is usu the -ing form of a v, as in the examples.

2676-give birth to [B2] produce, be delivered of. S: woman, wife; ewe, cow, mare. O: baby, bouncing boy, lovely little girl, twins; lamb, calf, foal □ When the father was told that, as a result of a fertility drug, his wife had given birth to sextuplets, he said 'That is too much of a good thing!' □ (song) 'The South Lands gave birth to the blues.'

2677-give credence to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) believe, support, sth, perhaps in spite of certain factors that may make this difficult. S: we; evidence, corroboration. adj: no; some, little. o: tale, story, account, claims □ It was impossible to give credence to his story of hair-breadth escapes and heroic feats on the battlefield. □ The corroboration of four out of five of the witnesses gave some credence to the man's alibi. □ Little credence should be given to such wild rumours. □ not recommended as a substitute for believe in informal contexts.

2678-give currency to [B2 pass emph rel] be responsible for circulating. o: rumour, story, accusations; ideas, theories, proposals □ Any newspaper that gives currency to such inflammatory reports should be brought before the Press Council.

2679-give an ear/eye to [B2] watch, listen to (while mainly occupied in some other way); pay attention (to) (q v). o: (ear to) door, bell; baby, children; (eye to) oven, joint; baby □ *'*Give an eye to the fire while I'm out, won't you? There's plenty of coal in the scuttle.' □ 'I can't go out unless there's someone to give an ear to the telephone.'

2680-give the lie (direct) to [B2 pass emph rel] show to be untrue. o: rumour, story, statement □ There were discussions of how to counteract this rumour and give the lie to it. HAA □ The wonderful response of the young people to the call for help for the old members of the community gave the lie direct to the idea that they were entirely self-centred and thoughtless. □ With the Government's measures to reduce unemployment the lie has finally been given to the Opposition's allegations.

2681-give place to [B2] be replaced or succeeded by; give way to[1] (q v). S: sunshine; laughter; sorrow; joy. o: rain; tears; happiness; sadness (and vice-versa) □ With the announcement of the cease-fire, despair at last gave place to hope, albeit restrained hope.

2682-give rise to [B2 rel] be the cause of. S: inflation; greed; floods. o: alarm, panic spending; corruption in industry and government; disease, cholera, starvation, homelessness □ The government's economic policy gave rise to increased unemployment, though it is true that it produced a favourable balance of payments in the country's international trade. □ The problems to which these developments give rise are capable of solution if we keep our original purpose in mind.

2683-give teeth (to) [B2 pass] (informal) make truly effective, enforceable. o: rules, regulations, law, emergency measures □ The Press Council, as a self-disciplinary body, would be more useful if it had more power. Some new measures are needed to give teeth to it (or: give it teeth).

2684-give thought (to) [B2 pass emph rel] consider, think (about). adj: some, any, much; careful, serious. o: where one will spend one's holidays; future career; getting ready for our guests; Christmas, Tom's birthday-present □ Have you given any thought to which university you would like to go to when you leave school? □ I was just giving thought to the problem of next term's timetable when my brother arrived out of the blue. □ It's high time that Millie gave serious thought to whether she is ever going to get married or not. □ 'I haven't given much thought to the problem' (cf 'I haven't given the problem much thought*'*).

2685-give tongue to [B2] say aloud. o: one's suspicions; words that had been better left unsaid □ 'Soho' they tell us, was once a hunting call. I felt like giving tongue to it. CON □ If I had given tongue to my doubts about the plan, we might all have been saved a lot of trouble.

2686-give voice to [B2 pass emph rel] utter, express, not necessarily aloud. o: feeling, annoyance, anger, anguish; objection, suspicion, doubts □ To their feelings of frustration and dissatisfaction with the government, the public were at last able to give voice when a general election was called. □ If the Professor had any objections to some 'new-fangled' scheme he could always be relied upon to give voice to it, and vehemently too!

2687-give way to[1] [B2] be replaced or succeeded by; give place to (q v) □ The grey clouds gradually broke up and gave way to a blue sky. □ As we left the house, the grey streets gradually gave way to open spaces until we were at last in the open country. □ Everywhere small family businesses are giving way to large and more impersonal corporations.

2688-give way to[2] [B2] allow oneself to be overcome by; give in (to) (q v), yield (to) (q v). o: emotion; anger, fear, hysterics; pressure, argument, persuasion □ It was no use. She didn't shout, but she gave way to a low controlled anger. DC

2689-give weight to [B2 pass emph rel] strengthen, provide strong(er) evidence for. adj: more, some; added, further, extra. o: theory, statement, movement, warning, probability □ The facts that he had not been seen in his usual haunts and that he had answered the phone at ten o'clock gave weight to his claim that he had not been out on the evening in question. □ Added weight was given last year to the possibility that there is vegetation on Mars by the American astronaut, William Sinton. TO □ To this speculation recent discoveries give further weight.

2690-give credit (to) (for) [B2 pass] ensure that sb's effort is properly recognized. adj: all (of) the, some (of the); (not) enough, insufficient □ 'Will you be famous?' 'I doubt it. Unlike most writers I shall give all the credit to my ghosts.' 'Ghosts?' 'That's what they call those who do the real work while the author takes the pay.' OMIH □ The credit for the success of the concert should be given to the teacher who organized it. □ The police haven't been given sufficient credit for keeping essential services running. ⇨ give credit for, take credit for.

2691-give up[1] [B1i pass] surrender, allow to be taken. O: disputed territory, island; advanced positions □ The general was content to give up a few miles of desert and retreat to a stronger, fortified line.

2692-give up[2] [B1i] leave, abandon; resign (from) (q v). O: job, appointment, career □ For no apparent reason Matthew gave up his lucrative job in the City and emigrated to Canada.

2693-give up[3] [B1i pass] relinquish, sell; dispose of[3] (q v). O: car, boat; house, home □ 'I'm afraid that business is so bad that we'll have to give something up*. We'd better sell the horses.'* □ Nothing could persuade her to give up her home: it was much too big for her, but it was where she had always lived.

2694-give up[4] [B1i] reveal, disclose; yield up[2] (q v). O: information, jealously guarded secret, treasure □ It was not until the twentieth century that Tutankhamun's tomb gave its secrets up to the world. □ 'Harold,' commanded Isabel, 'I insist on knowing the exact sum.' 'One thousand three hundred and forty-nine pounds six shillings, if you want to know,' said Harold, with the air of a stone giving up its blood (a reference to the expression get blood out of a stone (q v)). PW

2695-give up[5] [B1i pass] hand over custody of; abandon one's claim to. O: child(ren), ward, foster-child(ren) □ When she realized that she would have to give up her children, she dropped the idea of getting a divorce. □ If the natural mother of a child claims custody, it is often very hard for the foster-parent to give it up.

2696-give up[6] [B1i pass] no longer seek to avoid, or protect sb from, capture. O: oneself; escaped prisoner; spy, agent □ The desperate man forced his hostages to drive on through the night. He was afraid, hungry and thirsty, but he had no intention of giving himself up. □ The young girl became infatuated with the enemy agent and promised that she would conceal him in the attic of her home and never give him up to the police.

2697-give up[7] [B1ii pass] no longer expect, or hope for, the arrival of □ Although she had waited up until midnight, Alice was actually surprised when she heard the key turn in the lock and Charles walked in. She had almost given him up. □ 'I suppose you thought we had decided not to come?' 'Well, you were very nearly given up*, it's true!'*

2698-give up[8] [B1ii pass] have no hope of a person's recovery □ Everyone — the doctors, the nurses, his own family — had given him up*, when he surprised them all by suddenly taking a turn for the better.*

2699-give up[9] [B1iii pass] stop eating, drinking, using or indulging in; cut out[4] (q v). O: starchy foods, meat, alcohol; wine, beer; smoking, cigarettes; trips to London, daily swim; gambling, cards, roulette □ 'You had better give up wearing your new suit to work or it will soon look as shabby as all your other clothes.' □ He couldn't resist trying to make money on the Stock Exchange. He always lost, but he couldn't give it up. □ It's easy to say that dairy products are bad for the heart, but the eating habits of a lifetime are not so easily given up.

2700-give up[10] [B1i pass] renounce, no longer hold. O: religion; belief(s), convictions, principles □ Just because the man she's going to marry is an atheist, there's no need for Elizabeth to give up her own beliefs.

2701-give up[11] [B1iii pass] abandon, no longer pursue (one's efforts etc). O: all thought of, all attempt to, any pretence of, the search for; trying to please sb, trying to understand what he was talking about; it □ The income-tax officer was so beguiled by the young lady's charms that he gave up all thought of extracting further information from her — other than her telephone number. □ With the advancing years Aunt Florence was gradually forced to give up her gay social life. □ Mr Charlton, soporific as well as fearful, made no hint of a move and Ma gave it all up*, at last, in disgust* (it = her attempt at match-making between Mr Charlton and her daughter). DBM

2702-give up[12] [A1] admit defeat or one's inability to do sth (e g in a guessing game, or in an attempt to convince sb of something) □ 'Look! I've mentioned every possible kind of seat I can think of. I don't know any other kinds. I give up*. What's the answer?' 'A chaise-longue.'* □ 'I've explained the situation to John a hundred times if I've explained it once. He does not or will not understand. I give up*!'* □ 'You give up too easily. You could do it if you really set your mind to it.'

2703-give up (all) hope [B1iii pass] abandon hope, lose hope □ After three days of continuous flights over the Atlantic, all hope of finding the missing aircraft was given up and the search abandoned. □ Even though the woman had been missing for three years, her mother refused to give up hope that one day she wold walk into her home again.

2704-give up the fight/the (unequal) struggle [B1iii] abandon the fight etc; be defeated □ I tried a variety of materials as leads, and the one that took him (= a captured animal) longest to get through was a thong of rawhide, but even this gave up the unequal struggle (i e was eaten through) eventually. DF □ After years of trying to wrest a living from the infertile acres he had inherited, Timothy finally gave up the fight and turned to catering for tourists.

2705-give up for dead/lost [B3 pass] assume that sb is dead, has been lost; consider sb to be 'past redemption', ineducable, past help etc □ When the climbers were three days overdue at the rendezvous, they were given up for lost (or: dead). It was thought that no one could survive for so long without food on the north face of the mountain. □ When Sue's father — a pillar of the Church — heard that she had been living with an avowed atheist, he gave her up for lost*.* ⇨ give up[7].

2706-glam up [B1i pass] (slang) give a glamorous, or superficially attractive, appearance, to. S: she, they. O: herself; town, factory, dance-hall □ 'Why are you all glammed up this evening, Mother?' 'Don't be cheeky!' □ The management insisted on glamming up the factory for Princess Anne's visit.

2707-glance at [A2 pass adj rel] look quickly at. o: book, article; clock □ I glanced at my watch and was surprised to see that it was nearly midnight.

2708-glance off [A1 A2] hit, at an angle, without penetrating. S: arrow, bullet, shell, stone; her barbed remarks. o: armour, wall, tank; head; his thick skin □ The bullet glanced off the soldier's badge and buried itself in a nearby tree. □ It was impossible to insult Roger. Every remark, however barbed, just seemed to glance off his incredibly tough hide.

2709-glance over/through [A2 nom pass adj rel] scan quickly. o: book, article, newspaper, report, letter; poem, short story, script □ 'Do you think you could glance over the minutes that I've drafted of our last meeting, before I have them typed out?' □ As a conscientious parent, she always glanced through her daughter's homework and signed it. □ 'You might give the article a quick glance-through*.'*

2710-glance round [A1 A2] look quickly round □ He walked into the room, glanced round*, saw nobody that he knew, and left again at once.* □ The actor glanced round the audience and spotted his wife in the third row.

2711-glare (at) [A2 pass] look, with an intense expression of enmity, hostility, (at). S: teacher; sergeant-major; husband; thief. o: child; the offending soldier; his wife; the policeman □ The two men stood glaring drunkenly at each other, while the crowd looked on with amusement.

2712-glare contempt/defiance/hate (at) [B2] look with an intense expression of contempt etc at □ The youth glared defiance at the magistrate as he received a sentence of fifteen days in prison.

2713-the sun glare down [A1] pour light and heat down □ The sun glared down with merciless intensity on the six men adrift in the lifeboat.

2714-glass in [B1i pass adj] enclose with glass. O: verandah, porch, entrance, patio □ If we were to glass in the back entrance, the kitchen would not be so cold. □ Although they lived in the north of Scotland, they were often able to sit in their glassed-in verandah even in the middle of winter.

glaze in [B1i pass adj] = glass in.

2716-glaze over [A1] (formal) assume a fixed, trance-like, sightless appearance as though mere objects of glass, perhaps revealing lack of interest in sth. S: △ one's eyes, expression □ The dying man's eyes glazed over as he sank deeper into unconsciousness. □ She observed her guests' expressions glazing over with boredom at the insipidity of the conversation.

2717-glean (from) [B2 pass emph rel] obtain (from), search and find (in). O: information, details, facts, knowledge. o: old books; newspapers; overheard conversation, passing remarks □ Old Smith always pretends that he gets his information straight from the highest authority, whereas he merely gleans what facts he can from junior clerks, and puts his own interpretation on them.

2718-glide across, along, away etc [A1 A2 B1ii B2] move very smoothly across etc □ [A1 B1] The pilot managed to glide (the plane) down to a safe landing. □ [A2] The apparition glided out of the library, down the passage, up the stairs and through the wall at the top!

glisten in/on [A2 emph rel] ⇨ next entry.

2720-glisten with [A2] be covered, or filled, or specked, with drops or particles that reflect light. S: eyes; grass; trees. o: tears; dew, raindrops; frost □ The poor child's eyes glistened with tears (or: Tears glistened in her eyes) as she read the letter telling her that her pet rabbit had died. □ note the fig use, as in: The young man's eyes glistened with amusement as he heard the story of his friend's accident in the dinghy.

glitter in/on [A2 emph rel] ⇨ next entry.

2722- glitter with [A2] give out or reflect light; shine with. S: sky; Christmas tree; tiara, diadem, crown, dress; neck □ The sky glittered with a myriad stars (or: A myriad stars glittered in the sky). □ The film-star's neck glittered with a million pounds' worth of diamonds (or: A million pounds' worth of diamonds glittered on her neck).

2723- gloat over[1] [A2 pass rel] look at one's possessions with greedy, selfish, miserly delight □ The old miser took his bag of gold coins out of the safe and gloated over them every night. □ The thieves gloated over their haul from the jeweller's shop, little realizing that the 'treasure' was all made of worthless paste.

2724- gloat over[2] [A2 pass rel] derive sadistic pleasure from. o: his rival's downfall; the ruin of his neighbour; the Prime Minister's embarrassment; James's misfortunes □ 'I can't understand why you should gloat over John's losing his job. You could easily be next on the list of "redundant workers".'

2725- glory in[1] [A2] be proud of; be pleased by, derive great pleasure from. o: his ability to speak five languages; his attractiveness to the fair sex; devoting his life to others □ St Francis of Assisi gloried in his love for all God's creatures. □ For a few brief years, the actor gloried in his success with London audiences. Then, suddenly, he faded from the limelight.

2726- glory in[2] [A2] (jocular) possess, by accident, some 'glorious' or amusing attribute (especially one's name); rejoice in (q v) □ Sarah Smith went to Spain and fell in love with a young man who gloried in the name of Juan Luis Velásquez de Albornoz y Madariaga. □ One of the characters in The Mikado glories in the title of The Lord High Executioner.

2727- gloss over [A2 pass adj] ignore; try to conceal or lessen. o: faults, mistakes, errors, inconsistencies; humble origins; unsuitability for the job; murky past □ It is important that a politician's vices should be known and if necessary exposed. They should not be glossed over. □ I deplore the modern tendency to gloss over the low standards in some of our schools.

2728- glow with [A2] show, throw out, reflect or be filled with. S: face, whole body, eyes; forest, trees. o: health, pride, joy, pleasure, enthusiasm; colour □ The children ran into the house from the beach, their faces glowing with health and vigour. □ The whole countryside glowed with the russet tints of autumn.

2729- glower (at) [A2 pass] stare in a threatening or defiant way (at) □ The child would not go, but stood by the door glowering at his father.

2730- glue to [B2 pass] join to by means of glue. O: poster, stamp, photograph; (table) leg; toupee, false beard. o: wall, envelope, passport; table; head, chin □ When you've glued the spindles to the chair, put a couple of screws in as well to hold them firmly.

2731- glued to [pass (B2)] (appear to be) attached to sth as though with glue. S: maid, child, young man. o: keyhole, television □ Half the nation was glued to television, watching the Miss World competition, while civil war was threatening to break out at any moment. □ the expression with have one's eyes glued to (the keyhole etc) is frequently used.

2732- glut with [B2 pass] fill to excess with. O: market; oneself. o: produce; maize, apples, meat, cheap goods; food, sweets, chocolates □ The market was glutted with potatoes, and thousands of tons were left to rot in the fields. □ The children glutted themselves with strawberries stolen from their neighbours' gardens.

2733- gnaw away [B1i pass] destroy, as by the teeth of a rodent. O: wood(work); floorboards □ Parts of the wooden support of the house had been dangerously gnawed away. Immediate repair was essential.

2734- gnaw (away) at[1] [A2 pass A3 pass] bite at (continuously), in the manner of a rodent. S: rat, mouse, rabbit, lion. o: wood; bone □ It was obvious from their appearance that the young trees had been gnawed at by some small creature. □ The tiger in the cage gnawed listlessly at an old bone.

2735- gnaw (away) at[2] [A2 A3] hurt or trouble without respite. S: sense of guilt, remorse, injustice; hatred, sorrow, despair. o: conscience, heart, mind □ Day in, day out, the feeling that he had been misjudged and punished for another man's crime gnawed at him until he became obsessed with ideas of revenge on society.

2736- go aboard [A1] board, get on a ship, plane (and in US, occasionally: train) □ 'The ship's leaving in half an hour, so we'd better go aboard and make ourselves comfortable.' □ 'All aboard that's going aboard*!'* ⇨ come/take aboard.

2737- go about[1] [A1] go, walk, travel from place to place; move in society, among friends etc; go around/round[1] (q v). A: in shabby clothes; in an old rattle-trap, on a bicycle □ Is it dangerous to go about bareheaded when it's raining? □ I would advise you not to go about criticizing your superiors. □ cp the second example with go about doing sth as in go about[3].

2738- go about[2] [A1] circulate, be current; go around/round[2] (q v). S: story, rumour □ The rumour is going about that John and Mary are getting married. ⇨ get about[2], put about[2].

2739- go about[3] [A2] approach, tackle, make a start at. o: it; repairing the car; problem, job, matter □ I've got a big brown mole on my cheek. It's not very flattering and I want to get rid of it. How should I go about it? H □ She'll do anything for you if you go about it in the right way. □ Peter hasn't the faintest idea of how to go about finding a better job. □ cp the second example with go about -ing in go about[1]. ⇨ set about[1].

2740- go about[4] [A2] be, keep, busy with. o: work, affairs, business, everyday jobs □ While the bombs were exploding daily in Belfast, the housewives went about their everyday tasks of keeping their homes going. ⇨ be about[1].

2741- go about[5] [A1] (nautical) change direction, move onto a fresh tack. S: ship; captain □ As soon as the captain heard the cry 'Man overboard' he ordered the ship to go about and search for the missing man. ⇨ bring about[2], come about[2], put about[1].

2742- go about one's business [A2] mind one's own business, occupy oneself with one's own affairs; stop interfering with the affairs of other people □ 'If your brother comes here with any more criti- cism about how we bring the children up, I'll tell him to go about his business.' ⇨ send about his business.

2743-go about (with) [A1 A3] keep company (with); court with a view to marriage; go around/round (with) (q v) ◻ I'm afraid your daughter is going about with a man who is old enough to be her father. ◻ How long have Eric and Hilda been going about (with each other)?

2744-go abroad [A1] leave one's own country to visit or live in another ◻ The young widow felt that she wanted to get away for a while, so she decided to go abroad for a long holiday. ⇨ take abroad (with).

2745-go across (to) [A1 A2 A3] pass from one side to the other (of); go over (to) (q v). o: (across) road, bridge; river; Channel; (to) shop; other bank; France ◻ [A2] Planks were laid so that the villagers could go across the marshy area. ◻ [A3] 'I'm just going across to the pub for half an hour.' ⇨ get across[1]; send across (to), take across (to).

2746-go after[1] [A2] pursue, try to catch. o: suspect, runaway, wanted man ◻ The police warned the public not to go after the escaped prisoner, as he was armed and dangerous. ⇨ be after[1], come after[2].

2747-go after[2] [A2] pursue; try to get. o: job, position, championship; girl. A: with a will, with determination; as though his life depended on it ◻ Once Sam decided what he wanted, he went after it with a single-mindedness that reminded me of his father. ⇨ be after[2].

2748-go against[1] [A2] be contrary to; be out of harmony with. S: scheme, plan, idea; his way of life. o: my principles, philosophy, religion, beliefs ◻ The idea of trying to cheat the income tax authorities went against his principles — he had a strong sense of civic responsibility. ◻ That a man could be saved from disease by means of the injection of a serum seemed to go against logic. ⇨ be against.

2749-go against[2] [A2] be lost by; be unfavourable to. S: war; fight; election; (legal) case, action ◻ The thought that the battle could go against them never for a moment entered into the generals' calculations.

2750-go against the grain [A2] be contrary to one's wishes or natural inclinations. S: it; giving money away, paying high prices; doing as one is told ◻ The children finally went and changed their wet clothes, though it obviously went against the grain (with them). ◻ Staying in bed may go against the grain but that's what you must do if you want to get better. ◻ sometimes found in the form go against sb's grain as in: It went against my grain to spend ten pounds on a meal.

2751-go aground (on) [A1 A3 emph rel] (nautical) become stuck on mud, sand or rocks. S: ship, boat; tanker, liner, dinghy, launch ◻ The coaster, on its first trip up the estuary, missed the narrow channel and went aground on a mud-bank. ⇨ run aground (on).

2752-go ahead[1] [A1 nom] proceed, do what one wants to do. A: with one's plans; without further delay ◻ Now that you've had the all-clear from your doctor you can go ahead and start up your new shop. ◻ The government has decided to go ahead with its plans to develop the North-East. ◻ We can't do anything about your proposal until we get the go-ahead from the local Council.

2753-go ahead[2] [A1 nom] proceed, make progress; go forward (with) (q v). S: we, firm; scheme, building; work. A: like a house on fire, (very) fast; at a good speed, vigorously ◻ Once our policy is formulated we intend to go ahead full steam (or: go full steam ahead). TBC ◻ With the strike settled, work on the new bridge went ahead like wildfire. ◻ The best way to get ahead yourself is to join a go-ahead company. ◻ nom form usu attrib, as in the last example.

2754-go ahead/ahead of [A1 A2 emph] continue a journey in advance of others; go on[3] (q v). o: main party, the others ◻ A few carefully chosen men went ahead while the main body remained concealed in the valley. ◻ The scouts went ahead of the main force and reported back the strength of the enemy. ◻ Ahead of the main group went an advance party to test the new route to the South Col.* ⇨ send ahead/ahead of.

2755-go along [A1] proceed with any sustained activity, including travelling ◻ They kept up their spirits by singing one song after another as they went along. ◻ They went along whistling to keep up their courage in the dark. ◻ You'll get more skilful at this job as you go along.

2756-go along (with) [A1 A3] accompany sb to a certain place ◻ As everyone else was going to the pub, I decided to go along too. ◻ 'I have to go to the dentist this morning.' 'Would you like me to go along with you?'

2757-go along with[1] [A3] be part of. S: the furniture, shrubs; a free supply of detergents. o: the flat, house; the washing-machine ◻ A splendid bookcase goes along with the complete Encyclopaedia if you pay cash.

2758-go along with[2] [A3 pass] share sb's opinion; act in agreement with. o: him etc; policy, scheme, proposal ◻ I don't necessarily go along with all you say about politics. I don't quite like the idea of everything getting outside our control. ◻ If we decide to go along with your party on the question of improving the street-lighting, we shall expect your party to go along with us on the provision of more funds for the library.

2759-go along with you! [A3] a mild rebuke or expression of disbelief; get along/away with you! (q v) ◻ 'Two thousand pounds a year? Go along with you! The job isn't worth fifteen hundred!' ◻ 'Now, children, go along with you! You've been indoors all morning — go and get some fresh air!' ⇨ get on[8], go on[14].

2760-go around/round[1] [A1] go from place to place or from person to person; go about[1] (q v). A: doing, saying, that kind of thing; pretending that sex doesn't exist; looking as though butter wouldn't melt in one's mouth; with one's head in the clouds, with a face like thunder ◻ You can't go around making up things about being assaulted by people who don't exist. DC ◻ Mrs Hatchett is going round like Macbeth muttering 'Doomed for a thousand years to walk this earth'. DC ⇨ go about[1].

2761-go around/round[2] [A1] circulate, pass from person to person; go about[2] (q v). S: news, word; story, rumour ◻ Word went round that something important was in the offing, so the meeting was well attended. TBC

2762-go around/round (with) [A1 A3] keep company (with); go about (with) (q v). o: him/her; the wrong sort of people □ I see that John has been going around with the same girl for three months now. It must be serious! □ Though they have been going around for two years now, they still haven't decided whether to marry or not. ⇨ take around/round (with).

2763-go aside [A1] move away from other people □ The two lawyers went aside and discussed their clients' proposals for a settlement of the action. ⇨ take aside/to one side.

2764-go astray [A1] get lost; be mislaid; behave illegally or immorally. □ A good sheepdog never lets any sheep go astray from the flock. □ I'm sorry that I haven't answered your letter. Unfortunately, it has gone astray and I don't remember exactly what you said in it. □ It is only too easy for a young girl to go astray in London, especially if she is a stranger without friends. ⇨ lead astray.

2765-go at[1] [A2] attack physically; argue, discuss sth heatedly. o: △ it; each other. A: △ hammer and tongs, hell for leather, tooth and nail □ The two women lost their tempers and went at each other tooth and nail. □ The Committee has been in session for three hours on the question of the proposed increase in membership fees, and they're still going at it hammer and tongs.

2766-go at[2] [A2] tackle; make great efforts to do sth. o: job, work, task; it. A: with a will, with determination, with renewed vigour; for all he was worth, as though his life depended on it □ The villagers went at the building of a dam with a will, once they had seen that the rising water could be stemmed. □ Once John decided to do something, he went at it for all he was worth. □ 'I know you want to help me, but there's no need to go at it like a madman!'

2767-go away[1] [A1 emph] depart, leave a place or sb's presence; go off[1] (q v) □ 'I'm tired of your constant complaints: go away and leave me in peace!' □ (nonsense rhyme) I met a man upon the stair, A little man who wasn't there. He wasn't there again today! My God, I wish he'd go away! ⇨ send away.

2768-go away[2] [A1] (specifically, of a bride with her bridegroom) leave the wedding-guests and go on one's honeymoon □ Mary bought a very smart outfit to go away in. □ (rhyme) This is the most beautiful blue, it's going-away blue. □ going-away used attrib with dress, hat, shoes etc.

2769-go back[1] [A1 emph] return. S: children; books; one, you. A: to school; to the library; to one's childhood home; to the scene of the accident □ 'This machine is going back to the shop where I bought it. It's no good!' □ You should never go back*, they say, to the scene of your past romance.* □ 'Why didn't you turn round and go back*, if you thought you'd hit somebody with your car?'* ⇨ be back[1], bring back[1], come back[1], get back[1], take back[1].

2770-go back[2] [A1] return to an earlier point in space, time, a discussion etc □ 'Now that you've done a year in Medicine, you can't very well go back and start an Arts course.' □ Once we decide to emigrate, there will be no going back*. Our decision will be final and irrevocable.* □ With the collapse of Piaget's theory about the development of a child's reasoning, we must go back to square one (i e the starting-point). □ 'But to go back to what I was saying about life in the country....'

2771-go back[3] [A1] (of clocks and watches) be set to an earlier time in order to allow for changing hours of daylight (esp in UK for the winter) □ 'What date do the clocks go back this year?' □ 'I'm looking forward to the clocks going back next Sunday: it means an extra hour in bed!' ⇨ put back[2].

2772-go back on [A3 pass] retract, fail to fulfil. o: one's word, promise, solemn undertaking, pledge; previous choice □ 'I promised you that I'd help you, didn't I? Well, I'm not going back on that.' □ If you witness a drunkard signing the pledge (i e that he will stop drinking), you feel personally responsible when he goes back on it. CON □ Promises are made to be kept, and not lightly to be gone back on.

2773-go back (to) [A1 A3] have its origin in; date from/back to (q v). S: our family; the company; custom, belief, practice; devotion, attachment to sth; taste, liking for sth; hatred of sth □ 'The fifteenth century! Good gracious, I didn't realize that his title went back that far.' □ We have to go back to the early years of industrial revolution if we want to trace the history of mass production. □ Ann's love of horses goes back as far as she can remember. H

2774-go before[1] [A1 A2] precede in time; live (and die) before one's own time (esp of pioneers). S: those who; many; our ancestors □ We have endeavoured to live up to the standards of those who have gone before (or: gone before us). MFM

2775-go before[2] [A2] appear before, in order to explain one's actions or to receive punishment; be presented for discussion, approval etc □ In my day, a boy who was caught smoking in school went before the headmaster and was probably beaten. □ My application to add a room to my house goes before the planning committee next week. ⇨ be before[2], bring before, come before[2], put before[2], take before.

2776-pride goes before a fall [A2] (proverb) used to indicate or warn against, the fact that a boastful or proud statement (action etc) is often quickly followed by some event which disproves it and appears to be a form of retribution □ Last week Jimmy was boasting about his large salary. This week he is without a job. Pride goes before a fall.

2777-go behind sb's back [A2] act unfairly, unethically, deceitfully □ 'I know that you and I don't agree about everything, but I thought I could trust you to discuss our problems frankly, and not to go behind my back complaining to the manager.'

2778-go below (decks) [A1 A2] (nautical) on a ship, leave the deck and go down to the living quarters etc □ A seaman went below to fetch the mate a cup of cocoa. ⇨ be below[2], take below.

2779-go between [A2] fit well into a position between; pass between □ This picture goes nicely between the portraits of your father and mother. □ Trying to avoid the jealousy of Mary while keeping on good terms with Jane was like going between Scylla and Charybdis.

2780-go-between [nom (A2)] an intermediary or messenger, esp between lovers □ The little girl was quite unaware that she was being used as a go-between by her elder sister and the married man next door.

2781 go beyond [A2] exceed, surpass. O: one's brief, instructions; expectations, intentions; all reason □ We expected Mr Graham to be displeased with our decision, but his anger went beyond all reason. □ A prize of £100 would have been marvellous, but the announcement that I had won £10 000 went beyond my wildest dreams. ⇨ be beyond[2].

2782 go beyond one's duty [A2] exceed one's obligations either officiously or out of courage, determination etc □ It was clear that the Town Clerk had gone beyond his duty in ordering the new (and very expensive) street-lighting without authority. □ If soldiers did not occasionally go beyond their duty and act on their own initiative, the Army would function too rigidly to be effective. □ a soldier is often 'decorated' for actions that go beyond the call of duty.

2783 go beyond a joke [A2] become a serious matter, no longer funny □ Your teasing of the new typist has gone beyond a joke and I advise you to stop it. ⇨ be beyond a joke.

2784 go by[1] [A1 A2] pass (before, in front of, near to, sb). S: procession, cavalcade, parade; band □ As each contingent went by*, there was a burst of applause from the watching crowd.* □ The parade went by us*, and soon silence descended once more on the square.*

2785 go by[2] [A1] pass, elapse; go on[7] (q v). S: time; days, weeks, months; seconds, minutes; an age, an eternity □ As the months went by*, the villagers gradually got accustomed to the stranger in their midst.* □ In days gone by (or: In bygone days) it was hardly safe to travel anywhere by night. □ note the form bygones in: Let bygones be bygones (i e Let us forget past quarrels or disagreements and make a fresh start).

2786 go by[3] [A1] pass without being used or grasped. S: opportunity, chance, opening □ Mr Simpson hesitated just a little too long over the offer of a partnership in the firm; and when he finally made up his mind to accept, the opportunity had gone by.

2787 go by[4] [A2] be guided by, take one's course, direction, from. O: star; map, compass □ We had no compass, and only the distant gunfire to go by (i e to judge our position).

2788 go by[5] [A2] judge according to. O: advice, recommendation; past experience; what John says; appearances □ If the FAO experts' report is anything to go by*, there's going to be another terrible famine in Bengal.* □ 'Please don't go by what I say! My taste in films is not very reliable.' □ It's often a mistake to go by appearances: that poor-looking individual is anything but poor. In fact, he's a millionaire.

2789 go-by [nom (A1)] the act of ignoring, disregarding, not selecting sb (e g for promotion) □ Gilbert accepted me in his rather pompous way, even when my own family had given me the go-by. ASA □ only in the phrase give sb the go-by.

2790 go by the book/rules [A2] act in a rigid, strictly correct, or bureaucratic manner □ 'If you go by the book you shouldn't have any trouble with the authorities.'

2791 go by the name of [A2] be known as, be called □ This wild flower goes by the name of Old Man's Beard.

2792 go down[1] [A1] set, disappear below the horizon. S: △ the sun, moon, stars □ As the sun went down the whole sky became suffused with a red glow.

2793 go down[2] [A1 emph] (nautical) sink, disappear below the surface of the sea; (of men) drown. S: ship, boat, vessel; captain, crew, yachtsman, fisherman □ We watched amazed as the destroyer keeled over and went down. □ The ship struck a hidden reef and went down with all hands. □ In the tradition of the sea, the captain stayed on board until all the passengers and crew had left; but he himself went down with his ship.

2794 go down[3] [A1] be swallowed. S: soup, fish, dinner; wine, cocktail, drink; pill, medicine. A: very well, famously; badly, the wrong way □ John was delighted that his wife's cooking should go down so well. The main guest was his boss! □ Either from the sherry going down the wrong way or from pure rage, Tom's face turned purple. SPL □ It was Portuguese champagne and went down like mother's milk. ILIH ⇨ get down[5].

2795 go down[4] [A1 emph] fall, collapse □ The policeman hit the man once with his truncheon, and he went down like a felled ox. ⇨ get down[7].

2796 go down[5] [A1] be reduced in amount. S: prices, charges, fees, subscriptions; taxes, rates □ It's a strange thing, but prices always seem to be going up. They never go down*!* ⇨ be down[2], bring down[5], come down[3].

2797 go down[6] [A1] be lowered (in level). S: wine, whisky; sugar, flour; reserves, trading balance □ Now and then Pop decided that the punch was going down rather too fast and added another harmless dash of rum, a little Kirsch, or a glass of brandy. BFA □ If our stocks of food go down much further, we shall have a hard winter.

2798 go down[7] [A1] be reduced in force or degree. S: wind; temperature, the glass (= barometer), the mercury □ If the wind doesn't go down before three o'clock, we won't be able to take off today. □ The glass is going down*, so we must expect a change in the weather.*

2799 go down[8] [A1] leave university at the end of a term or finally □ ...he was trying to remember, first, who this was, and secondly, whether he was one of the present generation of undergraduates or had gone down. HD ⇨ be, come down (from), send down.

2800 go down[9] [A1] be written down, recorded. S: statement, speech, evidence, complaint □ Every word uttered in court went down for future reference. ⇨ be down[3], get down[4], put down[8], set down[2], take down[3].

2801 go down on one's knees (to) [A3] adopt a kneeling position in order to do sth; abase oneself (before) □ The little girl went down on her knees and put her doll to bed. □ If you wanted something to eat after nine o'clock in that restaurant you almost had to go down on your knees and beg for it. ⇨ get down[3].

2802 go down to[1] [A3] be defeated by. S: champion, record-holder, challenger; batsman. O: newcomer, younger man; fast ball □ The reigning champion went down to a hammer-blow in the twelfth round. □ The Roman Empire finally went down to the barbarians.

2803- go down to² [A3] approach, esp a river or the sea □ (children's rhyme) Adam and Eve and Pinch-me-tight went down to the river to bathe. Adam and Eve were drowned. Who do you think was saved? □ Men who go down to the sea in ships... (= earn their living on the sea).

2804- go down to³ [A3] reach, get as far as. S: book, volume, article. o: the sixteenth century; 1945 □ This book is no use to me; it only goes down to the General Election of 1951.

2805- go down to history/posterity [A3] be remembered for many years to come □ Winston Churchill will go down to history as the man who rallied the British people when they seemed to be defeated.

2806- go down (with) [A1 A3] be accepted (by). S: he etc; suggestion, proposal; scheme, plan; offer; explanation, story, account; my divorce, decision to emigrate □ 'How do you think Gigi will go down*?' 'Well, I think she'll* go down all right with father, but I'm not so sure about mother.' □ I gave my name as Jessie Proctor. It went down all right, and it matches the initials on my case. RFW □ Joe's explanation for his lateness didn't go down at all well. His wife saw through it immediately.

2807- go down with [A3] become ill with. o: measles, flu, mumps, severe chill, cholera, malaria, typhoid □ Mr Armstrong was unable to go into the office on Monday because he had gone down with influenza. □ usu restricted to illnesses that strike quickly. ⇨ be down with.

2808- go for¹ [A2] leave one's home or place of work to take exercise etc. o: walk, stroll, run, drive in the country; a sail □ 'My husband has just gone for a constitutional (= a regular walk for one's health), but he'll be back in half an hour.'

2809- go for² [A2] go somewhere to obtain or fetch sb or sth. o: newspaper, milk; drink; doctor, police □ When she found that the baby still had a high temperature after twelve hours, the young mother decided to go for the doctor. □ After lunch, Bill went for a quick one to the local pub. HAA ⇨ send for¹.

2810- go for³ [A2 pass] attack, physically or verbally. S: dog, youth; journalist; wife. o: intruder, old man; Prime Minister; husband. A: with a razor, a two-handed sword; with venom □ When Charlie arrived home drunk once again, his wife went for him with the rolling pin. □ Just as the man was about to push his way into the house, the girl called out 'Come on, Fido! Go for him!', and the intruder fled. □ I didn't mean to kill Micky; he went for me with a razor. PE □ ...she had already been twice gone for by Mrs Thompson for trying to make herself useful. TGLY

2811- go for⁴ [A2] be true for, include. S: this, that; what I say □ 'Tell the men that they can knock off for an hour.' 'Does that go for me, too?' □ 'Your sister is a selfish girl — and that goes for you, too.'

2812- go for⁵ [A2] like, be attracted by. o: him etc; pop music, modern art; every new gadget □ I don't go for horror films, and I can't understand why anyone likes them. □ 'There's a peach of a girl sitting by herself over there. Why don't you go and chat her up?' 'I don't go for blondes, thank you!' □ He goes for its full, delicious flavour. I go for its economy. WI □ often neg.

2813- go for⁶ [A2] be sold for. S: house, land, second-hand car, antique. o: far more/less than we expected, a mere twenty pounds, a price I couldn't possibly afford □ The old cottage, dilapidated as it was, went for over £5 000. □ 'How much do you think these Chinese vases will go for*?'* □ note esp go for a song = go for very little money, be sold very cheaply.

2814- go for a Burton [A2] (slang) be killed (originally an RAF expression meaning that a companion had not returned from a flying mission) □ There was gloom in the bar when it was realized how many of our friends had gone for a Burton during the night's raids.

2815- go for nothing/very little [A2] be in vain, have no/little importance; count for (q v) nothing etc. S: (all one's) work, effort, endeavour, sacrifice, devotion; influence, position, money □ When the company was taken over by Giant Containers Ltd, a lot of people lost their jobs. Their loyalty and hard work went for nothing. □ We realized that all the care we had taken to bring up and educate our daughter had gone for nothing when she ran away with her French teacher.

go for a song [A2] ⇨ go for⁶.

2817- go forth [A1] (Biblical, formal) issue, be created, emerge. S: order, command, edict; an army, a fleet □ From Herod's palace the command went forth that all young children were to be slain. □ We must call the whole people to our help, as partners in the battle; only from an inspired Nation can go forth*, under these conditions, an inspired Army.* MFM

2818- go forward (with) [A1 A3] proceed, make progress (with); go ahead² (q v). S: [A1] o: [A3] work, plans, reorganization, rationalization of production methods □ Work on the new hospital is going forward at a satisfactory pace. □ The Committee decided to go forward with its plans for the compulsory purchase of land, so that the road could be widened.

2819- go from bad to worse [A2] continue to deteriorate. S: matters, things, situation; behaviour; the condition of the homeless □ As 1955 sped on, things went from bad to worse in the territory, though various means of tightening up security at the mines began to take effect. DS □ With inflation and rising unemployment, the situation is going from bad to worse for millions of people.

2820- go home¹ [A1] go to one's place of residence, return to one's country □ 'It's terribly late! I must go home*! My father gets furious if I'm out after midnight.'* □ (slogan on a wall) Yanquis (= Americans), go home*!*

2821- go home² [A1] (euphemism) die; go to heaven □ 'Poor old Joe's going home at last. It's a pity he couldn't have lived to a hundred.' □ I'm afraid those old rose bushes are going home*; but they've been marvellous for the last twenty years.*

2822- go home³ [A1] hit the target, have the intended effect. S: barb, taunt; reply □ Rufford was a skilful debater, and his calculated sarcasm went home*. His opponent flushed under the attack.*

2823- go in¹ [A1 emph] enter a house, school, shed etc □ 'We can't discuss your problems standing here in the rain. Let's go in and make ourselves comfortable.' □ I went in by the back door and found myself in the kitchen. ⇨ get in/into¹, go into¹.

2824- go in² [A1 emph] disappear behind a cloud. S:

⚠ the sun, moon, stars □ Just as we were ready to be photographed, and all saying 'cheese' to produce those fake smiles, the sun went in!

2825-go in[3] [A1 emph A2] fit. S: cork; key; foot; plug; suit. O: bottle; lock; shoe; socket; bag □ 'The piano's too big; it won't go in (this room).' ⇨ put in[4].

2826-go in[4] [A1 emph] (cricket) take one's turn to bat etc. S: batsman; side; team □ My uncle used to go in number four for Beckenham (i e he was the fourth batsman). □ Then in went the skipper at six wickets down to try and prevent a total collapse. ⇨ be in[5], put in[7].

2827-go in[5] [A1] be understood or assimilated. S: facts, information, news □ 'It's no use. I've read and re-read the chapter on the life-cycle of the river fluke, but it won't go in*!'* ⇨ take in[8].

2828-go in and win [A1] (informal) a standard form of encouragement to sb who is about to take part in a competition, sit an examination etc □ 'Remember that we're all on your side! So go in and win*!'*

2829-go in sb's favour [A2] (legal) be decided in sb's favour. S: case, action, suit □ After many anxious days when things looked very black, the case finally went in my friend's favour.

2830-go in fear of one's life [A2] be afraid that one may be killed, esp by assassination or murder □ As her husband became more and more violent every time he had too much to drink, the poor woman went in fear of her life.

2831-go in (at) one ear and out (at/of) the other [A2 A3] be unheeded or unlearnt, of sth said to an inattentive, uninterested or unintelligent person □ It's no use asking Tim to deliver any messages for you. Everything I say to him goes in at one ear and out at the other.

2832-go in for[1] [A2] enter as a candidate or contestant. O: competition, examination; tournament, event; the 5 000 metres □ He went in for too many events, and so won none. ⇨ be in for[1], put in for[1].

2833-go in for[2] [A3] have as one's chosen career. O: teaching, medicine, architecture, politics, the law □ My son is going in for catering, and part of his course takes place in France.

2834-go in for[3] [A3] play, have as a sport; have as a hobby, pastime etc. O: cricket, golf, tennis, swimming; keeping rabbits, breeding dogs, collecting stamps; bird-watching □ 'Why don't you go in for collecting antiques or something? You need something to take your mind off your work.'

2835-go in for[4] [A3] regularly practise, make a habit/practice of (q v); use. O: smoking; exercise; that sort of thing; scandal-mongering, gossip; flag-waving, name-dropping □ I'm not one of those people who go in for dieting — I'm much too fond of eating! □ Mr Brown goes in for a strange kind of phraseology in his letters, a would-be literary style that doesn't quite come off.

2836-go in and out [A1] shine intermittently. S: light, lamp, sign □ The neon lights went in and out, at one moment turning the square into day and the next plunging it back into darkness.

2837-go in and out (of) [A1 A2] move about from one place to another, usu entering and leaving premises, or cover of some kind □ I wish that child would keep still for a while, and stop going in and out like a dog at a fair. □ The visitors went in and out of the various pavilions so fast that they could not have appreciated everything they saw at the Exhibition. ⇨ be in and out of.

2838-go into[1] [A2] enter; insert a part of oneself (esp one's hand). O: room, corner, den; drawer, desk, cupboard □ The old lady went into a room at the back of the shop and returned with a beautiful Meissen figure which she placed carefully on a table before us. □ Somebody keeps going into my desk and pinching my pencils. □ The dog used to go into a corner of the room as soon as its master left the house, and stay there till he returned. ⇨ go in[1].

2839-go into[2] [A2] hit, make (violent) contact with. O: wall, tree, barrier; crowd, oncoming traffic □ The car must have gone into the side of the house at a tremendous speed. The car was unrecognizable and one side of the house was destroyed.

2840-go into[3] [A2] be admitted to (usu temporarily); go to live in. O: hospital, mental home, convalescent home; lodgings, digs □ I hear that old Mrs Smith has had to go into hospital again; evidently she wasn't completely cured last time. □ Most University students have to go into digs for at least one or two years.

2841-go into[4] [A2] enter a certain mental or physical state, begin a pattern of behaviour, usu involuntarily. O: a trance, coma; hysterics, fit, convulsions; a decline; peals, shrieks, fits of laughter □ At this point a hypnotist will remind us that, if he can be induced to stare intently at a shiny object, a patient may go into a trance. HAH □ When old Martha died, her husband immediately went into a decline and followed her to the grave within a month. ⇨ fall into[2], go off into.

2842-go into[5] [A2] join, adopt as a career; start, organize. O: the Army, Navy, Air Force, Merchant Navy; the Church; politics, family business; business (for oneself) □ A good many Army officers go into the Church when they retire. □ Nothing would induce me to go into the family business! □ ...on the other hand, I would not be averse to going into business on my own account.

2843-go into[6] [A2] adopt a (different) kind of dress. O: mourning; long trousers; lighter clothes □ People don't go into mourning these days. It's all part of our wanting to forget about death. □ The boy felt a fool when he had to go into short trousers while all his friends at day-schools were allowed to wear what they liked.

2844-go into[7] [A2 pass adj] examine, consider, discuss. O: details, particulars; the why and the wherefore of...; question, problem, evidence; accusations, allegations; the cost, usefulness of a scheme; it □ 'Please don't spend too much time going into details of your case. Just let me know the main points.' □ 'I know you want to tell me about your father's illness; but please don't let's go into it now.' □ We've been going into the how and how much of flat-sharing, with the help of a number of girls who are doing it very successfully. H □ The chancellor said that these proposals would have to be gone into very carefully.

2845-go into[8] [A2 emph] be capable of dividing (another, given figure) so that the result is greater than one □ Six goes into twelve, twice. But thirteen into twelve doesn't go (or: won't go).

2846-go into abeyance [A2] be suspended, shelved or postponed indefinitely. S: laws, draft legislation, the citizen's right to a quick trial, the government's plans to expand the economy □ I'm afraid that our new pension scheme will have to go into abeyance until the present depression is over. □ 'No imprisonment without trial' is a principle that goes into abeyance when the nation's security is in danger from terrorists.

2847-go into one's act/routine [A2] (informal) start one's (well-known) pattern of behaviour □ Whenever the village centenarians, Alf and Jo, were asked by some innocent visitor how old they were, they would go into their act of 'I'm older than him', 'He isn't, I'm the oldest', and so on.

2848-go into action [A2] begin an attack, start a planned operation □ The commandos went into action at night with their faces blackened for better concealment. □ Every night she would put on her war-paint and go into action along the Bayswater Road, where she knew there would be plenty of eager customers. ⇨ be in/bring into/come into action.

2849-go into a (flat) spin [A2] (of an aircraft) get out of control in this way; (of a person) lose one's former self-control or balanced way of life □ The first time the young pilot flew solo he went into a spin and only just succeeded in getting the aircraft under control 500 feet above the ground. □ When Mary broke off the engagement, John seemed to go into a flat spin*. He was hardly ever sober for three months.*

2850-go into a huddle [A2] informal) confer, consider what action to take □ The professors went into a huddle and decided that the students' breach of the rules could not be overlooked.

2851-go into service/use [A2] begin to be used. S: new model, gun, machine □ The 747s could not go into service before the crews agreed on a new salary structure. ⇨ be in/bring into/come into service/use.

2852-go near (to) [A1 A2 A3] approach close to. o: the edge of the cliff; bull; nettles; (also in [A3]) solving the problem, meeting sb's wishes, requirements □ 'Don't go near that dog; it's very savage.' □ 'I told you not to go near your father's study while he's working.' □ The yacht went too near to the rocks and was soon swept on to them. □ His suggestion went very near to resolving our dilemma. □ usu neg or with some modifying word like too, very (near); (near) enough.

2853-go off[1] [A1 emph] leave a place, room, building, country; go away[1] (q v); exit from the stage. A: to look for his friends; for a short holiday; in high dudgeon □ They sold up their house and went off to live in Canada with their married daughter. □ (stage directions) John goes off L. (= left) as a face appears at the window C. (= centre). □ 'This (discussion) is unbearably scientific,' said Ann Halsey. 'I'm going off to make tea.' TBC ⇨ take off (to).

2854-go off[2] [A1] be good, bad etc in the event. S: match; conference, meeting, visit; interview. A: well, as expected, without a hitch □ 'How did the meeting go off*? Did the expected row take place or was it quite peaceful?'* □ Aunt Ellen had the operation this morning and it all went off quite well. RFW

2855-go off[3] [A1] fall asleep □ He didn't seem to be able to go off*, so he went into the kitchen and made himself a cup of tea.* □ 'As soon as the baby's gone off we'll be able to relax and watch television.' ⇨ put off[8].

2856-go off[4] [A2] lose one's liking for. o: coffee, beer, cheese; the Irish; the cinema, pop music; painting as a hobby □ The children seem to have gone off cornflakes for breakfast. □ I've gone off the south of France since it became so overcrowded. □ He went off driving altogether after his accident. ⇨ be off[8], put off[5], turn off[2].

2857-go off[5] [A1] make a (sudden) ringing noise; fire, detonate, explode. S: alarm, alarm-clock; gun, pistol; bomb, device, booby-trap, fireworks. A: by accident; with a bang □ Just as the burglar thought he was safely inside the house, the alarm went off*.* □ My alarm-clock doesn't wake me any more. When it goes off I just stop it in my sleep. □ The bomb-disposal squad worked feverishly to defuse the bomb before it could go off*.* ⇨ let off[4], set off[1].

2858-go off[6] [A1] turn sour, become unfit to eat or drink, go bad. S: yesterday's meat; milk; wine □ 'This milk was fresh this morning, but it's gone off*. It must be the weather.' 'Yes, there's thunder in the air, I'm sure.'* ⇨ be off[7].

2859-go off[7] [A1 emph] become unavailable. S: water, gas, electricity, power □ Just as the weather turned cold, the electricity supply went off*.* ⇨ be off[6], turn off[1].

2860-go off[8] [A2] (slang) go mad, behave in a crazy manner. o: △ one's head, rocker, nut, chump □ Poor old Tom went off his head, spent all his money in six months and ended up begging in the streets. □ What with all those children and a shiftless husband, it's no wonder Mrs Hapless finally went off her rocker and rushed down the street in her nightgown. ⇨ be off[9].

2861-go off the boil [A2] stop boiling; (informal) pass the point of maximum enthusiasm, excitement, sexual stimulation etc □ 'Don't let the potatoes go off the boil*, will you dear?'* □ Just when the workers were about to go on strike, the wives began to point out that they would have no money for Christmas, and the movement went off the boil*.* □ (of a woman expecting a child who, after feeling the first pains of childbirth, has stopped experiencing them) 'She's just gone off the boil*, as they say in the midwifery trade.'* DIL

2862-go off the deep end [A2] (informal) show extreme anger; rant and rave □ PETER: You should have heard her the other night. You know what happened? Her wandering boy returned. He hadn't been home for two weeks. And she went off the deep end*.* TOH □ When Angela found out that her husband had spent the weekend with her best friend in a Brighton hotel she went off the deep end*.*

2863-go off the rails [A2] (informal) (begin to) behave in an antisocial, immoral, dishonest or criminal way □ It was odd how Harold, who had never since his marriage taken a step along the primrose path, never gone off the rails in any way or wished to, proved himself a past-master of intrigue. PW ⇨ run off the rails.

2864-go off at half-cock [A3] (informal) start sth before preparations are complete, thus endangering or spoiling the result □ The publicity for the new car went off at half-cock following a leak of information about all the novel features that it incorporated. ⇨ go off[2].

2865-go off at a tangent [A3] abruptly change the subject under discussion; take up a minor point, losing track of the main argument; act unpredictably and somewhat irrelevantly □ We were talking about the cost of tomatoes when John went off at a tangent and started talking about the revival of wine-making in England.

2866-go off into [A3] suddenly enter a certain mental etc state. o: hysterics; fits of laughter; a dead faint □ Every time the baby started throwing his food about, his sisters went off into shrieks of laughter. ⇨ go into[4].

2867-go off with [A3] leave (illicitly) in sb's company, run away (with) (q v); steal and carry away, run away with[1] (q v). o: his best friend's wife; his employer's collection of gold medals □ 'The fat's in the fire! Myra's gone off with Ted!' □ After twenty years of honest service, the cashier suddenly went off with £10000 of the company's money.

2868-go on[1] [A2] depart for the purpose of. o: holiday, vacation, safari; a trip, excursion, course □ Only the rich can afford to go on safari these days. □ It's time I went on a refresher course—I'm getting out of touch with modern techniques. ⇨ send on[1].

2869-go on[2] [A1] continue one's journey □ The party of explorers decided that they could not go on with darkness closing in. □ We all voted to go on, despite the signs of a thunderstorm on the horizon.

2870-go on[3] [A1] continue a journey ahead of others; go ahead/ahead of (q v) □ Mr Hood said that he would have to go on, as he was due at a meeting at eleven o'clock. The others could follow at their leisure. ⇨ send on[2].

2871-go on[4] [A2] mount and travel on, esp as a treat. o: donkey, horse, elephant, camel; speed-boat, yacht; roundabout, slide; the Big Dipper, the Ghost Train □ The children went on everything at the Fair, and then found they hadn't enough money to get the bus home.

2872-go on[5] [A1] continue an activity, or relationship; carry on[1] (q v). A: walking, working, talking; as before, like that, as though... □ I want to go on being a teenager, because I am enjoying every minute of it. H □ Like some infernal monster, still venomous in death, a war can go on killing people for a long time after it's all over. RFW □ 'We can't go on as though nothing has happened. It has happened. You've broken your promise.' □ What I like about Mr Kaplan is that in spite of everything, he goes on trying. ⇨ get/go on with.

2873-go on[6] [A1] of a state of affairs, continue without change. S: rivalry, jealousy, backbiting; cold war, state of suspended hostility □ She felt that she could not keep up the pretence much longer. How long, she wondered, could it go on? □ The cold war between the two countries seemed to go on and on. □ After Mr Appleby left the firm everything went on as usual.

2874-go on[7] [A1] pass (by), go by[2] (q v). S: time; months, days, weeks, years □ As the years go on, we grow both wiser and sadder.

2875-go on[8] [A1] continue speaking, after a short pause □ 'If it's your inheritance, I don't see why you shouldn't like it.' When Brigit didn't answer at once, she went on almost belligerently, 'Anyway, I adore it all.' DC

2876-go on[9] [A1] add some new point to what has previously been said or written. Inf to say, to explain, to observe □ After criticizing our proposal in every detail, the director went on to reassure us that there was nothing personal in his comments. □ Inf always present.

2877-go on[10] [A1] happen, take place. S: what; something very strange, fishy, interesting, important; not much □ Something wasn't right there, and she wanted to know what was going on. WI □ Young people are leaving the country for the cities. There's more going on there. □ The major problem of colour television is still the unsolved one of what goes on in the retina. □ 'If you never read the newspapers, you'll never know what's going on in the world.' □ 'What's going on between that couple over there? There's something very odd about their behaviour.' □ note the unusual use of the simple present tense in the following: 'There's something not quite straightforward about the way you're all behaving. Come on now! What goes on?'

2878-go on[11] [A2] act according to; be guided by. o: hearsay, rumour, gossip; what you read in the papers □ It's a mistake to go on the Government's account of the talks with Russia. It's incomplete, at best. □ The detectives admitted that after questioning several dozen people they still had no real evidence to go on. □ I suddenly saw that the belief I had been going on all my life was quite without foundation.

2879-go on[12] [A2] be spent on. S: money, income; half of what he earns; pension; proceeds of a sale. o: the car, the house, food, heating, clothes; luxuries, (non-)essentials; records □ 'A lot of my grant goes on books; but I think it's money well spent. Don't you?'

2880-go on[13] [A2] begin to receive; get help from. o: national assistance, relief; half pay; the dole, the parish □ A lot of people who never expected to be unemployed have had to go on the dole.

2881-go on![14] [A1] (informal) used as an exclamation in various meanings, depending on the situation and reflected by the intonation of the speaker etc (e g 'I don't believe you!', 'Don't exaggerate'; 'I dare you to (do sth)'; 'Please do it!'; 'Stop hesitating! Do it!'); get on![5] (q v) □ 'How old are you?' 'I'm forty.' 'Go on! You don't look a day over thirty!' □ 'I don't know whether to write to Mary or not.' 'Go on! What harm could it do?' □ often preceded by 'Oh....' ⇨ get along/away with you!, go along with you!

2882-go on[15] [A1] be lit. S: light, lamp □ What time do the illuminations go on tonight? □ We had been sitting for a couple of hours in candlelight when to our relief the lights went on again. ⇨ be on[8], put on[2], turn on[1].

goings-on [nom (A1)] ⇨ second entry after goggle (at).

gone on [A2] ⇨ third entry after goggle (at).

2885-go on the stage [A2] earn one's living as an actor □ To her parents' dismay, Brigit decided to go on the stage.

2886-go on the streets [A2] earn one's living as a street prostitute □ Before changes were made in the law, some prostitutes literally went on the streets. Now, they operate more discreetly from bars and clubs.

2887-go on tour [A2] travel from place to place to entertain or do business. S: opera company, the National Ballet, circus; play; pop group; director, publicity manager □ The Royal Shakespeare Company goes on tour for several weeks every year. □ 'I'm afraid you can't see the Manager until next week; he's gone on tour to Europe.'

2888- go on about [A3] talk endlessly about (usu in an unreasonable or complaining way) □ 'Yes, yes! I admit I was wrong in not keeping you informed of my plans. But please don't go on about it!' □ 'That woman bores me stiff! The way she goes on about her paragon of a son!' ⇨ be on about.

2889- go on (at) [A1 A3] nag, criticize, complain (to sb) about his work, behaviour etc □ 'Why do you go on at that poor girl all the time? She does her best.' ⇨ be on at.

2890- go on before [A1] precede; lead □ (hymn) 'Onward Christian soldiers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Jesus, Going on before*.'* □ Sometimes one feels that the standards of the more responsible people in the community are not exactly going on before*!* □ usu in the continuous tenses as in the examples.

2891- go on (for) [A1 A3] be approaching a certain age □ 'I am sixteen, going on seventeen'. □ 'You wouldn't think so to look at him, but that man is going on for seventy.' □ usu in the continuous tenses as in the examples. ⇨ get on[4], get on for.

2892- go on for [A3] of time, get near, approach □ 'Good Lord! It's going on for one o'clock and I promised to see George at half past twelve!' □ usu in the continuous tenses as in the example.

2893- go on (to)[1] [A1 A3] pass from one subject or item to the next, in an agenda etc □ 'If nobody has any objection then, we'll go on*.'* □ The Chairman said that as time was short, we should go on to the next item. □ 'I don't want any pudding, thank you. I'd like to go straight on to the coffee.'

2894- go on (to)[2] [A2 A3] adopt (as a new or temporary habit). o: △ a diet; the wagon; the pill (ie contraceptive) □ The doctor told me that I would have to go on to a strict diet. □ Mr Allen decided to go on the wagon (= stop drinking alcohol) after he had smashed up his second car. □ Many women go on to the pill after they have had two children.

2895- go on to [A3] change working arrangements to. S: factory; half the employees; steel industry. o: overtime, short time, full production; four-day week □ The National Coal Board says that if consumption continues to fall, several big mines will have to go on to short time or stop production altogether.

2896- go on with [A3] continue doing. o: your work, what you were doing □ The teacher told the class to go on with the exercise quietly while he was out of the room. ⇨ get on with, go on[5].

2897- enough/something to go on with [A3] (sth that is) sufficient for the time being, with the suggestion that more is to follow □ 'I can't let you have the whole amount now, but I can give you something to be going on with*. Will five pounds do?'* □ *'Have you got plenty of reading material?' 'Enough to go on with, thank you.'* □ 'Here's a cup of tea to be going on with*. I'll give you something to eat shortly.'*

2898- go on with you [A3] (informal) a remark made to tease or rebuke sb □ *I laid the flat of my hand sharply between her breasts, as though swatting a mosquito. Sticking strictly to clinical terms, I admitted loftily, 'I certainly feel a distinct thrill.' 'Go on with you, Doctor,' she said, giving me a wink and a poke in the ribs.* DIL

2899- go out[1] [A1] absent oneself (from home etc) for some purpose □ 'What a pity you didn't arrive half an hour ago. Mary's gone out riding and won't be back until six o'clock.' □ 'If you go out drinking every night you'll never pass your exams or save any money.' □ followed by -ing form of a v. ⇨ go out (for/to).

2900- go out[2] [A1] become unconscious. A: like a light; within a minute; for the count □ After the sustained effort of the day I lay down on the bed and went out like a light. □ One blow to the chin and the challenger went out for the count (= was knocked out). ⇨ be out[9], put out[9].

2901- go out[3] [A1] (euphemism) die □ He said, knowing there was no hope of recovery for him, 'It's the one thing that will make me go out with an easy mind, Sarah, the knowledge that you and Terry and Pauline will not suffer financially.' WI □ 'I wish I had led a more relaxed existence. As it is, I shall go out thinking of all the fun I've missed.'

2902- go out[4] [A1] end, depart. S: the year; September □ 1970 went out with the news of a major earthquake in Peru. □ When March comes in like a lamb, it goes out like a lion. □ GEOFF: Has anybody ever tried? JO: What? GEOFF: Taking you in hand. JO: Yes. GEOFF: What happened to him? JO: He came in with Christmas and went out with the New Year. TOH

2903- go out[5] [A1] stop burning, shining. S: fire, light □ We were looking forward to getting back to a warm house, but when we arrived the fire had gone out*.* □ I had just begun to go upstairs when the lights went out*.* ⇨ be out[10], put out[10], turn out[1].

2904- go out[6] [A1] cease to be fashionable. S: miniskirts, woollen underwear, liberty bodices; that theory; wearing black, dressing up on Sundays; chaperones □ 'You can't wear that to the party! Miniskirts went out years ago.' □ The idea that women can't do the same work as men went out with the dodo. □ Great train robberies were thought to have gone out with the silent films. OBS ⇨ be out[14]; be/go out of fashion.

2905- go out[7] [A1] ebb. S: △ the tide, sea, water □ The sea, at certain parts of the coast, goes out so far that it can no longer be seen. ⇨ be out[16].

2906- go out and about [A1] leave one's house, visit friends, go shopping etc (usu after a period of confinement) □ I'm glad to hear that your mother can go out and about once more. She's made a wonderful recovery from her illness.

2907- go (all) out (for) [A1 A3] make a great, concentrated, effort (to obtain). o: what he wants; success. A: to finish the job; to win the war □ He went all out for a job that would not disappear at the first signs of a depression. □ Don't trust that man. He just goes out for anything he can get. □ If you want to beat the other competitors you'll have to go all out*.* ⇨ be out for.

2908- go out (for/to) [A1 A3] leave a building, go into the open air. o: (for) ride, trip, run; (to) beach, park; pictures □ 'Please go out and tell the children to make less noise.' □ 'I'm just going out to the post. If anyone calls, ask them to wait.' □

'I think you should go out for some fresh air instead of watching television all day.' ⇨ be out (at); come/take out (for/to), go out[1].

2909-go out of[1] [A2] disappear from. S: △ the sting, venom, fury; the (sour, harsh) note, tone. o: correspondence, remarks, attack □ As time went by and the old man became mellow, the fury went out of his parliamentary speeches.

2910-go out of[2] [A2] become reduced, less marked. S: △ the heat, passion, tension. o: argument, debate, discussion □ When it was clear that nobody was particularly interested in the matter, apart from the protagonists, the heat went out of the argument.

2911-go out of action [A2] cease to operate. S: submarine, gun, fighter; pump □ The enemy's fighters seem to have gone out of action*: perhaps they have been subjected to overheating in the recent battles.* ⇨ be/put out of action.

2912-go out of business [A2] fail in business, or simply stop trading or operating □ A lot of small grocers have gone out of business since the advent of the supermarkets. □ Some people believe that it would be a good thing if certain manufacturers were to go out of business. ⇨ put out of business.

2913-go out of fashion [A2] be no longer, cease to be, fashionable. S: miniskirts; that theory □ Morality has gone out of fashion*. Permissiveness is all.* ⇨ be out of fashion; be out[14], go out[6].

2914-go out of focus [A2] cease to be sharply focused □ Just as we were about to take a photograph of the diseased cell, the microscope went out of focus. ⇨ be out of focus.

2915-go out of one's mind [A2] become mad □ When the young woman heard the dreadful news she went clean out of her mind. ⇨ be out of one's mind.

2916-go out of sb's mind [A2] be forgotten. S: appointment, meeting, promise to do sth, message □ I'm so sorry I forgot to turn up at the meeting. I fully intended to, but it went right out of my mind.

2917-go out of play [A2] (sport) of the ball in football, tennis etc, go over the lines marking the pitch or court □ Channon took a quick shot at goal but the ball went harmlessly out of play. ⇨ be out of play.

2918-go out of service [A2] cease to be used. S: old models, equipment □ The 'slow' jets of the 1960s went out of service as they were replaced by more modern machines. ⇨ be out of service.

2919-go out of sight/view [A2] disappear from sight. S: land, competitors, hunted animal □ The fog came down like a curtain and in a few moments the coastline had gone out of sight. ⇨ be out of[2].

2920-go out of one's way to do sth [A2] take particular trouble. Inf to be helpful; to be as pleasant, unpleasant, as possible; to look one's best; to make a success of sth □ Most specimens are fairly straightforward and are not much trouble once they are used to the routine, but occasionally we would get a creature which appeared to go out of its way to cause extra work. DF □ He wouldn't go out of his way to help his own mother, even if she were starving.

2921-go out (to)[1] [A1 A3] leave a building, go into the open air. ⇨ go out (for/to).

2922-go out (to)[2] [A1 A3] go overseas (esp to some distant place) □ My son went out to Australia ten years ago. □ 'Are you going out by plane or by ship?' □ Beryl has decided to go out to South America as an English teacher.

2923-go out to [A3] be extended to, be offered to. S: △ one's sympathy, heart(s) □ Our hearts go out to all the victims of the earthquake in Yugoslavia.

2924-go over[1] [A2 pass] check, examine, inspect; look over[2] (q v). o: accounts, inventory; contents of a house; claim, appeal □ I've gone over the statement, and it seems to be in order. □ You'll have to go over the figures again; they don't balance out.

2925-go over[2] [A2] survey, inspect, with a view to renting or buying; look over[1] (q v). o: house, flat, castle; boat □ The prospective tenants went over the accommodation, but made no comment except to thank the old lady for her trouble. □ The surveyor gave the house a thorough going-over and advised us not to buy.

2926-go over[3] [A2 pass] clean; inspect and repair. o: room, kitchen; car, boat; gutters □ The girl went over the room quickly with a duster. □ Would you mind giving the engine of my car a good going-over*? It's producing a very strange noise.*

2927-go over[4] [A2 pass] ponder, consider; examine or re-examine. o: the facts; the same ground; his story, account, allegation □ We went over every detail of his story in an effort to discover whether it was true or not. □ 'Please don't mention Aubrey to me. I'm not going over all that ground again. I'm finished with him; do you understand?' □ The detective went over the facts in his mind for the twentieth time, but still the vital clue eluded him.

2928-go over[5] [A2 pass] search. S: police, detective; custom's officer. o: suspect, prisoner; baggage □ A woman police-officer went over the girl from head to toe, but would not say what she was looking for.

2929-go over[6] [A2 pass] rehearse, test one's knowledge of sth learned or studied; go through[6] (q v). o: lines, part; scene two; French homework □ The boys' mother used to go over their sums with them every evening. □ I can't come out this evening. I'm in the college play and must go over my lines again.

2930-go over[7] [A1] be received. S: (maiden) speech; performance; proposal, plan. A: (extremely) well; rather badly; a bomb □ How did John's talk to the Women's Institute go over*?* □ Your idea for a sweepstake on the yacht race went over big! Everyone was enthusiastic.

going-over [nom (A2)] ⇨ entry after goggle (at).

2932-go over the wall [A2] leave or escape from a life of confinement, whether physical or spiritual. S: prisoner, nun □ The world is always more interested in the one nun who goes over the wall than the thousands who don't.

2933-go over (to) [A1 A3] cross a river, lake, the sea etc (so as to reach); go across (to) (q v). o: mainland, island, the other bank □ A boat goes over to the island once a week with mail and provisions. ⇨ take over (to).

2934-go over to[1] [A3] transfer one's allegiance to; defect (from) (to) (q v). S: rebel MP, Communist; spy, agent; brigade, regiment, army; priest, bishop. ⊂ other side, the Labour Party; enemy, allies; Rome (= Roman Catholicism), Methodism □ Mr Blake, after years of dissatisfaction with Labour, went over to the Conservatives. □ The chief of intelligence has gone over to the Russians. □ Italy went over to the Allies in 1944. □ 'It's the first time I've ever joined a couple in Holy Matrimony according to the rites of the Anglican Church,' the Canon persisted, 'and heard the bridegroom say, barely an hour later, that he's thinking of going over to Rome.' CON ⇨ bring/come over (to).

2935- go over to[2] [A3] abandon one thing or practice and adopt another. ⊂ violin; pop art; vegetarian diet; bicycle □ Sarah's given up the piano and gone over to the flute. □ We thought Jim was going to be another Sutherland, but he's gone over to pop art. □ I'm afraid you'll have to go over to a vegetarian diet if the price of meat goes on rising!

2936- go over to[3] [A3] (broadcasting) transfer to. ⊂ our reporter on the spot, news desk; New York, Tokyo; Westminster, Wembley □ 'We're interrupting the programme to go over to our news desk for an important bulletin.' □ 'Let's go over to Lords to hear the latest on the Test Match from Brian Johnstone.'

2937- go overboard [A1] (nautical) fall or be thrown from a ship □ During the storm a lot of the deck cargo went overboard. □ 'Why has the ship stopped?' 'I think somebody must have gone overboard.' ⇨ fall overboard.

2938- go overboard about/for [A3] be enthusiastic about, commit oneself totally to. ⊂ the new play; Australia; modern architecture □ It would be very foolish of the Government to go overboard about nuclear energy to the extent of running the coal industry down to nothing. □ Mavis has gone overboard for some new Eastern religion.

2939- go round[1] [A1 A2] make a detour, walk, drive etc, along the outside perimeter of. ⊂ centre of the city; park, prison; island; military installations □ The front gate was shut, so we had to go round. □ 'Don't sound your horn while you're going round the hospital.'

2940- go round[2] [A1 A2] walk inside a building etc in order to inspect it or its contents; look around/round[2] (q v). ⊂ museum, castle, Westminster Abbey, Hyde Park; Flower Show, exhibition; school, hospital, prison □ 'While you're here, would you like to go round?' □ So many distinguished visitors went round the school, that the children hardly looked up from their work when a stranger was brought into the classroom. ⇨ take round.

2941- go round[3] [A1] spin, or seem to spin; be dizzy or confused. S: the world; the room, everything; my head □ It's love that makes the world go round. □ After a couple of glasses of whisky, the bar began to go round. He had forgotten that he was drinking on an empty stomach. □ His head seemed to go round, and he clutched at the nearest passer-by.

2942- go round[4] [A1 A2] be sufficient (for). ⊂ the guests; starving children; all these people □ 'Don't worry! There's enough coffee to go round.' □ The hostess didn't know what to do, as she hadn't got enough food to go round so many people. □ How can India possibly find enough rice to go round these millions of refugees?

go round[5] [A1] go from place to place or person to person. ⇨ go around/round[1].

go round[6] [A1] circulate. ⇨ go around/round[2].

2945- go round (to) [A1 A3] visit □ 'Let's go round and see Mary. She's always ready for a chat.' □ The police went round to the woman's house as soon as they received her call. ⇨ be around/round (at), bring around/round (to)[1], come around/round (to)[1].

go round (with) [A1 A3] ⇨ go around/round (with).

2947- go through[1] [A1 A2] pass from one side of an object to the other, sometimes implying the exercise of force. S: thread; piano; lorry; ship; motor-cyclist. ⊂ needle; door; gate; canal; shop-window □ This rope is too thick to go through the hole. □ The piano went through the door easily, but the sideboard wouldn't go through at all. □ The bus ran down the hill out of control, and went through the wall of a house at the bottom. ⇨ get through[1].

2948- go through[2] [A2 pass] use, consume. ⊂ stock, store; food, beer; fortune □ 'Do you mean to say that we've gone through all those envelopes I bought last week?' □ It didn't take Albert very long to go through his inheritance. ⇨ get through[4].

2949- go through[3] [A2 pass] examine, explore, search. ⊂ every room; all my pockets; his papers □ The woman went through every drawer and cupboard in the house, but she could not find the missing silver. □ The police went through the building with a fine tooth-comb, but they found no evidence that would help them to catch the thief. □ It was obvious that the room had been gone through by an intruder.

2950- go through[4] [A2 pass] perform, enact. ⊂ marriage, initiation, matriculation, degree (ceremony) □ Tom and Sarah had been living together for years, but finally went through the marriage ceremony for the sake of their children. □ I hate the idea of attending the funeral but I suppose it'll have to be gone through. ⇨ go through with.

2951- go through[5] [A2 pass] review, rehearse; go over[6] (q v). ⊂ facts, arguments, pros and cons; scene, text □ They went through the details of the plan over and over again to make sure that there was no possibility of failure. □ 'Let's go through the last scene in Act Two again. We haven't got it right yet.' ⇨ take through.

2952- go through[6] [A1] be completed, concluded (usu successfully). S: appointment, application; Bill (the form of legislation before it becomes an Act of Parliament); scheme, deal, agreement; divorce □ As soon as Jo's divorce has gone through, he's going to marry Alice. □ If this deal doesn't go through, we're ruined. □ Surely my application for a visa has gone through by now? I can't understand the delay. ⇨ get through[3], put through[2].

2953- go through[7] [A2] be published in. S: book, title; article. ⊂ three printings; ten editions □ His book was an immediate success and went through ten editions in a year.

2954- go through[8] [A2 pass] suffer, endure, experience. ⊂ operation; years of pain; ordeal; fire; boring performance □ Before the days of anaesthetics people had to go through dreadful pain when they were operated on. □ He would have gone through fire for the girl he loved. □ 'Well, I'm glad we don't have to go through that again for another year! Speech Day bores me to tears.' □ 'After what he went through with his first wife, you'd think he would have steered clear of marriage for the rest of his life.'

2955-go through sb's hands [A2] be handled by, be the responsibility of sb. S: thousands of pounds; jewellery, diamonds; (secret, confidential) papers, documents; patients, cases □ ... more than a million pounds' worth of diamonds went through his hands*, and around forty thousand of them stuck to his fingers.* DS □ 'I hope that new man is trustworthy if you're going to let these documents go through his hands*.'*

2956-go through the mill [A2] (informal) serve an apprenticeship; do humble, difficult and menial tasks before attaining high or senior status □ The best men at running industry are those who have had to go through the mill themselves. ⇨ be/put through the mill.

2957-go through the motions [A2] pretend to do sth; do sth but without sincerity or serious intent □ Her husband went through the motions of welcoming her guests, but left the room at the first opportunity.

2958-go through (the) proper channels [A2] follow the correct, prescribed steps. S: application, complaint, letter □ It is no use your asking me for promotion. You'll have to go through the proper channels*.* □ Applications for leave must go through proper channels*.*

2959-go through with [A3 pass] complete, take to a conclusion, not leave unfinished. o: arrangements, plan; robbery, execution; it □ As the time approached for the guests to arrive, Mrs Winthrop wished she had never invited them; but she realized that she would have to go through with it. □ A month before the wedding was due to take place, Mr Paddy received a letter from his fiancée saying that she couldn't go through with it, as she'd fallen in love with someone else. ⇨ go through[4].

2960-go to[1] [A2] visit, attend. o: school, university; market □ The old woman went to market every week without fail, to sell her eggs and butter. □ Does your son go to university? ⇨ send to.

2961-go to[2] [A2 pass] take, put oneself to (⇨ put to[4]). o: (a lot of, no end of, endless, infinite) trouble; great pains to do sth; ridiculous lengths □ The British Council went to no end of trouble to arrange a programme for the eminent visitor to Britain. □ She went to absurd lengths to please her new boss; but he sacked her within a month.

2962-go to[3] [A2] be given to, be awarded to; be inherited by. S: special prize, gold medal; my uncle's fortune; honour, privilege □ The first prize for Biology went to the youngest child in the class. □ The distinction of being the first to split the atom went to Rutherford. □ The family was furious when the old man's entire possessions went to his housekeeper.

2963-go to[4] [A2 pass] spend (much money); incur. o: (extra, great, unnecessary) expense □ 'Why don't you hire a caravan for a couple of weeks each year instead of going to the expense of buying one?'

2964-go to bed [A2] retire to bed for a rest, sleep or because one is ill □ 'I don't feel well; I'm going to bed*.'* ⇨ send to bed.

go to bits [A2] ⇨ go to pieces.

2966-go to the country [A2] (politics) call a general election □ The Prime Minister said that if Parliament went against him on the crucial issue of our joining the Common Market, he would be forced to go to the country*.*

2967-go to the dogs [A2] (informal) decline in power, efficiency etc; change for the worse. S: the country, old school, family life □ From the way some people talk, you'd think that the country had been going to the dogs for the last fifty years. □ I had to resign my membership because the club was going to the dogs*.*

2968-go to earth/ground [A2] (of animals) take refuge underground, in a burrow, lair etc; (of people) hide oneself away. S: fox, quarry, hunted animal; escaped criminal, wanted man, refugee □ When the master of the hounds realized that the quarry had gone to earth and the dogs had lost the scent, he called off the hunt. □ The police believe that the murderer has gone to earth somewhere in London. ⇨ run to earth/ground.

2969-go to extremes [A2] be immoderate in one's actions □ He is the kind of man who cannot do anything in moderation. If he drinks, he drinks too much; if he drives a car, he drives too fast; if he goes out for a meal, he goes to the most expensive hotel. He always goes to extremes*.* ⇨ next entry.

2970-go to the other extreme/go from one extreme to another/the other [A2] pass from one exaggerated view or action to its opposite □ Before we go to the other extreme of assuming that Mr Khruschev's power was absolute, there is one important difference to remember between him and Stalin. BM □ 'Last week you wanted to marry him as soon as you could; now you wouldn't marry him if he was the last man on earth. You do go from one extreme to the other*, don't you?'* ⇨ previous entry.

2971-go to sb's head [A2] affect a person's balance or judgement. S: strong drink, beer, champagne; success, praise, money; sudden fame, notoriety □ The wine went to Susan's head*. What with that and the heat, she simply passed out at the table.* □ Don't let the manager's congratulations go to your head*. Next week he's just as likely to bite your head off.* □ (song) 'You go to my head*, And you linger like a haunting refrain.'*

2972-go to the heart of [A2] hit, reach the central point of. o: △ the matter, question, problem □ 'You're getting married?' 'Yes.' 'To whom?' asked Donna Rachele, who liked to go to the heart of a question. ARG □ Providing a few clinics for drug addicts may help, but it doesn't go to the heart of the problem.

2973-go to hell etc [A2] (informal) an offensive expression dismissing or rejecting a person or his ideas, wishes etc. o: △ hell, blazes, Hades, the Devil, Jericho □ 'As far as I am concerned, if you aren't willing to work for a living, you can go to hell*!'* □ 'I'm fed up with this office. I'm going out!' 'But what shall I tell Mr James if he wants to see you?' 'Tell him to go to hell*!'*

2974-go to it [A2] give energy and time to doing sth, make a special effort to do sth (often used to urge sb on) □ *'Go to it, John! You could beat the* record this time!' □ After dinner we went to it again, carting paints and easels about. CON

2975- go to pieces [A2] lose one's self-control, health, integrity □ When Sam heard of his son's death he went to pieces*; but as time passed he gradually returned to something like his old cheerful self.* □ Following their defeat in the election the Labour Party seemed to go to pieces for a time. □ also occasionally go to bits.

2976- go to the police [A2] inform the police □ The blackmailer warned his victim that if he went to the police he would regret it.

2977- go to the polls [A2] (politics) cast one's vote at an election □ The number of people who actually go to the polls seems to depend on the weather. That, in a democracy, is surely absurd! □ The country was in no mood to go to the polls for a second time in less than six months.

2978- go to pot [A2] (informal) be spoilt, ruined □ MYRA: It would take you six months to study for that examination. TONY: A year, after my brain's gone to pot in the army. EHOW □ the expression existed long before the word pot took on the meaning of cannabis.

2979- go to press [A2] (publishing) (be sent to) be printed. S: paper, book; last edition; the Times □ It's too late to include the announcement in tomorrow's paper. It's gone to press*.*

2980- go to rack and ruin [A2] reach a state of disrepair, decay, through neglect; become disorganized □ Now the house was going to rack and ruin*. Aunt Annabel patiently inquired how it could be expected to do anything else, with only a cook-housekeeper, one maid, and a daily.* DC

2981- go to sea [A2] earn one's living on a ship □ The boy was tired of looking for a job near his home and eventually decided to go to sea*.*

2982- go to seed [A2] (of vegetables etc) go beyond the edible stage and produce seeds; (of people) become unattractive ('seedy-looking') through self-neglect, over-indulgence, or unhealthy living □ 'What a pity you let all those cabbages go to seed*. They're no use now.'* □ An aging Romeo stepped out of the car, grey, pale and gone to seed*.*

2983- go to town [A2] (informal) do sth with enthusiasm, vigour, thoroughness and relish □ When the Leader of the Opposition turned to consider the Government's secret negotiations with Ruritania, he fairly went to town*. His supporters cheered him as he called for the resignation of the Foreign Secretary.* □ She's really going to town over Alan's room. First of all she said it needed new curtains.... RFW

2984- go to trial [A2] (legal) be tried in a court of law □ 'If I'm caught, I have my own plan. You can be sure that I shall never go to trial*.'*

2985- go to the wall [A2] be defeated; fail, become bankrupt. S: company, firm; weaker competitors □ When the new toy cars with 'hot' wheels (i e producing less friction and therefore making the cars faster) appeared on the British market, several manufacturers of the old types went to the wall*.* □ (Conservative Party election broadcast) If prices and incomes were uncontrolled, it would be the old-age pensioners, the lowly paid, the people without powerful trade unions — it is these people who would go to the wall*.* BBCTV

2986- go to war [A2] start, engage in, a war □ No sane leader would ever go to war if he knew that he must lose it. But then... not every leader is sane! □ usu of nations rather than individuals.

2987- go to waste [A2] be wasted, unused. S: food; effort; natural resources; man, girl □ 'How can you let all this food go to waste when there are so many starving people in the world?' □ 'I wouldn't like to see any daughter of mine going to waste as a chorus-girl in a provincial theatre.'

2988- go to work (on) [A2] start operating; tackle (a job); set to[1] (q v) □ Intelligence (i e secret service) agents went to work and soon found the reason for the leak of information to the enemy. □ The young architect went to work with a will on his first commission. □ a famous advertisement, 'Go to work on an egg', had two meanings: (a) have an egg (for breakfast) before you leave for the office, factory etc; (b) tackle, i e eat, an egg.

2989- go together[1] [A1] match; be good, right, agreeable when worn, consumed etc, at the same time. S: red and green; oysters and champagne; coffee and liqueur □ 'Do you think this hat and coat go well together*? Or do they clash?'* □ Potatoes and rice don't go together*. They make a stodgy meal.* ⇨ go with[4].

2990- go together[2] [A1] of two or more things, states, qualities etc, be found in one person, place, environment etc. S: poverty and disease; sunshine and health; wealth and selfishness □ Bullying and cowardice often go together*.* □ Chastity and charity do not necessarily go together*.* ⇨ go with[3].

2991- go together[3] [A1] keep each other company, often with a view to marriage. S: Paul and Pamela; those two □ *While he had been away on this last trip to America, she had had a chance to take stock of herself, and it had come as a shock when she realized they had been 'going together' for over a year.* WI ⇨ go with[2].

2992- go under[1] [A1] sink below the surface of the sea, river etc. S: helpless child; boat □ Just as the would-be rescuer reached the drowning man, he went under for the third time and was never seen again.

2993- go under[2] [A1] fail, become bankrupt. S: he etc; company, business, firm, organization, aircraft industry □ Poor Donaldson had no head for business, and it was not long before he went under*.*

2994- go under[3] [A2] be known as; hide one's identity behind; pass by/under the name of (q v). S: flower, criminal, writer. o: name, title; sobriquet, nom de plume, guise □ Willow Herb also goes under the name of Old Man's Beard. □ One of the robbers went under the guise of a respectable dealer in antiques.

2995- go under the hammer [A2] be sold at auction. S: his home, pictures, collection of antiques, all his worldly possessions □ Everything that Joss possessed went under the hammer to pay his debts. □ We must do everything we can to prevent the old homestead from going under the hammer*.*

2996- go under (to) [A1 A3] be overcome (by). o: a stronger man; their powerful neighbour; a new predator □ The greater part of the rabbit population of Britain went under to the disease of myxomatosis. □ Unless the textile industry reorganizes itself quickly, it will go under (to foreign competition).

2997- go up[1] [A1 emph A2 emph] climb; pass upwards, on or through. o: stairs, ladder; hill, cliff; wall; tree; side of a ship, rigging; chimney, pipe, funnel □ Since the old lady fell, she's been unable to go up steps. □ The squirrel went up the tree like greased lightning. □ The brush was too big to go up the flu. ⇨ get up[3].

2998- go up[2] [A1 emph] rise, increase. S: prices, expenses, the cost of living □ Everything seems to be going up these days: coal, groceries, bus-fares, rents... Why doesn't the Government do something about it? □ 'Have you seen the paper today? Up go the prices again!' ⇨ be up[1], put up[4], send up[1].

2999- go up[3] [A1] rise, reach a higher level; be raised. S: pressure, barometer, glass; temperature, mercury □ I see the mercury is going up. Perhaps we're going to get a spell of good weather at last.

3000- go up[4] [A1] be constructed. S: buildings, skyscrapers; new schools, hospitals etc □ 'Everywhere you look, you can see glass and concrete monstrosities going up.' □ New universities went up at a fantastic rate in the 1960s. ⇨ put up[3].

3001- go up[5] [A1 emph] be destroyed, be blown up (⇨ blow up[4]). S: building, bridge, ship, ammunition dump; all our hopes, plans. A: in flames, in smoke, with a bang, with a roar □ The gelignite store received a direct hit and went up in a huge spectacular explosion that was heard for miles around. □ With the outbreak of renewed hostilities on the border all our hopes for peace have gone up in flames. □ I could see the commission for the murals going up in smoke. CON ⇨ send up[2].

3002- go up[6] [A1 emph] (theatre) be raised; be lit. S: ⚠ the curtain, lights □ (stage directions) In the first act the curtain goes up on a typical sitting-room of a small English semi-detached house.

3003- the balloon go up [A1] (of a war, a major offensive) begin □ I shamelessly snatched an extra twenty-four hours from my office on Sunday in order that I might see Bill before 'Overlord' (= the invasion of Europe), before the balloon went up. RFW

3004- go up the wall [A2] (informal) go nearly mad from frustration, overwork, annoyance □ When I arrived home, I found mother going up the wall. The fire was out, the baby was crying, Johnny had just cut his knee and our visitors were due to arrive at any moment. ⇨ send up the wall.

3005- go up in the world [A3] reach a higher position in society, in one's profession etc □ When Tony married the millionaire's daughter, he certainly went up in the world. □ Arnold's gone up in the world, hasn't he? It's quite something to start as an apprentice and end up running an industry with 50 000 employees. □ Three women in my life, but the one I want doesn't want me. Who cares? That's the way it goes. I'm going up in the world before the world goes up before me. DBM 3006- go up (to) [A1 A3] go to a university, or to London ('town') from the provinces, or towards the north □ At New College, Gaitskill (who went up a year earlier than X) became passionately interested in politics, ballroom dancing and social life. OBS □ I'm going up to town for a few days. Is there anything I can do for you while I'm there? □ My parents have gone up to Scotland for a short holiday. ⇨ be up[2], come up[2].

3007- go with[1] [A2] accompany □ The younger children stayed with their uncle while the older ones went with their parents to Spain.

3008- go with[2] [A2] keep company with, perhaps with a view to marriage □ How long has Alice been going with Steven? I thought Adam was her boyfriend. ⇨ go together[3].

3009- go with[3] [A2] be part of; be included with. S: fields, paddock, two acres; scarf; disease; crime. o: house; dress; poor hygiene; poverty □ We were delighted to find that a large rock garden went with the house. □ Crime does not necessarily go with poverty; some rich men are criminals. ⇨ go together[2].

3010- go with[4] [A2] match; suit; combine well with. S: hat; lipstick, powder; his voice. o: dress; shoes; complexion; his distinguished appearance □ Her behaviour when under the influence of alcohol hardly goes with her high standards when sober. ⇨ go together[1].

3011- go with a bang/swing [A2] (informal) be very successful, enjoyable. S: party, concert, pop festival □ The pop festival on the Isle of Wight went with a bang. □ When we arrived at 9 o'clock the party was well under way and going with a swing.

3012- go with the tide [A2] follow others, take the line of least resistance □ Max hasn't got a mind of his own on any matter of importance; he just goes with the tide.

3013- go without [A1 A2] not have; suffer the absence of; do without[1] (q v). o: food; shoes, clothes; shelter □ The doctor willingly went without his dinner if by attending a patient quickly he could relieve his suffering. □ Millions of the refugees were given food, but thousands had to go without and died of starvation.

3014- it/that goes without saying [A2] it is so obvious that it is not (or is hardly) necessary to say it □ When you visit England it goes without saying that you will be my guest.

3015- goad into [B2 pass rel] provoke sb to do sth or into a certain state. S: jeers, mockery, complaining tone; hunger, need, despair. o: a fury; losing my temper, retaliating, striking out; stealing a loaf of bread, breaking into a shop □ The soldiers were well trained and refused to be goaded into attacking the crowd of jeering, stone-throwing youths and girls.

3016- goad on [B1i pass] tempt, force or provoke sb to do sth foolish, antisocial, illegal etc. O: starving men, prisoners, rebels □ The older children goaded the youngsters on to break all the windows of the deserted house. □ The accused girls said that they were goaded on by their need to buy more and more drugs.

3017- gobble up [B1i pass] eat quickly, consume; devour; assimilate. S: geese, dogs; children; large countries; companies; computer. O: grain, meat; dinner; small neighbours; family businesses; facts □ Imperial powers throughout history have always tended to gobble up their weaker neighbours. □ The fourth-generation machine could gobble up work at a quite fantastic rate.

3018- goggle (at) [A2 pass] (informal) stare wide-eyed (at); gape (at) (q v) □ The boys stood on the beach goggling at the girls as they ran down to the water. □ Instead of doing something useful, the crowd just stood there goggling (at the victims of the accident).

3019-going-over [nom (A2)] the questioning of sb; (sometimes) a physical attack on sb □ The police gave the suspected murderer a long going-over, but could get no admission from him. □ When the old man was found unconscious in the street, it was obvious that he had been given a savage going-over by several people. □ usu in the patterns give sb/get a going-over. ⇨ go over[8].

3020-goings-on [nom (A1)] behaviour, usu of an extraordinary or reprehensible kind. adj: (such) odd, frightful, peculiar, disgusting, strange, queer, inexplicable □ Fred's father became so disgusted by his goings-on that he stopped his allowance. □ There have been some peculiar goings-on in the village recently, I can tell you! ⇨ go on[10].

3021-gone on [A2] (be) infatuated with, (be) very much in love with; (be) obsessed by. o: girl; the Rolling Stones, Beethoven; Chinese food □ John is quite gone on that girl he met when he was on holiday in Paris. □ 'Jo's still gone on Elvis Presley. How square can you get!' □ not strictly a passive construction.

3022-goose up [B1i pass adj] (informal) make more intense, lurid, daring, racy, or sensational □ The author not only built up his characters through a series of distasteful episodes, but also goosed up the language — sprinkling each page with the now famous four-letter words.

3023-gore to death [B2 pass] of a horned animal, kill a person or other animal with its horns □ The bullfighter had escaped with his life many times, but finally, on the day he had planned to retire, he was gored to death.

3024-gorge (oneself) on [A2 B2] eat voraciously. S: vultures; rats; children. o: rotting carcases; grain; ice-cream and chocolate □ We came across a crocodile scarcely able to move after gorging on some dead animal. □ The boys gorged themselves on the cakes, and left the bread and butter uneaten.

3025-gorged with [pass (B2)] (be) sated with, (have) eaten sth to excess □ The guards, gorged with meat and wine, were easily overcome and the castle quickly captured.

3026-gouge out [B1i pass] force out, with one's fingers or an instrument. O: eyes; channel, groove □ King Lear's daughters stood by while his eyes were gouged out. □ Some vandal had gouged out his initials on the newly finished altar. □ The monster machine gouged out a deep trench across the field, revealing a rich layer of coal.

3027-grab at [A2 pass] attempt to seize; grasp at (q v). o: falling child; branch of a tree; chance, opportunity □ A passer-by grabbed at the falling child, and was just quick enough to draw him out of the path of a lorry. □ He recognized the offer of a job in the factory as a chance to be grabbed at without hesitation.

3028-graduate (in) (from) [A2 rel] complete a degree-course (in a subject) (at a university etc) □ He graduated in metallurgy from Birmingham in 1973. □ The boy graduated in crime from the slums of Glasgow.

3029-graft in/on (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] of living tissue and plants, attach to another for purposes of cure or propagation. O: skin, piece of bone; cutting □ The tendon had been so skilfully grafted in that the boy was able to flex his finger quite normally after 4 weeks. □ The gardener could graft as many as twenty cuttings an hour on to briar stems.

3030-graph out [B1i pass] display in the form of a graph □ When the results of the previous six months' trading had been graphed out, it was clear that the firm was rapidly heading for bankruptcy.

3031-grapple with [A2 pass rel] tackle, come to grips with (q v). o: thief, intruder; invaders, enemy; problem □ The police warned the public that it would be dangerous to grapple with the wanted man, as he was armed and dangerous. □ It is high time that the government grappled with the ever-growing unemployment in the country.

3032-grasp at [A2 pass] try to seize; grab at (q v). o: opportunity, chance, offer □ When my daughter was offered a trip to Hong Kong by her employers, she grasped at it with both hands.

3033-grasp at a straw [A2] attempt to save oneself from certain disaster by any means, however unlikely to succeed; catch at a straw (q v) □ Like a drowning man grasping at straws, the thief tried to enlist the sympathy of the crowd even as the police were pushing him into the Black Maria.

3034-grass (on) [A2 pass] (criminal slang) give information to the police about a companion's crime, plans etc □ 'I don't want it to be said I grassed on my mates', the accused man said. □ 'It's obvious that Joe the Knife has been grassed on by somebody. I wouldn't like to be that somebody when he gets out of jail!'

3035-grate on [A2 pass] produce a grinding or grating sound which is hard to tolerate; irritate. S: gate; chalk, lead; his manners, behaviour. o: hinge; blackboard, slate; my nerves; everybody present, his wife □ The sound of the owlets screeching in the tree all night grated on his nerves and prevented him from sleeping. □ The new man's loud, coarse voice grated on everyone in the office.

3036-gravitate to/towards [A2 rel] move towards, as though drawn by some natural force □ You could be sure that if Norman and his pals were in the hotel, they would have gravitated quite inevitably to the bar. □ She was so attractive that all the men in the room gravitated towards her, leaving their wives fuming.

3037-greet with [B2 pass rel] offer, in the form of a 'welcome'. o: a smile, a warm welcome; jeers and catcalls, enthusiasm; a burst of applause; a barrage of stones □ When the distinguished visitor entered the hall he was greeted with ironic cheers by the noisy students.

3038-grieve for/over [A2 pass] feel sorrow on recalling sb or sth. o: dead friend; the passing of one's youth □ 'It's no use grieving over "the good old days", you know. They've gone for ever, and anyway... were they really so good?' □ For a little while the girl grieved for her dead hamster, but she got over it after a few days.

3039-grin from ear to ear [A2] smile broadly, showing great pleasure or amusement □ 'Would you mind telling me what's amusing you? You've been sitting there, grinning from ear to ear, for the past ten minutes!'

3040- grind away (at) [A1 A3] work with grim determination (at) □ 'I see James's light is still on, although it's nearly two a.m.' 'Yes, he has a biology exam on Friday, and he's grinding away (at it) to make up for lost time.'

3041- grind down [B1i pass] oppress. S: tyranny, government, military forces; poverty, taxation □ In the sixteenth century the European invaders ruthlessly ground down and exploited the Indians of South America. □ The peasants were ground down by a tyrannical squirearchy, and were unable to help themselves. □ The small force of resistance fighters was ground down by the sheer weight of the occupying army.

3042- grind into [B2 pass] press with great force into. O: cigarette; fist; heel. o: saucer, ashtray; the defenceless man's face; ground □ He dropped the photograph and ground his foot into it to show his hatred of his wife's lover.

3043- grind into/to [B2 pass] reduce to, by grinding. O: corn; stone. o: flour; powder, pieces □ When the stone had been ground to a fine powder it was used as the base for certain cosmetics.

3044- grind on [A1] move inexorably forwards. S: machine, juggernaut; bureaucratic procedures; process of law □ The situation was out of our hands and the war machine ground slowly on towards disaster.

3045- grind out[1] [B1i pass] play heavily, drearily. S: band; gramophone, nickelodeon, jukebox. O: tune, song, number, the latest hit □ In the dreary smoke-laden atmosphere of the dock-side café, an ancient record-player ground out some tune of long ago.

3046- grind out[2] [B1i pass] speak, say sth, in a grating voice □ For the tenth time that day, the sergeant ground out the names of the parts of the machine-gun. Would these damned recruits never learn? □ 'I'll get you for this!' the man ground out between clenched teeth as he was led away by the police.

grind to [B2 pass] ⇨ grind into/to.

3048- grind to a halt [A2] come slowly, inevitably and perhaps noisily to a stop. S: car, lorry, machine; motorized forces; invasion, army □ As the supplies of petrol gave out, the retreating columns ground to a halt one after the other, leaving the troops at the mercy of the enemy's airforce. □ The procession ground to a halt as it approached Trafalgar Square: there was no room for any more demonstrators.

3049- gripe (at) [A2 pass] (informal) complain about, usu unreasonably. o: treatment, proposal, the way the matter was handled □ 'No matter how generous the terms of the settlement may be, you'll always find somebody ready to gripe at them — the professional grousers, you might call them!' □ 'What's old Bloggins griping at now? Last week it was women being taken on as mechanics....'

3050- groan out [B1i pass] utter with a groan. O: sad news; story; last wishes □ The wounded messenger collapsed and groaned out the news of the surrender.

3051- groan (with) [A2] produce a long, low sound from the throat, deliberately or involuntarily; (of inanimate objects) be afflicted in a way that would cause a human being to make such a sound. S: injured man; audience; table, festive board. o: dismay, misery, pain; mock dismay; food, sweetmeats of any kind; luxuries □ The dying man groaned in agony as the rescuers tried to move him. □ The audience groaned with mock pain at the comedian's ancient jokes. □ The children could hardly believe their eyes when they saw the banquet laid out — the tables groaning with good things to eat.

3052- grope after/for [A2] try to find, in a blind, fumbling way. o: switch; right word, expression; formula; name; the truth □ I groped in the dark for the torch which I knew must be somewhere in the room. □ The lecturer paused, groping for the most effective word to express his meaning. □ Throughout the ages men have groped after the meaning of the Universe and their own role in it.

3053- well etc grounded in [pass (B2)] having a deep knowledge of. A: well, solidly, thoroughly. o: logic, the law, politics, comparative religion □ Every educated man of the nineteenth century was well grounded in Latin and Greek.

3054- ground on [B2 pass emph rel] give, provide, as a basis. O: theory, belief, policy □ The government claimed that its policies were grounded on the realities of the situation and not on wishful thinking. □ They grounded their religion on Nature — or what they could observe of Nature.

3055- group around/round [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) surround as a group. S: [A2] O: [B2] class, men; tanks, divisions. S: [B2] teacher; commander. o: blackboard, desk; village, forest □ We grouped ourselves round the leader in order to hear his last instructions before we set out. □ The class was grouped around the teacher, watching him demonstrate a chemical reaction, when a stone shattered one of the windows.

3056- group together [B1i pass] place in the same category, or in one place. O: mental illnesses; insects; books □ It is absurd to group all murderers together, as though they were all equally wicked or antisocial. □ It would be better if these books were grouped together under 'author' rather than under 'subject'.

3057- grouse (about) [A2 pass] complain about, usu with little justification. o: food, conditions, lodgings, beds; weather; poor fishing; the BBC □ He's the kind of chap who will always find something to grouse about, no matter how perfect the arrangements are.

3058- grovel before [A2] humble oneself, abase oneself, abandon one's dignity, before □ 'I'm damned if I'm going to grovel before the foreman and ask to be let off just because for once I arrived an hour late for work.'

3059- grow away from [A3] cease to have a comfortable, loving, easy relationship or rapport with. o: parents, former friends, the gang □ It often happens that a girl who in her early teens has been very close to her mother suddenly grows away from her as she makes new friends and her horizons widen. □ After only one term at the university, David was conscious that he had grown away from his old school friends and that things would never be the same again.

3060- grow from[1] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) germinate and reach fruition. S: [A2] O: [B2] flowers, fruit, vegetables, plants. o: seed; a cutting □ (proverb) Great oaks from little acorns grow. □ 'How do you like my tomatoes? I grew them from seed. □ Were these roses grown from seed or from cuttings? ⇨ grow into.

3061-grow from[2] [A2 emph rel] have as its origin; arise from (q v), grow out of[3] (q v). S: interest; fear; admiration; desire. o: reading sth, meeting sb; an unpleasant experience as a child; what he had heard about...; ambition to... □ His interest in ships grew from talking to his father, who had always longed to go to sea, and from reading the innumerable books about them that he found on his father's shelves.

3062-grow in [A2] become wiser, more worthy to lead, more important etc; gain in[2] (q v). o: wisdom, stature, importance, authority □ John has certainly grown in strength, but not, unfortunately, in wisdom. He's just as foolish as ever with his money. □ The Prime Minister was not an impressive figure when he took office, but he has grown greatly in stature over the past three years.

3063-grow into [A2] become, with the passage of time. S: he, she; actor; politician; corner shop; sapling. o: strapping girl, handsome young man; polished performer; clever statesman; flourishing business; sturdy tree □ We did not meet again for ten years. By then, the rather puny boy had grown into a six-footer weighing 220 pounds. □ The small family business grew into a company of international importance. ⇨ grow from[1].

3064-grow on [A2] become gradually more attractive, interesting, likeable to. S: John, Liverpool; style of painting, writing, speaking, acting; country life □ When I first went to live in Glasgow I found it rather a dreary place, but after a while it began to grow on me. □ The Portuguese 'fados' sound strange at first, but they quickly grow on you.

3065-(money) doesn't grow on trees [A2] (a saying) it is not easy to obtain money, it has to be worked for □ 'I can't give you ten pounds for a trip to London, Jill. Money doesn't grow on trees, you know!' □ (a mother, exasperated at her sons' excessive consumption of expensive apples): 'Apples don't grow on trees, you know!'

3066-grow out of[1] [A2] become too big for. o: clothes, suit, dress, shoes □ 'It's terrible the way Sheila's growing out of her shoes; she needs a bigger size every three months!' □ outgrow is used in the same meaning: She's outgrown all her clothes. But note: She's outgrown all her friends can mean 'She's grown taller than all her friends' or 'She's become more mature than them' (and consequently does not associate with them). ⇨ next entry.

3067-grow out of[2] [A2 pass] abandon, lose with the passage of time or with maturity. o: bad habits; dependence on his mother; need for excitement □ 'Don't worry about Johnny's tantrums. He'll grow out of them. Children always do.' □ outgrow is used in the same meaning: He's outgrown his habit of wetting the bed. ⇨ previous entry.

3068-grow out of[3] [A2] have as its origin or cause; arise from (q v), grow from[2] (q v). S: war between A and B; financial troubles; love affair. o: unresolved dispute over their borders, persecution of the minority populations in each country; improvident spending; daily contact in the shop □ The plot to kill the President grew out of the inordinate ambition of a few colonels. □ Joe's present unfortunate position — six months in jail — grew out of his uncontrollable temper.

3069-grow over [A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] (cause to) cover, spread over[1] (q v). S: [A2] O: [B1] ivy, weeds; climbing plants; mould, fungus; hair. o: tree, flower-bed, side of the house, wall, food; scar □ [A2] Bracken, brambles, ivy and a variety of clinging plants had grown over the garden and given it the appearance of an impenetrable jungle (or: The garden had become overgrown/grown over with bracken etc, giving it the appearance etc). □ [A2] Mould had grown all over the food in the larder while they were away on holiday. □ [B2] To avoid recognition he had grown his hair longer and over the scar on his forehead. □ note the passive transform grown over with and the alt form overgrown with, both with be/become; the latter is more usual in horticultural contexts.

grown over with [pass (B2)] ⇨ previous entry.

3071-grow up[1] [A1] become adult; go through one's formative years □ 'What are you going to be when you grow up, Anne?' 'I'm going to be a nurse.' □ Children are unpredictable: half the time they want to be with the grown-ups, the other half they can't get far enough away from them. □ Sarah is only fifteen, but her opinions and reactions are surprisingly grown-up. □ 'How is it that you are so fond of South America?' 'I grew up in Uruguay!' □ grown up resembles the passive and grown-up the adj of a [B1] pattern; grown-up(s) is also used as a noun.

3072-grow up[2] [A1] behave or think as an adult ought to, face the realities of life as it is, not as a child might imagine it to be □ 'You don't mean to say that there are still prostitutes in Soho?' 'Oh, really! When are you going to grow up!' □ 'It's no good, George. There's only one thing you can do about it, and that's grow up. Stop being the kind of person that people play practical jokes on.' HD

3073-grow up into [A3] become, as one grows older. o: thief, nice person, scrounger □ 'I punished Tim for not telling the truth. I'm not going to let him grow up into a liar if I can help it.'

3074-grub about [A1] busy oneself in some obscure way, perhaps in search of sth or to organize things, and getting dirty in the process. A: under the bushes; among old books; in the cellar □ 'I don't know where your mother is. Probably grubbing about in the vegetable garden or somewhere.' □ A fat sow was grubbing about near the gate and refused to move out of our way.

3075-grub up [B1i pass adj] pull out of the ground, and get dirty in doing it. O: weeds, potatoes, tree stump □ The last time the old man was seen alive he was grubbing up some roots of heather on the mountainside.

3076-grumble (at) (about/over) [A2 pass rel] complain (to sb), perhaps in a surly, ill-tempered way (about sth). o: (about/over) food, lodging; treatment, low pay; weather □ Old Scrooge was for ever grumbling at Bob Cratchit about his work. □ 'It's no good grumbling at me about your treatment in hospital. Write to the Board of Management.'

3077-guard against [A2 pass rel] be careful to avoid, take precautions against. o: illness; colds, infection; scandal, suspicion; developing bad habits; invasion of one's privacy, prying eyes □ A doctor must always guard against passing on disease to his family. □ You must guard against any tendency to take your privileges for granted. □ Hasty reactions to provocation should be guarded against.

3078 guess at [A2 pass] estimate, try to imagine. o: her age; likely effects of; his probable reaction; the cause of the explosion □ If you want me to guess at John's reaction to your suggestion, I think he would welcome it. □ It's a mistake to guess at a woman's appearance from the sound of her voice! □ His origins can only be guessed at.

3079 guide across, along, away etc [B1i pass B2 pass] of a specially trained dog or experienced person, lead across etc. O: search-party, police, climbers □ The police-dog guided its handler to the hidden drugs. □ The rescuers were guided to the trapped miners by their courageous singing.

3080 gull out of [B2 pass] obtain by trickery from. O: drunken man, young boy, innocent peasant. o: money, horse; everything he had □ The con-man gulled the unsuspecting traveller out of every penny he had with him.

3081 gulp down [B1i pass] swallow quickly. O: cup of tea; dinner, food, medicine □ The firemen paused for a couple of minutes, gulped down a cup of hot soup and returned to the job of fighting the fire.

3082 gum down [B1i pass adj] secure with gum. S: envelope; stamp, label □ The stamp had not been properly gummed down and had come off the parcel, so we had to pay the postage again.

3083 gum up the works [B1iii pass] (slang) make progress impossible, spoil everything □ Just when some stability seemed to have been introduced into industry, the Civil Service gummed up the works by going on strike for more pay.

3084 gun down [B1i pass] (informal) shoot unmercifully, often with the implication that the victims are defenceless. o: women and children, villagers; prisoners, suspects; rival (gangster, politician); presidential candidate □ Nobody will ever know how many innocent peasants were gunned down in Vietnam. □ As the Colonel emerged from the meeting, the guerrillas, concealed behind the grill of an air-shaft, gunned him down.

3085 gun for [A2 pass] (informal) seek an opportunity to expose sb as inefficient, unconscientious, careless, or otherwise a vulnerable member of an organization, class etc □ 'I advise you to be very careful over the next few weeks; old Sanders is gunning for you, so he'll be looking out for any excuse to report you to the boss.' □ Poor Harry! He had no idea that he was being gunned for until the blow fell!

3086 gush from/out of [A2] flow freely and with some force from. S: blood; water; oil. o: severed vein, wound; broken pipe; newly-drilled well □ Suddenly there was a shout from the men on the rig and the next thing we knew was that water was gushing from the well to a height of fifty feet.

3087 gush over [A2 pass] be excessively demonstrative towards or about sb. o: new baby; son's fiancée; visiting celebrity □ 'I wish Mummy wouldn't gush over Peter's little successes at school: it makes him feel a fool in front of his friends.'

H

3088 habituate to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) make sb learn to accept or expect; get sb used to (q v). S: he etc; experience, event; war, famine, drought; achievement, success. O: oneself; population, citizens. o: hardship, deprivation, shortage; flattery, applause □ He had habituated himself (cf He was habituated) to the solitary life. □ The responsibility of command had habituated him to making quick decisions.

3089 hack down [B1i pass adj] cut to the ground with rough blows; chop down (q v). O: tree, branch □ Men were hacking down an old privet hedge to make way for an ugly modern fence.

3090 hack off [B1i pass adj] remove with rough chopping blows; chop off (q v). O: branch; limb; length, section (of rope, piping) □ The cook hacked off a piece of the roasted carcass and handed it to me in his fingers.

3091 haggle (over) [A2 pass rel] attempt, by making proposals and counter-proposals, to settle the price of goods, the terms of an agreement etc, in one's favour. S: traders, merchants; negotiators. o: price; wage, conditions □ Let's not haggle over the odd few pounds in the price. Shall we settle at a round figure of £250? □ The trade union side did not consider it a waste of time to haggle over the finer points of the package deal.

3092 hail from [A2 rel] have as a place of origin. S: visitor, tourist; ship. o: abroad, the North; foreign port □ Judging from his speech, I should say he hails from North of the Border (= Scotland). □ usu informal when referring to persons.

3093 ham up [B1i pass adj] (informal) act on the stage in a crude or exaggerated way (either through inexperience or for deliberate effect). S: actor, performer. O: it, the (whole) thing; part, passage □ Why must every comedy show on TV contain a hammed-up extract from Shakespeare? □ 'Don't on any account ham this scene up. If anything, underplay it — play it down.'

3094 hammer down [B1i pass] secure, fasten, sth by striking it (or driving in nails). O: lid, top, cover □ The cover, which had already been roughly fitted into position, was now hammered down.

hammer in/into[1] [B1i pass B2 pass] force, drive, in by striking. O: post, stake; nail, rivet □ First the pegs were hammered into the ground in a large circle, then the tent was raised and the ropes fastened.

3095 hammer in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] force sb to learn sth (by tiresome repetition). S: teacher, preacher, pedant. O: lesson; moral, point; French, grammar. o: flock, class; head □ Please don't advise me not to marry John; my parents have been hammering the lesson in long enough. □ We had Latin hammered into our heads for five years. How much of it do we still remember?

3096 hammer on/onto [B1i pass B2 pass] fasten in position by beating or striking. S: blacksmith, carpenter. O: lid, top, metal cap □ A protective copper strip was hammered onto the end of the post. □ When you've packed the box, hammer the lid on*.*

3097 hammer out[1] [B1i pass] make flat or smooth by beating; remove an irregularity by beating. S: panel-beater, coach-builder. O: metal sheet, panel, wing; bump, dent □ That dent is not big enough to be worth hammering out*; we can fill it in.*

3098 hammer out[2] [B1i pass] evolve, agree, sth through hard work or discussion. S: conference, negotiators. O: new proposals, compromise solution, final draft □ After prolonged discussion, the delegates hammered out a form of words that was acceptable to everyone.

3099 hand back (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] return sth (to its owner); give back (to)[1] (q v). S: official, policeman; teacher. O: passport, driving licence; exercise-book, examination script □ Please remember to hand back your room key before leaving the hotel. □ 'I haven't managed to mark your essays yet. I'll hand you them back (or: I'll hand them back to you*) on Thursday.'* □ the second example shows the Indirect Object construction.

3100 hand down[1] [B1i pass adj] pass on to a child below one in age or size. O: clothes, shoes; book, toy □ In poor families, clothes may be handed down from one child to the next. □ Peter was dressed in a pair of his brother's hand-me-downs (handed-down trousers etc). □ The kids had to wear hand-me-down jackets. □ nom form is hand-me-down(s).

3101 hand down[2] [B1i pass adj] transmit, usu over several generations. O: custom, tradition; enmity, prejudice □ Adam and Eve were repairing the skins handed down to them from generations of their forbears. US □ These ceremonies have been handed down through the centuries, and remain practically unchanged. □ usu passive.

3102 hand down[3] [B1i pass] (legal) pass sentence on sb convicted of a crime. S: court; judge, magistrate. O: judgment; sentence (of thirty years) □ After the jury had returned its verdict the judge handed down very heavy sentences ranging from fifteen to twenty-five years on all the accused.

3103 hand in [B1i pass adj] submit; tender; surrender (because completed, worn out, or no longer required); give in (q v). O: exam script, form; resignation, protest; uniform, equipment □ The Minister handed in his resignation in protest against the Cabinet's European policy. □ Unserviceable kit should be handed in at the quartermaster's stores after muster parade.

3104 hand off [B1i nom pass] (rugby football) push away a would-be tackler with straightened forearm and spread fingers □ Smith handed off the full-back and raced for the corner-flag. □ Jones was penalized for a too vigorously administered hand-off*.*

3105 hand on [B1i pass adj] pass sth to the generation following one's own. O: burden, trust, responsibility; knowledge, skill □ Each new generation coming into the Sixth will have this body of experience handed on*, and they'll be able to make their own contribution.* CON □ Everyone was choking with their experience of life and wanted to hand it on*.* ITAJ

3106 hand out[1] [B1i nom pass] distribute, circulate; give out [2] (q v). S: lecturer, salesman. O: duplicated sheet, summary, sales brochure □ Duplicated material illustrating the lecture was handed out to the students (cf Illustrative hand-outs were given to the students). □ Hand-outs were pushed through our letter-boxes as the first stage in this new trade war. □ the hand-out is the written or printed material itself.

3107 hand out[2] [B1i nom pass] offer as charity (to the unemployed, earthquake victims etc). O: soup, bread; clothing, blankets; gift parcels □ The President handed out gifts of food and clothing to the survivors of the shipwreck. □ During the slump, many thousands of workers survived on hand-outs*.* □ the hand-out is the food, clothing etc itself.

3108 hand it/(the) punishment out [B1i pass] (informal) give a severe beating to, thrash soundly; dish it out (q v) □ Smith was really going for his opponent, handing it out with both fists. □ This new class of ship is built to hand out (the) punishment*.*

3109 hand over[1] [B1i pass] surrender. S: breadwinner; captor, enemy; intruder, assailant. O: money, pay-packet; prisoner, hostage; gun, knife □ This was the day of the week that Uncle Saunders was expected to hand over the house-keeping money. CON □ Having expelled the student, the authorities almost literally handed him over to the secular arm. OBS

3110 hand over[2] [A1 nom B1i nom pass] transfer a position of authority or power; make, complete, checks on cash, equipment etc as part of this transfer. S: government, administration; governor, minister; storekeeper. O: territory, colony; office, post; stores, plant □ The time had now come for handing over power (or: a hand-over of power) to a local, elected government. □ I shall be glad to hand this job over*.* □ The stores were properly handed over to the new man — even the nuts and bolts were checked.

3111 hand it to [B2] (informal) (one must) give credit or praise to □ 'They're a clever lot, you've got to hand it to them.' ILIH □ 'She's been wonderfully cheerful, and interested in everything — you've really got to hand it to her.' ILIH □ always occurs with must or have (got) to.

3112 hang about/around [A1 A2] (informal) wait idly (e g for sth to happen); wait about/around (q v). S: (would-be) customer, spectator. o: door, entrance □ Cai (an animal) only saw that I had put something in her cage which was alive, and she was not going to hang about and see what it was. DF □ Desmond had spent several weeks hanging around the garage making friends with the rest of the ring (i e gang of diamond smugglers). DS

3113 hang back (from) [A1 A3 emph rel] hesitate, through timidity or fear, to do sth; hold back [2] (q v). o: fight; discussion; saying anything, taking part □ When the police came around asking questions, Peter hung back from giving information. □ He's a solitary child — always hangs back from any group activities.

3114 hang behind [A1] linger in a place after others have left. S: spectator, student □ One or two of the audience hung behind after the lecture to have a word with the speaker.

3115- hang in the balance [A2] (of events) have reached a critical point, where the result may go either way. S: future; result, outcome, issue; life, career □ If your heart begins to fail when the issue hangs in the balance, your opponent will probably win. MFM

3116- hang on[1] [A1] (informal) wait, pause; hold on [1] (q v). A: a second, a jiffy □ Mrs Roth said she'd hang on a bit. TT □ 'Got a match, Bob?' he asked. 'Hang on,' Bob replied. BM □ often imper.

3117- hang on[2] [A1] (informal) grip sth firmly, hold tight; survive a crisis, hold fast; hold on [2] (q v) □ *'Hang on with your knees. Don't let go. Hang on tight. Like grim death.' DBM □ The most we can hope for is that by staying put, by digging our caves, we shall be able to hang on. TBC

3118- hang on[3] [A2 emph rel] require that some condition should first be met; hinge on/upon (q v). S: future; career; result, outcome. o: vote, election; decision, resolution; support, backing; whether one is supported, what happens later □ The survival of the government hangs on tonight's crucial vote. □ On our ability to compete in difficult markets hangs our future as a trading nation.

3119- hang on to [A3 pass] (informal) keep, retain; not give or sell to sb else; hold on to [2] (q v). o: (one's) lead, advantage; shares, profits; what one has □ Was Wouvermans keeping his word to hang on to the picture? US □ I'm hanging on to those shares — I think they'll show a sizeable gain after the Budget.

3120- hang out[1] [B1i pass] spread damp washing on a clothes line, so that it can dry. O: washing, clothes □ 'I've just got one or two shirts to hang out — then we can go shopping.'

3121- hang out[2] [A1 nom] (informal) live, reside; visit a place frequently □ 'What did you say you were doing? And where are you hanging out?' THH □ 'If I were you I'd look for him at the jazz club. It's a favourite hang-out for students.'

3122- hang over[1] [A2 emph] envelop (sth); possess (sb). S: (cloud, atmosphere, spirit, of) gloom, depression. o: proceedings; gathering, meeting; company □ Robert tried with a few good-humoured remarks to break through the cloud of gloom hanging over his colleagues, but his words struck no response from them.

3123- hang over[2] [A2 emph] seem likely to occur soon, be imminent. S: (prospect, possibility, of) ruin, disaster, failure; (threat of) dismissal, expulsion; examination, interview. o: army, industry; employee, member; student □ With the prospect hanging over them of expulsion from their holdings, the smaller farmers were forced to seek work in the growing industrial towns. □ Now that my Bar exams are hanging over me I don't want to take on any new outside commitments.

3124- hang over[3] [B2 pass emph rel] suspend things from a surface so that they may cover it. O: carpet, tapestry; picture, drawing, poster; medal, cross. o: wall, ceiling; chest; uniform □ Over one wall of the study he had hung a set of framed prints. □ Trophies were hung all over the walls (or: The walls were hung with trophies). RATT

3125- hangover/hung over [nom pass (B1)] (informal) (suffer) the consequences of drinking heavily the evening before □ He's feeling terribly hung over after last night's party. □ I woke up with a dreadful hangover this morning.

3126- hang together[1] [A1] co-operate, support one another □ It was better to hang together than separately (i e than be hanged separately). DS □ We can come through any crisis if we hang together.

3127- hang together[2] [A1] form an intelligible whole, a coherent pattern. S: evidence, clues; story, picture; everything, it all □ 'The two parts of his statement don't quite hang together, do they?' said the inspector. 'We'll have to question him again.'

3128- hang-up/hung up [nom pass (B1)] (informal) (suffer) inconvenience; or some kind of emotional or nervous upset or inhibition □ We've been badly hung up through the inefficiency of the dispatch department. □ Another hang-up students complain of is too little personal contact with the teaching staff. □ She's strangely hung up (or: has a strange hang-up) about meeting new people.

3129- hang up (on) [A1 A3 pass] end a telephone conversation (with sb) by replacing the receiver □ She's incorrigible on the telephone. You literally have to hang up in her ear. DC □ I didn't have a chance to apologize: she hung up on me.

3130- hang upon [A2 pass] listen with devoted attention to. S: audience; follower, supporter; admirer, lover. o: △ (sb's) every word, words, reply; sb's lips □ They hung upon their leader's words. EM □ Certainly he knew how to captivate Irma: she seemed to hang upon his lips. PW

3131- hanker after/for [A2 pass emph rel] have a strong desire for. o: fame, wealth □ She got rid of nearly all the raw fish without hankering much after a gravy dinner and cider. TGLY □ It was quite an important journal of its kind, but he was ambitious and hankering for Fleet Street. HD

3132- happen along [A1] (informal) appear by chance, happen to arrive □ He was obviously annoyed that the child had happened along. CON □ He had to happen along just as we were about to settle the whole thing amicably.

3133- happen on/upon [A2] meet, discover, by chance. o: old friend, acquaintance; rare commodity, congenial job □ 'Where did you pick up those uncut stones?' 'I just happened on them in a small jeweller's in Zanzibar.'

3134- hark at [A2] (informal) (just you) listen to X (implying that what X says is untrue, conceited, or otherwise not worth listening to) □ 'Just hark at him — anyone would think he owned the place!' □ imper.

3135- hark back (to) [A1 A3 pass emph rel] mention again, recall. o: past event, earlier tradition, former achievement □ To understand this entails harking back to a revelation I made earlier on. SPL □ But the tradition is not entirely dead. It is harked back to, leaned upon as a fixed and still largely trustworthy field of reference. UL

3136- harmonize (with) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (cause to) blend or fit in pleasingly (with). S: [A2] O: [B2] colour, shade, tone; note; mood, feelings; behaviour. o: one another; the other; background, surroundings □ These notes don't harmonize (with each other). □ His tem- perament does not harmonize with a slow, even pace of life. □ Find a pattern that can be harmonized with the one on the curtains.

3137-harness (to) [B2 pass emph rel] connect a source of energy to sth so that the latter is driven. O: horse, ox; energy, power. o: cart, wagon; economy, industry □ The farmer harnessed a pair of oxen to the heavy wagon. □ The productive energies of a whole people were harnessed to the war effort.

3138-harp on [A2 pass adj] talk persistently and tiresomely of. o: grievance, suffering, lack of money □ She's always harping on the family's neglect of her. In fact everyone goes to visit her once a week. □ That's a string that's been harped on many times before.

3139-hatch out[1] [A1] (of shells) break open; (of a young bird etc) break through the egg shell. S: egg; batch; chick, grub, caterpillar, snake □ The eggs hatch out in the warm mud of the river-bank.

3140-hatch out[2] [B1i pass] cause or help a shell to break open, or a young bird to break through the shell. S: chicken farmer; mother bird. O: egg; batch; chick, grub □ The mother hen hatches out her young by covering the eggs with her warm feathers. □ Several batches a day can be hatched out with the new incubator.

3141-haul over the coals [B2 pass] (informal) reproach or reprimand severely. S: father, employer; chief, boss □ He (the Minister) said it was a new experience to be hauled over the coals in the Cabinet room. MFM □ 'What was all the fuss about?' 'Oh, just the Old Man hauling me over the coals for borrowing his car again.'

3142-haul up (before) [B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) bring for trial in a court of law. O: thief, bigamist; defaulter; truant. o: judge, magistrate, 'beak'; commanding officer; headmaster □ This is the second time that Matthew has been hauled up on a dangerous driving charge. □ The least that can happen is that you'll be hauled up before the company commander and given a severe reprimand.

3143-have about [B2 emph rel] be checked, restrained, by moral uncertainty or principles, from doing or believing sth. O: △ (some, serious, certain) misgivings, reservations, qualms, scruples. o: accepting, receiving; taking, removing; advising, proposing □ I wouldn't have any qualms about taking his money. DC □ We had few serious misgivings about recommending him for promotion.

3144-have doubts about [B2 emph rel] be uncertain, unsure, about. adj: some, no, one's; grave, serious. o: integrity, truthfulness, reliability; (sb's) work, research; how things will develop, whether to continue □ We may have serious doubts about the quality of working-class life today. UL □ They had always had their doubts about George; others refused to believe in his guilt. PE

3145-have about one [B2] be carrying somewhere on one's person. O: letter, form; watch, lighter □ 'Do you want a cigarette? I should have one about me somewhere.' ⇨ have on one/one's person.

3146-have a/this thing about[1] [B2] (informal) feel especially attracted to, fond of or interested in sb or sth. o: dark girls, tall men; wine, rich food; sea, desert; astronomy, antiques □ Of course he has a thing about her. He always has a thing about petite brunettes who need looking after. □ David's always had this terrific thing about the army - ever since his grandfather gave him his first set of model soldiers.

3147-have a/this thing about[2] [B2] (informal) feel a particular (and often irrational) fear or dislike of sb or sth. o: strangers, foreigners; snakes, spiders; travelling, being left alone □ She has this silly thing about men with beards. Won't let one anywhere near her. □ It's the particular one (ie girl) he doesn't like at the time that he calls Clementine. It's just a thing he has about that name. DC

3148-have one's wits about one [B2] be alert and shrewd, be sharp-witted. S: salesman, dealer; sailor, airman □ You need to have your wits about you in the market. The last time I bought from a market trader I was given rotten fruit from the back of the pile. □ 'He's an awful fellow, Alec is, a real smart-alec, when he has his wits about him.' PW

3149-have feelings about/on [B2 emph rel] feel a certain way, adapt a particular attitude, about. adj: (any, no) decided, particular, strong. o: divorce, abortion; capital punishment; disarmament; drugs, drink, smoking □ I have no feelings one way or the other about what you are suggesting. □ It (the aristocracy) was not a matter on which he had any strong feelings*.* US

3150-have a grudge against [B2 emph rel] feel ill-will towards sb (for no good reason, or because of sth he has done). S: teacher, prefect; police, magistrate, traffic warden; boss, foreman. o: pupil, class; motorist; student, hippie; workman □ John's been put into detention so many times that he's beginning to feel his form master must have a grudge against him. □ Mary never forgot that she had a grudge against Africans in general, and she used to pick on any strange ones that came to camp. BB

3151-have around/over/round [B1ii] entertain at one's house (usu for a short time, e g for a meal or drinks) □ 'I'll be having a few people round for a beer one of these evenings.' said the man. HD

3152-have at [B2] (informal) try to achieve or do sth different and challenging. O: △ a bash, crack, shot, stab, go, try. o: title, championship; trophy, cup; exam; persuading, convincing, converting, sb □ At the next meeting, he's going to have a stab at the 5000 metres record. □ As things stand, I don't mind having a go at doing up the place. TC

3153-have it away/off (with) [B1ii B3] (slang) make love to (implying that the love-making is illicit, or at least furtive) □ While Smith was in the North on business, Jones was having it away with his wife. □ How does he know she's not having it off whenever his back's turned?

3154-have back[1] [B1i] have sth returned which has been borrowed. O: book, paper; car, lawnmower □ You can make use of my typewriter, but I must have it back by the weekend. □ When can you let me have back the money that I lent you? □ often used with let, not in continuous tenses. ⇨ get back[4], give back (to)[1].

3155-have back[2] [B1ii] allow a spouse or lover from whom one is separated to return. O: wife, husband; boyfriend; fiancée □ She wouldn't have him back if he was the last man on earth. ⇨ take back[2].

3156-have by [B2 emph rel] have a child by X = X is the father of the child □ She had a daughter by her first husband and two sons by her second. □ Bess had a boy by the fellow who's walking around the Court today. WI

3157-have down [B1ii] have sb to stay at one's (country) house as a guest, either from London or the north. A: for a few days, at Christmas □ They're planning to have their grandchildren down for the weekend. ⇨ come down[6].

3158-have their tails down/up [B1ii] (informal) be dispirited, depressed; be confident, elated □ The troops had their tails down and there was no confidence in the higher command. MFM □ Having won the President's Cup, the team had their tails up for the final of the league championship.

3159-have for [B2 emph rel] be interesting, attractive to sb. S: book, music, play; writer, composer; woman; face, figure. O: (certain, great, tremendous) appeal, attraction, fascination, interest □ The topic seemed to have a fascination for her. TST □ For me, the poetry of Keats has always had an enormous appeal.

3160-have an ear/eye/a nose for [B2 emph rel] be able to detect, or appreciate sth, because one's senses are alert or well trained. adj: no; good, sensitive; discerning, sharp. o: music, opera; colour, design; scandal, gossip □ He has no ear for music. □ I've not got much of an eye for dresses. OI □ The writer had a keen eye for evidences of superstition. NDN □ A good reporter has a nose for news.

3161-have a flair/gift for [B2 emph rel] be naturally gifted in some respect. adj: no, (not) any; special, remarkable. o: languages, mimicry; making things, handling machinery; foolery, saying the wrong thing □ 'Did you have any difficulty in learning to shoot?' 'No, sir.' She had a flair for it. RFW □ He had no gift for making polite conversation at parties.

3162-have no fears/terrors for [B2 emph rel] not alarm or frighten sb. S: mathematics, science; flying, motoring; tests, exams; speaking in public, meeting new people. adj: no, (not) any, few □ Unknown hazards must have no terrors for us. MFM □ Rowdy meetings should have no fears for an old professional like you. ⇨ have of.

3163-have no time/use for [B2 emph rel] think very little etc of, have a poor etc opinion of. adj: some, a lot of; (not) much, little. o: shirker, coward; bigot, show-off; (upper, lower) class; boss, trade unionist; democracy, the monarchy □ The colonel never had any time for officers who had risen from the ranks. □ He had no use for girls who did not know their way around. AITC

3164-have a soft/weak spot for [B2 emph rel] (informal) feel a special fondness for. o: (one's) youngest child, baby, orphan; vagrant, down-and-out □ Valerie sends her regards. She has always had a weak spot for you. US □ People have a soft spot in their hearts for alcoholics. OMIH

3165-have in [B1ii] have sb working in one's house. O: decorator, builder, plumber, carpenter □ I'm afraid we can't have you to stay after all: we've (got) the decorators in all this week. ⇨ get in[2].

3166-have confidence in [B2 emph rel] be sure in one's mind that sb is capable, or that things will turn out well. adj: a lot of; (not) any/much; considerable. o: manager, officer; parent, teacher; sb's ability, capabilities; future □ His personal authority would need to be great enough for the public to have confidence in him. SC □ He has very little confidence in himself. □ The vote indicates that the House has no confidence in the Government.

3167-have faith (in) [B2 emph rel] believe in the power, effectiveness etc, of. adj: no, (not) any/much, little; absolute, minimal. o: God; leader; promise, word □ Such men must have faith in God and they must think rightly on the moral issues involved. MFM □ After so many disappointments, he finds it hard to have faith in doctors.

3168-have in hand [B2] have started or undertaken. S: contractor; agent, organizer; editor, examiner. O: work; alterations; arrangements; checking □ There's no need to worry about the electrical fittings. We'll have the work in hand by the end of July. ⇨ be/take in hand.

3169-have a hand/part in [B2 emph rel] be partly responsible for, be involved in, sth which happens. adj: no, (not) any. o: decision; move, step; development, enterprise; forming opinion, changing conditions □ Sir Roy says that his government had no hand in the decision. OBS □ The man had a hand in shaping my ideas. ITAJ □ The rehousing programme was something in which the minister was proud to have had a part.

3170-have it in one (to do sth) [B2] be capable (of doing sth), have the ability (to do sth). Inf to succeed, to go far, to hold sb's attention for long □ You'll find you can make good if you have it in you. HD □ She never had the certainty that she had it in her to draw the love she coveted. MM have it in mind to do sth [B2] ⇨ next entry.

3172-have in mind [B2] be considering, contemplating; propose, intend. O: idea, proposal; remedy, answer; it... to warn sb, to increase spending □ Don't give your confidence to others regarding a plan you have in mind. WI □ It was this weapon that the Minister of Defence had in mind. NS □ He had it in mind to initiate staff talks with the Americans. MFM

3173-have a place in [B2 emph rel] appear in, figure in (q v). S: parent, child; upbringing, schooling; accident, disaster. adj: some, no, little; important, significant, special, minor. o: affections; biography, novel; report, record □ The working-class mother has an honoured place in most accounts of working-class childhoods. UL □ In the Report now published, the establishment of new universities has a prominent place.

3174-have a say/voice in [B2 emph rel] be involved in deciding future events. S: general public, ordinary person; consumer, user (of public services). adj: some; (not) any/much, little; considerable. o: (future) developments; what should happen, how things should develop; deciding, shaping, controlling, planning (sth) □ They will have a determining say in their own future. SC □ The ordinary MP may feel he has no effective voice in determining policy.

3175-have in one's spell [B2] exert a magic power or control over. S: lover; actor, orator; sportsman.

O: girl; audience, onlookers; opponent □ Well, well, Bessie girl, Solly's got you in his spell. HSG □ For twenty minutes of the first half, the Brazilian forwards had a packed stadium in their spell.

3176-have a stake in [B2 emph rel] have invested money, effort etc in sth (and therefore stand to lose or gain). S: businessman, industrialist; inventor, designer, craftsman; investor; public, taxpayer. adj: some; no, not much of a; considerable, sizeable. o: region; economy; industry, business; venture, enterprise □ He'd invested in local property. Unlike other European traders, he had a genuine stake in the country. DS □ Involving workers in management may help them feel they have a bigger stake in the success of their company.

3177-have well in hand [B2] be easily able to control sth. O: situation; crisis □ Hopalong was trying to give the impression that he had the situation well in hand really and was just about to do what his friends had merely saved him the trouble of doing. TT ⇨ be well in hand.

3178-have it in for [B3] (informal) intend to make trouble for (often through sheer ill-will) □ They (the police) have got it in for your blue-eyed Larrie.* ASA □ The prefects have it in for this form. They must have taken a dislike to us on sight.

3179-have of [B2 emph rel] fear, be frightened of. O: ⚠ a dread, fear, horror, terror. o: isolation, the dark, open spaces; snakes, spiders □ I might sleep and wake again before the night had really started. I had a horror of this. UTN □ She has this inexplicable fear of the empty house next door. ⇨ have no fears/terrors for.

3180-have the best/worst of [B2 emph rel] profit, benefit, most from sth; suffer most from sth. S: country; army; industry, business; contestant. o: it, things; struggle, conflict, argument; deal, arrangement □ You can depend on it that when we come to divide the spoils Philip will have the best of the share-out. □ Most of these forces had serious problems on their hands, but of those plagued by the latter, Sierra Leone had easily the worst of it. DS ⇨ get the worst of.

3181-have the courage of [B2] be courageous enough to act according to one's feelings etc. o: ⚠ one's convictions, desires, feelings, instincts, inclinations □ He was a sensualist who never had the courage of his desires. ASA □ I should have had the courage of my instincts, cancelled the old plan, and started again from scratch. LWK

3182-have control of/over [B2 emph rel] direct, control, command. S: civil power, army, church, ordinary people. adj: some; no, (not) any/much; absolute, total. o: city, district, area; (people's) lives, movements □ The Constitution must give citizens confidence that they will have control of their own destinies. □ She has very little control over the children; they seem to decide how they will behave. ⇨ be in/take control (of).

have it off (with) [B2 B3] ⇨ have it away/off (with).

3184-have on[1] [B1i] be wearing. O: clean shirt, bow tie; nothing □ She may have on a fur coat. AITC □ Fergus had his light-hearted face on again. DC □ 'You shouldn't feel hot. You've nothing on.' RATT ⇨ get on[1], put on[1].

3185-have on[2] [B1ii] have sth arranged, have sth on one's programme or as a commitment. O: meeting, appointment, engagement; anything, nothing □ 'Have you (got) anything on this evening?' 'Yes, one or two short meetings.'

3186-have on[3] [B1ii pass] (informal) deceive, trick □ He was doing what he'd been paid for, but half the time I reckoned that he was having me on. JFTR □ I suspected we were being had on by the greengrocer, so we weighed the vegetables when we got back.

3187-have on[4] [B2] (informal) have (no) reason or evidence to suggest that sb is responsible, etc. S: police; rival organization, firm. O: ⚠ (not) anything, nothing, something; what, how much □ 'Belfounder hasn't anything on us legally; and if he starts making complaints I can make plenty of counter-complaints about the way I was treated.' UTN □ Joe couldn't be sure how much the police had on him, but the suspicion that they might have something was enough to make him leave town.

3188-have on the brain [B2] (informal) be greatly preoccupied, or obsessed, with sth. O: power, money, sex □ 'Some boy?' Terence echoed scornfully. 'You've got sex on the brain.' HAA

3189-have compassion/pity on [B2 emph rel] have kind and tender feelings for sb in distress. adj: no, (not) any/much; little, great. o: poor, homeless, hungry (people) □ MYRA (breaking down and crying): Tony, have pity on me sometimes. EHOW □ The Church has compassion on those whose conduct falls short of its moral teachings.

3190-have a crush/pash on [B2 rel] (informal) love (in an immature way); be infatuated with. (q v) S: schoolgirl, girl student, young parishioner. adj: big, serious, terrific, tremendous. o: teacher, lecturer, vicar □ It was the story of a schoolgirl who'd had a crush on an old man. PP □ You might choose somebody more suitable to have a pash on — he's married, with five children. □ pash is rather dated.

3191-have designs on [B2 rel] (informal) plan, propose to take, win, control etc. adj: no, (not) any; serious. o: girl, woman; man; top position, controlling interest □ I can assure you that I have no designs on Peter's job. □ Darling, I want to go unattached. Maybe the devil's got designs on me. DPM have feelings on [B2 emph rel] ⇨ have feelings about/on.

3192-have one's eye on [B2 rel] (informal) have chosen sb or sth as a desirable conquest, acquisition etc. o: girl, man; house, business; job, vacancy □ I looked around, wondering which young starlet the Baron had his eye on. PP □ There was this nice little corner shop he'd had his eye on for some time.

3193-have one eye on [B2] give part of one's attention to one thing (while the rest is engaged somewhere else). o: clock, time; saucepan, kettle; baby, toddler □ It was a tricky experiment — he had to have one eye on the thermometer all the time. □ He had a double motive, he had one eye on his own future. NM ⇨ keep one eye on.

3195-have on one's hands [B2] have goods that one does not need and would like to sell; have a responsibility that one finds irksome. O: (spare, surplus) stores, supplies; elderly relative, maiden aunt, (sb else's) children □ 'I've an extra gas cooker on my hands. Do you want to take it off me?' □ I now have a ghost on my hands — another father would have the decency to die and stay dead. HSG

3196- have on one's mind [B2] be thinking about, and worried or concerned by, some problem. O: something, nothing; a lot, a great deal; arrangements, organization; party, wedding □ 'You've got something on your mind. You aren't still worrying, are you?' OMIH □ 'Don't bother your father now — he has too much on his mind.'

3197- have on one/one's person [B2] be carrying (esp in a pocket or handbag). O: money, change; passport, ticket; comb, nail-file □ 'I suppose you wouldn't have the price of a drink on you?' □ 'Have you got the key of the sideboard on you?' MM ⇨ have about one.

3198- have time on one's hands [B2] (informal) have little (work) to do, not be under pressure of work □ 'Still here then, I see,' he said conversationally. 'You must have plenty of time on your hands.' TGLY □ 'Now that Father's retired he'll have more time on his hands.' 'That's what worries me. He'll feel miserable with so little to do.'

3199- have a bearing on/upon [B2 emph rel] be related to; affect, influence; bear on/upon (q v). S: (sb's) presence, participation, involvement; belief, feeling. adj: (not) any/much, little; direct, important. o: outcome, result; case, affair, issue □ The points you are raising have some bearing on the case now being tried. □ Whether you love him has no bearing on whether he's good or bad. AITC

3200- have an effect/impact (on/upon) [B2 emph rel] affect, influence in some way. adj: some; (not) any/much, little; slight, marginal; strong, favourable; adverse, contrary. o: production, demand, sales; (foreign) relations, policy; strategy, planning □ The measures which the Chancellor has taken should have a favourable impact upon the balance of payments. SC □ These provisions have had no marked effect on the unemployment figures.

3201- have out [B1ii] cause to be removed by a surgeon or dentist. O: tooth, appendix □ He was having his tonsils out, which is a severe operation for an aging man. HD

3202- have out (with) [B1ii B3] (informal) discuss a matter frankly, often angrily, (with sb) until understanding is reached. O: it; the thing, the question, the whole issue □ 'I'm going round to Ned's. We've got to have this thing out.' CON □ Their determination to have the apartheid issue out has not been changed in any degree. SC □ 'I had it out with her about the pilchard tins,' said Frank petulantly. ASA have over/round [B1ii] ⇨ have around/over/round.

have control over [B2 emph rel] ⇨ have control of/over.

3205- have an/the edge over [B2 emph rel] (informal) be in a position of advantage compared with sb else. adj: (a) distinct, noticeable, considerable. o: neighbour, rival, competitor □ As far as having influence among those top half-dozen men, Sir Harold Johnson had the edge over Annette's father. SML □ (with reference to the US investment drive abroad) Germany has a comfortable edge over France. SC

3206- have a hold over [B2 emph rel] be able to restrict a person's freedom, decide how he wil etc, because of some special advantage one (e g information which could be used to dam him). adj: no, (not) any, (not) much of a; sli considerable. o: enemy, rival, competitor □ has a hold over you, you realize that?' 'I d see how.' 'His family own the land adjoi yours, and in time you will need that lan expand your workshops.'*

3207- have access to [B2 emph rel] be able to re or use. adj: some; no, not any/much; free, op direct, restricted. o: garden, garage; shop, ba paper, document, book; evidence, facts □ café was a large room opening out on to street, and the public had access to it. □ Thanks to the owner of a private library, I n have access to personal correspondence fr that period. □ From the flat, we have e access to shops and schools. ⇨ get access to

3208- have recourse to [B2 emph rel] use, adopt particular means (usu unpleasant) to achie one's ends; resort to (q v). o: device, ruse, tric argument, excuse, pretext; lawyer, solicito agent; the law □ He held the attention of the co pany round the bar without having recourse any tricks to make guests listen. RM □ He hop the affair could be settled without either of the having recourse to legal proceedings.

3209- have a right to sth/to do sth [B2 rel] b entitled to possess or enjoy. adj: some; no, (no any; a perfect, an undeniable. o: share, part (c property); money; assistance, help □ 'You had s many beautiful things, and Clementine...' 'He a right to some,' said Fergus softly. DC France has as much right to (or: to have nuclear weapons as Britain. SC have their tails up [B1ii] ⇨ have their tails down/up.

3211- have the wind up [B1ii] (informal) be frightened □ I don't mind actual flying, but ever time the plane takes off or lands I have the wind up. ⇨ get/put the wind up.

3212- have up (for) [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] (informal) cause to appear in court (charged with an offence). o: armed robbery, petty larceny □ 'If I see you hanging about these shops again, I'll have you up for loitering with intent.' □ That's the second time he's been had up for dangerous driving.

have a bearing upon ⇨ have a bearing on/upon.

have an effect/impact upon ⇨ have an effect/impact on/upon.

3215- have an affair (with) [B2 rel] have a sexual relationship with sb to whom one is not married (the implication is that the couple are emotionally involved, but that the relationship is impermanent: at least one of the partners may already be married; ⇨ live with). S:/o: (married) man, woman; boss, assistant □ 'I'm glad you are being married. In Havana I thought you were just having an affair.' OMIH □ Paul's first reaction to the discovery that his wife was having an affair with an old family friend was one of bewilderment rather than shock.

3216- have no truck with [B2 rel] (informal) not (be prepared to) deal with, recognize, or accept. adj: no, (not) any, little. o: vagrant, slacker; brutality, insensitivity, thoughtlessness, bad manners □ The lighthouse men had no truck with the islanders and in no sense 'belonged'. SD □ He'll have no truck with art or religion; for him everything that cannot be weighed or measured is suspect.

3217- have a way with one [B2] (informal) be able, through charm or force of personality, to lead or captivate others □ Even as a small boy he had a way with him — he charmed every elderly lady in sight. □ She was the sort of woman who had a way with her — which meant that she usually got what she wanted. LLDR

3218- have a word with [B2 rel] speak to sb (esp to make inquiries, seek advice, or reprimand). adj: quick, quiet, private. o: bank manager, house agent, solicitor; child, pupil □ 'I wonder whether I could have a word or two with you, sir.' EM □ 'John's left his room in a mess again. You promised to have a word with him about it, darling.'

3219- have words (with) [B2] (informal) talk angrily (with), esp to reproach or reprimand. o: child, pupil; employee, subordinate □ 'If you fiddle with my camera again you and I are going to have words, young man (cf I am going to have words with you)!'

3220- haze over [A1] become covered with a thin mist or cloud; lose sharpness or focus. S: sky, sun, landscape; eyes □ Whenever anyone mentions his name, her eyes haze over.

3221- head for [A2] (informal) move towards, be on a course that leads to. o: London, Spain; trouble, disaster; show-down, clash □ We headed for Turkey. BM □ 'If you go on with him, Jinny, you're heading for disaster.' ATTC □ You're heading for serious trouble. TGLY □ in American English: We were headed for Turkey/ You're headed for trouble etc.

3222- head off[1] [B1i pass] (informal) reach an important place before sb else, thus giving him important news, preventing him from escaping etc. O: enemy, thieves, bandits; stampeding herd, runaway car □ The first thing to be done was to head off the enemy from the tender spots and vital places. MFM □ 'If you take the next turning to the right, you'll be able to head them off at the big crossroads.'

3223- head off[2] [B1i pass] (informal) prevent sb from moving to a topic that is boring, or embarrassing, by getting him to think about sth else □ This grandfather was slightly easier to deal with, because it was sometimes possible to head him off; he did have one other topic that interested him — the career of Stanley Matthews. CON

3224- heal over [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) close or be sealed (with the growth of scar tissue); (of quarrels etc) (cause to) end, be mended. S: [A1] O: [B1] cut, wound; rift, breach □ The deep gash in his arm would take weeks to heal over. □ With the passage of time the divisions between the two countries have healed over.

3225- heal up [A1 B1i pass adj] get, make, completely better. S: [A1] O: [B1] wound, sore, cut; leg, arm □ Within a few weeks their feet had healed up nicely, and we had no recurrence of the trouble. DF □ I had no more bother with the rash. The swims in salt water must have healed it up.

3226- heap on/upon[1] [B2 pass emph rel] place in heaps on. O: food; rice, meat; earth, sand, rock. o: tray, plate; bank, slag-tip □ They heaped more food on my plate (or: heaped my plate with more food) than I could eat.*

3227- heap on/upon[2] [B2 pass emph rel] award to, address to, in abundance. O: honours, praise; curses, opprobrium. o: guest, explorer; disgraced leader □ His popular following was fickle: honours were heaped upon him one moment and curses the next.

heap with [B2 pass rel] ⇨ heap on/upon[1].

3229- hear from [A2 pass rel] receive news (esp a letter) from □ Mother hasn't heard from you for quite some time. She's beginning to think you must be ill. □ Until we hear from head office we can't give you your permit. □ Let's hear from you soon.

3230- hear of[1] [A2 pass] come to know (of the existence) of. o: country, firm; product, commodity □ 'Have you heard of nylon?' 'Yes, it's some kind of synthetic fibre.' □ 'Do you know Patterson?' 'No, I've never heard of him.' □ I first heard of the firm, and had dealings with them, three years ago.

3231- hear of[2] [A2 pass] have news of, have reports of the (continuing) existence of □ He disappeared from Europe about a year ago, but the police have been hearing of him in South America. □ They started out to cross the Sahara in a saloon car, and have not been heard of since.

3232- not hear of [A2] refuse to consider or allow. o: any such thing, such a thing; his paying, your resigning □ 'Smith leave our service after all these years? I won't hear of such a thing!' □ She wouldn't hear of his sharing in the expenses. □ neg, with will/would, could.

3233- hear out [B1ii pass] listen until sb has finished his remarks. A: attentively, silently □ The rest of the company heard the Astronomer Royal out with interest. TBC □ The questioner was heard out in complete silence.

3234- heat up [B1i pass adj] re-heat, for serving, food which has been cooked and allowed to get cold. O: pie, pasty; stew, goulash □ I like a freshly-cooked meal — I don't want a dish of heated-up meat and vegetables. □ Many foods now on the market are pre-cooked and only require heating up.

3235- heave in sight [A2] (nautical) appear above the horizon, become visible. S: ship, vessel □ A fourmasted schooner hove in sight.

3236- heave to [A1] (nautical) (cause to) come to a standstill (without anchoring or mooring). S: skipper, master; (sailing-)ship, clipper, barque □ The frigate fired a warning shot across the privateer's bows to make her heave to.

3237- heave (one's heart) up [A1 B1ii] (informal) be violently sick □ John must have been mixing his drinks. I found him heaving his heart up in the kitchen. □ Some politicians make you want to heave up.

3238- hedge in[1] [B1i pass adj] put a hedge around; fence in[1] (q v). O: garden, field, plot □ She began to climb the hill to Tilecotes, between the hedged-in gardens. WI □ These fields were hedged in during my grandfather's time.

3239- hedge in[2] [B1i pass adj] restrict one's freedom of action; fence in[2] (q v). S: regulation, protocol; fear, inhibition □ Custom hedged her in and made her helpless. WI □ He felt hedged in on financial matters. SC □ We were being increasingly hedged in by controls and restrictions.

3240- heel over [A1] (nautical) lean to one side. S:

ship, vessel; steamer, ferry □ The boat heeled over in a strong wind blowing up the channel.

3241-help along/forward [B1ii pass] assist the progress of. O: process, development, reaction; things, matters □ The experiment was not helped forward by Smith opening a door at the crucial moment. □ Then, to help matters along, his wife's father offered to pay the deposit on a new house for them.

3242-help off with [B3 pass] help sb to remove. S: doorman, valet, flunkey. O: guest, visitor. o: overcoat, jacket □ 'Let me help you off with your coat.'

3243-help on with [B3 pass] help sb to put on. S: footman, valet. O: guest, visitor. o: coat, cloak □ He quickly selected the least tatty-looking raincoat, which was Ned's, and began to help me on with it. CON □ The ladies were helped on with their coats and wraps.

3244-help out [A1 B1i pass] (informal) help sb to face and overcome a difficulty. O: friend, wife, ally. A: with the harvest; during the vacation, over Christmas □ Thank you again for the way you pitched in to help out during the German thrust. MFM □ Janet finished her work and crossed to help May out with hers. RFW

3245-help to [B2 pass] serve sb with. O: guest, diner; oneself. o: fish, meat, pudding □ They were helped to some more vegetables. □ The fair-haired sergeant helped himself to one of his own cigarettes. RFW

3246-hem about/around/round [B1ii pass] surround, beset. S: obstacle, problem, difficulty □ His position was precisely the same as it had been before his attempt to face the problems that hemmed him around. HD □ He felt hemmed about by forces that he was powerless to overcome.

3247-hem in [B1i pass adj] confine, restrict the movements of. S: enemy; fire, forest, snowdrifts; financial commitments, unhappy relationship □ The man looked round him with the desperate, hunted eyes of an animal hemmed in by a ring of fire. PW □ His marriage had hemmed him in. NM

3248-herd together [A1 B1i pass] gather together as, or like, a herd of animals. S: [A1] O: [B1] cattle; prisoners, refugees; guests □ Try to stop the men herding together around the bar. □ The school party was herded together and shepherded on board the ship.

3249-het up [pass (B1)] (informal) (be) irritated, excited; bothered, annoyed. A: all, quite, so, very □ Father seemed terribly het up over something last Saturday. What was bothering him? □ We needn't have got so het up about it. He did say he would like to come and stay with us again. PW □ passive with be, seem, look, sound, get.

3250-hew down [B1i pass adj] cut down with rough chopping blows; hack down (q v). O: tree, branch □ A line of poplars was hewn down to make way for an ugly parade of shops.

3251-hide away (in) [A1 nom A3 emph rel] take cover or shelter (in), conceal (oneself) (in). S: guerrilla, partisan, bandit; escaped convict; deposed ruler. o: the mountains, the jungle □ Rather than be taken into captivity, the bulk of the army hid away in the mountains and forests. □ The gang returned to their secret hideaway in shanty-town.

3252-hinge on/upon [A2 emph rel] require that some condition should first be met; hang on[3] (q v). S: result, success, outcome; everything. o: co-operation, response, reaction □ The success of the conference hinges upon the Cabinet decision which is expected at any moment. □ Everything hinged on the speed with which the armour could complete its flanking movement.

3253-hint at [A2 pass rel] indicate, mention (in a slight or indirect way). S: minister, manager, headmaster. o: tax reduction, wage standstill, further expansion, far-reaching changes □ In his annual address to the employers' federation, the Minister hinted at an increase in the capital grants for new factories. □ The possibility of an early election was inadvertently hinted at.

3254-hire out [B1i pass adj] allow temporary use of sth in return for payment. S: sailors; council, parks department. O: rowing-boats, canoes; deck chairs, umbrellas □ Punts are usually hired out by the hour. □ Hotel owners hire out changing-cabins and umbrellas by the season.

3255-hiss off (the stage) [B1i pass B2 pass] force to leave the stage by hissing in disapproval. S: audience, claque. O: actor, singer, dancer □ At his first appearance in a starring role he was hissed off by an unsympathetic audience.

3256-hit back (at) [A1 A3] (informal) counter-attack vigorously; reply with vigour to verbal attacks (e g in the press or on TV). S: bomber; tank, gun; government; trades unionist. o: airfield; emplacement; critic, opposition; employer □ As soon as an enemy battery opens fire fighter-bombers can be ordered into the air to hit back. □ In a rousing speech to party loyalists the Prime Minister hit back at those who 'sought to undermine the Government's incomes policy'.

3257-hit it off (with) [B1ii B3 emph rel] (informal) enjoy good relations (with); get along/on (with)[2] (q v) □ How well do he and his boss hit it off (or: does he hit it off with his boss)? □ I don't think they hit it off, doctor. They're at daggers drawn the whole time. ART

3258-hit the nail on the head [B2 pass] (informal) make a point, interpret a remark, precisely □ The report spoke of a period of unfulfilled promise. That hit the nail squarely on the head. T □ 'Not that Ibsen doesn't hit the moral nail on the head, every time.' HAA

3259-hit on/upon [A2 pass] (informal) suddenly devise or discover. o: scheme, idea, solution □ The committee eventually hit upon a formula that would be acceptable to all. □ Then an idea was hit upon that seemed the answer to all our problems.

3260-hit out (at)[1] [A1 A3] (cricket) attack the bowling vigorously. o: pace bowling, spin attack □ The opening batsmen seemed reluctant to hit out at the seam bowlers.

3261-hit out (at)[2] [A1 A3] (informal) make a vigorous attack (in the press, on TV etc) (against sb or sth). S: minister, church leader, trade unionist. o: restrictive practices, industrial sabotage; moral laxity; government policy □ (headline) Bishop hits out at hippie culture.

3262-hitch up [B1i pass adj] pull up at the knees (before sitting) so as to preserve the crease. O: trousers, slacks, pants □ He sat down on a kitchen chair, hitching up his trousers, carefully, as if afraid of destroying a knife-edged crease.

CON

3263-hive off [A1 B1i pass adj] (cause to) detach itself, form a separate body. S: [A1] O: [B1] swarm, colony; department, branch, section. S: [B1] beekeeper, farmer; management, planners □ There were discussions about hiving off profitable BOAC routes to a private airline. OBS □ Next year, the biochemistry section will hive off to form an independent department.

3264-hold against [B2 pass] (informal) allow sth to affect one's judgement of sb; allow to count against (q v). O: past failings, criminal record; it... that he's taught abroad; the fact that he's worked for a rival firm □ I don't hold it against him that he's spent three years in gaol. □ The fact that he's let you down once before shouldn't be held against him.

3265-hold back[1] [B1i pass] check, restrain; prevent from advancing. S: dam; barrier, fence; police, troops. O: river, flood-waters; crowd, mob □ Millions of tons of water are held back by a complex system of dykes. □ The thin cordon of police could do nothing to hold back the crowd; they flooded on to the pitch.

3266-hold back[2] [A1] hesitate to act through caution or fear; hang back (from) (q v) □ Because of the uncertain state of the market, buyers are holding back. □ She held back, not knowing what to do or say.

3267-hold back[3] [B1i pass] prevent from making progress. S: poor education, unpleasant manner, unsuitable background. O: candidate, ambitious youth □ John felt that he was held back from further promotion because of his working-class background. □ Now that the end's in sight, nothing can hold him back.

3268-hold back[4] [B1i pass] withhold, delay, the release or granting of. S: government, ministry; state corporation, employer. O: information, report; result; increase (in salary), wage award □ The laboratory has been advised to hold back any announcement of its findings. □ There will be sharp resentment if they have their salaries held back for too long. BBCTV

3269-hold down[1] [B1i pass] restrain, keep at a low level; keep down[3] (q v). S: firm, department, school. O: costs, prices; numbers; pressure □ They were blamed for their failure to hold down expenditure. SC □ Last year we had to hold down student intake because of the cuts in the grants. OBS

3270-hold down[2] [B1i pass] suppress, hold in submission; keep down[4] (q v). S: tyrant, dictator; police, army. O: country, district; people □ How long can a small force of mercenaries hold down an entire people?

3271-hold a/the job down [B1i] (informal) (manage to) remain in one job for some length of time. S: ex-convict, vagrant □ Many Borstal boys have been unable to hold down a job. T □ Father fixed him up with work when he came out of prison, but he couldn't hold the job down. □ sentence often neg; with can/could.

3272-hold (good/true) (for) [A2] apply (in the case of), be valid (for). S: remark, statement; promise, guarantee, undertaking; warning □ The same requirement holds good for any applicant wishing to study natural sciences. □ 'What I have said holds as much for houses to rent as for houses to buy.'

3273-hold no brief for [B2 emph rel] not support, feel no sympathy for. adj: no, (not) any, little. o: system, government; violence, disruption; anarchist, pacifist □ 'You don't hold any brief for him?' 'I don't know. Maybe he was sincere.' PP □ 'Don't look surprised. You know I hold no brief for people with extreme views.'

hold no fears/terrors for [B2 emph rel] = have no fears/terrors for.

3275-hold forth [A1] speak pompously, as if one's hearers were an audience, and at some length. S: commentator, pundit, critic, teacher. A: at (great, considerable, some) length □ Robert was still holding forth, in the middle of a knot of satellites. CON □ Paula introduced the carpenter, and held forth at great length on his prowess, personality, and intelligence. DF

3276-hold in [B1i pass adj] restrain, check; keep in[4] (q v). O: emotions; resentment, frustration □ Eventually these feelings could be held in no longer; there were outbreaks of violence everywhere.

3277-hold in high/low regard [B2 pass emph rel] feel considerable, little, respect for. O: president, official; office, post; degree, diploma; skill, craftsmanship □ Not that the Land Dayaks resent European authority. They hold it in the highest regard. NDN □ In such high regard is the University held that the number of applicants far exceeds the available places.

3278-hold off[1] [A1] be delayed, not occur; delay, restrain oneself. S: rain, storm, winter; enemy □ The monsoon held off for a month; then the rain fell in torrents. □ The Nationalists had held off while their troops rested and reinforcements arrived.

3279-hold off[2] [B1i pass] prevent sb from overwhelming oneself; keep at bay (q v). S: beleaguered garrison; goalkeeper; celebrity, hero; government. O: attackers; forwards; press, fans; inflation, unemployment □ For several days a small force held off the attacks of a numerically superior enemy. □ He's been holding her off for years, but sooner or later he'll have to give in.

3280-hold on[1] [A1] (informal) wait, pause; hang on[1] (q v). A: a second, a minute □ 'Just hold on a second while I get my breath back.' □ 'Tell him to hold on a minute: I haven't written down a word he's said.' □ often imper.

3281-hold on[2] [A1] stay in an exposed or dangerous position; stand firm in the face of danger; hang on[2] (q v). S: surrounded troops, shipwrecked sailors; government □ The party cut off by the tide were told to hold on; help would soon reach them. □ At the height of the financial crisis, all they could do was hold on and hope that conditions would improve.

3282-hold on[3] [B1i pass] fasten; keep in position. S: glue, pin, bar; clasp, buckle. O: knob; medal, brooch; strap □ The soles of his shoes were just held on by a few stitches. □ Use special adhesive for this job: ordinary glue won't hold the handle on.

3283-hold on to[1] [A3 pass] keep grasping sth, not let it go. o: rope; branch, root □ 'Don't panic; just hold on to that rock and I'll come and fetch you down.' □ He was holding on to a window-ledge for dear life when the fireman got to him.

3284-hold on to[2] [A3 pass] (informal) keep, retain; not give or sell to sb else; hang on to (q v). o: advantage, lead; property, shares □ It's not enough to take over the lead; we must hold on to it! □ I should hold on to those bonds: they'll appreciate considerably.

3285-hold out[1] [A1] resist, hold firm, stand fast. S: force, defence □ From a purely military point of view, the holding out in North Africa once the Mareth Line had been broken through could never be justified. MFM □ That so small a force was able to hold out against such odds is certainly proof of bravery. BM

3286-hold out[2] [A1] last, remain. S: stocks, supplies, rations □ We can stay here for as long as our supplies of food and water hold out.

3287-hold out[3] [B1iii pass] offer, afford. O: △ (the) hope, prospect, possibility □ The prospect was held out of growing prosperity in the years to come. □ Radio astronomy investigations seem to hold out the best hopes of obtaining such proof. NS

3288-hold out for [A3 rel] (informal) deliberately delay reaching an agreement in the hope that one can get more; stand out for (q v), stick out for (q v). S: politician, trades union leader, negotiating team. o: greater concessions, full amount; granting of one's demands □ Mr Smith rejected one splendid deal and is now holding out for the lot. G □ Having won the first round, the unions are likely to hold out for more than their original demand. ⇨ hold out[1].

3289-hold out (on) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) refuse to yield or surrender (to). S: dealer, seller, owner; girl. o: customer, buyer; boyfriend □ 'He's an obstinate old fool; he insisted in holding out, partly from sentiment, and partly from conceit. So we've busted him.' ASA □ 'The little minx, she's been holding out on me. She with her delusions of grandeur.' DC ⇨ hold out[1].

3290-hold over [B1ii pass adj] defer; postpone; stand over[2] (q v) S: committee, council. O: question, matter; decision, vote □ The final item on the agenda will be held over until our next meeting.

3291-hold to[1] [A2 pass adj rel] not abandon or change; stick to[2] (q v). o: choice, decision; course of action; principles, beliefs □ We shall hold firmly to what has already been agreed. □ One obstacle to a settlement is the strongly held-to conviction that the employers have already decided to close the factory.

3292-hold to[2] [B2 pass rel] make sb keep or be faithful to. o: promise, guarantee, assurance; offer, proposal □ 'You can have the car when I go abroad.' 'I'll hold you to that.' □ One promise to which they must be held is that there will be no more redundancies.

3293-not hold a candle to [B2] (informal) not (be able to) match, emulate, sb, sb's achievements. S: industry, transport; organization, set-up; method, process. o: rival, competitor □ In speed and efficiency of delivery we can't hold a candle to our European competitors. □ 'What about Arsenal's chances for the Cup?' 'They can't hold a candle to Leeds.' □ with can/could.

3294-hold together [A1 B1i pass] remain united; unite. S: [A1] O: [B1] country, political party; membership, followers □ The Party has held together wonderfully during the current crisis. □ What has held the Christian Democrats together? SC

3295-hold under [B1ii pass] suppress, hold in submission; keep under[3] (q v). S: regime, dictatorship; police, troops. O: (subject, colonial) people, race □ The country is held under by appeals to patriotism, some economic inducement, and, where necessary, force.

3296-hold up[1] [B1i nom pass adj] delay; halt. S: strike, working to rule; flooding, landslide; narrow road, pressure of traffic. O: production, delivery; traffic, travellers □ (picture caption) Ships held up by the strike of dockers at Liverpool G □ (headline) Industry hit by docks holdup. G □ 'What's the holdup?' 'We're usually on our way by now.' BBCTV □ The worst road hold-ups were on the A74 Glasgow to Carlisle road. SC □ in current usage nom is holdup —without a hyphen.

3297-hold up[2] [B1i nom pass] force by the threat of violence to hand over money or valuables. S: gang, bandit. O: bank, post-office; coach, train □ Masked men held up a wages van in South London. □ After the holdup, the gang got away in a fast car. □ in current usage nom is holdup— without a hyphen.

3298-hold up as an example [B3 pass] offer as a model (of conduct, success etc) to be imitated □ I wish he'd stop holding up the elder brother as an example to emulate: it's bad for the young one's confidence.

3299-hold up to ridicule/scorn [B2 pass] mock, scorn, sb or sth, and try to make others do the same. O: colleague, associate; values, standards; work, achievement □ It's a common thing to hear democratic socialism held up to ridicule, rather less common to hear serious alternatives proposed.

3300-(not) hold with [A2] (informal) (not) support, feel sympathy for; (not) approve of[2] (q v). o: plan, scheme, idea; blood sports; socialism; religion □ I don't hold with all this revolutionary talk. □ 'Why did you enter (for the contest) if you don't hold with it?' CON □ hardly ever positive except when used in questions.

3301-hold one's own (with) [B2 emph rel] be able to compete successfully or on equal terms (with). S: industry, factory; worker, designer; athlete, footballer; soldier. o: anyone, everybody; opposition, competition □ Scottish teams cannot hold their own with the best in Europe. SC □ Those who liked champagne were able to hold their own with those who preferred whisky. RM

3302-hole out [A1] (golf) sink the ball in the hole □ A young man sees no reason why he should not hole out and, in his ignorance, he does so more often than most. If he retains his faith in his ability to hole out then he remains a good putter. OBS

3303-hole up [A1] (slang) hide, seek refuge □ The gang has holed up somewhere in the mountains. □ He'd holed up at a local motel. BBCTV

3304-home onto [A2 rel] move or be directed towards. S: aircraft, spacecraft. o: (radar) beam; signal, impulse □ Especially in fog, or at night, an approaching aircraft will home onto a radar beam and in this way be guided to its destination.

3305-hook up [B1i pass] fasten (a garment) by means of 'hooks and eyes'. O: dress; girl □ Her evening dress had to be hooked up at the back — a much slower process than zipping it up (q v). □ 'Do you mind hooking me up?' she said.

3306 hook-up [nom (B1)] linking of radio or TV stations to transmit the same programme □ There was a nation-wide hook-up to carry the President's state of the Union message.

3307 hoot off [B1ii pass B2 pass] force to leave, stop speaking, with hoots of disapproval. S: audience, public. O: actor, speaker. o: the stage, the platform □ Whenever the Minister tries to explain his policies in public he's hooted off.

3308 hop off [A1] (slang) leave, go away □ *'*Hop off before you get a thick ear.' □ 'If you see anyone hanging around here tell them to hop off.' □ usu imper.

3309 hope (for) [A2 pass adj rel] hope that sth will take place, be granted etc. o: change, improvements; success, victory; reduction, easing (of tension, strife) □ The travelling public is hoping for an early settlement of the rail dispute. □ Where is the hoped-for takeover by a moderate administration? G

3310 hope for the best [A2] hope that all will end well □ I don't know how the negotiations will go. All we can do is sit back and hope for the best. □ Virginia knew that Ella came to see Joe; but there was nothing she could do about it, except hope for the best. AITC

3311 horn in (on) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) by cunning or force get oneself into a situation which seems profitable; muscle in (on) (q v). S: (get-rich-quick) trader, publisher, writer. o: deal, racket, market □ They had come up for the day with no other motive than to horn in on Myra's second wedding (= gatecrash the party). CON □ Mike started planning my campaign like a Desert General who hasn't yet horned in on the memoir racket (= made money from writing war memoirs). JFTR

3312 horse about/around [A1] (informal) play about in a noisy, clumsy way; engage in horseplay □ There was a certain amount of horsing about in the dressing-room after the game was over.

3313 hose down [B1i nom pass] wash from top to bottom with water from a hose. O: car, shop-front, window □ I give the car a good hose down every Sunday morning. □ no hyphen in nom form.

3314 hot up [A1] (informal) intensify, increase. S: struggle, contest; trade, business □ Competition in the British sea cruise market is hotting up visibly after the successful launching of the Travel Savings Association. T

3315 hound out/out of [B1ii pass B2 pass] (informal) force sb to leave (often by a conspiracy to damage his good name etc). S: envious colleague, political rival. o: job, Cabinet post □ Do you want to get me hounded out of the Civil Service altogether? SML □ By digging up a few unsavoury details about his past they managed to have him hounded out.

3316 howl down [B1ii pass] prevent sb from being heard by shouting scornfully. S: crowd, audience. O: speaker □ The guest speaker was howled down, and it was some time before the chairman could restore order.

3317 huddle together [A1] move, press, close, together for warmth or protection. S: sheep, cattle; children, refugees □ The children huddled together on a pile of old sacks.

3318 hum with [A2] be in a state of intense activity. S: factory, classroom, kitchen. o: life, activity □ The mill is very streamlined, scientific, and it fairly hums with wheels. WI hung over [pass (B1)] ⇨ hangover/hung over.

hung up [pass (B1)] ⇨ hang-up/hung up.

hung with [pass (B2)] ⇨ hang over[3].

3322 hunger for [A2 emph rel] long to have sth (which one may have lacked). o: news, information; (new) experience, change; excitement, sensation □ He hungered for some contact outside his own circumscribed world. □ The letters for which she hungered grew fewer, then stopped altogether.

3323 hunt down [B1i pass] pursue and find. S: police, guard, tracker dog. O: escaped prisoner, criminal □ Small detachments left hiding out in the forest were hunted down by our men.

3324 hunt out [B1i pass] search for, and find, sth that was previously used and has been put away. S: housewife. O: old clothes, family photographs □ I'll have to hunt out the children's old clothes to give to the rag and bone man when he calls. □ I've got the picture for you somewhere, but it'll need some hunting out.

3325 hunt up (in) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] search for sth (in). S: scholar, research worker. O: reference, quotation, detail. o: library, archives; dictionary, atlas □ He's hunting up details of Elizabethan household expenditure in a document of the time.

3326 hurl (at) [B2 pass emph rel] throw violently (at); fling (at) (q v). O: spear, stone; abuse, taunt, insult; oneself. o: troops, police; speaker □ The streets were littered with stones and bottles hurled at the soldiers. □ The full-back hurled himself full length at the man's legs.

3327 hurry up [A1 B1ii pass] (informal) (cause to) make haste □ 'I wish the bus would hurry up and come; I've been waiting here for hours.' □ *'*Hurry those children up!' □ The estate agent seems helpful enough, but he needs hurrying up.

3328 hush up [B1i pass] prevent sth from becoming known. O: matter, thing; it (all); loss, theft □ You can't hush a thing like this up. EM □ It'd all be hushed up. NM □ They tried to hush up the small matter of ten thousand being missing from the till.

I

3329 ice over [A1] become covered with ice; freeze over (q v). S: lake, pond, pool, river; road □ When a road ices over it can be extremely dangerous, because drivers may mistake the coating of ice for dampness. □ The children were delighted to find that the pond had iced over during the night; perhaps, after all, they would be able to try out their new skates.

3330 ice up [A1 B1i pass] be covered, cover, with ice and be made, make, unworkable or unusable because of it. S: [A1] O: [B1] wings, machinery, rigging □ The superstructure of the boat had iced up dangerously during the night, putting it in peril of capsizing. □ In the days before the introduction of de-icing control systems, a pilot had to be careful about flying at high altitudes as the plane's wings might get iced up. □ The flying spray had iced up every inch of the deck and everything on it.

3331-identify with[1] [A2 emph rel] find one's own feelings reflected in or in some way represented by; take as a model. o: character (in a play); father, teacher □ I found the play unsatisfactory: there wasn't a single character — hero or anti-hero — with whom I could identify.

3332-identify with[2] [B2 pass emph rel] accept as representing one's ideas, intentions etc. O: army, military commander; central government, party, movement, revolution; oneself. o: progress, the forces of reaction □ As the Army closed in on the beleaguered town, the Governor announced that he could no longer identify himself with the policies of the Central Government. □ The university authorities are identified in the minds of the students' leaders with the forces of reaction.

3333-idle about [A1] be inactive, not bestir oneself. S: young man, lazy fellow, unoccupied soldiers □ John was a very active sort of person and could not bear to see others idling about when they might have been working or at least occupying themselves healthily.

3334-idle one's/the time away [B1i] pass the time in an idle or wasteful way, whether voluntarily or not. S: soldier, pupil □ The troops had nothing to do but idle the time away while waiting for a ship to come and take them off the beaches. □ When you find yourself sitting in front of an examination paper you'll regret idling your time away in empty conversation.

3335-imbued with [pass (B2)] (formal) (be) filled with. o: a desire to do good; a driving ambition; patriotism; hatred of ignorance and superstition □ The true scientist is imbued with the urge to discover something new about man and his environment.

3336-immerse in [B2 pass emph rel] plunge below the surface of; become totally absorbed in, interested by. O: himself; his head. o: water; pleasure, work; book, the morning paper □ When a body is immersed in a fluid it apparently loses weight (Archimedes' Principle). □ When Alfred inherited his father's estate he immersed himself in pleasure. Before long, he found that there was little money left. □ I walked into the study and found Mr Johnson immersed in his writing, as usual.

3337-immure in [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) confine to (part of) a building; imprison in. O: himself; his daughter, wife. o: attic, study; convent, the house □ Old Silas went out of his mind and immured himself in the attic. He never went out from one year's end to another. □ It used to be the custom for erring daughters to be immured in a convent, and sometimes forced to remain there till the end of their days.

3338-impale on [B2 pass emph rel] stick on the end of. O: victim; tyrant; child. o: pole, spear, spiked shaft □ After the Restoration of the Monarchy, Cromwell's head was impaled on a pole and displayed to the public. □ In 'Lord of the Flies', the children impaled a pig's head on a spear.

3339-impart to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) give to; communicate to. O: movement; news, secret; an aura of authenticity □ The batsman completely failed to realize that strong leg-spin had been imparted to the ball by the bowler. □ The presence of an establishment figure in the person of Lady Mildew imparted some semblance of 'respectability' to what was otherwise a pretty rebellious crowd.

3340-impel to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) drive sb to do sth, sometimes against his desire or inclination. o: firm measures, drastic steps, greater efforts; crime □ Their feeling that the moment was ripe for action impelled the Party to still greater efforts. □ The extreme measures to which the Cabinet was impelled by the ever-increasing inflation made the government extremely unpopular in the country.

3341-impinge on/upon [A2 emph rel] (formal) affect in some way; strike, touch □ The so-called revolution scarcely seemed to have impinged upon the habits and standard of living of the wealthy. □ In his sleepy state the sound of a car driving up to the door scarcely impinged on his consciousness.

3342-implant (in) [B2 pass emph rel] put (in), establish (in), in such a way as to be not easily removed or eradicated. O: idea, notion; desire, terror, fear. o: mind; them □ Milton implanted in his daughters a great fear of, if not respect for, their father. □ The young revolutionary implanted in the peasants a burning desire to take and own the land on which they had for so long slaved.

3343-implicate (in) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) cause to be a party (to); (passive only) share the guilt or responsibility (for). O: others; colleague, workmate. o: crime; murder, fraud; plot, scandal □ 'Your own part in this crime is despicable enough, but your attempt to implicate an innocent person in it passes description.' □ It came as a great shock to the old lady to find that her sons had been implicated in the plot to kidnap a child.

3344-import (from) (into) [B2 pass emph rel] bring (from one country, culture, language etc) (to another). O: transistors, cotton goods, motor-cars; drugs, cannabis; cholera; fashions □ The police caught a young couple trying to import a huge quantity of heroin from somewhere in the Mediterranean. □ In every country there are people who would like to prevent foreign words being imported into their language.

3345-impose (on) [B2 pass emph rel] place (on), put on[5] (q v). O: tax, levy, duty; purchase tax, value added tax (VAT); task, burden, obligation □ The government would not dare to impose taxes on such necessities as bread or milk. □ I am sorry to impose a new burden on you so soon after your illness, but there is no one else who is capable of doing this work.

3346-impose on/upon [A2 pass] obtain a favour from sb, esp by using undue pressure. o: generous, kind person; his generosity, kindness, good nature □ 'Really, Mary! You must not be so generous towards everyone who comes asking you for money. Don't allow yourself to be imposed upon!' □ 'Could I impose on you for a little help with this letter? I don't quite know the best way to phrase it without causing offence.'

3347-impose oneself/one's company on/upon [B2 rel] inconvenience sb by one's presence □ As there was no train until the evening he was forced to impose himself on his hosts for longer than he had intended. He was aware that he had outstayed his welcome. □ The outing was ruined for everyone by a drunken tramp who imposed his company on the party and could not be shaken off.

3348-impress on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] in saying or writing something to sb, try to stress or fix some aspect of it in his mind. O: the importance of..., the need to..., the desirability of...; his parting words; itself, themselves □ They impressed on their children the virtue of always telling the truth. □ The dying man's words were impressed on my memory, though I could not understand them; 'Look beyond the sunset... beyond the sunset...,' he said (cf His words impressed themselves on my memory etc). □ On all the witnesses the judge impressed the necessity of telling everything they knew about the movements of the accused. ⇨ impress with.

3349-impress (with) [B2 pass] produce a positive or favourable 'impression' on. o: her strong character; beauty, intelligence, learning, gaiety, ingenuity, resilience □ The girl impressed her fiancé's relations with her vivacity and sense of humour. □ The spectators were greatly impressed with (or: by) the jockey's skill in bringing his difficult mount first past the winning post.

3350-impress with [B2 pass] fix sth in sb's mind. o: the need for secrecy; urgency, importance (of the task) □ The office manager impressed the new bookkeeper with the importance (or: impressed upon the new book-keeper the importance) of keeping the accounts balanced day by day. ⇨ impress on/upon.

3351-improve on [A2 pass] do better than, produce sth of a better standard or quality than. S: athlete; candidate; artist; beautician. o: previous best time, performance; earlier attempt; early work; nature □ The girl improved on her previous performance by swimming the distance in less than a minute. □ The art of hair stylists is to improve on nature, though some of the so-called improvements leave one in doubt about their ability!

3352-impute to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) hold responsible for, attribute to[1] (qv). O: failure, accident, débâcle □ Never one to see his own weaknesses, he had no hesitation in imputing the failure of his marriage to his wife's shortcomings. □ At the inquest, the accident was imputed to a mechanical failure of the signalling system.

3353-incarcerate (in) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) imprison (in). o: dungeon, cell; convent, house in the country □ The young bride complained that she was incarcerated in a Victorian mansion, far from her relatives and friends. □ Many people think that it is wrong to incarcerate criminals in confined quarters for as long as thirty years.

3354-inch (one's way) across, along, back, etc [A1 A2 B1ii B2] move carefully across etc inch by inch. ⇨ edge (one's way) across etc.

3355-incite to [B2 pass] encourage or urge to participate in. o: crime; murder, mutiny, rebellion □ In all countries any person who incites others to insurrection is guilty of treason. □ The boy's punishment was made more severe because he had incited other normally well-behaved pupils to open defiance of the school authorities.

3356-incline forward [A1] lean towards sth or sb □ As the old lady's voice grew weaker, the solicitor inclined forward in an attempt to catch her last words.

3357-incline to [A2 B2 pass] (formal) tend to support or accept; tend to develop. S: [A2] O: [B2] court, jury; assessor, examiner. S: [B2] evidence, observation. o: view, opinion □ 'I've listened to all your arguments in favour of releasing the prisoner, but I'm afraid that in spite of all you have said I incline to (or: am inclined to) the opposite opinion. He will go to prison for three months.' □ She would be beautiful if she didn't incline to obesity.

3358-incline towards [A2] bend, lean, in the direction of. o: speaker; the Left, the Right □ As the noise outside the hall increased we all inclined towards the speaker, straining to hear him. □ More and more people are inclining towards the Liberal Party as they become disenchanted with the two main parties that have governed the country for half a century.

3359-include among [B2 pass emph rel] give as part of, as one of. O: name; uncle; film-star, pop-singer; Greek; playing the tuba. o: the missing; guests, acquaintances; his talents □ The names of two of my friends were included among those listed as missing after the raid behind the enemy's lines. □ Among John's talents was included the unusual one of being able to tell you the name of any semi-precious stone you showed him.

3360-include (in) [B2 pass emph rel] make, or consider as, part (of). O: tools, supply of spare parts; latest composition; difficult questions; me. o: purchase price; concert; examination; list of contributors □ Are the books included in the sale of the bookcase, or are they a separate lot? □ Sam Goldwyn, a Hollywood film-magnate, when invited to take part in something of which he did not approve, exclaimed 'Include me out!'

3361-incorporate (in/into) [B2 pass emph rel] make a part or feature (of). O: new ideas, theories, proposals; methods, processes; subsidiary companies. o: article, book, plan, thesis; main organization □ The Government has incorporated in the Bill many of the suggestions put forward by the Opposition (cf The Bill incorporates many of the suggestions etc). □ Many new safety features have been incorporated in the new version of this popular car.

3362-inculcate (in) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) establish, fix by example, precept and repetition; instil in (qv). O: duty, respect, principles. o: him, his mind □ The priest inculcated in his parishioners the need to live pure, honest lives, 'in the service of God'. □ In all of their followers the party leaders inculcated the need to lead pure, honest lives, 'in the service of the community'.

3363-indent (for) [A2 pass rel] apply formally (for), according to a set procedure. o: supply of stationery; equipment □ As it takes some time for an application to be approved, you should always indent for your office requirements well in advance.

3364-indoctrinate (with) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) deliberately teach sb to hold certain views, attitudes etc, possibly using methods that leave the person unable to resist, or to maintain opposite ideas. o: Catholicism; Communism, Socialism □ It was clear that our guests had been indoctrinated with some strange notion that the end of the world would come in 1984. □ It is against the Geneva Convention for prisoners to be indoctrinated with ideas alien to their culture and cherished beliefs.

3365-induce (in) [B2 pass emph rel] (physics; formal) cause to enter. O: current, magnetism; certain attitudes. o: wire, filings; the mind □ it is a simple matter to induce magnetism in an iron bar, given the necessary equipment. □ The sweet music and dim lights induced in the couple a feeling of euphoria that was enhanced by liberal draughts of gin and whisky.

3366-indulge in [A2] allow oneself to have. o: an occasional glass of wine, a Mediterranean cruise, the luxury of a sauna bath; criticism of others □ We were surprised when Mr Silas offered us an interest-free loan: it was so unlike him to indulge in such philanthropy. □ On Sunday afternoons, a lot of working men indulge in a short sleep in front of the fire.

3367-infatuated (with) [pass (B2)] (be) strongly attracted (to); (be) foolishly affected (by). o: young woman, married man; self-esteem □ After thirty years of happy married life, Alfred suddenly became infatuated with a girl of nineteen and left his family to live with her. □ It is impossible to reason with anyone so infatuated with his own importance as your brother.

3368-infect (with) [B2 pass rel] give, pass (a disease) (to); cause to behave, or feel, in a similar way (to). O: water; air; him, others. o: disease, cholera; germs; good humour, enthusiasm; need, desire □ Some of the refugees were suffering from cholera and it was not long before they had infected the drinking-water with the disease. □ During an epidemic of influenza the air in trains and buses quickly becomes infected with germs. □ The whole class was infected with the teacher's own enthusiasm for the subject. □ It was the desire with which numerous investors were infected to get in on the boom at any price that led to the astronomical rises in Australian mining shares.

3369-infer from [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) draw a conclusion from; deduce (from) (q v). O: that something had happened. o: his behaviour; your comments; the reports I have heard □ From his demeanour on entering the room I inferred that the interview had not gone well for him. □ The judge inferred from the answers of the witness that he was trying to conceal something.

3370-infiltrate into [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (cause to) enter, penetrate, in a surreptitious way; pass into, in small numbers or quantities. S: [A2] O: [B2] troops, spies, agents; ideas □ The company managed to infiltrate two or three men into their rival's Research and Development unit, and so were kept informed of everything that they were doing. □ If only a handful of commandos could infiltrate into (or: be infiltrated into) the enemy's defensive positions, the attack would have a good chance of success.

3371-inflict on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] cause sb to suffer or undergo. O: wound; irreparable damage; defeat; death penalty; a long recital, oneself. o: him etc; country, city; enemy; murderer; captive audience □ It is many years since the death penalty was last inflicted on anyone in Britain. □ Montgomery believed in assembling an overwhelming force and then inflicting a crushing blow on his opponent. □ 'I won't inflict myself on you today. I can see you're too busy to listen to my complaints!'

3372-inform against/on [A2 pass] betray sb to one's enemies, the police etc. o: one's friends, comrades, fellow-conspirators □ The IRA (Irish Republican Army) deals ruthlessly with anyone who informs against one of its members.

3373-infuse into [B2 pass emph rel] by means of oratory, exhortation etc, fill with; inspire (in) (q v). O: renewed interest, curiosity; enthusiasm, spirit. o: men, followers, army, class □ The leader had the gift of being able to infuse enthusiasm into the most sceptical member of the group (or: being able to infuse the most sceptical member of the group with enthusiasm).

infuse¹ with [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ previous entry.

3375-ingratiate oneself (with) [B2 emph rel] seek to obtain the favour of, even at the expense of one's dignity, principles etc □ It was sickening to watch young Stevenson trying to ingratiate himself with the professor, knowing as we did how much the old man detested and despised him.

3376-inhibit (from) [B2 pass] make sb hesitate, or be reluctant, to do sth. S: upbringing; (previous) failures, rebuffs. o: talking to women; expressing his opinion, saying what he feels, fulfilling his desires; evil impulses □ His strict upbringing inhibited him from asking questions, with the result that he tended to get left out of any serious discussion.

3377-initiate (into) [B2 pass emph rel] make sb familiar (with), make sb a member (of), esp in a ceremonial way. o: mysteries of antique-collecting; the art of fencing; the family circle; club, society, masonic order □ The poet Laurie Lee was initiated into the mystery of love by a young girl called Rosie. □ The youths were initiated into manhood by the most frightful ordeals imaginable.

3378-inject into¹ [B2 pass rel] make sth enter the body, by means of a hypodermic needle etc. O: drug, serum, solution. o: arm, finger; vein, bloodstream; child □ A nurse has to take care not to inject air into the bloodstream of her patients. □ It was pitiful to see the young addicts injecting drugs into their veins for a few hours of relief from their craving. □ Be careful not to inject this strong solution into a young child (or: not to inject a young child with this strong solution).

3379-inject into² [B2 pass] (formal) change the tone of, by the addition of some positive, usu brighter, element. O: some life; a little gaiety, enthusiasm. o: proceedings, performance, meeting □ The whole business was as dull as ditch-water until old Mrs Appleby got to her feet and started to inject a little life into the discussion.

inject with [B2 pass rel] ⇨ inject into¹.

3381-ink in [B1i pass adj] use ink to write words on a map, fill an empty space in a drawing etc; go over with ink anything already drawn or written in pencil. O: place-names, background □ 'Your drawing would look better if you were to ink in the area to the left of the mill, perhaps with some bushes or distant mountains.'

3382-inlay with [B2 pass rel] set in the surface of. O: tray, table, cigarette-box. o: gold, silver; ivory, bone □ Chiniot, in the Punjab, is famous for its trays inlaid with metal. □ The tomb of Jehangir Khan was inlaid with semi-precious stones. □ usu passive.

3383-inoculate (against) [B2 pass rel] (medicine) protect against a disease, by means of an injection. O: population, refugees, inhabitants. o: smallpox, cholera, yellow fever □ The Red Cross nurses worked eighteen hours a day, inoculating tens of thousands of people against the dreaded cholera. □ 'Have you been inoculated against typhoid fever?'

3384-inquire (about) [A2 rel] seek information (about). o: times of trains, package holidays to Greece, the possibility of getting a job □ 'There was a lady in here a few minutes ago inquiring about domestic help. I told her that we weren't an employment agency.' □ Where ought I to go to inquire about London bus-tours?

3385-inquire after [A2 pass] ask about the welfare, state of health, of; ask after (q v) □ I met your old friend Joshua the other day. He was inquiring after you, and sent his kind regards. □ It's reassuring to be inquired after when you're ill. It shows your friends haven't stopped being concerned about you.

3386-inquire for [A2] ask to see, ask if sth is available. o: boss, manager; you □ 'While you were out, a young man rang up inquiring for you. He said he would ring again later.' □ 'If you're passing the optician's this morning, would you mind dropping in and inquiring for my new specs?'

3387-inquire into [B2 pass] investigate, look into² (q v). S: police; headmaster; assistant manager. o: attack on a girl, robbery; leak of the examination questions; complaint; the matter □ I told the policeman that I was worried by the noises from the empty house next door, and he said he would inquire into it.

3388-inquire of [A2 B2] put questions to sb. O: reason; why the train is late, whether he will attend o: me; maid, telephonist, gardener, clerk. □ If you want to know about getting a visa for Thailand it's not much use inquiring of your Icelandic friends! Write to the Consul or the Ambassador—someone in authority. □ The old lady inquired of a bystander the reason for the delay in the Queen's arrival. □ when the Object in the [B2] pattern is a clause, it follows the prep phrase.

3389-inscribe in/on [B2 pass rel] make letters, marks etc in or on. O: name, year, record, account of a battle. o: tomb, stone, tablet, wall; silver cup, plate, cigarette-box, watch □ When Mr Fotheringay retired he was presented with a gold watch in which his name and the dates of his service (1924–1974) were inscribed. □ The story of Adam and Eve was inscribed on the door of the Cathedral (or: The door was inscribed with the story etc).

inscribe with [B2 pass rel] ⇨ previous entry.

3391-insert between [B2 pass emph rel] push, place, between. O: comma; wad of cotton, paper, cloth; piece of rubber. o: two words; teeth; wires □ These plugs would be safer if you could insert some kind of insulating material between the wires.

3392-insert in/into [B2 pass emph rel] push, place, in/into. O: plug; key; hand; advertisement; extra paragraph; coin. o: socket; lock; bag; magazine; article; slot □ (instructions on a vending machine) Insert a 5p piece into the slot and pull the drawer. □ As soon as the burglar inserted his jemmy into the window the hidden detectives leapt out and arrested him.

3393-insinuate oneself into [B2] gradually enter by stealth or deceit o: the meeting; boss's favour, confidence □ The cat somehow insinuated itself into the larder, and feasted off a large joint of meat. □ The office-staff watched the new typist trying to insinuate herself into the manager's favour and were much amused. They had seen it all before!

3394-insist on/upon [A2] do sth, require sth, maintain sth, in spite of objections from others. o: going for a walk, helping me with my work; a replacement for the broken part; an answer; his innocence; absolute secrecy □ They lived together as man and wife, but she insisted on paying the rent out of her own salary. □ She didn't really want tea, but Nurse Ellen insisted on making it. DC □ I was perfectly well five minutes after my fall, but my hostess insisted on sending for a doctor. □ The only thing that worried the detective about the case was that Willie insisted on his innocence, and somehow he sounded convincing.

3395-inspire (in) [B2 pass emph rel] produce (in sb), as a result of one's behaviour, example etc; infuse into (q v). S: he etc; example; courage, spirit; authority, assured manner. O: confidence, enthusiasm, hope, the desire to emulate (him) □ It was my father's courage and devotion that inspired in his men the determination (or: inspired his men with the determination) to hold out against what seemed like overwhelming odds. □ The doctor's clumsy handling of the syringe did not inspire confidence (in his nervous patient) (or: did not inspire his nervous patient with confidence).

inspire (with) [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ previous entry.

3397-install (in) [B2 pass emph rel] place, establish, fix, in. O: oneself; visitor, newcomer; new bookcase; television. o: the easy chair; back room, new home; library, lounge; corner of the room □ The mistress of the house reluctantly installed the two refugees in a spare room. □ 'Don't forget that the men are coming to install the refrigerator (in the kitchen) this morning.' □ visitor, newcomer etc can function as Subject where Object is the reflexive pronoun: The newcomer installed himself in the large leather chair….

3398-instil in [B2 pass emph rel] establish, fix firmly by teaching and repetition; inculcate (in) (q v). O: the fear of God, a healthy respect for the law, obedience. o: him, his mind □ My parents were very puritanical and instilled in me the value of a God-fearing, self-denying sort of existence. □ The idea was gradually instilled in the mind of the young prince (or: The mind of the young prince was gradually instilled with the idea) that he was of almost god-like importance and far above other men.

instil (with) [B2 pass] ⇨ previous entry.

3400 instruct in [B2 pass emph rel] give sb lessons in. O: children; soldiers; students. o: hygiene; the use of weapons; computer technology □ When the visitor entered the classroom, the group of handicapped men were being instructed in weaving.

3401 insulate (from) (with) [B2 pass emph rel] keep separate from, prevent contact with. O: (power) drill, radio; experimental laboratory, space vehicle. o: (from) the main current; the surroundings; (with) fuse, pvc (polyvinyl chloride); heat shield □ It is important to insulate the furnace from any neighbouring woodwork with brick and asbestos. □ The recording studio should be well insulated from any source of noise. □ If the wires are not well insulated with rubber or some other non-conductor, there will be a grave risk of fire.

3402 insure against [A2 pass B2 pass] protect oneself etc by means of an insurance policy (a contract which guarantees the payment of money in certain circumstances); cover (against) (q v); take measures against. O: oneself; possessions; car, house, yacht. o: death, loss of a limb; theft, fire, total loss, damage (by flood or storm) □ Every father should insure himself against premature death or prolonged illness for the sake of his wife and children. □ Take care that all eventualities are insured against. □ The general tried to insure against defeat by building up an overwhelming force of artillery and tanks.

3403 integrate (with) [B2 pass rel] (formal) make an essential part (of); cause to form a whole (with). O: building; river; college. o: setting, canal system; university □ The new residential blocks were skilfully integrated with the rest of the College to form a pleasing, self-contained whole. □ One of the attractive features of the course was the way the practical work had been integrated with the theoretical aspects of the subject (or: the way the practical work and the theoretical aspects had been integrated).

3404 intend for [B2 pass rel] wish sb to have or receive sth; propose that sb should enter or join sth □ In the nineteenth century younger sons were often intended for the Church, the Army or the colonies. □ 'I intended these flowers for your mother, but as she is away I'd be glad if you would accept them.' □ The parcel of explosive did not reach the man for whom it was intended.

3405 inter (in) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) bury (in). O: body, mortal remains, ashes; victims of the air disaster □ The old man said that he wished to be interred in the family grave.

3406 intercede (with) [A2] (formal) approach sb in authority on behalf of sb else. o: Home Secretary; girl's father; men's leader; Governor □ A group of MPs promised to intercede with the Home Office on behalf of the girl who, though in prison, was said to be mentally ill. □ We approached a friend, hoping that he would intercede *(*with the headmaster) to prevent John's expulsion, but he refused to do anything about it.

3407 interest in [B2 rel] help, lead, sb to study sth with interest. O: oneself; one's pupils; customer; visitor; the public. o: local history; new car; buildings; environment □ Mr James was a gifted teacher of economics, who managed to interest his students in every aspect of the subject. □ Astronomy was one of the subjects in which he had interested himself while in the Sixth Form.

3408 interfere in [A2 rel] show an undue interest in sth which is not one's concern, meddle in (q v). o: his affairs; things that don't concern you; their marriage □ I advise you not to interfere in matters that you don't fully understand and which are in any case none of your business. □ There are certain aspects of nature in which it is, to say the least, unwise for men to interfere.

3409 interfere with[1] [A2 pass] disturb, mishandle, sth without sb's permission; meddle with (q v). o: my bicycle; these papers; the manager's private correspondence □ 'Who's been interfering with my wine? Somebody's been trying to syphon it off, and now it's all over the floor!'

3410 interfere with[2] [A2 pass] (euphemism) attack, assault, usu sexually, and possibly violently. o: girl, woman; boy, child □ Medical evidence was called to prove that the murdered girl had been brutally interfered with.

3411 interfere with[3] [A2] be an obstacle to, hinder. o: business, duty; important matters, progress; his research □ Some people say that if your business interferes with your leisure you should cut out some of your business! □ 'Nothing must be allowed to interfere with our search for the truth!'

3412 interlard with [B2 pass rel] (formal or jocular) make part of a text, with the aim, or effect, of impressing, shocking, etc. O: book, poem, speech, writings. o: purple passages, biblical allusions, foreign phrases, slang expressions □ It is extraordinary how readily the modern newspaper editor will interlard his leading articles with expressions that would have been quite unacceptable forty years ago. How times change! □ The Chairman interlarded his speech with patently insincere praise for all and sundry.

3413 interleave with [B2 pass rel] place between the leaves of a book □ Meg enjoyed my gift more than I would have thought possible: a little drawing book interleaved with transparent paper for tracing.

3414 intermarry (with) [A2 rel] make or allow marriages (with) □ Many a tribe and ruling house has survived by intermarrying with its rivals, rather than waging war on them. □ The priestly caste does not normally intermarry with the warrior caste (or: The priestly and the warrior castes do not normally intermarry).

3415 intermingle (with) [A2 rel] mix (with), in such a manner as to be no longer or not easily identifiable; move about freely together, not avoiding others. S: detectives, pickpockets, agents. o: crowd, football supporters, holiday-makers, audience □ Several policewomen, glamorously clothed for the occasion, intermingled with the gamblers, looking out for the drug-pushers who were said to operate in the club. □ People from a hundred countries intermingled *freely (*with each other) at the Olympic Games.

3416 intern (in) [B2 pass emph rel] imprison, confine (in) (often as a preventive measure and without trial). O: aliens, suspected members of an illegal army, anarchists. o: camp, prison □ The number of persons interned in special camps in Northern Ireland was over six hundred at the beginning of 1972.

intersperse among/between [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ next entry.

3418-intersperse with [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) put in, insert, here and there; interrupt from time to time. O: trees; speech; report; book. o: evergreen shrubs; jokes directed at the Duke; amusing comment; biographical notes and references □ The trees were interspersed with evergreen shrubs (or: Evergreen shrubs were interspersed among the trees). □ I could never have completed the work if it had not been interspersed with regular visits to the pub for a chat with my friends. □ The poor fellow arrived home soaked to the skin, and his account of how he had fallen into the river was liberally interspersed with fits of sneezing. □ often passive.

3419-intervene (between) [A2] place oneself between, adopt a mediating role (between). S: policeman, bystander; boy; referee. o: two drunken men; mother and father; contestants □ The woman tried to intervene between her husband and son, but she was roughly pushed aside. □ 'I would advise you not to intervene (between those two drunks). You might get hurt.'

3420-intervene (in) [A2 emph rel] enter, whether by invitation or not, and whether in a conciliatory role or not. o: quarrel, dispute; debate, discussion; the affairs of another country □ Kennedy's attempt to intervene in the affairs of Cuba met with a severe rebuff at the Bay of Pigs. □ The Prime Minister decided that it was unnecessary for him to intervene personally in the debate on the future of Concorde. □ Anyone who intervenes (in the quarrel) may find that it is not easy to avoid deep involvement.

3421-intimidate (into) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) cause to act in a particular way, through fear or by means of threats; frighten into (q v). O: small boy; servant; witness. o: giving away his sweets; leaving a window open; keeping quiet □ 'My Lord, it is obvious that the witness is being intimidated (into remaining silent). In the circumstances, I would request that he be given police protection and a warning of the penalty for perjury or for concealing knowledge of a crime.' □ This child cannot be blamed for performing illegal acts into which he was intimidated by his father.

3422-intoxicated by/with [pass (B2)] (be) very excited by; (be) carried away (⇨ carry away[2]) with. o: success, good news, freedom, joy; fresh air, the Christmas spirit □ The crowd were intoxicated by the news of the relief of Mafeking and filled the streets of London in celebration. □ Tom was intoxicated with the joy of knowing that at last he had gained his degree and would from now on be financially independent.

3423-intrigue against [A2 pass rel] (formal) plan secretly to remove etc, plot against □ A small group of dissatisfied officers intrigued against the government. On the appointed day they arrested the President and seized power. □ The Director of the firm was aware that he was being intrigued against, but he had no means of finding out exactly how and by whom.

3424-introduce (into) [B2 pass rel] make available (in), perhaps for the first time. O: potatoes, tobacco; disease; cannabis. o: Britain; school; the community □ Sir Walter Raleigh has the doubtful honour of having introduced tobacco (into England) from America. □ It is not known precisely how myxomatosis was introduced into Britain. □ The police have a good idea how most of the cannabis that is introduced into the country gets past the customs.

3425-introduce into[1] [B2 pass] push sth thin or fine into. O: tube, catheter; key, wire. o: wound, artery; lock, hole □ A thin, hollow needle was carefully introduced into the patient's abdomen, and some fluid was drawn off.

3426-introduce into[2] [B2 pass emph rel] make a part of, an element in. O: topic, subject; a new factor, fresh ideas; his name. o: the conversation, argument □ You had no right to introduce my name into the discussion. You know very well that I wanted to be kept out of your quarrel with your father. □ Into the curriculum for the sixth form a number of new, non-examinable subjects were introduced.*

3427-introduce (to) [B2 pass rel] make known by name (to). O: girlfriend; new officer; teacher; lecturer. o: parents; the mess; class; audience □ 'Well, John,' said Mary, who had been listening to the conversation for a minute or more, 'Aren't you going to introduce me to your friend?' □ The chairman introduced the speaker to the audience in a few, well-chosen words. □ 'I don't think we've been introduced (to each other),' said my neighbour at dinner. 'My name's Stephen Black.'

3428-introduce to [B2 pass] make known to sb for the first time. O: students; children; listeners. o: the latest theories on the origin of the universe; the mysteries of the laser-beam; the intricacies of international trade; the song-birds of the region □ When I visited Japan I was quickly introduced to the etiquette of the tea-ceremony. □ Who introduced you to the distinctions between the accents of Lancashire and Yorkshire people?

3429-intrude (oneself) into [A2 B2 rel] (formal) enter uninvited, often in a rude manner. o: meeting, king's presence, confidential discussion □ He intruded (himself) into the conversation without a word of apology.

3430-intrude upon[1] [A2] (formal) enter sb's presence etc, without invitation. o: his privacy, time; a private celebration □ I am very sorry to intrude upon your grief, but this is a matter which requires your personal attention.

3431-intrude upon[2] [B2 pass] (formal) enter, advance into, force a way into (the presence of). O: itself, oneself; views, opinions □ The idea intruded itself upon my mind that I knew just as much about the matter as my teacher. □ He is always intruding his opinions upon others, and well deserves his reputation as a bore.

3432-inundate (with) [B2 pass rel] (formal) cover as with a flood of water, overwhelm. O: staff; Post Office; BBC; Leader of the Party. o: work; Christmas mail; complaints; telegrams of congratulation □ When Charlie Brown won £50 000 on the pools, he was inundated with begging-letters. □ The public inundated the Foreign Office with requests for information about relations who had been unable to leave Dacca before the fighting began. □ 'Have you had many replies to your advertisement?' 'I've been inundated *(*with them)!'

3433-inure (oneself) to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) make oneself hard, resilient, so that one can withstand. o: living on a pittance; the cold climate; the hardships that go with old age □ Once old Joe had inured himself to the solitary life of a widower, he began to improve in health and spirit. □ To physical pain he could inure himself*; to mental suffering never!* □ The Bengalis are to some extent inured to disasters of every kind, but their suffering must never be minimized or glossed over.

3434-invalid home [B1ii pass] send home from abroad, because of ill-health or wounds. O: soldier, representative, company servant, diplomat □ The ambassador decided that he must invalid his sick radio-officer home*.* □ 'Smith was invalided home last year.' 'Some tropical disease?' 'Alcohol, old boy. The demon drink!'

3435-invalid out/out of [B1ii B2 pass] relieve or remove sb from his job etc on account of illness. O: soldier, airman; civil servant □ When Brown was told that he was being invalided out of the army, he was very distressed: he could not imagine life without his friends and comrades. □ 'Did Brown resign from the British Council?' 'No; he was invalided out*.'*

3436-inveigh against [A2 pass] (formal) attack violently, in speech or writing. o: corruption; the permissive society; the ruling class; the police □ There are many people who lose no opportunity of inveighing against what they describe as declining morals, slovenliness in dress, carelessness in the use of language, pornography, the spinelessness of the younger generation and so on and so forth.

3437-inveigle into [B2 pass] (formal) persuade or trick sb by flattery or deception into doing sth. O: her husband; his inexperienced partner; my young brother; the old lady. o: giving her a mink coat; raising an unnecessarily large loan; stealing sweets; parting with her life's savings □ It was clear that the older of the two accused men had inveigled his companion into helping him to rob the post office. □ the object is the -ing form of a v.

3438-invest in[1] [A2 rel B2 pass rel] put money in, with a view to earning interest or increasing one's capital; use one's time or energy in some activity in the hope that profit (of some kind) will result. O: savings, weekly sum, inheritance; time, energy. o: stocks, shares, property, small shop; studying for a degree, learning Esperanto, building an extension to his house □ What you invest in depends entirely on your needs — basically whether you want to increase your income or your capital. □ *The widow was persuaded by an unscrupulous rogue to 'invest' all her money* in a spurious company. Needless to say, both rogue and money disappeared for ever. □ He invested every spare minute in trying to 'improve his mind'.

3439-invest in[2] [A2] (informal) buy, acquire. o: new clothes; record-player; sports-car □ The student decided to invest his entire fortune (£50!) in an old car. □ I've decided to invest in a pearl necklace for my wife. It will probably pay dividends for a couple of months at least!

3440-invest with[1] [B2 pass rel] (formal) formally declare that sb possesses; give to sb as an award. O: governor, viceroy; consul-general, ambassador. o: (full) powers (to do sth); authority; order (of chivalry) □ When the Commander of the army was wounded, his second-in-command was automatically invested with his authority. □ The Queen invested the celebrated author with the Order of Merit.

3441-invest with[2] [B2 pass rel] (formal) cover, surround, with. O: history; alliance. o: romance; an aura of respectability □ The presence of the Vice-Chancellor invested the proceedings with an importance that they might otherwise have lacked.

3442-invite in/over/round [B1ii pass] ask sb to come into a house, study, office etc □ 'Don't stand talking at the gate, Mary! Invite your friend in*!'* □ Our parents have invited us round for a meal on Sunday.

3443-involve in [B2 pass rel] get sb or sth into a difficult situation or condition; cause to be mixed up in (q v). O: himself; his parents; them. o: trouble, robbery, conspiracy; other people's affairs; expense; debt □ Somehow he managed to involve several of his friends in his matrimonial troubles. □ George is so involved in debt that he is afraid to appear in the pub in case he meets half a dozen of his creditors! □ An accident in which more than fifty vehicles were involved caused the death of six people on the M1 last night. □ The accountant's errors involved everyone in a great deal of extra work.

3444-iron out [B1i pass] remove by means of a hot iron; (fig) remove by means of discussion, compromise, or other appropriate action. O: creases, wrinkles; trousers, dress; problem, differences of opinion, misunderstandings □ 'Would you mind ironing the collar of this shirt out for me?' □ There are no difficulties that cannot be ironed out if both parties are determined to reach an agreement. □ If you want your article to be understood by the average reader you'd better iron out some of the subtleties in your argument.

3445-isolate (from) [B2 pass rel] make separate (from), prevent from coming into contact with others, or another thing. O: patient; case of typhoid; dangerous criminals; significant facts. o: others; the rest of the hospital; harmless petty thieves; the mass of data □ After enduring the rat-race in London for many years he then went and isolated himself *(*from his fellow-men) by going to live on a small uninhabited island off the west coast of Scotland. □ It is wrong to try to isolate drug-taking from the general condition of our society; cure the ills of that society and you will cure drug-taking.

3446-issue from [A2 emph rel] come from in a stream. S: smoke; blood; stream of pure water; stream of abuse. o: chimney, every window in the building; his wounds; the side of the mountain, rock; the press □ From the upstairs windows of the house there issued a dense cloud of black smoke. □ As John put his coat on and got ready for work, the usual barrage of complaints and instructions issued from the bedroom.

3447-itch for [A2] (informal) wait impatiently for; long (for) (q v). S: children; clerk; young couple; soldiers. o: Christmas Day; five o'clock; a house of their own; the order to go into the attack □ It was obvious that Milly had been itching for an opportunity to get Pat by herself, so that she could give her the length of her tongue. ◻ He stood by the window, itching for the arrival of the postman and, he hoped, a reply to his proposal of marriage.

J

3448-jab at [A2 pass B2 pass] aim a strong blow at sb; direct sth sharp towards sb. O: fist, elbow; umbrella. o: opponent; face, stomach, solar plexus, ribs ◻ (boxing instructor) 'Keep jabbing at him with your left. With your reach you're bound to get under his guard.' ◻ 'Don't jab your finger at me: I'm not on trial and you're not the prosecutor!'

3449-jab out [B1i pass] remove with a sharp blow. O: stone, nail; eye ◻ If you get a thorn stuck in your finger don't try to jab it out with a needle. ◻ 'Don't wave that stick about. You'll jab out somebody's eye.'

3450-jack in [B1i pass] (slang) leave, abandon; pack in [1] (q v). O: job; business; course (of study) ◻ I can't take any more of this night-work. I'll have to jack it in.

3451-jack up[1] [B1i pass adj] lift (one side of) using a (screw-)jack. S: mechanic, driver. O: car, lorry ◻ A jacked-up car stood at the kerb-side; the driver was changing a wheel. ◻ 'Jack her up a bit more. The wheels are still touching the ground.'

3452-jack up[2] [B1i pass adj] (informal) raise, increase. O: salary, wage; allowance; payment ◻ 'We know you're not happy about the money you're getting. We think it could be jacked up a bit.' ◻ If they jack up the wage rates they'll have to cut down on expenditure somewhere else.

3453-jack up[3] [B1i pass] (informal) arrange, organize, properly. O: things, the (whole) thing; tour, trip ◻ What about your holiday? Have you got everything properly jacked up? ◻ We didn't need to worry about tickets or reservations. Travel Section jacked the whole thing up for us.

3454-jam in/into [B1i pass B2 pass] press sb or sth tightly into a small space. O: audience; passengers; belongings, clothes. o: hall; car, bus, (railway) compartment; box, case ◻ 'Don't jam in too much clothing; you won't be able to close the lid.' ◻ 'Give the papers to me; I can jam a few more into my briefcase.'

3455-jam the brakes on [B1i pass] (informal) apply the brakes suddenly and forcefully; slam the brakes on (q v) ◻ I had to jam on the brakes sharply to avoid hitting two schoolchildren.

3456-jangle on/upon [A2] seem very discordant or unpleasant to the ear. S: screech, whine; bell, fiddle. o: △ sb's ears, nerves ◻ The sound of that drill jangles horribly on the nerves. ◻ I can't stand the woman. I can still hear that high-pitched voice jangling on my ears! ⇨ next entry.

3457-jar on/upon [A2] be unpleasant to, seem discordant to. S: sound, music; voice, accent. o: him etc; sb's ears, nerves ◻ 'Turn the radio off! That music jars on my nerves.' ⇨ previous entry.

3458-jar (with) [A2 emph rel] not match, not be in harmony (with). S: colour, pattern; arrangement; view, opinion ◻ The stripes on his tie jarred with the checks on his jacket (or: The stripes and checks jarred). ◻ Everything he said seemed to jar with our most firmly held convictions.

3459-jazz up [B1i pass adj] (informal) put more energy or colour into, brighten, enliven. O: music, tune; party, celebration; room, decorations ◻ 'Go out and get some more to drink: this party needs jazzing up a bit.' ◻ The room decorations appeared to have been jazzed up. The overall effect was loud and restless.

3460-jeer (at) [A2 pass] mock, taunt; gibe (at) (q v). S: spectators, audience. o: prisoner, victim; speaker, performer ◻ The accused was jeered (at) by the crowd as the police bundled him into a car.

3461-jib at [A2 pass rel] refuse or be reluctant to go forward, or accept sth; balk at (q v). S: horse, mount; car, tank; employee. o: fence, obstacle; extra work, wage freeze; working overtime, losing wages ◻ The staff don't mind the new work schedule, but they'd jib at taking a cut in wages.

3462-jibe with [A2] match, be in accord with S: account, story; behaviour, manners; appearance; position, status. o: record, transcript; pretensions, claims (for oneself); merits, deserts ◻ 'His account of what happens jibes pretty closely with what I've got written here.' ◻ The optimistic picture painted by the chairman doesn't jibe with the company's actual trading record.

3463-jockey for [A2 rel] move about, manœuvre, pushing others aside in order to improve one's position. S: rider, runner; politician, courtier. o: position, place; privilege, advantage ◻ There was a certain amount of barging on the first bend as the runners jockeyed for the inside position. ◻ Since even minor appointments were in the gift of the Prince, the court was thronged with young men jockeying for favours.

3464-jog along/on [A1] (informal) make steady but unexciting progress. S: factory, business; worker, employee ◻ He just jogs along contentedly from year to year without any thought of promotion. ◻ The industry is happy to jog along in the old way.

3465-join in [A1 A2 emph rel] add oneself, or one's support, to sth taking place. S: audience, crowd. o: race, entertainment; applause, conversation ◻ A group of bystanders was invited to join in the game. ◻ 'Who said you could join in?' ◻ This is an exciting game in which the whole family can join.

3466-join on/onto [A1 A2 B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] (esp of a smaller thing in relation to a larger) be fixed, attached, to; fix, attach, to. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] part, component; waggon, carriage; caravan, trailer. o: body; train; lorry ◻ [A1] 'Where does this bit of the model join on? Is it part of the chassis or part of the engine?' ◻ [B1 B2] Two extra carriages were joined on (i e onto the train) at Doncaster. ◻ [A2 B2] The dress pattern doesn't really explain how the cuff joins onto (or: is joined onto) the sleeve.

3467-join together/to [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] bring (two things) together, attach one thing to another (so as to form a continuous whole). O/o: rail, rod, pipe, wire □ The welding is so smooth that you can hardly see where the sections of pipe are joined together (or: where one section of pipe is joined to another). □ One rail is joined to the next by means of a metal plate; space is left between them to allow for expansion.

3468-join up [A1] (military) join the armed forces □ He joined up as a private in a county regiment. DS □ Why should I hope for a big war so that I could join up and get killed? LLDR

3469-join up (with) [A1 A3 emph rel] meet and unite (with sb or sth), esp with a common aim or purpose; link up (with) (q v). S: force, body (of men); company, firm; road, branch line. o: army; neighbour, competitor; motorway, main line □ The commando force joined up with the airborne troops near the captured bridges. □ Grants the boiler makers joined up with a small transport firm in order to save on delivery costs. □ The M62 joins up with the M1 (or: The M62 and the M1 join up) a few miles south of Leeds.

3470-join battle (with) [B2 pass rel] begin fighting sb; begin a serious struggle or argument (with). o: enemy; infantry, armour; neighbours, in-laws; employer, trades union □ Battle was joined, shortly after ten o'clock, with advance elements of two enemy divisions. □ As for my instinct in joining battle with Sammy and Sadie, it has been a sound enough instinct. UTN

3471-join forces (with) [B2 emph rel] meet sb and unite one's men and resources with his; come together (with sb) in a common enterprise; join up (with) (q v). S: army; division, regiment; manufacturer, tradesman. o: garrison, defenders; neighbour, competitor □ A force sent round on a flanking march joined forces again with the main body two days later. □ I never thought seriously about joining forces with Wales — I've been boss of my own works too long to relish being a co-director. RATT

3472-join hands (with) [B2 rel] come together, be united, esp in friendship. S: nation, people; army, force. o: neighbour, (old) enemy □ The leading troops of the English Army joined hands with the right flank of the Fifth U.S. Army. MFM □ The vision was held out to us of one great nation joining hands with another across the sea (cf of two great nations joining hands etc).

3473-joke about [A2 pass] talk about, treat, in a light hearted way (perhaps when seriousness is called for). o: matter, things; loss, misfortune, hardship, infirmity □ 'If John's just been kicked out of a job I don't see that it's anything to joke about. Show a little sympathy instead.' □ It's not unusual for young people to joke about notions and institutions that their parents regard as sacred.

3474-jolly along [B1i pass] (informal) keep sb in a good humour so that he will continue to collaborate, agree to work etc. O: parent; wife; employee □ The job won't be finished on time unless you jolly the men along with an occasional bonus.

3475-jot down [B1i pass adj] make a quick written note of. S: policeman, reporter. O: address, particulars, details □ He had jotted down the licence number: FAX 160. TO □ 'I'll just jot that time down before I forget it.'

3476-judge by/from[1] [A2] take sth as evidence, form one's opinion according to. o: testimony, press report; what has come down to us, what has emerged □ To judge from the evidence of the experts, the deceased was still alive at three o'clock. □ Judging by the look on his face, he doesn't think much of our local wine. □ 'Thirty years ago,' he said. 'That's a lot of years judged by anybody's standards.' PP □ judge is in a non-finite form (to-inf pp or -ing form).

3477-judge by/from[2] [B2 pass emph rel] form one's estimate or view (of sb or sth) according to; conclude that sth is the case. O: age, quality, freshness; truth, reliability; that he is telling the truth; whether he can be trusted. o: appearance, smell, taste; statement, testimony □ People still judge a man by the company he keeps. FFE □ 'I judge trees by their fruit,' Louie said. HAA □ From the finger marks high on the cupboard we can judge that he was a tall man.

3478-juggle (with) [A2] (as a kind of music-hall or circus act) pass objects skilfully from one hand to the other so that at least one is in the air at any time; hold or balance several things insecurely. o: hoop, ball; china; plate, cup □ The older brother rode round the stage on a bicycle while the younger sat on his shoulders juggling (with) four silver hoops. □ 'Help your mother carry the things into the dining-room. She's in the kitchen juggling with a pile of hot dishes.'

3479-juggle with [A2 pass] (informal) handle, manipulate sth skilfully (for pleasure, or in order to deceive etc). S: (public) speaker, writer; (dishonest) accountant, salesman. o: words; figures, accounts; facts □ Peter loves juggling with language, so much so that one often loses the thread of his story or argument. □ He's been juggling with the accounts so as to defraud the Inland Revenue. □ Anyone running his eye down these columns could see that the cash entries have been juggled with.

3480-jumble up (with) [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] throw together in confusion; muddle up (with) (q v). O: papers, documents; clothes; ideas □ 'Don't jumble up your ties and socks now that I've sorted them out!' □ Recent happenings were jumbled up in her mind with events recalled from early childhood.

3481-jump at [A2 pass adj] (informal) seize eagerly; leap at (q v). o: ⚠ the opportunity, the chance, the offer □ If he offered me a job sweeping out the theatre I'd jump at the chance. □ This looks like a genuine offer of international inspection. Russia should jump at it. SC

3482-jump down sb's throat [A2] (informal) address or answer sb sharply or irritably □ 'Stop pitying yourself.' 'Don't jump down my throat.' TOH □ 'Guy — now don't jump down my throat — you're not in debt, are you?' DC

3483-jump off[1] [A1 nom] (military) begin, be launched. S: campaign, battle; attack, advance □ The attacks jumped off without the usual preliminary bombardment. □ The jumping-off point for the next phase of the advance was a line of hills. □ The general had ordered an early jump-off (i e time of jumping off).

3484-jump off[2] [A1 nom] (show-jumping) compete in an additional round of jumping when two or more horses have tied in the first round. S: horse; rider

□ Four competitors had a clear first round and will be jumping off later this evening. □ In the jump-off the winner had a lead of two seconds over his nearest rival.

3485- jump on [A2 pass] (informal) turn one's attention sharply to sb so as to challenge or reprove him. S: teacher, drill-sergeant, coach. o: inattentive pupil, recruit □ The children sat quaking in their seats while the master, jumping on individuals at random, would set them impossible problems. □ His wife jumped on him if he seemed to be taking Virginia's side. AITC

3486- jump to conclusions/the conclusion [A2 pass] be over-hasty in judging a person or event □ 'I know I was standing near the till when you came back into the shop, but don't jump to conclusions.' □ You seem to have jumped to the conclusion that because of what happened to this young man there must have been foul play. EM

3487- jump to it [A2] (informal, military) move quickly, look sharp; get a move on (q v) □ 'I want you in three ranks by that wall. Come on — jump to it!' □ 'Shun, stand at ease!' The thought of her jumping to it gave him a delicious thrill. PW □ usu imper.

3488- jump up [A1 emph] spring to one's feet, stand up suddenly □ Then suddenly Fergus jumped up*. 'I have the answer!'* DC □ Up jumped Peter with an angry look on his face.

3489- justify (to) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) explain one's actions etc (to sb) so that they seem reasonable. O: oneself; (one's) behaviour, conduct. o: colleague; audience; critic □ I don't see that I need to justify my conduct to you. □ To these people he could not expect to justify the course of action he had followed.

3490- jut out [A1] project, protrude; stick out[1] (q v). S: balcony, roof; rifle, cannon □ The stern of the ship juts out over the water. □ His chin juts out rather a lot.

K

3491- keel over[1] [A1] overturn completely or partially, capsize. S: boat, ship, lifeboat □ The old Queen Elizabeth liner burnt out and keeled over while anchored off Hong Kong in January 1972.

3492- keel over[2] [A1] lose one's balance and fall □ John walked into the room unsteadily, fixed me with a glazed stare, uttered the words 'I think I'm going to...', keeled over and fell unconscious at my feet.

3493- keep one's head above water [B2] not sink or drown; (fig) remain solvent, just manage to cope with one's duties etc □ Though I could not swim, I just managed to keep my head above water by kicking my legs about until somebody reached me and dragged me to the river bank. □ Mr Chester has had a great deal of extra work recently, but he just manages to keep his head above water. □ The dock strike made things very difficult for our firm, what with shortages of raw materials, non-shipment of our goods and so on, but we kept our heads above water thanks to our good stocks, and sales to the home market. □ Virginia's life was a whirlpool which centred round Joe, but she struggled to keep her head above water*, and to appear as if she had nothing on her mind.* AITC

3494- keep abreast (of) [A1 A3 B1ii pass B3 pass] (cause to) stay level (with), be overtaken by; inform oneself or sb (about). o: rival, competitor; events, the news, the times; fashion □ [A3] In the strong breeze the catamaran skimmed over the water, keeping abreast of the motor-launch. □ [A1 A3] So much is happening in the world of science that it's difficult to keep abreast *(*of all the latest developments). □ [B3] Is the opera company's first duty to make available the acknowledged operatic masterpieces... or should it concentrate on keeping the public abreast of current developments? T ⇨ stay abreast (of).

3495- keep after [A2 pass] not abandon the pursuit of; chivvy. o: escaping prisoner; pupils, servants □ The police kept after the bandits until they finally trapped them in a cul-de-sac. □ 'If you want to get any essays out of that crowd of layabouts, they have to be kept after.' □ Don't keep after the nurses all day long or they'll all resign!'

3496- keep ahead/ahead of [A1 A2] not lose one's position in front of others. S: favourite; newspaper; designer; bank robbers. o: other racehorses, newspapers, designers; pursuers □ Barrier Reef led the field from the start and kept ahead of it right to the winning-post. □ If you want to keep ahead of your rivals, you'll have to work very hard. □ Don't try to keep ahead in the rat race — it isn't worth it! ⇨ stay ahead/ahead of.

3497- keep one step ahead/ahead of [A1 A2] retain one's position in front of others by a small margin □ Gibbs kept one step ahead of the police for years, but they finally tracked him down in Australia. □ Not knowing much Italian, it was all the teacher could do to keep one step ahead *(*of the class). □ one step is an adv phrase of degree.

3498- keep at[1] [A2] continue persistently in one's efforts, not abandon. o: it; the job; your studies □ The only way to get a dictionary written is to keep at it, day after day.

3499- keep at[2] [B2 pass] make sb work, force sb to make a prolonged effort. O: students, workers, troops □ The old professor was a martinet. He kept his students at their studies when they would have preferred to be at the discotheque. But in the end they all thanked him for it.

keep at[3] [A2] worry, pester. ⇨ keep (on) at.

3501- keep at arm's length/a distance [B2 pass] not allow to come near or close to one. O: neighbour; danger, disease; temptation □ If you're wise, you'll keep Mrs Jones at a distance. She's the worst gossip in the village. □ I had none of the frustration that Luke felt and perhaps Martin also, because they were being kept at arm's length from a piece of scientific truth. NM

3502- keep at bay [B2 pass] cause to remain at some distance; hold off[2] (q v). O: attackers; rats, mosquitoes; hunger, poverty; inflation; unemployment □ When fiddling about with lens and exposure meters I found it essential to have someone stand over me with a hat, to keep at least some of the insects at bay, otherwise it was impossible to concentrate and my temper frayed rapidly. DF □ Industry as a whole is trying to keep rising costs at bay.

3503-keep away (from) [A1 A3 B1ii pass B3 pass] not go near; prevent from going near, touching, using etc. S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] children; poison; crowd; weed-killer; paraffin oil. o: fire; baby; distinguished visitor; flowers; food □ [B1 B3] It's the job of the police to keep the spectators away (from the players). □ [B3] Children should be kept away from the river. □ [A1 A3] The spectators have to keep away (from the players). □ [B1] 'What's been keeping you away? You haven't been round to see us for ages.' □ [A3] If Jo doesn't keep away from that woman, he's going to regret it. Her husband is a jealous and violent man. ⇨ stay away (from)[1,2].

3504-keep back (from)[1] [A1 A3 B1i pass B3 pass] stay at a distance (from); prevent from getting too close (to). S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] crowd; enemy; small craft. o: the Prime Minister; our positions, the river; the round-the-world yacht □ [B1] The crowd was so great that the organizers of the demonstration could not keep them back when they reached the barriers. □ [A1] 'Keep back!' the doctor shouted, as the onlookers crowded round. 'Give the man some air!' □ [A3] The conjuror liked to keep well back from the front of the stage so that the audience could not follow all his movements. □ [B3 A3] The President's security men did their best to keep the crowds back from him, but they despaired when he refused to keep back from the crowds!

3505-keep back (from)[2] [B1i pass B3 pass] not tell (to), not let sb know. S: husband; doctor; witness. O: the news; information, vital details; the truth. o: wife; patient; police, court □ The President decided not to keep back the facts concerning the secret negotiations any longer, and announced them on January 25th. □ The specialist recommended that the exact nature of the woman's illness should be kept back from her. □ The news of the army's defeat was kept back from the people for several days. ⇨ keep from[1].

3506-keep back (from)[3] [B1i pass B3 pass] not pay (to), retain (from). O: a certain percentage; 50p a week □ It is quite normal to keep back ten per cent of the cost of a building for a period of six months or so, in case faults are found in it. □ We agreed to let our employer keep back twenty pence a week from our wages to go into a special fund for welfare purposes.

3507-keep down[1] [A1] not reveal one's position; lie low; not raise oneself □ 'There's somebody coming! Keep down and don't make a sound!' □ 'When we reach the footbridge over the canal, keep down or you'll bang your head on it!' (i e 'we' are on a boat).

3508-keep down[2] [B1ii pass] not raise. O: head; voice; arms □ *My father's parting words as I left to join my unit were 'Keep your head down and your eyeballs moving!' □ 'I wish you two would keep your voices down. I can hardly hear myself think!' □ *'Keep your arms down by your side and take a deep breath,' the radiographer said as she retreated behind her protective screen.

3509-keep down[3] [B1i pass] not increase, prevent from increasing; hold down[1] (q v). O: prices, taxes, rates, the cost of living; one's weight □ The government seems to be making little effort to keep the cost of living down. Prices have gone up by fifteen per cent in the last year. □ The doctor, who played a good deal of golf as a pretence of getting exercise and keeping his weight down, though in reality preferring the comforts of the clubhouse, remarked that it was warmish. DBM

3510-keep down[4] [B1ii pass] repress, hold down[2] (q v). O: population, conquered country, occupied territory; a good man □ The peasants were kept down ruthlessly by the occupying power, which formed an unholy alliance with the landowning class. □ 'I hear that Monica is competing in the skiing competition again in spite of breaking her leg last year.' 'You can't keep a good man down!' □ the second example shows the expression in a sentence which has become a saying or generalized comment; it can be used with reference to men, women or children.

3511-keep down[5] [B1i pass] control, restrain. O: anger, fury □ It was all I could do to keep my anger down when I heard how the visitor had been treated in my absence.

3512-keep down[6] [B1ii pass] remove, kill, not allow to multiply or grow. O: flies, mosquitoes; rabbits, foxes; weeds □ There is no absolutely foolproof way of keeping the flies down during the summer. □ If you want good crops of flowers and vegetables you must keep the weeds down.

3513-keep down[7] [B1ii] retain in the stomach. S: baby, invalid, dying man. O: milk, food, (not) anything, solids; medicine □ Unless we can find a way of making the baby keep its food down, it is simply going to starve to death. □ 'Can you prescribe something else for me, doctor? I can't keep these powders down at all.' ⇨ stay down[2].

3514-keep from[1] [B2 pass] not let sb know, not tell; keep back (from)[2] (q v). O: it; the news, the truth □ However bad the situation is, the facts should not be kept from the people who are most concerned — the public at large. □ Mercifully, we managed to keep the news of Tom's imprisonment from his father. It would have killed him.

3515-keep from[2] [A2 B2 pass] avoid; stop, prevent, sb doing sth. o: overworking, taking on too much responsibility; quarrelling □ While you're recovering from influenza you should try to keep from getting wet or going back to work too soon. □ 'Please keep the children from swimming in the sea. There are some dangerous currents just off the shore.' □ He seemed to have forgotten who it was whose name he wanted to know, and also how to keep his head from nodding. CON □ the object is the -ing form of a v.

3516-keep the wolf from the door [B2 pass] (informal) be, earn or obtain, enough to feed oneself and one's family. S: wages, food □ George did not care for the job he was offered nor the salary that went with it, but at least it would keep the wolf from the door until he could find something more to his liking. □ During the Depression of the 1920s and 1930s many men found it almost impossible to keep the wolf from the door.

3517-keep in[1] [A1 A2] remain inside, not emerge (from). S: old lady; rabbit, mouse □ It's best to keep in while the temperature is so far below freezing point, unless you have to go out to earn your living. □ The rabbits kept in their burrows most of the day, and only came out to eat as darkness fell. ⇨ keep indoors; stay in/indoors.

3518-keep in[2] [A1 B1ii pass] stay alight, continue to burn; maintain, not allow to be extinguished. S: [A1] O: [B1] lamp, fire; furnace. S: [B1] maid, servant; stoker, caretaker □ The stove will keep in all night if you put enough anthracite on in the evening. □ 'Whose job is it to keep the fires in*?'* ⇨ be in[6].

3519-keep in[3] [B1i pass] detain after normal school hours, as a punishment. O: pupils, class, culprits □ 'Our teacher was in a bad temper today. She kept us all in for half an hour.' ⇨ stay in[1].

3520-keep in[4] [B1i pass] restrain, not give vent to; hold in (q v). O: anger, annoyance, feelings of indignation □ The policeman was provoked by the hostile crowd but he managed to keep his anger in*, and dealt with the situation coolly and competently.*

3521-keep in[5] [B2 pass] maintain in a state of. o: △ luxury, style □ The pop-singer took pride in the fact that he kept his mother and sister in luxury. □ In a voice that was supposed to be that of a Victorian mill-owner the old fool said, 'Will you be able to keep my daughter in the style to which she is accustomed?' To which Susan replied, 'Oh, Dad, don't talk daft!'

3522-keep in[6] [B2 pass] (informal) give, allow, sb a regular supply of. o: cigarettes, beer, nylons, chocolates □ Such jobs as he had from time to time barely kept him in drink and cigarettes. AITC □ He won first prize in a lottery — enough to keep him in beer for a year.

3523-keep in check[1] [B2 pass] control, avoid an excess of. O: expenditure, inflation, wage demands; consumption of carbohydrates; drinking □ Unless imports are kept in check we are in danger of losing our favourable balance of trade. □ If I hadn't kept myself in check*, I might have said something that I would have regretted later.*

3524-keep in check[2] [B2 pass] prevent any further advance by. O: enemy; process of erosion; cholera □ By prompt action the Indian authorities managed to keep the threatened epidemic of typhus in check*.* □ The enemy was kept in check by the floodwater, which made the terrain impassible for armoured vehicles.

3525-keep in the dark [B2 pass] (informal) deliberately not inform; keep in ignorance (q v) □ 'Let me tell you that I don't like being kept in the dark about matters that affect me as closely as my daughter's future life.' □ He must keep Bunder absolutely and permanently in the dark about Dogson and his mission to reveal the secrets of the drug traffic. HD

3526-keep one's eye/hand in [B1ii] retain one's skill by using it from time to time, though not as frequently as before □ I don't find much time to play squash these days, but I do try to keep my hand in at the weekends. □ Peter keeps his eye in by joining in the occasional game of darts at the pub. ⇨ get one's eye/hand in.

3527-keep in ignorance [B1i pass] withhold information or education from. O: population; child, wife □ In medieval times it was the policy of the Church to keep the people in ignorance*. Education represented the greatest danger to their entrenched position.* □ You can't keep children in ignorance of the facts of life indefinitely.

3528-keep in line [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) stay in one's allotted position; (cause to) observe the 'rules' of any group □ If everyone keeps in line*, we'll get through the Customs more quickly!* □ The girls are the firmest of friends, and woe betide any of the men in the cast who doesn't keep in line*.* RT □ The Chief Whip kept the recalcitrant members of the Labour Party in line*.*

3529-keep in mind [B2 pass] not forget, constantly remember; bear in mind (q v). O: me; dangers, possibilities, difficulties; what you told me about, why you're here □ 'We've got to keep in mind how very small a disturbance — small from the astronomical point of view — could still wipe us out of existence.' TBC □ 'You'll keep my son in mind*, won't you — just in case a vacancy should occur in your firm?'*

3530-keep in order[1] [B2 pass] discipline; not allow to behave in an uncontrolled way. O: troops, class, group, children □ The headmaster was astounded to see how well this notoriously difficult class was being kept in order by his new teacher — a mere slip of a girl, in his eyes.

3531-keep in order[2] [B2 pass] maintain neatly, correctly, efficiently. O: books, one's affairs, estate; household □ (advertisement) A Lloyd's Bank cheque book enables you to keep your money affairs in good order and to pay your bills in the safest and most convenient way.

3532-keep in his place [B2 pass] not allow sb to forget his position, his (inferior) status □ They're good technicians, but they have to be kept in their place*.* □ Mrs Curry would have enjoyed discomfiting Hubert with Ron's presence, but she conceded the priority to keeping Ron in his place*. 'I shan't want the car until five, Ron,' she said; 'you'd better go to the cinema.'* HAA

3533-keep in sight[1] [B2 pass] stay in a position from where one can see; not allow sth to remain unobserved or to disappear from view. O: land, ship; enemy □ He wasn't a good navigator, so he kept the coastline well in sight as he moved from one harbour to the next.

3534-keep in sight[2] [B2 pass] not forget about. O: goal, objective, purpose □ So long as you keep your main objective in sight*, there's no reason why you shouldn't have a little variety in your life!*

3535-keep in sight of [A2] remain where one can see, or be seen by. o: the coast, the lifeguards □ The children had been warned to keep in sight of the land in case they were caught in a storm.

3536-keep in (a state of) suspense [B2 pass] cause to be in a continual state of fear, worry, expectation etc □ 'Don't keep me in a state of suspense*, please! If you know the results of my examination, tell me!'* □ While the astronauts passed through the earth's atmosphere there was a temporary blackout in communications, and the whole world was kept in suspense*, wond-* ering whether they would land safely.

3537- keep in training [A2 B2 pass] maintain oneself, or others, in a state of fitness for physical or intellectual competition or activity □ The girl kept in training all the year round in the hope of swimming the English Channel in the summer. □ 'What's the best way of keeping a team of footballers in training*?'* □ 'I cannot recollect at the moment....' 'You should keep your memory in training*,' she said.*

3538- keep in with [A3 pass] (informal) remain on good terms with sb, either to gain some advantage from him or to avoid being victimized by him; keep on the right side of (q v). S: pupil; customer; prostitute; actress; lodger. o: teacher; grocer, coal-merchant; police; theatrical agent; landlady □ We'll have to keep in with her in case we can't ever pay the rent.... AITC □ In wartime people who before were always ready to accuse the butcher of giving short weight went to great lengths to keep in with him*.*

3539- keep in step (with) [A2] move forward together, like soldiers on the march. S: pay, wages, salary; flow of raw materials; supply of experts; country. o: cost of living, other forms of income; rate of production, expanding industry; needs of society; allies, rivals, competitors □ There have been a number of movements in the constable's pay which have kept broadly in step with average industrial earnings. DM □ By this means I hoped to get orderly government working in the British Zone as quickly as possible and at the same time to keep in step with the Americans. MFM

3540- keep in touch (with) [A2] maintain communications (with); (of two or more persons) obtain regular information about one another □ If Anna and Sadie were friends, then to consort with Sadie was one way of keeping in touch with Anna. UTN □ Montgomery provided himself with a very small operations staff for keeping in touch with the battle situation. □ It's a pity you're going to Australia. But, anyway, let's keep in touch*, shall we?'* □ As they were both amateur radio enthusiasts they were able to keep in daily touch *(*with each other) over the air.

3541- keep indoors [A1 B1ii pass] not (allow to) leave the house □ On a day like this, with the rain pouring down and the temperature near freezing point, it's best to keep indoors*.* □ We always keep our children indoors after dark, since that horrible murder last year. ⇨ keep in[1]; stay in/indoors.

3542- keep track of [B2 pass (o)] follow the course of; carry in one's mind; remember the whereabouts of. o: the satellite; everybody's movements; one's friends □ There are so many pieces of hardware circling the earth that only a computer could possibly keep track of them all. □ The drug squad successfully kept track of the suspected smugglers and arrested them all in an apartment in New York. □ He's working on so many projects that it's a wonder they're all kept track of*.* □ 'You can't expect me to keep track of all the children and do the housework too.'

3543- keep off[1] [A1] not begin. S: ⚠ the rain, snow □ The thick clouds passed overhead, but fortunately the rain kept off the whole day. □ The thunderstorm, which had been brewing all evening, kept off until we were safely indoors.

3544- keep off[2] [A1 A2] stay at a distance from; not walk on □ Two large signs, with the words KEEP OFF painted on them, had been attached to the sides of the boat. □ (notice) Keep off the grass. ⇨ get off[2].

3545- keep off[3] [B1i pass B2 pass] cause to stay at a distance. O: wild animals; marauding tribes. o: farm; territory □ One of the problems faced by the road-builders in some parts of the Amazon jungle was how to keep off the fierce people whose land they were crossing. □ *'*Keep those blasted squatters off my land!' □ 'How can I keep the flies off this jam?'

3546- keep off[4] [A2 B2 pass] not eat or drink; prevent from eating, drinking or drug-taking. o: carbohydrates, sweets and chocolates; whisky □ The only way to get your weight down is to keep off fattening foods, and cut out alcohol altogether. □ The doctor ordered the woman to be kept off all solid food for at least twenty-four hours. □ A lot of people see no reason for keeping off cannabis, in spite of the laws against its use. ⇨ stay off.

3547- keep off[5] [A2 B2 pass] not mention, avoid. o: topic; tricky subject; question of who pays □ By mutual consent, the negotiators kept off the religious issue, and concentrated on economic and political differences. □ Everyone knew that the conversation should be kept off the subject of Mr Smith's bankruptcy. It was a source of embarrassment to the whole family.

3548- keep one's eyes off [B2] not covet, not look at with desire or longing; (in the neg, esp with not be able to) be fascinated by. o: that girl; my new picture; her jewellery □ 'You'd better keep your eyes off Carmen,' said James. 'She's spoken for!' 'Oh, yes? And who's spoken for her?' 'I have!' □ The young soldier could not keep his eyes off the hands of the woman sitting opposite him in the train. She had about a thousand pounds' worth of rings on her fingers!

3549- keep one's hands off [B2] not touch, not take. o: him etc; that machine; other people's money □ 'You keep your dirty hands off me!' the girl shouted, as Johnny tried to stroke her hair. □ The trouble with Marigold is that she can't keep her hands off her sister's clothes or her money or her books, or indeed anything at all that belongs to her.

3550- keep on[1] [A1] continue one's journey □ The climbers had a long discussion about their position. Some were for returning to their base-camp, others were for keeping on in the hope of reaching the top with one last effort. □ 'Is this the way to Willersey?' 'Yes. Just keep on till you reach Broadway; then you'll see the signpost to Willersey.'

3551- keep on[2] [B1ii pass] continue to wear. O: best clothes; wet swim-suit; hat; boots; dark glasses □ In a church men take their hats off; in a synagogue, they keep them on*.* □ 'I've told you before not to keep your socks on if they get wet.' 'Do you think I should change my dress for dinner?' 'No. Keep that one on*. You look fine in it.'*

3552- keep on[3] [B1i pass] continue to employ. O: servants, employees; old retainer, farm-hand □ When Lord Lamont gave up his country seat he kept on only two of his numerous servants. □ Some of the men who were under notice were kept on by the firm at the insistence of the Union.*

3553-keep on[4] [A1] persist in the face of difficulties. A: through thick and thin; in the face of great odds; despite all setbacks □ Helen Keller, born with the most appalling physical handicaps, kept on in spite of every difficulty until she became a well-educated, useful member of society.

3554-keep on doing sth [A1] not stop doing sth □ 'Saunders keeps on insisting that he is ruined; but he's taking a holiday in the South of France as usual!' DC □ (one child talking to another) 'I've told you over and over again, and I keep on telling you, they wouldn't want to marry you, you aren't old enough to marry, is she Mummy?' PW □ I keep on forgetting to post my wife's letters! □ 'Do be quiet, Sally, and don't keep on asking such silly questions.'

3555-keep a close watch on [B2 pass] observe carefully and constantly. o: the prisoners; the movements of the general; the children □ The authorities kept a close watch on every airport and seaport following the escape of the prisoners from jail. □ A close watch is kept on the activities of all known anarchists.*

3556-keep an/one's eye on [B2 pass] observe and if necessary take appropriate action; watch over (q v). adj: △ (a) careful, professional, sharp, watchful, weather. o: old people; children; house; things; what others are doing □ I asked him why he didn't come back home; at least he had friends there who could keep an eye on him. CON □ I don't know what would happen if we weren't here to keep an eye on you. US □ An agent provocateur, or police spy, might join an extremist party in order to keep an eye on it: you could not expect him to share its views and attitudes. SNP □ I'd be failing in my duty if I didn't keep a weather eye on your welfare. □ A careful eye will have to be kept on the younger brother—he's the dangerous one.

3557-keep one eye on [B2] give part of one's attention to. o: the time, the clock; the kettle; the baby □ It isn't easy to concentrate on one's work when you've got to keep one eye on a baby that's crawling all over the place. ⇨ have one eye on.

3558-keep on its feet [B2 pass] (informal) preserve; prevent from collapsing; maintain in a healthy financial state. O: firm, school, country; project □ A press baron bought the ailing newspaper and promised to keep it on its feet for at least two years. □ The Prime Minister of the island fought a long battle to keep his country on its feet.

3559-keep on one's feet [A2] (boxing) not be knocked out; not collapse □ The young challenger was not in the same class as the champion, and the wonder was how he managed to keep on his feet for three rounds. □ I don't know how she keeps on her feet after slaving all day, first in the office and then at home in the kitchen.

3560-keep one's finger on the pulse of [B2] be fully aware of, have up-to-date knowledge of. o: the country's mood; public opinion; the Stock Exchange □ A commander must always keep his finger on the spiritual pulse of his armies. MFM □ A successful politician is one who keeps his finger on the pulse of the electorate.

3561-keep a firm/tight grip/hold on [B2 pass pass(o)] exercise close, careful, strong control over. o: the purse-strings, household expenditure; the youngsters □ Unless a tight hold is kept on the purse-strings, a man can soon find that his family is spending more than he is earning. □ Those boys are pretty wild—they need a firm hold keeping on them (or: a firm hold needs to be kept on them*).

3562-keep one's hair/shirt on [B1ii] (informal) not lose one's temper or composure □ 'That's my record-player! What are you doing with it?' 'Keep your hair on. I'm only seeing how it works.' □ 'If this is the way you treat my bicycle, I won't ever lend it to you again.' 'Keep your shirt on! I'll get it fixed for you.' □ Now if we all keep our hair on and stop flinging accusations about, perhaps we can find a way out of the difficulty. □ usu imper.

3563-keep one's mind on [B2] not let one's attention wander from, concentrate on/upon (q v). o: the business, matter in hand; one's work; what one is doing □ I found it hard to keep my mind on what the colonel was saying. QA □ 'You mustn't keep worrying about your health. Try to keep your mind on other things—going away for a holiday, for example. Or you could read more books.'

3564-keep on the rails [A2 B2 pass] (informal) (cause to) observe the laws and conventions of society □ We have all kept on the rails. There have been no scandals in the family; none of us have appeared in the police-courts or gone to prison; none of us have been in the divorce courts. MFM □ By taking a constant interest in his son's progress, he helped to keep him on the rails when so many other young men were falling foul of the law.

3565-keep on the right side of [A2] (informal) avoid offending sb, often in the hope of being rewarded or favoured by him; keep in with (q v) □ We must keep on the right side of the captain. He could make things very uncomfortable for us if we were to annoy him in any way. A captain of a ship has a lot of power! □ He believed in keeping on the right side of his wealthier relations!

3566-keep on the right side of the law [A2] act legally, not break the law □ 'Look! I don't mind how you get this information, so long as you keep on the right side of the law.'

3567-keep a tab/tabs/a tag on [B2] (informal) follow closely the movements, activity, development of. o: known criminals, suspects □ 'Alec seems to be keeping a tab on his wife these days. Does he think she's got a lover?' □ ...I've kept a pretty close tab on most of what he's said these last twenty years. PP □ 'You keep tabs on 'im, Ginger. See wot 'e does, where 'e goes. Don't let 'im see you if you can 'elp it.'

3568-keep on one's/his toes [A2 B2 pass] continue to be, make sb remain, alert, observant, ready for action □ The old lady's horoscope read: 'Go all out for what you want today. Plenty of variety to keep you on your toes!' □ The sergeant-major kept the cadets on their toes. They never knew what they were going to have to do next. □ 'The Chairman's visiting the warehouse today, so keep on your toes and be ready to answer any questions.'

3569-keep on (about) [A1 A3] continue talking about or referring to (in an irritating manner) □ 'Bill and his girl! He's a nice chap, but oh dear, he does keep on*, doesn't he?'* □ 'I wish you wouldn't keep on about that dress you want to buy. We can't afford it and that's that!' □ Baker keeps on about El Alamain so that you'd think he won the bloody battle single-handed. ⇨ be/go on about.

3570-keep (on) at [A2 A3] worry, pester, harrass (continuously) with suggestions, requests, complaints. o: their father; elder brother; friend; teacher □ The children kept (on) at their mother to take them to the fair, but she was always too tired. □ 'Don't keep (on) at me about Johnny Smith getting a bicycle for his birthday. You're not getting one and that's final.'

3571-keep on (at/in) [B1ii pass B3 pass] not remove (from); continue to employ (at/in). O: child; caretaker □ I'm thinking of keeping my boys on (at school) until they've taken their A-level exams. □ Although the duke had to economize, he kept about twenty servants on at his main residence and several others in the stables. ⇨ keep on[3]; stay on (at).

3572-keep on top (of) [A1 A2] maintain a position of superiority. o: opponent, opposition; job □ The Prime Minister kept on top of the Opposition more by their ineptitude than by his own skill. □ 'Old Charlie's looking a bit worn out, isn't he? How much longer do you think he'll be able to keep on top of his job?' □ No matter what happens to everyone else, Slick Freddie will keep on top. ⇨ stay on top (of).

3573-keep out/out of [A1 A2 B1i pass B2 pass] (cause to) remain outside. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] the public; crowds; undesirables; rabbits □ [A1] *There was a notice on the railings round the power-house bearing the words 'Keep out! 20 000 volts'.* □ [B1] The landlord of the pub said that he had no intention of keeping the hippies out so long as they behaved themselves. □ [B2] We've tried everything to keep the moles out of the garden, but without success. □ [A2] The public must keep out of the private rooms in Blenheim Palace.

3574-keep out of[1] [A2 B2 pass] not expose oneself or others to. O: the children; the men, troops; one's, sb's name. o: harm's way; the sun, the cold; the papers □ During periods of civil strife, parents usually try to keep their children out of harm's way. □ I didn't come to Spain for my holidays to keep out of the sun. Just the contrary, in fact. □ The drunken driver turned out to be a well-known preacher, and he begged the police to keep his name out of the papers. ⇨ stay out of.

3575-keep out of[2] [A2 B2 pass] avoid or ensure that others avoid. S: [A2] O: [B2] your brother; the men. o: trouble, mischief; the way, my way, your father's way; other people's quarrels □ Half of all morality is negative and consists in keeping out of mischief. DOP □ He learnt early in life that it was best to keep out of other people's quarrels. □ 'I wish you would keep those screaming kids out of my way. They're giving me a headache.'

3576-keep one's nose out of [B2] (informal) not take an unwelcome part in. o: my business; other people's affairs; matters that don't concern one □ 'It happens to be nothing to do with Ed, but you keep your nose out of it, anyway.' AITC □ She could never learn to keep her nose out of her son's private life, though she was always made unhappy by what she discovered.

3577-keep to[1] [A2 pass B2 pass] not (allow to) leave or wander from. o: the main road, route; the point (at issue) □ We did our best to keep the rally drivers to the official route, but a few of them strayed off it. □ If you would keep to the point, Mrs Bagwash, we should all be very grateful to you. □ The author gives a lively airing to one or two of the bees in his bonnet but on the whole his Olympic Diary keeps to the point with admirable discipline. T

3578-keep to[2] [A2 pass B2 pass] (cause to) follow, observe. A: firmly, closely. o: prearranged plan, schedule □ The success of our enterprise depended on everyone keeping faithfully to the plan. □ Try to ensure that this timetable is strictly kept to.

3579-keep to[3] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) remain in, not leave. o: one's bed; the house □ My friend was obliged to keep to his bed because of a fever. □ During the winter a lot of old people are forced to keep to the house, the weather being so cold and treacherous.

3580-keep an ear/one's ear(s) (close) to the ground [B2] (informal) notice signs of coming events or tendencies (as an American Indian used to detect the approach of others by placing an ear against the ground) □ When we want to know what the students are thinking about the authorities, we only have to consult Fraser, who effectively keeps an ear to the ground. □ 'What's the gossip of the market, Tom? You fellows certainly do keep your ears to the ground*.'* QA

3581-keep to a/the minimum [B2 pass] maintain at the lowest possible level; minimize. O: expenditure, outlay; demands, requirements □ There has to be some verbal guidance to the action, but descriptive comment is kept to a minimum*.* UL □ If we keep the illustrations to a minimum*, the cost of the book will not be excessive.* □ The chairman asked the speakers to keep their remarks to the minimum in order to give everyone a chance to air their views.

3582-keep one's nose to the grindstone [B2 pass] (cause to) work persistently and hard, with the implication that the work is difficult, monotonous, or disliked □ Only by keeping one's nose to the grindstone can one hope to improve one's standard of living. □ Miss Pennington was one of those teachers who enjoyed seeing that children's noses were kept firmly to the grindstone. ⇨ get back to the grindstone.

3583-keep to oneself [B2 pass] not tell others about, not let others know. O: information, news; intentions, plans □ ...later in the day, he thought of introducing a few private harmless jokes of his own. What these were he was keeping to himself. DBM □ One's sins and consequent feelings of guilt are often best kept to oneself. □ London suffered much less than a number of other European cities, and I will keep my bomb stories to myself*, except to say that I made the acquaintance of more than one 'near miss'.* AH

3584-keep (oneself) to oneself [A2 B2] not concern oneself with other people's business, not meet or join other people socially, maintain a veil of secrecy around oneself □ 'I suppose several people have been enquiring about him since he died?' 'A lot from the newspapers did, but they got no change out of me. I keep meself to meself (substandard = myself).' PP □ Nobody knows much about old Smout. He keeps to himself most of the time.

3585-keep to the straight and narrow (path) [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) live a blameless though perhaps unexciting life □ I was surprised to hear that Johnson had been divorced by his wife on the grounds of adultery. I thought he always kept to the straight and narrow. □ The chaplain tried hard, but unsuccessfully, to keep the boys to the straight and narrow path.

3586-keep together[1] [A1 B1ii pass] not (allow to) become dispersed, scattered. O: stamp collection; books, papers, files; toys □ 'Bobby, I do wish you would learn to keep your things together and not leave them all over the house.' □ It is incredible how these old records have been kept together through the centuries. □ If all the cars keep together when we drive through the tribal territory we shall be quite safe.

3587-keep together[2] [A1 B1ii pass] (cause to) maintain a co-ordinated action. S: [A1] O: [B1] oarsmen, orchestra, choir □ The eight men kept together throughout the boat race as though they were one. □ The bad-tempered conductor found it more and more difficult to keep the players together: perhaps they were getting back at him!

3588-keep body and soul together [B1ii pass] (informal) stay alive, but with some difficulty; scrape a living □ Somehow the millions of unemployed of the 1930s managed to keep body and soul together, though on the meanest possible diet. □ 'So you got that contract for the million-pound office block? Well that should help you to keep body and soul together for a while!'

3589-keep under[1] [A1 A2 B1ii pass B2 pass] remain or hold below the surface □ [A1] The escaping prisoners, swimming across the river, managed to keep under as the searchlight raked the surface. □ [B2] The crocodile killed its prey by keeping it under the water and drowning it.

3590-keep under[2] [B1ii pass B2 pass] maintain in a state of unconsciousness or strong sedation □ The poor man's pain was so intense that he was kept under by means of regular injections of morphine.

3591-keep under[3] [B1ii pass] maintain control over, suppress; hold under (q v). O: the population; his sons; fire □ The army managed to keep the population of the occupied country under for a few months, and then trouble began to break out. □ The flamboyant character in the check suit and the loud tie surprised everyone by admitting that he could be kept under — by a strong enough hand! □ The local volunteers managed to keep the outbreak under and prevent it reaching a nearby petrol-station. ⇨ keep under control.

3592-keep under[4] [B2 pass rel] keep observing, maintain a constant watch etc over. O: suspect; patient; premises. o: ⚠ observation, surveillance, scrutiny □ The plain-clothes officers were told to keep the suspected man under constant observation. □ The bookshop displaying the near-pornographic photographs was kept under police surveillance for two weeks.

3593-keep under control [B2 pass] not allow to spread. O: fire, epidemic, outbreak; locusts □ The threatened epidemic of smallpox was kept under control by the authorities' vigorous action. ⇨ keep under[3].

3594-keep under sb's feet [A2] get in sb's way, inconvenience sb by one's presence □ 'Damn the cat! I've trodden on it again! But it will keep under my feet all day...!' □ 'Don't keep under your father's feet while he's trying to mend the sink.'

3595-keep under one's hat [B2 pass] (informal) remain secret about, not tell anyone about. O: it; the terms of the agreement; the news, plan; our intentions □ 'Mary and I are going to be married; but please keep it under your hat until we've told her parents.' □ 'It's almost certain that you will get the manager's job when he leaves: but keep it under your hat — I'm not supposed to tell you!' □ often imper.

3596-keep up[1] [A1 B1i pass] not fall or sink, prevent from falling or sinking. S: [A1] O: [B1] swimmer; construction, house □ The surviving sailors managed to keep up for several hours and were eventually picked up by a lifeboat. □ The children use waterwings to keep themselves up in the water whilst they're learning to swim. □ Those houses are so badly built that one wonders how they keep up in a strong wind. □ Some schoolboys wear a belt to keep their trousers up. ⇨ stay up[1].

3597-keep up[2] [A1 B1i pass] remain, maintain, at a high level. S: [A1] O: [B1] costs, wages, prices; production □ In spite of strikes, the national output managed to keep up. It even increased a little beyond the previous year's. □ So long as the cost of raw materials keeps up, prices of consumer goods will keep up, too.

3598-keep up[3] [A1 B1i pass] maintain, not allow to decline. S: [A1] O: [B1] spirits, courage, morale, determination, strength □ Women patients in hospitals are encouraged to use their make-up to keep up their morale. □ 'Do drink this soup I've made, dear. You must keep your strength up, you know!' □ The troops' spirits were kept up by the occasional visit of well-known entertainers to their camps. □ I tried to keep my courage up by telling myself that the war would be over within a few weeks and then I could return to my family. □ The men's spirits kept up in spite of their desperate situation.

3599-keep up[4] [B1i pass] maintain, by expenditure of money and energy. O: two establishments; (such) a large estate, big house; extensive gardens □ Glass of beer in hand, he found a companion some moments later in Sir George Bluff-Gore, who owned a large red-brick Georgian mansion that was too expensive to keep up. DBM □ He can't afford to keep up a house in the country (or: afford the upkeep of a house in the country). □ nom form is upkeep (sing only).

3600-keep up[5] [A1] continue unchanged, unabated. S: storm, hurricane; weather, sunshine, rain □ If this rain keeps up, all the crops will be ruined. □ Everybody hoped that the weather would keep up (= continue fair) for the annual sports. □ The hurricane kept up for several days and left a swathe of destruction across the country.

3601-keep up[6] [A1 B1iii pass] continue at a high level of intensity. S: [A1] O: [B1] attack, onslaught, bombardment; propaganda; interruptions, heckling, catcalls, insults; constant flow of information, criticism, questions □ There wasn't much traffic, and they crowded the narrow streets, calling across to one another, keeping up an endless flow of sharp little fragments of repartee. CON □ All the time he was doing this, he'd keep up a long, snarling monologue, usually about Baxter. CON □ Bomber Command ordered that attacks on the industrial centres be kept up relentlessly.

3602- keep up[7] [B1iii pass] maintain, continue, produce with regularity. O: effort(s), the good work; hire-purchase (HP) payments, rent □ 'I see your sales figures for the last quarter were well up on the previous one. Splendid! Keep up the good work!' □ 'If we don't keep up the payments on the car, I'm afraid the HP Company will take possession of it.' □ I regret that I can no longer keep up my annual subscription to the golf-club, so I am tendering my resignation.

3603- keep up[8] [B1iii pass] continue to practise, observe; not allow to lapse or be neglected. O: the old customs, tradition; the annual reunion; correspondence; friendship; my French □ Although the children knew all about the myth of Father Christmas, they still liked to keep up the old Christmas customs. □ Quite a lot of people keep up the tradition of making pancakes on Shrove Tuesday. □ The two families, who had got on so well together on the Costa Brava, promised each other that they would keep up the friendship in Britain. □ If only I'd kept up my German, I might have got that job in Berlin.

3604- keep up[9] [B1ii pass] prevent from going to bed at the usual time. S: (sick) child; noise, celebrations. O: parents; guests, visitors □ 'Good heavens! It's nearly half past midnight. I must go and I do hope I haven't kept you up*!'* □ 'You shouldn't keep your guests up talking until the small hours. They may be dying to go to bed!' □ ...she knew about having to be gay and lively for him and always ready to listen when he wanted to talk, and being sometimes kept up half the night if he felt like a party. AITC ⇨ be up[4], stay up[2].

3605- keep up appearances [B1iii pass] continue to observe the conventions; present an unchanged front or appearance in public, esp following some loss of status, prestige or fortune □ She would rather go hungry and keep up appearances than eat properly and wear last year's fashions. □ When I was a girl everyone was pure, today virgins are as rare as unicorns — still, I'll give white clothes (as a wedding present) to keep up appearances*.* DPM

3606- keep one's chin/pecker up [B1ii] (informal) not lose one's courage, hope, determination, optimism □ 'I don't think I'll ever be able to pass my exams.' 'You've got nothing to worry about. You've done all the work you were asked to do. So keep your pecker up*. It'll be all right.'* □ 'Bill's just been sacked; what are we going to do?' 'Something will turn up. Just keep your chin up — for the sake of the children, at least.' □ usu imper.

3607- keep one's end up [B1i] (informal) 'perform' well, appear cheerful (esp in a difficult situation); defend oneself against attack, implied criticism, or rivalry □ He kept his end up as host, even when Goodrich was retailing the diverting and fantastic adventures which had made him miss his train. PW □ Charles kept his end up fairly well. The invaluable 'News of the World' provided them with topics. HD □ He laughed, if he remembered to, whenever Alec's name was mentioned, and sometimes in Alec's face, and called him 'poor old Alec', just to keep up his end with him, and drown his sense of inferiority — which was strengthened by the benefits Alec had conferred on him. PW

3608- keep it up [B1ii] not relax one's efforts, maintain a high standard of achievement □ The leading runner had covered the first three laps in very fast time. If only he could keep it up he would break the world record. □ Robert's father studied the report and looked up. 'This is excellent, Bob. I hope you'll keep it up*.'*

3609- keep up to the mark [B3 pass] ensure that sb works or behaves as well as he is able to. S: coach; general; director; headmaster. O: team; officers; actors; staff and pupils □ You can trust the Matron of this hospital to keep her nurses up to the mark*.* □ A strong Prime Minister can be relied upon to keep his Ministers up to the mark in every way.

3610- keep up (with)[1] [A1 A3] work, play, walk, dance etc with the same vigour, speed, skill or expenditure of energy as. o: the youngsters; the experts; my cousin □ Middle-aged people look ridiculous trying to dance to pop music; they simply can't keep up with the younger folk. □ Even when Josh was in his sixties he took part in swimming competitions, and a lot of younger people couldn't keep up with him. □ Please don't walk quite so fast. Your legs are longer than mine and I can't keep up (with you)! □ Johnny finds it difficult to keep up with the rest of the class in mathematics.

3611- keep up (with)[2] [A1 A3] progress, rise, at the same rate as. S: wages; small firms. o: prices; multiple stores □ The main cause of industrial unrest is that the workers' incomes are not keeping up (with rising prices). □ The government said they would try to ensure that old age pensions kept up with the ever-increasing cost of living.

3612- keep up with[1] [A3] maintain the same social and material standards as. o: one's neighbours, friends □ Most people, in this competitive society, think they must keep up with their neighbours. □ 'It's no use asking me for a fur coat just because Mavis has got a new fur coat. My salary is only about half of her husband's, and we just can't keep up with them, that's all.' ⇨ keep up with the Joneses.

3613- keep up with[2] [A3] inform oneself about, learn about, be 'au fait' with. o: the news; latest developments; public opinion □ Julie is one of those women who always keep up with the latest fashions. □ There is so much going on in the London theatrical world that I just can't find time to keep up with it. ⇨ keep up with the times.

3614- keep up with[3] [A3] maintain contact with, through visits, correspondence etc. o: their friends in Venezuela, one's schoolfriends, old acquaintances, their friends in Venezuela; former colleagues □ Between whiles — for Alec was writing hard — she visited her old friends. She had scarcely kept up with them at all, so alien had been the mere thought of them to the life she led at Marshport. PW □ For some years after his retirement he kept up with a number of his old workmates, but as time went by he dropped them one by one.

3615-keep up with the Joneses [A3] (informal) try to maintain the same material and social standards as one's (richer) neighbours; keep up with¹ (q v) □ It's one thing to be able to keep up with the Joneses, but quite another to try to keep up with the Armstrong-Joneses (i e Lord Snowdon and Princess Margaret). UL □ He was a pathetic, self-deluded man who, on two thousand pounds a year, tried to keep up with the James Bonds of this world. □ in contrast, Tommy Atkins was the humble, obscure, anti-hero type of the First World War. The following gives an interesting twist to the expression: Certainly working-class people have a strong sense of being members of a group.... The group does not like to be shocked or attacked from within. There may be little of the competitive urge to keep up with the Joneses but just as powerful can be the pressure to keep down with the Atkinses. UL □ it is now common for the name Jones to be replaced by that of any other persons who are in the public eye on account of their luxurious mode of living or other enviable attributes.

3616-keep up with the times [A3] adapt oneself in order not to become out of date, old-fashioned □ It's no use hoping that you can go on without changing your business methods. If you don't keep up with the times, you'll get left behind. □ 'I see you've introduced self-service in your restaurant.' 'Yes; you've got to keep up with the times.' ⇨ keep up with².

3617-keep faith with [B2] not break one's promises to. S: government; company. o: the electorate; workers □ We kept faith with our allies by going to their help when they were invaded. □ The management has failed to keep faith with the employees by withholding the promised bonus.

3618-keep pace with [B2 pass(o) emph rel] be produced, progress, at the same rate as, not fall behind (q v). S: sales; supply; building. o: production; demand; requirements □ Design must keep pace with technological innovation; it should neither lag behind it nor try to anticipate it. □ The provision of accommodation for students has not kept pace with the increase in places at universities and technical colleges. □ The tremendous demand for the new model just couldn't be kept pace with.

3619-keep within bounds [B2 pass] not allow to become excessive or unreasonable. O: claims; enthusiasm, excitement; celebrations; consumption of alcohol, tobacco; expenditure □ The government says that it is doing its best to keep increases in prices within bounds. □ If your claims for expenses are kept within reasonable bounds, the Insurance Company will probably meet them in full.

3620-keyed up [pass (B2)] (be) extremely tense □ When my brother left the house this morning he was all keyed up. The examination had been on his mind for weeks. □ passive with be, appear, look, get.

3621-kick against [A2 pass] defy, protest about; resist, usu in vain. o: authority, the law, the rules; fate, nature □ It's no use trying to kick against the rules; you'll be the sufferer in the end. □ 'Don't kick against fate. What will be, will be.'

3622-kick against the pricks [A2] protest about the inevitable, possibly in such a way as to inflict pain on oneself □ 'I'm not going back to that school. I hate it! I hate it!' 'Look, dear! It's no use kicking against the pricks. Everyone has to stay at school to the age of sixteen. You'll just have to grin and bear it.'

3623-kick around [A1 A2] (informal) be present, alive; be in existence. S: Joe, old Jolyon; idea □ 'Good Lord! It's Dick! How long have you been kicking around (these parts)? I thought you were in the States!' □ 'You don't mean to say that old Thompson is still kicking around! He must be a hundred if he's a day.' □ The idea of flight had been kicking around for centuries before man actually achieved it. □ in continuous tenses only.

3624-kick around/round [B1ii pass] (informal) discuss in a tentative, informal way. O: idea, notion, suggestion □ After the clinical examination, the consultant invited his students to put forward any suggestions they had about the nature of the disease, so that they could kick them around for a while.

3625-kick-back [nom (A1)] (slang) perquisite, backhander □ 'Every job has its kick-backs,' the leader of the gang told the newcomer. 'In our job we help ourselves to little things from the passengers' luggage between the aircraft and the Customs. If you want us to cut you in, it'll cost you a fiver.' □ originally, the reaction of a car or motor-cycle engine when the starter-handle or 'kick-start' pedal is used; the pressure produced in the engine may kick back.

3626-kick back (at) [B1ii A3] kick sb in retaliation; counter-attack □ 'Dad! Billy's kicking me!' 'Then kick him back!' □ We ought to kick back at all these unfair allegations of corruption in our organization.

3627-kick downstairs [B1ii pass] push, propel, sb downstairs, with a kick; demote □ The irate husband seized his wife's lover and kicked him downstairs. □ Poor old Fleming was kicked downstairs to a job in Accounts. ⇨ kick upstairs.

3628-kick in [B1i pass] break (open), damage; dislodge with a kick. O: door; face, teeth □ As the door was locked, and I could hear someone screaming for help, I kicked it in and rushed into the house. □ Some muggers are quite capable of kicking a person's teeth in if he tries to resist.

3629-kick in the teeth [B2 pass] (informal) treat with a brutal lack of consideration □ The old lady complained that the Association of Professional Tennis Players had kicked the public in the teeth by refusing to play at Wimbledon. ⇨ previous entry.

3630-kick off¹ [B1i pass] remove with a kick. O: shoes, slippers □ He kicked his slippers off and dropped on to the bed.

3631-kick off² [A1 nom] (sport) start. S: match, game, final; the Mayor, Miss Great Britain □ The match is due to kick off at 2.15. □ A television personality was invited to kick off at the final. □ We were delayed by the traffic and missed the kick-off. □ for a kick-off = for a start, as the first point or argument of many: 'Why don't you believe what Tom says?' 'Well, I know for a fact that he wasn't anywhere near the place, for a kick-off. And besides, everyone knows he's a liar!'

3632-kick out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) expel, send out forcibly; disown. O: employee; interloper, intruder, unwanted guest □ 'You're only allowed one mistake in this firm. If you slip up a second time they kick you out without any hesitation.' □ A group of directors tried to kick the young tycoon out of his position as Chairman, but he turned the tables on them. □ Tony was asked to help kick out the gatecrashers at the party; for his pains he was rewarded with a broken bottle thrust into his face. He was lucky not to lose his eyesight. □ The film-star's son went around boasting that he had been kicked out by his father for refusing to toe the line.

3633-kick over the traces [A2] be ill-disciplined, disobey people in authority, especially one's parents □ I couldn't see eye to eye with the old man (= my father). I kicked over the traces, and I've lived my life in the entertainment business. HD □ Maybe I was too confident, and showed it. But I had received many rebuffs and there is no doubt they were good for me; they kept me from kicking over the traces too often and saved me from becoming too overbearing. MFM kick round [B1ii pass] ⇨ kick around/round.

3635-kick up[1] [B1i pass] disturb, make uneven. O: carpet; layer of dust, sand, gravel □ The maid was forever straightening the fringes of the carpet, but five minutes later the children had inevitably kicked it up again. □ A man sat at a table in a corner of the saloon idly kicking up the sawdust at his feet.

3636-kick up[2] [B1iii] create, produce. O: △ a row, fuss, dust, shindy □ (of a baby) She kicked up a terrible fuss, which was all it was, because as soon as I went into her room she stopped, and started giving me flirtatious smiles, so it couldn't have been wind or anything. WI □ The prisoners, at a pre-arranged signal, began to kick up a hell of a row with the aim of attracting the attention of people passing the prison.

3637-kick up its heels [B1iii] of a horse, kick into the air with its heels and run about, enjoying its freedom □ As soon as Ned was released into the field he kicked up his heels and ran off to join the other horses near the stream.

3638-kick upstairs [B1ii pass] (informal) promote to a position which carries greater prestige or financial reward, but which carries less power (esp from the House of Commons to the House of Lords). O: manager, former Minister of Defence □ The only way for us to get rid of old Smith is to kick him upstairs; then we'll be able to appoint Brown, and get some life into the business. ⇨ kick downstairs.

3639-kid (on/up) [B1ii] (informal) tease, tell sb sth in jest but with a serious expression on one's face. O: me; the poor child; his brother's friends □ 'If he tells you that you've won first prize in the competition, don't believe him. He's probably kidding you (on).' □ BOY: And you really will marry me? JO: I said so, didn't I? You shouldn't have asked me if you were only kidding me up. TOH □ kid up is regional (Northern).

3640-kill off [B1i pass] destroy, get rid of. O: prisoners, all the children; the weak; insects, pests, mosquitoes, locusts; buds, early shoots □ People in the village wondered what went on behind the high walls of the mental home. Did they sometimes kill off the more dangerous patients? □ A late frost killed off nearly all the apple-blossom, with the result that we had a very poor crop this year. □ Since the mosquitoes were killed off, the island has become a far pleasanter place to live in.

3641-kill with kindness [B2 pass] treat too well, be so indulgent towards sb as to cause him great harm □ Her idea of being a good wife and mother was to heap the table with food. But as it was mostly starch and fat she was literally killing her family with kindness.

3642-kill two birds with one stone [B2] do two things, achieve two objectives, by means of a single action □ 'Why don't you come and discuss your idea when you're next in Edinburgh?' 'Well, I have to see my solicitor there next week, so perhaps I could drop in and have a chat with you while I'm there.' 'That's right. Kill two birds with one stone.'

3643-kindle with [A2] become alive with. S: eyes, heart. o: excitement, amusement, interest, avarice; joy, love, desire □ As the young lady read her lover's letter, the colour came to her cheeks and her eyes kindled with excitement.

3644-kip down [A1 nom] (slang) lie down and go to sleep. S: tramp, hippy, student; team □ We all piled out of the hot coach and kipped down for a couple of hours (or: had a kip-down for a couple of hours) in the shade of some trees at the side of the road. □ The hippies were tough. They could kip down anywhere — on grass or on concrete — and sleep through the night like babes.

3645-kip out [A1] (slang) sleep in the open air □ Every night during the summer thousands of young people 'kip out' on the beaches. It costs nothing and it makes them feel adventurous.

3646-kiss away [B1i pass] remove, as a result of kissing. O: tears, frown; jealousy, anger □ Alfred walked into the house with a thousand worries written across his face. His wife helped him off with his coat and tried to kiss the anxiety away.

3647-kiss off [B1i pass] remove by kissing. O: make-up; lipstick, powder □ 'Now look what you've done! I was all ready to go out and you've kissed my lipstick off! What's more, you've got it all over your face!'

3648-kit out [B1i pass] equip. O: oneself; expedition, troops □ Before they left for their new post, they kitted themselves out at Gieves, the specialists in tropical clothes. □ The men were kitted out with the latest gear for high-altitude climbing.

3649-kit up [B1ii pass adj] dress; equip. O: oneself; child; Hell's Angels □ 'Look at that trendy couple — kitted up in all the latest gear!' □ Some of the would-be skiers had kitted themselves up absurdly in the most expensive equipment you can imagine.

3650-kneel down [A1] get on to one's knees; (continuous tenses) be or remain on one's knees. S: child; congregation, worshippers; maid, charlady □ Mary knelt down at the side of the bath and supported the baby's head in one hand as she gently washed it with the other. □ When the young man entered the church he saw that the congregation was kneeling down in prayer.

3651-knit together [A1 B1i pass] join, unite. S: [A1] O: [B1] bones; thread, strand (of a story). O: [B1] brows; members of a family, of society □ The surgeon said that it would be six months before the two parts of the broken femur knitted together firmly. □ My father knitted his brows together in a thunderous frown and ordered me to go to my room. □ War, more than anything else, seems to knit the various strata of society together. When peace returns, the old divisions return with it.

3652-knit up [B1i pass] make by knitting; use completely by knitting. O: a pair of socks; wool; a few odd ounces (of wool, nylon etc) □ Susan was amazingly quick with her needles. She could knit up a baby's coatee in an afternoon. □ The old lady spent several hours a day knitting up old scraps of wool into little squares, which she would later join together to make a blanket for her grandchild.

3653-knock about[1] [A2] (informal) move, travel, have one's haunts in □ When he was a child, he used to knock about the market, trying to find a little work to earn a few coppers. □ There are always a few old men knocking about the Grassmarket in Edinburgh; it's a sort of open-air club for tramps and down-and-outs. □ 'Our elder son has been knocking about the Continent for several months. We don't know exactly where he is or what he's doing.' □ 'Why don't you get on one of those tramp steamers that knock about South East Asia? That's the way to relax for a few weeks.'

3654-knock about[2] [B1ii nom pass] (informal) beat, treat in a brutal manner; pretend to do this, esp in early, silent films □ The young woman tried to conceal her damaged eye behind dark glasses, but it was obvious to everyone in the office that her husband had been knocking her about again. □ 'I don't care for the old knock-about comedies (ie ones in which the characters are knocked about) of the early film-makers. I prefer more subtle forms of humour.' □ knock-about is used attrib in the second example.

3655-knock about together/with [A1 A3] (informal) be often in each other's company, keep the company of. ε: the same old crowd, bunch; his old cronies; some undesirable characters; that girl □ 'You ought to be more careful who you're seen knocking about with. Remember that a man is judged by the company he keeps.' □ 'It's amazing! Julie is still knocking about with that good-for-nothing Dave. What on earth does she see in him?' □ 'Are Julie and Dave still knocking about together?' □ 'I think I should tell you that your daughter's knocking about with some pretty unsavoury people in London.'

knock one's head against a brick wall [B2] = bang one's head etc.

3657-knock against/on [B2] (cause to) hit, strike, often causing damage or pain. O: head, shin; jug, bucket □ Tom knocked his head on the protruding iron bar and had to have six stitches in it. □ I carelessly knocked the jug against the tap and broke it.

3658-knock at/on [A2] strike, rap, at/on. ε: door, window, entrance □ (children's rhyme) One, two, buckle my shoe; Three, four, knock at the door; Five, six, pick up sticks etc. □ 'I'm sure I heard someone knocking on the window just now!'

3659-knock back[1] [B1i pass] (informal) drink quickly, (esp alcohol). O: whisky, beer, pint □ The stranger ordered a double rum and knocked it back in three seconds flat. 'That's better,' he said, as he rubbed his hands together. 'Same again, please!' □ ...he mixed two Ma Chéries, double strength, adding an extra dash of brandy to hold the feeble things together. 'There you are. Knock that back!' DBM

3660-knock back[2] [B1ii pass] (informal) cost, set back[2] (q v). S: new car; court case; daughter's wedding; dress, suit □ 'I like your new stereo equipment. It must have knocked you back a couple of hundred pounds.' 'No, it didn't. I put it together myself.' □ 'How much did your wife's new hat knock you back?'

3661-knock down[1] [B1i pass] cause to fall. O: opponent, challenger, champion; fence, obstacle □ Only two or three boxers have ever succeeded in knocking Mohammed Ali down. □ The horse hesitated at the last moment and instead of taking the fence in its stride crashed into it and knocked it down.

3662-knock down[2] [B1i pass] hit with a vehicle and cause to fall, often inflicting injuries or causing death □ I think she must have been hurrying over to Harrods and been knocked down. Probably she's still unconscious. DC □ Last night a hit-and-run driver knocked a man down in the village and killed him. □ The child was knocked down by a lorry as he ran across the road.

3663-knock down[3] [B1i pass] demolish. O: building, house, fort □ When the slum property has been evacuated it will be knocked down and replaced by modern blocks of flats.

3664-knock down[4] [B1i nom pass adj] (auctioneering) sell. O: lot number thirty-four; the old bicycle, car, picture; farm, homestead □ 'For the last time, thirty pounds. I am offered thirty pounds for this antique chamber-pot. Any advance on thirty pounds? Thirty pounds. Going, going — sold to the gentleman in the dark spectacles at the back', and the auctioneer brought his hammer down on the table. 'Things like that used to be knocked down at five shillings!' said Alison. □ ...in the depression of the thirties, when everyone was going broke and all the properties were coming under the hammer at a knocked down (cf knock-down) price (i e at a low price), the McConchies were prudently buying land. RFW □ nom form is attrib, as in the second example.

3665-knock down[5] [B1i nom pass adj] dismantle for ease of transport. O: machine, car, apparatus □ In many Asian countries there are assembly plants for the construction of cars which are imported in knocked-down (cf knock-down) form from Europe, America and Japan. □ Knock-down furniture from Sweden has become very popular in recent years. □ nom form is used attrib as in these examples.

3666-knock down[6] [B1i pass] cause to reduce; beat down (q v). O: price, cost, charge; second-hand car dealer □ She is never happy unless she succeeds in knocking the bill down by a few pence. So tradesmen always add a little to their prices in anticipation of this. □ 'I managed to knock the landlady down a pound, so I got the bedsitter for four pounds a week,' he boasted.

3667-knock for six [B2 pass] (cricket) (of a batsman) score the maximum points (six runs) from a single stroke; (informal) deal a severe blow to; affect deeply or devastatingly □ When the bowler had been knocked for six off three successive balls, the captain decided that a change was overdue. □ 'Didn't you get to know of the Hampden Cross housing estate? The Council are putting one up all the way round here. (It will) knock the value of the property for six*, of course.'* DIL □ (advertisement) *'*Knock him for six with a Helena Rubinstein Heart of Coral smile....' H □ Montgomery urged his troops to knock Rommel for six out of Africa.

3668- knock them in the aisles [B2] (theatre) score a great success with 'them' (ie the audience, the public), usu by a humorous performance, play etc □ When the mass did the right thing, they were the 'public'; when they did not react satisfactorily they were simply 'them' ('just can't get them moving tonight', 'if this doesn't knock them in the aisles*, well, blast 'em').* HD

3669- knock in/into [B1i pass B2 pass] drive in (into) by means of a hammer etc. O: nail; board, piece of wood, bung. o: wood; place; hole □ The child tried hard, but couldn't knock the nail in*.* □ The pieces had been so accurately made that it was easy to knock them into position.

3670- knock (some) sense into [B2 pass] (informal) force sb to behave in a sensible way. adj: some, any, a little, a bit of □ I've been trying for years to knock some sense into my youngest daughter, but she insists on going her own way.

3671- knock off¹ [B1i pass B2 pass] remove, with a blow (from). O: cup; man; insect. o: table; horse, deck; wall, coat □ (traditional song) 'Every time that I go out, The monkey's on the table. Get a stick and knock it off*. Pop goes the weasel!'* □ A low branch of the tree, stretching across the path, knocked the unwary rider off his mount.

3672- knock off² [A1 A2] (informal) stop work. S: men, workers, factory. o: work; what you're doing □ 'I'll meet you at the factory gate after work.' 'O.K. What time do you knock off*?'* □ 'We always knock off early on Christmas Eve. Nobody's in the mood to do any work, and we usually have a drink and a bit of an office party before we go home.' □ The whistle went, the machines stopped and the men knocked off for lunch. □ 'Isn't it time you knocked off that tedious job for a while?'

3673- knock off³ [B1i pass B2 pass] reduce the price of sth by a stated amount. O: ten per cent, a few pence, a copper or two. o: the price, estimate, bill □ The greengrocer always knocked a little off the price of his fruit for the old age pensioners. □ 'Did you pay the full price for this book?' 'No. The girl knocked twenty-five pence off because it was shop-soiled.' □ 'You overcharged me ten pence last week.' 'Oh, did I? Sorry. I'll knock it off your next bill.'

3674- knock off⁴ [B1i pass] (informal) write, compose rapidly or easily; throw off ⁴ (q v), toss off ² (q v). O: a song, couple of verses, short story, article □ Edward Lear had an extraordinary imagination. He seemed to be able to knock off a limerick with the greatest of ease in a few minutes. □ This script shows every sign of having been knocked off in great haste. It is very badly written.

3675- knock off⁵ [B1i pass] (slang) kill. O: policeman, guard, 'copper', watchman □ 'Nowadays, thieves seem to think nothing of knocking off an old watchman in the course of their crimes. Bring back capital punishment, I say!'

3676- knock off⁶ [B1i pass] (slang) steal (from). O: a lorry-load of whisky, gold watch; bank □ 'I like your new transistor radio. Where did you get it?' 'Oh, I knocked it off in a shop in Tottenham Court Road while no one was looking.' □ The two men got drunk and boasted that they had knocked off a bank in London the previous day. □ 'I like the fancy ring you're wearing. Where did you knock that off*?'*

3677- knock sb's block/head off [B1ii] (slang) (threaten to) strike sb, usu by way of punishment or retaliation □ 'If I see that kid in my orchard again I'll ruddy well (= bloody well) knock his block off*.'* □ usu with shall/will.

3678- knock it off [B1ii] (slang) (order to) stop doing sth which displeases, irritates; pack it in (q v), pack it up (q v), turn it in (q v) □ 'Do me a favour, Art! You've been whistling that same tune all morning. Knock it off*, will you?'* □ usu imper.

3679- knock spots off [B2] (informal) surpass, be far better than, excel □ This restaurant is very expensive, but Mother's cooking would knock spots off it. □ Manchester decided to put on a firework display that would knock spots off anything that Liverpool might have planned for the royal visit. □ When it comes to foreign languages, the girls can usually knock spots off the boys.

knock on¹ [A2] strike, rap, at/on. ⇨ knock at/on.

knock on² [B2] strike, often causing damage. ⇨ knock against/on.

3682- knock on³ [A1 nom B1ii pass] (rugby football) knock the ball forward with the hands (not permitted by the rules of the game) □ Although Jerry thought he had scored a try, the referee had in fact blown his whistle for a knock-on some seconds earlier.

3683- knock-on [nom (B1)] domino (effect); the inevitable consequence of some initiating action □ The increase in interest rates is bound to have a knock-on effect throughout the financial world. □ usu attrib, as in the example.

3684- knock on the head [B2 pass] (informal) effectively prevent the realization of; dismiss as absurd. O: idea, scheme, plan; superstition, belief □ The increase in the price of cars has knocked our hopes for a new one this year on the head*.* □ 'It's high time this myth about eighteenth-century design was knocked on the head*.'* HAA

3685- knock on wood [A2] (US) expression used to fend off bad luck (= British English: touch wood) □ 'I hear that Jo and Phyllis are getting married on Friday the 13th.' 'Yes! Knock on wood*!'*

3686- knock out¹ [B1i nom pass] make unconscious by means of a blow, very strong drink etc. O: boxer; challenger, opponent; passenger, passer-by; guest □ Joe Frazier knocked his inexperienced opponent out in the first round of the contest. □ The fight ended in a knock-out victory for the challenger. □ The driver of the car was knocked out at the moment of impact, and could remember nothing of the circumstances of the accident. □ After two glasses of the home-made wine, I had to lie down. It had knocked me out*.*

3687 - knock out² [B1i nom pass] (informal) astound, stop as with a blow □ Mary's new outfit knocked me out. I'd never seen anything so beautiful (or expensive!) in my life. □ She's beautiful, anyway, but in that hat she's a knock-out. □ 'The new musical at the Drury Lane Theatre is a knock-out. You must see it.'

3688 - knock out³ [B1i pass] (informal) overwhelm; render speechless, incapable of action or thought. S: news, warning, results of the test □ For a moment I was completely knocked out by the news of my friend's death. It was some time before I could convince myself that it had really happened. □ The letter informing the manager that his services would no longer be required knocked him right out. He refused to see anyone all day.

3689 - knock one's pipe out [B1i] empty the ashes from one's pipe □ The old man leaned forward and knocked his pipe out against the grate.

3690 - knock out/out of¹ [B1i pass B2 pass] remove by means of a blow or repeated blows. O: contents, ashes; tooth □ Several of the child's teeth were knocked out in the accident. □ *'*Knock the powder out *(*of the tin) gently. We don't want it all over the room.'

3691 - knock out/out of² [B1i nom pass B2 pass] eliminate, esp in competitions □ Ipswich knocked Fulham out *(*of the League Cup) in the third round, and then were knocked out themselves in the fourth. □ *'It's a Knockout!'* (a European obstacle game of this name shown on BBC television, also known as Jeux sans Frontières).

3692 - knock the bottom out of [B2 pass] (informal) suddenly remove the basis of. o: one's case, argument, confidence; her world; the market □ The unexpected evidence of a passer-by knocked the bottom out of the youth's statement that he was nowhere near the scene of the crime. □ 'You always think that you're immune, and that things like this only happen to other people. Then, when they happen to you, it knocks the bottom out of your confidence. AITC □ When John's wife left him for another man, the bottom seemed to have been knocked out of his world. □ The news of renewed bombing in Vietnam knocked the bottom out of the stock market.

3693 - knock hell/the living daylights out of [B2 pass] (slang) give sb a severe, brutal, thrashing; beat unmercifully □ 'I'll kill her. I'll knock the living daylights out of her.' TOH □ Old George used to arrive home drunk every Saturday night and knock hell out of his wife. Nobody could ever understand why she never left him.

3694 - knock the spirit/the stuffing out of [B2 pass] (informal) demoralize by physical attack or psychological shock □ No amount of bombardment seemed to knock the spirit out of the guerrillas. They always reappeared, ready to strike at their enemy in the most unexpected places. □ Four days of continuous bombardment had knocked the stuffing out of the defenders, who eventually surrendered to the greatly superior forces surrounding them. □ I released his shoulder, letting my hand fall helplessly to my side as if his words had knocked all the spirit out of me. CON

3695 - knock through [A1] remove a wall, partition etc, in order to enlarge the area of a room, usu by combining two, or in order to make a new door, serving-hatch etc □ The apartment was occupied by a designer, who had knocked through between the two small bedrooms, and ripped out the simple plumbing, installing in its place an elegant décor of white tiles and chromium. OBS □ The middle interior wall has gone, and one can see through into the back garden with its breakfast patio. The knockers-through are here. L

3696 - knock together [B1i pass] prepare, construct rapidly and without finesse; knock up³ (q v). O: meal, snack; some kind of shelter; a sledge for the children; a few bookshelves; crude bed □ I don't pretend to be much of a handyman, but if need be I could knock a rough table together. □ The hut looked as if it had been knocked together by someone in a great hurry.

3697 - knock their heads together [B1ii pass] (informal) force two quarrelling people behave sensibly by this or similar violent action □ When the woman could bear the children's squabbling no longer she grabbed them both by the hair and knocked their heads together. □ Sometimes one feels that the leaders of the political parties should have their heads knocked together.

3698 - one's knees knock together [A1] feel, or show, great fear □ As I went into the boss's office I could feel my knees knocking together. Had he been told about my terrible mistake in putting the letters in the wrong envelopes?

3699 - knock up¹ [B1i pass] drive or hit upwards with a blow. O: fist, arm, weapon; latch, bar □ As the intruder rushed at me with a knife, I knocked his arm up, and hit him in the stomach with the poker.

3700 - knock up² [B1i pass] awaken by knocking on a door (or window). O: us; mill-workers; travellers; visitor □ 'Would you mind knocking me up at about 7 o'clock tomorrow, as I must catch an early train to London?' □ In some Lancashire towns the mill-owners employed their own knockers-up who went round banging on the windows of the workers every morning to wake them up.

3701 - knock up³ [B1i pass] prepare, make, quickly and without much planning; knock together (q v). O: snack, meal, dinner; shelter, hen-house, kennel, rabbit-hutch □ My mother was a marvel at knocking up a meal for an unexpected guest. There always seemed to be something in the larder. □ 'Have you seen the garage that George has built? It looks more like a shack knocked up out of driftwood by a gang of four-year-old boys.'

3702 - knock up⁴ [B1iii pass] (cricket) make, score. O: a good score; twenty runs, a century (= a hundred runs) □ At last the captain of the side found his form and knocked up his best score of the season — a faultless 70.

3703 - knock up⁵ [B1ii pass] make tired, exhausted or ill. S: climb, effort; the struggle to swim to the shore; experience, shock; overwork □ 'Please don't try to dig up the whole garden in one day: you'll knock yourself up.' □ Tom was completely knocked up as a result of his prolonged effort to qualify for the Olympics team.

3704 - knock up⁶ [B1ii pass] (slang) make a woman pregnant □ 'Why ever did she let him knock her up? You'd have thought she'd never heard of the Pill! Now I suppose she'll have to have an abortion.'

3705- knock-up [nom (A1)] (tennis) a short period of practice before starting to play a game □ While the players were having a knock-up, the crowd settled down in their seats in expectation of a first-class match.

3706- knot together [B1i pass] join by means of a knot. O: two pieces of rope, string; laces □ We escaped from the burning hotel by knotting several sheets together and using them as a rope.

3707- know about [A2 pass B2 pass emph rel] have knowledge of, be aware of. O: anything, nothing; a lot, a good deal □ 'Did you know about your son's shocking behaviour at the club last night?' 'Yes, thank you. I know all about it.' □ 'You can't park your car here, sir! There's a double yellow line near the pavement.' 'Oh, I didn't know about that.' 'Ignorance of the law is no defence, I'm afraid. I'll have to book you.' □ 'Why weren't you at the committee meeting yesterday?' 'I didn't know anything about any committee meeting.' □ Not much is known about some of the tribes in Papua.

3708- not know about [A2] not recognize or accept the truth or admissibility of sth. o: that; (any words used by a previous speaker) □ 'Joan's a pretty girl, isn't she?' 'I don't know about pretty. She's certainly got plenty of money— which makes her attractive, anyway!' □ 'The Common Market should be good for world trade.' 'I don't know about that. It looks more like an exclusive club, to me.' □ usu first person, neg, simple present tense.

3709- know by sight [B2 pass] know, without being an acquaintance of. O: her; film-star; your friend; the Vice-Chancellor □ 'Have you ever met Professor James?' 'No, But I know him well enough by sight, of course.'

3710- (not) know from [B2] (not) be able to distinguish, separate or recognize the difference between. O: him etc; one brother, twin; goldfinch. o: Adam, a crow; another; yellowhammer □ 'You remember Mrs Fortescue, don't you?' 'Mrs Fortescue? I seem to recall the name, but I wouldn't know her from Adam (or: I wouldn't know her from a crow).' □ That nurse's head is always in the clouds. She never seems to know one patient from another.

3711- not know one's arse from one's elbow [B2] (taboo) be ignorant, inefficient, stupid □ 'Don't ask Algernon for any advice over your financial affairs—he doesn't know his arse from his elbow.'

3712- know of [A2] have knowledge or experience concerning; be slightly acquainted with. o: a nice, quiet spot for a holiday; a good way to make money; an interesting restaurant □ There is only one way that I know of to pass examinations, and that is to work hard and be fully prepared. □ 'Excuse me. Do you by any chance know of a short cut to the Vicarage?' □ 'Is anyone going to visit Uncle Tom in hospital this evening?' 'Not that I know of.' □ 'Do you know Sir Ralph Thomas?' 'No. I know of him, but I've never met him.' □ where know of is contrasted with know, the word of is pronounced in its strong form, /ov/, as in the last example.

3713- know through and through [B1ii] know and understand perfectly. O: him etc; her husband; the boss; men □ She had only been with him once, for a weekend—but her thoughts had been so constantly with him—and never more than when they were forbidden access to him—that she felt she knew him through and through. FW □ Mary knew children through and through. After all, she had brought up six of her own.

3714- known to [pass (B2)] (be) on the records of. S: tramp, suspect; applicant; tenant; client. o: the police, authorities; the Home Office; estate agent; department store □ People who are known to the police naturally tend to be suspected if they were near the scene of a crime and unable to explain what they were doing there. □ cp the more straightforward passive of know sb: Mr Jones has been known to me for several years, and I can write with confidence about his suitability for the vacancy in your office.

3715- knuckle under (to) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) give way in the face of pressure, accept orders (from). o: (the likes of) him; authority; injustice □ The British Government had knuckled under to threats of violence, which had created unsurmountable obstacles to progress. SC □ In spite of every argument, the recalcitrant students refused to knuckle under, and continued their occupation of the Vice-Chancellor's room.

3716- kowtow (to) [A2 pass] make oneself subservient to; seek one's objectives through undignified behaviour □ The British miners are not the kind of men who will kowtow to people in authority. They have pride in their work and pride in themselves. □ He may have made a lot of money as a shipowner, but that doesn't mean he has to be kowtowed to.

L

3717- labour over [A2 pass rel] work hard and continuously at some difficult task; toil over (q v). o: paper, document; draft, communiqué; marking, corrections □ The editor laboured over the manuscript till early morning. □ Some kinds of writing are all the better for being laboured over.

3718- labour under[1] [A2 emph rel] (formal) have as a disadvantage or handicap. o: disability, infirmity □ The new regime removed many of the injustices under which the population had laboured.

3719- labour under[2] [A2 emph rel] (formal) be misled or blinded by. o: (mistaken, false) idea, supposition; misapprehension □ Our political opponents labour under the delusion that support for our policies is dwindling.

3720- lace up [B1i nom pass] fasten, close up, with laces. O: shoe, jacket; football □ His swimming-trunks are laced up (or: lace up) at the side. □ Her new boots can be laced up (or: are lace- ups). □ the form lace-up(s) refers only to footwear.

3721-lace (with) [B2 pass] add spirits to a (hot) beverage. O: tea, coffee. o: rum, whisky □ On night watch, the sailors drank hot tea laced with rum.

3722-laden with [pass (B2)] bearing heavy loads or burdens; (be) loaded with, burdened with. S: table, tree; businessman, official. o: food, fruit; care, responsibility □ The traditional picture of an English Christmas includes a table laden with food and drink. □ One doesn't normally think of Stephen as a man laden with anxieties. ⇨ load down (with).

3723-lag behind [A1 A2] fail to keep level (with), hang to the rear (of). S: runner, car; industry, factory. o: leader, pack; competitor □ In steel production, we lag behind the rest of Europe. □ Our figure lags behind the national average. SC

3724-lam into [A2 pass] (slang) attack violently (with the fists, or verbally); lay into (q v). S: boxer; listener, critic □ In the last round, Smith fairly lammed into his opponent. □ What did the poor man say that made you lam into him like that?

3725-land (in) [B2 pass rel] (informal) make things end unhappily, badly, for sb. O: firm; colleague, friend; oneself. o: mess, muddle; (bankruptcy) court, the gutter □ Just look at the mess you've landed us in*!* □ You know where he'll land us all next time? In gaol.

land onto [B2 pass] ⇨ land with.

3727-land up [A1] (informal) reach a final point (after a journey, career etc). S: (lost) parcel, letter; wanderer, vagabond; petty thief, bigamist □ His hat blew off in a strong wind and landed up on top of a lorry. □ After knocking about the world for a few years Michael landed up teaching in his home town. □ The probation officer had a warning for Bill: 'One more appearance in court and you could land up in prison.'

3728-land with [B2 pass] (informal) oblige sb to accept a burden. S: boss, colleague. o: task; arrangement, organization; child, invalid □ I've been landed with an extra set of papers to mark. □ Someone has landed me with the job of fixing hotel rooms for the visitors (or: landed onto me the job of fixing hotel rooms etc). □ The family were landed with mother-in-law (or: Mother-in-law was landed onto the family) for the entire weekend.

3729-lap up[1] [B1i pass adj] drink, by taking up liquid on the tongue. S: cat, dog. O: milk, water □ The milk you put out in the saucer was quickly lapped up*.*

3730-lap up[2] [B1i pass adj] (informal) absorb, learn, greedily or eagerly. S: spoilt child, favourite; student. O: flattery, praise, compliment; facts, knowledge □ Irma could call him the silliest things — 'treasure', 'little sparrow' — and he would lap them up*.* FW □ He will take all the instruction you can give him — he just laps it up*.*

3731-lapse (from) [A2 emph rel] (formal) fall short of a high standard, esp in one's moral life. o: (high) standard, level, position □ If you will adopt such a lofty moral stance you shouldn't be surprised when occasionally you lapse from it.

3732-lapse from grace [A2] fall from a position in which one is highly regarded, favoured etc; fall from grace (q v). S: adviser, associate; favourite □ Gunning spoiled his chances for quick promotion by writing newspaper articles that were overcritical of his party chiefs. And once having lapsed from grace he found it hard to climb back into favour again.

3733-lard with [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) add sth pompous, flowery etc to one's words. O: speech, address. o: compliment, praise; anecdote, quotation □ He larded his remarks with references to his importance in local affairs. □ The sailors' language was richly larded with oaths.

3734-lash down [B1i pass adj] tie firmly in position with ropes etc. O: sail, canvas; tarpaulin, awning; hatch; load; box, bale □ A tarpaulin was spread over the hay-rick and firmly lashed down to prevent it blowing off in a high wind. □ The crew lashed down the cargo of timber stowed on the foredeck.

3735-lash out (at) [A1 nom A3 emph rel] make a sudden and violent attack (physical or verbal) (upon). S: horse, mule; speaker, politician; husband, teacher. o: rider, stranger; tax-evader, slacker; child □ It seemed that he was going to lash out at her, but he controlled himself. DC □ He treated the television interview as an opportunity to have a lash-out at the opposition party.

3736-lash out (on) [A1 A3] (informal) spend freely or lavishly (on sth); pay a lot (and more than one is willing to pay) (for sth). o: food, wine; perfume, cigars; luxuries, fripperies □ When David goes on one of his European trips he lashes out on presents for the whole family. □ Many parents resent having to lash out on unnecessary items of school uniform which their children will in any case grow out of in a year.

3737-last out[1] [A1] not be consumed, expended or exhausted. S: supply, store; money; food, water, fuel □ We can hold this position for as long as the ammunition lasts out*.* □ The petrol should just about last out till we get to the next village.

3738-last out[2] [A1] (be able to) complete some difficult task without collapsing etc; remain alive, survive. S: climber, explorer; sick, elderly, person □ 'We shall have to call a halt soon. Some of the youngsters haven't enough puff (= breath) in them to last out till the end of the climb.' □ The group round the bed could see that the old man was sinking fast: he would probably not last out the afternoon.

3739-latch on (to) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) get into sb's company, become a member (of); listen carefully (to). o: girl; party, group; remarks □ When a man is rejected, he may for a time latch on to some less attractive girl. □ As the mists cleared from my brain, I latched on to their conversation. CON

3740-laugh (at)[1] [A2 pass emph rel] show amusement (at sb or sth). o: comedian; joke, story □ He laughed at the way the clowns kept falling over their big feet.

3741-laugh (at)[2] [A2 pass emph rel] mock, ridicule; make fun of (q v). o: misfortune, impediment; speech, dress □ Thoughtless children sometimes laugh at beggars and tramps. □ It's that sanctimonious air that people can't stand — small wonder he's laughed at*.*

3742-laugh (at)[3] [A2 pass emph rel] disregard, scorn. o: danger, risk; problem □ He laughs at the difficulties — they just spur him on to further effort. □ His mother's pleas to be careful were just laughed at*.*

3743-laugh away [B1i pass] dispel, drive away, by laughing, some unpleasant feeling or sensation in oneself or others. O: anxiety, fear, misgivings; depression, tears □ 'I know you're very brave, but you can't just laugh a toothache away*. You'll have to see a dentist.'* □ Jane had this tremendous fear of the dark, and her husband would try to laugh it away*, saying it was just her overdeveloped imagination.*

3744- laugh in sb's face [A2] (informal) reject with cruel mockery. S: captor; boss; (cruel) lover □ When I asked him for longer time to pay back the loan, he just laughed in my face*.*

3745- laugh off [B1i pass adj] (informal) try, by laughing, to pretend that sth for which one is responsible has not happened or does not exist. O: blunder, faux pas; neglect, responsibility □ This is a mistake that can't easily be laughed off*.* □ 'Don't worry,' he said, trying to laugh off his resentment at the intrusion. AITC □ 'Well, I've something to tell you. Your bungling has set the project back a month. Now try laughing that off*!'*

3746- laugh one's head off [B1ii] (informal) laugh noisily and cheerfully (often at sb else's expense). S: onlooker, listener □ As he picked himself up from the floor, he saw a couple of boys laughing their heads off*.*

3747- laugh on the other side of one's face [A2] (informal) be made to appear ridiculous because one's supposed reason for being pleased with oneself etc is shown to have no real basis □ 'Laugh as much as you like. I've got some news here that will make you laugh on the other side of your face*!'* □ If Robert thinks he has outwitted the chemistry master, he is due for a surprise. Mr Prescott will make him laugh on the other side of his face*.* □ often with will/would (make), as in the examples; note the plural: 'This'll make them laugh on the other side of their faces*.'*

3748- laugh out of [B2 pass] (try to) make sb forget his unhappiness by laughing. o: depression, misery □ He could tell she was in a bad mood, and tried to laugh her out of it.

3749- laugh out of court [B2 pass] (informal) dismiss sth scornfully as false, ridiculous etc. O: charge, accusation; claim, statement □ The story was untrue — the villagers had laughed it out of court*.* HAA □ Any attempt to charge us with some legal offence would be laughed out of court*.* TBC

3750- laugh up one's sleeve [A2] (informal) be secretly amused at sb else's failure etc □ He could sense that his former colleagues were laughing up their sleeves over his dismissal. □ She felt that the waiter was laughing up his sleeve at her inability to pay.

3751- launch into [A2 pass] begin a long and involved speech etc (often in a vigorous or violent way). S: orator, critic. o: tale, account; rigmarole; (verbal) tirade, onslaught □ Mr Blearney launched into another of his stories. HD □ Before she could speak he had launched into a long and circumstantial narrative. HD

3752- launch out (into) [A1 A3 pass rel] (informal) change to sth involving challenge and risk. S: firm, businessman; producer, writer. o: manufacture, politics; journalism □ Why must a dancer launch out as choreographer as well? OBS □ You'll want to launch out into something with a proper salary. THH

3753- lay about [A2] (informal) fight, struggle (physically or verbally). o: one (= oneself); opponent, assailant □ With his free arm he proceeded to lay about him. SD □ Aren't you laying about them for your discharge from hospital? THH

3754- layabout [nom (A1)] (informal) sb who habitually avoids work (and may be a petty criminal) □ He's a wretched, idle layabout — never done a day's work in his life.

3755- lay aside[1] [B1i pass] put down, place to one side. O: reading, needlework □ She laid aside her knitting to rest her eyes for a moment.

3756- lay aside[2] [B1i pass] relinquish, abandon. O: burden, responsibility, cares of office □ Now that his sons are growing up, certain of his responsibilities can be safely laid aside*.*

3757- lay aside/by [B1i pass] save for future needs. S: parent, young couple. O: money, cash □ They've a little money laid by for emergencies. □ We must lay something aside for the boy's education.

3758- lay at sb's door [B2 pass emph rel] say that sb is responsible for sth; attach to[2] (q v). O: ⚠ the blame, the responsibility, the guilt □ The blame for these accidents should be laid at the door of careless drivers. □ With so many reports to mislead one, it is hard to say at whose door the responsibility should be laid*.* ⇨ lie at sb's door.

3759- lay before [B2 pass] present sth to an official body for discussion, passing into law etc. O: plan, proposal; Bill. o: committee, council; Parliament, the House □ His proposals were laid before a select committee of members. □ Here is a draft of the legislation he intends to lay before Parliament.

lay by [B1i pass] ⇨ lay aside/by.

3761- layby [nom (B1)] recess at the side of a main road where vehicles may be parked □ We parked the car in a layby and had a picnic lunch.

3762- lay down[1] [B1i pass adj] prescribe, indicate. O: rule, principle; what action to follow □ We had to lay down the general direction in which the answer lay. MFM □ Follow the procedure laid down in our booklet.

3763- lay down[2] [B1i pass] store in a cellar to mature. O: claret, burgundy, port □ Father laid down a few good bottles before the war.

3764- lay down[3] [B1i pass] (begin to) build. O: ship, vessel; railway □ Several of the new-type tankers are being laid down on Tyneside.

3765- lay down one's arms [B1iii] (military) surrender. S: army, regiment; troops □ The majority of their soldiers simply laid down their arms*.* B

3766- lay down the law [B1i] (informal) talk with authority (real or assumed) about sth; hold forth (q v). S: (so-called) expert, specialist; critic, rebel. A: on pollution, on law and order; about cricket, about football □ It is not right for the soldier to lay down the law in political matters. MFM □ A man in the saloon bar was laying the law down on fly fishing.

3767- lay down one's life (for) [B1iii B3 emph rel] (formal) sacrifice one's life (on behalf of). S: patriot, fanatic. o: country, king; cause, convictions □ Young men flocked to the recruiting offices, willing to fight, and if need be to lay down their lives*.* □ This is a cause for which he is prepared to lay down his life*.*

3768- lay down to [B3 pass] convert into pasture (i e for cattle or sheep). O: field, big acreage. o: ⚠ grass, clover □ The farmer decided to lay ten acres down to grass.

3769-lay the blame (for) (on) [B2 pass emph rel] regard as the one responsible (for an error, evil etc); put the blame (on) (q v). o: (for) loss, setback; mistake, blunder; decision, plan, policy; (on) wife; partner; government □ There was no one person on whom all the blame could be laid; responsibility for the failure was evenly shared. □ The Churches are united and vocal in opposing apartheid and laying the blame for the recent tragic events where it belongs. SC

3770-lay in [B1i pass adj] provide oneself with a stock of; stock up (with) (for) (q v). O: winter fuel, food supplies, provisions □ They laid in a good supply of coal in the summer, when prices were low.

3771-lay into [A2 pass] (informal) attack violently (with one's fists or verbally), lam into (q v) □ I saw Jones lay into a man twice his size.

3772-lay hold of [B2 pass(o)] seize, grasp; obtain, acquire. S: porter, gaoler; speculator, developer. o: bundle, case; prisoner, victim; property, land □ We laid hold of the rope and pulled lustily. BB □ Michael was firmly laid hold of by the collar and shaken till his teeth rattled. □ He was lucky to lay hold of a block of shares before the price went up.

3773-lay off[1] [A1 A2] (informal) stop doing sth harmful etc; stop doing sth unpleasant, irritating etc. o: it; drink, cigarettes, drugs; all-night parties; bullying, shouting □ So long as I can make good my threat they'll lay off the use of force. TBC □ I was told that I should lay off these visits. MFM □ A prefect came in. 'There's far too much noise in here', he said. 'Lay off, or I'll put the lot of you in detention.'

3774-lay off[2] [A2] (informal) stop troubling, molesting, sb, his property etc, leave sb or sth alone. o: family, girlfriend; chickens, sheep □ 'Take it easy, then he'll soon lay off you.' AITC □ 'Lay off my tie and give me a kiss.' SC

3775-lay off[3] [B1i nom pass adj] dismiss from work (usu temporarily, while trade is bad). S: firm, management. O: worker, staff □ The factory was laying people off. AITC □ He is a skilled worker laid off from his job in a Belfast shipyard. T □ Other lay-offs have been at the Austin works (cf Other men have been laid off at etc). OBS

3776-lay off[4] [A1 nom] aim to one side of a target to allow for wind or movement of the target. S: gunner, hunter □ I bowled over four rabbits by laying off enough ahead of them. RFW □ It came straight at us. One couldn't miss: no lay-off at all sideways. RFW

3777-lay on[1] [B1i pass adj] supply, provide, furnish. S: landlord, council; firm, host. O: water, electricity, gas; car, transport; driver, escort □ We had electricity laid on. H □ 'I'll lay on a car tomorrow and have you run down to London.' DIL

3778-lay on[2] [B1i pass adj] organize, make arrangements for. O: concert, display, outing □ It's his birthday. That's why I laid on a party. QA □ The reception at the Town Hall was well laid on.

3779-lay on[3] [B1i pass adj] (informal) exaggerate, make sth seem bigger, worse etc, than it really is. O: it; pathos, sorrow, regret; pleasure, gratitude. A: (rather, a bit) thick, with a trowel □ The only sin he ever had to confess was the sin of Pride: and he laid it on thick. US □ That's how we like our humour — laid on with a trowel. OBS □ He was laying it on a bit, with all this talk of wanting to help the poor.

lay the blame (on) [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ lay the blame (for) (on).

3781-lay one's cards on the table [B2 pass] (informal) declare openly one's assets, intentions etc; put one's cards on the table (q v) □ How did Alec know that Harold wouldn't take advantage of these confidences? How foolish to lay all his cards on the table! PW □ The negotiators felt they had nothing to lose by laying some of their cards on the table at the beginning of the talks.

3782-lay emphasis/stress on [B2 pass emph rel] treat as specially important, give special attention to. S: government, council; planner, developer; report, survey. adj: much, little; great, special, particular. o: wishes, consent (of the governed); cost, profit; lack, absence (of amenities) □ The White Paper lays special emphasis on the development of nursery schools in the 'educational priority' areas. □ Too little stress has been laid on preserving an existing sense of community in the planning of new estates.

3783-lay eyes on [B2] perceive, sight sb; set eyes on (q v). A: never; first, next. o: his etc wife, brother; prisoner, accused man □ 'Do you deny having spoken to the witness on the day in question?' 'Yes, sir, I do. In fact I've never laid eyes on him before.' □ 'He's a hooligan. When I first laid eyes on him, I thought he's certainly not the type for my Cairy. Too damn rough.' YAA

3784-lay one's hands on[1] [B2 rel] take, obtain (in order to use as one's property); get one's hands on[1] (q v). o: extra capital, spare cash; office space, building land □ His primary concern was to catch, kill, stuff and describe as many kinds of beasts as he could lay his hands on. HAH □ The Russians were removing and sending eastwards all machinery and stocks on which they could lay their hands. MFM

3785-lay one's hands on[2] [B2 rel] find sth one is looking for. o: book, paper, reference □ I arranged these shelves, and I could lay my hands on anything. EM □ I was never able to lay my hands quickly and accurately on quotations. SML

3786-lay one's hands on[3] [B2] (informal) seize, arrest, in order to punish or hurt; get one's hands on[2] (q v). o: criminal, mischief-maker □ The place is swarming with policemen just waiting to lay their hands on some of us. CSWB □ Heaven help that boy if I ever lay my hands on him.

3787-never/not lay a finger/hand on [B2] (informal) not harm or molest at all. o: child; wife, daughter □ We have firm discipline, but the staff never lay a finger on the boys. □ 'Nobody has laid a hand on me. Yet.' TOH

3788-lay out[1] [B1i pass] spend. O: cash, a lot (of money) □ He had to lay out all he had on the airline tickets. ILIH □ Last year there was a considerable outlay (= expenditure) on school uniforms. □ nom form is outlay.

3789-lay out[2] [B1i pass] (informal) make unconscious by striking; knock out[1] (q v) □ I laid one of them out and I had another one round the throat. TC □ If you slap my face — by God, I'll lay you out! LBA

3790-lay out[3] [B1i nom pass adj] arrange parts in relation to each other and to the whole in a convenient and pleasing manner. S: editor, printer; architect, landscape-gardener, planner; shopkeeper, window-dresser. O: front page, contents; suburb, street, park; wares, stock, goods □ The empty ashtrays were laid out neatly on the little tables TC □ Oswald took an unskilled job doing photo lay-out work. OBS □ We admired the neatly laid-out flower-beds.

3791- lay out[4] [B1i pass adj] spread out ready for use. S: valet, chambermaid. O: clean underclothes, evening dress, shoes □ The drill is to lay out the clothes that he'll be wearing in the evening. RFW □ His dinner jacket was already laid out on the bed.

3792- lay out[5] [B1i pass adj] prepare for burial. S: undertaker, family. O: deceased, corpse □ The family passed one by one through the small parlour where the father's body was laid out.

3793- lay claim to[1] [B2 pass(o) emph rel] (legal) maintain that in law one is entitled to sth. S: relative, associate. o: estate, fortune; title (of nobility) □ There was little doubt that Gray's will would be contested: his former wife would surely lay claim to the large sum he had left to his housekeeper. □ 'If the property was ever laid claim to by a surviving relative you might have difficulty proving your title to it.'

3794- lay claim to[2] [B2 emph rel] maintain, assert, that one knows, understands etc, sth. o: knowledge, understanding, expertise; familiarity (with); being a connoisseur, having some competence □ 'Of course, I lay no claim to expert knowledge of the stock market, but it strikes me that these companies have an excellent record of growth.' □ 'Have I ever laid claim to being a good mother?' TOH

3795- lay to rest[1] [B2 pass] (formal) bury. O: body, remains □ In a simple ceremony, the victims of the disaster were laid to rest in the village churchyard.

3796- lay to rest[2] [B2 pass] finally remove or allay. S: explanation; statement, communiqué. O: story, tale; rumour, scandal; doubt, uncertainty □ An official statement laid to rest the remaining fears about possible redundancies in the industry. □ 'That affair was finally laid to rest years ago. Don't go and resurrect it again.'

3797- lay up[1] [B1i pass adj] store, stock. O: foodstuffs, fodder, provisions, fuel □ We'll need to lay up a good supply of feed if this winter's going to be like the last.

3798- lay up[2] [B1i pass adj] take off the road; put out of commission. O: motor vehicle, ship □ He's had to lay his car up*: he can't afford the insurance premiums.* □ For thirteen years the flying boat has been laid up on the Isle of Wight. BBCTV

3799- lay up[3] [B1i pass adj] make inactive, confine to one's bed. S: chronic illness, serious injury, broken limb □ A bout of malaria had laid me up for a few weeks. □ Furthermore, he was laid up with a bad knee. MFM

3800- lay up for oneself [B3] ensure by one's present conduct, or neglect, that trouble will follow. O: trouble, difficulty, problems, bother □ You are laying up for yourselves the most appalling economic problems. BBCTV □ He's laid up no end of trouble for himself.

3801- lead astray [B1i pass] tempt sb to do wrong. S: criminal, corrupt man. O: young people, innocent girls □ He led many girls astray with his easy, superficial charm. ⇨ go astray.

3802- lead in [A1 nom] introduce, open (one's remarks, speech, performance etc) □ The chairman led in with some flattering references to the visiting speaker's record in the industry. □ There was a long lead-in on the piano; then the strings and woodwind came in together.

3803- lead off [A1] begin, start □ Ned, the General Editor, led off with a general survey of the objectives to be aimed at. CON □ The town band led off by playing the National Anthem.

3804- lead on [B1ii pass] (informal) (try to) persuade sb to do, believe etc, sth by making false promises. S: advertiser, salesman; poster, brochure; playboy □ Travel brochures do lead you on with their promises of five-star treatment in luxury hotels. □ 'Haven't you noticed the predatory gleam in his eye? He's probably leading you on.'

3805- lead up the garden path [B2 pass] (informal) mislead, deceive. S: rogue, imposter; politician, expert. O: police; electorate; consumer □ We have been led up the garden path before with such promises (ie of magnificent cricket). SC □ Someone posing as a television reporter has been leading us up the garden path.

3806- lead up to [A3 pass] occur, one after the other, before sth; prepare, have as a consequence. S: incident, occurrence; discussion, argument. o: conflict, war; agreement □ The report describes the negotiations which led up to the settlement. □ Every event in Oswald's life led up to that moment. OBS

3807- leaf through [A2 pass] read in a brief, inattentive way, turning the pages quickly; flick through (q v). o: book, magazine □ I can't claim that I've read the article at all carefully: I've just leafed through it. □ Mary leafed idly through some old magazines as she waited for her taxi to arrive.

3808- leak out [A1] (informal) become known despite efforts to keep it secret. S: news, information; secret □ The news leaked out. WDM □ Stringent precautions were taken to prevent the details of the wedding leaking out.

3809- lean on [A2 pass] (criminal slang) make sb act as one wishes by the threat or use of force, by blackmail etc. S: gangster, racketeer. o: bookmaker, small-time crook □ 'It's a protection racket. All his thugs need to do is lean on the small shopkeepers and they'll cough up (q v) soon enough.' □ 'Joe's soft. He'll co-operate. He just needs leaning on a little.'

3810- lean on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] choose especially for support; (as likely to prove reliable). o: parent, teacher; counsel, advice □ In a crisis, the headmaster tends to lean overmuch on senior members of staff. □ It was reassuring to have someone upon whom he could lean for a while.

3811- lean out/out of [A1 A2] (of the head and shoulders) be thrust out of, project from. o: window, porthole □ The window of our hotel bedroom was not well placed. If you leant a long way out you could just glimpse a small triangle of blue sea. □ Passengers are requested not to lean out of the carriage windows.

3812- lean over [A1 A2 pass] slant, incline, one's head and shoulders (so that one can more easily hear sb, see what he is doing etc) □ Peter leant (or: leaned) over and whispered something in Felicity's ear. □ I do so hate people leaning over me when I am trying to read the paper.

3813-lean over backwards [A1] (informal) try one's hardest to help, understand, co-operate etc. S: assessor, examiner; court, jury □ The examiners leant over backwards to find some saving merit in the candidate's literature paper. □ People were leaning over backwards to be pleasant to this odious little man. □ followed by -ing form or to-inf.

3814-lean-to [nom (A1)] small outbuilding partly supported by the walls of a larger one □ He stores his garden tools in a small lean-to. □ There was a lean-to greenhouse against the brick wall of the garage.

3815-leap at [A2 pass adj] seize eagerly, jump at (q v). o: ⚠ the opportunity, the chance, the offer □ If he offered me a small part in his new production, I'd leap at the chance. □ The opportunity was laid before him and eagerly leaped at.

3816-learn from [A2] by studying one's mistakes etc, and those of others, ensure that they are not repeated. o: experience(s); mistake, blunder □ 'At my age,' Milly said, 'one has to learn from other people's experiences.' OMIH □ (Helen has just learnt that her teenage daughter is pregnant) 'Oh, Jo, you're only a kid. Why don't you learn from my mistakes?' TOH

3817-learn off (by heart/rote) [B1i pass B3 pass] memorize perfectly. O: part, lines (in a play); formula, theorem □ 'Learn these words off by heart.' BFA □ 'Can you learn off the part by the end of the week?'

3818-lease back [B1i nom pass] (commerce) sell the freehold (or sometimes the long lease) of a property and obtain in return temporary possession on a lease (i e in order to free the capital tied up in the property). O: property, office block □ The Managing Director suggested to the Board that the best way of obtaining capital for the expansion programme would be to sell the company's headquarters to a finance house and then lease them back. □ In recent years there has been a spate of leaseback deals as more and more firms cash in on the value of the properties they own.

3819-leave about/around [B1ii pass B2 pass] fail to put away carefully and tidily. O: clothes; book, paper. o: place; room, house □ 'Don't leave your toy soldiers around the house: I walk on them all the time.' □ The nurse took pride in her work: she wouldn't have left things about. DC

3820-leave aside [B1i pass] not consider, not calculate. O: matter, question; cost, inconvenience □ Leaving the matter of cost aside, we still have to find time off from other work.* □ I don't see how you can leave aside his neglect of his family.

3821-leave it at that [B2 pass] (informal) say or do nothing further, let matters rest there □ The insurers weren't prepared to compensate him for loss of earnings, so he had to leave it at that. □ 'It isn't like that,' I said wearily. 'I did love you, but I can't now. Let's leave it at that.' RATT

3822-leave behind[1] [B1i pass] fail or forget to bring or take; abandon (as in a retreat). O: raincoat, umbrella; wallet, key; wounded, dying □ 'It's a fine day: you can leave your mac behind!' □ In their withdrawal, much of the heavy equipment had to be left behind.

3823-leave behind[2] [B1i pass B2 pass emph] (formal) leave as a sign or record that sb has acted or sth has occurred. S: government, regime; invader; typhoon, storm. O: record, legacy; devastation, damage □ Some rulers have left behind no lasting memorial. □ The cyclone left behind it a trail of destruction.

3824-leave down [B1ii pass] allow to remain in a lowered position. O: handle, lever, switch □ All switches should be left down during the experiment. ⇨ stay down[1].

3825-leave (for)[1] [A2 B2] depart, to travel to another place. O: home; London. o: office, work; New York □ We leave for Madrid by the next plane. □ He left home for the station a few minutes ago.

3826-leave (for)[2] [B2 pass rel] abandon, in order to follow sb or sth new. O: army, law; wife, family. o: Church, politics; another woman □ He left business for a new career as a social worker. □ At forty-five, she'd been left for some new girlfriend.

3827-leave for dead [B2 pass] abandon sb in the belief that he is dead □ He'd been left for dead on the battlefield, but later on he turned up at the base hospital.

3828-leave in [B1i pass] allow to remain where it is. O: damper, plunger; application, proposal, bid; passage, reference □ The damper was left in overnight to prevent the fire from burning out. □ I shouldn't leave in that reference to your employer: I should take it out. ⇨ stay in[2].

3829-leave off[1] [B1i pass] no longer wear or put on. O: jumper, winter woollens, overcoat □ Cardigans and sweaters can be left off when the warmer weather comes.

3830-leave off[2] [A1 A2] stop, cease. o: work; arguing, interrupting □ The rain hadn't left off (or: It hadn't left off raining). FW □ Ned left off talking about the firm. CON □ object is usu the -ing form of the a v.

3831-leave on[1] [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] allow to stay in position. O: lid, cover; kettle, pot; cloth. o: saucepan; gas, stove; table □ 'Where did you leave the keys?' 'On the desk'. □ 'Leave the cloth on. I want to lay the table for supper.' ⇨ stay on[1].

3832-leave on[2] [B1i pass adj] allow to stay alight or keep burning. O: light, lamp; fire; television □ The electric fire had been left on overnight. □ 'You can leave the hall-light on.' ⇨ stay on[2].

3833-leave out [B1ii pass] leave in the open (e g through forgetfulness). O: toy, pram; washing □ If you leave your bicycle out at night, you'll soon have trouble with rust. ⇨ stay out[2].

3834-leave out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass] not include or mention (in); omit (from) (q v). o: guest-list; party, group; arrangements □ My name can be left out of this: I don't want to be involved. □ When you wrote the invitations, did you leave anyone out? □ His was one of the left-out names.

3835-leave out of [B2 pass] not consider, not take account of (q v). O: (possible) reaction, consequences; what sb will do. o: ⚠ account, consideration; the reckoning □ Make sure that nothing is left out of account. □ He had left out of consideration the resentment of his former col- leagues.

3836- leave over[1] [B1i pass adj] leave as a remainder (the best part having been consumed). O: oddment, scrap; bone, crumb □ The force must have all it needed. Other armies would do their best with what was left over. MFM □ The older children had the lion's share; the small ones had to make do with left-overs. □ left-overs (always pl) is the adj form used as a noun. ⇨ be over[2].

3837- leave over[2] [B1ii pass adj] reserve for attention at a later date. S: council, committee. O: business; item, question □ I regret that these matters will have to be left over until our next meeting. ⇨ lie over.

3838- leave to [B2 pass emph rel] leave sb in charge of sth. O: arrangements, organization, staffing; everything, things, it (all) □ 'Now just you leave it to me.' □ The catering can be left to mother. □ It is left to the new Parliament to make a European electoral law. OBS □ note construction with it in the last example.

3839- leave to chance [B2 pass] not take too much care over the details of a task, so allowing sth to happen by chance. O: issue, outcome, result; something, (not) anything □ Nelson prepared against every contingency, but recognized that something must be left to chance. MFM □ In the experiment, we leave nothing to chance: weights are checked twice over.

3840- leave to it [B2 pass] (informal) let sb proceed with a task, without help or interference □ He gave the new crew their instructions and then went off, leaving them to it. □ I suppose we could have gone out and left her to it, but neither Jimmy nor I would have enjoyed the party if we had. WI

3841- leave to his own devices [B2 pass] allow sb to solve a difficult problem unaided; leave sb alone (to do as he wishes). O: staff; assistant, trainee; pupil, guest □ He left us to our own devices; he didn't mind how the work was done as long as it was finished when we'd promised. RATT □ Unmarried officers posted to the War Office were left to their own devices to find accommodation. MFM □ Altogether I was not in the most jovial of moods, and Jacquie had long since left me to my own devices. DF ⇨ next entry.

3842- leave to his own resources [B2 pass] leave sb to solve a difficult problem unaided. O: employee, student, soldier □ Left entirely to his own resources I doubt whether Jeffries would last a week in this job. □ Don't organize the children's play all the time: leave them to their own resources once in a while. ⇨ previous entry.

3843- leave up [B1ii pass] allow to remain in a raised position. O: picture, notice; flag, curtain; switch, lever □ The decorations can be left up for another day. ⇨ stay up[3].

3844- leave up to [B3 pass] let some important decision, choice etc be made by sb. O: organization, distribution; it... how to divide the money, it... whether to go or stay □ 'How shall I raise the money?' 'I don't know. I'll leave that entirely up to you.' ⇨ be up to[3].

3845- leave word (with) [B2 pass emph rel] leave a message (with sb) □ I was looking for the secretary with whom John had left word of his departure. □ Word was left with a neighbour that we would be back soon.

3846- lecture at [A2 pass adj] (informal) address in a formal, pompous manner (esp to scold or reproach). a: wife, child; employee □ His poor wife is always being lectured at on her spending habits. □ 'He doesn't talk to me, he lectures at me!'

3847- lecture (to) [A2 pass emph rel] give a formal talk to a group of students □ He lectures to undergraduates on the Elizabethan theatre.

3848- leech onto [A2 pass] (informal) attach oneself firmly and persistently (like a leech) to sb. S: child, pupil; neurotic. a: teacher; doctor □ The girl's really leeched onto Philip. He can't shake her off. I suppose it goes to show you can take too close an interest in problem children.

3849- leer (at) [A2 pass rel] look at in a crude, unpleasant way suggesting desire or ill-will. a: pretty woman; victim □ She was tired of feeling leered at all the time. □ A face leered at him through a grating in the door.

3850- lend (to)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] let sb have the temporary use of sth; let sb borrow money at interest. S: friend, neighbour; bank, building society. O: lawn-mower, bicycle; money □ I don't mind lending these papers to you (or: lending you these papers), but do be sure to return them. □ Building societies attract deposits at one rate of interest and lend the funds thus accumulated to house buyers at a higher rate of interest.

3851- lend (to)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) assist, support, materially or morally. S: government; industry; scholar, scientist. O: his etc backing, support; authority, name; prestige; oneself. a: venture, scheme, project; speculation, swindle; theory □ There are proposals to develop new industries away from the existing major centres. To this kind of trend the government will lend its full support. □ He refused to lend himself or his organization to such blatant profiteering.

3852- lend (to)[3] [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) make (more) significant, believable etc. S: event, development. O: meaning, significance; credibility, genuineness. a: view, interpretation, analysis □ It is these considerations that lend particular significance to the annual congress opening in Perth today. SC □ What lends some plausibility to this historian's view of events (or: lends his view some plausibility) is that trade links with Britain were well developed at this time.

3853- lend itself to[1] [B2 emph rel] (formal) be suitable for, be well suited to. S: garden; room, attic; subject, theme, topic. a: solitary walks; conversion, extension; treatment □ The cellars lend themselves to conversion into a workroom and store. □ The play lent itself admirably to presentation on an open stage.

3854- lend itself to[2] [B2 emph rel] (formal) because of inherent weaknesses etc, be liable or subject to ill use. S: democracy, free enterprise, universal education. a: abuse, misuse □ Any system of taxation lends itself to manipulation by clever or unscrupulous men. □ The various malpractices to which the election arrangements could lend themselves were pointed out by neutral observers.

3855- let down[1] [B1i pass adj] lower, drop, let fall. O: bucket; rope, ladder; dress; hair; standard □ The hem of your dress needs to be let down an inch.

□ Her parents had maintained their standards of value. She had let hers down. PW

3856-let down[2] [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) fail sb who believes that one is reliable, disappoint his hopes. O: friend, brother, wife □ 'You won't go to gaol. I fixed it up. I didn't let you down.' AITC □ He's been let down so much (or: had so many let-downs) in the past that he trusts no one.

3857-let down[3] [B1i pass adj] release the air from, deflate. O: tyre, balloon □ 'Some joker has let down the back tyres of my car!' ⇨ let out/out of.

3858-let down[4] [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) make sb's spirits sink, depress them □ He felt at once relieved and let down. PW □ A feeling of let-down had followed years of boisterous vigour. OBS □ It was a tremendous let-down to be told we had failed. □ usu passive and nom.

3859-let down[5] [A1] lose height (so as to land). S: aircraft; pilot □ Eleven hours out of Paris, the Air France plane let down into Rio de Janeiro. T

3860-let one's (back) hair down [B1ii] (informal) relax and enjoy oneself (e g at a party) □ 'Go on,' he said, 'let your hair down — go gay.' TT □ This is the night that the Cricket Club really lets its back hair down.

3861-let the side down [B1ii] (informal) disappoint or fail one's friends, colleagues etc; behave in a way regarded as unacceptable by one's family, social class etc □ He will always do his part — he never let the side down. MFM □ If you take a job as a window-cleaner, you're just letting the side down. HD

3862-let in [B1i pass] allow sth to enter or penetrate. S: window; roof, wall; leather, shoe. O: light; cold, rain; water □ My kitchen wall lets in the damp. □ Air is let in through vents at the side of the car.

3863-let the clutch in [B1i pass] (motoring) release the clutch pedal of a motor vehicle, so connecting the engine and transmission □ Pop let in the clutch and began to steer a course of slow elegance. DBM

3864-let in for [B3 pass] (informal) make sb assume responsibility for. O: firm, colleague; oneself. o: (extra) work, expense, trouble □ 'I hope you realize what you're letting yourself in for!' □ He's been let in for a lot of extra duty.

3865-let in/into [B1i pass B2 pass rel] allow sb to enter, admit. O: guest, spectator; oneself. o: club, theatre; house □ He let himself into the study with a spare key. □ If they try to buy tickets don't let them in. ⇨ come in/into, get in/into[1].

3866-let in on [B3 pass emph rel] (informal) allow sb to know about or take part in sth that was previously hidden from him. O: stranger, new partner. o: scheme, enterprise; the act □ That would have involved letting a third person in on the act: my mother. CON □ He was let in on the arrangements without our consent. ⇨ be/bring/come/get in on.

3867-let into [B2 pass emph rel] set in a hollowed-out place in sth. O: cupboard, lighting; tube, pipe. o: wall, ceiling; body (of patient) □ The figure stood on a shelf let into the study wall. □ A tube is let into his leg to carry off fluid.

3868-let into a/the secret [B2 pass] (informal) share one's secret with sb □ Don't let Peter into the secret: it won't remain a secret for long. □ I'll let you into a secret: I'm being sent abroad.

3869-let off[1] [B1i pass B2 pass] allow to disembark or alight (from). S: skipper, crew; conductor. O: passenger. o: boat, plane; bus □ I asked the captain to let me off at the next port of call. □ The guard won't let anyone off the train between stations. ⇨ get off[1], put off[6].

3870-let off[2] [B1i pass] (informal) release without punishing. S: court, judge. O: prisoner, accused □ He was charged with petty larceny, but the court let him off. □ 'I'll be lenient this time, but you won't get let off again.' ⇨ get off[6], let off with.

3871-let off[3] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) allow sb not to do some unpleasant task. O: prisoner, defaulter. o: chore, fatigue; peeling potatoes □ 'Is he on guard duty tonight?' 'No, he's been let off.' □ 'What's he been let off doing this time?'

3872-let off[4] [B1i pass] fire; explode. S: soldier; engineer. O: rifle, gun; charge, explosives □ A brass cannon was let off dangerously with real gunpowder. SD □ Small boys let a few fireworks off. ⇨ go off[5], set off[1].

3873-let off[5] [A1 B1i pass] (taboo) break wind, fart. O: ⚠ a fart; one □ If I let off in the parlour she'd have me shipped off to the hospital to be disembowelled. JFTR

3874-let off[6] [B1iii pass] allow others to rent a building in portions. O: flat; room, office □ The three floors of this large Victorian house were let off as separate flats. □ The agent isn't keen to let the offices off in penny packets; he wants to find one tenant for the whole building.

3875-let off the hook [B2 pass] (informal) free sb from an unpleasant task, an embarrassing situation etc □ I thought I'd have to talk to old Mrs Jenks all evening, until Penny came along and let me off the hook. □ 'Don't think, because you've been let off the hook once, that you can always slide out of the dirty jobs!'

3876-let off steam [B1iii] (informal) release tension, feelings that have been restrained etc; blow off steam (q v) □ Still fuming with frustration, I sat down and applied for the vacancy, rather as a means of letting off steam. SD □ I let off steam by mimicking and muttering silently. OBS

3877-let off with [B3 pass] give to sb a lighter sentence than the law allows. S: court, judge. O: offender, prisoner. o: a caution, a fine, six months (in prison) □ My pal Mike got let off with probation because it was his first offence. LLDR ⇨ get off[6], let off[2].

3878-let on (about) [A1 A3 pass B1iii] (informal) reveal, disclose; give away[3] (q v). O: that he knew, that we are friends. o: plan, scheme; how we did it □ [A1] It doesn't do to let on too much. MFM □ [A3] We didn't let on about how rich we were. LLDR □ [B1] Do not let on that I have given away his secret ingredient. ARG let sb get on with it [A3] ⇨ entry after get on with.

3880-let out[1] [B1iii pass] utter. O: cry, yell, scream □ He let out a spontaneous cry. NM □ She let out a yelp of pain.

3881-let out[2] [B1i pass] reveal, disclose. O: news, information; secret; (it)... that John was leaving □ Who let out the details of the reshuffle in the department? It was confidential news. □ Keep this to yourselves — don't let it out to the press. ⇨ be out[7], come out[7], get out[1].

3882-let out[3] [B1i nom pass] (informal) release sb from an unpleasant obligation □ He appeared just in time to propose the vote of thanks, which let me out nicely (cf gave me a welcome let-out).

3883-let out[4] [B1i pass adj] make wider or looser. S: tailor. O: dress, trousers □ I've got so fat that I'll have to let the waistband out several inches.

3884-let out[5] [B1i pass adj] make available for hire; hire out (qv). O: horse, donkey; boat □ Farm machinery is let out by the week.

3885-let out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] allow to leave, release (from). O: gas, water; animal, prisoner. o: tyre, tank; cage, gaol □ 'Who let the air out of my tyres?' □ *'*Let me out of here! Let me out*!'* ⇨ be out[2], come out[2].

3886-let the cat out of the bag [B2 pass] (informal) reveal, disclose, a secret through carelessness □ 'I wanted Mother's present to be a surprise; now you've gone and let the cat out of the bag*!'*

3887-let through [B1i pass B2 pass] allow to pass. O: goods; visitor; car; errors, defective goods. o: customs; immigration; control-point □ Most of their party were let through customs without an examination. □ A number of mistakes in the proofs were let through*.*

3888-let up [A1 nom] (informal) relax (one's alertness or efforts); ease, slacken. S: worker, team; (bad) weather, storm; pressure, volume (of work) □ Petrie's mind never let up for an instant. SD □ We will never stop, or let up (cf there will be no let-up), till Tunis has been captured. MFM

3889-level down [A1 B1i pass adj] lower, reduce, the high standards of a few to the level of the many (esp to achieve equality). S: government, firm, school. O: wage, benefit; mark, standard □ Does the country as a whole benefit from levelling down the rewards and privileges of the rich? □ Some believe that the extension of higher education has levelled down university standards. ⇨ level up.

3890-level off [A1 B1i pass adj] make level sth which is uneven, rough etc. O: board; surface, top □ Rub with sandpaper to get a smooth, levelled-off surface.

3891-level off/out [A1] move horizontally (after climbing); remain steady (after a rise). S: aircraft; price, wage □ We climbed steeply after take-off, and levelled out at 25 000 feet. □ After the recent big increases, wages are now tending to level off*.*

3892-level up [A1 B1i pass adj] raise the standards of the poorest, least able etc, to the level of the few (esp to promote equality). O: standard, mark; salary, benefit □ To achieve excellence with equality, we must level up the modern schools —not level down the grammar schools. ⇨ level down.

3893-lick into shape [B2 pass] (informal) raise to the proper standard of discipline, efficiency, organization etc. S: instructor; coach; sergeant; organizer. O: trainee; runner, footballer; recruit; project, scheme □ They're not a very promising bunch but we'll soon lick them into shape*.* □ If Ann and Yvette will make another brew of coffee, perhaps we can do something towards licking this business into shape*.* TBC

3894-lick off [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove by licking. O: jam, sugar □ The chocolate coating had all been licked off the cream buns.

3895-lick up [B1i pass] take up into the mouth by licking. S: cat, dog. O: milk, water □ 'Don't mop up the spilt milk; the cat will lick it up*.'*

3896-lie ahead/ahead of/before [A1 emph A2 emph rel] (formal) be going to confront or happen to one in the future. S: difficulty; hazard, danger; death □ He thought of the disease that might lie ahead of him. NM □ Before him lay the prospect of continuing hardship.

3897-lie at anchor/its moorings [A2 emph] (nautical) be anchored or moored (usu offshore). S: ship, boat □ The fleet lay at anchor half a mile off the headland.

3898-lie at death's door [A2] be at the point of death, be close to dying □ For weeks father lay at death's door*.*

3899-lie at sb's door [A2 emph rel] is borne by. S: ⚠ the blame, the responsibility, the guilt □ The responsibility for the present crisis lies squarely at the door of the government. □ At whose door does the blame lie*?* ⇨ lay at sb's door.

3900-lie back [A1] move back so that one is supported on a bed, or by the back of a chair □ She had lain back in the easy chair. DC □ She was so weak and exhausted she had to lie back*.* DC lie before [A2 emph rel] ⇨ lie ahead/ahead of/before.

3902-lie behind[1] [A1 emph A2 emph] (formal) have happened to one, be in the past. S: achievement, exploit; hardship, suffering □ And behind them lay bitter memories of what midwinter was like. B □ Behind lay nothing but defeat; ahead lay the certainty of victory.

3903-lie behind[2] [A2] be the explanation for, be the cause of. S: ambition, desire for power; necessity, expediency; incompetence, mismanagement. o: move, event; retreat; failure, price-rise □ What lies behind the recent Cabinet changes is the need to get rid of certain unpopular Ministers. □ I'm not sure what lay behind his remarks, but it wasn't good will. ⇨ be behind[3].

3904-lie down [A1 nom] be, move into, a horizontal position on a bed (to rest or sleep) □ 'You're going to lie down for a bit.' PE □ He was lying down on the sofa when we came in. □ She likes to have a lie-down after lunch.

3905-lie down on the job [A3] (informal) neglect to do a job properly, not put all one's effort into a job □ These men are hardly lying down on the job — they're working all hours to finish it.

3906-lie down (under) [A1 A3] (informal) accept without protest or resistance. o: tyranny, oppression; abuse, insult □ We have no intention of lying down under these accusations (cf We have no intention of taking these accusations lying down). □ note the equivalent patterns: lie down under sth = take sth lying down.

3907-lie in[1] [A1 nom] (informal) stay in bed after the normal time for getting up □ They let us lie in*, but I got up for breakfast.* RFW □ Sally will be bound to sleep late and give us a nice Sunday lie-in*.* WI

3908-lie in[2] [A1] stay in bed to await the birth of a child. S: woman, expectant mother □ Normally, a woman will lie in a few hours before the birth of her child (cf Her lying-in (period) begins a few hours before the birth).

3909-lie in ruins [A2] be completely destroyed. S: city; factory, house; policy, programme □ Much of the industrial North of France lay in ruins*.* □ By this time, the Government's policy for the statutory control of incomes lay in complete ruins.

3910-lie in store (for) [A2] be going to happen (to sb) □ No one knew what lay in store for us round the next bend in the river.

3911-lie over [A1] await attention at a later date. S: business, matter, item □ There are several important matters lying over from last week. ⇨ leave over².

3912-lie to [A1] (nautical) have halted, be anchored; halt, anchor. S: ship; cruiser, launch, dinghy □ The yacht was lying to in about six fathoms. □ They reached the other side at about midnight and lay to about four miles off shore. RFW

3913-lie up¹ [A1] go into hiding (e g to escape pursuers, to attack enemies). S: bandit; soldier, guerrilla □ Nobody saw him all through the war. I think he lay up in the mountains. RM □ The partisans lay up by day, and by night sallied out to attack convoys.

3914-lie up² [A1] stay in bed to rest during an illness. S: patient, sick child □ John must lie up for a few weeks until his leg mends.

3915-lift down (from) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] move (usu with the hands) from a higher to a lower level. O: crate, box, drum, bale. o: shelf, lorry □ 'That looks a heavy case: let me lift it down for you.'

3916-lift off [A1 nom] (space technology) rise vertically from the launching-pad. S: rocket, missile □ Twenty minutes to go before the rocket lifts off. □ The space vehicle made a perfect lift-off.

3917-lift up¹ [B1i nom pass] raise (physically). O: child; arm, leg; box □ 'If you lift me up (or: give me a lift(-)up) I can just get a leg over the wall.' □ 'Lift your foot up: you're standing on the hem of my dress.'

3918-lift up² [B1i pass adj] stimulate or inspire spiritually. S: preacher, statesman; sermon, address; presence. O: congregation, audience □ His very presence lifted us all up (cf We all found his very presence uplifting). □ Talking to her gave me a tremendous uplift. □ nom form is uplift.

3919-light on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] discover by chance, happen to find. o: treasure, manuscript; (secret) passage, tunnel □ He had lighted (or: lit) upon a new method of refining the metal. □ He showed us a rare edition on which he'd lighted in Rome.

3920-light out/out of [A1 A2] (informal) leave (esp hurriedly, and to escape from sb). S: bandit, raider; police, cavalry □ The gang didn't waste any time over farewells. Just packed their bags and lit out of town.

3921-light up¹ [A1 B1i pass adj] apply a flame to tobacco (in order to smoke). O: cigar, pipe □ He settled comfortably in an armchair and lit up. □ Pop had lit up one of his best Havanas. BFA

3922-light up² [B1i pass adj] illuminate, provide with lights. S: council; trader. O: building; shop □ Public buildings were lit up for the Victory celebrations. □ Not many shop windows were lit up last Christmas because of the Government restrictions on the use of electricity.

3923-light up³ [A1] switch on the head-(or side-)lights of a motor-vehicle at dusk; switch on the street lighting. S: motorist, lorry-driver □ It's seven o'clock, and still one or two cars haven't lit up. □ At this time of the year, official lighting-up time is six-thirty.

3924-light up⁴ [A1 B1i pass adj] become, make, bright or flushed with emotion. S: [A1] O: [B1] face, eyes. S: [B1] anger, passion □ His eyes were still able to light up under the influence of curiosity or greed. RM □ His face was lit up with sudden excitement.

lit up [pass adj (B1)] ⇨ entry after listen in (to).

light upon [A2 pass emph rel] ⇨ light on/upon.

3927-liken to [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) say that one thing is like another □ Someone likened his voice to the croaking of a bull-frog. □ The nervous system can be likened to a telephone exchange.

3928-limber up¹ [A1 nom] (sport) make one's muscles loose through exercise (e g before a race); loosen up¹ (q v). S: athlete, footballer □ He always limbered up (or: had a limber-up) before his afternoon match.

3929-limber up² [A1 B1i pass adj] (military) fasten a gun to a limber (ammunition box on wheels). S: battery, troop, gunner. O: 6-pounder □ He ordered the troop to limber up and move out. □ A brigade of field artillery was waiting, limbered up. SD

3930-limit (to) [B2 pass emph rel] keep numbers or quantity at a low level; restrict (to)¹ (q v). O: number; entry, participant; application. o: a few; 100, a dozen □ The numbers granted passes have had to be limited to ten for security reasons.

3931-line-out [nom (A1)] (Rugby football) parallel lines of forwards formed at right angles to the touch line, to receive a ball which has just gone out of play □ The wing three-quarter throws the ball in at line-outs.

3932-line up¹ [A1 B1i pass adj] (cause to) form into lines or ranks. S: [A1] O: [B1] soldiers; vehicles. S: [B1] officer; steward, attendant □ The sergeant lined his platoon up on the parade-square. □ The lorries were lined up, ready to move off.

3933-line up² [A1] form a queue, to get transport, buy food etc; queue (up) (for) (q v). S: passenger, shopper, spectator □ Fans began lining up early in the morning to buy their cup-tie tickets.

3934-line up³ [B1i nom pass] (informal) assemble, bring together; organize, arrange. S: impresario, producer. O: performer, artist; item, number, turn □ They've lined up some excellent entertainers for our show. □ There was a good line-up of musical and comedy acts on television tonight.

3935-line up (against) [B1i pass B3 pass] place in line for execution by a firing-squad. S: invader, soldier. O: hostage, prisoner. o: wall, barn □ They pulled out the first five civilians, lined them up on the lawn, and shot them. SD □ Old men and women were lined up against a wall and shot.

3936-line up alongside/with [A3] (informal) become the ally of, associate with¹ (q v). S: deputy, delegate, member. o: majority, minority; extremist, moderate □ He's lining up alongside the most reactionary people in his party. □ They're not the sort of folk I'd expect a confessed liberal to line up with.

3937-line up behind [A3 rel B3 pass rel] (informal) (cause to) follow sb, to take him as their leader. S: [A3] O: [B3] group, party; conference, meeting; rebel, dissident. S: [B3] leader, chairman □

The majority of rank-and-file members are happy to line up behind the new leadership. □ Have you noticed the kind of support he has got lined up behind him?

3938- line up in one's sights [B3 pass] point a rifle etc directly at a target. S: marksman, hunter. O: target, prey □ For a moment, he had the deer lined up in his sights — then it vanished.

line up with [A3] ⇨ line up alongside/with.

3940- linger on [A1] stay, remain (after others have gone); stick, persist (in the mind etc). S: guest, visitor; smell, scent; tradition □ Harold lingered on and on, and even treated himself to a third half-pint. PW □ Today these practices are no more, but their memory lingers on.

3941- linger (over) [A2 pass emph rel] take more time than is normal or desirable (esp when completing a task or describing events). o: meal; ceremony, speech; (gory, unsavoury) details, facts □ 'You've lingered long enough over breakfast. Eat up. We're leaving in five minutes.' □ 'Don't you feel that newspaper accounts of these disasters tend to linger rather nastily over the details?'

3942- link together/with [B1i pass B2 pass rel] say, suggest, that two persons or events are connected. S: newspaper; report, rumour. O: name, celebrity, public figure. o: girl, pop star; creation, institution (of sth) □ At various times the popular press have linked this amiable but idle young man with models, starlets and even the occasional heiress. □ We should not conclude that her death was necessarily linked with the reported outbreak of smallpox (cf *that the two events were necessarily linked together). □ More than anything, perhaps, Aneurin Bevan is linked in the public mind with the establishment of the National Health Service (cf the name and the event are linked together in the public mind).

3943- link up (with) [A1 nom A3 emph rel B1i nom pass adj B3 pass emph rel] (cause to) form one whole (with), connect (with); join up (with) (q v). S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] town, village; force, army; business, firm. o: another, a neighbour, (chief) competitor □ [A3] 12 Army Group would link up with the Dragoon force (cf [A1] *The two units would link up; or: do a link-up). MFM [B1] Link up the islands as far as possible. SC □ [A1 B1] This American leader announces a first major link-up of supermarkets in this country. T □ [B3] Arrangements were well advanced for linking up this newly opened length (of motorway) with the Lancaster by-pass.* T

3944- listen in (to) [A1 nom A3 pass rel] listen to a radio programme or performer. o: talk, play; music □ *He likes to listen in (or: *have a listen-in) late at night. □ I just don't find such programmes worth listening in to.

3945- lit up [pass adj (B1)] (informal) (be) merry on alcohol, (be) drunk □ (popular song) We're going to get lit up when the lights go on in London. □ A couple of lit-up revellers went past. ⇨ also light up[1,2,3,4].

3946- litter about/around [B1i pass B2 pass emph] scatter here and there untidily. O: book, paper, clothes □ He just litters his stuff around — no wonder he can never find anything! □ Papers were littered about the study in the utmost confusion.

3947- live above/beyond one's income/means [A2] spend more than one can afford □ With the cost of everything rising as it is, we find we're constantly living beyond our means.

3948- live apart (from) [A1 A3] (of a married couple) live in separate houses, though without obtaining a divorce □ After leading a cat and dog existence for about five years Philip and Mary decided it might be better if they lived apart. □ Since Jane's been living apart from her husband (cf *Since they've been living apart), she finds she can manage for most things perfectly well on her own.

3949- live down [B1i pass] behave in such a way that one's failings etc are forgotten. O: one's past; shame, disgrace; a lot, too much □ He seems determined to prove that his fateful decision in 1956, which gave him so much to live down, was an honourable one. □ We can never hope to live down these shortcomings. FFE

3950- live for [A2] have as one's main reason for living. o: work, sport, one's family □ He lives for the day when he can retire and grow roses. □ They live for nothing but pleasure.

3951- live (in) [A2 emph rel] have as one's home or dwelling. o: flat, digs; caravan, tent; area, district □ He lives in an expensive part of town. □ The houses in which they are forced to live are rat-infested.

3952- live in [A1] reside in the building etc where one works. S: cook, housemaid, chauffeur, caretaker □ They've had a cook-housekeeper living in for the last six months. □ 'What's against us having a servant to live in? There's room for one.' PW ⇨ live out.

3953- lived in [pass adj (A2)] (informal) have the comfortable, settled look of a home □ Their place really looks lived in — nothing expensive or modish just to impress people. □ It takes time for a house to acquire that lived-in appearance.

3954- live in hope (of) [A2] look optimistically for an improvement. o: (of) early election; radical change, some reform; fresh trial □ The prisoner lives in hope of an early release. □ The exam results haven't come through yet, but I live in hope.

3955- live in the past [A2] behave as though events, values etc have not changed from what they were earlier. S: (retired) politician, army officer, official; philosopher, theorist, artist □ 'Time passes. You are living in the past, Taylor.' MM □ How could I live in the past when you and Bernie are so good to me? HAA

3956- live in the present [A2] accept, order one's life according to, conditions now □ He seems incapable of living in the present: always hankering after a glorious past which in fact existed only for a privileged few. □ He's a robust, down-to-earth fellow, living very much in the present.

3957- live in sin [A2] (usu jocular) live together without being married □ These days the Government are making it so much cheaper for people to live in sin. DIL □ Do I detect a growing, satanic glint in her eyes? Do you think it's living in sin with me that does it? LBA

3958- live off the country [A2] support oneself by obtaining food from the country one is staying in or passing through. S: traveller, explorer; soldier, partisan □ Why take so much tinned food with you to France? Buy local fruit and vegetables — live off the country. □ In their zone the Russian armies were living off the country, which they had systematically sacked. MFM

3959 live off/on [A2 rel] have as one's diet, survive by eating. o: raw fish, root vegetable □ Do these people live off human flesh? LWK □ Some of the cattlemen of Africa live entirely off the produce of their herds. □ 'I can't live on air!'

3960 live off/on the fat of the land [A2] (informal) enjoy the best food, drink, lodging, entertainment etc □ The poor people starved, while a few lived off the fat of the land. □ He could get out of London, living on the fat of the land in George's house. PE

3961 live on[1] [A1] survive, endure. S: family; work, reputation, name □ He will die, but his fame will live on after him.

3962 live on[2] [A2 emph rel] feed and support oneself on a stated amount, or from a certain source. o: income, salary; profit, rent; charity, hand-outs □ I can't live on that wage. □ Do you know how little they manage to live on?

3963 live on one's own [A2] live alone. S: old person; widow, invalid □ I don't think I'd have the courage to live on my own again. LBA □ Living on your own is certainly better than life with a man you can't stand.*

3964 live out [A1] reside away from the place where one works (though it might be possible to live in (q v)). S: servant, student, soldier □ All married students are allowed to live out after the first two terms in College. BM □ Workers who don't use company accommodation are given a living-out allowance.

3965 live out one's days/life [B1iii] spend one's whole life. A: in one's native town, as an ordinary worker, in humble circumstances □ These two old men had lived out their lives as industrial labourers. CON □ No doubt he would live out his days in the same Welsh valley.

3966 live out of [A2] not have a settled life, or fixed address, so that one's belongings are kept in suitcases. o: suitcase, trunk, box □ That's all we do, live out of a travelling-bag. TOH

3967 live out of cans/tins [A2] (informal) subsist on tinned foods — which are easily prepared — usu because other foods are hard to buy or cook. S: camper, explorer; (front-line) soldier; homeless person; vagrant □ Their home was a shack on a piece of waste land, and they lived out of tins. □ I shall be glad when we get a proper cooker and can stop living out of tins.

3968 live over again [B1ii pass] relive; experience again in the imagination. O: life, career; experience; it all □ If I had to live my life over again I wouldn't choose to spend it in a cold climate. □ Hearing these old soldiers talk Father was living over again his experiences as a young recruit.

3969 live through [A2] experience and survive. o: famine, war, revolution □ He had lived through the worst years of the depression.

3970 live to a/the ripe old age (of) [A2] (informal) live to be very old □ Grandfather lived to the ripe old age of ninety. □ I can't see him living to a ripe old age: he smokes too much.

3971 live together/with [A1 A2 emph rel] live in the same house, as husband and wife, but without being married □ This isn't the provinces, you know. I'm living with Celia, as you can see (or: *We are living together etc.) CON □ The girl with whom he had been living for two years suddenly packed her bags and left.

3972 live under [A2] experience the rule of. S: citizen, subject. o: system, regime, government; king, emperor, dictator □ The country is now living under a military dictatorship. □ He's lived under three monarchs, and survived them all.

3973 live under the same roof (as) [A2] reside in the same house (as sb) □ We had lived on terms of close friendship under the same roof. It was not an easy parting. AH

3974 live it up [B1ii] (informal) lead an easy, pleasure-filled life □ He was in London, living it up on his winnings from the football pools. □ The advertisements invite one to live it up in the rich playgrounds of Jamaica.

3975 live up to [A3 pass adj] reach a standard that one has set oneself, or that is expected of one. S: he etc; machine, device. o: standard, claim (made for sth), expectations, position (in life) □ We cannot live up to our moral pretensions. NM □ The beast had lived up to his reputation for stupidity. DF □ He is not satisfied by a too easily lived-up-to standard of achievement.

3976 live with[1] [A2 rel] (learn to) accept. o: fact, situation; disability, disease; shortcomings, failings □ You've lost all your money; now you must learn to live with the situation. □ You must live with the fact that you're no longer as active as you were. □ usu after have to, must.

live with[2] [A2 emph rel] ⇨ live together/with.

3978 liven up [A1 B1i pass adj] (informal) become or make more cheerful or lively. S: [A1] O: [B1] things; proceedings, party, evening; guest; audience, class □ How he likes to liven things up! DC □ Another drive and the evening would have livened up no end. ILIH

3979 load down (with) [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] place many heavy burdens on sb or sth; overburden sb, making him strained, depressed etc. O: lorry, cart; staff, colleague; wife. o: parcel, box; care, worry, responsibility □ The van moved off, loaded down to the springs with every stick of furniture they possessed. □ He seemed loaded down with the burdens of office.

3980 load up (with) [A1 A3 rel B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] fill to the top, place a full load upon. S: warehouseman, driver, (freight) handler; removal man, packer. O: lorry, truck, goods van, hold (of an aircraft); oneself. o: cargo, merchandise; cloth, whisky, butter □ [A1] 'Lower the tail-board and start loading up'. □ [A3 B3] The Nepalese porters loaded (themselves) up with food, medical supplies and oxygen equipment. □ [B1] The van seems pretty fully loaded up.

3981 load with [B2 pass rel] award honours etc to sb in abundance. S: government, country. O: public servant, general. o: medal, decoration □ Loaded with every honour that his country could bestow, Cathcart would now retire from active political life.*

3982 loaf about/around [A1 A2] (informal) stand or wander idly here and there; hang about/around (q v). S: crowd, gang; teenager; vagrant; petty criminal. o: the place; town, the streets □ Parents seem to get particularly irritated when their teenage sons loaf around with their hands in their pockets. □ As there wasn't anything to do in the place but work, they were uncomfortably conspicuous loafing about the streets. CON

3983-lock away/up (in) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] put for safe keeping in a drawer etc, which is then locked. O: jewels, silver. a: bank; safe, vault, strong-room □ Take good care to lock away your jewellery before going away on holiday. □ 'You're old enough to take a drink if you want one. I don't keep it locked up*.'* PFE

3984-lock in[1] [B1ii pass B2 pass emph rel] deliberately put sb in a room etc, and then lock the door from the outside. O: prisoner, escapee; wayward child. a: cell, guardroom; bedroom □ The prisoners-of-war were locked in their huts at night to discourage further attempts at escape.

3985-lock in[2] [B1ii pass B2 pass] prevent sb from leaving a room etc, by mistakenly locking the door, losing the key etc. O: him etc; oneself. a: flat; cellar, lavatory □ 'Open the door, you idiot! You've locked me in*.'* □ The cashier spent an uncomfortable night locked in the basement. The porter had turned the key in the door.

3986-lock out [B1i nom pass adj] (industrial relations) prevent workers from entering a factory (e g in response to a threat of strike action). S: owner, employer. O: work force, worker □ Workmen have been locked out until they agree to the employers' terms. □ There has been a lock-out at the Liverpool firm of Smith and Weston. G

3987-lock out/out of[1] [B1ii pass adj B2 pass] deliberately prevent sb from entering a place by locking the door etc on the inside. S: parent, warden (of a hostel etc), porter. O: child, student. a: house, college, hall of residence □ Father threatened to lock us out if we didn't get back from the party before midnight. □ In some university towns, landladies are requested to lock students out if they do not return to their lodgings by a certain time.

3988-lock out/out of[2] [B1ii pass B2 pass] (accidentally or mistakenly) prevent sb or oneself from entering a place, e g by losing the key. O: him etc; oneself. a: flat, office, bedroom □ He'd locked himself out of the house and had to get in by breaking a window.

3989-lock up [A1 B1i pass adj] make a house etc secure by locking doors and windows. O: house, garage; shop, store; car □ He always locks up last thing at night. □ Lock everything up securely before going away on holiday.

3990-lock-up[1] [nom (B1)] place where prisoners may be kept temporarily; prison □ The suspects were kept in the station lock-up overnight.

3991-lock-up[2] [nom (B1)] shop or garage usu at some distance from the house of the tradesman or owner □ Her father has a small lock-up tobacconist's in the old part of town. □ I pay a pound a week for the rent of a lock-up garage. □ a lock-up (no second noun) is a lock-up shop.

3992-lock up (in)[1] [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] put in a drawer etc. ⇨ lock away/up (in).

3993-lock up (in)[2] [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] imprison. O: felon, criminal. a: gaol, prison; cell, dungeon □ He was locked up for trying to break the Official Secrets Act. NM □ 'Where is he now, locked up*?' 'No, he's dead.'* TOH

3994-lock up (in)[3] [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] enclose, be contained (in). S: mechanism; process. O: power, energy □ Our new process locks up pounds of energy in every grain of the breakfast food. □ Many ignore the beauty locked up in every minute speck of material around us. HAH

3995-lock up (in)[4] [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] invest money in such a way that it cannot easily be changed into cash. S: firm, company; investor. O: capital; estate, fortune; savings. a: business; plant, machinery; shares □ He had most of the money from the profitable years locked up in the building and expansion programme. For working capital he had to borrow from the bank.

3996-lodge (against) (with) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) place a statement (usu of protest or complaint) with the authorities so that they can take action. S: committee, action group; citizen, consumer. O: complaint, protest; petition. a: (against) intimidation, brutality; plan; (proposed) extension, development; (with) local council; police; solicitor □ Police action in controlling the crowd was unnecessarily severe. A formal complaint is being lodged with the Chief Constable. □ Following the recent explosion, statements have been lodged against the Gas Board accusing them of negligence.

3997-lodge (in) [A2 emph rel] enter and become stuck fast (in). S: bullet, shell fragment. a: skull, bone; foot, chest □ A piece of shrapnel had lodged in the brain, causing damage to the centres controlling movement.

3998-log up [B1iii pass] travel for a specified time or distance; have the times and distances one travels recorded (i e in a log-book). S: pilot, driver. O: flight, run, journey; hours, miles □ The pilot of the crashed aircraft had logged up several hundred hours' flying time on jets. □ 'I see you've logged up a thousand miles on this truck since the last service. You'd better bring it into the garage straight away.'

3999-loiter about/around [A1 A2] stand or walk about casually, often with the intention of doing mischief. a: the place; door, entrance-way □ Small boys would loiter about in the entrances of smart hotels, hoping to pick up a few tips. □ 'Who's that shifty-looking character loitering around outside?'

4000-loll about/around [A1 A2] sit, lie or lean on sth lazily; lounge about/around (q v). a: the place; room, bar □ There are too many of these people lolling about with nothing to do but plan trouble. □ He lolls around in an armchair; she does the washing-up.

4001-long (for) [A2 pass adj emph rel] desire (to have) sth strongly. a: success, money, fame; horse, car; wife, family □ One longs for the South of France. NM □ This longed-for change was slow in coming. □ He never found the peace for which he longed*.*

4002-look after [A2 pass adj] be responsible for, care for [2] (q v); take responsibility for paying bills, etc, take care (of) (q v). S: nurse, doctor, mother; trustee, agent. a: patient, old person, sick child; affairs, finances □ I thought the nurse was looking after you. DC □ He seemed well looked after*.* □ 'I'll look after the bill.' □ The Council are looking after that side of the arrangements. □ He knows how to look after himself (= protect himself, his interests).

4003-look ahead (to) [A1 A3 rel] project oneself into the future. a: nineteen-eighties, end of the century □ You can expect to find a multi-storey building on this site. Of course, I'm looking ahead five years when I tell you this.

4004-look around/round[1] [A1 nom A2] examine what is around one (usu while standing still). o: one; room, hall; gathering, assembly □ You looked round you as you stood waiting for the bus to take you to school (cf You had a look round as you stood etc) TC □ I looked around the crowded amphitheatre, hoping to find an empty seat.

4005-look around/round[2] [A1 nom A2] inspect or survey (moving about while doing so), go round[2] (q v); examine goods for sale; survey prospects or possibilities. o: office, study; town, castle; store, department □ 'Was there anything you particularly wanted, sir?' 'No, I'm just looking around*.'* □ 'Have you got a job yet?' 'No, I'm having a good look round before committing myself.' □ nom form not usu hyphenated.

4006-look at[1] [A2 pass] examine sth closely (to establish its genuineness or value). S: valuer, expert. o: porcelain, silver, painting; collection □ I can't tell you what it's worth, you must get an expert to look at it. □ Ask a museum to look at the figure.

4007-look at[2] [A2 pass] examine (for possible disease, damage or faults). S: doctor, dentist; plumber, mechanic. o: shoulder, tooth; tap, engine □ You must get that gum looked at*.* □ Get a carpenter to look at those floorboards.

4008-not look at [A2] not consider or entertain. o: proposal, suggestion, offer □ They wouldn't even look at our bid. □ I will not look at any price under £3 000. □ usu after will, would.

4009-to look at [A2] (informal) to outward appearances, on the surface □ To look at him, you wouldn't think he'd just suffered a major setback. □ He's not much to look at*.* □ inf only.

4010-look away [A1] turn one's eyes away, avert one's gaze □ The sunlight on the water was so dazzling that one had to look away*.* □ She looked away in embarrassment.

4011-never/not look back [A1] (informal) make continuous progress. S: actor, writer; businessman □ Once you make an appearance on television you'll never look back*.* □ The public realized that a new star had arrived, and since then Ann hasn't looked back*.* H

4012-look back (on/upon) [A1 A3 pass emph rel] return (to) in one's thoughts, cast one's mind back (to). o: event, time, change □ Looking back*, I don't remember any inward struggle at all.* CON □ The people would soon begin to look back with longing on the old regime. MFM

4013-look beyond [A2 pass rel] place oneself imaginatively in the future. o: the present, the here and now, actual circumstances □ Try to look beyond your present hardships to future happiness.

4014-look down [A1] lower one's eyes, one's gaze. S: child, girl. A: shyly, modestly; with a blush □ Sarah looked down in embarrassment. When would this terribly intense young man stop talking to her? □ John looked down to hide his confusion. He hadn't realized the door led to the ladies' changing-room.

4015-look down one's nose (at) [A2] (informal) regard sb or sth in a superior, condescending way. o: (at) poorer people, the 'lower orders'; speech, remarks, habits (of others) □ The English neighbours would say 'Mrs Middleton's quite mad', and look down their noses*.* ASA □ 'Don't look down your nose at a fat woman, Flo.' RM

4016-look down on/upon [A3 pass adj] (informal) despise, consider as inferior. o: one's father; working people; the poor, the illiterate □ Parents scrape and save and sacrifice themselves, and then their children look down on them. PW □ The really unskilled class are looked down on by everyone.

4017-look (for) [A2 pass adj emph rel] seek, try to find. o: new job, house by the sea, business; lost cat, handkerchief □ 'What are you looking for*?' 'A little sympathy.'* □ The chance which he had looked for was now freely offered to him. □ Traditional Japan needs looking for*.* BBCTV

4018-look for trouble [A2] (informal) behave in a way which suggests that one seeks unpleasantness, a violent response etc □ You could see from his face that he was looking for trouble*.* □ There's no sense coming into a new place just looking for trouble*.*

4019-look forward to [A3 pass adj] anticipate with pleasure. o: holiday, meeting, evening out; going abroad, returning home □ She had been looking forward to leaving the hospital wards for a holiday in the Orkneys. WI □ The third baby, Brigit had almost looked forward to with a timorous pleasure. DC □ His retirement is very much looked forward to by the office staff.

4020-look-in [nom (A1)] (informal) a chance to take part or be involved □ I wanted to talk to her, but with all those fellows around I didn't get a look-in*.* □ John would like to race, but the club won't give him a look-in*.* □ usu in the patterns get, give sb, have, a look in.

4021-(not) look in the eye/face [B2] (informal) (not) look at sb fearlessly and without shame. O: boss, father; questioner, challenger □ 'The sure sign of a liar—you can't look me in the eye*, can you?'* E □ When I had signed the contract, I felt I could hardly look Hugo in the face any more. UTN □ often with (not) be able to/dare to.

4022-(not) look a gift-horse in the mouth [B2] (informal) (not) look too critically at sth offered to one as a free gift □ It was one of mother's maxims never to look a gift-horse in the mouth*.* HAHA □ 'Why did you let Nora stay on after I'd gone?' 'Why look a gift-horse in the mouth*?'* AITC

4023-look in (on) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) call (on) briefly, pay a short visit (to) □ We looked in at Burlington House. AH □ I ought to visit the Mediterranean countries where British troops were stationed, and also look in on Trans-Jordan. MFM □ I suppose the doctor will look in when he gets a chance? HOM ⇨ next entry.

4024-look into[1] [A2] (informal) make a brief call or visit to. o: office, surgery; mother's (house); club □ I must look into the garage on the way home to book a service for the car. ⇨ previous entry.

4025-look into[2] [A2 pass] investigate, inquire into (q v). o: case, matter, question □ Police are looking into the disappearance of a quantity of uncut gems. □ Perhaps you wouldn't mind looking into it for me? TT

4026-look on [A1] be a spectator □ Most people aren't good enough to take part in first-class matches; they have to be content to look on (or: to be lookers-on, to be onlookers). □ I was merely looking on. AH

4027-look on/upon (as) [A2 pass] regard, consider (as). o: (as) an enemy of the state, popular hero □ I look upon him as the betrayer of his country in its darkest hour. □ He is looked upon as something of an authority on rare books. ⇨ next entry.

4028-look on/upon (with) [A2 pass] regard, consider (with). o: (with) disfavour, mistrust, suspicion □ He has always been looked upon with disapproval by his wife's mother. □ 'Tell me, how do people look upon him in general?' ⇨ previous entry.

4029-look onto/out on [A2 A3] give or command a view of. S: bedroom, dining-room. o: alley, wall, garden □ The long low windows looked out on a driveway at the side of the house. OBS

4030-look out[1] [A1] take care, beware; mind out (q v), watch out (q v) □ 'Look out, Peter, that step's not safe!' □ 'Tell them to look out, the ceiling's threatening to fall in.' □ usu in imper sentences.

4031-look out[2] [B1i pass] search for and produce. O: old clothes, books, photographs, stamps □ I must look out some bits and pieces for the church jumble sale. □ Perhaps he'll look out one of his old girl friends. LBA

4032-look-out[1] [nom (A1)] sentry, one who keeps watch; place from which a watch is kept □ Look-outs were posted at night in our forward positions.* □ They manned a look-out post in the front line. ⇨ look out (for).

4033-look-out[2] [nom (A1)] (informal) prospect, outlook. adj: poor, grim; bright □ It's a bleak look-out for anyone hoping for quick profits. □ It's not a very bright look-out if you're thinking of a career in the coal industry.

4034-(be) sb's look-out [nom (A1)] (informal) (be) sb's (own) concern or responsibility □ It's your own look-out whether you pass or fail. □ If he can't be bothered to write, and misses his opportunities, that's his look-out.

4035-look out (for) [A1 nom A3 pass] watch or search carefully (for); watch out (for) (q v). o: new car, second-hand radio; talent, capable player; criminal, fugitive □ The policemen are looking out for burglars. CON □ Jeremy will soon be old enough to go to boarding school. We must be looking out for one. PW □ Keep a sharp look-out for Peter. □ Mother is always on the look-out for bargains.

4036-look out/out of [A1 A2] direct one's gaze through. o: window, door, arch □ He drew back the curtains and looked out of the window.

look out on [A2 A3] ⇨ look onto/out on.

4038-look over[1] [A2 nom pass] survey, inspect, do a tour of inspection of; go over[2] (q v). o: house, garden; estate, farm; factory □ We were allowed to look over their new plant near Coventry. □ The surveyor will come back later to do a full inspection. He just had time to give the place a quick look-over before lunch.

4039-look over[2] [B1i pass] examine closely, scrutinize; go over[1] (q v), look through[3] (q v). O: document, letter; claim, appeal; arm, heart □ Her green eyes looked them over indifferently from under her dusty lashes. ARG □ The Medical Board gave the applicants a thorough looking-over.

4040-look round[1] [A1 nom A2] examine what is round one. ⇨ look around/round[1].

look round[2] [A1 nom A2] inspect or survey. ⇨ look around/round[2].

4042-look round[3] [A1 A2] observe cautiously around an obstacle. o: screen, door, pillar, newspaper □ The door was half open and I looked carefully round it. □ With a periscope you can look round corners without being seen.

4043-look round[4] [A1] turn to look at sth behind one □ I made a rustling sound and the lady in front looked round angrily. □ 'Don't look round now but there's a police car following us.'

4044-look through[1] [A1 A2 pass emph rel] direct one's gaze through. o: window, telescope □ He looked through the living-room window at a rain-soaked garden. □ The skylight through which he was now looking was directly above the staircase.

4045-look through[2] [A2 nom pass] survey or scan (often briefly or summarily). o: book, paper; stamp-collection, notes □ He gave his notes a quick look-through before giving his lecture. □ He looks through several newspapers before breakfast (or: *He gives them a look-through).

4046-look through[3] [B1ii pass] inspect carefully, part by part, go over[1] (q v), look over[2] (q v). o: application, proposal, recommendation; document, letter □ I've given your prospectus a very careful looking-through. □ 'Have you read the man's references?' 'I haven't finished looking them through yet.'

4047-look through[4] [A2] not see sb or sth that is clearly visible; deliberately ignore sb whom one can plainly see. o: friend, acquaintance □ 'You must be as blind as a bat. I was standing ten yards away, and you looked straight through me.' □ 'In that icily superior way of his, he looked right through us.'

4048-look to [A2 pass rel] choose especially (for support, help etc). o: government, private industry; personal enterprise, individual courage. A: to help us, for assistance □ Let this be a warning against looking to personal diplomacy to settle issues. SC □ Don't look to him for help! □ He's not the sort of man to whom one looks for reassurance.

4049-look to one's laurels [A2] beware of losing one's reputation. S: athlete, sportsman; industrialist, inventor □ One or two younger scientists are challenging him in this field, so he must look to his laurels.

4050-look towards [A2] face. S: house, entrance. o: river, golf course, open country □ The front of the house looks towards the open sea.

4051-look up[1] [A1] raise one's eyes □ He didn't look up from his newspaper when I entered the room.

4052-look up[2] [A1] (informal) improve, get better. S: trade, business; turnover, figures; things □ Prospects for the small builder are looking up. □ Things should start to look up for the motor trade this Spring.

4053-look up[3] [B1i pass] try to find (usu in a work of reference); seek information about. O: detail, account; quotation, expression; train, bus, plane; him etc □ He comes back with an enormous dictionary, sits down and looks up the word. KLT □ All I can do is look up the figures and find that we were the richest country in the world. CON □ I looked him up in 'Who's Who'. □ Evidently he'd looked up the train; it wasn't all a matter of wild impulse. CON

4054-look up[4] [B1i pass] (informal) search for sb's house so as to visit him. O: old friend, acquaintance □ I've promised that the next time I go to London I'll look him up. □ Mine was not the kind of life where you 'ran into old friends', or were 'looked up' by them. THH

4055-look up and down [B1ii pass] (informal) examine in an admiring, sexually calculating, or contemptuous, way □ Standing with her hands on her hips, she looked George up and down in mock admiration. PE □ I was staring out of the driver's seat, taking in every word she said. She looked me up and down. THH

4056-look up to [A3 pass adj] admire, regard, with respect. o: leader, teacher, father □ He was still a leading member of the local organization, much looked up to for his maritime war experience. RFW □ People you can look up to*, with no frills, no snob-stuff, are pretty rare*. PW look upon [A2 pass] ⇨ look on/upon (as), look on/upon (with).

4058-loom ahead [A1 emph] await one menacingly in the future. S: adult responsibilities, matrimony, military service □ I had just attained the glory of the sixth form at school, with scholarships looming ahead. SD □ The Second Front in Europe, the invasion across the Channel, was looming ahead. MFM

4059-loom up [A1] appear suddenly and menacingly. S: ship; rock, iceberg □ Another rock loomed up and they only missed it by a fraction. PW

4060-loosen up[1] [A1 B1i pass] make oneself or sb more physically relaxed or supple; limber up[1] (qv) □ He loosened up with a few exercises before the big match. □ I got to loosen myself up*, you see what I mean? I could have got done in* (= killed) down there. TC

4061-loosen up[2] [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) relax, become less stiff, formal or solemn □ When I told her that I was his brother from Australia she loosened up and invited me into the parlour. RFW □ 'Perhaps I'm beginning to loosen up*,' Pyle said. 'Your influence. I guess you're good for me, Thomas.'* QA

4062-lop off [B1i pass adj] cut off cleanly with a bill-hook or sword. O: branch; arm □ The ground was littered with lopped-off branches. □ His arm was lopped off at the elbow.

4063-lord it over [B2] (informal) behave in a superior way towards. S: butler; matron; prefect. o: lesser servant; nurse; junior boy □ She'd be Queen and lord it over all the other servants, and live in luxury. RFW ⇨ queen it over.

4064-(not) lose any sleep about/over [B2 emph rel] (informal) (not) be greatly worried or concerned over sth. o: news, announcement; proposal, suggestion; change, occurrence; him/his being appointed □ There's no need to lose any sleep over the aircraft. I think it was probably trying to land. RFW □ 'I should have thought you might wish it hadn't happened?' 'Oh, I haven't lost any sleep about it. NM

4065-lose by [A2 B2 pass] suffer financially or personally through. O: nothing; not... anything, not... much □ Why not join us? I promise you that you won't lose by it (i e it will be to your advantage). □ How much do they stand to lose by this merger? □ I suppose there's nothing to be lost by sending a small patrol to the other side of the island. □ usu in neg/interr sentences.

4066-lose (in) [B2 pass emph rel] no longer trust, have faith in etc. O: trust, confidence, faith, interest. o: leader, management; enterprise □ Customers are losing confidence in our ability to meet delivery dates. □ All belief has now been lost in their promises.

4067-lose (oneself) in [B2 pass emph rel] become absorbed in. o: game, sport; story, book □ I soon lost myself in the rediscovered pleasures of the game. □ Mick was lost in the intricacies of a new electric motor.

lost in [pass (B2)] ⇨ entry after lose contact/touch (with).

4069-lose (all) trace of [B2 pass emph rel] have no clues as to the whereabouts of. S: family; police; search-party; secretary. o: (missing) child; escaper, suspect; climber, explorer; record-card, letter □ All trace has been lost of the climbing party missing since last weekend.

4070-lose count (of) [B2 pass(o) emph rel] be faced with such large numbers of people etc, that one cannot count them all. o: (number of) times, occasions (sth has happened); (his) cars, yachts; wives, mistresses □ I've lost count of the times he's bored us with that particular story.

4071-lose sight of[1] [B2 pass(o) emph rel] no longer be able to see. o: land, ship, quarry □ We lost sight of the enemy in some thick scrub about half a mile to our front. □ The fugitive was lost sight of in the crowd.

4072-lose sight of[2] [B2 pass(o) emph rel] forget about; not keep fresh in one's mind. o: objective, aim, goal; advantage, merit □ The reasons for which they went to war were soon lost sight of. □ My mind could take such decisions without losing sight of the main question. QA

4073-lose track of [B2 pass(o) rel] no longer be able to trace or follow sb or sth whose progress one is interested in. o: him etc; movements, progress; aircraft, ship □ I can follow his career up to 1958, then quite abruptly I lose track of him. □ His plane was lost track of about two hours out from London Airport.

4074-lose the use of [B2] be unable, through illness or injury, to use. o: hand, arm, leg □ The doctors did what they could, but he lost the use of both legs.

4075-lose on [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] lose money as a result of some activity. O: a fortune, a packet, one's shirt; investments, savings. o: gamble, venture; deal, transaction □ He lost heavily on the deal. □ It's a project on which we stand to lose a large sum of money. □ You can lose a packet on horse racing whether you study the horses or not.

lost on [pass (B2)] ⇨ second entry after lose contact/touch (with).

4077-lose one's hold on/over [B2] no longer control; not master or dominate any longer. S: teacher, leader; scholar, craftsman. o: class, (political) party; subject-matter, material □ Some parents hate to relinquish control: the more they lose their hold on their children, the more they seek to retain it by unfair means.

4078-lose out (to) [A1 A3 emph rel] (informal) be overcome and replaced (by). S: live theatre, music hall; tradition, family; small trade, private initiative. o: television; the new morality; big combines □ In face of competition from the mul- tiples the small neighbourhood shop is bound to lose out. □ The hard way, the grind, the moral lesson, duty, all were losing out to the easy way, money, charm, a well-known name. ASA 4079-lose one's hold over [B2] ⇨ lose one's hold on/over.

(not) lose any sleep over [B2 emph rel] ⇨ (not) lose any sleep about/over.

4081-lose ground (to) [B2 pass emph rel] retreat, give way, in face of pressure from. S: trade, industry; product, commodity; army. o: (overseas) pressure, competition; invader □ We have been losing ground fast to foreign producers and we must do something to stop the rot. T □ To popular developments in music and the visual arts 'tradition' as represented by academies has everywhere lost ground*.*

4082-lose contact/touch (with) [B2 pass emph rel] no longer be closely connected (with), or in a close relationship (with). S: ship, aircraft; actor, writer; politician; teacher, parent. o: shore, base; audience, public; the masses, his origins; class, child □ Radio contact with the lightship has been lost but will soon be restored. □ No one whom Dave has taught seems ever to lose touch with him. UTN

4083-lost in [pass (B2)] (be) filled with, (be) overwhelmed with. o: △ thought; admiration, wonder □ We were lost in admiration for his achievements. □ passive with be, feel, seem.

4084-lost on [pass (B2)] (be) wasted on sb, (be) unnoticed by sb. S: remark, comment, observation; charm, attentiveness; finesse, subtlety (of manner) □ 'It's like having a television set you never look at.' The illustration was lost on Sir George, who had no television set. DBM □ This impressive display of western air power was not lost on the Russians. MFM

4085-lost without [pass (B2)] (informal) (be) unable to live happily, work efficiently etc, without sth. o: daily paper, sporting news, television; tobacco, whisky; conversation, companionship □ Anna's life worked to schedule; like a nun, she would have been lost without her watch. UTN □ Oh, don't try and take his suffering away from him — he'd be lost without it. LBA □ passive with be, feel, seem.

4086-lounge about/around [A1 A2] (informal) lie or sit in a casual, lazy manner; loll about/around (q v). o: the place; sitting-room, bar □ 'Do you think that instead of lounging about you could give a hand with the dishes?' □ If my son wants to lounge around at home, he doesn't have to choose my favourite armchair.

4087-louse up [B1i pass] (slang) spoil, ruin. S: (clumsy, inconsiderate) fool, oaf. O: chance, prospects (of success); party, celebration; things, the whole thing □ We'd just got Monica settled with a few reassuring words when you had to louse everything up by opening your big mouth!

4088-lull to sleep [B2 pass] send to sleep by rocking. S: (movement of) train, aircraft; mother. O: passenger; infant □ The swaying motion of the train must have lulled me to sleep*. The next thing I knew was waking with a jerk at King's Cross.*

4089-lumber (with) [B2 pass] (informal) pass to sb else an awkward or inconvenient person, object or task. o: relative, pet animal; ugly furniture, unusable china; organizing, arrangements □ Every Summer we get lumbered with Aunt Mabel for a fortnight. □ 'Why lumber me with all this paperwork?'

4090-lump together [B1i pass] (informal) join together, treat as one. O: items, belongings; towns, states; accounts, bills □ Their incomes are lumped together for tax purposes. □ They've lumped the two districts together under one administrator.

4091-lunch in [A1] have one's midday meal at home, at the hotel where one is staying etc. S: guest, resident □ Non-resident students who wish to lunch in should inform the Domestic Bursar before ten o'clock.

4092-lunch out [A1] have one's midday meal away from home etc □ The management will be glad to provide a packed meal for residents wishing to lunch out*.*

4093-lunge at [A2 rel] throw oneself forward at a target, as when thrusting with a sword. S: adversary, assailant □ The intruder lunged at Stevens with a knife; Stevens snatched up a briefcase to ward off the blow.

4094-lure away (from) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] persuade sb to leave a place or person by false or genuine promises. S: manufacturer, publisher, director of research. O: executive, author, scientist □ I've heard too many tales of bright young research workers being lured away only to find their position changed for the worse. □ You will need to be very seductive or very devious to lure her away from someone she is so clearly attached to.

4095-lust after [A2 pass] strongly desire; covet. o: woman; money; fame, glory □ In particular, he lusted after those things which people born to money took for granted and didn't greatly desire.

M

4096-make no bones about [B2] not hesitate to say or do sth, act or speak about sth frankly and vigorously. o: blaming sb, accusing sb, coming to sb's defence □ Mr Justice Danckwerts made no bones about stigmatizing its use as dishonest trading. T □ He made no bones about describing her in 'The Times' as an incomparable singer. T □ object is usu the -ing form of a verb.

4097-make a fuss (about/over) [B2 pass emph rel] become (extremely) excited or worried about sth, for no good reason. adj: much, a deal of, a lot of, no end of (a) □ Jean Pierre was making a fuss about one of the translations. UTN □ The unexpected rise in British factory investment, about which so much fuss has been made*, should be greatly welcomed.* OBS □ They are making a lot of fuss over nothing! ⇨ next entry.

4098-make a song and dance (about/over) [B2 pass] (informal) become unreasonably (and absurdly) excited or worried about sth □ Kay's parents made a dreadful song and dance about her being out after midnight. □ A tremendous song and dance was being made over the change in the licensing laws. ⇨ previous entry.

4099-make one's way across, along, back etc [B1ii B2 emph rel] move, proceed, across, along, back etc. ∝ road; river, sea; room, corridor □ It was an hour and a half or so later that the company made its way back to the transmitting station. TBC □ Armed with lengths of string and fish-hooks, we would make our way down to the river-bank in the morning. DF

4100-make after [A2] chase, pursue. ∝ quarry, prey, thief □ The rabbit shot from its burrow and two dogs made after it at top speed.

4101-make at [A2] attack; move towards sb as if to attack him □ He made at the man with a heavy ruler snatched from the table. □ The dog made at the postman with his teeth bared.

4102-make eyes at [B2] (informal) look at flirtatiously or coquettishly. ∝ older boy, good-looking man □ 'Stop making eyes at the waiter, Mary. We shan't get our meal any quicker!' □ (music hall song) Come and make eyes at me down at the old 'Bull & Bush'! □ There's nothing for the French boys to do but make eyes at Mariette. BFA

4103-make a grab (at) [B2 rel] (informal) suddenly stretch out a hand and try to grasp sth. adj: quick, sharp, sudden. ∝ rope, handle; hand, sleeve □ I could do nothing more than make a wild grab at him with my arms. BB

4104-make a pass (at) [B2] (informal) suggest by word or gesture that one would like to make love to sb (esp used of cases where one or both persons have other commitments) □ 'If he ever makes a pass at you I'll wring his neck.' AITC □ 'I was quite shameless, wasn't I? The owner's wife making a big pass at one of the salesmen.' PE □ pass may be pl, as in: Men don't make passes at girls in glasses.

4105-make away/off (with) [A1 A3 pass] steal and hurry away with. ∝ cash, valuables, luggage □ While we were having coffee two small boys made off with our suitcases.

4106-make away with oneself [A3] take one's own life, commit suicide; do away with² (q v) □ 'You don't think she had any motive for making away with herself, Mother?' RFW

4107-make for¹ [A2 pass] move towards (e g to escape). S: audience, crowd; vehicle; ship. ∝ exit, gate; sea □ 'I can't listen to any more of this rubbish!' he said, and made for the door. EM □ The bar was instantly made for by the thirsty audience. □ The convoy made for the open sea.

4108-make for² [A2 pass] rush towards (so as to attack). S: aircraft, tank; elephant, bull □ Two sentries made straight for him with drawn swords.

4109-make for³ [A2 pass] help to make possible, to ensure. S: good management; improved motorways; enlightened teaching. ∝ better labour relations; safer driving; sound education □ International football matches do not always make for better understanding between countries. □ A big family's a wonderful interest. It makes for the stability of marriage. QA make amends (for) [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ make amends (to) (for).

4110-make allowances (for) [B2 pass emph rel] consider, allow for (q v), certain factors (when measuring, assessing or judging sth or sb). adj: some, no, (not) any, few; certain, due. ∝ growth, shrinkage; wind, tide; age, inexperience □ The financing of road improvements is just as much of a burden to one place as another when allowances are made for size and revenue. SC □ The jury were asked to make all allowances for the age of the accused. □ Now that I had seen this attitude abroad, I was even less ready to make allowances for it. AH □ allowances occasionally sing, as in: When every allowance has been made for his inexperience....

4112-make a beeline for [B2 pass emph rel] (informal) hurry directly towards. ∝ door, exit, bar □ He was now making a beeline for indoors to discover what Steve was doing. SPL □ A beeline was made for the best seats.

4113-make a bolt/dash for [B2] (informal) hurry (to catch a train etc, keep an appointment); suddenly escape from captivity. ∝ bus, train; freedom, open door; it □ I became oblivious of the passage of time and had to make a bolt for it to get the bus. WDM □ The prisoners made a dash for the open window while their guards' attention was distracted.

4114-make a break for it [B2] (informal) escape from captivity while one's captors' attention is elsewhere □ He was looking at her frequently, perhaps to make sure of catching her if she decided to make a break for it. TGLY □ I'm not so daft as to make a break for it on my long-distance running. LLDR

4115-make a long arm for [B2] (informal) stretch out to reach □ 'Would you make a long arm for my pipe? It's on the shelf behind you.'

4116-make a name for oneself [B2] (informal) earn oneself a reputation (in a particular field) □ The Prime Minister favoured Gott, who had made a great name for himself in the desert. MFM □ He's made quite a name for himself as an after-dinner speaker.

4117-make a/one's play for [B2] (informal) try by some special action to secure or capture sth, or win sb's interest. ∝ job, vacancy; sb's attention; pretty girl □ 'Stephens has been with the company for a year now. How long do you think it'll be before he makes a play for the top job?' □ 'Did you notice how Bill's eye lighted on the girl in the yellow dress? He'll be making his play for her in just a minute.'

4118-make room (for) [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] make space, or time, into which sb or sth can be fitted. ∝ furniture, junk; passenger; activities, speaker □ Somehow the extra children will have to be made room for. □ 'I suppose the cells are full of my spies.' 'We can always make room for another by having a few executions.' OMIH □ More room will have to be made on the programme for these performers.

4119-make tracks (for home) [B2] (informal) leave sb's company, or house, to return home □ 'It's really time we were making tracks for home. Thank you for a delightful evening.' □ 'Come on,' said Finn, 'let you and I be making tracks.' We had been there nearly three-quarters of an hour. UTN make (from)² [B2 pass emph rel] fashion, tailor (a garment). ⇨ make (up) (from) ².

4120-make (from)¹ [B2 pass emph rel] shape, fashion (finished product). ⇨ make (up) (from)¹.

make a dent in [B2 pass rel] (informal) make less, reduce; damage, weaken. ⊙: savings, bank balance; reputation, credibility, authority □ 'All these bills for repairs to the house have made a big dent in our holiday money.' □ Stories of official corruption have made a serious dent in the government's high-minded campaign against lawlessness.

4121-make one's way in the world [B2] progress in one's career, make a success of one's working life □ He hasn't the determination to make his way in the world. □ If he hasn't made his way in the world by now, he never will. MM make (into)¹ [B2 pass] shape, fashion (raw material). ⇨ make (up) into ¹.

make (into)² [B2 pass rel] shape, fashion (cloth). ⇨ make (up) (into) ².

4124-make into [B2 pass emph rel] cause to become; transform (into) (q v). O: boy, trainee, recruit; mild person; loft, barn. ⊙: man, manager, leader; tiger, bully; flat, studio □ He wasn't always a bully. You made him into one. PFE □ Many of the cinemas have been made into bowling alleys and bingo halls.

4125-make inroads (into) [B2 pass emph rel] absorb or consume a considerable part (of). adj: grave, extensive. ⊙: savings, reserves, capital □ Our recent economic difficulties have caused serious inroads to be made into our gold and currency reserves.

4126-make of [B2 pass emph rel] (not) understand (at all); understand, interpret, to a stated extent. O: nothing; very little, hardly anything; something. ⊙: behaviour, character; work, art; writing, sound □ He tired very quickly, as his predecessor had prophesied, of the popular records and could make nothing of the others. TST □ Nothing much could be made of the scribble in his notebooks. □ 'What did you make of the old lady?' PP

4127- make the best of [B2] do one's best in difficult conditions, or with limited means. ⊙: situation; confinement, isolation; resources, gifts □ He was sorry his talents were not greater, but he was ready to make the best of them. □ We must make the best we can of the few natural resources we have.

4128-make the best of a bad job [B2] (informal) do the best one can in unfavourable circumstances □ Aubrey Clover, resigned to making the best of a bad job, said, 'We'll have to rehearse on the day itself.' WDM □ They were unhappily married, but each had determined to make the best of a bad job.

4129-make the best of both worlds [B2] combine the best aspects of different ways of life, philosophies etc □ Some have tried to make the best of both worlds — the best of Indianism, the best of Christianity. DOP □ This device is really an invitation to make the best of both worlds, the telescopic and the microscopic, at a single glance. HAH make capital of [B2 pass rel] ⇨ make capital (out) of (entry after how make that out).

4131-make a clean breast of it/the whole thing [B2] make a full confession of sth □ 'If you don't make a clean breast of it to the police I shall have to give them the information.' EM

4132-make effective/good use of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] use well; put to effective/good use (q v). ⊙: superior strength, reserve troops; spare capital, new machines □ Effective use was made of aid sent from overseas. □ The composer makes good use of the augmented brass section. □ How can an underdeveloped country make the best use of science? NS

4133-make an evening/a night/weekend of it [B2] (informal) devote a whole evening etc to a party, outing, pleasurable pursuit □ Tharkles, released from supervision by Edith's absence, had suggested that they should make a weekend of it (i e spend the weekend together). HD □ 'Say you'll be back by one — unless you decide to make a night of it.' OMIH

4134-make an example of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] punish sb for an offence in order to deter others from committing similar offences. S: magistrate, court; headmaster. ⊙: offender, culprit □ 'Wasn't it high time,' said one letter, 'for an example to be made of these juvenile thugs?' □ Those responsible for the disturbance in the main block of the prison were made an example of (or: made examples of) by the governor.

4135-make an exhibition of oneself [B2] draw attention to oneself through loud, vulgar behaviour. adj: disgusting, dreadful, fearful □ 'Did you have to make such a vulgar exhibition of yourself at the party? Why must you always be the centre of attention?' □ 'Do try to stop the children making exhibitions (or: an exhibition) of themselves in front of their grandparents!'

4136-make a fool of [B2 pass(o)] make sb feel foolish by leading him to expect sth which is not forthcoming □ We were all made fools of by some door-to-door salesman. □ That girl has made a fool of more than one man. □ I wanted to laugh now: what fools we had both made of each other! QA

4137-make a fool of oneself [B2] make oneself appear ridiculous through clumsy or thoughtless behaviour □ Aisgill had a watchful coldness about him which almost frightened me; he looked utterly incapable of making a fool of himself. RATT □ There was the sort of tug-of-war between rival organizations. The result was that we both made fools of ourselves. DS

4138-make a friend of [B2] put oneself on close and friendly terms with sb one already knows (e g a pupil) □ He never bothered to make a friend of his son. □ A probation officer best succeeds if he tries to make friends of the young people in his care.

4139-make fun of [B2 pass(o)] mock, ridicule; laugh (at)² (q v). ⊙: sister, wife; speech, gestures; ambition, aspiration □ We all make fun of him behind his back, of course. OBS □ 'You're making fun of me,' she said in a low voice. 'I'm quite serious.' RATT □ His efforts to improve himself are constantly made fun of.

4140-make a fuss of [B2 pass pass(o)] give much (perhaps too much) attention, hospitality etc to sb. adj: much, a lot of; (not) any. ⊙: guest, visitor; son □ We were made so much fuss of by the welcoming committee. □ Too much fuss can be made of very young children. □ We made such a fuss of them. Gave them cigarettes and mugs of tea. CSWB

4141-make a go of [B2 pass(o)] (informal) make sth (esp a relationship) succeed. ⊙: it; marriage, partnership, life together; business, venture □ Why didn't we make a go of it? Where did our love go to? HSG □ I think Helena and Tony will make a go of it. NM

4142 make a good etc job of [B2 pass pass(o) rel] (informal) perform a task well, ill etc (esp make repairs or decorations to sth well, badly etc). adj: good, excellent, satisfactory; poor, dreadful. o: car, cooker; bathroom, kitchen □ Many machines wash, rinse, spin-dry — but the new Acme Twin-Speed Combination makes a better job of all three. DM □ A first-class job was made of the new extension to their kitchen.*

4143 make a habit/practice of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] form, develop the habit of. o: it, this; turning up in time, greeting one's colleagues □ 'Use my telephone by all means, but don't make a habit of it.' □ He made a practice of doing his exercises in front of an open window. □ He made a habit of taking a nap after lunch (cf He made it his habit to take a nap etc).

4144 make a hash/mess of [B2 pass pass(o) rel] (informal) mismanage, mishandle; mess up (q v). adj: dreadful, absolute. o: arrangements; finance, account; booking, reservation □ The travel agents made a complete hash of our bookings. □ A perfect mess had been made of the seating plan.

4145 make hay of [B2 pass(o) rel] (informal) demolish, destroy; throw into confusion (⇨ throw into). o: argument, case; opposition, rival □ He made hay of the careful arguments of opposition speakers. □ All your plans for a continental holiday will be made hay of if the bank won't advance the money.

4146 make head or tail of [B2 pass(o)] (informal) (not) understand at all. o: report, lecture, note □ He was for some time completely unable to make head or tail of the blotted scrawl. EM □ She'd taken some notes, which she subsequently could not make head or tail of. WDM □ with can/could + not/hardly.

4147 make heavy weather of [B2 pass pass(o)] (informal) make a task seem more difficult than it really is. o: problem, sum; packing, removals; painting, repairs □ He picked up the briefcase and began to make heavy weather of the straps to have something to do. TT □ You're making terribly heavy weather of a perfectly simple calculation.

4148 make an honest woman of [B2 pass pass(o)] (informal) marry a woman with whom one has been having an affair □ Come on down to the church and I'll make an honest woman of you. TOH □ Even the silliest little shopgirl has the sense to try and get an honest woman made of herself. ASA

4149 make light of [B2 pass(o)] treat as slight or unimportant. o: discomfort, pain, inconvenience □ The privations he must have suffered during his imprisonment were made light of in his talks with reporters. □ This he put forward as a youthful folly. In fact, he made light of the whole episode. ASA

4150 make a man of [B2 pass(o)] help to grow up, to reach manhood. S: travel, danger, adventure □ Two years at sea will help to make a man of him. □ He was made a man of by having to take responsibility for others. □ The Navy intends to make men of you (recruits). ⇨ make into.

4151 make a meal of it [B2] (informal) overdo sth, do sth to excess □ 'I don't mind you bringing a few friends in to play, Phil, but let's not make a meal of it.' □ He wasn't satisfied with saying a few words in reply. He had to make a meal of it!

4152 make a mental note (of) [B2 pass pass(o) rel] resolve especially not to forget. o: remark, saying; number, time □ I made a mental note of the phrase. RATT □ Here is another point that ought to be made a mental note of. ⇨ make a note (of).

4153 make mention of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] (formal) mention, speak of; refer to [1] (q v). adj: some; no, (not) any □ Mention has already been made of the other surviving members of the family.* □ I was sitting on one of the walls of the partially excavated bath-building of which I have made mention. SD

4154 make mincemeat of [B2 pass pass(o)] (informal) maul severely, demolish utterly. o: attack, opposition □ The infantry were made mincemeat of by the artillery. □ A good lawyer would make mincemeat of your case. □ Yorkshire made mincemeat of the Surrey attack in piling up a score of 434 for 4 declared. DM

4155 make a mockery of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] bring to a low level, be a travesty of. S: behaviour; treatment, handling; trial. adj: complete, total. o: democracy, justice, free speech □ The conduct of the elections made an absolute mockery of democratic processes. □ The judge's frequent interventions made a mockery of justice.

4156 make the most of [B2 pass pass(o) rel] get as much from experience etc as one can, exploit it to the full. o: opportunity, chance; freedom, youth □ Make the most of your life — because life is a holiday from the dark.* HSG □ 'I never met a girl like you, so I might as well make the most of having you here.' AITC

4157 make much of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] stress, emphasize. o: factor, element; family background, old school tie □ In conversation he makes much of his aristocratic connections. □ One further criticism must be mentioned because much has been made of this. SNP □ Running has always been made much of in our family, especially running away from the police. LLDR

4158 make nonsense of [B2 pass pass(o)] render worthless. S: facts, evidence. adj: complete, absolute. o: pretensions; story, account, version □ His extravagant style of life makes nonsense of his claim to be a simple man of the people. □ The official statements were made nonsense of by on-the-spot reports.

4159 make a note (of) [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] record in one's mind or on paper. o: size, shape, position (of a place); time, destination (of a train etc) □ Still Charles hung back, making a note of the obviously complex traditions of the place. HD □ A careful note should be made of the exact dimensions of the emplacement. ⇨ make a mental note (of).

4160 make nothing of [B2 pass(o)] overcome with ease some apparently difficult obstacle. S: athlete; boxer; student, scientist, inventor. o: obstacle, jump; opposition; problem, difficulty □ (commentary on a horse and rider jumping obstacles) 'She comes round again to take that fence and of course makes nothing of it.' BBCTV ⇨ make of.

4161-make a nuisance of oneself [B2] irritate others by making a noise, interrupting etc; risk unpopularity by criticizing authority etc □ The children are making confounded nuisances of themselves*.* □ If the Council continues with its plans to demolish this neighbourhood there are people who are prepared to make a nuisance of themselves by organizing protest meetings, lobbying their MP and even withholding their rents and rates.

4162-make a point of [B2 pass] be careful to, take particular care to. ○: being punctual, greeting people by name; it, this □ Do you make a point of being on time for work and social appointments? WI □ She makes a point of having someone around to sort things out for her. EHOW

4163-make a secret of [B2 pass emph rel] try to hide. adj: no, (not) any, little. ○: plans, intentions, designs; wishes, feelings □ Uncle Saunders had made no secret of his disapproval and disappointment. DC □ You knew I was doing that at the club. I never made a secret of it. AITC

4164-make sense of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] understand, interpret. adj: some, no, (not) any, little; perfect. ○: conversation, message, language □ I can never make sense of a word he says. □ The code couldn't be made sense of by our experts.

4165-make a success of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] be successful in some activity. adj: considerable, remarkable. ○: job, task, project □ He was given the job last year and has since made a great success of it. □ I rather doubt if such an ambitious scheme could be made a success of*.*

4166-make use of [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] employ, use. adj: some; wide, extensive, frequent. ○: techniques, processes; foreign labour, woman worker □ The chapels had ministers who were not Oxford-trained, and made wide use of lay preachers. UL □ The machine makes use of the principle of digital sorting. NS

4167-make a virtue of necessity [B2] pretend that sth which one is obliged to do or accept is good for one's character, moral development etc □ The Churches enjoined fasting partly to allow the faithful to make a virtue of necessity and partly, too, so that the wealthy might have a taste of what their poorer brothers and sisters had to put up with. OBS

4168-make the worst of [B2] fail, refuse, to make any effort when faced with difficulties. ○: situation, crisis, setback □ Some element in her character forced her to make the worst of a bad day. AITC □ Dave was now changing over from making the worst of the affair to making the best of it. UTN

4169-make the worst of both worlds [B2] combine the worst features of two ways of life, philosophies etc □ You want to make the worst of both worlds*. You want to marry an older woman who hasn't any money.* RATT □ Working overtime and paying extra tax on one's earnings seems very much like making the worst of both worlds*.*

4170-make demands (of/on) [B2 pass emph rel] ask for help, thus placing a burden on sb or sth. adj: excessive, heavy, repeated. ○: staff, helpers, supporters; resources, funds □ Dave is an old friend but he has no money. I felt perhaps I oughtn't to make demands on Dave. UTN □ Excessive demands have been made of the spares department: our stocks are down to rock-bottom.

4171-make off [A1] leave in a hurry (esp to escape from other people) □ Suddenly Myrtle slid down from the gate and quietly made off beside the hedgerow. SPL □ The priest struggled up the cliff alone and made off*.* RFW make off (with) [A1 A3 pass] ⇨ make away/off (with).

4173-make (on) [B2 pass emph rel] make a certain profit as the result of a business transaction. O: nothing; profit, return; pile, packet (of money). ○: deal, transaction; investment, sale □ John was prepared to sell me his car for what he paid for it: he wouldn't make a penny on the deal. □ There wasn't very much money to be made on property transactions in the London area in the years immediately following the war, as redevelopment was strictly controlled till 1954.

4174-make an attempt on [B2 pass] try to break or exceed. ○: record; time, speed, distance (set up by sb) □ A fresh attempt is being made on the land speed record later this year. □ The Kenyan runner made two further attempts on the 5 000 metres record that summer.

4175-make an attempt on sb's life [B2 pass] try to assassinate (a prominent person) □ Last night a fresh attempt was made on the life of the Crown Prince. □ That was the palace where the President had never slept since the last attempt was made on his life*.* OMIH □ also pl: Further attempts have since been made on his life*.*

make demands (on) [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ make demands (of/on).

4177-make an impression (on)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] affect in a particular way by one's appearance or behaviour. adj: favourable, good; bad, unfortunate. ○: jury, selection board, prospective buyer □ The Russians were clearly anxious to make a good impression (i e on the British). MFM □ The right kind of impression was made on the visiting delegation.

4178-make an impression (on)[2] [B2 emph rel] get people to notice one, impress them. ○: newcomer, visitor □ 'He does like to make an impression (on people), doesn't he? Notice the way he always sweeps into a room.' □ Tom's stock method of making an impression on anyone was to indicate that he understood them perfectly. SPL

4179-make a start (on) [B2 pass emph rel] begin, start (to do sth). adj: no, (not) any; fresh, new; early, belated. ○: task, job; notes, corrections; writing a report, repairing a machine □ There was work to do, awaiting him in his room. He had better make a start on it now. EM □ A start has yet to be made on building a much-needed relief road to the south of the city centre.

4180-make out[1] [B1i pass adj] write; complete. O: cheque, application, claim □ He won't know I've gone except when he comes to make out the pay cheques. TC □ Applications have to be made out in triplicate. □ He picked up a laundry list made out on the back of an envelope.

4181-make out[2] [B1iii pass] claim, assert, maintain. O: that one is overworked, that one can cure all ills; themselves... to be badly treated, him... to be cleverer than he is □ I'd just tell them to make out that they were taking the risk themselves. CON □ It was not the cure everyone made it out to be. TGLY □ They make themselves out to be poorer than they really are. □ It was made out that he had no business being there.

4182- make out³ [B1i pass] manage to see, read. O: figure, face, building. A: just, barely, scarcely; in the mist, half-light, gloom □ I could make out the expression on his face. NM □ The outline of the house could just be made out. □ usu with can/could.

4183- make out⁴ [B1ii] understand the nature or character of sb; work out ⁴ (q v) □ I really can't make him out. Why does he offend the very people who try to help him? □ usu with can/could + not.

4184- make out⁵ [B1iii] understand. O: it; what he was after; how he came to be there, why he always disagreed □ I could never make out if they wanted our help or not. □ I can't make it out: why doesn't he spend some of his money on a car that won't break down? □ usu with can/could + not.

4185- make out⁶ [A1] (informal) progress, prosper; get on ³ (q v). S: business, firm; family, son; things □ I wonder how John is making out in his new practice? □ How are you making out with Mary? (i e How is your love-affair progressing?) □ usu in direct and indirect questions after how.

4186- make out a case [B1iii pass] argue, plead (in favour of or against) □ I can't agree with you, but I grant that you've made out a very good case. □ A case could be made out that it's more humane to kill off these wild animals. TES □ He has made out a strong case for the repeal of the law. □ case may be followed by a that-clause, in favour of, for or against.

4187- how make that out [B1ii] how (does/did one) arrive at a particular conclusion or statement □ 'You say that we shall be making a loss for the next three years. Well, how do you make that out?' □ Someone from the floor asked the speaker how he made that out. □ direct or indirect question.

4188- make capital (out) of [B2 pass rel] use to one's own advantage, exploit (often unscrupulously). S: press, critic, opponent. adj: much, a lot of, no end of. o: confession, remark; resignation, move □ The newspapers have made capital out of his indiscreet statement on television. □ A good deal of capital will be made of their unwillingness to testify before the Committee

4189- make a mountain out of a molehill [B2 pass] greatly exaggerate a difficulty, problem etc □ He said the Government were frightened of nothing. The real trouble was we were making a mountain out of a molehill. MFM □ note pl: 'Don't make mountains out of molehills.'

4190- make over [B1i pass adj] convert; change, transform. O: house, room, garden; face, manner, appearance □ The basement has been made over into a workshop. □ Though you say you've made over your outside in a week, no one can do that with the inside (i e the personality). PTTP make a fuss (over) [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨make a fuss (about/over).

make a song and dance (over) [B2 pass] ⇨make a song and dance (about/over).

4193- make over (to) [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] transfer the ownership of sth (to). O: income, property, business, house □ The best farming land was made over to the younger son. □ To avoid death duty, grandfather made over the greater part of his property as soon as he retired. □ To which of his partners is he making over the residue of his estate?

4194- make advances (to) [B2 pass emph rel] approach sb (esp a woman) in the hope of making a conquest. adj: cautious, timid, bold. o: girl, woman; smaller firm, shareholders (of a business one wishes to control) □ 'I'd be glad if you'd stop making advances to my daughter.' □ Tentative advances have already been made to our shareholders by a multinational company.

4195- make application (to) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal, official) write, apply, asking for information, a form, an allowance etc. o: office, department; Registrar, Town Clerk □ To obtain a new birth certificate for your son, make application to the Adopted Children's Register. TO □ Application should be made in the first instance to the local office of the Ministry.*

4196- make a difference (to) [B2 pass emph rel] affect, influence; alter, change (things). adj: no, (not) any, (not) much; serious, considerable. o: me etc; feelings, attitude; prospects, future □ My secret activity had made no difference at all to my friendship with Hugo. UTN □ He was brought up in a fashionable district. That didn't make any difference to me. CON □ A big difference was made to our trading position by devaluation.

4197- make love to [B2 pass(o) rel] kiss and caress; have sexual intercourse with. adj: ardent, passionate □ I never wished to make love to Mrs Thompson, though I certainly wouldn't have thrown her out of my bed. RATT

4198- make amends (to) (for) [B2 pass emph rel] repay or compensate sb for sth one has failed to do in the past; make up for ² (q v). adj: generous, handsome. o: (to) him etc; (for) failure, sin, crime □ There was the College putting forth all its beauty as if to make amends to him for all it had denied. HD □ Whatever disappointment he had been in life, he was certainly beginning to make some amends (for it) in death. PP

4199- make up¹ [B1i pass] replace, make good. O: loss, deficiency, wastage; leeway □ Our losses will have to be made up with fresh drafts (i e of troops). □ There is a tremendous amount of leeway to make up if he wants to have a chance of winning this race.

4200- make up² [B1i pass adj] provide a road with a hard surface of bitumen etc to make it suitable for fast motor traffic. O: road, street, drive, carriage-way □ Half the roads in the estate are still to be made up. □ There's a good made-up road from the capital to the main port.

4201- make up³ [B1i pass adj] compose, invent (possibly to deceive). O: words, tune, story; the whole thing, things, it □ These entertainers make their stories up as they go along. □ You can't go around making up things about being assaulted by people who don't exist. DC □ There isn't any little girl called Clementine. He's just made her up. DC

4202- make up⁴ [B1i nom pass adj] arrange type, illustrations etc, in columns or pages for printing.

O: page, column □ The way the front page is made up may need to be altered several times (or: The make-up of the front page may need etc).

4203- make up[5] [B1iii nom pass] form, compose, constitute. S: cell, tissue, sinew; man, individual; island, atoll. O: body; tribe, nation; chain, group □ What are the qualities that ideally should make up a man's character? □ Society is made up of people with widely differing abilities. □ There are plans to change the make-up (= composition) of the Board. □ There is something in his make-up (= nature, character) that repels people.

4204- make up[6] [B1i pass adj] add more fuel to a fire etc. O: fire, stove, boiler □ The fire needs making up. □ If the stove isn't made up, it'll go out.

4205- make up[7] [A1 nom B1i nom pass adj] prepare one's face, body for a performance in the theatre, or on film or television; apply cosmetics to the face to make it more attractive. S: actor, cast; woman. O: himself; face, nose, eyes □ It took Laurence Olivier more than an hour to make up (or: do his make-up) for the part of 'Othello'. □ The actor applies several kinds of make-up to his face (e g cream, greasepaint, powder). □ Her hair is dyed platinum blonde and she is heavily made up. DPM

4206- make up[8] [B1i pass] prepare by mixing together various ingredients. S: chemist, druggist (US). O: medicine; tonic, cough cure; prescription □ The doctor writes out a prescription and you get it made up at the chemist's. □ He made up a medicine from the juice of berries and applied it to the wound.

4207- make up[9] [B1i pass] prepare a bed which is not at present in use (e g for a patient); prepare a makeshift bed (e g for an unexpected guest). O: bed, cot, campbed □ Sister sat down on the wire-works of the bed. I had not had time to make it up yet. DC □ I had a bed made up for me on the sofa.

4208- make up[10] [B1i pass] prepare a basket etc of food, esp for a journey or outing. O: (picnic) basket, hamper; sandwich lunch □ The hotel will make you up a packet of sandwiches for the journey.

4209- make up[11] [B1i pass] (make) complete. O: (full) strength, numbers, complement; (required, total) sum, amount □ Our benefactor made up the total with a cheque for £1 000 (cf A cheque for £1 000 made up the total). □ We recruited locally to make up our full complement of labourers (cf Local recruits made up our full complement etc). ⇨ make up to[1].

4210- make up a four (at bridge) [B1iii] (cards) make a game of bridge possible by offering or agreeing to be the fourth player □ Ask old Mr Smith if he'd mind making up a four.

4211- make one's/sb's mind up [B1i pass] (cause to) decide, reach a decision □ 'Look, I've made up my mind. I want to have the party here.' TOH □ He had been pondering the great decision. Now his mind was made up. TO □ He wants somebody to make up his mind for him. □ make one's mind up may be followed by clauses introduced by that, what, whether, how etc.

4212- make up for[1] [A3 pass] outweigh; compensate (for) (q v). S: strong personality; hard work; inventiveness. o: unattractive appearance; lack of intelligence; shortage of natural resources □ My face is a bit thinner, but the rest of me is rapidly making up for that. AITC □ Pay increases will not always make up for poor working conditions. NS

4213- make up for[2] [A3 pass adj emph rel] redress; repay sb for one's past failures etc; make amends (to) (for) (q v). S: kindness, considerate treatment. o: neglect, rudeness; what sb has undergone □ How could he make up for all that she had suffered because of him? □ His display of bad manners was scarcely made up for by his subsequent behaviour.

4214- make up for lost time [A3] make a special effort to do sth after starting late □ So, now that we are practically neighbours, we must make up for lost time. Do look us up! □ We came into this field late, so we must work hard to make up for lost time.

4215- make (up) (from)[1] [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel B3 pass emph rel] shape, fashion, manufacture (a finished article) from (raw material). O: brick, block; batten, joist; bracelet, locket. o: rubble, slag; timber, scrap; coin, chain □ [B2] We're making a bed from scrap timber. □ [B3] She wore a necklace made up from silver coins. ⇨ make (up) (into)[1].

4216- make (up) (from)[2] [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel B3 pass emph rel] fashion, tailor (a garment) from (cloth). O: suit, trousers, skirt. o: material, stuff; piece, length, roll □ [B3] Two full-length dresses can be made up from this piece. □ [B2] I'm having a suit made from the worsted you gave me. ⇨ make (up) (into)[2].

4217- make (up) (into)[1] [B1i pass B2 pass B3 pass] shape, fashion (raw material) into (a finished article). O: cement; powder; dough; pulp. o: block; pudding; bread; paper □ [B3] You can get these pieces of old gold made up into a brooch. □ [B2] In this one factory, trees are cut into pieces and pulped, and the pulp is made into paper. ⇨ make (up) (from)[1].

4218- make (up) (into)[2] [B1i pass adj B2 pass rel B3 pass] fashion (cloth) into (a garment). O: cloth; worsted; piece, length. o: coat, jacket, dress □ [B1] A friend is making up the dress-length Mary bought on her holiday. □ [B1] (notice outside tailor's shop) Customers' own materials made up. ⇨ make (up) (from)[2].

4219- make up to[1] [B3 pass] raise to, increase to (a particular level). O: mixture, liquid; sum, amount. o: consistency, concentration; figure, level □ You can make the lemonade up to full strength if you add more juice. □ If you contribute a few pounds, I'll make the collection (of money) up to the total required. ⇨ make up[11].

4220- make up to[2] [A3 pass] (informal) make oneself pleasant to sb in order to win favours. o: pretty girl; employer, officer, prefect □ He's not the sort of man who likes being made up to. □ On his first day at the office, he started making up to the prettiest secretary.

4221- make it/this up to [B3 pass] (informal) give to sb in compensation for sth he has missed or suffered □ I am sorry you missed the outing. It will be made up to you at Christmas. □ When I get you home safely in the country I'll make all this up to you. DC

4222- make it up (with) [B1ii B3] settle a quarrel, one's differences, (with); make one's peace (with) (q v). □ I don't know if Philip and Rosemary have made it up or not (cf I don't know if Philip has made it up with Rosemary or not). EHOW

4223-make with [A2] (slang) deliver; produce, create. o: money; food; music, jokes □ 'Can't you see our tongues are hanging out? Make with the drinks!' □ 'We need some slogans for the promotion of the new hairspray, so start making with the ideas.'

4224-make a deal (with) [B2 pass emph rel] agree to terms for doing business. o: client, trading partner; enemy □ 'I'll make a deal with you. You can have the plans if you split the profit with us.' DM □ United Copper made a deal with a European consortium to share the mineral rights (cf United Copper and the consortium made a deal to share etc).

4225-make friends (with) [B2 rel] get on pleasant, intimate terms (with) □ 'You'll find us all wanting to make friends with you. Do you like the idea?' PW □ John made friends with Bill (or: John and Bill made friends). □ The letter was probably from one of the patients with whom she had made friends in the hospital. DC

4226-make great etc play with [B2 pass pass(o) emph rel] (in a dramatic way, and esp in argument or debate) stress, emphasize; handle, play with[1] (q v), for dramatic effect. adj: ⚠ great, much, a good deal of. o: one's achievements, privations, sufferings; figures, estimates; gold watch and chain, documents □ She made great play with the years of work she had given to Mrs Portway. ASA □ She took off and put on (her spectacles) a hundred times a day, making as much play with them as a barrister in court. AITC □ The Prime Minister made a good deal of play with the contrast between the backward-looking Opposition and the new thinking amongst Conservatives. OBS

4227-make a hit (with) [B2 emph rel] (informal) impress favourably; make an impression (on)[1] (q v). S: speaker, actor, politician. o: audience, public □ My daughter Janice asks me to send you her love — you made a big hit with her.

4228-make (a) peace (with) [B2 pass emph rel] end hostilities with another state, power group etc. o: neighbour; aggressor □ The elected government gave way to a caretaker regime that was prepared to make peace with the invaders at almost any cost to the nation. □ A more lasting peace could be made with the Unions if the restrictions on wage settlements were relaxed.

4229-make one's peace with [B2 emph rel] settle a quarrel, one's differences, with sb (by apologizing, agreeing to co-operate etc); make it up (with) (q v). o: church, political party; leader, father, wife □ Johnson had no intention of making his peace with his superiors simply to give an impression of harmony within the department. □ 'Have you made your peace with your wife yet?' 'I've certainly tried, but she refuses to talk to me.'

4230-make shift (with) [B2 pass(o) rel] use for lack of sth better, make do (with). o: inferior materials, poor tools □ We can't get fresh supplies so we'll have to make shift with local substitutes. □ He can't afford copper, but aluminium will do as a makeshift (= substitute). □ nom form is makeshift(s).

4231-map out [B1i pass adj] arrange, organize (in one's mind or on paper). O: journey, route; programme, plan (of events) □ We must get the whole expedition clearly mapped out on paper before we start to order equipment. □ It was a well mapped-out itinerary, taking in all the places of interest in the area.

4232-march on [A1] (military) enter a parade-ground formally at the start of a parade. S: battalion, company □ At the beginning of a ceremonial parade, the Regimental Sergeant Major gives the order to march on.

4233-march past [A1 nom A2] (military) move ceremonially past a senior officer, who 'takes the salute'. S: troops, column, contingent, parade. o: sovereign, inspecting officer; saluting base □ The battalion marched past their commanding officer. □ After the inspection, there is a march-past of all troops on parade.

4234-mark down[1] [B1i pass adj] note, choose, especially (as deserving punishment, or as suitable for use) □ He was certain the man had marked him down, was out to wring his neck. LLDR □ I drove on to the Aosta Palace, which I had marked down for my brigade headquarters. SD

4235-mark down[2] [B1i pass adj] indicate that the price of an article has been reduced. O: dress, suit; linen, china □ Many household articles are marked down during summer sales at the big London stores. ⇨ mark up[2].

4236-mark down[3] [B1i pass] reduce the marks awarded to a student, class etc. O: boy, pupil, form □ The boys at the top of the form were marked down, as the gap between them and the rest did not reflect their true merits.

4237-mark for life [B2 pass] wound or injure sb so badly that he is permanently scarred. S: enemy, rival; experience, ordeal □ 'If I see you near my sister again, I'll mark you for life!' □ His experiences as a prisoner of war have left him marked for life.

4238-mark in [B1i pass adj] add (small) details to a map, picture etc. O: road, track, conventional sign; leaf, twig □ The district boundaries are marked in with a fine mapping pen.

4239-mark off [B1i pass adj] separate one thing from another with a line or boundary. O: place, space; enclosure, car-park; period, stage □ An area at the end of the site was marked off as a future playground. □ This phase in his life was marked off from the rest by the death of his father.

4240-mark out [B1i pass adj] draw the internal dividing lines within a space (e g places where windows are to go on a drawing of a wall). O: tennis-court, football pitch, gymnasium floor; elevation, plan □ The sports field is marked out for an athletics meeting by the ground staff.

4241-mark out (for) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] decide in advance that sb will succeed. S: firm, employer. O: trainee, recruit, entrant. o: early promotion, special treatment, management training □ He's the bosses' blue-eyed boy: you can tell he's been marked out for quick promotion. □ One or two of the graduate entry have been marked out as 'likely to succeed'.

4242-mark up[1] [B1i nom pass adj] (in retail trading) decide the selling price of sth after taking into account all the costs to oneself (charged by the manufacturer, wholesaler etc); (in overseas trade) decide such a price in relation to the cost of importing. O: price, figure; goods, books □ Poultry farmers have recently been complaining that wholesalers and butchers have been marking up the farmers' prices for Christmas turkeys by up to one hundred per cent. □ The mark-up price of British books abroad has been fluctuating considerably in recent months as the value of the pound strengthens or weakens.

4243-mark up[2] [B1i nom pass adj] increase the existing price of sth (in order to absorb higher costs, to earn more profit etc). O: food, clothes, soft furnishings □ Spirits have been marked up following price increases announced in the Budget. □ Housewives are complaining of a mark-up of ten per cent on some household goods. ⇨ mark down[2].

4244-mark up[3] [B1i pass] increase the marks awarded to a student etc. O: pupil, form; script, paper □ If we mark up Jones on two or three papers he will just scrape a pass.

4245-mark up[4] [B1i pass adj] (publishing) prepare a manuscript for the printer by making corrections, inserting new material etc. O: manuscript (ms); book, article □ When a manuscript has been accepted for publication, it is passed to an editor for detailed scrutiny. The editor's subsequent marking up of the manuscript consists of deletions or additions to the author's text, together with instructions to the printer on the typefaces to be used.

4246-marry above [A2] marry sb in a higher social class than one's own. o: him etc; himself etc; one's (proper) station (in life) □ People who marry above themselves in the social scale have the same kinds of problem as those who marry outside their religion or nationality.

4247-marry beneath [A2] marry sb in a lower social class than one's own. o: him etc; himself etc; one's (own) station, class □ John's father threatened to disinherit him if he married beneath himself.

4248-marry in/into [A1 A2 rel] become a member of a particular group through marriage (can suggest calculation on the part of the person marrying in). o: aristocracy, landed gentry; (religious) community, faith □ She wasn't born into the nobility, she married in. □ He married into a rich farming family.

4249-marry off [B1i pass] find husband(s) for one's daughter(s) □ When his last daughter is happily married off, he can afford to relax.

4250-marry out/out of [A1 A2] leave the religious community into which one was born by marrying a member of another church etc. o: faith, church □ On the strictest interpretation, a Catholic is only marrying out of the faith if his partner is a non-Catholic and refuses to be married according to the rites of the Catholic Church.

4251-marry up [A1 nom B1i nom pass adj] join together, unite. S: [A1] O: [B1] components, parts; halves of the train; forces. S: [B1] fitter, assembly worker; railwayman; military commander □ The regular troops married up with partisans pressing down from the hills. □ The two parts of the project are not well married up. □ They achieved the first marry-up of our separate television networks.

4252-marvel (at) [A2 pass adj emph rel] find wonderful or impressive. S: spectator, layman. o: speed, efficiency, ingenuity, fluency □ Ninety-eight per cent will marvel at the accuracy with which we have been able to diagnose their handwriting. SNP □ We marvel at man's skill and inventiveness in putting complex pieces of machinery into space.

4253-mask out [B1i pass adj] (photography) when printing or enlarging, cover part of the negative, so that light does not pass through it. O: portion, part (of a negative, photograph) □ We can get rid of the unwanted detail in the foreground by masking out the bottom of the negative during processing.

4254-match against/with [B2 pass emph rel] set sb or sth in competition against or with; pit against (q v). O: boxer, wrestler; fighting cock; strength, wits, brains, cunning □ He's prepared to match his skill and strength against all comers. □ You've been matched with one of the best amateur fighters.

4255-match up [A1 B1i pass adj] fit together to form a pleasing ensemble, or a complete and intelligible whole. S: [A1] O: [B1] garments, furnishings, curtains; gems, ornaments; parts, aspects (of a story, of the evidence) □ 'Have you noticed how well the blouse goes with my long skirt? The whole outfit matches up beautifully.' □ 'I can't match up the two halves of the photograph. A bit is missing from the middle.' □ The police had some difficulty in matching up the statements taken from the two witnesses.

4256-measure off [B1i pass adj] measure, mark the end of, and cut away a portion of a larger piece. O: half, three-quarters; 2 feet, 3 inches, six and a half metres; piece, length (of cloth, wallpaper etc) □ The assistant measured off a dress-length from the roll. □ He had a 12-foot length measured off from a piece of oak. □ 'How much shall I measure you off*?'* □ note the Indirect Object (you) in the last example.

4257-measure up (to) [A1 A3 pass rel] be of the same size, standard, quality etc (as). S: place, food, service; appearance, character. o: reports, expectations, hopes; him etc □ Visually the fellow measured up: he was tall, slightly stooping. ILIH □ Differentiate between the genuine private detectives and others who do not measure up to our standards. T □ The reputation which had preceded him would take a good deal of measuring up to.

4258-meddle in [A2 pass rel] show undue interest in sth which is not one's concern; interfere in (q v). o: (sb else's) business, affairs, concerns □ I'm furious with him for meddling in our family disputes. □ Our affairs are constantly being meddled in by outsiders.

4259-meddle with [A2 pass rel] handle sth which does not concern one, and of which one has little knowledge (so disturbing or disarranging it); interfere with[1] (q v). o: papers, documents, collection; fitting, circuit, machine □ Somebody's been meddling with the photographs I laid out so carefully. □ The filing system I worked out has been meddled with by some busybody.

4260-mediate (between) [A2] (formal) try to help two parties holding conflicting views to reach a settlement. o: husband and wife, employer and trades unionist; rival firms, hostile powers □ When the two sides in an important industrial dispute reach deadlock the Secretary of State may attempt to mediate between them. □ It would take someone with the wisdom of Solomon to mediate between these two: each is so utterly convinced he's in the right.

4261-meet up (with) [A1 A3 pass] encounter, make contact (with), esp by chance □ By 1954, when we met up with him, he had six German clerks working for him. DS □ It was some years before we met up *(*with each other) again.

4262-meet with[1] [A2 pass] experience, encounter. o: kindness, generosity; good reception; hostility, opposition □ They met with stubborn resistance. BM □ We met with nothing but understanding from the doctors.

4263-meet with[2] [A2 pass] suffer, be overcome by. o: accident, misfortune, disaster □ 'Mrs Portway is very ill,' she said. 'She met with an accident.' ASA □ Every attempt to rescue the marooned party met with further misfortune.

4264-melt away [A1] disappear, vanish. S: fog, mist; crowd, throng; fear, anxiety □ As the sun rose the early mist melted away. □ Her suspicion melted away as he began to talk.

4265-melt down [B1i pass adj] melt articles of gold or silver to use the metal as raw material; melt (stolen) bullion etc so that it is no longer recognizable to the owners. O: jewellery, ring, old gold; gold bar, plate □ The bars are stamped with distinguishing marks and will have to be melted down before the thieves can hope to dispose of them. T

4266-melt in sb's/the mouth [A2] (informal) be so light or soft that it dissolves readily in the mouth; be delicious. S: cake, pastry; fudge, caramel □ This birthday cake simply melts in the mouth.

4267-mess about [A1] (informal) behave in a foolish, boisterous way; work in a pleasant, casual, disorganized way □ 'Tell the boys to stop messing about upstairs: I'm trying to work.' □ He spends the weekends messing about with his car.

4268-mess about (with) [B1ii pass A3 pass emph rel] (informal) handle sb roughly or inconsiderately; handle sth clumsily or incompetently. O: wife, girlfriend; patient. o: girl; engine, car; tooth, injury □ If he was your lover why couldn't you have been kinder to him? You can't mess about with people like Guy. DC □ 'Stop messing my daughter about (i e trying to seduce her in a clumsy way).' □ He's been messed about (with) by the doctors for the past two years.

4269-mess together/with [A1 A2] (military) come together in one place for meals and a common social life. S: officers; sergeants, warrant officers □ In barracks all the officers of a battalion mess together (i e in the 'Officers' Mess'). In the field, parts of a battalion may be widely separated and a platoon commander messes with the other officers in his company.

4270-mess up [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) mishandle, mismanage; confuse, disarrange. O: bookings, travel arrangements, flight schedules, seating plan □ Don't ask them to organize your itinerary: they made a complete mess-up of ours. □ I've sorted the list out; now don't mess it up again.

4271-mete out [B1i pass] (formal) administer, deal out (q v). O: punishment, hard blows, harsh treatment; justice; rewards □ The judgement meted out to the accused did not satisfy the public. □ The king and his court moved about the country, meting out justice at the assizes.

4272-mill about/around [A1] move about in a disorderly or confused way. S: children, crowd, spectators; thoughts, ideas, impressions □ The first of the girls were milling about in the corridor. TT □ Conflicting fancies milled around in his mind.

4273-mind out [A1] (informal) take care to avoid danger etc; look out[1] (q v), watch out (q v) □ *'Mind out, the dish is hot!'* □ 'You'll trip over the cat if you don't mind out*!'* □ usu imper.

4274-miss out [B1i pass adj] forget, fail, to include. S: printer, compositor; hostess; singer. O: comma, word; name, title; verse, line □ Through an oversight his name was missed out from the list of guests. □ He missed out the 't' from 'often'. □ No one is to be neglected or made to feel missed out.

4275-miss out (on) [A1 A3 pass rel] (informal) not be present at, not experience; fail to notice, and thus to enjoy or profit from. S: visitor; businessman; editor. o: celebration, reception, welcome; bonanza, oil-strike; scoop, story □ Only a distinguished visitor can hope for such a reception and even he may miss out if the people find him too grand. NDN □ If he finds that his own paper has missed out on some important fact, his day is soured to begin with. L

4276-mist over [A1] become covered with mist, tears, or a thin film of water; become darkened or obscured. S: landscape, view; eyes; spectacles, looking-glass, windscreen; mind □ His glasses kept misting over in the steam from the boiler. □ His brain misted over for a moment, then cleared suddenly. HD

4277-mist up [A1] become obscured by a film of water (usu resulting from condensation). S: windscreen, window; goggles, spectacles □ A fan directs a stream of warm air over the car's windscreen to prevent it from misting up. □ 'I'm as blind as a bat: my glasses have misted up*!'*

4278-mistake for [B2 pass emph rel] wrongly suppose that sth or sb is sth or sb else □ People are always mistaking him for his twin brother. □ He was mistaken for an enemy scout and badly wounded.

4279-mixed up [pass adj (B1)] (informal) (be) muddled, confused in one's thoughts or feelings □ I think that she's been very mixed up and she feels as if she's had to fight the whole world. DC □ He discussed personal problems with a group of very mixed-up teenagers. □ passive with be, feel, seem.

4280-mixed up in [pass (B3)] (informal) (be) a party to, or member of (esp sth secret or illegal). o: robbery, conspiracy, plot, intrigue; organization, spy ring □ He was mixed up in that horse-doping case. □ What a business to get (yourself) mixed up in*!*

4281-mix up (with)[1] [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] be unable to tell one thing or person from another. O: colour, twin, name □ He's forever mixing me up with my brother. □ One fault with his reading is that he still mixes up 'b' and 'd' (or mixes up 'b' with 'd').

4282-mix up (with)[2] [B1i nom pass adj B3 pass rel] mix two or more things together so that one does not know which is which; muddle up (with) (q v). S: organizer, agency, official. O: ticket, luggage, children, papers □ The office mixed up our flight documents (or: made a mix-up of our flight documents): John got mine and I got his. □ The porter got our bags mixed up*: I nearly walked off with someone else's.*

4283 mixed up with [pass (B3)] (informal) (be) involved with (esp for an immoral or illegal purpose). o: woman, (sb else's) wife; gang, crowd □ The Colonel got worried about that woman Hector was getting mixed up with in Tallulagahabad. RM □ His parents disapproved of the people he was mixed up with*.*

4284 mock-up [nom (B1)] full-size model of an aircraft etc, made of wood and cardboard (or other materials that are ready to hand) □ The mock-up is particularly useful in the development of the flight compartment. UA □ I want to propose a vote of thanks to Sergeant Wilson for an excellent mock-up of a boat. BBCR

4285 monkey about/around [A1] (informal) play mischievously □ It's dangerous to monkey around in a workshop. □ 'Stop monkeying about with those matches!'

4286 moon about/around/round [A1 A2] (informal) wander about listlessly, aimlessly. o: house, place □ He's no longer mooning round at Kenspeckle, thank goodness. RM □ I wish that girl would stop mooning about the house.

4287 mop up[1] [B1i pass adj] absorb liquid using an absorbent sponge, mop, or rag. O: (spilt) coffee, milk, orange juice □ She mopped up the pools that had formed under the leak in the ceiling.

4288 mop up[2] [B1i pass adj] (military) clear 'pockets' of enemy troops left behind in the general advance; clean up[3] (q v). O: isolated pockets of resistance □ There are still some enemy remaining and they are being mopped up*.* MFM □ There were still some mopping up operations to be undertaken. MFM

4289 mope about/around/round [A1 A2] wander here and there in a dispirited, dejected way. o: house, place □ 'Can't you get Jennifer's mind off that young man? She's been moping about the place all weekend.'

4290 motion aside/away [B1i pass] direct sb to move away or to one side, with a motion or gesture. S: steward, flunkey, doorkeeper, attendant □ The official motioned us aside with a superior sweep of his arm. □ The taxis were motioned away by the policeman on duty.

4291 mount up [A1] form a bigger and bigger amount, accumulate. S: expenses, costs; savings, pounds □ The small loss of weight from her day's production wouldn't be noticed, but the stolen carats would mount up fast. DS □ Put aside a pound a week and you'll be surprised to find how quickly your savings mount up*.*

4292 move about/around [A1 B1ii pass] go, be sent, from one place to another (esp because of one's work) □ Salesmen are constantly moving around from one town to another. □ The families of servicemen are moved about a good deal.

4293 move along [A1 B1ii pass] (police) (cause to) disperse, go away (said of, or to, onlookers who have gathered near the scene of an accident etc) □ 'Now, move along there, please,' said the policeman. □ A screen of police kept would-be spectators moving along*.*

4294 move right down [A1 A2] (request from a conductor to passengers) move away from the doorway towards the front of a bus or tram; pass along/down (q v) □ *'*Move right down inside please! Move right down the car!'

4295 move in [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) occupy, take possession of, a house etc. S: [A1] O: [B1] family, couple. S: [B1] council, church □ The family are moving in on the first of the month. □ 'Won't the agricultural people have something to say if they're shot out (= made to leave) and we're moved in*?'* TBC ⇨ move (into).

4296 move in (on) [A1 A3] move closer to sb or sth so as to handle, tackle or treat him or it. S: demolition team, bulldozer; riot squad, police; (film, television) camera. o: building, rubble; demonstrators; actors □ The camera moved in on the sofa for a close-up sequence. □ The tanks moved in to flush the snipers from their nests. □ Important changes are moving in on the industry (i e are about to affect it). OBS

4297 move (into) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (cause to) occupy, take possession (of). S: [A2] O: [B2] family, homeless people. S: [B2] local authority, housing trust □ 'Where are the Council moving *you?' '*Into a new flat.' □ Into that one council house have moved father, mother and seven children. ⇨ move in.

4298 move on[1] [B1ii pass] (police) tell sb to move from where he is causing an obstruction, unlawfully parked etc; tell sb to move along (q v). S: police, traffic warden. O: motorist, onlooker, loiterer □ We wanted to park in front of the bank, but the traffic warden moved us on*.* □ Before the crowd could get big enough to pose a threat to law and order, the police moved the people on*.*

4299 move on[2] [A1] progress, move to a better job, house, style of life □ I've been in this job for five years now; it's time I was moving on*.* □ He's moved on to higher and better things.

4300 move out [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) move from, vacate, a house, flat, camp etc. S: [A1] O: [B1] tenant, occupant, owner; troops. S: [B1] council, health authorities; officer □ The tenants of the condemned houses are being moved out and into new council flats. □ 'Tell the men to pack their kit: we're moving out (= leaving camp or barracks).'

4301 move over [A1] move away so as to leave more room for another occupant of a bed, bench etc □ *'Move over: you're taking up more than half the bed!'*

4302 move towards [A2 rel] approach, move nearer to. S: powers, contending states, negotiators. o: settlement, agreement □ The statesmen have moved away from their opposed positions and towards a compromise settlement. □ We are moving towards a better understanding between our two countries.

4303 move up[1] [A1 A2 rel] progress in one's work, rise socially. o: the social scale, pyramid, ladder, hierarchy □ He'll move up a rung or two when his qualifications are confirmed. □ He's moved very rapidly up the promotion ladder. □ She's moving up in the world.

4304 move up[2] [A1] (finance) rise; improve its position. S: price, rate, cost; share, stock, copper, rubber □ The exchange rate of the pound moved up sharply to well over 2·91 dollars. SC □ Mining shares moved up to a new level.

4305 move up[3] [A1 B1i pass] (military) move into the battle area. S: [A1] O: [B1] division, battalion;

armour, guns. A: into the (front) line, to the front □ Two companies were moved up under cover of darkness to reinforce the front line. □ As they moved up, they tangled with troops coming out of the line. RFW

4306-mow down [B1i pass] (military) cut down as if they were grass being mown with a scythe. S: machine-gun (fire), (rapid) rifle fire. O: assault troops, attackers □ The first wave of assault troops was mown down before it had passed through its own wire.

4307-muck about/around [A1] (informal) occupy oneself in a sloppy, idle, foolish way; mess about (q v) □ I wish he'd stop mucking about and get down to some serious work. □ Many accidents are caused by children mucking about on railway lines.

4308-muck about (with) [B1ii pass A3 pass] (informal) handle sb or sth roughly, clumsily, incompetently etc; mess about (with) (q v). O: girl; patient; customer. o: girl; car, motor, radio; wound □ That dealer has been mucking me about for days: I despair of getting a satisfactory answer out of him. □ 'Stop mucking about with that stereo: I've just paid £20 to get it fixed.'

4309-muck in (with) [A1 A3] (informal) put oneself on close, friendly terms with workmates etc, sharing their work and pleasures □ He's a lone wolf: never mucks in with the others. □ They should have mucked in together, the whole crowd of them, and settled their disputes in bed. PW

4310-muck out [B1i pass] clean dung from stables etc; clean out (q v). O: cowshed, pigsty, farmyard; pig, cow □ He has to muck out the horses (ie the stables) every morning at six. □ Give the yard a thorough mucking-out.

4311-muck up [B1i nom pass adj] (informal) spoil, ruin; mess up (q v). O: garden, study; layout, arrangement; holiday, outing □ While I considered that the Allies could win the war by the end of 1944, I was fairly certain we would muck it up, and would not do so. MFM □ The weather really mucked up (or: made a real muck-up of) our weekend.

4312-muddle through [A1] (informal) reach one's goal despite inefficiency, the lack of a plan or programme etc □ The Labour Party had a theory fifty years ago, but it's no use for them now. They're just hoping to muddle through without it. SML

4313-muddle up (with) [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] (informal) mix two or more things together so that one does not know which is which; mix up (with)² (q v). S: official, porter, agency. O: tickets, reservations □ My personal letters got muddled up with a batch of circulars. □ The stamps were found muddled up in a drawer.

4314-mug up [B1i pass adj] (slang) learn by intensive study, esp before an exam; swot up (q v). O: chemistry, law; formulae, figures (the kind of information that is usually memorized) □ I'm mugging up my medicine, too. DIL □ All the candidate could offer were a few facts hastily mugged up before the examination.

4315-mull over [B1i pass] consider slowly and carefully; ponder on/over (q v). O: remark, statement, proposal □ He wanted the chance of mulling over his conclusions about the old boy. ILIH □ Arguments for and against had been thoroughly mulled over.

4316-muscle in (on) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) use force or guile to get a share of, or participate in, sth important or profitable. S: gang, hoodlum; rival, colleague. o: market, racket, money; project, scheme □ I see red when I think anyone is trying to muscle in on my property. AITC □ The Association has been trying to muscle in for years now, but we have always rejected their applications to be affiliated. RM

4317-muse on/over/upon [A2 pass adj rel] think about, ponder, in an absorbed, dreamy way. o: past adventures, pleasant events □ He mused upon the flattering comments made by the young woman. □ Their offer to lend us their seaside cottage was pleasant to muse on.

4318-muss up [B1i pass] (informal) make untidy, disarrange. O: hair, clothes □ 'I'm not crawling about in that dusty attic and mussing up my new dress.' □ 'Keep your hands to yourself. You're mussing my hair up!'

N

4319-nag (at) [A2 pass adj] criticize, find fault (with) continuously; press sb irritatingly to do sth. S: wife. o: husband □ He feels constantly nagged at. □ She's been nagging at him to mow the lawn. □ She never stops nagging *(*at her husband and children)!

4320-nail back [B1i pass adj] fasten sth back with nails. O: door, shutter, flap □ The shutter kept banging to and fro in the wind, so we nailed it back against the wall. □ Nail the edges back at right angles to the cover.

4321-nail down¹ [B1i pass adj] fasten sth flat onto another surface with nails. O: carpet; lid, cover □ If the corner of the carpet curls up, nail it down.

4322-nail down² [B1ii pass] get sb to say precisely what he believes or wants to do □ John's very difficult to nail down: you can never get him to speak his mind on anything. □ Try to nail him down on the subject of religious education.

4323-nail down³ [B1ii pass] specify more exactly, define the character of sb or sth precisely. O: him etc, character; problem, subject □ Harold had nailed him down, robbed him of his mystery. His secret was out. PW □ Can we nail it (the concept) down a little more precisely? SNP

4324-nail on/onto [B1i pass adj B2 pass] fasten one thing to another with nails. O: shelf, cupboard, box. o: wall, door □ Don't nail the uprights onto the wall; screw them on.

4325-nail one's colours to the mast [B2 pass] make one's views known on a subject, and abide firmly by them □ The Home Secretary nailed his colours firmly to the mast on the question of arming the police.

4326-nail up¹ [B1i pass adj] secure sth with nails so that it cannot easily be opened. O: door, window, shutter; box, trunk □ Doors of derelict houses may be boarded and nailed up to prevent children getting in. □ Mr Fiske sat down on a nailed-up crate and beat his hands gently upon his knees. AITC

4327-nail up² [B1i pass adj] fasten sth to a surface so that it hangs from that surface. O: painting, tapestry, awning □ He nailed up a sign over the door which said: 'No Admission'.

4328-name (after) [B2 pass] give a child the same first name as. o: father, grandparent □ They named the girl Mary — after her mother.

4329-narrow down (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] reduce the number of people or places being investigated by clearing certain suspects etc. S: detective, search party. O: investigation, inquiries, search. o: farm, street; small number of suspects □ They narrowed the search for the missing boy down to a few streets near the school.

4330-negotiate (with) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) arrange, conclude, settle, sth through formal discussion. O: contract, deal; treaty, settlement; release, transfer. o: firm, labour force; (foreign) power, government □ It was announced that Tyneside shipyards had negotiated deals worth £30m with a major oil company. □ The British negotiated satisfactory terms with the French (or: The British and the French negotiated satisfactory terms).

4331-nest (in) [A2 emph rel] build a nest (in); have its nest (in). S: bird; mouse, rat. o: tree, creeper; attic, wainscoting □ Clearing the attic we had unearthed a family of mice nesting in a pile of old newspapers.

4332-nestle down [A1] settle oneself comfortably under bedclothes, a rug etc □ Robin had nestled down in his father's sleeping-bag on the floor of the dinghy.

4333-nestle up (against/to) [A1 A3 pass] press close to another person for warmth or comfort. o: husband, lover; mother □ The children nestled up close together and fell fast asleep. □ Liza nestled up against her mother and dozed fitfully.

4334-nibble (at) [A2 pass] take small bites (from); eat sparingly and without appetite. o: biscuit, sausage; bait □ The cheese left out on the kitchen table had been nibbled at. Mice again. □ Father never had much for breakfast. He would drink a cup of black coffee and nibble at a piece of dry toast.

4335-niggle (over) [A2 pass] (informal) be fussy, behave in a petty way (about sth). o: terms, conditions; price □ 'I don't see why they should niggle over paying a few pounds into the fund. They're rich enough, Heaven knows.' □ 'We had tremendous difficulty getting the agreement signed. Every little clause was niggled over.'

4336-nip across, along, away etc [A1 A2] (informal) move sharply, hurry, across etc □ 'I must just nip out to the shops before the children come home from school.' □ 'Nip across to Mrs Jones and borrow a pound of sugar.'

4337-nip in the bud [B2 pass] stop sth or sb from going any further (because the event, or his actions, may become dangerous, unpleasant etc). S: authority; parent, teacher. O: revolt, escapade, adventure; scheme, development □ He sat down with the air of having nipped some possibly dangerous nonsense in the bud. ASA □ His new-found intimacy with his son had been nipped in the bud. ASA

4338-nip off [B1i pass adj] (horticulture) remove with a sharp cutting or pinching action. S: gardener. O: shoots, growth □ He nipped off the side shoots from his geraniums.

4339-nod off [A1] (informal) fall asleep (esp in one's chair), letting one's head fall forward at the same time; doze off (q v), drop off² (q v) □ I must have nodded off. I sometimes do, on a Sunday, over my paper. HD □ I managed to make my mind a blank, even nodding off for a moment at one point. CON

4340-noise abroad [B1i pass] (formal) announce, make known. O: reputation, fame; result, outcome; announcement; it... that he was retiring □ Rumours of his dismissal were noised abroad in the department. □ It was noised abroad that he was taking up a new appointment. □ 'Who noised it abroad that I had spoken to him?'

4341-nose about/around [A1 nom] (informal) go about searching or prying (often into matters which are not one's concern); poke about/around (q v) □ I wish I could stop him nosing about — he's not wanted here. □ *The children had a good nose-around (or: nose around) in the attic.

4342-nose out [B1i pass adj] discover by smell, or by persistent searching. O: rat, ferret, rabbit; scandal, sensation □ The dog nosed a rat out from behind a pile of old newspapers. □ Trust him to nose out some choice piece of scandal.

4343-notch up [B1i pass adj] (informal) record a score (formerly by cutting notches in a stick); achieve, attain. S: hunter, marksman; player, performer. O: bullseye, hit; pheasant, grouse; big score, several victories □ We notched up one or two rabbits in a day's shooting. □ Our teams have notched up a number of wins in matches against visiting sides.

4344-note down [B1i pass adj] record in writing, write down (q v). O: detail, particulars; recipe, formula □ He noted down every word I said. □ The date of the meeting was carefully noted down.

4345-number off [A1 B1i pass adj] (military) (cause to) call out the number of the place one occupies in a rank of soldiers. S: [A1] O: [B1] soldiers, men. S: [B1] sergeant, NCO □ The platoon numbered off from the right. □ The company was numbered off by the sergeant major.

O

4346-object (to) [A2 pass adj emph rel] oppose, express one's displeasure (at). o: noise, disturbance; being contradicted, having to stay on at school □ He's always objecting, but never to anything in particular. □ I object to being woken up early. □ The new transport plan is much objected to.

4347 oblige (by) [B2] it would be less of a nuisance or irritation (if); you will please (do sth), be so good as to (do sth). o: asking your children to make less noise, parking your car elsewhere □ You'd oblige me by keeping your thoughts on the subject to yourself. □ You would oblige me by giving more time to your work (or: oblige me if you gave more time to your work). □ an apparently polite request which is in fact threatening or sarcastic; with would.

4348 oblige (with) [B2] (kindly) lend or give sth to sb. o: match, light; lift in one's car □ 'Could you oblige me with 5p for the gas meter?' □ I asked him if he could oblige us with a lift to the nearest garage. □ with can/could.

4349 obtrude (upon) [A2 emph rel B2 emph rel] (formal) force or push (itself etc) forward, esp in an unwelcome way. S: [A2] O: [B2] ideas, thoughts, opinions; presence, personality □ His vulgar presence obtruded (itself) upon the company when it was least welcome. □ Painful memories obtruded upon his attempts to reflect calmly.

4350 occur to [A2 emph rel] come into one's mind, enter one's head. S: thought, idea, plan; (it...) that he should know; (it...) to ask why □ The possibility of a way out of the impasse had never occurred to anyone. □ It had never occurred to her to ask herself why she was so unpopular. □ That he should have some deep personal objection had never occurred to me.

4351 offend (against) [A2 pass adj emph rel] break, contravene; behave in a way that is at variance with. o: code (of behaviour), conventions, manners, proprieties □ He seems to take pleasure in offending against the codes accepted by most people.

4352 offer up [B1i pass adj] (religious worship) present (to God). S: congregation, worshippers. O: prayers, sacrifices □ The priest offered up a slaughtered chicken. □ Thanks were offered up for mercies received.

4353 officiate (at) [A2 emph rel] (formal) conduct a ceremony (esp religious). S: priest, minister, rabbi. o: wedding, funeral; dedication, unveiling □ The bride's father, the Reverend Peter Masters, officiated yesterday at the wedding of Miss Cynthia Masters to the Honourable Alexander Twistleton-Whistle.

4354 ogle (at) [A2 pass adj] look intently, and with love or longing, (at); make eyes at (q v). o: (pretty) nurse, student □ He ogles at (or: He ogles) all the attractive secretaries in the office. □ She was embarrassed at being ogled at so persistently.

4355 omit (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) not mention or state; leave out/out of (q v). S: author, speaker. O: reference, mention; statement, claim; charge, accusation. o: book, report, speech □ The finance minister was careful to omit from his remarks any mention of the critical fall in the gold reserves. □ From the most recent edition of Maitland's book the chapter dealing with his arrest and imprisonment by the regime has had to be omitted.

4356 ooze out/out of [A1 A2] (of a thick fluid) come out, emerge, slowly. S: blood; oil. o: wound, cut; flaw □ Black oil was oozing out of a crack in the engine casing.

4357 open fire (on) [B2 pass pass(o) rel] begin firing (at). S: enemy; infantry, sniper; gun; ship. o: position; trench, strongpoint □ It would not have surprised me if someone had opened fire on us from an upstairs window. UTN □ A searchlight picked her (the ship) up, and fire was opened on her from the shore. RFW

4358 open onto [A2] allow one to reach; lead to, give access to. S: door, french-window, gate. o: backyard, garden □ The back gate opens onto a private road. □ The door of the cottage opens onto an uninterrupted stretch of countryside.

4359 open out[1] [A1] widen, broaden. S: river, valley □ The river opens out suddenly into a broad estuary. □ At that point, the road opens out and becomes a dual carriageway.

4360 open out[2] [B1i pass adj] unfold. O: map, blueprint, chart □ He opened the road-map out, and laid it on his knee.

4361 open out[3] [A1] unfold, blossom; develop. S: flower, bloom; character, personality □ In the warmth of the room, the roses opened out in a few days. □ She opened out a good deal while she was with us. PW

4362 open up[1] [A1] open the front door; let police officers enter a building to arrest suspects etc □ Mother! Open up! Let me in, I'm home. DPM □ *'*Open up in the name of the law!' □ We told them to open up or we'd break the door down. □ direct or indirect command only.

4363 open up[2] [B1i pass adj] unwrap, undo (a parcel etc); unfasten, unlock (a box etc); bring (a room etc) back into use by unlocking it. O: packet, package; suitcase, trunk; wing, room □ *'*Open up the boot of the car, and let me look inside.' □ Some of the smaller state rooms in the palace have not been opened up for years.

4364 open up[3] [B1i pass adj] form, cause to appear, by cutting etc. O: gap, breach, passageway □ The infantry opened up a corridor across the minefield for the armour to pass through. □ They open up a chink in the defensive armour of the Exchequer. SC

4365 open up[4] [B1i pass adj] reveal, lay bare (esp for subsequent development, exploitation). O: territory, land, the West (US); coal-fields, oil-fields; prospect, horizon □ The Government is opening up a new area for settlement by peasant farmers. □ His stories open up new worlds of the imagination. AH

4366 open up[5] [A1 B1i pass adj] (sport) (of play in a game) become, make, more lively and mobile. S: [A1] O: [B1] play, game, match □ In the second half the game opened up and several attractive passing movements began.

4367 open up[6] [A1] (informal) talk freely and openly □ She hoped that he would open up at once about his visit, but he didn't. PW □ It was only after he had had a few drinks that he could open up.

4368 open up[7] [A1] (military) begin to fire. S: gun, battery, artillery □ His battery of rockets opened up over their heads. BM □ A machine gun opened up from a concealed position.

4369 operate (on) [A2 pass rel] (medicine) perform surgery (upon). S: surgeon; heart specialist, obstetrician. o: patient □ Mr Smith was operated on for a constriction of the intestine. □ 'Has Mr Cutler operated yet? Yes, but not on Mrs Jones.'

4370 opposed to [pass (B2)] (be) against, not support. o: change; plan, scheme; treaty, agreement; his going, my being there □ He is totally opposed to any change in the existing law. □ The Church of England is on record as being opposed to apartheid. SC □ passive with be, seem, remain.

4371 opt in favour of/for [A2 pass] choose, select (from among a number of alternatives). o: fuller participation, better schools, alternative plan □ The Council opted for a by-pass to carry heavy commercial traffic away from the town centre.

4372 opt out/out of [A1 A2 pass adj] refuse to take part, to be concerned, to make decisions etc. o: commitment, responsibility □ To opt out at this critical moment would be quite indefensible. ASA □ He'd simply opted out of every situation of trust he'd been placed in.

4373 order about/around [B1ii pass adj B2 pass] keep telling sb to do this and that in a bossy way □ 'I mean, he's got no right to order me about the place.' TC □ A military mood came over him and he longed to order her about: 'Shun! Stand at ease!' PW

4374 order off (the field) [B1i pass B2 pass] (sport) order to leave the field of play; send off (the field) (q v). S: referee. O: player □ Jones was ordered off in the second half after repeated fouls on the opposing winger.

4375 order out [B1i pass adj] order police or troops to parade (usu to control a demonstration, civil disturbance etc). S: government, council. O: riot police, soldiers □ As a dangerous situation was developing in the city, security forces were ordered out to control it.

4376 order out/out of [B1ii pass B2 pass] order to leave. o: hall, room; presence □ The children were ordered out of the kitchen while their mother was working.

4377 order up [B1i pass] (military) order to move from a position in the rear to the front line. S: general, commander. O: division, brigade; tanks, infantry □ Two battalions were ordered up to strengthen a weak point in the line.

4378 oust (from) [B2 pass] remove abruptly (from), drive out/out of (q v). O: intruder, interloper; ruler, minister. o: seat, place; position, office, power □ Smith was ousted from his Cabinet post as the result of manœuverings on the part of his rivals.

4379 owe to [B2 pass emph rel] give, name, sb or sth as the reason for some achievement; attribute an achievement to sb or sth. O: success, pre-eminence; discovery, invention; it... that we are now happier. o: colleague, friend; hard work, ingenuity □ We owe the increase in exports to the energy of our sales force. □ To what qualities of character do they owe this remarkable recovery?

4380 owe it to [B2] be, feel, obliged to do sth for sb; be bound to do sth, because it is in one's interests to do so. O: it... to set an example, to work hard; to buy insurance, to get a house; to wear a hat, to buy our shoes. o: family, employer; oneself □ I owed it to my parents to come home, for they were getting tired and old. RFW □ You're lucky to be fair — you owe it to yourself to use 'Stablond' shampoo always. H

4381 own up (to) [A1 A3 pass adj] admit or confess that one is to blame. o: being in the wrong, having stolen □ Sometimes the mistakes are much more important than that. What is important is that we own up, and say we are sorry. TT □ All this will have to be owned up to.

P

4382 pace off [B1i pass] measure in paces part of a total distance or length. O: part, half; twenty feet, fifty metres □ *'*Pace off about four feet along the side of the marquee and knock in a peg. Then pace the same distance off again, and so on all the way round.'

4383 pace out [B1i pass] measure the full extent of sth in paces or steps. O: room, field; distance, dimensions □ He paced out the length and width of the room, and decided it would do for his purposes.

4384 pace up and down [A1 emph A2 emph] walk backwards and forwards (esp out of impatience, restlessness etc). S: prisoner; exam candidate, interviewee. o: cell; waiting-room, corridor □ 'Stop pacing up and down like a caged tiger, David. The train will be here in a minute.'

4385 pack away [B1i pass] put sth in a box, cupboard etc, because it is no longer needed, for safe keeping etc; put away[1] (q v). O: toy, book; shirt, dress; machine, rifle □ *'*Pack away your books, children. It's time for break.' □ All the glass and china was carefully packed away in cases and stored in the attic.

4386 pack down [A1] (rugby football) (of opposing packs of forwards) form a scrum □ (TV commentary) 'The referee's bringing the forwards back five yards, and they're packing down just inside the England half.'

4387 pack in[1] [B1i pass] (informal) abandon, renounce; jack in (q v). O: job, work; smoking, gambling; racing, football □ I've packed in this telephone-answering service so anyone can get me personally any time of day or night. JFTR □ Smoking's no good for your health: it's time you packed it in.

4388 pack in[2] [B1i] (informal) leave sb's employment; end a relationship with sb. O: boss, boyfriend □ The girl had only worked for Mr Touchitt for a week when she packed him in. It was the same old story: he couldn't keep his hands to himself.

4389 pack in[3] [B1ii] (informal) draw people in large numbers to a theatre etc. S: comedian, singer. O: △ the crowds; them □ (one performer to another) 'Do you remember the way we used to pack them in at the old Alhambra?'

4390 pack it in [B1ii] (informal) stop doing or saying sth noisy, destructive etc; knock it off (q v), pack it up (q v), turn it in (q v) □ 'You're bringing the house down with your caterwauling; why don't you pack it in?' □ Pack it in old son, Mister what's-his-name'll be here soon to have a look at this chair of his. ITAJ

4391 pack off (to) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] send away, dispatch, briskly or urgently (to). O: refugee, patient. a: quiet spot, safe retreat □ I packed them off with notes to the appropriate hospitals. DIL □ He packed off his wife with Mrs Paine and left a few days later. OBS □ When the children knocked on Mr Ransby's door and asked for a penny, he packed them off with a flea in their ear.

4392 pack out[1] [B1i pass adj] fill or pad (with material, paper etc) to capacity; pad out[1] (q v). O: jacket (e g of a boiler), casing; coat, sleeve □ The men packed out the trousers of their overalls with newspaper to keep out the bitter cold.

4393 pack out[2] [B1i pass adj] fill to capacity. O: concert hall, theatre, stadium □ The Festival Hall was packed out for Menuhin's first concert. □ A great throng packed out the lecture theatre and overflowed into the corridors. □ The company played to packed-out houses for more than a year.

4394 pack up[1] [A1 B1i pass] put one's belongings into cases etc, before leaving home etc. O: books, goods; stall; home □ Several dealers found the business left over inadequate to pay their overheads, and they packed up and left. DS □ He packed up the few possessions he had and moved out.

4395 pack up[2] [A1] (informal) abandon everything one is doing (and not try to start again); give up[12] (q v) □ I shall tell him straight out that if he doesn't take this on, he may as well pack up. ASA □ If you don't know where you're going you might just as well pack up. FFE □ usu with may-/might (just) as well.

4396 pack up[3] [A1] (informal) stop, fail; cut out[5] (q v). S: motor, engine □ Fifty miles out from land our port engine packed up on us.

4397 pack it up [B1ii] (informal) stop an activity (esp one causing an unpleasant noise or disturbance); knock it off (q v), pack it in (q v) turn it it (q v) □ The children were making an awful din and I told them to pack it up.

4398 pad out[1] [B1i pass adj] pack material into part of a garment etc; pack out[1] (q v). O: shoulder, sleeve □ The shoulders of his jacket were padded out to make them look square. □ The bedhead was covered with fabric and the surface then padded out with cotton wool.

4399 pad out[2] [B1i pass adj] make fuller by adding (unnecessary) material. S: novelist, journalist. O: book, paper, report □ The passage was tiresomely padded out with references to the author's fashionable friends.

4400 paint in [B1i pass adj] add or insert in paint. O: detail, figure □ The standing figure to the right was painted in after the rest of the picture was completed. □ They give a form to the world, painting it in excitingly and often amusingly. NDN

4401 paint on/onto [B1i pass adj B2 pass rel] apply to a surface, using paint. O: title, name; moustache, eyebrow; stripe, square □ Windows and doors had been painted onto an end wall of the house. □ Groucho Marx's moustache was painted on.

4402 paint out [B1i pass adj] cover sth by applying paint over the top of it. O: name, detail □ Parts of old paintings which appear unpleasing to later artists are sometimes painted out.

4403 pair off (with) [A1 A3 rel B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] (cause to) form pairs □ [A1] The scouts paired off and began to patrol the area. □ [A3] Angela paired off with Douglas and Jane with Stephen. □ [B3] Each girl in the party was paired off with a boy.

4404 pal up (with) [A1 A3] (informal) become friends; become the friend of □ Two or three of us who'd palled up went off at weekends to the sea. □ In the first form he palled up with a boy from the same village.

4405 pale at [A2 emph rel] become pale or white at, show signs of fear at. a: the (very) thought (of), the mention (of), the sight (of) □ The poor fellow, though no coward, paled at the mention of an injection. □ Meeting his mother-in-law for the first time was a prospect at which he paled.

4406 pall (on/upon) [A2 emph rel] (formal) become dreary or uninteresting because used, spoken etc, too long. S: voice, manner, conversation □ His funny stories begin to pall *(*on his listeners) after the second time of telling. □ His glib manner palls on one within a short time of first meeting him.

4407 palm off (on) [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] (informal) persuade sb to accept sth or sb by underhand means; fob off onto (q v). O: shoddy goods, surplus stock; unwelcome guest. a: unsuspecting public, gullible customer; friend □ Export rejects may be palmed off in the street markets. □ We palmed off the unimportant Carter on somebody else. OMIH □ He's the kind of dealer on whom anything can be palmed off. ⇨ next entry.

4408 palm off (with) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] (informal) persuade sb to accept sth or sb by deceit, misrepresentation etc; quieten or pacify sb with; fob off (with) (q v). O: gullible consumer, customer. a: inferior produce; half-truth □ The salesman tried to palm us off with some shop-soiled sheets. □ We couldn't have our Superstore just yet and we were palmed off with promises. DPM ⇨ previous entry.

4409 pan off/out [B1i pass adj] (mining) wash gold-bearing gravel in a pan, separating off the gravel □ The prospector panned off bits of sand and gravel scooped from the bed of a stream.

4410 pan out[1] [A1] (mining) yield gold. S: area, strike, river □ We had been working the stream for ten days, but it hadn't panned out.

4411 pan out[2] [A1] (informal) develop well/badly; work out[8] (q v). S: events, the future; it, things □ Nobody knows how the economy will pan out over the next few years. □ Don't spend too much time worrying how things are going to pan out.

4412 pander to [A2 pass adj emph rel] feed, promote; cater to (q v). S: newspapers, television, pulp literature. a: taste for violence, interest in crime □ The Sunday press panders to the public interest in the seamy and sensational. □ This is the kind of depraved appetite to which television often panders.

4413 pant for [A2 rel] show by one's rapid breathing that one needs to drink; show strong desire for. a: water; opening, chance, break □ 'Of course I'm thirsty. If you'd spent the day working in the fields you'd be panting for a cool drink!' □ 'Can't you see how desperate she is to get into films? She's just panting for a screen test.'

pant out [B1iii pass] deliver in short quick breaths. S: messenger, envoy. O: statement, message □ The messenger sat down to rest and 4413+1-panted out his sad story.* □ The dying man panted out his last wishes.

4414-paper over[1] [B1iii pass adj] cover over with (wall-)paper. O: door, ceiling; crack, opening □ A number of stains on the wall were papered over.

4415-paper over[2] [B1iii pass adj] cover or hide thinly and imperfectly. S: statement, agreement. O: divisions, differences of viewpoint □ The split had only been papered over by declarations that could hardly be reconciled. OBS □ Some vague formula may be found to paper over the disagreements. SC □ The papered-over cracks in front-bench unity were now beginning to show through.

4416-parcel out [B1i pass adj] divide into small plots. O: estate, land □ Some landowners voluntarily parcelled some of their land out among the local peasants. □ An extensive tract of land was parcelled out into small holdings.

4417-parcel up [B1i pass adj] make a parcel of. O: old clothes, rags, toys □ We parcelled up some games and toys to take to the Children's Home at Christmas. □ She wore so many bulky sweaters and scarves that she always presented a parcelled-up appearance.

4418-pardon (for) [B2 pass emph rel] forgive (for). o: mistake, omission, laziness; being late □ 'Please pardon me for not arriving sooner.' □ There were so many faults he had to be pardoned for.

4419-pare down[1] [B1i pass adj] make smaller by removing thin strips. O: stick, panel, (carved) figure □ The neck of the figure was pared right down with chisel and mallet to make it appear lean and withered. □ The hungry-looking man at the next table pared his chop right down to the bone.

4420-pare down[2] [B1i pass adj] reduce considerably. O: budget, allowance, finances □ The committee have pared his travelling allowance down to the bare minimum. □ Expenditure on new building is pared right down. □ Even with a pared-down budget, we shall have trouble to make both ends meet this year.

4421-pare off [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove in thin strips (usu with a knife). O: skin, peel; bark □ To get at the fruit, you pare off the rather thick peel with a sharp knife. □ Plastic surgeons have perfected the technique of paring strips of skin off one part of the body and grafting them on elsewhere.

4422-parley (with) [A2 pass emph rel] (military) discuss the possibility of a truce, an exchange of prisoners etc (with). o: enemy, opposing forces □ An officer came forward with a white flag to parley (with our general). □ The encircled forces were in no mood to parley or be parleyed with.

4423-part from [B2 pass] (informal) persuade to spend or give away[1] (q v). o: money, cash; pet □ He's not easily parted from his money. □ He's a difficult man to part from his cash. □ Have you tried parting him from his brass (= money)? □ The little boy wouldn't be parted from his pet rabbit. ⇨ next entry.

4424-part with [A2 pass rel] spend, give away[1] (q v); relinquish. o: money, cash; pet; furniture, ornament □ She made them listen and even on occasion part with money for her objects of ch
ASA □ He's not the sort who's happy to with hard-earned cash. □ In order to money Aunt Martha had to part with son her most treasured possessions. ⇨ prev entry.

4425-part company (with) [B2 pass(o) emph leave sb, separate oneself from sb; not hold same beliefs, opinions etc as sb, differ (fr (q v). o: expedition, convoy; employer, f colleague, associate; speaker □ I regret parted company with my fellow-climber* the end of the first stage of the ascent. □ I company with him* (or: *He and I part co pany) over the question of Britain's entry Europe.

4426-partake of[1] [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) sh be partly responsible for, have a hand/par (q v). o: meal, feast; success, triumph, j charge, responsibility □ They invited us to p take of their simple fare.* □ He spoke unc plainingly of the arduous duties of which he partaken.*

4427-partake of[2] [A2] (formal) resemble in part, c tain sth of the nature of. S: conduct, behavio action; appearance, manner. o: arrogance, p sumption, conceit □ I can't help thinking that generosity partakes somewhat of patronage.

4428-participate (in) [A2 emph rel] (formal) involved (in), take part (in) (q v). o: activi demonstration, match; show, display; enterpri undertaking, venture □ The Town Cou decided not to participate in the financing of new swimming pool, but to leave the fund-rais entirely to private enterprise. □ The reorgani
tion of the school system was a complex ope tion, in which officials, teachers and parents participated.*

4429-partition off [B1i pass adj] divide or separate means of a partition. O: room; office, kitche corner, bay □ The main rooms have been par tioned off. □ *A small bathroom has been par
tioned off from the original kitchen.*

4430-partner off (with) [A1 A3 rel B1i pass adj I pass rel] make a pair, a couple; form people in couples; pair off (with) (q v). S: master of cer monies, hostess □ [B1] *Our hostess partner everyone off for the next dance. □ [A3] Most our group had partnered off with somebo before the weekend. □ [B1] When Mavis arriv
*at the party she found nothing but partnered-o couples, and nobody left to take an interest her.

4431-pass along/down [A1] (instruction from bu conductor to passengers) move to the front of th bus, and don't block the entrance; move rig down (q v) □ Now, pass right along insid please.

4432-pass away [B1i pass] occupy time in a pleasan easy way. S: he etc; cards, outdoor sports, con versation. O: △ the time, the evening □ H passed the evening away looking at his colle* tion of stamps. □ *A hand of cards passes evening away pleasantly enough.

4433-pass away/on/over [A1] (euphemism) die
'You'll be sorry to hear that Mr Barker passed over,' she said.* ASA

4434-pass between [A2] be exchanged by. S: ang words, heated arguments; secret, confidence □ never heard a kindly word pass between then

□ They'll never speak together again after what's passed between them. □ 'Remember! No one must ever know what has passed between us.'

4435-pass by[1] [A1 A2] go past. S: pedestrian, vehicle. o: door, house □ The procession passed right by my door. □ Somebody passing by (= A passer-by*) asked me the way to the Town Hall.*

4436-pass by[2] [B1ii pass] not touch or affect, leave alone. S: great event, excitement, disturbance □ She feared commitment, and hoped that the great challenges of life would pass her by (or: by-pass her). □ Life's colourful pageant would best oblige him by continuing to pass him by*.* ILIH

4437-pass by[3] [B1ii pass adj] not consider; avoid (because too difficult). O: area, field; passage, episode; problem, difficulty □ We cannot neglect whole areas of aesthetic appreciation, but we must pass them by in our attempt to isolate one aspect of aesthetics. SNP □ If you try to pass the problems by (or: by-pass them*), they'll remain to dog you.*

4438-pass by[4] [B1ii pass] avoid, shun. S: friend, colleague, girl □ John made quite a noise when one or other of his girl friends by-passed him (or: passed him by). □ He had a feeling that his friends were passing him by*.*

4439-life pass by [B1ii] (informal) (of the various opportunities and pleasures of life) go by without one having gained from them, or enjoyed them □ You seem to be afraid that life might pass you by without giving you time to enjoy it to the full. W1 □ He may have been more pessimistic than unfortunate, but he couldn't help feeling that life had passed him by*.*

4440-pass by on the other side [A3] fail, refuse, to go to the aid of people in need □ People in the poorer countries will die needlessly if the richer countries pass by on the other side*.*

4441-pass by/under the name of [A2] be known by a particular name (though it is not, in fact, one's own); go under[3] (q v) □ At that stage in his criminal career, he passed by the name of Bloggs. □ What name is he passing under at the moment?

4442-pass down[1] [B1i pass adj] transmit, through the generations; hand down[2] (q v). O: tradition (of service, of scholarship), craft; myth, tale, saga; jewelry, silver. A: from father to son, by oral tradition, by word of mouth □ The skill has been passed down over four generations. □ The accumulated knowledge which has been passed down on this subject is well presented in this volume.

pass down[2] [A1] move to the front of the bus. ⇨ pass along/down.

4444-pass for [A2 rel] be accepted as having certain qualities (though one, or it, may not possess them in fact). o: scholar, gentleman, native-speaker; gold, silver □ He looked at the collection of odds and ends that passed for china. TT □ Among the people of that small town he passed for a man of considerable means. □ He was unable to maintain the image of the perfect gentleman for which he had succeeded in passing at first.

4445-pass (the ball) forward [A1 B1ii pass] (rugby football) when throwing the ball to another member of one's team, make it move forward (rather than back, as the rules require). S: scrum half, three-quarter □ If the ball is passed forward (or: If there is a forward pass*) the referee orders a set scrum.*

4446-pass in review [B2 pass] survey, consider one by one. O: events, developments; successes, achievements; setbacks □ In his address to the Board, the Chairman passed in review the principal events of the trading year.

4447-pass into[1] [A2] gain admission to (by passing an examination). o: college, school; military academy □ He passed into Sandhurst by the narrowest possible margin.

4448-pass into[2] [A2] become a part of, because of its importance, notoriety, etc. o: △ history, legend, folklore □ William Howard Russell's words 'the thin red streak', used of the 93rd Regiment at Balaklava, have passed into history as 'the thin red line'.

4449-pass into[3] [A2] move from a conscious state into an unconscious one; fall into[2] (q v). S: patient; injured, wounded man. o: △ a deep sleep; a coma; a trance □ Patients under hypnosis pass into a trance-like state.

4450-pass off[1] [A1] lift, recede, be felt no more. S: pain, irritation; anger, depression □ This bout passes off*.* NM □ Mescalin is completely innocuous, and its effects will pass off after eight or ten hours. DOP

4451-pass off[2] [A1] take place, be carried through. S: meeting, discussion, debate; party, celebration. A: quietly, well; in orderly fashion, without fuss □ 'How did the demonstration pass off*?' 'Without incident.'* □ The Soviet leaders are clearly very anxious that the year should pass off smoothly. OBS □ adv or adv phrase usu present.

4452-pass off[3] [B1i pass] turn attention away from, so as to avoid embarrassment. O: incident, moment; reference, allusion □ Even if someone else raised the subject of the lecture, he would pass it off as easily as he could. ASA pass on [A1] ⇨ pass away/on/over.

4453-pass off (as) [B1ii pass B3 pass] represent sb falsely (as). O: oneself; wife, friend. o: tourist, millionaire, VIP □ He has been passing himself off as a deaf mute. T □ He passed his wife off as an official member of the party.

4455-pass an opinion (on) [B2 pass emph rel] state one's views (on a subject). S: expert, specialist; auctioneer, valuer. o: subject, matter; purchase, requisition □ The research student asked his supervisor to pass an opinion on the material he had collected. □ There are few matters on which our friend will not pass an unsolicited opinion*.*

4456-pass sentence (on) [B2 pass emph rel] (legal) say what a convicted person's punishment is to be. S: court; judge, magistrate. o: accused, defendant □ 'Have you anything further to say before I pass sentence on you?'

4457-pass on (to)[1] [B1i pass adj B3 pass] hand sth to the next person, or another person; get rid of sth, by giving it to another person. O: note, memorandum, file; job, task □ Pass the letter on to whoever's next on the distribution card. □ If you can't do the job yourself, pass it on to someone who can. □ schoolchildren sometimes pass messages in a whisper like this: 'Miss Brown's got a tear in her dress. Pass it on*!'*

4458-pass on (to)[2] [B1i pass adj B3 pass] enable sb (esp the ordinary person) to benefit from a decrease in costs etc; oblige him to pay, or share, an increase. O: saving, economy; increase (in price, cost); tax. o general public; consumer; taxpayer ☐ There would be a saving to the airlines of about £70 million a year, some of which could be passed on to the public in lower fares. OBS ☐ The retailer can absorb some of the increase in costs, but he is certain to pass on a percentage to the customer.

4459- pass on (to)[3] [A1 A3 pass] move from one activity, or stage, to another; get on to[4] (q v). o (another) point, matter; post, stage (in a career); object, point of interest ☐ 'If there's no further discussion, perhaps we can pass on*.'* ☐ He had found time to pass on to her later. TGLY ☐ It seemed the most natural thing in the world for her to pass on to television from the theatre.

4460- pass out[1] [B1i pass] distribute (generously, as a gift). O: drink, cigarette; ticket (for a show, or football match); sample (of merchandise) ☐ He's a generous spender: when he wins money at the races, he starts passing out the beer and cigarettes. ☐ The exhibitors at the trade fair pass out free samples to stimulate interest.

4461- pass out[2] [A1 B1i pass] (military) successfully complete a course of training at a military academy etc; post to a unit after such completion; appear in the ceremonial parade to mark the completion of the course. S: [A1] O: [B1] cadet, recruit, trainee ☐ A number of selected cadets of my batch were to be passed out in December, 1907. MFM ☐ I decided to get back to England in time to take the Passing Out Parade myself, so that I could fasten the Belt of Honour on my son. MFM ☐ nom form, used attrib with parade, ceremony, is passing(-)out.

4462- pass out[3] [A1] (informal) faint, lose consciousness ☐ 'My, fancy that being a real burglar last night. I'd have passed out if I'd known.' DC ☐ 'I'd only have to point a gun at him and say bang, bang, and the little twerp would pass out cold from fright.' AITC ⇨ be out[9].

4463- pass over[1] [B1i pass adj] omit, fail to include; fail to notice. O: fact, detail, particular ☐ If there's something here I must see, then rest assured I shan't pass it over*.* ☐ I would ask every person who came along to tell me where Chesterfield Mews was. I wouldn't pass over anyone. CON

4464- pass over[2] [B1iii pass] avoid, not face, sth (because it is painful or embarrassing). O: feeling; disturbance, conflict; subject, topic ☐ Emotion was something to be covered up, or passed over with a few short words. PW ☐ You can't pass over these painful sources of conflict, and hope they'll disappear. ☐ Sex is something that the Victorians preferred to pass over — in public at least.

4465- pass over[3] [B1ii pass adj] not consider for promotion (sb who is, or might suppose himself to be, eligible) ☐ When the senior appointments were made, Jones was passed over in favour of a younger man. ☐ Bill is going around with that gloomy look of the passed-over executive.

4466- pass over[4] [B1i pass adj] fail to grasp, let slip; pass up[2] (q v). O: chance, opportunity, opening ☐ The halt gave an opportunity for further speech which Patrick, being Patrick, felt he could not afford to pass over*.* TGLY

4467- pass over[5] [A2 pass adj] review, scan; run through[3] (q v). o paragraph, section, sentence; (sequence of) events, happenings ☐ I will pass briefly over the events of last evening to refres[h] your memories. ☐ The Chairman passed quickl[y] over the first few items to leave more time for th[e] main business of the meeting.

pass over[6] [A1] (euphemism) die. ⇨ pas[s] away/on/over.

4469- pass one's eye over [B2 rel] scan, survey briefly; look through[2] (q v). o letter, form essay, exercise ☐ I can't say I've examined th[e] document closely; I just had time to pass m[y] eye over it.

4470- pass the hat round [B1i pass] (informal) collect money (usu for a workmate who is sick, retiring etc); take the hat round (q v) ☐ Whe[n] George died, they passed the hat round to pa[y] for the wreath.

4471- pass through[1] [A1 A2 pass] go through a tow[n] etc, perhaps making a brief halt, but not staying [...] 'Why don't you stay the night?' 'No, thank you we're just passing through*.'*

4472- pass through[2] [A2] undergo, and complete, [a] course of training at. o officer cadet school, staf[f] college; medical school; university ☐ His brothe[r] had passed through police college to qualif[y] for promotion to Inspector.

4473- pass through[3] [A2 pass rel] experience, suffer. o (difficult, testing) period, time; adverse circumstances ☐ John passed through a difficul[t] period shortly after his marriage broke down, bu[t] after a year or so his health and spirits picked up. ☐ The astronauts passed through an anxiou[s] hour when the onboard computer started to malfunction.

pass under the name of [A2] ⇨ pass by/under the name of.

4475- pass up[1] [B1i pass] hand to sb positioned above oneself. O: hammer, nails, ladder, bucket ☐ *'*Pass up the paint pot and brush, and I'll pu[t] another coat on the ceiling.' ☐ The top section o[f] the derrick had to be passed up*, piece by piece.*

4476- pass up[2] [B1i pass adj] (informal) fail to grasp, allow to slip by; pass over[4] (q v). O: chance, opportunity, occasion; deal, contract, sale ☐ It doesn't do to be too modest. You can pass a lot of business up that way. ASA ☐ You can't afford to pass up too many openings like that. ☐ If all his passed-up chances were placed end to end they'd stretch to the moon.

4477- paste up[1] [B1i pass] attach to a surface (usu at or above eye-level) with paste. O: poster, notice; wallpaper ☐ There were posters advertising the bullfight pasted up all over town.

4478- paste up[2] [B1i nom pass] (publishing) arrange typeset matter, and possibly illustrations, by pasting them onto pages for photographic reproduction and printing (e g by offset) or as a rough guide for the printer to arrange the pages himself; paste already printed pages onto larger sheets to enable an author or editor to insert corrections etc (e g for a new edition) ☐ 'Has the Art Department pasted up the captions to the illustrations yet? I want them to go to the printer tomorrow.' ☐ The underground press produces its magazines by the cheapest method possible — typing the text on ordinary typewriters, using photographs from many printed sources and pasting the lot up together to make camera-ready copy for cheap offset litho printing. ☐ The publisher agreed to provide the author with a paste-up of the pages of the dictionary that he wanted to make correc- tions to.

4479 pat down [B1i pass] flatten, settle, or replace with a pat. O: hair; turf, wicket □ She patted down one or two unruly wisps of hair. □ The batsman walked out to pat down some bumps in the pitch.

4480 patch up[1] [B1i pass adj] repair roughly or temporarily. O: wall; floor; car, plane □ He was little use at emergency patching up of electrical equipment. HD □ A few squares of glass had been patched up with treacle-brown paper. BFA □ I do not want to be saved, but the damned doctors might patch me (i e my body) up. ARG

4481 patch up[2] [B1i pass adj] settle, resolve. O: quarrel, argument, difference □ The matter was patched up without resort to the police. ARG □ We managed to patch up the dispute before any heads were broken.

4482 patter about/around/round [A1 A2] move about etc with quick, light, tapping footsteps. S: mouse, rat, kitten; child □ We could hear mice pattering about in the attic above our heads. □ 'Sarah, is that you pattering around downstairs?'

4483 pave (with) [B2 pass emph rel] cover a road etc with paving-stones. O: road, drive, path. o: flag, cobble □ The road was paved with cobblestones. □ The road to Hell is paved with good intentions. □ the second example is a proverb: cf 'The road to Fleet Street,' (i e success in journalism) said Charles with mock solemnity, 'is paved with disappointments.' HD

4484 paw about/around [B1ii pass] (informal) handle sth or sb in a clumsy, insensitive way. O: fruit, vegetables; girl □ 'I don't want to buy tomatoes that have already been pawed around by other customers!' □ Helen had firm views on how her young men should behave. Decisive kissing was one thing; irresolute pawing about was quite another.

4485 pay back (for) [B1i pass B3 pass] punish sb in return for some injury one has suffered; pay out (for) (q v). o: neglect, humiliation, hurt □ You may think you can get away with neglecting your responsibilities, but events will pay you back. HD □ She paid him back for his casual infidelities. □ 'I shouldn't try anything on with him, if I were you. He would pay you back with interest.'

4486 pay back (to) [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] repay, return, money (to). O: loan, what is owing. o: relative, bank □ 'I'll have some luck and pay you back,' he promised. DC □ It's high time he paid me back the £100 he owes me. □ The sum was paid back to the bank with interest. □ note the position of the Indirect Object in the first two examples.

4487 pay (for) [A2 pass adj rel B2 pass rel] give money in exchange (for) □ Before he pays he likes to know what he's paying for. □ 'I paid good money for that bicycle: now take care of it.' □ 'Have those articles been paid for, Madam?' □ 'How much did you pay him for the watch?'

4488 pay for [A2] suffer for, be punished for. o: blunder, omission, failure. A: △ dearly, heavily □ Sometimes you have had to pay dearly for mistakes. WI □ If we fail to act now, we shall find ourselves paying for inaction later on.

4489 pay in/into [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] hand money to a cashier for lodging in an account. O: cash, banknote, cheque. o: current account, savings account; bank, post office, building society □ His monthly salary is paid into the bank by his employers. □ When you deposit money with the bank, you enter the amount on a paying-in slip. □ nom form, used attrib with slip, form, is paying-in.

4490 pay off[1] [B1i pass adj] pay in full and discharge from service. O: worker; gang; crew □ The crew of the merchant ship were paid off at the end of the trip and a fresh one engaged. □ It's all most regrettable but it looks as though I'm compelled to pay you off for your caretaking work. TC

4491 pay off[2] [B1i pass adj] settle, clear, by matching what one owes with the same amount. O: debt, overdraft (at a bank) □ You'll have to pay off your old loan before being allowed a new one. □ All his outstanding debts have been paid off.

4492 pay off[3] [B1i nom pass] (slang) give money to sb to prevent him from carrying out a threat. O: protection gang, blackmailer □ Publicans are known to have paid off one gang of terrorists to stop their pubs being blown up by another. □ A girl was sent out to collect the pay-off — a parcel of notes thrown onto the pavement from a passing car.

4493 pay off[4] [A1 nom] (informal) succeed, work. S: scheme, idea, device □ Occasionally the checking pays off and there is the excitement of a chase or an arrest. T □ Sinatra fought like a tiger for the part of Maggio in the film — a gamble which paid off with an Oscar. H □ He worked like a slave for years; but the pay-off came when he was offered a partnership in the firm.

4494 pay out[1] [B1i pass adj] pass, release, through the hands. O: rope, cord, cable □ He placed the gelignite carefully on the seat and paid out the wire. TO □ Knotting the rope round a projecting stone cornice, he paid it out into the darkness. ARG

4495 pay out[2] [A1 B1i pass adj] hand accumulated payments to a member of a savings club etc. S: club, association; treasurer □ You can save up for toys by paying into a Christmas Club over the year; the club pays out in December. □ We can't pay out more than we receive.

4496 pay out[3] [A1 B1i pass adj] (informal) hand money to sb for his use, in exchange for sth (the suggestion is that one is made to pay too much and too often) □ An awful lot of money gets paid out to these people. DBM □ Mr Charlton had already paid out millions to this swindle in weekly contributions. DBM □ He's tired of paying out on school fees and uniforms.

4497 pay out (for) [B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) punish sb in return for some injury one has suffered; pay back (for) (q v). o: thoughtlessness, unkindness □ Someone will try to pay you out if you trample too much on the feelings of others. □ He felt that he had been more than paid out for a few indiscretions.

4498 pay attention (to) [B2 pass emph rel] look (at); listen (to); consider, attend (to) (q v). S: host; audience; fashion model, actress; manager, student. adj: some, no; little, scant; close, careful. o: stranger, guest; remark, speech; appearance, dress; event, development □ 'Please pay no attention to her, my lady,' Briggs interrupted, obviously distressed. EM □ A creative moment had arrived and he paid no attention to the world beyond it. OMIH □ *Close attention is being paid to present movements in the money market.

4499 pay court (to) [B2 pass emph rel] treat sb with the respect, admiration etc, usu shown to a prince. o: minister, tycoon; actor, artist □ He represented the power of money as Jack did: he was another king. As I watched them all paying court to him, I wondered how on earth he came to marry Alice. RATT

4500 pay heed (to) [B2 pass emph rel] heed, attend to, sth which it is important not to ignore. adj: no; little, small; careful, great. o: warning; portent, sign; safety, well-being □ It is all to the good that the Conservative Party is to pay greater heed to the voice of youth. SC □ Auchinleck appeared to be paying little heed to the welfare of the British soldiers in India. MFM

4501 pay lip service to [B2 pass emph rel] declare that one regards sth as important while not treating it as important in fact. o: need (for); desirability, usefulness (of); idea, notion (of); expansion, development; friendship, brotherhood □ Trades unionists pay only lip service to the need for research. SC □ The authorities must cease to pay lip service to Allied co-operation and must instead embark on a policy of unselfish solidarity. MFM

4502 pay tribute to [B2 pass emph rel] express one's admiration for sb, one's recognition of his qualities etc. S: employer, commander; successor, opponent. adj: his etc, this; generous, handsome, warm. o: staff; ally, partner; wisdom, vision □ I want to take this opportunity to pay a public tribute to him. MFM □ Mr Macleod has paid tribute to Dr Banda's desire that the tension should be lowered. SC □ Among the many tributes paid to the outgoing President was a simple message from his personal chauffeur.

4503 pay up [A1] (informal) hand money to sb (usu one is under some obligation or pressure to pay) □ I must pay up*, and without argument or comment.* UTN □ My goods have vanished and the insurance company will have to pay up*.* DC □ You might as well smile and pay up*.*

4504 peal out [A1] (of bells) resound one after the other; have the resonant sound of bells. S: bells; voice, laughter □ The church bells pealed out to mark the final expulsion of Axis forces from Egypt. □ Miss Maxwell's voice pealed out over the cocktail party chatter.

4505 peck at [A2 pass adj] take small mouthfuls of; eat only part of (from lack of appetite); pick at[1] (q v). o: food; breakfast, dinner □ She pecked daintily at a salad. □ He pecked listlessly at his breakfast of egg and bacon.

4506 peek (at) [A2 pass adj rel] look quickly (at), peep (at)[1] (q v) □ Halfway through the sitting she asked if she could peek at the portrait he was doing of her. □ We didn't see much, because we only had a chance to peek at what was happening).

4507 peel off[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] remove the peel of a fruit; remove the outer coverings of sth, clothing etc. O: skin; (wrapping-)paper; jacket, pullover □ 'I don't need a knife, I can peel the skin off with my fingers.' □ 'It's hot in here: I think I'll peel off (my jacket).'

4508 peel off[2] [A1 nom] (aviation) move independently out of formation (e g when attacking enemy aircraft). S: fighter, interceptor (aircraft) □ As soon as an enemy bomber formation was sighted, the squadron leader gave the order to peel off*.*

4509 peep (at)[1] [A2 pass adj rel] look quickly (at), peek (at) (q v) □ She peeped quickly at the sleeping child.

4510 peep (at)[2] [A2 pass adj] look slyly and inquisitively (at). o: neighbour, lover □ Strangers to the area had the feeling that they were being peeped at from behind lace curtains. □ I wish she'd stop peeping (at me).

4511 peep out [A1] come partly and suddenly into view. S: ⚠ the stars, moon, sun □ The sun peeped out through a gap in the clouds.

4512 peer (at) [A2 pass adj] look closely (at), as if unable to see well or recognize, or out of curiosity □ She peered at him closely, as if not believing it could really be he. □ They were used to being peered at on arriving in a strange town.

4513 peg away (at) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) work or struggle persistently (at); plug away (at) (q v). o: writing, research; training, exercise □ Between fights the boxer pegged away at roadwork and exercises in the gym. □ 'You're bound to find the answer in the end: just keep pegging away*.'*

4514 peg down [B1i pass adj] fasten in position on the ground with pegs. O: flap, fly-sheet; tent □ In the rain and wind it was hard to peg down the walls of the tent. □ A plastic sheet was pegged down over the compost heap to hasten decomposition.

4515 peg (down) (at) [B1i pass B2 pass B3 pass] hold, fix, prices etc at a relatively low level. S: government; dealer, supplier; industry. O: price, cost; wage, salary. o: level; percentage □ The Government agreed to peg down the retail price of certain basic foodstuffs. □ As an anti-inflationary measure, permitted wage increases would be pegged at 6 per cent above the 1972 level.

4516 peg down (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) make sb follow, or commit himself to, a particular course of action. o: definite undertaking; deadline; exact figure, clear estimate □ It's proving very difficult to peg him down to a definite date for completion. □ When it's a matter of getting a clear promise, he's hard to peg down*.*

4517 peg out [A1] (informal) faint or collapse from exhaustion; die □ Several of the runners pegged out at the end of the course. □ At this height, a climber can peg out from lack of oxygen.

4518 peg out a claim [B1iii pass] mark with pegs the boundaries of a piece of land of which one claims ownership □ The settlers pegged out claims in the new lands they were opening up to the West. □ We must gain space rapidly and peg out claims (i e seize territory) well inland. MFM

4519 pelt (with) [B2 pass rel] throw (objects etc) at sb in a continuous shower. o: bricks, stones, mud; eggs, tomatoes; questions □ The crowd lost patience with the speaker and started to pelt him with rotten eggs. □ The prisoner in the stocks was pelted with anything they could lay their hands on. □ Reporters surrounded the Minister and pelted him with questions on the progress of the talks but he refused to comment.

4520 pen in [B1i pass adj] confine, enclose in a pen; restrict the movements or freedom of. O: sheep, goats, cattle; child, employee □ The flocks were penned in for the night as a protection against marauding wolves. □ She feels penned in by her life. She can never get away from the kitchen stove or the children.

4521 pension off [B1i pass adj] discharge sb from service (esp at the end of his career and with a pension); discontinue using sth because it is old and worn. S: government; company; army. O: civil servant; employee; officer; machine, weapon □ 'I know Pollard is past his best, and he'll certainly never be promoted, but it's a bit soon to pension him off.' □ A number of pensioned-off teachers were brought back into the schools to fill the places of younger men called up for military service. □ Half the destroyers in the fleet were ready to be pensioned off. They were kept on because nothing new was coming from the shipyards.

4522 pent up [pass adj (B1)] (be) restrained, repressed. S: emotion; resentment, frustration; energy □ Her impulses were carefully controlled, her feelings closely pent up. □ 'Were you blazing with pent-up desire like people in books?' RATT

4523 people with [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) fill with people etc. S: migration; author; travel, time. O: area, region; tale, narrative; mind, imagination. o: fisherman, trader; character; fancies □ The westward expansion of the nineteenth century had peopled the Middle West with farming communities. □ His dreams were peopled with strange, terrifying fantasies.

4524 pep up [B1i pass adj] (informal) make more interesting, lively or powerful. O: food, drink; conversation, entertainment; proceedings □ Seems they're pickled gherkins — just what they want to pep up their diet with. BFA □ I would consider drastically curtailing the number of (radio) series and taking steps to pep up those that were left. L

4525 pepper with [B2 pass rel] (informal) strike sb with a stinging shower of. o: shot, stones; questions, insults □ The dog went off to fetch in the dead rabbit. It was peppered with shot all down one side.

4526 perch (on) [A2 emph rel] alight or rest (on). S: bird; parrot, sparrow; child. o: bar, branch, gate □ The pigeons are quite tame. If you stand perfectly still they'll perch on your shoulder.

4527 perk up [A1 B1i pass adj] (informal) (cause to) become more lively and interested. S: [B1] news, change, event □ She was very huffy, so I suggested she could use some of the money. She perked up at that. JFTR □ I felt liberated. And so life had perked up again. SML □ 'I need a stiff drink to perk me up!'

4528 permit of [A2] (formal) allow, leave, room for. S: situation, circumstances; moment, time. o: delay, hesitation; compromise, makeshift □ The times we are living through do not permit of weakness or indecision. □ usu neg.

4529 persist (in) [A2 pass adj] (formal) continue stubbornly to do sth, or to follow a course of action. o: interrupting, behaving unpleasantly; habit, conduct, line of action □ 'If you persist in heckling every time that someone tries to speak, I shall have you removed.' □ This line of conduct, if persisted in, could only get him deeper into debt.

4530 persuade (of) [B2 pass] convince sb that sth is the case. o: sincerity, truth; practicality, futility □ He managed to persuade us of the workability of the scheme; now we had to persuade the boss. □ You don't have to persuade me of the likelihood of an outbreak (or: that an outbreak is likely).

4531 pertain to [A2] (formal) belong to; form a proper or appropriate part of. S: farm, land; wildness, enthusiasm, freedom. o: manor, mansion; age, time, season □ Individual farmers must respect grazing rights pertaining to the community. □ The fire and dash pertaining to youth are not much in evidence among these people.

4532 pester the life out of [B2 pass] (informal) bother, trouble, sb unbearably (esp to obtain some gift or service from him). S: child, pupil; salesman, newspaperman □ Players leaving the stadium had the life pestered out of them by small boys looking for autographs. □ Never again would a journalist pester the life out of the mother of a week-dead son. PP □ note the passive with have.

4533 peter out [A1] dwindle to nothing, gradually lose its force or momentum. S: stream, path; talk, chat, story; attack, offensive □ The boom of the 1920s petered out at about the same time. OBS □ My search for Janet Prentice seemed to have petered out. RFW □ The Victorian age seemed to be petering out at about the end of 1918. AH

4534 petition (for) [A2 pass emph rel B2 pass emph rel] appeal (for) by submitting a written document signed by many people. O: MP, Parliament. o: release of detainees, change in the law, pensions for the disabled □ Several organizations petitioned the Government for the release of the political prisoners. □ They petitioned for an early end to the fighting.

4535 phase out [B1i pass adj] gradually stop making or supplying sth. O: manufacture, provision (of); (model of a) car, aircraft; organization, set-up □ The anti-tank company was armed mainly with the 75 mm, although production of this gun was being phased out in 1942. B □ There are proposals to phase out the hitherto separate Department of Economic Geography.

4536 phone in [B1i nom pass adj] address, submit, by telephone, esp to a radio or TV programme. O: question, inquiry, problem; news item, story, report □ Listeners are invited to phone in their questions to the Shadow Foreign Secretary from six o'clock this evening. □ The new phone-in formula for Radio 3's request programme 'Your Concert Choice' has been widely criticized. □ nom form used attrib.

4537 pick at¹ [A2 pass adj] take small, or a few, mouthfuls of sth (either from fastidiousness or lack of appetite); peck at (q v). o: lunch, supper; meat, pudding □ 'Did she finish her rice pudding?' 'No, she just picked at it.' □ She picked at the shellfish for a few moments, then pushed the plate away.

4538 pick at² [A2 pass adj] criticize, find fault with; nag (at) (q v). o: wife, child, employee □ 'Leave the child alone: you're always picking at her!' □ She'd been picked at so often by parents and teachers that she didn't know how to behave.

4539 pick holes in [B2 pass] (informal) criticize, comment adversely on. o: scheme, plan; speech, report; book, film □ It's easy for an outsider to pick holes in our programme. What you don't understand is the technical difficulties we face. □ Holes can be picked in any scales of pay. TES

4540-pick off [B1i pass adj] shoot (persons or animals) one by one with deliberate aim. S: sniper, marksman. O: officer, specialist □ They had probably been picked off by American snipers at the head of our advance. SD □ They pick off the officers first, so as to throw the attack into confusion.

4541-pick on [A2 pass adj] (informal) choose (repeatedly) for criticism, blame, punishment, or an unpleasant task. A: always, forever. o: smaller brother, weaker person □ He ignored his wife's plea to stop picking on his daughter and lifted his hand to settle her with a blow. LLDR □ He's constantly being picked on to do the dirty jobs. □ 'Why pick on me every time?'

4542-pick out[1] [B1i pass] choose from a number of similar objects. O: (largest, least expensive) fruit, vegetables; dress, suit □ Cyril had a lot of azaleas in pots. I picked out a big red one just coming into bloom. RFW

4543-pick out[2] [B1i pass] separate, distinguish, from surrounding persons or objects □ I tried to pick out her face in the crowd pressing through the door. □ His house is easily picked out from the rest: it has a large blue door.

4544-pick out[3] [B1i pass] (of a person who plays by ear) find the notes of a tune by trial and error. A: on the piano, on the guitar □ He tried to pick out the tune of a song he had heard on the radio.

4545-pick out[4] [B1i pass adj] relieve, complement the main colour (e g of a room) with touches of another colour □ The colour scheme was brown, with the mouldings picked out in orange.

4546-pick over [B1i pass adj] lift and turn over so as to examine and make a choice from. O: fruit, vegetables; clothing □ The housewives pick the fruit over carefully before making their minds up which to buy. □ You won't find any good tomatoes in that basket; they've been well picked over.

4547-pick up[1] [B1i pass] take hold of and raise □ She picked up the half-finished letter and put it on the mantelpiece. DC □ 'You dropped the plate on the floor; now you can pick it up.'

4548-pick up[2] [B1i pass adj] collect; take on board. O: groceries, newspaper; load, cargo □ 'Don't forget to pick up the ice-cream on the way home.' □ We picked up a consignment of cigarettes at the warehouse.

4549-pick up[3] [B1iii nom pass] (informal) collect as wages, earn □ There are men in that factory picking up sixty pounds a week. □ 'He earns good money, he does. He picks up a packet.' PW □ 'A ten-pound Christmas bonus for pensioners. Now that's not a bad pick-up.'

4550-pick up[4] [B1i pass] collect; take on board; stop to give a lift to. O: passenger, crew member; hitchhiker □ You can walk or ride the mile or two to the crossroads where the school bus will pick you up. WI □ The giant tankers have to start slowing down some 15 miles before they reach a rendezvous point to pick up a pilot. OBS □ He picked up two students outside Doncaster and dropped them off in Central London.

4551-pick up[5] [B1i pass adj] rescue from the sea. S: lifeboat, helicopter. O: shipwrecked sailor, aircrew; survivor □ Air-Sea Rescue picked up the downed airman after receiving an SOS message. □ Survivors of the air disaster were picked up [by] small boats.

4552-pick up[6] [B1i nom pass] (informal) make s[…] acquaintance, usu with a view to having sex[…] relations □ He went home with a girl he'd pick[ed] up at the party. □ He made a smooth pick-up ([…] conquest). □ 'I'd be grateful if you'd keep yo[…] street pick-ups (i e the girls you pick up on t[…] street) out of my wife's house,' he said in [a] whisper of rage. ASA

4553-pick up[7] [B1i nom pass] find, and arrest […] return to custody. S: police, prison authoritie[…] O: suspect, escaped prisoner □ He was implicat[ed] in a murder, and sooner or later they would pi[ck] him up. HD □ The prisoners missing from t[…] working party were picked up within forty-eig[ht] hours. □ They complain that the pick-up opera[…]tion netted only small fry (= rank-and-file te[r]rorists). BBCTV

4554-pick up[8] [B1i pass] receive, intercept. S: rada[r] radio receiver. O: signal, message; plane, ship […] 'Point all our aerials upwards. Then we'll pic[k] up reflections of our own transmissions.' TBC […] It should have been possible to pick up signal[s] telling us more about the moon itself. NS

4555-pick up[9] [B1i pass] hear, gather. O: story[,] rumour, (scrap of) information □ He'd picke[d] up some tale that we were to have a cut in wages □ She's always on the prowl, picking up scrap[s] of gossip. □ 'I hear that Buckingham Palace is t[o] be turned into a museum.' 'Where did you pic[k] that up?'

4556-pick up[10] [B1i pass] acquire a knowledge of or skill in (usu casually, without special study). O: some knowledge of politics, the law; painting, carpentry; (a smattering of) a language □ I picked up scraps of knowledge from a variety of sources. SD □ Branson seems to have picked up his philosophy of food during his career with the Indian Civil Service. OBS □ She isn't very quick at picking up the language. PW

4584-pick up[11] [B1i pass] acquire, buy (usu as a bargain). O: bargain, snip; antique, objet d'art, furniture □ There are still some charming things to be picked up in Bruges itself, for a mere song (i e for very little money). US □ Bric-a-brac 4557-picked up on his many journeys to the continent filled the room.

4558-pick up[12] [A1] improve; recover. S: patient, sick person; health, condition □ You'll soon pick up after a day or two in bed. □ His health and spirits picked up after a week at the seaside. □ Another draught of alcohol injected fire into his body. 'My God, this is a perfect pick-me-up,' Pop said (i e a perfect way to make him pick up). BFA □ note unusual nom form.

4559-pick up[13] [A1] improve; recover. S: sales, exports; the market; sterling □ The shares picked up after an early spate of panic selling. □ Consumption of wines and spirits picked up again before the New Year.

4560-pick up[14] [A1] start to function again. S: motor, engine □ The port engine spluttered and seemed about to cut out; then it picked up again.

4561-pick up[15] [B1i pass] continue telling a story etc after an interruption (e g at the end of one episode in a series); take up[7] (q v); manage to continue following a story etc after an interruption. O: story, tale; (thread of the) argument □ We pick up the story again at the point where John has lost his job at the newspaper office. □ Because of the disturbance outside the window I lost the thread of the discussion and had some difficulty in picking it up again.

pick-me-up [nom (B1)] ⇨ pick up[1,2].

4563-pick oneself up [B1ii] raise oneself after a fall □ He was knocked down in the scramble, but he quickly picked himself up and dusted himself down.

4564-pick up speed [B1iii] accelerate, gather speed. S: train, ship □ The train moved slowly from the station, but picked up speed as it reached the open country.

4565-pick up the threads [B1iii] (informal) readjust to a job, a mode of life, a relationship, after a period of absence, separation □ 'You must realize that I've been away from the job for five years. It'll take me a little time to pick up the threads again.' □ With some lingering mistrust on both sides Bill and Jane set about picking up the threads of their marriage again.

4566-pick-up (truck) [nom (B1)] small commercial vehicle with, at the back, an open top and low sides and tail-board □ Plumbers, electricians and jobbing builders often use pick-up trucks to transport their tools and materials. □ A young man in a top hat plays jazz on a piano wedged into the back of a parked pick-up truck. OBS ⇨ pick up[2].

4567-pick up with [A3 pass] (informal) meet, make the acquaintance of. o: curious fellow, odd creature, shady character □ He's liable to bring home any odd character that he picks up with in a pub.

4568-pick (with) [B2 pass] seek, look for, a reason or excuse for quarrelling or fighting (with sb). O: ⚠ a quarrel, an argument; a fight □ 'We've got our chance at last. Why do you have to spoil it by picking quarrels with me about nothing?' AITC □ 'Peter's going through a tiresome stage. Always picking fights with his brother for no reason at all.'

4569-picture to oneself [B2] imagine sth, summon a picture of it into the mind. O: effect, result; scene; devastation, congestion □ Readers can picture to themselves the utter confusion that would result if the procession were routed through these narrow streets.

4570-piece out [B1i pass adj] complete, by adding pieces or parts. O: story, account; picture, design □ You must piece out the full story from your own imaginations.

4571-piece together [B1i pass adj] assemble, fit together; form (a whole) by fitting (parts) together. O: patches, scraps (of material); rug, blankets; facts, evidence □ Bits of wood and metal were pieced together to form a roof. □ She pieced together a blanket from odds and ends of wool. □ A defence had somehow to be pieced together from a few fragments of evidence.

4572-pile in/into[1] [A1 A2 B1i pass B2 pass] (cause a group etc to) press into a space too small to take the group in comfort. o: car, boat, flat □ [A2] All five of us piled into Peter's car and headed back to the flat. □ [A1] *'Pile in! There's room for a few more on the floor.' □ [B1] We piled all the luggage in and drove off.

4573-pile in/into[2] [A1 A2 pass] (informal) attack sb violently; attack food with appetite; pitch in/into (q v). o: enemy, opponent; feast, meal □ John piled into the man opposite, almost knocking him down at the first assault. □ 'The food's ready. Pile in!'*

4574-pile on the agony [B1iii] (informal) make the description of an event more painful than it need be □ She will pile on the agony when she describes her visits to the dentist: she makes a filling sound like a major operation.

4575-pile it on [B1ii] (informal) exaggerate, make sth seem more important or dramatic than it is □ John does pile it on: anyone would think that he's the only one with domestic problems.* □ 'Stop piling it on: it's not half as bad as you make it appear.'*

4576-pile the pressure on [B1i pass] cause sb to work or struggle harder by giving him more tasks etc. S: employer, teacher; opposing team □ The tutors piled on the pressure from the very beginning of the course. □ The French forwards really piled the pressure on in the second half of the match.

4577-pile on runs [B1iii pass] (cricket) add quickly to one's total of runs. S: batsman, (batting) side □ There was no fall in the scoring rate when the new ball was taken: Sobers and Kanhai continued to pile on runs.

4578-pile on/onto [B1i pass B2 pass] place sth in heaps upon sb or sth; burden sb with an undue amount of sth. O: coal, wood; work, responsibilities. o: fire, stove; staff, subordinate □ Wood was piled onto the bonfire until the flames roared (cf The bonfire was piled with wood). □ Why is it that all the extra work gets piled onto me at Christmas time?

4579-pile out/out of [A1 A2] emerge in a mass or crowd, usu from a confined space. o: room, car, aeroplane □ We piled out of the back of the car and stretched our cramped limbs.

4580-pile up[1] [A1 nom] accumulate, usu because of a stoppage of work. S: goods, exports, mail. A: at the docks, in warehouses □ Perishable goods are piling up at the docks because of the strike of tally-clerks. □ Posting at peak times often leads to a pile-up of mail at the Post Office.

4581-pile up[2] [A1 nom] (of cars travelling close behind each other) crash into each other. S: car, lorry □ Several cars piled up after ignoring the fog warning on the motorway. □ There was a pile-up involving a van and several private cars.

pile with [B2 pass] ⇨ pile on/onto.

4583-pilot through [B1ii pass B2 pass] cause to pass through various legislative etc stages; put through[2] (q v). S: minister, back-bencher; councillor. O: Act, measure; scheme, project. o: second reading, committee stage □ Mr Ashley has successfully piloted his private member's Bill through its various stages.

4584-pin against [B2 pass rel] trap sb between oneself and a tree etc, and prevent him from moving away. o: tree, wall, door □ He was pinned against the fence by a boy twice his size; he could hardly breathe. □ A stout customer pinned the hapless assistant against the counter, and demanded to see the manager.

4585-pin down[1] [B1i pass] trap; prevent sb from moving from cover or showing himself. S: beam, tree, girder; rubble, masonry; machine-gun fire, shelling □ They seemed to have pinned his legs down under a heavy weight. HD □ Troops were pinned down in their trenches by accurate mortar fire.

4586-pin down² [B1i pass adj] define exactly. O: essence, character, tone □ And — this is the part I can't pin down in words — he had conveyed, to the right onlooker, that he knew what he was doing. CON □ It was difficult to pin down exactly what it was in her that pleased him so much. □ often neg.

4587-pin down³ [B1ii pass] persuade sb to define his position, state his intentions. O: official, politician; expert, pundit □ He's a very difficult man to pin down: he seems to enjoy being all things to all men. □ Have you tried pinning him down on the question of capital punishment?

4588-pin one's faith on/to [B2 pass emph rel] trust or depend on sb or sth to help one. o: religion, socialism; leadership, political movement □ Some pinned their faith on the emergence of a new national leader, others on a religious revival. □ 'But we objectors over here in this corner are pinning our faith to Yvette's question. It seems to me a very good one.' TBC

4589-pin up [B1i nom pass adj] attach to a surface with pins. O: drawing, photograph, map; hanging, curtain □ Pictures of pop-stars were pinned up over Katherine's bed. □ Sarah's favourite pin-ups were the cowboy heroes of television Westerns. □ nom form used esp of pictures of attractive girls (or men) which are pinned up; also of the persons represented in the pictures.

4590-pine away [A1] grow pale and thin through sorrow or illness □ Mary has pined away dreadfully since her young man broke things off.

4591-pine (for) [A2 pass adj emph rel] desire strongly to return to or recover. o: former times, the good old days, lost freedom; peace, seclusion □ Working-class people do not much pine for their lost freedom; they never regarded it as more than temporary. UL □ Emigrants are often pining for home (or: pining to return home) within weeks of arriving in their new country.

4592-pipe down [A1] (informal) be quiet (e g stop talking, making a noise) □ Ashore, 'Pipe down' means silence. Afloat it means several things: men working aloft to return on deck, washed clothes or hammocks to be removed, or simply 'hands turn in'. RFW □ 'Have you come to see Mariette?' 'No, pipe down, you loony. Nobody knows anything about that.' DBM □ usu imper.

4593-pipe up [A1] begin to speak (usu in a thin, high voice) □ The still small voice piped up. PP □ Suddenly Irma piped up and said: 'Please, what is a harpy?' PW

4594-piss about/around [A1] (taboo) behave in a foolish, boisterous way; work in a casual disorganized way; mess about (q v) □ 'Look, just stop pissing about for five minutes. I've got work to do.' □ 'Smith and Murray have been pissing around with that order since January. Tell them, if they don't bloody well get a move on we'll take our business somewhere else.'

4595-piss off¹ [A1] (taboo) go away □ He told me to piss off, or he'd clobber me. □ 'I've had about as much of you as I can stand. Now, piss off!'

4596-piss off² [B1ii pass adj] (taboo) bore; annoy; brown off (q v). S: work, routine; voice, music □ By this time Bill was really pissed off with the job and was looking for a way out — any way out. □ 'It really pisses you off, doesn't it, the way he thinks we've got to jump like trained monkeys every time he snaps his fingers!'

4597-pit against [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) set sb or sth in competition against; match against/with (q v). O: strength, wits, skill, courage; oneself □ When he had slain the king's champion, there was no one left to pit his skill and courage against. □ 'Don't pit your puny wit against my massive intelligence.'

4598-pitch in/into [A1 A2 pass] (informal) attack violently; begin working vigorously, attack food with appetite; pile in/into² (q v). o: rival, opponent; task, job; meal □ Thank you again for the way you pitched in to help out during the German thrust. MFM □ After a day in the fields they pitched into the food with a rare appetite.

4599-pitch in (with) [A1 A3] (informal) give, offer one's help or support. S: colleague, neighbour, ally. o: story, report; figures, statistics; donation, subscription □ 'If the talks start going badly for us, pitch in with the results of the consumer survey. They may make all the difference.' □ Local businessmen pitched in with an offer to meet advertising costs.

4600-pitch up [B1ii pass adj] (cricket) when bowling make the ball strike the pitch near(er) the batsman. O: ball, delivery □ 'You're dropping 'em short, Geoff. Pitch 'em up a bit.' □ Boycott shapes early to drive a well-pitched-up ball.

4601-place above □ (in this and all of the following place entries, the grammatical patterns, definitions, collocates etc, are the same as for the corresponding put entries (to which cross-reference is made.) ⇨ put above.

place at a premium ⇨ put at a premium.

place before ⇨ put before².

place sb in an awkward etc position ⇨ put sb in an awkward etc position.

place in inverted commas ⇨ put in inverted commas.

place in jeopardy ⇨ put in jeopardy.

place one's trust in ⇨ put one's trust in.

place one's cards on the table ⇨ put one's cards on the table.

place a construction on ⇨ put a construction on.

place on one side ⇨ put on one side¹.

place a premium on ⇨ put a premium on.

place pressure on/upon ⇨ put pressure on/upon.

place a strain on/upon ⇨ put a strain on/upon.

place a/one's finger to one's lips ⇨ put a/one's finger to one's lips.

place a match to ⇨ put a match to.

4616-plague with [B2 pass emph rel] address direct, so many questions etc, at sb that they burden and irritate him. O: office, department, employer, teacher. o: questions, inquiries; suggestions; fears, doubts □ At this time of year university admissions offices are plagued with inquiries from anxious applicants. □ 'Don't plague me with your problems. Take them to someone else.'

4617-plan ahead [A1] arrange things in advance □ A general may have to plan months ahead, a platoon officer only a few hours. □ You should plan ahead for really good cold-meat-and-salad eating. TO maker. O: irregularity, rough patch □ The cuts and scratches that the packers made on the desk can be planed away.

4618-plane away/off [B1i pass adj] remove with a woodworker's plane. S: carpenter, cabinet-

4619- plane down [B1i pass adj] lower, reduce, make thinner, with a woodworker's plane. O: surface, edge; board, beam □ You need to plane down the edges until all the roughness disappears. □ Plane one side of the panel down until it fits snugly into place.

4620- plaster one's hair down [B1i pass adj] (informal) make hair lie flat by coating it with brilliantine etc □ The gang wore leather jackets and had long hair plastered down over their ears.

4621- plaster over/up [B1i pass adj] cover, seal, with plaster. O: crack, blemish, hole □ The cracks in the ceiling have to be plastered up before you can start painting.

4622- play about/around (with) [A1 A3 pass] handle, treat, in a casual and irresponsible way; fool about/around q v. o: young girl, sb else's wife; other people's money, property; dangerous drugs, explosives □ It's time he stopped playing around and began to take life seriously. □ He's playing around with a girl young enough to be his daughter. □ This is not a substance that can be played about with by anybody.

4623- play along (with) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) act in accordance (with); go along with² (q v). o: leader, majority; scheme, system, arrangement □ But he did have the sense to play along with the school system to the extent of going into the Sixth. CON □ The minority parties will have to be persuaded to play along.

4624- play at¹ [A2] pretend for fun to be sb or do sth. o: mothers and fathers, cops and robbers, pirates, cowboys; keeping a shop, camping out □ Small boys usually like playing at soldiers, and small girls at nurses or mothers.

4625- play at² [A2 pass] engage in casually or half-heartedly. o: being king, being a businessman □ Office routine is just something he plays at; the one thing that really interests him is golf. □ This is a job that needs to be tackled wholeheartedly — not played at.

4626- what be playing at [A2] (informal) (rhetorical question) expression of anger at sb who is behaving foolishly and/or dangerously □ (mother finds small boy playing with matches) 'And what do you think you're playing at*, young man?'* □ I asked them what on earth they were playing at. □ direct or indirect question construction.

4627- play back¹ [B1i nom pass adj] run the tape forward through a tape-recorder again, so that the material recorded on it can be heard. O: tape, recording; conversation, discussion □ I am going to play back part of the statement you made to the police. □ Let's have a play-back of the first half of Act One.

4628- play back² [A1] (cricket) step back (transfer weight to the back foot) in order to play a stroke. S: batsman, cricketer □ He played back to a short ball outside the off stump. □ When you get a good-length ball, it's hard to know whether to play back or forward. ⇨ play forward.

4629- play back³ [B1i pass adj] (sport) return, send back. O: ball, shot; volley, lob □ He played a good-length ball back to the bowler. □ There is always the danger of being caught by the bowler from a played-back ball.

4630- play down [B1i pass adj] try to make sth appear less important than it is. O: success, contribution; danger, crisis, defeat □ (headline) Wilson plays down Greater London Council defeat. ST □ She tried to play down his part in the affair and play up her own.

4631- play for time [A2] try to delay defeat, an embarrassing admission etc, by keeping one's opponent or questioner at a distance. S: boxer, cricketer; commander, army; politician, government □ 'I can't hear a word,' said Madge. This was untrue. She was playing for time. UTN □ I played for time a bit more, but finally he got me to admit that I could come, and that I didn't have to return till the next day. CON

4632- play forward [A1] (cricket) step forward (transfer weight to the front foot) in order to play a stroke. S: batsman □ Amiss plays forward to a well-pitched ball outside the off stump. ⇨ play back².

4633- play the New Year in [B1i pass] play to celebrate and announce the start of a New Year. S: band, orchestra, Scots piper □ Veteran of playing in the New Year*, Jimmy Shand, along with his band, will be playing for dancers at Perth.* RT □ They played the Old Year out with Auld Lang Syne and the New Year in with Roll Out the Barrel.

4634- play oneself in [B1i] (cricket) lay a secure foundation for an innings by playing slowly and cautiously at the start □ After playing himself in carefully, Smith began to hit out at the looser balls.

4635- play a part/role (in) [B2 pass emph rel] be an element in; figure in (q v). S: colleague, partner; idea, feeling; luck; belief, faith. adj: some; no, (not) any; small; large, considerable; important, significant. o: success, recovery; book, play; thought, philosophy □ During the first few years of marriage the couple are likely to maintain the frequent picture-going which played such a large part in their courtship. UL □ The active part which the Trades Unions have played has certainly served to make Scotland's economic needs much better understood. SC □ In bringing about such a change the Churches have a very important role to play. SC □ The part played by religion (i e in the opening up of Africa) was very great. BN

4636- play into sb's hands [A2] act to sb's advantage, usu by doing sth hoped for or planned for by that person. o: (of) rival, enemy; authorities □ By taking the harder road through the mountains we avoided playing into the enemy's hands. □ The thieves played into the hands of the police by using a conspicuous get-away car.

4637- play off [A1 nom] (of teams or competitors that have secured the same number of points, won the same number of matches, in a championship) play the deciding match □ There will be a play-off between Smith and Peters next week (or: Smith and Peters will play off next week).

4638- play off against [B3 pass] oppose one person to another, for one's own advantage. O: competitor, firm, country □ One way of securing the new market would be to play our principal trade rivals off against each other. □ It is a favourite occupation of some countries to play Britain and America off against each other.

4639- play on [A1] (sport) continue to play, resume play □ A linesman signalled 'off-side', but the referee overruled him and ordered 'play on'.

4640 play on/onto [A1 B1ii pass B2 pass] (cricket) knock the ball onto one's own wicket. O: ball, delivery. o: stumps, wicket □ 'How was he out?' 'He played on.' □ Smith played a turning ball onto the stumps.

4641 play on/upon¹ [A2 pass] make use of words and expressions with a similar form but different meaning for humorous effect etc. o: △ words, language □ The language of much advertising consists of playing elaborately on words. □ The writer plays upon the similarities between ordinary and technical language.

4642 play on/upon² [A2 pass] exploit, develop (usu to harm sb). o: fear, suspicion; credulity, superstition □ The Empire played upon its neighbours' fears of military expansion to obtain trade concessions from them. □ Their memories of past injustices were cleverly played upon.

4643 play out [B1i pass adj] enact, perform. O: episode, interlude, scene, drama □ He was conducted past the dingy form rooms where the pitiful farce of his childhood had been played out, act after endless act. HD □ Their love affair was played out against the unromantic background of an English seaside town.

4644 played out [pass adj (B1)] have lost one's talent, vitality etc. S: footballer, athlete; businessman; painter □ He's not the writer he was. People are beginning to say he's played out. □ She drifted from one affair to another, finally setting up house with a played-out opera singer. □ passive with be, seem, look.

4645 play the Old Year out [B1i pass] play to celebrate the end of an old year. ⇨ play the New Year in.

4646 play out time [B1iii] (sport) (of a team on the defensive) survive to the end of a game without conceding a goal (or try), or losing a wicket □ Defending his wicket watchfully, the last man in played out time.

4647 play up¹ [A1] (schoolboy slang) play with vigour and enthusiasm □ 'Play up, the School!' □ usu imper.

4648 play up² [A1 B1ii pass] (informal) be a nuisance, annoy; deliberately antagonize, torment; physically hurt. S: wife, husband, pupil; back, leg; rheumatism, arthritis □ My shoulder's playing up horribly. □ Don't you see how unhappy he must be with this woman? That's why he had this breakdown — because she played him up. FW □ The children did their best to play up. TST

4649 play up³ [B1i pass adj] stress, emphasize. O: contribution, role, part □ Depend on him to play up to the full his own part in reaching the settlement.

4650 play up to [A3 pass] (informal) flatter, encourage (to win advantage for oneself). o: employer, boss; pretty woman □ 'Play up to her, won't you? Be the husband who's taking a holiday — playing while the cat's away.' FW □ He's the sort of man who dislikes being played up to. He prefers a more straightforward approach.

play upon¹ [A2 pass] ⇨ play on/upon¹.

play upon² [A2 pass] ⇨ play on/upon².

play with¹ [A2 pass] amuse oneself by handling; handle in a casual, absent-minded way, toy with¹ (q v). o: (toy) soldier, farm, zoo; necklace, bangle □ 'Where's Stephen?' 'Up in the attic playing with his toy railway, I expect.' □ While we spoke, the manager played with a carved paper knife.

4654 play with² [A2 pass] treat lightly, dally with² (q v), toy with² (q v). o: him etc; feelings, affections; sensitivities, susceptibilities □ She's not a woman to tolerate being played with. □ You can play with a woman's affections once too often.

4655 play with³ [A2 pass] consider, but not very seriously; dally with¹ (q v), toy with³ (q v). o: notion, idea, scheme □ He's often played with the idea of emigrating to Canada, but that's as far as it's gone.

4656 play the devil/hell (with) [B2] (informal) seriously disturb or upset sth or sb; severely reproach sb. S: climate; altitude, pressure; food, water; father, boss. o: experiment, test; digestion; child, employee □ I've had enough dope to play hell with my nervous system. TST □ 'Dad'll play merry hell with you when he finds out you've broken his favourite record.' □ Alice would accept these things (i e self-pity and class-consciousness), though she'd play the devil with me for my stupidity. RATT

4657 play with fire [A2] court danger, do things that might lead to trouble □ She's inviting trouble if she gets involved with that circle; but some people like playing with fire.

4658 plead (with) (for) [A2 pass emph rel] earnestly request, beg, sb to help, forgive etc. o: (with) guard, captor; (for) one's life; mercy, forgiveness; release, freedom □ With that kind of man you will plead in vain. □ 'You can try pleading with the landlord for more time to pay the arrears, but I doubt whether you'll succeed.'

4659 plod away (at) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) work in a slow, dull, laborious way (at). o: studies; French, maths; job; banking □ He's not the kind to make sharp leaps forward. Just keeps plodding away. □ Mike's not content to plod away at a desk job for ever.

4660 plonk down [B1i pass] (informal) place sth roughly or heavily on a surface. O: dish, bag, box; money □ The postman was able to compel any citizen to assist him to carry the mail bags just for one mile. After that the citizen could plonk them down on the road. WI □ 'Come on the trip if you like, but you'll have to share in the expenses. So plonk down your money!'

4661 plough back (into) [B1i pass adj] reinvest profits etc (in a business). O: takings, earnings, profits. o: business; development, research; retooling (the plant) □ We must increase the rate of ploughing back new money into re-equipment and expansion. OBS □ My father had been ploughing back much of the profits into the land and saving the rest for death duties. RFW

4662 plough in [B1i pass adj] cover, bury, with earth from the plough. O: crop, stubble, manure □ That year the farmers couldn't get the right price for their cabbages and had to plough them in.

4663 plough through [A2 pass] (informal) read, study, sth with difficulty. o: book, essay, thesis; legislation □ 'We've ploughed through all the documents that can possibly have a bearing on your case.'

4664 plough up [B1i pass adj] uncover with the plough. O: potato, root vegetable; metal objects □ In parts of Northern France, farmers still plough up shell fragments, weapons and equipment.

4665-pluck out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass] withdraw, draw out/out of² (q v), sharply or quickly. O: nail, thorn, needle. o: flesh, limb □ He bent over and plucked the thorn out with his teeth. □ He plucked the box out of the fire before the flames caught it.

4666-pluck up courage [B1iii] overcome one's fears, summon up (q v) one's courage □ At last Gerald plucked up courage to say, 'Well, for me, Miss Dollie hasn't changed at all, Mrs Salad.' ASA □ STANLEY: You told him you thought the furniture we make was shoddy and vulgar? CLIVE: *(*plucking up a little courage*) Well, those terrible oak cupboards.* FFE

4667-plug away (at) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) work persistently (at); peg away (at) (q v). o: homework, housework, accounts □ 'How is the French coming on?' 'Oh, I keep plugging away*.'* □ 'Don't you want to be read?' Mrs Jones demanded. 'Can't think why you plug away at your book if you don't.' US

4668-plug in [B1i pass adj] connect sth with the power supply by means of a plug. O: (electric) cooker, fire, kettle; radio □ She plugged in the radio and switched on, and there was the familiar hum. TT

4669-plug up [B1i pass adj] fill with a plug (of wood, plaster, etc). O: hole, gap, crack □ Plug up any cracks in the panel with plastic wood.

4670-plump down¹ [A1] (informal) sink quickly and heavily. A: into an armchair, onto the floor □ She glanced quickly around the crowded room and plumped down on the only available chair.

4671-plump down² [B1i pass] (informal) place down quickly and decisively. O: baby; shopping bag; (playing-)card, entrance fee, membership card □ The child was plumped down on the counter while she rummaged in her bag. □ He plumped his money down to secure one of the few remaining tickets.

4672-plump for [A2 pass adj] (informal) choose with decision and confidence □ I wanted the red car, but Mary plumped for the blue one with grey seats. □ The selection committee plumped for the safe, conservatively inclined candidate.

4673-plump up [B1i pass adj] pat with the hands to make round and fat. O: cushion, pillow □ She smoothed out the sheets and plumped up the pillows.

4674-plunge in/into [A1 emph A2 emph rel] throw oneself headfirst into water; dive in/into (q v). o: water; sea, river □ Without pausing for thought, Robin dashed from the cabin, clambered onto the handrail, and plunged in*.* □ The van broke through the parapet and plunged into twenty feet of water.

4675-plunge into¹ [B2 pass rel] cause sth suddenly to go dark or sb to become depressed etc. O: room, hall; audience, listener. o: darkness; (deep) gloom, depression □ A power failure plunged the whole house into sudden darkness. □ I thought this kind of happiness must be unstable—just as suddenly as it had come it would collapse and plunge her into deeper despair. SPL

4676-plunge into² [A2 rel B2 pass rel] suddenly (cause to) enter, be involved in. S: [A2] O: [B2] continent, country, people. o: war, conflict, strife □ The country had plunged swiftly into open conflict with its neighbours. □ We were plunged into civil war by the attempted secession of the eastern provinces.

4677-plunge into³ [A2 rel B2 pass rel] suddenly (cause to) incur, be overwhelmed by. S: [A2] O: [B2] country, firm. o: debt, (financial) crisis □ The company plunged deeper into debt. □ There had seemed no way of staving off the economic crisis into which we were now plunged*.*

4678-ply between [A2] (nautical) travel regularly, provide a regular service, between one place and another. S: steamer, ferry. o: the island and the mainland; Dover and Calais □ Ferries carrying passengers and commercial lorries ply daily between Hull and Rotterdam.

4679-ply with [B2 pass rel] keep constantly supplied with; direct constantly at. o: food, cigarettes, comforts; questions, inquiries □ He was plied with everything that would make his stay in hospital more comfortable. □ Relatives beseiged the shipping offices and plied the staff with anxious inquiries.

4680-point out¹ [B1i pass] show, indicate. O: beauty spot, place of interest □ The guide pointed out the best known paintings in the gallery.

4681-point out² [B1i pass] make clear, explain. O: fact, truth; aspect, side (of a question) □ Not that he wasn't quick to see his own advantage, when it was pointed out to him. PW □ The Mortonstowe transmitters were capable of handling an enormous quantity of information, as Kingsley was not slow to point out*.* TBC

4682-point to¹ [A2 pass] indicate, when making a case, defending one's position etc. o: growth, increase; figure, amount □ In defence of his policy, the Minister pointed to the sharp decrease in road deaths.

4683-point to² [A2] suggest, be evidence of. S: sign, evidence; statement, report. o: guilt, involvement; quick election, early withdrawal □ All the signs at the moment point to an early resumption of the fighting.

4684-point up [B1i pass] emphasize, underline. O: contrast, difference, change □ The recent wage increases point up still further the difference between this government and the last. □ This admission only serves to point up an aspect of police work that the public fails to understand. L

4685-poke about/around [A1 nom] (informal) search, pry, inquisitively; nose about/around (q v). A: among papers, possessions; in one's study, spare room □ 'What are you doing poking about among my private papers?' □ I only left them alone for a couple of minutes and when I came back they were having a poke(-)around in my writing-desk.

4686-poke fun at [B2 pass(o) emph rel] ridicule, mock. o: appearance, manner, speech □ He was often poked fun at at school because of his shabby clothes. □ Loyalty, patriotism, the old school tie—these were all things at which we loved, in our superior way, to poke fun*.*

4687-poke one's nose in/into [B1ii B2] (informal) take an unwelcome interest in the concerns of others; pry (into) (q v). o: △ (sb else's) affairs, business, concerns □ I wish he'd stop poking his long nose into my affairs. □ If you'd stop poking your nose in where it's not wanted, we could get some work done.

4688-poke up [B1i pass] jab at a fire with a poker so that it burns more brightly □ He poked the coals up into a blaze.

4689 polish off[1] [B1i pass adj] (informal) finish eating, writing etc, sth quickly; finish off, up (q v). O: dish, course; scrap, left-overs; work □ I can polish off the rest of the typing in no time. □ The rest of the Christmas pudding was polished off by the children.

4690 polish off[2] [B1i pass adj] (informal) defeat, eliminate, finish off (q v). O: opposition, contender □ His opponents in the eliminating rounds were quickly polished off. □ Having disposed of the main opposition, he could polish off the remainder at his leisure.

4691 polish up[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] become clean and bright and clean with polishing; rub sth with polish until it becomes bright. S: [A1] O: [B1] (metal) ornament; weapon, accoutrement; (varnished) table, chair □ These old pieces of brass have polished up beautifully. □ The silver will need to be polished up for the dinner party. □ The furniture could do with a good polishing-up.

4692 polish up[2] [B1i pass adj] (informal) work at sth to improve its quality or effectiveness. O: French, German; (knowledge of) administration, business methods □ I'll have to polish up my Italian: it's getting a bit rusty. □ Our sales techniques need polishing up.

4693 ponder (on/over) [A2 pass adj emph rel] consider slowly and thoughtfully; reflect on/upon[1] (q v). o: past error, event; (future) outcome, result □ Brigit did not ponder on these things too long. The morning was too lovely for problems or gloom. DC □ I pondered on William, stranded perhaps in Mesopotamian wastes, a lonely speck in that desert. BM □ These are minor problems over which you needn't ponder too long.

4694 pop across, along, away etc [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) bring, take sth across etc quickly. O: book, parcel, letter □ 'I'll just pop this letter into the post.' □ John popped his head round the door. □ 'I'll pop the results over when I get a minute.'

4695 pop along, around, down, in, over, round [A1] (informal) make a brief, casual visit to sb □ 'There's a meeting tonight, and I was thinking of popping along for half an hour or so.' □ 'I just popped in to say hullo.' EHOW □ 'Pop round when you get time. It's always nice to see you.' □ pop in this sense combines esp with the particles shown. ⇨ come along (to), come around/round (to)[1] etc.

4696 pop off[1] [A1] (informal) die □ 'Now you can all stop talking about my money: I've no intention of popping off yet.'

4697 pop off[2] [A1 B1i pass] (informal) be fired, fire, with a sharp explosion. S: [A1] O: [B1] firework; rifle, gun; (champagne) bottle, cork □ A brilliant flare popped off right over our heads. □ There were children running all over the place, popping off toy guns.

4698 pop out/out of [A1 emph A2] come out (of) with a pop (a sharp, explosive sound). S: cork, stopper. o: bottle, tube □ The cork popped out and the champagne gushed from the bottle.

4699 pop up[1] [A1 emph] (informal) appear (esp in unlikely places, when unexpected etc) □ Rogers disappeared for a whole year, then popped up in Bolivia, of all places. □ 'Then when finally we've given him up for lost, up he pops!'

4700 pop up[2] [A1 nom] (esp of illustrated pages i[n a] book) rise into three-dimensional form as [the] book is opened □ 'There you are, you see. Y[ou] just press the pages flat and all the animals p[op] up.' □ nom form is used attrib, as in: a pop-[up] book.

4701 pore over [A2 pass adj] study with close atte[n]tion. o: book, document; figure, table; paintin[g], sketch □ He pored over drawings. BB □ [...] pored over the sketches for a long time. BB

4702 portion out [B1i pass adj] divide in portio[ns] (among a number of people). O: food, ratio[n], land; work. A: evenly, fairly, justly □ The sta[n]dard ration pack had to be portioned [out] among fourteen men. □ Portioning land [out] equally among one's children leads to the pr[o]liferation of uneconomic holdings.*

4703 post away [B1i pass] send (away) to anot[her] place of duty. O: officer, soldier □ I'm afr[aid] Captain Jones is no longer here: he's b[een] posted away.

4704 post (to) [B2 pass emph rel] appoint to a po[st] or place of duty. O: soldier, Government offic[ial] □ 'Where's he being posted (to)?' 'Oh, [...] somewhere in the Far East.' □ I hope you will [be] posted to my battalion.

4705 potter about/around [A1 nom] (inform[al]) move in a leisurely, unorganized way from o[ne] little job to another. A: in the garden, in on[e's] study □ I imagine that he enjoys life. Potteri[ng] about and buying his drawings. ASA □ I'll ta[ke] it easy today; perhaps have a potter-about [in] the garden.

4706 pounce (on/upon)[1] [A2 pass emph rel] ma[ke] a sudden attack on (often from above). S: eag[le], hawk; tiger; aircraft; raider, bandit □ The [...] cats wait for the right moment, then pou[nce] swiftly (on their prey). □ Guerrillas pounc[ed] on the convoy from both sides of a narrow r[av]ine.

4707 pounce (on/upon)[2] [A2 pass emph [rel]] choose in a keen, alert way for criticism etc. [o:] (every) error, slip, mistake □ The teacher wo[uld] pounce on every slip the child made, howe[ver] insignificant, and hold her up to ridicule bef[ore] the whole class. □ This is the kind of carel[ess] mistake on which examiners love to pounce.

4708 pound at/on [A2 pass] strike heavily [and] repeatedly (at). o: door, table; drum, pian[o] □ Must he always pound on the table to make [a] point? □ 'My ears have been pounded at for [the] past hour; when is he going to switch off t[hat] damned drill?'

4709 pound (away) (at) [A1 A2 pass A3 pa[ss]] (military) bombard heavily (and continuousl[y]). S: artillery; bomber. o: line, position; fortifi[ca]tion □ Heavy artillery pounded away in the [dis]tance. □ Waves of rocket-carrying airc[raft] pounded (at) the enemy columns.

4710 pour across, along, away etc[1] [A1 A2 em[ph] rel] move in a continuous stream across etc. [S:] crowd, refugees, city workers; ants, termite[s] □ Tourists pour into London during the summe[r]. □ The spectators poured out of the stadium.

4711 pour across, along, away etc[2] [B1i pass [...] pass emph rel] cause to move across etc i[n a] stream. O: water, oil; grain, sand □ Molten m[etal] is poured into moulds. □ Any unused sugar [can] be poured back into the tin.

4712 pour down [A1] fall in a continuous stream, in torrents. S: ⚠ the rain; it ◻ The rain poured down steadily (or: There was a steady downpour) all afternoon (cf It poured with rain all afternoon). ◻ It was pouring down non-stop (cf It was pouring with rain non-stop). ◻ nom form is downpour.

4713 pour forth/out [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) emerge in a stream. S: [A1] O: [B1] speech, music; propaganda, lies. S: [B1] orator, choir; radio-station, loud-speaker ◻ We let the wretched man pour out his tale of woe. ◻ The loud-speakers in the square poured forth a continuous programme of martial music. ◻ Strong feelings were poured out (or: There was an outpouring of strong feelings).

4714 pour in/into [A1 A2 emph rel] arrive in a stream (at). S: application, inquiry; donation, gift ◻ Thousands of pounds poured into our London office in response to the broadcast appeal. ◻ The switchboards were jammed as angry protests poured in from all over the country.

4715 pour off [A2] flow freely from the pores of the skin. S: ⚠ (the) sweat, perspiration ◻ After a few laps of the track, the sweat was pouring off the runners.

4716 pour on [B2 pass emph rel] express strongly adverse feelings towards sth; ridicule, scorn sth. S: commentator, critic; expert. O: ⚠ contempt, ridicule, scorn. o: effort, attempt; achievement ◻ Now that mobility is the keynote in defence thinking, it is easy to pour scorn on those who planned fixed-site missiles like Blue Streak. SC ◻ Despite all the ridicule that has been poured on the more extreme advocates of Women's Lib, the movement certainly has a serious case, which deserves serious attention.

4717 pour out[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] serve a beverage from a pot, bottle etc. S: hostess, waitress. O: (cup of) tea, coffee ◻ 'Let me pour out the tea at least.' TGLY ◻ 'Tea? Do sit down and I'll pour you some out*.'* ◻ 'Shall I pour out (i e Shall I serve the tea)?' ◻ note the position of the Indirect Object in the second example.

4718 pour out[2] [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) emerge in a stream. ⇨ pour forth/out.

pour with [A 2] ⇨ pour down.

4720 prance about/around [A1 A2] (informal) dance about in a light-hearted or foolish way ◻ There was a certain amount of prancing about in the corridors when the exam results were posted. ◻ 'Tell those children to stop prancing around on the landing and get into bed.'

4721 pray (to God) (for) [A2 pass emph rel] make a request to God for sth or on behalf of sb. o: food, water; help, forgiveness; sick people, the dying ◻ The farmers are praying for rain. ◻ He's past praying for (i e he can no longer be helped). ◻ They prayed to God for guidance in difficult times.

4722 preach (at) [A2 pass] give moral advice in an aloof, superior way ◻ 'Please don't preach at me,' Virginia said. 'I came home to get some help.' AITC ◻ We were tired of being preached at by sanctimonious ushers with no knowledge of life outside the school gates. CON

4723 preclude from [B2 pass] (formal) prevent from doing sth, make impossible one's doing sth. o: participation, attendance; having a share, standing for office ◻ The sudden change in events precluded him from a share in the Government. ◻ Retiring members of the Board were precluded from seeking re-election for three years.

4724 predispose to/towards [B2 pass] (formal) (of an earlier event) make sb likely or inclined to do or accept sth at a later time. S: upbringing, training, indoctrination. o: acceptance, refusal; scholarship, music, the law, medicine ◻ His father's harsh treatment of him predisposed him to a rejection of authority in later life. ◻ He was predisposed towards literary studies by the bookish environment of his early years.

4725 preface with [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) place before the main body of a speech, text etc. S: speaker; chairman; editor. O: address, speech; chapter. o: (short) reference (to), (brief) mention (of) ◻ 'If I may, I should like to preface my remarks with a short tribute to my predecessor in the chair.'

4726 prepare (for) [A2 pass adj emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (cause to) get ready (for). O: oneself; pupil, class; follower, subject; article, book; room. o: exam; ordeal, hardship; the press; guest ◻ *'*Prepare (yourselves) for a shock!' ◻ *These long-*prepared-for discussions open in Brussels on Monday. ◻ He's preparing a paper for the next meeting of the Association. ◻ *'*Prepare the children for the big news.'

present to [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ next entry.

4728 present with [B2 pass rel] give, offer, sth as a present or reward. o: medal, scroll (of honour), sum of money ◻ He was presented with the keys of the city (or: He had the keys of the city presented to him). ◻ The company presented him with a gold watch on the day he retired (or: presented a gold watch to him etc).

4729 preside (over) [A2 pass emph rel] be the chairman (at); sit at the head of the table (at a formal meal). o: meeting, rally; dinner ◻ He was a brilliant industrial diplomat, who presided over banquets and regally entertained foreign potentates. OBS

4730 preside over [A2] witness, from an important position, events over which one has little control. S: government, administration; minister, director. o: decline, collapse, break-up ◻ Successive post-war governments have presided over the gradual dissolution of the British Empire. ◻ The directors were not content to preside inertly over the liquidation of their most valuable subsidiary.

4731 press across, along, away etc[1] [A1 A2] move with a steady pressure across etc. S: spectator, demonstrator; crowd, mob ◻ The advance guard pressed forward to maintain contact with the enemy. ◻ The fans pressed through the tunnels and onto the terraces of the stadium. ◻ A mass of new sights and sounds pressed in upon them.

4732 press across, along, away etc[2] [B1i pass adj B2 pass] using firm pressure, cause to move across etc steadily. O: crowd; demonstrators, troops; assault ◻ The police pressed the students back behind the barriers. ◻ The movement of wheeled vehicles was impossible. The attack, however, had to be pressed forward under all circumstances. B

4733 press ahead/forward/on (with) [A1 A3] continue steadily and with determination (to carry sth out); push ahead/forward/on (with) (q v). o: proposals, plans; efforts, endeavours □ We must press ahead with our efforts to reach an agreement.

4734 press (for) [A2 pass emph rel B2 pass emph rel] make repeated and urgent requests (for); push (for) (q v). O: ministers, Government. o: debate, discussion, inquiry □ We are pressing (the Government) hard for a renewal of talks. □ Reporters pressed him for an explanation (or: pressed him to give an explanation). □ The engineers' representatives have won all the concessions for which they were pressing.

4735 press home [B1i pass] make, apply, forcefully; push home (q v). O: attack, assault; accusation □ This particular charge was pressed home. LWK □ The attacks were pressed home despite determined resistance.

4736 press home an/one's advantage [B1iii pass] use well, exploit, an opportunity or advantage □ She was rather more concerned with her appearance than with the strong-room key, so he pressed home his advantage and took the key. TO □ The employers were prepared to discuss wages, and they pressed home the advantage this gave them by raising the matter of productivity.

4737 press on/upon [B2 pass] offer sth insistently (out of gratitude, or in hope of gain); insist that sb accepts sth (against his will). O: attentions, favours; money, gifts; opinions, beliefs □ The crowds pressed food and wine upon the liberating troops. □ I wish he'd stop trying to press his political views upon his students.

4738 press out out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass] force to leave, separate, by applying pressure. O: oil, juice; part, component. o: seed, fruit; (sheet of) metal, card □ This machine presses the oil out of palm kernels. □ The parts of the model have been printed on cardboard; all you have to do is press them out and assemble them.

4739 presume on/upon [A2 pass] (formal) test, strain, too much the goodwill etc of another person. o: patience, indulgence; kindness, good nature; hospitality □ It would be unwise to presume over much upon the tolerance of these people. □ I think we have already presumed too much on your generosity.

4740 pretend to [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) claim (somewhat vainly) to possess. o: wit, understanding, knowledge; talent, gift □ He doesn't pretend to a detailed knowledge of the system. □ She pretends to various abilities she doesn't, in fact, possess.

4741 pretty up [B1i pass adj] (informal) make (falsely) pretty or charming. O: child; street, house; story □ Here was a row of simple cottages, prettied up for sale to commuting stockbrokers. □ The script will have to be prettied up to give it box-office appeal.

4742 prevail on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) persuade (to do sth) □ The judge was prevailed upon to show clemency. □ At dinner he prevailed on her to take some wine. It wasn't easy. PW □ He allowed himself to be prevailed on. □ object is usu followed by the inf.

4743 prey on/upon[1] [A2 pass adj] pursue and kill as one's normal food; select as victims for one's attacks. S: hawk, eagle; tiger, lion; pirate, bandit. o: small bird; antelope; merchant shipping □ Owls prey on small rodents, especially mice. □ Aircraft preyed upon the columns of refugees. □ Bullion ships plying out of the Carribean were preyed upon by pirates.

4744 prey on/upon[2] [A2 pass] assail, beset, deeply trouble. S: doubt, fear, anxiety. o: △ him etc; sb's mind, thoughts □ Was it the accident with the car and the blackmailing letters that were preying on his mind? DC □ It would appear that his impending trial preyed on his mind (or: on him). T

4745 price out of the market [B2 pass] set one's prices so high that no one buys one's goods. O: oneself; product, goods □ If you don't accept a lower profit, you'll price yourself right out of the market.

4746 prick out [B1i pass] (horticulture) plant in the earth, in holes pricked with a pointed stick. O: seedling, young plant □ 'I'm just going to prick out some young cabbage plants.'

4747 prick one's ears up [B1i pass] (of a dog, horse) raise the ears (a sign that it is listening closely); (of a person) pay careful attention □ The horse seemed so interested in what was going on that after being led away some paces she turned, pricked up her ears, and looked around. DBM □ 'I've been thinking about Myrtle for some time, Joe.' 'Oh?' I pricked up my ears. SPL

4748 pride oneself on/upon [B2 emph rel] regard as a special reason for pride or satisfaction. o: skill, craft; sensitivity, finesse □ He had always prided himself on his tact in handling such crises. □ He prided himself justly on his skill in negotiation. □ On this ability to learn new languages he had always prided himself.

4749 prink up [B1i pass adj] (informal) make smarter, more attractive. O: oneself; one's face, clothes □ She's in the women's room. Prinking herself up a bit extra, not that she needs it. TC

4750 print off[1] [B1i nom pass adj] (photography) make prints or enlargements on sensitive paper from a negative film or plate □ How many copies of the wedding group do you want printed off? □ I want to do a print-off from that negative (or: print off photographs from that negative).

4751 print off[2] [B1i nom pass adj] (printing) print copies of a book etc (with the implication that another printing is to be made from the same plates) □ We printed off 10 000 copies (cf did a print-off of 10 000) from the existing plates. □ note the special nom form offprint = an extra printing of (usu) a single article from a journal, in a small number of copies for the author's own use.

4752 print out [B1i nom pass adj] (of a computer) provide printed information from the data stored in a computer 'bank' in accordance with a programme specification □ At the end of the working day the computer is programmed to print out an analysis of the orders received and invoiced and the resulting stock levels. □ The texts were fed into the computer and several print-outs were obtained, showing, among other things, word-frequency distribution and sentence lengths. □ nom form more frequent in current usage.

4753 prize off [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove, raise (usu by force applied to a lever). O: lid, cover, top. o: tin, box, cask □ We prized the lids off the packing cases with a tyre lever. □ Prize off the cover with your thumbs. □ alt spelling: prise.

4754 prize out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass]

remove, extract (from) (usu by force applied to a lever); obtain with difficulty (by applying moral pressure etc). O: stone, nail; secret, confession. o: (animal's) hoof, tyre; suspect, prisoner □ Sharp pieces of grit were prised out of the tyre treads. □ Foreign espionage would do its utmost to prise out these secrets. TBC □ She prised the story out of him by threatening to inform his employers. □ alt spelling: prise.

4755 proceed against [A2] (legal) take steps to bring sb to trial. S: police; (solicitor's) client, plaintiff. o: suspect, prisoner □ 'But before we go to the trouble and expense of proceeding against this man I must be satisfied that your charges are well founded.'

4756 proceed from [A2 emph rel] (formal) have as a cause or starting-point. S: event; agreement, treaty. o: decision, plan; meeting, discussion □ From this small error many unfortunate misunderstandings have proceeded.* □ The plans were then made from which the momentous events of 1944 proceeded.

4757 proceed to[1] [A2] (formal) take the next item etc in succession. o: next item (on the agenda); vote, election □ 'May we proceed, then, to the election of a committee?' □ 'Let us proceed to nominations for President.'

4758 proceed to[2] [A2] (formal) go forward from a lower university degree to a higher one. o: the (degree of) MA, PhD □ Graduates wishing to proceed to the MA may do so on payment of the necessary fees and dues.

4759 profit by [A2] by studying one's mistakes etc, ensure they are not repeated. o: ⚠ one's mistake, experience; sb's advice, counsel □ We ought to profit by our mistakes. □ He's been married twice, but doesn't seem to have profited much by the experience. ⇨ next entry.

4760 profit (from) [A2 pass emph rel] get some benefit (from), be helped (by). o: course, training, instruction; trip, stay □ He profited greatly from his three years at university. □ These young volunteer teachers profit personally and professionally from their year overseas. ⇨ previous entry.

4761 prohibit from [B2 pass] (formal) forbid sb to do sth. o: smoking, walking on the grass, using public transport □ We are prohibited from selling cigarettes to young children. □ The school prohibits the younger boarders from going to the cinema. □ object is the -ing form of a v.

4762 pronounce (on/upon) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) give a considered opinion or verdict on some matter. S: expert, adviser, consultant. o: health, safety; efficiency, viability □ The air is heavy with the voices of experts, pronouncing on everything from the effect of fluoride on drinking water to the future of motor traffic in cities.

4763 prop up[1] [B1i pass adj] raise, and keep in a raised position, by means of supports. S: nurse, mother; farmer, building. O: patient, child; fence, outhouse □ Nurse Ellen had tucked her up and left her to sleep, but she propped herself up (on the pillows). DC □ The gardener propped up the apple tree with a stout plank.

4764 prop up[2] [B1i pass] support sth which would otherwise collapse. O: (failing) company, business; uneconomic enterprise; badly-run organization. A: with public money, government support □ The Minister said that it was not the duty of any government to prop up a failing company, no matter how prestigious its name.

4765 prospect for [A2] (mining) search for minerals. o: diamonds, gold; copper, bauxite □ Where in the nineteenth century amateur fortune hunters prospected for gold, today professional geologists prospect for oil, uranium and industrial metals.

4766 protect (against/from) [B2 pass emph rel] serve as a shield or defence (against). S: armour plate, barricade; law, regulation; police. O: passenger, crew; customer, retailer; citizen. o: shell-fire, explosion; unfair trading; violence □ An armoured shield will protect the driver against all but a direct hit. □ Is the tenant adequately protected from exploitation? □ Pensions tied to the cost-of-living index can protect retired people from the effects of inflation.

4767 protest (against) [A2 pass emph rel] express objections (to); do this in the form of an organized demonstration. o: intrusion, rudeness; rent increase, atomic weapons, racial discrimination □ Crowds of young demonstrators protested against the increase in students' fees. □ Small groups of dissidents protested courageously against (or: made a courageous protest against) this armed intervention. □ cf US usage: Demonstrators protested the increase in fees.

4768 provide for[1] [A2 pass adj emph rel] ensure, by earning enough and by careful spending, that one's family etc has enough to live on (now, and/or in the event of future separation or death). o: wife, children, parent; widow □ If you decide to divorce, you must see to it that your wife is properly provided for. □ The children are provided for. OMIH □ He's always provided well for his family (cf *He's always been a good provider).

4769 provide for[2] [A2 pass] make such efficient arrangements that all possible difficulties can be overcome. o: every eventuality, all contingencies □ Every possible failure of the electrical system has been provided for, generally by duplicating the circuits.

4770 provide for[3] [A2 pass] (parliament, legal) establish the legal basis or authority for the later actions or conduct of Government or individuals. S: Act (of Parliament), Bill. o: the hand-over of power, confiscation of property; easier divorce, a higher school-leaving age □ The Bill provides for the eventual self-government of the territory. □ A clause in the agreement provides for the arbitration of all disputes by an independent body (or: provides that all disputes shall be arbitrated* etc). □ Equal pay for women is provided for in the party manifesto.

4771 provoke (into) [B2 pass rel] goad, vex, sb so much that he reacts angrily, behaves violently etc. o: temper, rage, outburst; slapping, beating □ Jibes about his low salary always provoked him into violent displays of temper. □ The continual noise in the classroom provoked him into slapping one or two hands (or: provoked him to slap* etc).

4772 prowl about/around [A1] go about carefully looking for food or an opportunity to steal. S: lion, tiger; thief, layabout □ The big cats prowl about in the savannah grass, looking for an incautious prey. □ 'What's going on down there?

Who's prowling about downstairs?' DC

4773 pry (into) [A2 pass adj emph rel] show too much interest in (other people's affairs); poke one's nose in/into (q v). o: others' affairs, matters that don't concern one □ She pries too closely into the private life of her friends. □ 'This is something I said you weren't to pry into.'

4774 pucker up [A1 B1i pass adj] come or draw together into small folds or wrinkles. S: [A1] O: [B1] brow, eyes, lips; skin □ His eyes were puckered up against the strong sunlight. □ She had the little puckered-up face of a seal, very worried-looking. CON

4775 puff across, along, away etc[1] [A1 A2] go across etc, sending out smoke etc and/or panting noisily. S: engine, train; runner, messenger □ Our train puffed into the station ten minutes late. □ Steam puffed up from a crack in the metal. □ A few weekend athletes puffed along, unhappy at the unaccustomed exercise.

4776 puff across, along, away etc[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] send, drive, across etc, in short, sudden gusts. S: pipe, tube, chimney; smoker. O: smoke, fumes, smog, gas □ The factory chimneys puff dense smoke into the air. □ 'Don't puff your tobacco smoke into my eyes.' □ Air is puffed up through the liquid.

4777 puff (at/on) [A2] draw smoke from a pipe etc, usu in short gusts. o: pipe, cigar, cigarette □ He was puffing nervously at a cigarette. □ 'Stop puffing (on that pipe) for a moment, and listen to me.'

4778 puff out[1] [B1i pass adj] (informal) make sb short of breath. S: exercise, exertion; race, climb □ Climbing up the long staircase to his office quite puffed me out. □ We were completely puffed out: we had to sit down for a few minutes to get our breath back.

4779 puff out[2] [B1i pass] cause to go out, extinguish, with a sharp gust of air. O: light, flame; lamp, candle □ A sudden gust of wind from the open window puffed the candle out.

4780 puff one's chest out [B1i pass adj] cause one's chest to expand with air (from pride, or in order to appear smart on parade) □ His chest was puffed out with pride on the day that they gave him his medal. □ Little boys marched up and down with puffed-out chests.

4781 puff up [B1i pass adj] fill sb with conceit, with too great a sense of his importance. S: money, success, status □ Uncle Saunders is only a noisy pompous ass, puffed up by too much money. DC □ They're a couple of puffed-up idiots — very much in need of deflating.

4782 pull about/around [B1ii pass adj] handle roughly, mistreat. O: wife, child; furniture □ 'If you don't stop pulling me about, I'll scream the place down.' □ 'I wish the dogs would leave the cushions alone: they're looking terribly pulled-about.'

4783 pull ahead/ahead of [A1 A2] move in front (of); progress beyond; draw ahead/ahead of (q v). S: car; runner; business firm, economy. o: opposition, rival □ 'That driver's trying to overtake. Slow down a bit and let him pull ahead.' □ Liverpool has pulled ahead of Arsenal in the race for the League leadership.

4784 pull alongside [A1 A2] stop, or move along, at the side of; draw alongside (q v). S: car; tug, launch. o: lorry; steamer □ A motor-cyclist pulled alongside and signalled that my off-side door wasn't properly shut. □ 'We'll pull alongside her and put a salvage crew aboard.'

4785 pull apart[1] [B1i pass] use force to separate the parts of sth; pull to pieces[1] (q v). O: box, cupboard; garment; flower □ The table is so made that you can easily pull it apart (or: that it easily pulls apart).

4786 pull apart[2] [B1i pass] criticize severely; pull to pieces[2] (q v). S: tutor, foreman. O: idea; plan, scheme; work, achievement □ There's nothing more dispiriting than having your essays pulled apart in front of other students.

pull around [B1iii pass adj] ⇨ pull about/around.

4788 pull aside [B1i pass] move sth to one side (esp to reveal what is behind it); draw aside[1] (q v). O: curtain, hanging; mask, veil (of secrecy, deceit) □ We pulled aside a dingy curtain to reveal a flight of steps running downwards. □ The cloak of secrecy was pulled aside by a newspaper photographer who spotted a prototype of the car while on an assignment in Austria.

4789 pull at/on [A2] draw smoke steadily from a pipe etc. o: pipe, cigar □ The old man pulled thoughtfully at his pipe before replying.

4790 pull away (from) [B1ii pass B3 pass] use force to move sth or sb away (esp from danger). O: bomb; pilot, passenger. o: house; wreckage, ruins; fire □ With great presence of mind a fireman pulled the driver away from the burning cab.

4791 pull back [A1 B1i pass] (military) (cause to) retreat, withdraw. S: [A1] O: [B1] tanks, infantry. S: [B1] commander □ The battalion pulled back two miles during the night and took up prepared positions. □ The bad condition of the roads made relief impossible without pulling the division back to Orel, so the 4th Panzer had struggled on. B

4792 pull down[1] [B1i pass adj] lower, draw down (q v). O: blind, shade; hat □ His hat was pulled well down over his eyes so that nobody should guess his true identity.

4793 pull down[2] [B1i pass adj] demolish, destroy. O: theatre, monument, house □ A row of back-to-back houses is being pulled down to make way for new flats. □ Many people are opposed to the pulling-down of buildings of historical interest.

4794 pull down[3] [B1ii pass adj] (informal) weaken, leave in a poor condition. S: malaria, influenza; poor diet, feeding □ 'Bit thinner, aren't you? You look a bit pulled down, you know.' PW □ That long spell in hospital pulled him down a lot.

4795 pull down[4] [B1ii pass] (informal) cause to fall to a lower position (e g in a class or form). S: mark, score; written test, oral □ He seemed all set to win a gold medal, but his performance in the third round pulled him down. □ It was the written paper that pulled me down.

4796 pull in[1] [B1i pass] (informal) earn, draw. O: good wage; two thousand a year □ He's pulling in a regular salary. NM □ They're pulling in a lot of overtime (money paid for working extra hours) on that job.

4797 pull in[2] [B1i pass] (informal) attract, draw, to a place of entertainment, an opportunity of investment etc. O: crowd, audience; investment, savings ▫ 'We need to pull in a good Saturday crowd at the Palace Theatre.' ▫ They need to have a high rate of interest in order to pull in money from investors. BBCTV 4798 pull in[3] [B1i pass] (informal) fetch to the police station (for questioning). O: suspect, loiterer, habitual offender ▫ Two youths loitering near a supermarket were pulled in on suspicion.

4799 pull in/into[1] [A1 A2] enter, arrive (at); draw in/into[1] (q v). S: train. o: station, terminus ▫ Our train pulled into Paddington dead on time. ▫ As we pulled in, an hour late, our connection to Rome was pulling out.

4800 pull in/into[2] [A1 nom A2] move towards, draw closer to, the side of the road, bank etc. S: boat; car, lorry. o: shore, quay; kerb, lorry-park ▫ The steamer pulled in towards the quay-side. ▫ 'Find a good place to pull into for some tea on the way to London (or: Find a good pull-in on the way to London).' ▫ the café where you pull in for refreshments is a pull-in. ⇨ pull up[1].

4801 pull off[1] [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove (with some force). O: shoe, jumper; leaf, bud ▫ 'Here, help me pull these boots off.' ▫ 'See if you can pull the cloth off the table without disturbing these glasses.'

4802 pull off[2] [B1i pass] (informal) succeed in sth, make a success of sth. O: it; coup, deal, speculation; scoop ▫ Every time he pulled off a big deal it made a paragraph in the 'Sentry'. CON ▫ 'We did it, we've pulled it off, we've won.' BBCTV pull on[1] [A2] draw smoke steadily from a pipe etc. ⇨ pull at/on.

4804 pull on[2] [B1i pass] don (clothing), draw on[1] (q v). O: boot, sock, shirt ▫ He pulled a sweater on over his woollen shirt.

4805 pull out[1] [B1i pass] extract, draw out/out of[2] (q v). S: dentist; carpenter. O: tooth; nail, tack ▫ I was afraid he was going to pull out one of those big molars.

4806 pull out[2] [B1i nom pass] remove, detach. O: supplement, (comic-, magazine-)section ▫ The map is at the back of the book, and may be pulled out (or: pulls out) for easy reference. ▫ In this week's issue there is a special section you can pull out (or: a special pull-out section) on French wines.

4807 pull out all the stops [B1iii] (informal) use all one's power, resources etc, to achieve an objective ▫ The Government pulled out all the stops to get the Industrial Relations Bill through Parliament in a single session. ▫ Helen, desperately afraid that Archie would leave her, pulled out all the stops to keep her hold over him.

4808 pull one's finger out [B1ii] (informal) stop behaving in a lazy, inefficient way. S: firm; manager, accountant, storekeeper ▫ 'He's got till the end of the month to get his research project written up and typed, so he'd better pull his finger out.' ▫ 'That's twice I've been let down by the garage over spare parts. If they don't pull their finger(s) out I'll take my custom elsewhere.'

4809 pull out/out of[1] [A1 A2] leave, depart from; draw out/out of[1] (q v). S: train, bus, coach. o: station ▫ Then the train pulled out. TC ▫ The three-thirty was pulling out of platform five as I ran into the station.

4810 pull out/out of[2] [A1 A2] move out of a line of traffic, in order to overtake the vehicle in front, enter a faster traffic lane. S: driver, motorist; car, lorry ▫ The car in front pulled out to overtake just as I was about to overtake it. ▫ Don't pull out of a line of stationary vehicles unless the road behind you is clear.

4811 pull out/out of[3] [A1 A2 pass] force oneself to emerge, recover, (from). o: illness; mood, depression ▫ He's been dogged by failure for years; now he's working strenuously to pull out. ▫ 'But he'll pull out of it. He has these spells, you know. He's never been strong.' AITC

4812 pull out/out of[4] [A1 nom A2 pass B1i nom pass adj B2 pass] (cause to) withdraw, retire (from). S: [A1] O: [B1] troops, force; trade mission; diplomatic representative. o: colony, base, occupied territory ▫ [A1] I had lain in the grass and impotently watched the enemy pulling out below me. SD ▫ [A1] If he agrees, Britain will be failing to make the clean pull-out (or: to pull out cleanly) which is essential to the Government's strategy. OBS ▫ [A2] I want to state — as I pull out of active employment — how I think the land should be made to lie. MFM ▫ [B1] The 'withdrawal' now talked about in Britain is the far more radical one of pulling out British troops. ST

4813 pull over [A1 B1ii pass] move towards the roadside, either to stop or to allow other vehicles to overtake. S: [A1] O: [B1] car, lorry. S: [A1 B1] driver, motorist ▫ I shouted to the driver of the tractor to pull over and let me through. ▫ Having stopped the driver, the traffic policeman asked if he would kindly pull his car over to the side of the road.

4814 pull the wool over sb's eyes [B2 pass] (informal) conceal one's true actions or intentions from sb by a display of virtue. o: (of) employer, teacher, husband ▫ 'I'm afraid you can't pull the wool over the eyes of the Tax Inspectors. They have ways of finding out.' ▫ 'She's had the wool pulled over her eyes for years. You don't imagine he always travels to London on business, do you?'

4815 pull round[1] [B1ii pass] force sb or sth to face another way (esp in the opposite direction). O: nose, tail (of an aircraft); bow, stern (of a boat) ▫ A tug pulled the bow of the ship round. ▫ A hand descended on his shoulder, and he was pulled round to face a pair of glaring eyes.

4816 pull round[2] [A1 B1ii pass] (informal) (help to) regain consciousness ▫ 'How long will she take to pull round after her operation?' ▫ (of a person injured in an accident) 'Loosen his clothes and give him a little brandy: that'll soon pull him round.'

4817 pull through[1] [A1 A2 pass B1ii pass B2 pass] (help to) recover (from an illness); (help to) survive a period of danger or crisis. S: [A1] O: [B1] patient; country, firm. o: sickness; time of trial, emergency ▫ [A1] The patient has an excellent chance of pulling through. ▫ [B2] It was this spirit which pulled them through the darkest moments of the war.

4818 pull through[2] [B1i nom pass adj] (military) clean the bore of a rifle by drawing through it an oily rag attached to a cord. O: rifle, revolver ▫ Rifles should be regularly pulled through with a piece of flannelette. ▫ the pull-through is the weighted cord to which the rag is fastened.

4819 pull to pieces[1] [B2 pass] separate the parts of sth by force; pull apart[1] (q v). O: model, construction; garment, cloth; prey □ The rags are washed and pulled to pieces by machine. □ A tiger can pull a roebuck to pieces in a matter of minutes.

4820 pull to pieces[2] [B2 pass] criticize severely, find serious faults in; pull apart[2] (q v). O: persons; theory, argument, case; evidence □ The new theory of the origin of the universe was pulled to pieces by many of the world's leading astronomers. □ The poor woman was pulled to pieces by her neighbours. Her hair-style, her clothes, her make-up, her accent, her political opinions: nothing escaped criticism.

4821 pull together[1] [A1] act in concert, combine efforts □ If we all pull together*, we should be able to get the country out of the mess it's in.* □ The old habit of looking well after the wage earners (ie in working-class families) is still alive; so is the stress on the need for all to pull together. UL

4822 pull together[2] [B1i pass] draw the parts of sth closer to each other, restore its wholeness or unity. O: assembly, party, regiment, (industrial) company, country □ There is the NATO alliance, which will soon disintegrate unless we do something to pull it together. MFM □ It was he more than anybody who pulled the Party together after our defeat in the last election.

4823 pull oneself together [B1il] (informal) take command of oneself, take firm control of one's feelings and impulses and begin to behave purposefully □ She had her ups and downs, but she had always managed to pull herself together and have a good time. H □ Under their patronizing and hostile stares he pulled himself together*, walked into the kitchen, and sat down on a chair.* HD

4824 pull under [B1il pass] drag below the surface (of a river, the sea). S: △ the current, undertow □ The currents were deceptively strong at this point, and nobody would swim for fear of being pulled under.

4825 pull up[1] [A1 nom B1i pass] stop, halt. S: [A1] O: [B1] car, lorry. S: [A1 B1] driver, motorist □ More slowly than usual he drove towards his office. At last he pulled up. PW □ He pulled his car up within a few yards of the wreckage. □ His pursuer pulled up short to greet us with an affable little bow. BM □ a pull-up is a café where drivers (usu of commercial vehicles) can stop for refreshments. ⇨ pull in/into[2].

4826 pull up[2] [B1ii pass] (stop in order to) check or reprimand □ ALISON: I'm sorry. I'll go now. (She starts to move upstage. But his voice pulls her up.) JIMMY: You never even sent any flowers to the funeral. LBA □ Even his wife had to pull him up over his wrong-headed notions this afternoon. RM

4827 pull up[3] [A1 B1ii pass] improve one's position (in a race, contest etc). S: [A1] O: [B1] pupil, competitor. S: [B1] marks, points; performance, effort □ His mark in the geography paper pulled him up several places. □ He pulled up to within a few yards of the leaders.

4828 pull one's socks up [B1i] (informal) take command of oneself, become more purposeful and alert □ PENNY: Please Peter, pull yourself together. PETER: Leave me alone. ALEX: Pull up your socks*, son.* DPM □ If he wants to be considered for promotion next year, he'd better pull his socks up.

4829 pull oneself up by one's own bootlaces/bootstraps [B1il] (informal) try to improve one's position by one's own unaided efforts □ We can't expect countries with problems of bad feeding and disease to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps. □ Unable to borrow capital to repair and modernize its plant, the company was forced to pull itself up by its own bootlaces.

4830 pump in/into[1] [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] cause sth to flow in by using a pump. O: gas, air; oil, water. o: tank, reservoir □ Millions of gallons of liquid oxygen were pumped into the fuel tanks. □ Too much oil had been pumped in*, and it overflowed everywhere.*

4831 pump in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) cause sb to learn or acquire by force or persuasion. O: facts, information. o: head, brain □ It's a hard job pumping facts and figures into unwilling pupils. □ Pump enough propaganda in*, and they'll believe anything.*

4832 pump in/into[3] [B1i pass B2 pass] put money in, with a view to giving support, earning interest etc. O: money, capital. o: industry, company □ There may be strong social reasons why the Government should pump money into industries which, economically, seem no longer viable. □ Nigeria's economy is booming and foreign companies are confidently pumping in capital.

4833 pump out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass] cause sth to flow out by using a pump. O: gas, air; oil, water. o: balloon; tank, sump, hold □ They pursued two ideas: the first was to pump the oil out*; the second was to refloat the ship.* OBS □ The petrol is pumped out of the spare tank and into the main tank.

4834 pump out of [B2 pass] (informal) cause sb to reveal sth by applying pressure. O: information, story □ We pumped the full story out of him little by little.

4835 pump up[1] [B1i pass adj] cause sth to rise by using a pump. O: (crude) oil, water □ The oil is pumped up from deep underground reservoirs.

4836 pump up[2] [B1i pass adj] inflate, fill with air etc, using a pump; blow up[5] (q v). O: tyre, balloon, (air-)mattress □ Pump the tyres up hard before going out on the road. □ The newly pumped-up balloons suddenly began to burst as the heat increased.

4837 punch down/in [B1i pass adj] drive below the surface of a plank etc, using a (nail) punch. O: nail, tack □ You should punch down any old nails or screws before attempting to lay a carpet or linoleum. □ Punch in the nails and then fill the holes flush with putty.

4838 punch out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass] cut from wood, metal etc, using a sharp tool called a 'punch'; stamp out/out of (q v). O: disc, strip; coin, button □ The figures are punched out of a continuous strip of cardboard. □ The machine punches out hundreds of coins in an hour.

4839 punch up[1] [B1i pass] cause a machine to register a certain amount (esp of money) by striking a key sharply. O: £2·25, ten dollars fifty □ She punched up the cost of our groceries on the cash register.

4840 punch up[2] [A1 nom] (informal) have a (fist) fight, exchange punches □ If there is any punching up between the two (sides), it's going to be here. BBCTV □ He was involved in some punch-up after an all-night party. □ usu nom.

4841 purge (of) [B2 pass] (formal) free, cleanse, from. o: △ guilt, shame, sin □ After making a full confession, he felt purged of any sense of sin.

4842 purse up [A1 B1i pass adj] (of the lips) draw together in tight folds (usu as a sign of disapproval or displeasure). S: [A1] O: [B1] lips, mouth □ While he told his mildly shocking stories, she would sit with pursed-up lips.

4843 push about/around [B1ii pass] (informal) order sb to do this and that in a bullying tone; order about/around (q v) □ 'I won't be pushed around by him any longer!' □ 'I wish he'd stop pushing people about as though they were children.' □ 'You may be able to push your brother around*, but you'd better not try it on with me.'*

4844 push ahead/forward/on [A1] advance in a steady, determined way; press ahead/forward/on (q v). S: team, expedition, army □ I was asked to push on and help the Fifth Army. MFM □ We pushed on and now there was no doubt about the right direction: we came in sight of the walls of Pekin. BM

4845 push ahead/forward/on (with) [A1 A3 pass] continue in a determined way (to carry sth out). o: proposals, plans, scheme □ Now that problem is solved, there is nothing to stop us pushing ahead*.* □ We are pushing forward with our plan to complete an inner ring road. □ Redevelopment must be pushed on with as fast as money permits.

4846 push along [A1] (informal) (of a guest) leave one's host □ 'I'm afraid I really ought to be pushing along now.' □ 'It's time I was pushing along*.'* □ used by a guest as a polite, though informal formula when taking leave; also, even more informally, push off[2] (q v).

push around [B1ii pass] ⇨ push about/around.

4848 push aside [B1i pass] push sb firmly (or roughly) to one side. S: steward, guard. O: spectator, bystander □ The order came to clear the hall. People standing in the aisles were roughly pushed aside*.* □ When the government took office, the inexperienced young hopefuls were pushed aside in the scramble for places.

4849 push back[1] [B1i pass] move sb back under firm pressure, cause to retreat. S: police; army. O: crowd; enemy □ The demonstrators were pushed back behind the crush barriers. □ The invaders were pushed back beyond their own frontiers.

4850 push back[2] [B1i pass adj] move sth back that has slipped forward out of its usual place. O: glasses, hair, hat □ (radio review of a play) 'And then, the little habit he had of pushing his spectacles back on his nose.' BBCR □ She kept pushing back wisps of hair that fell over her eyes.

4851 push by/past [A1 A2] move past sb, pressing against him, or pushing him to one side □ A number of latecomers pushed past us to reach their seats (e g at the cinema). □ A waiter pushed by me, almost knocking the glass from my hand. □ 'The next time he tries to push by*, trip him up! That way, he may learn some good manners!'*

4852 push (for) [A2 pass B2 pass] make repeated and urgent requests (for); press (for) (q v). O: chairman; debtor. o: debate, adjournment; payment □ A small faction is pushing hard for new talks (or: pushing hard to get new talks). □ Don't push him too hard for a settlement.

push forward[1] [A1] advance in a steady way. ⇨ push ahead/forward/on.

4854 push forward[2] [B1i pass] force sb or sth upon the attention of others, so as to obtain their assent, favours, custom. O: oneself; child, relative; claim, case; product, ware □ He's never been one to push himself forward*.* □ He pushed forward his claim to be considered the rightful heir.

push forward (with) [A1 A3 pass] ⇨ push ahead/forward/on (with).

4856 push home [B1i pass] make, administer, forcefully; press home (q v). O: attack; charge, accusation □ Resistance had been obstinate and the attack was pushed home with every sort of savagery. SD □ He had now found the weakness in his adversary's case, and he pushed home his points with vigour.

4857 push off[1] [A1 B1i nom pass] move out into the stream by pushing against the bank with a pole or oar; shove off[1] (q v); set in motion, start. S: [A1 B1] boatman, sailor. O: punt, dinghy □ Bill pushed us off (or: gave us a push-off) and we went skimming away from the shore. □ *'*Push off as soon as you're ready!' □ Listen to the excellent symphony orchestra that Malcolm Sargeant has pushed off in Palestine. SD push on [A1] ⇨ push ahead/forward/on.

4858 push off[2] [A1] (informal) leave, go away; push along (q v) □ 'Well, I'll push off*,' the girl said. 'See you later, Charlie.'* DBM □ He comes into town periodically, looks up a few friends, and then pushes off again. □ even more informally, shove off[2] (q v).

push on (with) [A1 A3 pass] ⇨ push ahead/forward/on (with).

4861 push the boat out [B1ii] (informal) hold a cheerful, boisterous party (with drink, singing, dancing etc). S: club, society, college □ Do you remember how we pushed the boat out the night that we won back the championship?

4862 push over [B1i pass] make sb or sth overturn or fall to the ground by pushing him or it. O: him etc; vase, ornament; bucket, jug □ I was nearly pushed over by a crowd of boys suddenly pouring out of the school gates. □ One or two tables were pushed over in the scramble.

4863 push-over [nom (B1)] (informal) an easy triumph or victory (over sb) □ Saturday's match should be a push-over for Leeds: they're playing a fourth division team.

push past [A1 A2] ⇨ push by/past.

4865 push through [B1i pass B2 pass] make a (legislative etc) body pass or enact sth by applying steady pressure. O: measure, reform; Bill. o: parliament, committee □ We're trying to push legislation through before the Christmas recess. □ You can't push proposals on this sort of scale through the Finance Committee.

4866 push up [B1i pass] increase at a steady rate. O: temperature, pressure; price, wage □ Wage increases have pushed up the price of electricity. □ The usual drinking parties at New Year will push the road death figures up*.* BBCTV

4867 push up daisies [B1iii] (informal) be dead and in one's grave □ I'm not worried about twenty years from now: in twenty years' time I shall be pushing up daisies. □ And where are all these brave fellows who were going to change the world? — Pushing up daisies!

4868- put about[1] [A1 B1ii pass] (nautical) (cause to) change direction. S: [A1] O: [B1] boat, ship □ The skipper put us about to avoid submarines that had been reported in that area. ⇨ bring about[2], come about[2], go about[5].

4869- put about[2] [B1i pass] circulate, pass from one person to another. O: tale, rumour; it... that he was being dismissed, it... that wages were going up □ Somebody has put the story about that the Department is being closed down. □ It was put about that he was seeing a great deal of a certain young lady. ⇨ get about[2], go about[2].

4870- put above [B2 pass emph rel] regard, treat, as more important than; put before[1] (q v). O: (national) survival, recovery; honour, integrity. o: all else; safety, self-interest □ Above such considerations of cost we should put the welfare of the men who work the machines. □ The investigations reveal that few men were determined to put the integrity of the Administration above its survival.

4871- put across[1] [B1i pass] communicate, convey; persuade others to like or accept; put over (to) (q v). O: idea, thought; scheme, plan; oneself □ He may be a very clever research worker, but he's very poor at putting the stuff across to a class. □ He finds it hard to put himself across to a selection board. ⇨ come across[2], get across (to).

4872- put across[2] [B2 pass] (informal) trick sb into accepting or believing sth; put over (on) (q v). O: ⚠ it; this, one; anything, something. o: teacher, employer, judge □ You'd better not try to put anything across him. □ He put one across the police once, but they're not likely to be caught a second time.

4873- put the cat among the canaries/pigeons [B2 pass] (informal) excite strong emotions, esp shock, dismay, anger □ I then said that I had never known the Services reduced to such a parlous condition. This fairly put the cat among the canaries. MFM □ 'By jove, if the monster started rutting next October that would put the cat among the pigeons, what?' RM

4874- put aside[1] [B1i pass] place to one side, abandon; set aside[1] (q v) (to free oneself for another activity). O: book, knitting; study, subject □ She put her needlework aside, and we had a talk. □ He put aside his textbooks when he left school and never reopened them. □ They put aside their rifles and packs and resumed a peaceful life.

4875- put aside[2] [B1i pass] save for spending later; save, reserve, an article for a customer who cannot afford to pay for it now; put on one side[1] (q v). O: money, cash; suit, dress □ I've a nice little sum of money put aside for a rainy day. □ 'If you'd like to pay me a small deposit, I'll put the suit aside for you, sir.'

4876- put aside[3] [B1i pass] forget, disregard; put on one side[2] (q v). O: grievance, difference; bitterness, hatred □ At such a time of crisis, we must try to put aside all differences of party or class. □ Put aside all that has happened and try to start again.

4877- put at [B2 pass] calculate, estimate, to be. O: age, size, height, capacity. o: fifty, 12 by 10 metres, thirty feet, ten gallons □ 'What would you put the outer radius at*?'* TBC □ I'd put the weight at about fourteen pounds.

4878- put at his ease [B2 pass] make sb feel free from anxiety or embarrassment. S: ruler, commander, manager; distinguished guest. O: subordinate, member of staff □ Being well aware that those on the civil side were apprehensive of what I might do, I took great trouble to put them at their ease. MFM □ They were seated in armchairs, offered cigarettes, and generally put at their ease.

4879- put at a premium [B2 pass] make especially important, set a special value upon; put a premium on (q v). S: situation, circumstances; crisis, emergency. O: skill, intelligence; cunning, deception □ Our dependence on overseas trade puts drive and resourcefulness in the export industries at a premium. □ In these communities loyalty to the family is put at a premium.

4880- put away[1] [B1i pass] put sth in a box, drawer etc, because one has finished using it, to make a room tidy etc. O: paper, book; doll, toy. □ The correspondence was all put away in numbered files. □ The other day I found an old doll. I had to put it away again because he wouldn't touch it. DC ⇨ be away.

4881- put away[2] [B1i pass] save, put by (q v). O: a good amount, a tidy sum, a fortune □ She's got a pound or two put away in National Savings. □ I'll have to put something away for my retirement.

4882- put away[3] [B1i pass] (informal) confine, esp in a mental home. O: mental patient, psychotic □ It was like those nightmares in which the dreamer sees himself put away for lunacy. HD □ He was put away for attacking young children.

4883- put away[4] [B1i pass] (informal) consume considerable quantities of food and drink; tuck away[1] (q v) □ I don't know how he manages to put it all away. □ He put away half a dozen cakes while my back was turned.

4884- put away[5] [B1i pass] (informal) destroy, kill, usu because of old age or illness; put down[7] (q v). S: veterinary surgeon. O: dog, cat □ The dog Billy was dying, and in September he had to be put away. RFW

4885- put back[1] [B1i pass] replace, return. O: book, record □ 'Kindly put the book back in its proper place.' □ I recaptured (the animal) and put him back in the tin without much opposition. DF ⇨ be back[2], get back[3].

4886- put back[2] [B1i pass] move the hands of a clock back to conform with the end of official Summer Time, or to give the correct time. O: clock, watch □ All the clocks should have been put back one hour last night. □ ' Your watch is fast; put it back ten minutes.' ⇨ go back[3]; put forward[3].

4887- put back[3] [B1i pass] move to a later time or date. O: party, wedding; programme, exercise; date, time □ The invasion was put back twenty-four hours while the chiefs waited for better weather reports. □ The date had been put back from March to April. NM

4888- put back[4] [B1i pass] slow, delay, retard. O: programme; production, output □ Drought has put our agricultural programme back to where we started from. □ The strike of drivers has put our deliveries back one month.

4889- put the clock back [B1i pass] return to the past, restore the institutions and values of the past □ All this Anglo-Catholicism (a form of Christianity which revived certain medieval features of Christian worship) makes him think we can put the clock back, but there's a tough core of common sense there, all the same. ASA □ (radio programme 'Today') The 'Mirror' says nobody can put back the clock and get rid of decimal currency. BBCR ⇨ put back².

4890 put before¹ [B2 pass emph] treat, regard, sth as more important than sth else; put above (q v). O: country, national interest; economic revival, military strength. o: self; all else, all other aims □ Before everything else we must put the rebuilding of our damaged cities. □ The determination of the Six is to put the development of the community before all other considerations. SC ⇨ come before³.

4891 put before² [B2 pass emph] present for sb's consideration. O: plan, proposal, scheme. o: committee, board □ Proposals for sweeping reform were put before the ministers. □ Before a startled meeting he put his latest demands. ⇨ be before², bring before, come before², go before², take before.

4892 put the cart before the horse [B2 pass] (informal) reverse the proper order of events, cause and effect etc □ To speak of one language for the world as leading to one purpose is to put the cart before the horse. SC □ Emotion comes first, the physiological concomitants come second. James and Lange maintain that this is putting the cart before the horse. SNP

4893 put one foot before/in front of the other [B2] (informal) (not) be able to walk. S: elderly person, invalid □ She was hardly able to put one foot before the other because of the tighness of the skirt above the ankles. AH □ He'd had so much to drink that he couldn't put one foot in front of the other. □ with can/could + not, hardly, scarcely.

4894 put behind bars [B2 pass] (informal) put in gaol, imprison. S: authorities; magistrate, court. O: bank-robber, gunman □ We shall sleep more soundly in our beds when this violent criminal has been put behind bars. ⇨ be behind bars.

4895 put behind one [B2 pass] not allow sth that has happened in the past to affect one in the present. O: (past) disappointments, failures; disagreements, differences □ 'His 'O' level results were disappointing, but of course he's put all that behind him now.' □ 'I know the way we were snubbed still rankles, but it's got to be put behind us now. We must co-operate with these people.'

4896 put by [B1i pass] save, put away² (q v). O: a few pounds, a small nest egg □ 'It's all right, love. I've got a bit of money put by.' TOH □ Have a bit put by for a rainy day.

4897 put down¹ [B1i pass] place on a table, shelf etc; set down sth which is a danger or nuisance to oneself or others □ She had put the sewing needle down on the chair by the window. DC □ 'Put down that knife before you hurt somebody!'

4898 put down² [A1 B1ii] land, settle. S: [A1] O: [B1] plane, helicopter □ He put the glider down in a corn-field. □ The helicopter hovered over us looking for a place to put down.

4899 put down³ [B1i pass] allow to alight. S: driver, pilot; bus, plane. O: passenger, crew □ The bus stopped at the station to put down one or two passengers. ⇨ set down¹.

4900 put down⁴ [B1i pass] place in a cellar to mature. O: wine, port, brandy □ When you see what they're charging for French wines now I'm glad I put down a couple of cases of claret and three dozen chablis last year.

4901 put down⁵ [B1i pass] suppress, silence. O: opponent, critic, rebel □ If Tvardovsky (an editor and critic) annoys the old-fashioned writers, then Tvardovsky must be cautioned, but not put down completely. OBS

4902 put down⁶ [B1iii pass] suppress, abolish. O: organized crime, vice; gambling, prostitution □ They introduced measures aimed at putting down, or at least restricting, organized gambling. □ Off-course betting ought to be put down!

4903 put down⁷ [B1i pass] destroy, kill, because it is old or sick; put away⁵ (q v); destroy because it is a nuisance or danger. O: pest, vermin; rat, rabbit □ They have become pests and have to be put down. OBS □ We tried putting down mice and other small vermin with poison.

4904 put down⁸ [B1i pass] enter, record; write down (q v). O: name, address; thought, impression □ When the lists were first drawn up, you put your name down mechanically. CON □ One feels almost ashamed of putting it (this view) down in black and white again.* SNP □ Put the date down in your diary so that you don't forget it.* ⇨ be down³, get down⁴, go down⁹, set down², take down³.

4905 put down⁹ [B1iii pass] (Parliament) table, include in the agenda, for a meeting or debate. O: motion, resolution □ Some MPs are in favour of putting down a resolution which would come before the Parliamentary Labour Party. OBS □ The Conservatives may put down a censure motion on the Government's handling of the Torrey Canyon affair. OBS

4906 put one's foot down¹ [B1ii] (informal) press down the accelerator, causing the vehicle to travel faster □ Don't think, when you reach the motorway, that you can just put your foot down and relax. □ He put his foot right down on the accelerator and felt the car surge forward.

4907 put one's foot down² [B1ii] (informal) assert one's authority, adopt a strong position against some course of action □ *Isobel was longing to be called up for service. But here her father unexpectedly put his foot down (and forbade her to join up). PW □ 'Robin doesn't seem to see that there has to be some hierarchy in the place!' 'Then you must put your foot down, darling.' ASA

4908 put down roots [B1iii] adopt a settled way of life (e g by buying a house, starting a family) □ Once I took a wife I should have to put down roots and settle for a definite way of life. CON

4909 put down as¹ [B3 pass] write, enter, sb or sth in a record, or on a form (often with a view to misleading or deceiving sb else). O: private spending, holiday trip; oneself; girlfriend. o: business expenses, necessary journey; self-employed; wife □ When travelling abroad, Smith often puts down the cost of entertainment as business expenses. □ She was put down in the hotel register as Mrs Jones. □ *He put himself down on the Income Tax Returns as 'unemployed'. ⇨ be down as.

4910 put down as[2] [B3 pass] consider to be, take to be. o: commercial traveller, retired officer □ Noticing his military bearing, I put him down as a retired major. □ He was put down as an ordinary waiter and passed almost unnoticed among the others.

4911 put down for[1] [B3 pass] record that sb is willing to contribute to charity, buy sth at sale etc. o: a dozen raffle tickets; fifty pounds; two suits □ 'How many tickets shall I put you down for?' 'Half a dozen.' □ You can put me down for fifty Preference Shares.

4912 put down for[2] [B3 pass] enter a child's name for admission to a school (esp a fee-paying boarding-school). O: son, name. o: Westminster, St. Paul's □ Inflation does not seem to have affected the demand for places at public schools. Children's names are still put down at birth for those with the best academic records (or those conferring the greatest social cachet). ⇨ be down for.

4913 put down to[1] [B3 pass] enter an amount in a particular account. o: expenses, petty cash □ You can put the lunch down to my account. □ Expenditure on Christmas decorations was put down to petty cash.

4914 put down to[2] [B3 pass] regard as being due to, give as the explanation for. O: outburst, scene; behaviour, conduct; epidemic, famine. o: temper, ignorance, poor breeding; inadequate precautions, bad transport □ I did notice that you were depressed, but I put it down to drink. ASA □ I know he'd got a bit pompous, but I put that down to Marie Helene (his wife). ASA □ The shortage can be put down to bad planning.

4915 put forth[1] [B1iii pass] (formal) sprout; display, put out[3] (q v). O: shoot, bud, (young) leaf □ In the Spring, the hedgerows put forth new buds.

4916 put forth[2] [B1iii pass] (formal) exert, display; put out[8] (q v). O: vigour, strength, energy □ The day was superb, and here was the College putting forth all its beauty. HD

4917 put forward[1] [B1i pass] advance, propose, suggest. O: argument, theory; proposal, suggestion; plan, scheme □ A German member put forward a code of legal conduct for astronauts approaching a new planet. TO □ It's an explanation often put forward by our friend: he's convinced that economics is at the bottom of everything.

4918 put forward[2] [B1i pass] propose, recommend. O: oneself; colleague, employee. A: as a candidate; for promotion; for an award, honour, title □ His name was put forward for inclusion in the Honours List. □ He was put forward as the man most likely to win the ear of the conference.

4919 put forward[3] [B1i pass] move the hands of a clock forward (clockwise), advance the hands. O: clock, watch □ Clocks should be put forward one hour tonight at the beginning of official Summer Time. □ 'Put your watch forward: you're five minutes slow.' ⇨ put back[2].

4920 put one's best foot forward [B1ii] (informal) make haste, hurry □ If you want to get home by nightfall, you'll have to put your best foot forward. □ The work force put its best foot forward to meet the promised delivery date.

4921 put in[1] [A1] interrupt another speaker (to say sth), interpose, interject □ 'It's the firm's time,' Baxter insisted. 'He's carrying out an experiment,' I put in. CON □ 'I'm sure you saw the monster.' 'It was more like a spout,' the stalker put in. RM

4922 put in[2] [B1i pass] include, insert (in a narrative, account etc). O: comma, full stop; detail, episode □ Put in the proper punctuation marks. □ 'Don't forget to put in the bit about Jim falling into the river!' □ 'And you can put in that I was prepared to be helpful.'

4923 put in[3] [B1i pass] devote, spend. O: two weeks, some time □ Harold consciously tried to put in a quarter of an hour each day improving his putting (i e at golf). PW □ Put in a few hours of careful weeding and he'll be pleased! WI □ Put in some time asking yourself why. EHOW □ often followed by the -ing form of a v.

4924 put in[4] [B1i pass] fit, install. O: cork, plug; central heating, new plumbing □ 'Put the cork back in the bottle.' □ We're putting in a completely new system of wiring and switches. □ We've pulled out the old pipes and put in copper ones. ⇨ go in[3].

4925 put in[5] [B1i pass] give duties to (usu in a building, office block etc). O: guard, night-watchman □ They've put in a caretaker to keep an eye on people coming in and out of the building. □ A security man was put in to check on doors and windows.

4926 put in[6] [B1i pass] (politics) elect (to office). O: Labour, the Conservatives □ Labour was put in with an increased majority at the last General Election. ⇨ be in[4], come in[3], get in/into[3].

4927 put in[7] [B1i pass] (cricket) ask the opposing team to bat (e g after winning the toss); tell a member of one's own side to bat. S: captain, skipper. O: side, team; (fast-scoring) batsman □ The home side put the visitors in to bat on a fast wicket, and had half of them out before tea. ⇨ be in[5], go in[4].

4928 put (all) one's eggs in one basket [B2 pass] (informal) give all one's attention to a single end (e g by loving one person to the exclusion of all others); risk all that one has in a single venture (e g by using all one's troops in one attack) □ He can't reconcile himself to living with one woman for ever — to putting all his emotional eggs in one basket. □ Office development in the City — now that's one basket you shouldn't put all your eggs in. □ His eggs have been put in too many baskets. □ note the pl forms: several, too many baskets, suggesting the spreading of interests or resources.

4929 put in an/one's appearance [B1iii] (informal) appear (often briefly) at a function, parade etc from a sense of obligation or good form (not for pleasure or out of interest). S: VIP, minister, director □ Jeremy put in a brief appearance towards the end of our party, and was then wafted off somewhere more important. □ 'Wait five minutes — just to show you've put in an appearance — and then go for a drink.' □ He waited for the right moment to put in his appearance — just as supper was about to be served.

4930 put in an awkward etc position [B2 pass rel] make things awkward etc for sb. adj: awkward, difficult, embarrassing, impossible □ The support given to the rebels by local officials put the government in a difficult position. □ This then is the difficult position in which we are put by their refusal to co-operate. □ Is that all you can say? 'I'm sorry'? Such an awkward position I put you in*, don't I?* FFE

4931 put one's foot in it [B2] (informal) say sth embarrassing or hurtful, out of thoughtlessness or insensitivity, thus making oneself appear foolish □ I just said what came into my head, and there I go, putting my foot in it as usual. AITC □ There is a dazzling reward for allowing your best friend to make advances to your young woman in your presence — that of seeing him put his foot in it*.* SPL

4932 put a (good) word in [B1i pass] (informal) speak or testify on sb's behalf. A: for me, on my behalf, in his defence, in support of her □ 'Here, Lumley,' he called, as the policeman marched him away, 'you put in a word for me, will you?' HD □ The Head was always prepared to put a good word in for his former pupils.

4933 put in inverted commas [B2 pass] place a word or phrase between quotation marks to indicate that one is specially conscious of it (e g because it is foreign or a slang term); in speech, pronounce a word etc with special intonation (for the same reasons as above). □ He was so ashamed and suspicious of the word 'love' that he had to put it in inverted commas*.* PW □ Until borrowed words are fully assimilated into the language they are often put in inverted commas*.*

4934 put in jeopardy [B2 pass] threaten, menace, endanger. O: trade, communications; security, vital interests. adj: grave, serious □ The chances of an important representative match at Twickenham are put in jeopardy by the weather. T □ The hold-up in the supply of fuel puts our whole advance in jeopardy*.* ⇨ be in jeopardy.

4935 put in mind of [B2 pass] remind of, call to mind; suggest a similarity to □ Sudden and grateful immersion in country air and country silence puts me in mind of an observation by Norman Douglas. AH □ She made love strenuously; I was put in mind of a hard set of mixed tennis. RATT

4936 put in a nutshell [B2 pass] state in a few words, succinctly. O: △ it, the whole thing; the matter, problem, question □ Alexis puts it in a nutshell*: losing power is the most dreadful prospect that a politician can think of.* TBC □ The whole position was put in a nutshell by none other than Daniel Defoe. SNP

4937 put in order [B2 pass] arrange tidily, according to a pattern. O: papers, books; study, office; affairs, business □ His study is a chaos: his housekeeper has long since given up trying to put his papers in order*.* □ Congress has suggested that the union should put its affairs in order*.*

4938 put one's (own) house in order [B2 pass] organize one's (own) affairs efficiently. S: government; management, administration; military command □ At present (1958) NATO is in the doldrums. It needs to put its house in order while the going is good. MFM □ Britain must not abandon for ever the idea of joining the Common Market. The immediate task is to put her own house in order*.* T □ These companies must first put their own houses in order*; then they may qualify for development grants.*

4939 put in the picture [B2 pass] (informal) give sb up-to-date information about sth. O: staff, colleagues; one's family □ Details of the campaign were kept secret until the last moment; then the men were put in the picture*.* □ You've got to put me in the picture*. What's this business with your Philip?* EHOW ⇨ be in the picture.

4940 put in his place [B2 pass] by exerting one's authority, remind sb of his junior status □ Any junior boy who tried to address a prefect would be put very firmly in his place*.* □ His manner indicated that the subject was closed, and I'd been put in my place*.* RATT □ note pl form: We were put firmly in our places*.*

4941 put oneself in sb's place/shoes [B2] try, by an effort of sympathy, to share the feelings of another person □ Try to put yourself in his shoes*. Would you have behaved any differently in the circumstances?* □ Remembering our own bereavements and humiliations, we can condole with others, we can put ourselves in their places*.* DOP

4942 put in the shade [B2 pass] (informal) by one's own success, eminence etc, make that of others appear of small account. O: achievement, effort □ You can do a big dash (= sprint) later that puts everybody else's hurry in the shade*.* LLDR □ The first part of the programme was put in the shade by the appearance of the star attraction.

4943 put a sock in it [B2] (slang) behave in a more lively and energetic way □ You'll need to put a sock in it if you want to attract an audience to your show. □ *'Put a sock in it! I want this stuff moved before the end of the morning.'* □ usu direct or indirect command.

4944 put a spoke in sb's wheel [B2 pass] (informal) stop or hinder sb's activities (which may be unpleasant or dishonest) □ 'No, you can't get out of it as easily as all that, Miss Richards — it's about time that someone put a spoke in your little wheel*.'* TT □ She did not spare him, and if he lost his flicker of self-assurance, she welcomed it. She had put a spoke in that wheel*, anyway.* PW

4945 put that in one's pipe and smoke it [B2] (informal) tell an opponent (when taking an independent and defiant stand) to accept and digest an upleasant fact □ I'm not going to become a Catholic so they can put that in their pipe and smoke it*.* HAA □ We weren't going to shift our ground one bit, and he could put that in his pipe and smoke it*.* □ usu with the imper, or can/could. Note pl form: 'You can put that in your pipes and smoke it*'* and compare the first example.

4946 put one's trust in [B2 emph rel] trust, regard as reliable or dependable. adj: one's; no, (not) any/much, (not) a lot of. o: God, Church; friend, ally; sb's story, account □ They did not put their trust in the information they received from the well-tried and veteran staff of the Eighth Army. MFM □ He was still putting his trust in material efficiency, in 'getting on'. CON □ There was no-one around him in whom he felt he could put very much trust*.*

4947 put in the wrong [B2 pass] make it seem, perhaps unjustly, that sb else is to blame for sth; act wrongly, thus losing any moral advantage. O: colleague, wife; oneself □ He's always trying to put me in the wrong*; in this way he hopes to* spoil my relationship with my students. ◻ If I hadn't put myself in the wrong by doing that, I might have taken a high moral line about the typescript. UTN ⇨ be in the wrong.

4948 put in (for) [A1 A3 pass B1i pass B3 pass] submit, make, enter, sth (for). O: application, claim, request, demand. o: job, promotion; leave; expenses ◻ [A3] I'd like to put in for a posting up north or somewhere, but they'd never let me go. RFW ◻ [B3] A claim has been put in for higher wages. ◻ [A1 B1] He's due for some leave and is thinking of putting in (an application). ⇨ be in for[2].

4949 put in for[1] [B3 pass] (sport) enter sb's name as a competitor, enter for (q v). S: coach, club. O: athlete; runner, long-jumper. o: event, race ◻ We're thinking of putting young Peter in for the 100 metres and the discus. ⇨ be in for[1], go in for[1].

4950 put in for[2] [B3 pass] recommend, propose sb as deserving, as being a suitable applicant for. S: superior officer, employer. o: award, decoration; post, job, transfer ◻ His commanding officer is putting him in for the Victoria Cross. ◻ He's being put in for something on the administrative side.

4951 put in touch (with) [B2 pass] cause persons to meet; bring into contact (with) (q v), put on to[1] (q v) ◻ I got put on to the idea of Alcoholics Anonymous. They put me in touch with a marvellous woman. ASA ◻ He put Father in touch with another collector (or: put Father and another collector in touch). ◻ They were put in touch by a church organization. ⇨ be in touch (with).

put one foot in front of the other [B2] ⇨ put one foot before/in front of the other.

4953 put in/into[1] [A1 A2] (nautical) call, dock, moor (at). S: ship, boat. o: harbour, port. A: at a port, at Singapore; for a refit, for supplies ◻ We'll put in at the next port for refuelling. ◻ The yachts put in to shelter from the storm. ◻ The 'Norfolk Yeoman' put into Newlyn yesterday with a catch of gleaming fresh mackerel. OBS

4954 put in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] devote, expend (in doing sth). O: effort, work, thought, planning. o: arranging, finishing ◻ He's the boy who goes over the stack of battered old recordings. I call my memory and put in some work with a sapphire needle. TC ◻ A lot of careful planning was put into making the day a success.

4955 put the fear of death/God in/into/up [B2 pass] (informal) thoroughly frighten sb; force sb to submit or obey by the strength of one's authority. S: explosion, accident; boss, schoolmaster, sergeant-major, mother-in-law ◻ 'The question is,' said Rose, 'who's the fellow that's trying to put the fear of God in us?' MM ◻ The drill sergeant begins by putting the fear of death into every new recruit. ◻ He'd had the fear of God put up him by a domineering mother. It seemed a natural transition to marry a shrewish wife.

4956 put inside [B1ii pass] (police slang) put in prison. O: criminal; burglar, shoplifter ◻ One of your scientists has been giving us away. They're going to put him inside soon. NM ◻ He's been put inside for breaking and entering. ⇨ be inside.

4957 put into effect [B2 pass] implement sth, make sth a reality; carry out[1] (q v). S: administrator, engineer. O: plan, programme; phase, stage (of an operation) ◻ 'It's a first-rate scheme, and he's just the man to put it into effect.' ◻ Your proposal looks good on paper, but I'm not convinced it can be put into effect. ⇨ come into effect.

4958 put into force [B2 pass] cause to operate, to have the force of the law. O: law, regulation; speed limit ◻ There is pressure on the Government to put new currency regulations into force. ◻ A new upper limit on price increases has been put into force. ⇨ be in/bring into/come into force.

4959 put one's heart and soul into [B2 pass] undertake, engage in, sth with total dedication. o: profession, business; building a home, bringing up a family ◻ If each one of us puts his whole heart and soul into this next contest, then nothing can stop us. MFM ◻ Into the work of rebuilding their cities after the devastation of war, the peoples of Europe put their heart and soul.

4960 put the idea/thought into sb's head [B2 pass] make sb think or believe ◻ 'She says I've fallen in love with Alec? What could have put that idea into her head?' PW ◻ It was a question about the price of houses in York that first put into my head the thought that he had applied for another job.

4961 put ideas into sb's head [B2 pass] (informal) make sb think, without justification, that he is specially important, or entitled to some benefit; or that he is being badly served, or is in some danger. adj: (such) absurd, odd, strange ◻ He goes about putting ideas into people's heads that Utopia is just around the corner. ◻ I hope this fellow doesn't go putting ideas into the heads of these islanders that the monster is going to pay them a visit. RM ◻ Some strange ideas are being put into ignorant heads by this self-styled prophet.

4962 put into power [B2 pass] give political control to sb (esp through an election). S: voter, votes. O: party, administration ◻ An electoral landslide put the Labour Party into power in 1945. ◻ Before de Gaulle was put into power in 1958, France was often governed by unstable coalitions. ⇨ be in/come into power.

4963 put into words [B2 pass] express in words. O: emotion; fear, love, hatred, anxiety; thought, idea ◻ He could not now put into words his intense fear of the witch doll in the cupboard. DC ◻ Though they could not have put it into words, their objection to him was that he did not wear uniform. HD

4964 put words into sb's mouth [B2] suggest that sb has said, or implied, sth when in fact he has not ◻ 'I'll understand if you haven't a place for me,' she said. 'Who said I hadn't? Don't put words into my mouth, Virginia.' AITC ◻ 'Now you're putting words into my mouth. When did I say anything about moving?' ◻ note pl form: 'Don't go putting words into people's mouths!'

4965 put off[1] [B1i pass adj] postpone, delay, defer. O: decision; party, appointment ◻ I've been putting it off and not thinking about it, hoping that something would turn up. RFW ◻ Their translation into reality is put off until the Greek Calends. SNP ◻ It's no good trying to put off the evil day (the time when sth unpleasant has to be done).

4966 put off[2] [B1i pass] discourage, prevent, from: seeing one, making contact, collecting a debt, discussing an important matter etc. O: wife, boyfriend; landlord, tradesman; visitor. A: with a promise, an excuse; by pretending to be ill, busy □ Maybe he had put her off too often when she had wanted to talk. TO □ They went out eight or ten times and then she started putting him off, just a little: he was getting possessive. H □ The grocer won't be put off with airy promises any longer; he wants his money.

4967 put off[3] [B1i pass] displease, repel. S: appearance, language; manners, breath □ He could be a good salesman, but his manner puts customers off. □ Many people are put off by his surly behaviour (or: find his surly behaviour off-putting). □ Don't be put off by her sharp tongue. □ Harold realized to his surprise that instead of being put off by Irma's lack of English he rather enjoyed teaching her. PW □ note unusual adj form off-putting.

4968 put off[4] [B1i pass] distract (from doing sth), disturb (while doing sth). S: noise, interruption; heat; insect □ He was trying to write, but the continuous noise outside his window put him off. □ His opponent's delaying tactics are designed to annoy him and put him off.

4969 put off[5] [B2 pass] cause to lose interest in, or appetite for. S: experience, incident; teacher, instructor. o: food, drink; French, maths; driving, smoking □ My drill sergeant put me off the army for good. □ She was put off learning languages by incompetent teaching. ⇨ be off[8], go off[4], turn off[2].

4970 put off[6] [B1i pass B2 pass] allow to alight or disembark; compel to alight etc. S: captain, pilot. O: passenger, stowaway. o: bus, boat, aircraft □ I asked the conductor to put me off at the cinema. □ The stowaways were put off the ship at the next port of call. □ If he makes trouble he'll be put off the plane. ⇨ get off[1], let off[1].

4971 put off[7] [B1i pass] (formal) discard, lay aside. O: uniform, regalia; care, worry, responsibility □ The war was over but Harold was still in khaki; he never looked so nearly a gentleman again when he put it off. PW □ He had put off all personal cares. RFW

4972 put off[8] [B1ii pass] send to sleep; anaesthetize. S: hot drink; injection, pill; exhaustion □ 'What about a nice cup of tea to put you off to sleep again?' DC □ A whiff of gas'll soon put you off. ⇨ go off[3].

4973 put off the scent/track/trail [B2 pass] prevent sb from following a suspect etc by giving false clues. O: policeman, detective □ Nothing would put Mr Blearney off the scent. HD □ We managed to put our pursuers off the track by walking our horses up river for a few hundred yards.

4974 put off his stride/stroke [B2 pass] (informal) disturb the rhythm or steady progress of sb's work; spoil sb's composure. S: noise, disturbance, interruption □ These telephone calls put him completely off his stroke and ruined a morning's work. □ She coloured faintly, and seemed put off her stride. US ⇨ put off[4].

4975 put on[1] [B1i pass] get dressed in, don. O: coat, hat; suit, trousers □ Put on some clothes. EHOW □ I don't know what dress to put on. ⇨ get on[1], have on[1].

4976 put on[2] [B1i pass] light, switch on. O: light, lamp; (electric/gas) fire, radiator □ 'Half a tick and I'll put on the light.' PW □ I'll put the light on. TOH ⇨ be on[8], go on[15], turn on[1].

4977 put on[3] [B1i pass] grow heavier, fatter, by a certain amount. O: (a lot of) weight; ten pounds, two kilos; two inches (round the waist) □ In the month she had been with them she hadn't put on any weight. DC □ How much (weight) did you put on over Christmas?

4978 put on[4] [B1i pass] (cricket) add runs to the score for an innings. O: fifty, one hundred (runs) □ The tail-end batsmen put on 48 between them. □ Ninety was put on for the first wicket.

4979 put on[5] [B1i pass B2 pass] add some amount to the price, cost, of. S: Government, company; budget, legislation. O: several pounds, two pence in the pound. o: price, total, bill; cost of living □ Their latest measures will put several pence on the weekly food bill. □ The bill came to two pounds but the waiter put on a few extra pence. □ This'll put pounds on the cost of living.

4980 put on[6] [B1i pass B2 pass] place (on); impose (on) (qv). O: tax, duty. o: wine, tobacco □ What'll they be putting a tax on next? □ The Government is proposing to put on a new range of taxes to pay for social services.

4981 put on[7] [B1i pass] add to existing services. O: extra train, holiday flight, ten coaches □ Southern Region are putting on ten extra trains to cope with the holiday traffic.

4982 put on[8] [B1i pass B2 pass] (racing) place money with a bookmaker, as a wager; stake on[1] (qv), wager (on) (qv). O: money, fortune. o: horse, dog □ I've put a couple of pounds on Mountain King in the three-thirty. □ Put a pound to win on Running Wild. □ 'Are you a betting man?' 'Oh, I put a few pounds on in the course of a year.' ⇨ be on[3]; put one's shirt on.

4983 put on[9] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) apply physical or moral pressure (to be unpleasant, exact favours, promises etc). O: ⚠ the screw(s), the squeeze, the heat □ He could live off the fat of the land in George's house, and see just exactly what George was worth, and put the screws on him good and proper. PE □ 'I take it you have your fighting boots on this morning? Has the Old Man been putting the screw on?' TT

4984 put on[10] [B1i pass] (cricket) give a spell of bowling to sb, bring (a bowler) into action. O: pace bowler, spinner □ He put Gibbs on to bowl from the Kirkstall Lane end. □ Sobers took the new ball after tea, and put the fast bowlers back on. ⇨ be on[4], bring on[4], come on[8].

4985 put on[11] [B1i pass] produce, present, mount. O: show, display; play, pantomime; exhibition □ Here is Claudian's description of the show put on by Manlius Theodorus in AD 399. HAH □ It was all agreed that this gallery was to put on a one-man show (exhibition of paintings). CON ⇨ be on[6], come on[11].

4986 put on[12] [B1iii pass adj] (informal) assume a manner, a pose (in order to impress, deceive). O: it; act, facade; airs; voice, accent; anger, annoyance □ She was obviously very good for Bill. He didn't have to put on an act for her. RFW □ He had his pipe at the ready in case it should be necessary to put on his don's act at short notice. HD ◻ 'He does put it on, doesn't he?' ◻ 'The expensive voice and manner are all put on, you know.'

4987-put the blame (on) [B2 pass emph rel] hold responsible (for); lay the blame (for) (on) (q v). o: leader, government; poor communications, bad weather ◻ Calamity after calamity descended upon the village, and the highly superstitious people put all the blame on Anak Agung Nura. TO ◻ Some of the blame must be put on the manager for not anticipating the shortage. ◻ They looked for someone on whom they could put the blame for this latest reverse.

4988-put a bold/brave/good face on [B2 pass] appear brave and cheerful on the surface, even though one is disappointed, defeated etc. o: △ it, things; events, proceedings ◻ After the election shock, he turned to address his supporters, determined to put as brave a face on it as he could manage. ◻ He wouldn't have been pleased, of course, but he would have shrugged his shoulders and for Isobel's sake put a good face on it. PW ◻ There is not much optimism in the air, but at least both sides are putting a brave face on proceedings. DAILY TELEGRAPH

4989-put a/the brake on [B1ii pass B2 pass] (informal) reduce the speed or activity of sth. S: government; employee; general. o: development; investment; advance ◻ The troops for the landing were taken from Alexander's force in Italy and that put a brake on his operations. MFM ◻ Mr Wilson's assertion that it is because the Government cannot restrain the City that they have to put the brake on the economy as a whole, shows how well out he is in his diagnosis. SC

4990-put one's cards on the table [B2 pass] (informal) declare openly one's assets, intentions, proposals etc; lay one's cards on the table (q v) ◻ 'I think I ought to put all my cards on the table. I'm not rich. But when my father dies I'll have about fifty thousand dollars.' QA ◻ She didn't seem excited, but this was a business deal, and he couldn't expect her to put all her cards down on the table. PW

4991-put a construction on [B2 pass emph rel] interpret in one's own individual way. adj: one's own, this, what; certain, particular; special, different. o: event, occurrence; crisis, drama ◻ The same drama may be played out before two spectators each of whom will put his own construction on it. MFF ◻ On the same collection of evidence each of the witnesses had put a different construction. ◻ 'You say that you borrowed the car, believing it to belong to a friend. Now what construction am I to put on that?'

4992-put on his/its feet [B2 pass] restore to health, prosperity; set on his/its feet (q v). S: treatment, rest; loan, capital. O: patient; country, economy ◻ They were not sympathetic to a viewpoint which might put Germany on its feet, merely to provide a market for Britain or to save the British taxpayer. MFM ◻ The factory was put back on its feet through the joint efforts of management and workers.

4993-put one's finger on [B2 rel] (informal) indicate precisely, specify exactly. o: trouble, source of danger; anomaly, fallacy ◻ I thought there was a contradiction somewhere, as there was in most of Tom's counsels, but I could not put my finger on it. SPL ◻ Both are in normal American khaki, just a little different, in ways it's difficult to put your finger on, from what they wear today. OI

4994-put the finger on [B2 pass] (slang) accuse, point an accusing finger at. o: accomplice, associate ◻ Questioned by the special investigators, Ulrich put the finger on the Attorney-General. TO ◻ He turned pale as it became clear that the finger would next be put on him.

4995-put on his guard [B2 pass] warn sb of a danger ◻ His words put me on my guard against speaking too freely over the telephone. ◻ He was put on his guard by reports of missing drugs that had been appearing in the paper. ⇨ be on one's guard.

4996-put on his honour [B2 pass] bind sb solemnly to do sth, trust sb to do sth on pain of breaking his oath. O: pupil; employee; prisoner ◻ 'Your teacher is not feeling very well, and so I am going to put you on your honour to go on with your work.' TT ◻ A prisoner on parole is put on his honour to return to custody by a certain date. ◻ often followed, as here, by an inf. ⇨ be on one's honour.

4997-put on ice [B2 pass] (informal) suspend, shelve, sth, possibly with the intention of reviving it later. O: proposal, scheme, plan ◻ The Prime Minister is speaking in a way that suggests putting the famous Peace Treaty on ice. OBS ◻ His designs will be put on ice until money is available to implement them. ⇨ be on ice.

4998-put on the map [B2 pass] (informal) make prominent, bring to the notice of the public. O: resort, festival, fair; sport, pastime ◻ Now a society wife, Barbara Goalen put modelling (the profession of mannequin) on the map. H ◻ 'This will hit the world's press. You've put General Thé on the map all right, Pyle.' QA ⇨ be on the map.

4999-put one's money on [B2] (informal) confidently expect sb or sth to succeed. o: contender, candidate; plan, idea ◻ A lot of experts, when they talk about the next Sinatra, are putting their money on Johnny Mathis. H ◻ I'm putting my money on Smith to win the next by-election. ⇨ put on[8].

5000-not to put too fine a point on it [B2] (informal) to speak bluntly, to speak the plain truth ◻ Not to put too fine a point on it, we're finished, all washed-up — it's the end of the road. ◻ To put not too fine a point on it, Querini lives by a now diminishing talent (he is nearly fifty-two) and by his wits. US ◻ a subordinate (adv) clause.

5001-put on one side[1] [B2 pass] save for use or spending later; reserve an article for a customer who cannot afford to pay for it now; put aside[2] (q v). O: product, part, component; money, cash; (new) suit ◻ The outside skin, or husk, George said, is put on one side to make bran. WI ◻ He tries to put a few pounds on one side for his old age. ◻ 'Would you like me to put the jacket on one side for you, sir?'

5002-put on one side[2] [B2 pass] forget, disregard; put aside[3] (q v). O: jealousy, suspicion, strife, dissension ◻ The detailed arguments which have been tearing the party in two could be put on one side. T ◻ Let us put on one side the fears which have divided us in the past.

5003-put a premium on [B2 pass] make sb or sth seem more important or worthwhile, set a special value upon; put at a premium (q v). S: climate, soil; danger, uncertainty. o: careful husbandry, skill; courage, endurance □ The immediate and present nature of working-class life puts a premium on the taking of pleasures now, discourages planning for the future. UL □ The sort of weather we have been having alters the character of rugby, putting a premium on forwards, with backs at a disadvantage. T

5004- put one's shirt on [B2] (informal) gamble all the money one has on a particular horse etc; be confident that sb or sth will succeed □ 'I'm putting my shirt on Devil's Disciple to win the next race.' □ You may not think that our toothpaste will corner the market, but I'd put my shirt on it. □ The scheme must have some merits: the committee are putting their shirts on it. ⇨ put on[8].

5005- put one's thinking cap on [B1i] (informal) think carefully about a problem □ Before I can give you an answer I'll have to put my thinking cap on. □ It's time they put on their thinking caps and sorted out the problems.

5006- put the (tin) lid on it/things [B2] (informal) be the final event that provokes an outburst, be the last straw □ 'After the distance I've covered today all I want is to go to bed.' That put the lid on it: he was in a bad temper. ARG □ On the way back, I had a flat tyre. And I found the spare was flat, too. That pretty well put the tin lid on things. TOLY

5007- put years on [B2 pass] make sb feel or appear older; say sth which makes sb appear older than he is or would like to feel. adj: several; ten, twenty □ The terrible events of those few months put years on him. □ GEOFF: It's your grandchild. HELEN: Oh, shut up, you put years on me. TOH

5008- put pressure on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] persuade by constant argument, the threat of force etc (to do sth). adj: a lot of, some; no, (not) any/much. o: trades union, employer; leader, governing body; neighbour, dependent □ Does any Government care about the protests of nice-minded humanitarians? They care about having pressure put on them. EHOW □ It was on the weak border states that the greatest pressure was put. □ They put pressure on the council to change its housing policy. ⇨ (the) pressure be on; put on[8].

5009- put a strain on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] place sb or sth under force or pressure so that he or it is tested and stretched. adj: a lot of, some; no, (not) any/much. o: resources, capacity; industry, agriculture; forces, nerves □ A sudden and severe strain was put upon us by the cutting off of these supplies. □ On these troops the switch in the enemy's attack put an unexpected strain.

5010- put on to[1] [B3 pass] help people to meet or speak; put in touch (with) (q v). S: receptionist, inquiry desk, telephone operator. O: caller, visitor. o: manager, secretary □ All I had to do was ring him up and he would put me on to his private secretary and she would read out a specially prepared 'release'. CON □ He insisted on being put on to the man in charge. ⇨ be on to[1], get on to[1].

5011- put on to[2] [B3 pass] inform sb of a person's whereabouts or activities so that he can be caught. S: enemy, police informer. O: police, law. o: escapee, fugitive; sb's track, trail □ Sooner or later he will be spotted in the street, and the police will be put on to him. □ He can't go on defrauding the Inland Revenue for ever: somebody some day will put the tax man on to him. ⇨ be on to[2], get on to[2].

5012- put on to[3] [B3 pass] inform sb of the existence of sth interesting or advantageous. S: agent, broker; friend, colleague. o: a good thing; bargain, snip; opening in industry, vacant post; club, holiday resort □ It was Randall who had put Stocker on to this afternoon drinking club. CON □ I was put on to this cheap line in printed cotton by a friend in the trade. ⇨ be on to a good thing.

5013- put out[1] [A1] (nautical) move towards the open sea, away from the shore. S: captain, crew; boat, ship. A: to sea; from harbour, from the shore □ We put out to sea on the early morning tide.

5014- put out[2] [B1ii pass] remove by force, eject. S: doorman, bouncer. O: troublemaker, gatecrasher, drunk □ The next time he brings his noisy friends to the club we'll have them put out. ⇨ be out[3].

5015- put out[3] [B1iii] sprout; display. S: tree, shrub. O: leaf, bud, shoot □ The plants put out early shoots. AH

5016- put out[4] [B1i pass] issue, publish, usu for a special purpose, e g to explain one's policy, apologize for delays etc. S: government department, official news agency, public relations firm. O: pamphlet, document; report, statement □ The Department of Social Security have put out a pamphlet explaining the new rates of pension for retired people. □ Head Office has put out an official statement denying press reports of a possible take-over.

5017- put out[5] [B1i pass] issue, circulate. S: police, army. O: general call, SOS; description □ A detailed description of the wanted man has been put out to all mobile patrols.

5018- put out[6] [B1i pass] broadcast, transmit, by radio or television. S: BBC, Granada Television; studio, station. O: news bulletin, sports report, talk; play, concert □ They clustered around the radio, listening to the news of the invasion put out by the BBC. RFW

5019- put out[7] [B1iii pass] produce, generate. S: power station, generator; motor, engine; battery. O: 100 kilowatts, 15 horse power □ The engine of a wartime fighter aircraft put out more than one thousand horsepower (or: had an output of more than one thousand etc). □ nom form is output.

5020- put out[8] [B1i pass] exert, display. O: strength, vigour, energy, enthusiasm □ The speech ended in an appeal to party workers to put out all their energy and enthusiasm during the electoral campaign. □ Never had our supporters put out so much effort (or: Never had there been such an output of effort from our supporters). □ nom form is output.

5021- put out[9] [B1i pass] make unconscious (by striking with the fists, with an anaesthetic etc). S: boxer, assailant; doctor, anaesthetist. O: opponent; patient □ A whiff of ether will put you out in a few seconds. □ The champion put his opponent out in the fifth round — and he stayed out. ⇨ be out[9], go out[2].

5022 put out[10] [B1i pass] extinguish; switch off[1] (q v), blow out[1] (q v). O: light, lamp; (gas, electric) fire; flame, candle □ Nurse Ellen, in Brigit's room, drew the curtains and put out the lights. DC □ The fire brigade were still putting out small fires started by the plane crash. ⇨ be out[10], go out[6], turn out[1].

5023 put out[11] [B1i pass adj] dislocate. S: accident, fall, blow. O: shoulder, knee, ankle □ He put his back out badly, falling down the stairs like that.

5024 put out[12] [B1i pass] cause an inaccuracy in sth; throw out[8] (q v). S: movement, shock; temperature, pressure. O: instrument, dial; figure, calculation, reading. A: (by) a long way, (by) ten seconds □ Inaccuracies in the measuring vessels must have put his results out by a mile. □ The final totals can have been put out by as much as five per cent. ⇨ be out[12].

5025 put out[13] [B1ii pass adj] inconvenience sb; spoil or complicate sb's arrangements. S: his sudden arrival; extra guests; a change in the programme □ 'I hope it hasn't put your housekeeper out, Mr Alexander, having three extra suddenly thrust upon her.' WI □ The hotel was seriously put out by the sudden cancellation of holiday bookings.

5026 put out[14] [B1ii pass adj] upset, dismay, worry. S: rudeness, insensitivity, tactlessness □ 'Come and lunch with me,' (said Marie-Helene). He pleaded an urgent engagement. She looked so put out that he felt he had been rude. ASA □ She was wearing her put-out expression, as she so easily can when my boorish friends are around.

5027 put out feelers [B1i pass] (informal) take exploratory steps to see if conditions are right for trade, a peace settlement etc □ Their government is putting out feelers through a neutral delegation; they are clearly anxious for a rapprochement.

5028 put out of action [B2 pass] (military) cause to stop working, firing etc. S: (enemy) fire, bombardment; artillery, aircraft. O: installation, emplacement; gun; radio □ Accurate gunnery had already put three of the leading tanks out of action. ⇨ be/go out of action.

5029 put out of business [B2 pass] (commerce) force sb to stop trading, lead to sb's commercial failure. S: economic slump, decline in efficiency, labour troubles, rising prices. O: company, firm; store, shop; artisan □ If a major manufacturer is in serious difficulties, the suppliers and contractors dependent on him may be put out of business. ⇨ go out of business.

5030 put sb's nose out of joint [B2 pass] (informal) ruffle or upset an overconfident or interfering person □ The next time he comes around cadging, I'll remind him of the five pounds he owes us: that'll put his nose out of joint. □ She didn't expect you to stand up to her as you did; her nose was put badly out of joint. □ note pl form: 'If they step in where they're not wanted, they'll get their noses put out of joint.'

5031 put out (to)[1] [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] pass all or part of a job to a manufacturer or worker who is not one's employee, and who will do the work off one's premises. S: (large) manufacturer, factory. O: work, job; fitting, finishing; (making of a) part, fitting, component. o: subcontractor, small artisan □ The manufacture of belts and buckles is put out to subcontractors. □ Already contractors are queuing outside Crook's door and about fifty per cent of the work will be put out. ST

5032 put out (to)[2] [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] lend at interest (to). S: government, bank, insurance company. o: public; borrower, mortgagor □ The building societies attract deposits from investors and then put out this money, at a higher rate of interest, to those wishing to buy houses.

5033 put over (on) [B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) get sb to accept a story, statement, claim etc that is untrue or worthless; put across[2] (q v). S: confidence trickster, (dishonest) salesman. O: ⚠ one, a fast one, something. o: uncritical public, gullible housewife □ He's not the sort of man you can put something over on. □ You get these door-to-door salesmen coming round, trying to put over a fast one on the honest citizen.

5034 put over (to) [B1i pass adj B3 pass] convey, communicate effectively (to); put across[1] (q v). S: speaker, critic, narrator. O: point, case, argument; story, tale; sincerity, conviction. o: listener, viewer □ This evening he was not putting over a story to an untried audience. ASA □ John was waving across the room and smiling with all the charm he already put over at twelve years old. ASA ⇨ get over (to).

5035 not put it past [B2] (informal) consider sb quite capable of doing sth malicious, illegal etc. O: it... to cause trouble, it... to upset people's feelings □ I wouldn't put it past him to steal money from his own grandmother. □ 'She thinks you may be the culprit.' 'I doubt it,' he said. 'Well,' she said, 'I wouldn't have put it past you.' MM □ used with would.

5036 put through[1] [B1i pass] conclude, complete; carry through[1] (q v). S: department, firm. O: programme, plan; change, reorganization □ At the moment we are trying to put through a mass literacy programme. □ The harbour redevelopment was put through in record time. ⇨ go through[9].

5037 put through[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] cause to pass through various legislative or administrative stages. O: Bill, Act, measure; scheme, idea. o: stage, phase, process □ These proposals have to be put through several committees before they become part of the constitution. □ Jones'll put it through the Faculty Board, if anybody will. ⇨ get through[3], go through[8].

5038 put through[3] [B2 pass] provide for sb so that he or she can complete (part of) his or her education. o: school, college, university □ He managed to put each of his four children through boarding school. □ He was put through university with money left by his grandfather.

5039 put through the mill [B2 pass] (informal) give to sb the severe training of practical experience. O: child, trainee, aspirant to leadership □ Most of his present officers were put through the mill; he considers battle experience more valuable than college training. □ I'd been through a Remand Home (institution for young offenders) before; and Mike was put through the same mill, because all the local cops knew he was my best pal. LLDR ⇨ be/go through the mill.

5040 put through (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] connect (with) (by telephone). S: operator, switchboard. O: caller; call □ 'An outside call, Mr Murdoch.'

'Oh, put him through.' BBCTV □ 'When Mr Parkinson comes on the line, you will put the call through to me.' TBC ⇨ be through (to), get through (to)[2].

5041 put a call through (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] make a telephone call (to). o: London, Paris; office, shop □ 'Shan't keep you waiting long: there are one or two calls I've got to put through.' □ Marlowe next put through a call to Bill Barnett of Caltech. TBC

5042 put to[1] [B2 pass rel] convey, express, communicate, to. O: point, suggestion, proposal; situation; it... that there were better times coming. o: meeting, audience; board, committee □ Let me put the situation to you as I saw it in January and February. In February I planned to take over control. TBC □ The proposals were put to us very briefly and forcibly. □ The Prime Minister can put it to his supporters that there will almost certainly be a considerable swing back to the Government. OBS □ It might be put to the delegates that any reasonable demands would be heeded.

5043 put to[2] [B2 pass emph rel] submit, pose. O: question, query, inquiry. o: panel, chairman; tribunal, board of inquiry □ 'The audience is now invited to put its questions to our visiting speaker.' □ 'To which of our experts do you wish to put that question?'

5044 put to[3] [B2 pass] ask a meeting etc to vote on a particular proposal. O: matter, question; proposal, resolution. o: ⚠ the vote; the assembly, meeting □ 'I propose that the matter be put to the vote, Mr Chairman.' □ The secretary rose to put the motion to the assembly for its approval.

5045 put to[4] [B2 pass rel] make sb suffer or undergo. o: extra expense; unnecessary bother, some inconvenience, endless trouble □ She is ready to oblige anyone provided this doesn't put her to any trouble. UTN □ You can't imagine the trouble I've been put to by the Council. □ He's been put to no end of expense by subsidence under the front of his new house. ⇨ go to[2].

5046 put to[5] [B2] (legal) suggest, submit to, a witness etc. O: it... that you were in Brighton on that date; it... that the door was in fact open. o: ⚠ you; the witness, the accused □ The counsel for the defence harries her: 'I put it to you that you acted out of spite?' PW □ 'I put it to the witness, My Lord, that my client was nowhere near York at the time.'

5047 put to bed [B2 pass] send a newspaper in its final edited form to be printed. O: paper, late (extra) edition; 'Guardian', 'Mirror' □ 'I suppose you've been putting the "Independent Socialist" to bed,' said Dave. UTN

5048 put to death [B2 pass] execute (by order of civil or military authorities). O: prisoner, hostage; rebel, critic □ On a scaffold in Tyburn the first English monks were put to death by order of the King. WI □ They put to death anyone appearing in the streets after curfew.

5049 put to effective/good use [B2 pass] use well, profitably; make effective/good use of (q v). O: time, interval, pause; forces, labour; money, savings □ The 3rd Division certainly put that first winter to good use and trained hard. MFM □ I felt they could have put their savings to better use by buying a small car.

5050 put an end/a stop to [B2 pass pass(o)] end, stop. o: quarrel, unpleasantness; war, riot, disturbance □ It's high time this leakage of information was put a stop to. □ This appeared to put an end to one of the most disturbing intervals in recent British politics. OBS □ Is there any hope of putting a stop to this mad triple arms race? OBS ⇨ be at/bring to/come to an end.

5051 put the final/finishing touches to [B2 pass emph rel] complete the final details of. o: arrangements; meal, food; account, story □ Heinz Wolf was putting the finishing touches to his report. TO □ While the finishing touches are put to the dinner, we'll stroll round the garden. CON □ The centre piece was to be a massive cake, to which the caterers were now putting the final touches.

5052 put a/one's finger to one's lips [B2 pass] signal to sb to be quiet by raising a finger to one's lips □ Hugo followed, making a noise like a bear. I turned back and put my finger to my lips. UTN

5053 put to flight/rout [B2 pass] cause to flee in disorder. O: enemy, invader □ Our men in a sharp counter-attack had put the enemy to flight. □ The twentieth century, vulgar, discordant and disquieting, had invaded the stronghold of the eighteenth and put it to rout. EM □ All their fears were put to flight by the news that help was on the way.

5054 put a match to [B2 pass] ignite, set fire/light to (q v). o: fire; wood, coal; paper, document, record □ I've laid the fire in the hearth; all you have to do is put a match to it.

5055 put one's mind to [B2 pass] give one's full attention to; set one's mind to (q v). o: task, job; studies □ I'm sure we can get it all sorted out if we put our minds to it. ILIH □ He'd do well in the exams if only his mind was put to his studies.

5056 put a name to [B2 rel] (informal) identify by name. adj: definite, exact, precise. o: noise, smell; foodstuff, liquid □ The silence became full of sound: noises you couldn't put a name to — a crack, a creak, a rustle. QA □ He was somebody you read of every other day in the newspaper, yet we couldn't put a name to him. □ usu with can/could + not.

5057 put paid to [B2 pass(o) emph rel] finish, destroy. o: hope, plan, prospect □ One blow and you'd be dead, which would put paid to any thoughts of Australia. LLDR □ Our tour was finally put paid to by a series of arguments with theatre managers. □ The programme to which the timidity of our backers had put paid might still be mounted the next year.

5058 put pen to paper [B2] begin to write □ His Newark pupils just wouldn't put pen to paper. OBS □ All the evidence would have to be assembled before he could put pen to paper.

5059 put to rights [B2 pass] settle, arrange properly, restore to a proper state. O: matter, question; grievance, wrong, injustice □ It will be some time before the wrongs suffered over many years are put to rights. □ One of her worries was that the conjugal bedroom had not yet been put to rights (i e tidied up). AH

5060 put to shame [B2 pass] make sb or sth seem slight or insignificant by comparison. O: him etc; efforts, achievement; resistance, resilience □ This little man with his variety of games and complex music puts many other so-called 'superior' cultures to shame. LWK □ Our recovery was put to shame by their display of sustained energy. □ The face was dominated by a pair of tremendous eyes that would have put any self-respecting owl to shame. BB

5061 put to sleep [B2 pass] (euphemism) destroy an animal (generally a household pet) painlessly by using gas; put away[6] (q v), put down[7] (q v). O: dog, cat □ The head-waiter poisoned his own dog. That's not the way to put a dog to sleep. OMIH □ Their cat was growing old and blind, and would have to be put to sleep.

5062 put to the test [B2 pass] try, test, the strength of. O: readiness, preparedness; defence, army; theory, idea. adj: final, ultimate □ The radar interception system was fully put to the test by the air battles of 1940. □ Soon it is likely that all suppositions about extra-terrestrial life will be put to the test. TO 5063 put together [B1i pass] fit together pieces to make a whole, assemble. O: part, component, fragment; scrap of evidence; model, puzzle; case □ (nursery rhyme) All the King's horses and all the King's men/Couldn't put Humpty together again. □ 'You took the thing apart; now put it together.' □ He had managed to put together a convincing case from the accounts of eye-witnesses.

5064 put our/your/their heads together [B1ii] (informal) combine our (etc) thinking, think together, so as to solve a problem more quickly □ We shall have to sit down sometime and put our heads together and think about ways and means. THH □ If only the leaders would put their heads together we might find a way out of our difficulties.

5065 put two and two together [B1ii] (informal) make the simple connection between related facts and draw the obvious conclusion □ The police can put two and two together, you know; they'll be on his track in no time. □ There was a theft from the safe just before he went on an expensive holiday: it's only a matter of time before somebody puts two and two together.

5066 put towards [B2 pass] give money as a contribution to a particular fund. O: fifty pounds; (part, a fraction of) one's income. o: cost, expense; holiday, education (of children); trousseau, dowry □ 'You'd think he could have put something towards the outing, wouldn't you?' □ 'You take care of the household expenses and I'll put half my salary towards the cost of the holiday.'

5067 put up[1] [B1i pass] raise, hoist. O: flag, banner; picture, curtain □ 'It's time we put up the Christmas decorations in the living-room.' □ On the other wall was a blanket, put up to hide a hole in the plaster.

5068 put up[2] [B1i pass] fasten in a place where it will be seen; display. O: notice, announcement; banns; result; team, name (of winner etc) □ The names of the successful candidates will be put up on the College notice board.

5069 put up[3] [B1i pass] build, erect. O: house, factory; tent, marquee; statue, column □ These were buildings put up in Czarist days. AH □ They're having a memorial to him put up by public subscription. ⇨ go up[4], set up[1].

5070 put up[4] [B1i pass] raise, increase. O: cost, price, rent, tax, premium □ Every time a new ten[ant] moves into that flat, he puts up the rent a [little] more (or: he ups the rent etc). □ The rate [of] interest was put up in the last Budget. □ up (a v) is sometimes used, informally, for put up [in] this sense. ⇨ be up[1], go up[2], send up[1].

5071 put up[5] [B1ii pass] pretend to be, feel, or ha[ve] done, sth in order to hide one's true origins, [ac]tivities etc. O: △ a front, façade, show, smok[e] screen □ Royal blood, indeed! Her grandfat[her] had more likely been a poverty-stricken act[or]. But one had to admire the girl for the façade [she] puts up. DC □ The fundamental secret of cov[er]ing up inefficiency is the art of putting up [a] front. OBS □ Tom gave loud commands, a[nd] Steve put up a token show of obedience. SPL

5072 put up[6] [B1ii pass] offer. O: (stout) resistan[ce], (good) fight, struggle □ The smuggler put up [a] fight but was finally overcome and carried off [to] jail. DS □ Very little resistance was put up [by] the surrounded men.

5073 put up[7] [B1ii pass] state, advance, advocate. [O:] case, argument, proposal □ He supported [the] case which scientists were putting up in Was[h]ington. NM □ I'll see that your suggestion is p[ut] up at the next meeting of the Board.

5074 put up[8] [B1iii pass] advance, lend. O: capit[al], funds, cash, money □ When we'd spent this hu[ge] sum, they put up another half-million. DS □ [A] well-wisher had put up the money. TC □ H[ow] much can you put up? UTN

5075 put up[9] [B1iii pass] prepare and provide (to [be] eaten). O: meal, snack; picnic lunch; sandwich □ Get the hotel to put up some cold chicken [for] the journey. □ 'It's late, but I think we can p[ut] you up a cold meal.' □ note the position of t[he] Indirect Object in the last example.

5076 put up[10] [A1 B1i pass] take food and lodgin[g]; provide food and lodging. S: [A1] O: [B1] visito[r], traveller; friend, relative. A: at a guest hous[e], hotel; with relatives; for the night, a weekend □ They put up at the monastery rest-house. ARG □ Mother will put you up for the night. SML □ put-you-up is a convertible sofa on which occ[a]sional visitors can be put up.

5077 put sb's back up [B1ii pass] (informal) offe[nd] sb, make him angry (usu by clumsy or insensiti[ve] conduct). S: rudeness, thoughtlessness □ If y[ou] had pressed him for a reply, you would have p[ut] his back up. PW □ After having to listen to the jeers and catcalls for half an hour their bac[ks] were really put up. ⇨ get sb's back up.

put the fear of death/God up [B2 pass] [⇨] put the fear of death/God in/into/up.

5079 put one's feet up [B1ii] (informal) rest, rela[x] on a bed or in a chair (though not necessarily wi[th] one's feet supported) □ *'*Put your feet up [for] five minutes: you've earned a rest.' □ 'I shou[ld] advise you to put your feet up and sleep it of[f].' ASA above one's head as a sign of surrender. S: soldier, criminal, fugitive □ 'Drop your weapons and put your hands up.'

5080 put one's hand up [B1i pass] raise one's ha[nd] in order to attract attention, or to indicate one ca[n] answer a question etc. S: pupil, member [of] audience □ *'*Put up your hand if you think yo[u] know the answer.' □ Someone at the back tried [to] catch the chairman's eye by putting his han[d] up. □ The French teacher asked if there was a[ny] support for another trip to Paris, and sever[al] hands were put up. ⇨ (one's) hand be up.

5081 put one's hands up [B1i] raise one's han[ds]

5082 put the wind up [B2 pass] (informal) scare, frighten. S: illness, relapse, accident; disturbance, demonstration □ 'Mrs Batey, I wish you'd stop trying to put the wind up Virginia.' 'That child is ill, young man,' replied Mrs Batey. AITC □ The sudden appearance of this wasted figure put the wind up everybody. ⇨ get/have the wind up.

5083 put up (for)[1] [B1ii pass B3 pass] propose, nominate (for). O: present holder, 'sitting member'. o: (re-)election; secretary, chairman; membership; club, society □ They'd like to put him up, but he won't accept nomination. □ We'll put him up for treasurer at the next committee meeting. □ He was put up twice, but didn't attract enough support. ⇨ be/come up for; next entry.

5084 put up (for)[2] [A1 A3 B1ii B3] offer oneself as a candidate (for election). S: (all patterns): (party) member, officer. O: oneself. o: (re-)election; membership □ [A3 B3] John is putting (himself) up for election to the committee. □ [A3] She isn't putting up for re-election to Parliament. ⇨ previous entry.

5085 put up for auction/sale [B3 pass] offer for sale, put on the market. O: house, flat; site, plot; furniture, jewellery □ That corner-site is being put up for sale next week. □ He's putting the family jewels up for auction. ⇨ be/come up for auction/sale.

5086 put up to[1] [B3 pass] prepare sb for a job or task, instruct sb in a job. O: trainee, apprentice, novice. o: job, work; handling a machine, running the plant □ Get an expert to put him up to the job in as short a time as possible. ⇨ (not) be up to, feel up to.

5087 put up to[2] [B3 pass] encourage to behave mischievously or unlawfully. o: it; prank, escapade; trouble-making, skullduggery. □ He wants to get off income-tax. Somebody put him up to it. PW □ He's not been out of trouble all term, and he's been put up to it by some of the older boys. ⇨ be up to[1], get up to[2].

5088 put up with [A3 pass adj] (informal) bear, tolerate; stand for[2] (q v). o: noise, disturbance; bad manners, inconsiderate behaviour □ He just wasn't going to put up with all the caterwauling. TC □ There are some things that are not easily put up with — and his damned impertinence is one. □ often neg, with will/would.

put pressure upon [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ put pressure on/upon.

put a strain upon [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ put a strain on/upon.

5091 puzzle out [B1i pass] solve a problem, obtain an answer, by careful reasoning or experiment. O: how it works, why he did it, where the trouble started; answer, result, solution □ He spent the afternoon trying to puzzle out what had gone wrong with his car. □ She found everything interesting, though she was quite without curiosity and never tried to puzzle things out. HD □ Follow that line of inquiry and I think you'll puzzle out an answer.

5092 puzzle over [A2 pass adj] think carefully about a problem etc in an attempt to solve or understand it. o: matter, difficulty; document, plan, diagram □ He'd puzzled over the figures for hours without making head or tail of them. □ His scheme has been talked about in the press, and much puzzled over by the men who must provide the financial backing.

Q

5093 quail (at) [A2 rel] become fearful, feel dismay (when thinking of sth unpleasant which seems likely to happen). o: △ the prospect, possibility; thought □ The tunnel on the left might lead deeper into the side of the mountain rather than back towards our starting point. We quailed at the thought. □ Then there was the possibility that Jenkins might fill the vacancy left by Harrison's retirement — a prospect at which we all quailed.

5094 qualify (as) [A2] pass examinations, and take the title, enabling one to practise a calling or profession. o: accountant, dentist, teacher □ He qualified (as a doctor) a couple of years back. □ He qualified in London as a teacher of English overseas (cf He qualified in London to teach English overseas).

5095 qualify (for)[1] [A2 emph rel] reach, or be of, the standard required for a post, civil right, reward etc (by passing a test, reaching a particular age etc); deserve by one's actions. o: post, career; membership, associateship; vote; pension, grant □ You qualify for the vote, but your brother won't qualify till he's eighteen. □ David has already qualified for promotion by passing through staff college. □ 'A few more remarks like that and you'll qualify for a punch on the nose.' ⇨ next entry.

5096 qualify (for)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] enable sb to undertake; make sb fit or eligible for. S: exam, test; diploma, degree; age, experience. o: job, post; reward, pension □ 'I'm afraid that this certificate doesn't qualify you for admission.' □ But for this kind of course his ordinary degree did not qualify him. ⇨ previous entry.

5097 quarrel with [A2 emph rel] dispute, question closely. o: statement, account, version (of what happened); estimate, figure □ 'You claim that you were somewhere else at the time. Well, we won't quarrel with that.' □ 'I won't quarrel with your estimate of costs: it seems reasonable enough.' □ usu with will/would + not.

5098 quarrel (with) (about/over) [A2 emph rel] disagree violently (with sb), argue angrily (with sb) (about sth). o: (with) friend, colleague, workmate, wife □ George is always quarrelling with his wife. (This does not imply necessarily that she quarrels with him; cf George and his wife are always quarrelling.) □ There are few people with whom he hasn't quarrelled at some time or another. □ 'That's just like Frank and Jane, isn't it? Always quarrelling about something or other.'

5099 queen it over [B2] (informal) (of a woman) behave in a superior way towards. S: housekeeper, cook; matron. o: (lesser, other, junior) servants, staff □ 'She's not the kind of girl to let promotion go to her head. Not the sort to queen it over the ordinary nurses.' ⇨ lord it over.

5100 query (with) [B2 pass emph rel] ask questions about sth with the aim of getting a clear answer, an authoritative ruling etc. O: order, instruction; invoice, bill. o: superior; manager, accountant □ 'I'm not sure that I can issue the replacements on this authority. I shall have to query the request with head office.'

5101 quest for [A2 rel] (formal) seek, search (for) (q v). S: explorer, hunter, collector. o: gold, precious stones; ruins, remains □ The travellers pushed inland, questing for signs of human settlement.

5102 queue (up) (for) [A1 A2 pass rel A3 pass rel] form a line (= (US) stand in line), to get transport, buy food etc; line up² (q v). o: bus, taxi; cinema, theatre; bread, fruit □ [A2] She queued to get in the shop, and then queued again for her vegetables. □ [A1] Over seven hundred animals quietly queued up to drink. NS

5103 quibble (about/over) [A2 pass] (informal) ask trifling questions, raise petty doubts (about sth). o: unimportant details; small sums of money, a matter of a few pence; who should be given precedence □ 'I'm not questioning your claim for travel expenses. It's such a small amount that it's not worth quibbling about*.'* □ When we got down to discussing the details of the agreement we found that they were quibbling over the precise meaning of quite unimportant clauses.

5104 quicken up [A1 B1i pass adj] become, make (much) faster; speed up (q v). S: [A1] O: [B1] pace, rate; trade, commerce; activity, movement. S: [B1] leader, officer, director □ The order came back to quicken up the pace of advance. □ We've noticed a distinct quickening-up in the turn-round of shipping. □ The whole process needs to be quickened up*.*

5105 quiet(en) down [A1 B1ii pass] become, make, more quiet and calm. S: [A1] O: [B1] meeting, assembly, crowd; class, child. S: [B1] chairman, steward; teacher, parent □ The meeting quieted down after repeated warnings from the chair that the hall would be cleared. □ *'*Quieten those children down*: I can't hear myself talk.'*

5106 quiver (with) [A2] shake, tremble (esp with strong emotion). o: rage, fury, indignation □ Peter quivered with scarcely concealed rage. What right had these people to cast doubt upon results which it had taken him years to achieve?

5107 quote (from) [A2 pass adj emph rel B2 pass emph rel] repeat, write, words used by another person, esp an author. O: extract; page, verse. o: play, poem; speech □ Shakespeare is perhaps the author most frequently quoted from*.* □ I shall quote from the address you made at Brighton on Friday. □ From 'Hamlet' he quoted the best-known soliloquy.

R

5108 race around/round [A1] go quickly from place to place, usu on some urgent task (e g warning people of danger) □ The children have been racing round all day, collecting signatures for the petition. □ As soon as the alarm went, the crew raced around shutting the watertight doors.

5109 race up (into/to) [A1 A3] rise rapidly (to a particular level); shoot up² (q v). S: temperature, pressure; consumption, inflation. o: (into) the sixties, eighties; (to) a new level, an all-time high □ The temperature of the outer parts of the atmosphere'll go racing up to hundreds of thousands of degrees. TBC □ Expenditure raced up and up to an unprecedented level.

5110 radiate (from) [A2 emph rel] spread outwards (from), have as its source. S: heat, light; authority; charm, friendliness. o: sun, radioactive material; fire; face, eyes; personality, character □ Dangerous emissions radiate from plutonium (or: Plutonium radiates dangerous emissions), necessitating the use of protective clothing. □ I was greatly impressed by the way he radiated confidence and kindness (or: by the way confidence and kindness radiated from him). MFM

5111 radiate from [A2 emph rel] point outwards at various angles from a centre. S: spoke; road, railway; cable, wire. o: hub; capital, terminus; communications centre, switchboard □ Most of Britain's motorways radiate from London. □ From this underground headquarters radiated the communications system which kept airfields informed of the movements of enemy aircraft.

5112 rage against/at [A2 emph rel] be violently angry about. o: illness, disability; confinement, restriction, frustration □ He raged helplessly against the disability which kept him confined to a wheelchair. □ This nonsense at the customs post was the kind of bureaucratic pettiness at which he had always raged*.*

5113 rage through [A2 emph rel] pass, sweep, violently through. S: army; storm, hurricane; fire; plague, pestilence. o: street, town, country □ A storm raged through the village, uprooting trees and flattening crops. □ The state of the house suggested that some madman had raged through it. Curtains were torn down and furniture smashed.

5114 rail against/at [A2 emph rel] (formal) reproach sb bitterly (for sth); protest bitterly against/at sb or sth. o: God, fate; condition, state; restriction, frustration; penalty, imposition □ The elderly railed against further cuts in their standard of living. □ Many general practitioners rail vehemently at the volume of paperwork connected with the running of a surgery.

5115 rail in [B1i pass adj] enclose with railings or a fence; fence in¹ (q v). O: field, garden; herd, flock □ They railed in part of the pasture to prevent the cattle from wandering. □ Behind the house was a small railed-in garden.

5116 rail off (from) [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] separate one place from another by means of rails or a fence; fence off (from) (q v). O: garden, orchard, field. o: path, road □ The bottom of the garden was railed off to stop the children straying into the road. □ They railed the meadows off from the new railway cutting.

5117-railroad into [B2 pass] (informal) persuade sb, by heavy or improper pressure, to do sth. S: commercial interests, pressure group; (impatient, ambitious) colleague, associate. O: government, council; company, firm. o: (hasty, precipitate) action, decision; buying, selling □ 'You can cut out the sales talk, John. I'm not going to be railroaded into joining a company with a shady past and a still more dubious future.' □ In the course of the evening he was railroaded into throwing down spiced-beef hot dogs, cream cakes and sparkling wine. ILIH

5118-railroad through [B1ii pass B2 pass] (informal) enact, put through[2] (q v), legislation, by applying improper pressure. S: government; clique, junta. O: Bill, Act; scheme. o: legislature, chamber □ The Bill giving emergency powers to the military government was railroaded through with little respect for established parliamentary niceties.

5119-rain down (on/upon) [A1 A3 B1i pass B3 pass] (cause to) fall in showers, fall thick and fast (on). S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] stones, masonry; arrows, spears, shells; blows, curses □ [A1] He would hammer a nail into the wood with a series of blows that continued to rain down long after the head was flush with the boards. DF □ [A3] Bits of plaster rained down on our heads from the ceiling, filling our hair and eyes. □ [B3] From these positions accurate mortar fire was rained down upon reinforcements moving up through the valley.

5120-rain upon [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] be offered, offer, abundantly, in great quantities to; shower upon (q v). S: [A2] O: [B2] hospitality; gift, present; food, drink; compliment. S: [B2] host; visitor, petitioner □ We couldn't complain of our reception: food and drink rained upon us from the moment we entered the house. □ The distinguished guest was visibly embarrassed by the fulsome compliments that were rained upon him.

5121-raise one's voice against [B2 pass emph rel] speak firmly, boldly, in opposition to sth. o: sale of arms, traffic in drugs; neglect of the old; capital punishment □ Not many voices were raised against that decision. SC □ He raised his voice against the lack of provision for the mentally sick. □ This was an undoubted social evil against which many voices were to be raised. □ voices (pl) may be modified by many, several, few, no.

5122-raise from the dead [B2 pass] restore to life, usu by supernatural means □ Among the tribal elders was one credited with the power of raising people from the dead. □ A common theme in horror stories is of a monstrous creature raised by supernatural power from the dead. ⇨ rise from the dead/grave.

5123-raise a/one's glass to [B2] drink a toast to sb, thus signalling one's approval or admiration of him. o: friend, benefactor, host □ 'Mr Charlton, I think we should raise a glass (or: our glasses) to our hostess.' DBM □ We raised our glasses to the memory of a great man.

5124-raise one's hat to [B2] indicate one's approval of or admiration for sb (without literally removing one's hat); take one's hat off to (q v) □ If you're prepared to work in that hospital for so little money, I raise my hat to you. □ That was a fine gesture: something worth raising one's hat to. □ take one's hat off to is usu preferred.

5125-raise an objection (to) [B2 pass emph rel] express one's disapproval (of); object (to) (q v). adj: no, (not) any; serious. o: statement; draft, wording; proposal, scheme □ 'If you won't raise any objections, I'm going to buy the champagne.... O.K?' SML □ There was nothing in the first draft to which one could raise any objection. □ To this part of the scheme several objections were raised.

5126-raise to the peerage [B2 pass] confer noble rank upon sb, give to sb the rank and title of peer. O: commoner, knight □ Sir Peter Stainer was raised to the peerage in the Birthday Honours List (a list of honours made public on the Queen's official birthday).

5127-raise to the surface [B2 pass] bring up from the bottom to the surface of the sea, river etc. O: wreck; sunken ship, submarine □ Divers place an inflatable jacket around the wreck as it lies on the seabed. Then by filling the jacket with air we can raise the wreck to the surface. ⇨ rise to the surface.

5128-raise (with) [B2 pass emph rel] introduce a subject in a discussion (with sb); bring up[3] (q v) when talking (to). O: ⚠ the issue, matter, point, question, subject □ These matters have been raised, notably with the Canadians, before. OBS □ He is likely to raise a number of important questions with President Eisenhower. SC □ 'I took the liberty, sir, of raising the subject with his lordship just now when I brought him his tea.' EM

5129-rake about/around/round (for) [A1 nom A3 rel] search carefully here and there (for sth). o: trace, sign, evidence □ He spent the afternoon raking around in the attic for some old family photographs. □ The police had a good rake-round in the cellar, but they didn't turn anything up.

5130-rake in [B1i pass] (informal) take as the proceeds of one's business. O: a few pounds; the shekels, a lot of money, a good percentage □ How much do you expect to rake in over the weekend? □ The dealers can rake in another ten or fifteen per cent on the takings. TT

5131-rake-off [nom (B1)] (informal) share of profit, fee, commission, esp in an illegal deal □ The gang could get rid of the loot through a crooked dealer in London, but of course he would expect a fat rake-off for his trouble. □ 'You could try selling your car through Jeff, but his usual rake-off is about ten per cent.'

5132-rake over old ashes [B1iii pass] revive (possibly unpleasant) memories of the past □ 'I don't want to rake over old ashes, Norah, but whilst we are discussing personal matters, have you heard from Jim at all lately?' TT □ He stood by in silent embarrassment as old ashes were raked over.

rake round (for) [A1 nom A3 rel] ⇨ rake about/around/round (for).

5134-rake through [A2 nom pass] examine documents etc carefully in search of evidence etc. o:

book, paper; report, transcript; clothing, possessions □ The police raked through every possible hiding-place to find the weapon. □ We'll give the place another rake-through (or: raking-through) before we give up the search.

5135 rake up [B1i pass adj] (informal) revive sth which is now forgotten (and which is best left forgotten); drag up[2] (q v). O: one's past, unpleasant memories; old grievances, past enmities □ Old scores were raked up. Before I knew where I was, I had a fight on my hands. DIL □ 'Why did you have to rake up his political past? He's a reformed character now.'

5136 rally round [A1 A2] unite, come together, in the face of hardship or danger and make a joint effort to face it. S: soldiers; country; family. o: commander; flag; leader; head (of the family) □ Carrying the regimental colour (i e flag) in battle had a purpose: in moments of crisis, the troops rallied round it. □ When their mother fell ill, the children rallied round and helped with household chores and expenses. □ The Visual Aids Group had rallied round and made no end of slides and a filmstrip. TT □ The Prime Minister's speech ended with an appeal to party loyalists to rally round the flag.

5137 rally to the support of [A2] combine, come together, to support sb or sth at a time of crisis. S: followers, supporters, members; backers, investors. o: (political) party, leadership; industry, currency □ When party unity is threatened, the rank and file can be depended on to rally to the support of their leader. □ During the monetary crisis, several European bankers rallied to the support of the pound.

5138 ram down [B1i pass adj] strike sth firmly so that its parts pack tightly together (usu by applying force at the end of a rod). O: (explosive) charge; stones, pebbles, ballast □ In muzzle-loading fire-arms, ball and powder were placed in the barrel and rammed down with a steel ramrod. □ Broken bricks were rammed down in the trench to make a base for the concrete.

5139 ram down sb's throat [B2 pass] (informal) repeat sth often in the hope of impressing it upon the hearer; force/stuff down sb's throat (q v). O: view, opinion; history, science; moral, truth □ He's rammed his opinions down my throat so many times that I could repeat them in my sleep. □ There's no point in trying to ram abstract information down the throats of young children.

5140 ram home [B1i pass] (informal) make a point absolutely clear by example or illustration. S: accident; fall, (car-)crash; loss, bankruptcy. O: lesson, moral; urgency, necessity (of sth) □ The loss of all his belongings rammed home the need to insure against fire and theft. □ His point about sound navigation was rammed home by the disappearance of an aircraft over the sea.

5141 ram into [A2 pass rel B2 pass rel] drive (one's vehicle) with great force into. S: [A2] O: [B2] car, van, lorry. S: [A2 B2] driver, motorist □ His car was rammed into from behind by a lorry with faulty brakes. □ She turned too sharply and rammed the car into a gatepost.

5142 ramble on [A1] continue to speak or write in a wandering, incoherent way □ 'We did think of asking Peter to make the speech of welcome, but he does ramble on, doesn't he?' □ Mark's tutor had difficulty in reducing his draft chapter to coherent shape. The original had rambled on for fifteen pages.

5143 range against [B2 pass emph rel] assemble, array, in opposition to. O: (strong) forces, army; tanks, artillery; strength, resources □ We had ranged against us elements from several enemy divisions. □ Against us in this area were ranged the resources of two major oil companies.

5144 range from to [A2] cover the range from one stated limit (to another); vary from to (q v). S: price, cost; demand, yield; mood, reaction. o: (from) ten pounds; 20 000 tons; elation, optimism; (to) fifty pounds; 1 m tons; gloom, pessimism □ Increases in compulsory contributions range from thirty pence to one pound. □ Reactions to the news that a new oil terminal is to be built range from bitterness and hostility to cautious optimism.

5145 range in (on) [A1 A3 pass B1i pass] (military) establish the exact range between one's guns and an enemy position; zero in (on)[1] (q v). S: artillery. O: [B1] o: [A3] target, position □ [A3] 'We still hadn't been ranged in on from the ground. It was a very peaceful atmosphere, really pastoral.' ST □ [B1] 'They had both shores ranged in. The moment a barge set out from one shore there'd be a terrific barrage on it.' ST

5146 range over [A2 rel] cover, include, move about among. S: talk, discussion; book, article; interest, experience. o: (several) fields, topics, areas □ His lecture ranged over a variety of topics. □ It would be difficult to list all the fields over which his experience ranges

5147 rank among/with [A2 B2 pass] be in, place in, the same class or category as; rate among/with (q v) □ I wouldn't rank it with the very finest white wines from Burgundy. □ He ranks among the best tactical commanders of the last war. □ He can be ranked among the best students of his year.

5148 rank as [A2 B2 pass] have the qualities or standing of; consider sb or sth to have such qualities or standing; rate as (q v). o: (great) statesman; painter, novelist; masterpiece □ He ranks as one of the outstanding presidents of our time. □ It's an exceptionally fine novel, but it can't be ranked as a work of genius.

5149 rap at/on [A2] make a sudden, sharp, blow upon. o: door, window, table □ He rapped sharply on the table with his knuckles and the room fell silent.

5150 rap on/over the knuckles [B2 pass] (informal) reprimand, reprove, sb for sth □ My report fell short in some parts of its record and he very properly rapped me over the knuckles for it. SD □ Some final-year students were rapped on the knuckles for not submitting their theses on time.

5151 rap out[1] [B1i pass adj] signal a message by means of a number of sharp taps (e g on a Morse key). O: message; sentence, (a few) words □ The prisoners communicated with each other by messages rapped out on the heating pipes. □ It is claimed that at seances spirits send the messages rapped out on the table.

5152 rap out[2] [B1i pass] utter suddenly and sharply. O: order, command; oath, curse □ 'Stand still!' he rapped out, in a voice that froze the troops on parade. □ He always raps his instructions out, as though he were still in the army.

5153-rat (on) [A2 pass] (informal) betray, inform against/on (q v); withdraw from an agreement or undertaking. o: friend, mate; promise, bargain, agreement □ Nobody likes being ratted on, especially when so much depends on keeping things secret. □ We thought we could count on him backing us with cash but he ratted on the deal at the last minute.

5154-rate among/with [A2 B2 pass] be in, place in, the same class or category as; rank among/with (q v) □ 'Would you rate him with the best of the bunch?' □ He rates among the best heavyweight boxers of the past fifty years.

5155-rate as [A2 B2 pass] have the qualities or standing of; consider sb or sth to have such qualities or standing; rank as (q v). o: (good) scholar, sportsman, pilot, sailor; (very) able, competent □ He is rated as very capable by the best judges. □ He rates as one of the best runners over the distance.

5156-rate at[1] [B2 pass rel] place at, consider to be at, a particular level (of power, capacity etc). O: motor, engine; output, capacity, horsepower; income, fortune. o: (so many) kilowatts; tons, cubic feet; pounds, dollars □ 'What would you rate the engine at?' 'About twelve horsepower.' □ Output was rated at about 5000 bales per working day.

5157-rate at[2] [B2 pass rel] value (property) for the purpose of assessing rates (in GB a kind of local tax on land and buildings). O: house, shop, cinema □ His house was rated at £300 a year (cf His house had a rateable value of £300 a year).

rate with [A2 B2 pass] ⇨ rate among/with.

5159-ration out [B1i pass adj] distribute as rations, or fixed allowances, in a time of shortage. O: food, water; clothing □ The remaining stores of tinned milk were carefully rationed out among the children. □ They had to ration the petrol out: five gallons to each motorist while stocks lasted.

5160-rattle away (at/on) [A1 A3 rel] operate sth energetically and with a sharp, rhythmical noise. o: typewriter, teleprinter; loom □ Half-a-dozen typists were rattling away in a corner of the office.

5161-rattle off [B1i pass] say, or repeat, sth in a fast, rhythmic, sometimes careless way. O: report, story; poem; list □ I got potential criminal Lamb on to the subject of agents, and he rattled off a few names for me. JFTR □ 'Now read the poem again, and this time don't rattle it off like a machine-gun.' □ He could rattle off a page of the telephone directory if you asked him.

5162-rattle on[1] [A2 emph rel] strike sharply upon, one after the other. S: rain, hail; stone, pebble; finger. o: roof, window; key □ A shower of rocks and stones rattled on the roof of the dug-out. □ His fingers rattled on the keys of the piano.

5163-rattle on[2] [A1] continue to talk in a sharp, fast and usu thoughtless way □ I always found her company unendurable. She could rattle on for hours about absolutely nothing at all.

5164-rave about/over [A2 pass emph rel] (informal) talk with foolish enthusiasm of. o: holiday, trip; art, architecture; food, wine □ She raved about her little dressmaker, who could copy a Paris model for next to nothing. □ The unspoiled fishing-village they'd raved about so endlessly turned out to be a run-of-the-mill holiday resort. □ Their house in the country is nothing to rave over.

5165-rave against/at [A2 emph rel] oppose sb or sth violently, wildly, possibly incoherently. o: young people, (supposed) criminals, imaginary enemies; loose morals, lax standards □ The aging tyrant raved against his closest friends, accusing them of unimaginable crimes. □ There seemed no end to the hidden enemies at whom he raved.

5166-rave-up [nom (A1)] (slang) wild party, outing etc, esp for young people, and often with pop music □ (caption to a picture) It's a great day for a rave-up — Julie takes in the scene with other pop fans at a show at Chelmsford, Essex. DAILY EXPRESS

5167-raze to the ground [B2 pass] flatten, reduce to ruins (esp by fire or explosives). S: fire; shell, bomb; bomber, artillery. O: city; house, factory □ Fires swept through the outskirts, where the houses, being mostly of wood, were razed to the ground.

5168-reach down [B1i pass] fetch sth from a higher point by stretching one's hand. O: book, magazine; cigarette, match □ 'Would you mind reaching down my knitting from the top shelf?' □ One or two dusty papers were reached down from the top of the cupboard.

5169-reach for [A2] stretch out one's hand to grasp a weapon. o: weapon; gun, knife □ One or two false alarms had the men reaching for their guns. □ He was overpowered before he could reach for his knife.

5170-reach out (for) [A1 A3 rel B1i pass B3 pass rel] extend one's hand etc (to take sth); stretch out[1] (q v); make an effort to grasp. O: ⚠ a hand, an arm, a finger. o: glass, knife; opportunity, opening □ [A1] David reached out and took down a small leather-bound book. □ [B3] 'Would you mind reaching an arm out for my tobacco pouch?' □ [A3] All manner of opportunities will come your way, but you must reach out for them. □ [A3] The farm means ease and security and wealth. I think that's what I've been reaching out for, really. RFW

5171-reach out (to) [A1 A3 emph rel] try to communicate (with), to make contact (with). S: regime, (political) party; church. o: masses, rank and file; poor, underprivileged □ The worker-priest movement was a largely unofficial attempt from within the Catholic Church to reach out to the urban working class. □ A party which doesn't reach out and take account of grass-roots feeling is like a head without a body.

5172-reach (to) [A2 rel] stretch as far as. S: voice, music; wire; carpet, curtain; dress, coat. o: the back of the hall; wall; floor; below the knee □ 'Your voice won't reach to the back of the auditorium; we'll have to use an amplifier.' □ He'll fit an extension so that the flex can reach (to) the socket.

5173-react against [A2 pass emph rel] respond to a system, or a set of influences, by acting in a contrary or hostile way. o: regime, government; parents, upbringing □ Children can generally be relied upon to react against their early upbringing, even when this is benevolent. □ People reacted against a period of austerity by frivolous spending.

5174-react on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] have a particular effect on/upon (esp to change in some way). S: acid; heat, light; mood, temper; personality. o: metal, wood; audience, surroundings □ Heat reacts upon certain substances to change their chemical composition. □ Strong personalities react on others, while weaker personalities are reacted on.

5175 react (to) [A2 pass emph rel] act in response to sth or sb by behaving differently (e g in a kinder or more lively fashion); respond (to) (q v). S: organism, plant; listener, viewer; patient. o: light, heat; display, drama; treatment □ Observe carefully how the bacteria react to this stimulus. □ Children react well to a lively teacher. □ 'How is your patient reacting to the course of treatment?'

5176 read about [A2 pass rel B2 pass rel] read (sth) concerning, on the subject of. O: something, a little; article, letter □ I know it's true, because I read about it in the official report. □ The heart transplants have been read about and discussed everywhere. □ About this particular development I have read very little.* □ (newspaper-seller's cry) 'Read all about it!'*

5177 read around/round the subject/topic [A2] read works that will provide a background (e g in history or art) to a subject (e g literature) which one is studying □ It's not enough to have read the poet's life and works. You must read around the subject and see how far he reflects more general movements in literature.

5178 read back [B1i pass] read aloud a message that has just been received so that the sender may check its accuracy. O: telegram; paragraph, section □ When you send a telegram by phone, the operator will normally read it back to you. □ Do you mind reading back the text of my message?

5179 read between the lines [A2 B2] gather meanings from a text that are not actually stated but implied □ I read between the lines of her letter that she had driven him out, and I rejoiced. ASA □ Reading between the lines, it was obvious the poor chap was desperately anxious about the future.* ASA 5180 read for [A2] study in order to obtain a qualification, or the right to practise as a barrister. o: △ a degree, a diploma; the Bar □ He spent three years reading for a degree in history. □ He read for the Bar in his spare time.

5181 read from [A2 rel B2 pass emph rel] read (usu aloud) part of a book etc. O: passage, extract; chapter, poem; letter. o: novel; anthology; newspaper □ Before the children went to bed, Father would read from their favourite book of stories. □ Dickens read extracts from his novels before audiences in the theatre. □ From the plays of Shakespeare he read some of the best-known speeches.*

5182 read into [B2 pass] find sth in the words of a speaker or writer which he did not intend. O: implications, ideas; things. o: book, letter; statement, account □ 'Now don't go reading things into my stories which I didn't put there!' □ Too much should not be read into the minister's statement: we can't expect a sudden easing of the situation.

5183 read off [B1i pass] read completely (aloud or to oneself). O: message; figure, measurement; temperature □ Frank tore open the envelope, read off the brief message it contained and picked up the telephone. □ 'I want you to sit down in front of those dials and read off any fluctuations that occur in oil pressure.'

5184 read out [B1i pass] read aloud (to an audience) sth of interest to them, or of which they must take special notice. O: announcement, instruction; article □ 'If it's a letter from Mary, read it out (loud), Mother!' □ After morning prayers, important notices are read out to the assembled school.

5185 read over/through [B1ii pass] read completely, from beginning to end. O: report, account; statement, evidence □ He lifted out the topmost two letters, and though he knew what he would see, he read them through again. FW □ 'Read the report over to yourself, and see if you can spot anything odd.' □ He had to read the passage through several times before he could understand it.

5186 read round the class/room [A2 B2 pass] (of individual pupils or members of a group) read a text aloud one after the other, each continuing at the point where the last leaves off. O: text, author □ I like 'Treasure Island'. We read it round the class last term. □ 'We'll begin by reading round the class. Then I shall ask you some questions about the passage.'

read round the subject/topic [A2] ⇨ read around/round the subject/topic.

5188 read oneself to sleep [B2] read with the intention or in the hope of falling asleep; read so much, or so late at night, that one falls asleep □ He felt wideawake in bed — he'd drunk too much coffee — so he tried to read himself to sleep.

5189 read up [B1i pass] acquire a knowledge of a subject through reading. O: facts, details, elements □ There's no need to attend classes in theory: you can read it up for yourself in the library. □ I knew nothing of the subject, but I could read up enough to pass a simple test.

5190 read up on [A3 pass] improve one's knowledge of sth by reading, bring one's knowledge of sth up to date by reading. o: details, facts; events, what has happened □ I must read up on developments in this field; I'm getting badly out of touch. □ We've so much to read up on in the subject; it's easy to get behindhand with one's knowledge.

5191 realize (from/on) [B2 pass emph rel] get as a price for, or as a profit on. O: (handsome) profit, return; sum, price. o: (the sale of) furniture, painting, jewellery □ We didn't realize as much as we'd hoped on the china figures. □ From overseas sales he's realized enough to equip a new workshop.*

5192 reap (from) [B2 pass emph rel] gather a crop (from); derive, enjoy profit (from). O: wheat, oats; (rich, poor) harvest; benefit, dividend. o: field; investment, savings □ He reaped handsome dividends from all the hard work he'd put in earlier. □ This is an investment from which we expect to reap a very good return.

5193 rear (up) [A1] rise (high) on its hind legs (from fear and/or to attack an enemy). S: △ the horse, stallion; the beast □ For no apparent reason the horse reared up, almost unseating its rider.

5194 reason into [B2 pass rel] persuade sb by reasoned argument to do sth. o: membership, participation; agreement, dissent; doing sth, behaving thus □ This is something he can be reasoned into, given time. □ Let me try to reason him into joining us.

5195-reason out [B1i pass adj] obtain, arrive at, (an answer) through careful reasoning. O: solution, result; that sth is the case □ The police reasoned out that if the men had left by the midday train, it would be easy to pick them up at the terminus. □ It's easy to reason out what the consequences of that action will be.

5196-reason out of [B2 pass rel] persuade sb by reasoned argument not to do sth, or to leave or abandon sth. o: joining, taking part; mood, temper, stubbornness □ We tried to reason him out of this course of action, but without success. □ These were deeply held convictions and he couldn't be reasoned out of them very easily.

5197-reason with [A2 pass rel] argue with sb reasonably in the hope of convincing him □ Have you tried reasoning with him? □ She won't be reasoned with (i e she won't listen to reasoned arguments that sth is unwise).

5198-rebel (against) [A2 pass emph rel] oppose by force of arms; protest strongly (against). S: subject; follower, soldier. o: (established) authority, regime; (new) demand, increase, imposition □ The new tax laws led the inland tribes to rebel against the central government. □ Against measures such as these almost anyone would rebel. □ The nurses rebelled against an increase in their hours of work.

5199-rebound (from) [A2 emph rel] bounce back (from). S: ball; stone, pebble □ The dart struck the board sideways on and rebounded (from it).

5200-rebound upon [A2 emph rel] (formal) return to and affect (perhaps for the worse) the person responsible; recoil on/upon (q v). S: (evil, thoughtless) action, deed. o: oneself; the doer □ Take care not to carry this through; the mischief may rebound on your own heads. □ Bad deeds, as well as good, may rebound upon the doer.

5201-recall (from) [B2 pass emph rel] call back, summon back, to the home country (from abroad). O: envoy, attaché, consul □ Their High Commissioner has been recalled from London. □ An official spokesman named a number of countries from which it had been decided to recall our missions.

5202-recall to [B2 pass] (formal) make one aware, conscious, once again of sth that has been forgotten. S: event; tragedy, loss; occasion, company. o: △ a sense of duty, of propriety □ The dangers that suddenly threatened recalled him to a sense of duty. □ They were recalled to a sense of propriety by the presence of visitors whom they dared not offend.

5203-recall (to mind) [B2 pass] remember, recollect. O: face; words; what he looked like; his saying anything; that he did so □ After so many years I find it hard to recall all their names to mind. □ I can't recall (to mind) that he said anything about payment.

5204-recede (from) [A2 emph rel] (formal) move away (from); be lost (from). S: shore, coastline; face, voice; memory. o: sight, view; mind □ As we gained height, the ground receded from view. □ As the months passed, her expressions and gestures receded from his mind.

5205-receive back into the fold [B3 pass] admit again as a member of a body sb who has left it. S: (political) party, church, club □ The party was glad to receive Stevens back into the fold because of his wide contacts and influence in the city. □ The committee was willing to let Philip attend meetings again — as a guest — but Philip was too proud to be received back into the fold on such grudging terms.

5206-receive (from) [B2 emph rel] get (from), have sent or given to one (by). O: gift; parcel, letter; kindness, insults □ From his employers he received a generous pension. □ I expect to receive nothing but empty promises from him.

5207-receive into [B2 pass] admit as a member (of a religious body). o: △ the (Catholic) Church, faith □ John's was a late conversion: he was received into the Church when he was already an old man.

5208-reckon among[1] [B2 pass] include as one of, count among (q v). o: experts, judges, critics; (most) able, competent (people); one's acquaintances, friends □ He can be reckoned among the best guides to form in racing. □ I dislike him, but I wouldn't reckon him among my enemies. □ We'd reckon these two correspondents among the best on the paper.

5209-reckon among[2] [B2 pass emph] consider particular member(s) of a group to be best, worst etc. o: students; applicants, candidates □ I'd reckon him (to be) the least suitable among those coming forward for places. □ He was reckoned best among the new recruits. □ Among those submitting applications I'd reckon him (the) least qualified to do research. □ the Object is followed by an Object Complement — usu an adj or pp, e g best, most able, least acceptable, best suited (to do sth).

5210-reckon (as) [B2 pass] consider (to be), regard as (q v). O: agriculture, industry; farm, factory; expenditure, saving. o: efficient, wasteful; (good) investment, security; declining, running to waste □ Development in this area is reckoned as (or: reckoned to be) money poured down the drain. □ We don't reckon this work as vital in the national interest. □ The garage was reckoned as forming (or: reckoned to form) part of his rateable property.

5211-reckon in [B1i pass] include as part of a bill, estimate etc. O: cost, expense □ When you submit your claim, don't forget to reckon in the money spent on petrol. □ 'Don't bother to tip: the service charge has already been reckoned in.'

5212-reckon on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] make one's plans in the sure knowledge that sth will happen, or be the case; depend on/upon[2] (q v). o: support, help; kindness, generosity □ He will always help in time of need; on this you can reckon. □ His promises can't always be reckoned upon. □ You needn't reckon on my future. NM □ The next five years will show whether Nkrumah still has a political future on which he can reckon. OBS

5213-reckon up [B1i pass] find the sum, total, amount, of. O: expenses, outgoings, takings; losses, damage □ A mechanic reckoned up the cost of repairing the damage to my car. □ When you reckon up the wastage (i e loss) of female staff through marriage it's quite a total.

5214-reckon with[1] [A2 pass emph rel] consider, assess carefully; include in one's calculations. o: (possible, likely) difficulty, obstacle; cost, weight, size □ I had not reckoned with the facts of my temperament, training and habits. DOP □ *He is a man to be reckoned with (ie whose qualities need to be considered before one acts). □ I hadn't reckoned with the possibility of his turning up so soon. ⇨ reckon without.

5215-reckon with² [A2 pass emph rel] tackle, overcome. o: hardship, privation, danger □ When you consider all the petty irritations and shortages they had to reckon with, it's a wonder they kept their sense of humour. □ All these problems had to be reckoned with as they arose, before they grew large enough to hinder progress.

5216-reckon with³ [A2 pass] punish, deal with³ (q v). S: police; authorities. o: enemy, dissenter, traitor □ Anyone not obeying the decrees of the new military junta could expect to be reckoned with. □ The police reckoned, in a horrible fashion, with all those suspected of supporting the government in exile.

5217-reckon without [A2 pass] not include in one's plans or calculations. o: weather, climate; (chance of) slump, depression; help, intervention □ The organizers of the garden party had clearly reckoned without the possibility of a freak thunderstorm. □ I'd reckoned without their being prepared to lend me the money. □ He's not the sort of man you can afford to reckon without. ⇨ reckon with¹.

5218-reclaim (from) [B2 pass emph rel] make available for use, restore to use (by draining off water, using fertilizers etc); restore sb to a healthy state. O: acres; flooded land, waste land; drunkard, drug addict. o: sea, flooding; addiction, (life of) crime □ In Holland thousands of hectares have been reclaimed from the sea and turned over to arable land and pasture. □ A convert to the faith was considered to have been reclaimed by God from a life of sin.

5219-recognize (as)¹ [B2 pass] be willing to accept that sb or sth has the rank or authority that are claimed for him or it. O: son, brother; claimant, contender; government, regime. o: rightful heir, lawful descendant; legally constituted □ The break-away committee has not been properly constituted, and will not be recognized as such. □ It is not certain that the Court will recognize him (as his father's rightful successor).

5220-recognize (as)² [B2 pass] regard, consider (to be). o: an authority, the last word; authentic, genuine; eminent, distinguished □ This has long been recognized as the standard work on the Napoleonic period. □ In years to come they will recognize him as (or: recognize him to be) one of the great founder-figures of our movement.

5221-recoil (from) [A2 pass emph rel] withdraw sharply, and with displeasure, in horror etc from sth that appears suddenly, which one is asked to do; reel back (q v) from. o: sight, prospect; action, deed □ The leading companies recoiled from the murderous crossfire from the pillboxes. □ Her nature recoils from anything that will cause pain. □ From the things they were asked to do, most active consciences would recoil.*

5222-recoil on/upon [A2] (formal) strike back at the doer of an action (perhaps for the worse); rebound upon (q v). S: greed, meanness, cruelty □ An evil deed may recoil on the head of the doer. □ Neglect of his children recoiled upon him when he was of an age to need their support.

5223-recommend (to) [B2 pass emph rel] say that sb is suitable or qualified for a post etc. S: teacher, tutor; (previous) employer. O: applicant □ 'I feel quite confident in recommending Mr Jackson to you for the vacant post of research assistant.' □ A new man will be joining the project next October. He's been strongly recommended to us by the head of our Manchester office.

5224-recompense (for) [B2 pass emph rel] repay, reward, sb (e g for some good he has done); make good (a loss), compensate (for) (q v). A: amply, fully, richly. o: help, services, loyalty, support; damage, suffering □ You will be amply recompensed for for your loyal support. □ The company now presents itself as the innocent victim of the Second World War, and has been handsomely recompensed for its injuries. OBS

5225-reconcile to [B2 pass emph rel] come to accept, bring sb to accept sth unpleasant; resign (oneself) to (q v). o: humble status, low wages; poverty, obscurity □ He couldn't easily be reconciled to the prospect of a falling income. □ He reconciled himself cheerfully to a modest livelihood in a small country town.

5226-reconcile (with)¹ [B2 pass emph rel] bring people together after a quarrel, an angry separation etc □ Friends managed to reconcile him with his wife after years of estrangement. □ He was reconciled with his brothers (or: He and his brothers were reconciled) after a fierce family quarrel.

5227-reconcile (with)² [B2 pass emph rel] make one fact etc match, be consistent with, another; square with (q v). O: action, event; decision, statement; principle, tenet. o: claim, profession (of goodwill); philosophy, theory □ I can't reconcile what he says here with statements in the earlier parts of the book. □ How can their aggressive actions be reconciled with their talk of peace and brotherhood? □ The two sets of figures can't be reconciled (with each other). □ with can/could; often neg.

5228-record (from) (on/onto) [B2 pass emph rel] make a sound or video recording (esp onto tape). O: broadcast; speech, music; interview, play. o: (from) radio, disc; (on/onto) (audio-/video-)tape □ 'We managed to record the whole of the concert from a live studio broadcast.' □ Jack has a set of Billie Holiday numbers recorded from the original 78s onto tape. □ The language teaching plays were put out live but also recorded in the studio on video-tape, so that they can be shown again and again.

5229-recover (from)¹ [A2 pass emph rel] get well again, be restored (after some kind of set-back); get over³ (q v). o: illness, operation; depression, slump; shock, surprise □ She's still recovering from a bout of 'flu. □ From this kind of set-back, the industry is always slow to recover.*

5230-recover (from)² [B2 pass emph rel] regain (from sb) sth lent or lost; □ He recovered his football from the neighbours' lawn. □ Several of the missing coins were recovered from the bed of the river.

5231-recruit (into) (from) [B2 pass emph rel] enlist, enrol sb (as a member of a particular force or body) (from a particular source). o: (into) army, navy; (from) another service, industry □ *During the war, a number of young men were recruited into the mining industry as 'Bevin Boys'. □ The wartime government first recruited *men (*into the forces) from non-essential industries.

5232-recur to [A2 rel] be recalled by sb, come again into his mind. S: idea, thought; memory, recollection; experience, event; it... how he was always ready to listen □ The memory of the days we spent together often recurs to me. □ It recurs to me that he was the first person to help us in those difficult times. □ The tune recurred to me while I was having my bath.

5233-redeem (from)[1] [B2 pass rel] obtain again, recover, an article (from a pawnshop) by paying money. O: clothing, furniture, jewellery. o: △ pawn, hock □ He redeemed his one and only suit from pawn to attend a wedding.

5234-redeem (from)[2] [B2 pass rel] (religion) rescue, make free (from sin) by sacrifice (esp the Sacrificial Atonement of Christ). S: Christ; Christ's sacrifice, blood. O: mortal; sinner. o: △ sin, death □ We are redeemed from sin by the blood of Jesus.

5235-redeem (from)[3] [B2 pass emph rel] preserve, save (from falling to a low level). O: occasion; party, meal; performance, spectacle. o: (total) failure, disaster, ignominy; (downright) farce, comedy, tragedy □ It was John who redeemed the occasion from utter failure by telling some of his funny stories. □ The second act was redeemed from farce by the performance of one of the supporting actors.

5236-redound to [A2] (formal) promote, enhance. S: action, deed; success, exploit. o: fame, honour, credit, reputation □ Your achievements will redound to the good name of the whole school. □ His bravery redounds to the fame of the regiment.

reduce (from) [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ reduce (to) (from).

5238-reduce to[1] [B2 pass emph rel] obtain the chemical constituents of sth; break down[7] (q v). O: wood; cloth, paper; gas, liquid. o: pulp, splinter; rag, shred; atom, molecule □ A crushing machine reduces the logs to pulp. □ Water can be reduced to oxygen and hydrogen by electrolysis.

5239-reduce to[2] [B2 pass] change, convert a sum of money (in a calculation) to smaller values. O: amount, sum; dollars, pounds. o: cents, pence □ You can reduce the amount in pounds to new pence by quite simply multiplying by 100.

5240-reduce to[3] [B2 pass] make sth (appear to be) of no value or importance, by revealing its faults, inconsistencies etc. O: argument, case; claim, pretension. o: shreds, tatters; nothing □ Our case was argued by an able barrister, who reduced the prosecutor's submissions almost to nothing.

5241-reduce to[4] [B2 pass emph rel] bring down to a low or undignified position or state. o: (pretty) pass, (parlous) state; such straits, indignities; beggary, serfdom; begging, borrowing, mortgaging □ A succession of bad harvests had reduced the small farmers to penury. □ You apologize to the one who ought to apologize to you — to such straits does love reduce dignity and common sense. SPL

5242-reduce to[5] [B2 pass] weaken the physical or nervous condition of sb to a grave extent. o: △ a (nervous, physical) wreck, a skeleton, skin and bones, a shadow □ Weeks in an open boat had reduced the surviving crew members to skin and bones. □ Anxiety about the fate of his family reduced him to a nervous wreck.

5243-reduce to[6] [B2 pass emph rel] state in a more concise form, summarize as. O: chapter, book; paper, report; case, argument. o: notes, headings; (a few) pages; essentials, bare bones □ I think we can reduce his rather lengthy statement to one or two essential points. □ Take the complications of modern marriage in your stride. Try and reduce it to its simplest essentials. DIL □ Give us the basic facts to which you've reduced his argument.

5244-reduce to order [B2 pass] arrange in a tidy, systematic manner; organize. O: affairs; papers, documents; accounts, finances □ He employed an accountant to reduce his money affairs to some semblance of order. □ All these details must be reduced to order before the annual inspection.

5245-reduce to the rank of/to the ranks [B2 pass] (military) deprive of one's present rank (as a punishment). O: Warrant Officer, non-commissioned officer □ In the British army, a Warrant Officer may only be reduced to the ranks by Court-martial (by the order of a special military court). □ A sergeant may be reduced to the rank of lance-corporal by the order of his Commanding Officer.

5246-reduce to silence [B2 pass] make sb stop talking, complaining etc, through one's (moral) authority or force of personality. O: crowd, audience; rabble, mob. adj: total, complete, absolute □ The dignity of his appeal reduced the loudest of critics to silence. □ His appearance on a platform could reduce even the professional hecklers to total silence.

5247-reduce to tears [B2 pass] affect sb so deeply that he cries. S: performance, performer; anger, fit of temper; speech, appeal. O: audience, listener □ His emotional language reduced many of that open-air audience to tears. □ While she was feeling so overwrought, the slightest cross word or ill-judged remark could reduce her to floods of tears.

5248-reduce (to) (from) [B2 pass emph rel] lower, decrease (from one level to another). O: pressure, temperature, volume, weight, speed □ Reduce the speed of your car to 30 mph when entering a built-up area. □ It was our opinion that we must reduce the tempo of our operations (i e from its existing high level). MFM

5249-reef in [B1i pass adj] (nautical) reduce the area of a sail by gathering up part of it. O: (main)sail, canvas □ When a strong wind blows up, the sails have to be reefed in to prevent the boat from capsizing.

5250-reek of[1] [A2] have the strong (and unpleasant) smell of. S: room, house; food; breath. o: smoke; onion, garlic; whisky, beer □ 'Open a window: the place reeks of stale cigarette smoke.' □ It was stiflingly hot inside the bus, which reeked of petrol. BM

5251-reek of[2] [A2] suggest strongly sth unpleasant. S: atmosphere; talk. o: corruption, intrigue; snobbery □ His conversation reeks of the literary world. HAA

5252-reel back [A1] move back out of control, stagger back (after receiving a powerful blow or shock); recoil (from) (q v). S: army; soldier, boxer □ Two other Armies reeled back in a state of acceler- ating disorder. B □ I felt rather as though I had been kicked in the face by a horse, and reeled back*, momentarily blinded by the pain and stunned by the force of the thrust.* DF

5253 reel in [B1i pass] wind a fishing line onto the reel fastened to the end of the rod, causing the line to rise from the water. O: line; fish □ 'You've got something on the end of your line: reel it in*.'*

5254 reel off [B1i pass] (informal) say or repeat sth rapidly and smoothly. O: list, catalogue; names, figures, facts □ Without apparent effort, he reeled off the names of those who had been associated with him in those early days. □ 'I think your father's marvellous. Fancy being able to reel all that off*!'* ASA 5255 refer back (to) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] pass, submit, a matter for further examination (to sb who has already considered it). O: letter; application, claim. o: office, department □ Accounts Dept keep referring back our travel claims. We're claiming five pence a mile for official journeys, and they insist we're only entitled to three pence. □ 'I've had my application for a vacation grant referred back to the University. Apparently, I should have asked my tutor to write a few words in support.' ⇨ refer to[4].

5256 refer to[1] [A2 pass emph rel] mention, allude to (q v). o: matter, question; need, importance, urgency □ I have already referred to our guest's services to the party. □ The minister referred to the importance to the nation of increased exports. SC □ The shortage to which he referred has already been alleviated.

5257 refer to[2] [A2 emph rel] affect, concern; apply (to)[1] (q v). S: remark, statement; rule, restriction □ 'What I have to say refers to all of you.' □ There are few categories of workers to whom this order does not refer*.*

5258 refer to[3] [A2 pass emph rel] consult, look at, to refresh one's memory. S: announcer, actor. o: notes, script □ 'I've given you all copies of the script; but you shouldn't need to refer to them after the first week's rehearsals.' □ He carried a bundle of notes, to which he frequently referred during the course of the talk.

5259 refer to[4] [B2 pass emph rel] hand or pass sb or sth to another person or body for help or a decision. O: customer, inquirer; matter, case; dispute; claim. o: (another) branch, department; tribunal, court of inquiry □ Somebody at the reception desk referred me to the manager. □ Their claim for higher wages was referred to the Prices and Incomes Board. □ 'If he gives any more trouble refer him to me.'

5260 reflect on/upon[1] [A2 pass emph rel] think carefully about, consider carefully. o: position, state; (next) move; reply, response; how to react, what to do □ He reflected upon the likely consequences of this course of action. □ The likely reactions of the market would need to be reflected on before we acted.

5261 reflect on/upon[2] [A2 pass] indicate, suggest, that sb or sth is sound, unsound etc; make sb or sth appear in a good, bad etc light. S: remark; report; recommendation. o: courtesy, good breeding; ability, skill. A: well, favourably; adversely, unfavourably □ This mysterious man asked questions and made recommendations which reflected on their efficiency. DS □ Be careful to do nothing which reflects (adversely) upon the reputation of the department. □ The establishment of factories in Eastern Europe reflects very well on the vigour and enterprise of the Italian car industry. □ when no adv is present the implication is that events etc reflect badly on sb or sth.

5262 reflect credit on/upon [B2 pass emph rel] be good for the reputation of sb, enhance the good name of sb. S: behaviour, conduct; success, triumph; result, outcome. adj: some; no (not) any/much, little; great. o: participant, member; player, competitor □ The success of the meeting reflected the greatest credit on all concerned. □ The naturalness of this proceeding reflected credit on both parties. AH □ Considerable credit is reflected on the police for their part in the operation.

5263 refrain (from) [A2 pass emph rel] not begin to do, stop doing (sth unpleasant or antisocial). o: bad language, vulgar behaviour; aggression, hostilities □ I wish he would refrain from scattering his ash all over the carpet. □ Please refrain from smoking during the performance.

5264 refund (to) [B2 pass emph rel] return (to sb) money which he has already paid for goods or services (usu because those goods etc cannot be supplied). S: shop, cinema; local authority, college. O: cost (of goods, of admission); payment, fee. o: customer, patron; student □ The management regret the cancellation of the programme, which is due to factors beyond their control. If patrons will kindly go to the booking office the cost of tickets will be refunded to them. □ The University is unable to refund tuition fees to students who fail to complete the course.

5265 regain (from) [B2 pass emph rel] obtain once again (from). O: land, possessions; freedom, independence □ The island was regained from the French during a minor eighteenth-century war. □ These territories maintain trading links with the states to which they were subject, and from which they have now regained their independence.

5266 regale with [B2 pass emph rel] press, oblige, sb to accept, consume or listen to sth. o: gift, present; food, drink; song, story □ Don't imagine that when you go on a trade mission overseas our customers will regale you with champagne and cigars. □ I'm a little tired of being regaled with accounts of young Michael's exploits every time we go to visit your sister.

5267 regard as [B2 pass] consider sb to be, reckon that sb is; reckon (as) (q v). O: son, brother; addition, improvement; machine, process. o: rightful owner, legitimate heir; useful, valuable; inferior □ They never regard us, the children, as proper Catholics, because our father is a Protestant. □ He is generally regarded as the foremost authority on the subject.

5268 regard with [B2 pass emph rel] consider sb or sth with a particular attitude, in a certain light. o: approval, favour; caution, hesitation; disapproval, disfavour □ If you would care to put in an application I am sure it will be regarded with sympathy. □ His intervention at that point was regarded with some disfavour. □ With such open hostility was this move regarded that the Government was forced to reconsider its general policy for the island.

5269 register with [A2 rel B2 rel] leave a formal record of one's name, address etc, with the civil authorities. O: one's name; oneself, one's family. o: police, Home Office □ Overseas students normally register (themselves) with the police shortly after their arrival in the country.

5270 reign (over) [A2 emph rel] rule as the king or queen (over). o: people, country □ He was forced to leave the country over which he had reigned for twenty years. □ Victoria reigned over a great variety of peoples and lands.

5271 reimburse (for) [B2 pass emph rel] repay to sb the money he has spent for a particular purpose, or the value of sth he has lost. o: breakage, loss; moving, travelling □ We shall be glad to reimburse you for sending us the papers (or: reimburse you the cost of sending etc). □ He considered himself amply reimbursed for the theft of his typewriter.

5272 rein in [B1i pass] check or restrain a horse by pulling on its reins. O: horse, mount, pony □ The scout reined in his horse, dismounted, and ran towards us with his message.

reissue (to) [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ next entry.

5274 reissue with [B2 pass emph rel] return, issue again, sth that has been temporarily withdrawn. S: firm, office; clerk, storekeeper. o: document, pass; overall, apron □ The men were reissued with warm clothing after an unexpected change in the weather (or: Warm clothing was reissued to them after etc). □ The office will reissue you with your cards when the details have been checked.

5275 rejoice (at/over) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) be very glad (about), be joyful (about). o: news, announcement; success, victory □ The British rejoiced over the end of food rationing, which marked an important stage in the lifting of austerity. □ I'm sure John's not making fun of us. He's not the kind of man to rejoice at other people's misfortunes.

5276 rejoice in [A2 rel] (jocular) be called, have the style or title of; glory in² (q v). o: △ the name, title, style (of) □ Our unpleasant friend rejoices in the name of Minister of Justice. SC □ I can't recall the title in which he rejoiced at the time.

5277 relapse (into) [A2 rel] be overcome (by) again, sink back (into). o: illness, fever; vice, sin, heresy; (bad) ways, (old) habits □ After a short burst of enthusiasm, he relapsed into his usual apathy. □ Nothing could rouse him from the black mood into which he had relapsed.

5278 relate to [A2 rel] form personal ties with, form a natural relationship with. o: colleague, workmate; the opposite sex; doctor, analyst □ She finds it difficult to relate to her tutors and fellow-students. □ It was not his kind of world: there were very few in his immediate circle to whom he could relate.

5279 related to [pass (B2)] (be) connected to sb by blood or marriage; belong to the same species as. o: family, house; order, species □ The present Queen is related*, directly or by marriage,* to most of the other royal families of Europe. □ The zoologist's classification by families, genera, and so on, shows how the animals known to man are related to each other.

5280 relate (to/with) [B2 pass emph rel] show a link or connection between; connect (with). O: event, phenomenon, occurrence; fact, detail □ I find it hard to relate these events with the story as it has emerged so far. □ The recent price increase is not related to alterations in the tax structure (cf The increase and the alterations are not related).

5281 relax one's grip/hold (on) [B2 pass emph rel] allow one's grip or control to become less tight or severe. S: dictator, tyrant; (strict) parent; weather. o: people, country; family; countryside □ Frank continued to talk quietly and soothingly to the girl until her frightened grip on his arm was relaxed. □ Winter had relaxed its iron grip on the landscape. □ Better times ahead may persuade the Chancellor to relax his hold on the economy.

5282 relay (to) [B2 pass emph rel] pass, convey (to sb) a message etc which originates from sb else. S: radio station, switchboard; messenger, secretary. O: signal, message; order, instruction □ Sub-stations were asked to relay the message to all receivers tuned to their networks. □ A standard procedure ensured that orders were relayed with minimum delay to all sub-units in the division.

5283 release (from) [B2 pass emph rel] let go (from); set free (from). O: bomb, rocket; captive, prisoner; servant, priest. o: aircraft; detention, prison; promise, bond, obligation □ He was re-arrested on a fresh charge two days after being released from gaol. □ This payment will release you from any further obligation to the company.

5284 relegate (to) [B2 pass emph rel] place in a lower or inferior position. O: wife, servant, employee; team. o: (lower) status, rank; (third) division □ He never involves his senior staff in decision-making: they feel relegated to the status of office boys. □ (League football) Our local team is struggling to avoid being relegated *(*to the second division).

5285 relieve of¹ [B2 pass rel] take sth away from sb (to help him, lighten his burden etc). O: traveller, visitor; colleague. o: luggage, load; responsibility, workload □ 'Let me relieve you of that case: it looks terribly heavy.' □ He was happy to be relieved of some of the detailed paperwork connected with the project.

5286 relieve of² [B2 pass rel] dismiss sb from; remove (from)² (q v). O: general; civil servant. o: command; post □ The Commander-in-Chief was relieved of his command for concerning himself with questions that were properly the responsibility of the politicians.

5287 relieve of³ [B2 pass] (jocular) steal sth from sb. o: money, valuables □ Some light-fingered rogue had relieved him of his wallet.

rely on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] (be able to) trust sb or sth to behave or function well. o: him etc; help, aid, support; machine, instrument □ She had proved that she could be relied on in a crisis. DC □ You can't rely on his assistance (or: on him for assistance; or: on him to assist you). □ Most industry within Cornwall can be relied on to produce only modest growth. OBS

5288 remain behind [A1] stay where one is, after others have left; stay behind (q v), stop behind (q v). S: student, participant; (member of, several of the) class, audience □ Some of the committee offered to remain behind to help clear up after the meeting. □ 'If you interrupt the lesson any more, John, you'll have to remain behind when the others have gone home.'*

5289-remand (in custody) [B2 pass] (legal) order sb to be sent back to prison while further inquiries are made about him. O: accused, prisoner □ The accused was remanded in custody for a further week to await the outcome of police investigations into a drugs racket in which he was said to be involved.

5290-remark upon [A2 pass adj] notice and comment on. o: absence, lateness; appearance, dress; conduct, habit □ The quality of his work has often been remarked upon by his superiors. □ One of his most remarked-upon faults is a lack of tact and discretion.

5291-remember in one's will [B2 pass] leave money or property to sb in one's will (testament) □ I hope the old man will remember the whole family in his will. □ I don't expect to be remembered in her grandfather's will.

5292-remember to [B2 pass emph rel] give one's greetings, best wishes, to. o: family, friend, colleague □ Remember me to everyone at home.* □ He asked to be remembered to all his friends in the department. □ often imper.

5293-remind (of) [B2 pass emph rel] cause sb to remember, recall to sb's mind. S: colleague, friend; letter, souvenir. o: date, appointment; holiday, happy time □ It was fortunate that you reminded me of my meeting with Jones (or: reminded me that I had to meet Jones*). □ 'I keep the book in the drawer of my desk and look at it sometimes. It reminds me a bit of our talks.' UTN

5294-remind of [B2 pass] suggest that sb is like sb else. S: he etc; face, manner. o: father, brother; celebrity, actor □ The way he behaves when he is angry reminds me of his father. □ I am trying to think who he reminds me of.

5295-remit (to) [B2 pass emph rel] (banking) send, transfer, money (to sb), usu by regular instalments, and by arrangement with a bank, post office etc. O: money; part, a proportion (of one's salary, one's pay); allowance □ Soldiers serving overseas arrange to remit part of their pay to their wives and families. □ The Bank will be glad to remit your repayments to the hire-purchase company by monthly Banker's Order.

5296-remonstrate (with) [A2 emph rel] (formal) try to persuade sb, by strong argument, that a course of action is wrong □ We tried remonstrating with him over his treatment of the children. □ There's little point in remonstrating with John. He won't listen to reason.

5297-remove (from)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] make sth disappear by cleaning. O: mark, stain. o: coat, table-cloth □ Act promptly to remove spots from these fabrics. The longer you delay the more indelible will the marks become. □ All traces of rust should be removed from the metal before you begin to apply paint.

5298-remove (from)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] dismiss sb (from); relieve of[2] (q v). O: officer; minister; manager. o: command; post, office; control, management (of a business) □ Timoshenko was quietly removed from command and transferred to the north-western front. B □ The new managing director removed Manning from his position as head of Sales Division.

5299-rend to [B2 pass] dismember, break, with strong, tearing movements; rip to (q v). S: tiger, eagle; machinery. O: deer, mouse; wood, metal. o: △ pieces, shreds; matchwood, tatters □ Whole logs are fed into the jaws of the machine and rent to pieces in a matter of minutes.

5300-render down [B1i pass adj] turn (a solid substance) into liquid, fat, usu by applying heat. O: lard, (solid) fat; carcase □ The whale blubber is rendered down to make oil. □ You can render the chicken carcase down to make stock (for soup, gravy).

5301-render into [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) put into another language; translate (from) (into) (q v). O: text; play, novel. o: foreign tongue □ Into how many languages have the plays of Shakespeare been rendered?* □ It was a collection of short stories, badly rendered into English.

5302-render (to) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) give in return for sth; provide as a gift or favour. O: thanks, tribute; help, assistance, benefit. o: God, Caesar; the aged; stranded ship □ Render thanks to God for all His blessings.* □ Young volunteer workers render a valuable service to the community (or: render the community a valuable service*). □ 'Rendering to Caesar the things that are Caesar's' means meeting one's proper obligations as a citizen — for example, paying one's taxes.

5303-render up (to) [B1i pass B3 pass] (formal) hand to the enemy in admission of defeat; surrender (to)[1] (q v), yield up[1] (q v). O: stronghold, fortress; town, city □ After a prolonged siege, the town was rendered up to the insurgents.

5304-repay (by/with) [B2 pass emph rel] perform a mean or ungenerous action in return for a generous one. O: hospitality, generosity, kindness; sacrifice, service. o: (by) behaving badly, acting meanly; (with) ingratitude; indifference □ 'And how do they repay our hospitality? By drinking all our whisky and playing that radio to all hours of the night.' □ The hospital workers thought themselves badly used by the government. It was a case of long hours of work repaid with low wages and a niggardly pension. ⇨ next entry.

5305-repay (for) [B2 pass emph rel] give sth to sb in return (for). A: handsomely, generously. o: generosity, kindness; effort, hard work □ We must do something to repay him for helping us. □ I felt amply repaid for all the extra hours I had worked. ⇨ previous entry.

5306-repel (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) force to withdraw (from), repulse (from) (q v). O: enemy; invader. o: lines, trenches; island □ Assault troops were repelled from the west bank of the river before they were able to establish a firm bridgehead.

5307-repent (of) [A2 pass rel] (formal) be full of regret (for), be very sorry (for). o: wickedness, misdemeanour, folly, foolishness □ He deeply repented (of) his foolish actions. □ The man should not be reproached for errors (of) which he has fully repented.

5308-replace (by/with) [B2 pass rel] put, use, in the place of. O: coal, gas; horse; turboprop engine. o: electricity, nuclear power; motor-transport; jet engine □ They've replaced most of the old looms with brand-new ones imported from the States. □ On the finance committee Smith has been replaced by Brown (cf Brown has replaced Smith etc). □ *There is nothing left in stock (with which) to replace the damaged machinery.

5309-reply (to) [A2 pass emph rel] speak or write in answer (to). o: questioner, interrogator; accuser; correspondent; question, inquiry; letter □ At the end of his talk the visitor spent ten minutes replying to questions put to him by the audience. □ I've written to the manufacturer three times to complain about delays in the supply of spare parts. None of my letters have been replied to. □ The prisoner will have the opportunity to reply to these accusations in due course.

5310-report (for duty/work) [A2] arrive at one's place of work etc, and tell the person in charge that one is ready □ He reported for work a few minutes before the night shift went on. □ 'Corporal Smith reporting for duty*, Sir!'*

5311-report (on/upon) [A2 pass adj emph rel] give news, information (about). o: event, development; crisis, disaster; meeting, gathering □ The local newspaper reported very unfavourably on the recommended route for the new by-pass. □ There are few aspects of Far Eastern affairs on which he has not reported for our readers.

5312-report (to)[1] [A2 rel] announce that one has arrived and is ready for duty, work etc. S: newcomer; recruit; new boy. o: manager, duty clerk; orderly sergeant; housemaster, prefect □ On arrival, new recruits should report to the orderly room.

5313-report (to)[2] [A2 rel] be responsible to, be controlled by. S: salesman, executive. o: area manager, managing director □ 'I'm sending you to the North on a fact-finding trip. Now, you won't have any dealings with the area managers: you report direct to me here in London.'

5314-report (to)[3] [B2 pass emph rel] inform sb in authority that an accident etc has occurred. O: loss, breakage, discrepancy. o: manager, domestic bursar □ Any serious fluctuations in pressure should be reported at once to the engineer in charge. □ You must report the disappearance of these keys to the hotel manager.

5315-report (to)[4] [B2 pass emph rel] complain about sb, or sth he has done, to a person in authority. O: employee; soldier; shopkeeper; oneself; conduct, impertinence. o: management; officer; board, association □ 'I'm reporting you to the police for dangerous driving.' □ 'Go and report yourself to the Headmaster. He will deal with you.' □ 'Your impertinent remarks will be reported to the manager.'

report (upon) [A2 pass adj emph rel] ⇨ report (on/upon).

5317-repose in [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) trust sb to behave, or manage affairs, well. O: △ (great, a good deal of) trust, faith, confidence. o: him etc; promises, good intentions; ability, powers □ We repose great confidence in his ability to handle the negotiations. □ In his tact and discretion, especially, we had always reposed great trust.

5318-represent (as) [B2] portray sb, make sb appear, in a particular position or role, or as having certain qualities. S: painter, sculptor; writer; picture, report; leader, statesman. O: subject, patron; landscape; event, incident; oneself. o: youth, athlete, scholar; outline, blur; tragic, unavoidable; lacking in discretion, possessed of all the virtues □ In this early portrait the prince is represented as a young Grecian warrior. □ How are these Victorian fathers represented to us? As rather terrifying figures of authority. □ In his public appearances the candidate was careful to represent himself as a man of the people.

5319-reproach (for) [B2 pass emph rel] criticize sb, or oneself, because of sth he, or one, has failed to do. O: colleague, husband; oneself. o: forgetfulness, idleness; neglecting one's family, spending too freely □ You've done nothing to reproach yourself for. □ 'You shouldn't reproach the children for forgetting birthdays. You're pretty bad at remembering dates yourself.' ⇨ next entry.

5320-reproach with [B2 pass emph rel] name a fault etc as a reason for criticizing sb. O: friend, colleague. o: fault, failing; neglect, laxness □ The Government cannot be reproached with neglect of those on fixed incomes. □ She's not mean or vindictive. That's the last thing with which one could reproach her. ⇨ previous entry.

5321-reprove (for) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) criticize sternly, chide (for). O: people, flock; follower, member. o: indolence, backsliding, extravagance □ Southerners are reproved (by Northerners) for their indolence and moral laxity. □ For all these shortcomings they should expect to be sternly reproved.

5322-repulse (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) force to withdraw (from), repel (from) (q v). O: enemy; attacker, invader. o: position, shore □ The enemy broke through the front line, but were firmly repulsed from the higher ground by cavalry.

5323-request (from) [B2 pass emph rel] (formal) ask sb for sth, ask sth of sb, in a polite but formal way. O: fact, detail; help, advice. o: office, agency, department □ The sales manager requested up-to-date information from his men in the field (or: requested them to send up-to-date information). □ The secretary presented a list of charitable trusts from which we had requested financial support (or: which we had requested to give financial support).

5324-require (from/of) [B2 pass rel] (formal) expect, demand, of sb as a duty or obligation. O: obedience, conformity, good manners; that one should behave, be punctual. o: employee, child, pupil □ All he requires of a class is that they should be clean, punctual and submissive. □ He did all that was required *(*of him) by the regulations. □ To ask for cleanliness and tidiness is to require a good deal from a small child.

5325-requisition (from) (for) [B2 pass emph rel] (military) demand sb to supply goods or services for military use, esp during an emergency. S: the military; officer. O: stores; billet; fodder. o: (from) civilian; farmer, villager; (for) troops; horses □ A sergeant went from door to door requisitioning billets for the men. □ The army requisitioned horses from the farmers for their baggage train (or: They requisitioned the farmers for horses to equip their baggage train).

5326-rescue (from) [B2 pass emph rel] deliver, set free (from); preserve (from). O: child, (helpless) person; captive; criminal, down-and-out; author, book. o: danger, drowning; prison; misery, indigence; oblivion □ The fire brigade rescued three children from the top floor. □ The film had been branded as 'uncommercial' by the major distributors. From this judgement no amount of critical acclaim could rescue it. □ By unearthing and identifying manuscript scores, musical scholars have rescued several minor composers of the period from oblivion.

5327 research into [A2 pass emph rel] study, analyse, sth to discover answers to problems, extend knowledge etc. S: (social, natural) scientist, historian. o: custom, habit; structure, system; period, reign □ He is researching into the reading problems of young school children. □ This is an important problem into which too few social scientists have researched.

5328 reserve (for)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] keep in store, keep back, for later use. O: food, ration; energy, strength. o: later; the winter; emergency □ Reserve some energy for the last lap of the course. □ A very bright future is reserved for you (= is in store for you).

5329 reserve (for)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] book a place, or indicate that one is being kept free (for sb), esp on public transport, or in a theatre, stadium or restaurant. O: seat, place, table. o: passenger; latecomer, special guest □ 'Try to reserve a seat for me (or: reserve me a seat) on the Saturday afternoon coach.' □ The front row is reserved for overseas visitors. □ 'Do you mind if I sit here?' 'I'm sorry, I'm reserving the place for a friend.'

5330 reside in [A2 emph rel] (formal) be represented by, be embodied in (q v). S: authority, power. o: body, chamber; king, president, court □ The highest judicial authority resides in the Supreme Court. □ In which of the two Houses does the legislative power really reside?

5331 resign (from) [A2 emph rel] (formally) relinquish a post etc; give up[2] (q v). o: post, seat, place; the civil service, magistrature □ He has resigned (from) his post as Permanent Secretary. □ They are intending to resign from the committee. □ from is deletable before post, job etc, but not before committee, panel etc.

5332 resign (oneself) to [B2 pass emph rel] accept, though not happily, sth which cannot be avoided. o: consequences, outcome; fate, destiny; not succeeding in sth, losing sb □ He must resign himself, in fact, to the loss of a percentage. PL □ 'There's no escaping death, it catches you in the end; my end is here and now, and now I'm resigned to it.' HSG □ With less than a week to go before I left, I had resigned myself to not being able to add a Golden Cat to the collection (i e of wild animals). BB □ passive, as in the second example, with be, become, seem.

5333 resolve into [B2 pass emph rel] present in detail as, analyse into. O: problem, task; body, organization; organism, substance. o: factors; components, constituents, elements □ The task confronting us may be resolved into three basic requirements. □ The meeting resolved itself into a number of working committees.

5334 resolve (on/upon) [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) decide firmly to have or do sth; agree (on/upon) (q v). o: action; attack, advance; success; expansion, growth □ The general resolved on an approach by night to recapture the lost ground. □ A plan was resolved on which avoided a major restructuring of the school system.

5335 resort to [A2 pass adj emph rel] use, adopt, a particular means (usu unpleasant) to achieve one's ends; have recourse to (q v). o: guile, trickery; force, violence □ Terrorists resorted to bombing city centres as a means of achieving their political aims. □ These are means we have never resorted to to obtain information.

resound in/through [A2] ⇨ next entry.

5337 resound (with) [A2 emph rel] echo loudly (with), ring (with) (q v). S: hall, house, church. o: cry, singing, music □ The streets resounded with happy voices (cf Happy voices resounded in/through the streets). □ The tower resounded with the clamour of bells.

5338 respect (for) [B2 pass emph rel] honour, esteem (for). o: courage, integrity; not yielding to pressure, standing by one's promises □ 'There aren't many who would endanger their political careers, as he did, over an issue of principle. For this one must respect him.' □ The qualities for which he is chiefly respected are his ability to make quick decisions and his tenacity in following them through.

5339 respond (to) [A2 pass emph rel] behave in answer to, or as a result of, sth; react (to) (q v). S: body; muscle, limb; livestock, pets; plane, car. o: exercise, fresh air, good food; careful handling □ The patient is responding well to the new course of drugs. □ Their envoys show no sign of responding to our proposals. □ To this kind of teaching the class had always responded badly.

5340 rest on one's laurels [A2] pause to enjoy the fame one has earned by one's work (usu the suggestion is that one should be going on to harder achievements) □ There is no sense in resting on your laurels. You still have difficult problems to face. □ It might be better for his reputation if he stopped writing and rested on his laurels, as some other novelists had. PW

5341 rest upon [A2 emph rel] have as its basis, be based on (⇨ base on/upon). S: case, argument, contention; fame, reputation. o: (sound, poor) evidence, hearsay; writing, speeches □ Keats' reputation as a poet rests largely upon the Odes and the later sonnets. □ Upon such slender evidence as this did his case rest. □ All our hopes rested upon this venture.

5342 rest with [A2 emph rel] be sb's responsibility, be in sb's hands. S: choice, decision; result, outcome. o: elector; manager, doctor; consumer □ Whether the talks are successful or not rests with a small number of men. □ It rests with you to settle your differences as best you can. □ Subject may be a clause introduced by an inf, or when, whether, how etc.

5343 restore in [B2 pass emph rel] give back to sb the belief that sb or sth is powerful, efficient etc. O: △ faith, belief, confidence. o: government, civil service, police; currency, economy □ These measures have helped to restore a belief in our capacity to manage our affairs. □ The victories in Africa had restored public confidence in the ability of the Army to achieve results. MFM

5344 restore (to)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] let sb have his property again. O: money, jewellery; book, picture. o: owner, trustee; collection □ The stolen paintings have been restored to their rightful owners. □ I'll see to it that your property is restored (to you).

5345 restore (to)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] give back (to sb) a post, honour etc which he has lost. O: title, honour; position, office; command, rank. o: (public) servant; minister; officer □ The officer was acquitted by a higher court and had his rank restored to him. □ To those servants who had remained loyal the king restored their former titles. ⇨ restore to.

5346-restore (to)[3] [B2 pass emph rel] establish order etc once again (in a place). O: calm, peace, (law and) order. o: country, city □ It will be some years before peace is finally restored (to our country). □ Stewards struggled to restore order to the meeting.

5347-restore (to)[4] [B2 pass] rebuild, repair, redecorate etc, sth so that it is as it once was. O: building, quarter; painting, sculpture. o: (former, earlier) state, condition; splendour □ The palace gardens have been restored to their former grandeur. □ The portrait has been carefully restored (to its original state) by museum experts.

5348-restore (to)[5] [B2 pass] treat sb skilfully so that he becomes healthy again. O: patient, (sick, disturbed) person. o: ⚠ (full, sound) health, sanity □ He feels completely restored (to health) after a period of intensive care.

5349-restore to [B2 pass rel] put sb back in a place of responsibility (from which he was removed). O: employee, officer. o: post, command □ The officials freed under the amnesty have been restored to their posts. □ He seems in danger of losing the command to which he was recently restored. ⇨ restore (to)[2].

5350-restrain (from) [B2 pass emph rel] prevent sb, by firm control (from doing sth). O: spectator, crowd; follower; child. o: violence, mischief; doing harm, injuring oneself □ The police had difficulty in restraining the crowd from rushing onto the (football) pitch. □ Sometimes children must be restrained (e g from touching things) in their own interests.

5351-restrict (to)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] keep sth below a certain level, or within particular limits; limit (to) (q v). O: traffic; output, intake; discussion, debate. o: 30 mph; ten kilos, five litres; (certain) topics, questions □ The doctor has restricted my smoking to ten cigarettes a day. □ 'I'm afraid we shall have to restrict discussion to matters arising from the document.'

5352-restrict (to)[2] [B2 pass rel] order, ensure, that only specified people see certain materials. O: document, paper, file; film, tape. o: (senior) officer, official, minister □ The information in that booklet is restricted to military personnel.

5353-result from [A2 emph rel] happen as a consequence of, be the result of. S: accident, injury; loss, damage; improvement, success. o: inattention, neglect, absence; help, involvement □ The goal resulted from a misunderstanding between two defenders. □ Much good may result from his intervention in the dispute. ⇨ next entry.

5354-result in [A2] have as an outcome or consequence. S: talks, negotiations; match; help, participation; failure, absence. o: agreement, stalemate; victory, draw; improvement; disaster, accident □ The talks have resulted in a lessening of suspicion. □ The game resulted in a goalless draw. ⇨ previous entry.

5355-retail (to) [B2 pass emph rel] repeat (to), pass on (to)[1] (q v), in detail. O: story, tale; news, gossip. o: all and sundry, everyone who would listen; reporter, police □ 'I shouldn't share any confidences with her, if I were you. Before you know where you are they'll be retailed to half the street.' □ Investigations revealed that a senior executive in the company had been retailing industrial secrets to a rival concern.

5356-retail (to) (at) [A2 rel B2 pass rel] be sold, sell, retail (i e from a shop direct to the customer) (at a certain price). S: [A2] O: [B2] goods, merchandise; article; soap, sugar. o: (to) customer, shopper; (at) (special, bargain) price; discount □ What do the family-size cartons retail at? □ Supermarkets can afford to retail cigarettes at a couple of pence below the price charged by most tobacconists.

5357-retain (on/over/upon) [B2 pass emph rel] continue to influence, control, dominate etc. O: control, dominance, hold, influence. o: child, wife; public, electorate; game, match □ The generals struggled to retain their control over a very fluid battle. □ This great player retains his strong hold on the affections of the crowd.

5358-retaliate (against) [A2 pass] hurt, punish, sb in return for some offence or injury one has suffered. o: attack, incursion; bandit, hooligan, tough; conspiracy □ The regular forces would retaliate swiftly against guerrilla attacks from across the border. □ Boycott retaliated against some pugnacious bowling by driving the next two balls past the bowler for four.

5359-retire (from) [A2 rel] leave, because of age, fatigue etc. o: job; the civil service, business; fight, struggle □ He's thinking of retiring from his post several years before the normal age (of retirement). □ Jones retired from the 10 000 metres after completing only four laps of the track.

5360-retire (from) (to) [A2 rel] (military) move back (from one position) (to another) (usu in an orderly manner); retreat (from) (q v) □ We retired to prepared positions behind the river line. □ The enemy were careful to destroy the fortifications from which they were retiring.

5361-retire (to bed) [A2] (formal) go to bed □ The old people would retire to bed early, to save fuel and light.

5362-retreat (from) [A2 emph rel] move back (from), because of a threat of defeat, capture etc; withdraw (from) (q v). S: army, troops; dealer, agent, prospective buyer; negotiator. o: line, position; deal, arrangement □ The positions from which the enemy had retreated were extensively booby-trapped. □ Through excessive caution, we felt, our backers retreated from a firm undertaking to meet the entire cost of building.

5363-retrieve (from) [B2 pass emph rel] find, recover, sth which was believed lost. O: belongings, furniture; letter; valuables. o: fire; wreck, ruin □ Some of the passengers were able to retrieve their luggage from the wrecked aircraft. □ He retrieved the papers from the dusty files where they had lain for years.

5364-return to[1] [A2 pass emph rel] consider again, go back to (in the course of an argument or exposition). o: theme, point, proposal □ In the course of my remarks I shall return several times to this statement. □ 'I wonder if we could return for a moment to what you were saying earlier.'

5365-return to[2] [A2 pass emph rel] resume, adopt, again. o: (former, old) ways, habits, style of life; tactics, methods □ After going straight for a bit, he will return to petty thieving. □ The Chan- cellor has returned to the familiar mixture of credit restriction and higher personal taxation.

5366-return to[3] [A2 rel] go back to a previous state. S: farm, estate; arable land. o: desert, scrub, bush □ West African farmers may cut a new farm from the bush every one or two years, allowing the land previously cultivated to return to forest.

5367-rev up [A1 B1i pass adj] (informal) increase the speed of revolutions of an engine (usu before moving off). S: [A1 B1] driver, motorist. S: [A1] O: [B1] engine; car, lorry □ I could hear the cars of the soldiers and the diplomats revving up. QA □ Soon we hear the sound of the lorry revving up and moving off. ITAJ

5368-reveal (to) [B2 pass emph rel] make known (to sb) sth that was previously hidden. O: fact, detail; truth, falsehood; hopelessness, inadequacy □ These reports have revealed to the insurgents the precariousness of their position. □ He is not the sort of person to whom such important policy decisions should be revealed.

5369-revel in [A2 pass rel] take great pleasure or delight in. o: display, ceremony; mischief, gossip; poking fun, taking risks □ As a student, he revelled in mildly dangerous escapades, such as climbing university buildings at night. □ He wanted to go out on night patrol alone; that was the kind of situation of personal risk in which he revelled.

5370-revenge (oneself) on [B2 emph rel] satisfy one's pride by hurting sb in return for an injury one has suffered from him; take revenge (on) (for) (q v) □ In some societies it is a point of honour to revenge oneself on (or: be revenged on) somebody who has insulted a member of one's family.

5371-revert to[1] [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) consider again, go back to (in the course of an argument or exposition); return to[1] (q v). o: statement, argument; question, matter □ The Minister reverted to the point several times in the course of his speech. □ 'I must ask the Court's indulgence as I revert again to the events of that Friday evening.'

5372-revert to[2] [A2 pass emph rel] (formal) adopt, resume, again; return to[2] (q v). o: (old, former) ways, habits; methods, policies □ Following the resignation of the Northern Ireland Executive, the UK Government has in effect reverted to a system of direct rule from Westminster.

5373-revert to[3] [A2 rel] (formal) go back to a previous state; return to[3] (q v). S: land, farm. o: desert, scrub □ The fields which it is no longer profitable to cultivate have been allowed to revert to moorland.

5374-revert to[4] [A2 rel] (legal) become the property of sb again at some time or under certain conditions. S: property; estate, land. o: original owner; State, Church, Crown □ If he dies without leaving an heir, his lands will revert to the Crown. □ When the lease on your house runs out, the property will revert to Smith and Sons.

5375-revolt (against) [A2 emph rel] set oneself in opposition to authority; rebel (against) (q v). S: nation, people; youth, women. o: leader, government; tyranny, oppression □ Women were revolting against the restrictions on job opportunities. □ Youthful enthusiasts may feel frustrated if there is nothing against which they can revolt.

5376-revolt against/from [A2 emph rel] feel disgust or horror at, be revulsed by. S: sensitive, decent, compassionate (person). o: cruelty, injustice, corruption □ My soul revolted against this way of doing business, and I made that very plain. MFM □ Humane observers revolted from the employment of young children in the mines (or: were revolted by the employment etc).

5377-revolve about/around [A2 emph rel] have as its centre, have as its chief topic or concern, centre on/round (q v). S: one's life; argument, debate, discussion; dispute; struggle. o: family, work; question, matter; admission, exclusion (of sb); priority, method □ Mary has no outside interests at all. Her whole life revolves around her husband and the children. □ The dispute at the moment revolves around whether other delegates should attend. □ This is the point about which discussion now revolves and on which it has always been inconclusive.

5378-reward (for) [B2 pass emph rel] pay sb in return for sth he has done. O: staff, employee; finder (of lost property). o: work, services; honesty, loyalty; giving sth back □ Miners feel they are inadequately rewarded for the dangerous work they do. □ Anyone returning the necklace will be handsomely rewarded (for doing so).

5379-rhyme (with) [A2 rel B2 pass emph rel] (of words, or parts of words, at the ends of lines of verse) have the same sounds (as each other); set at the ends of lines words etc, having the same sounds. S: [A2] O: [B2] morn; striding; air. o: dawn; riding; there □ 'Seen' rhymes with 'been' (or: 'Seen' and 'been' rhyme); they are also close in spelling. □ In an early sonnet Keats rhymes 'eyes' with 'surmise' (or: rhymes 'eyes' and 'surmise').

5380-rid of [B2 pass rel] free sth or sb of. O: country, town, house; friend; oneself. o: bandit, criminal; pest, rodent; burden, illness □ The Pied Piper promised to rid Hamelin of its rats. □ She would like to rid herself of these terrible fears (or: be/get rid of these terrible fears). □ At last we are rid of him!

5381-riddle (with) [B2 pass emph rel] make many holes in sth (esp by shooting at it). O: building, fortification; vehicle, aircraft; body. o: shot, bullets, splinters □ The balloon was riddled with anti-aircraft fire and sank burning to the ground. □ With his first burst the flight commander missed, with the second he riddled the bomber's port wing.

5382-riddled (with) [pass (B2)] (be) full of holes, weaknesses etc. S: floor, panelling; curtain, carpet; argument, case. o: holes; termites, woodworm, moth; faults, inconsistencies □ 'Have you seen the joists under the bathroom floor? They're riddled with fine holes.' □ 'Yes, I've read the report and I don't think much of it. It's riddled with the most elementary errors.'

5383-ride down [B1i pass] direct one's horse at sb as if to knock him down. S: troops, police. O: spectator, onlooker □ Opponents of the Bill would try to break up meetings by threatening to ride down supporters of reform.

5384-ride for a fall [A2] act so recklessly that disaster is likely □ He has survived many escapades, but this will be his last: he's riding for a fall. □ continuous tenses only.

5385 ride out [B1iii pass] survive, weather, safely. S: ship, aircraft; country, government. O: storm, tempest; crisis, emergency □ Is his boat strong enough to ride out the storms of the Cape? □ Commentators doubt whether the Minister can ride out the present tense situation. □ That Friday night was the last time the Executive felt it had the strength to ride out the Loyalist strike. ST

5386 ride to hounds [A2] (sport) go fox-hunting □ In the Eighteenth Century, the clergy, like the nobility and gentry, often rode to hounds. □ He paid a subscription to the Hunt but never rode to hounds, though his daughter always did. DBM

5387 rig out [B1i nom pass adj] provide, supply, with clothes, kit etc; dress for a special occasion, or in a strange manner. O: crew, staff; oneself □ He rigged the children out in special boots and trousers for their climbing holiday. □ She was rigged out in an ancient green skirt of her mother's. □ Some of the crew were very oddly rigged out (or: had a very odd rig-out).

5388 rig up [B1i pass adj] mount, place in position, assemble, ready for use; make sth from materials perhaps not intended for the purpose. O: record-player, stereo; camera, lights; shelter, hut, raft □ Then we got the recording machine and rigged it up near the rattlesnakes's lair. DF □ On one side of the room they had rigged up a small bar. SML

5389 ring about/around/round [B1i pass] form a circle around sb or sth, esp to defend or imprison him or it. S: bodyguard, security man; enemy, intriguer. O: president; palace; town, fortress □ The security services took care to ensure that the President was ringed around by a party of exceptionally tall policemen. □ Germany in 1914 was not ringed about with enemies, as Kaiser Wilhelm claimed, but it was faced with the possibility of war on two fronts.

5390 ring around/round [A1 A2] telephone one address after another, esp to find which of a number of tradesman can provide the cheapest, or best, service. S: householder, shopkeeper, motorist. o: shop, store; dealer □ Before you start ordering oil for the central heating ring around the suppliers to see who will offer you the best terms. □ 'Maybe we'd better have the party tomorrow, instead of on Saturday. I'll ring round to find out who's free to come.'

5391 ring back[1] [A1] telephone sb again (e g having failed to contact him a first time) □ 'I'm afraid Mr Thomson isn't in at the moment. Would you like to ring back later in the morning?'

5392 ring back[2] [B1ii pass] after speaking to sb on the telephone, telephone him again later (e g to give him more information) □ 'I haven't got all the details with me at the moment, Peter. Can I ring you back in about ten minutes?'

5393 ring the curtain down/up [B1i pass] (theatre) signal for the curtain to be lowered or raised; (generally) mark the end or beginning (of) □ When the curtain was rung down on the first performance, the audience broke into enthusiastic applause. □ With the arrival in England of William of Orange, the curtain was rung up on a new epoch in our history.

5394 ring (for) [A2 pass rel] summon a servant etc by ringing a bell. o: maid, butler, waiter; service; tea, breakfast □ 'Would you mind ringing for some more hot water?' □ 'If there's anything you need, all you have to do is ring (for it).'

ring (in) [A2] ⇨ ring (with).

5396 ring in the New (Year) (and) ring out the Old (Year) [B1i pass] announce, or celebrate the end of one year and the beginning of the next by ringing bells (or, by giving a party etc) □ I bought another whisky and put gloom out of my mind: I was ringing a New Year in as well as an Old Year out. SML □ The subject of this week's cover (of the 'Radio Times') is the ringing out of the Old and the ringing in of the New. RT

5397 ring off [A1] end a telephone conversation by replacing the receiver □ 'I'll have to ring off now: I have a train to catch.' □ 'Damn your dinner,' I heard him howl as I rang off. CON ring out the Old (Year) [B1i pass] ⇨ ring in the New (Year) (and) ring out the Old (Year).

5398 ring the changes (on) [B2 pass emph rel] keep varying one's choice from a range of things. o: clothes, wardrobe; style, cut; act, performance □ They give cooks a whole range of interesting new flavours on which to ring the changes. TO □ After a week at the hotel I had rung all the possible changes on their limited menu.

5399 ring out[1] [A1] make a sudden, sharp noise. S: shot, cry, scream □ A sudden report rang out — like the sound of a car backfiring.

5400 ring out[2] [A1] (of a subscriber's number being obtained by the operator) give the 'ringing' tone. S: call; number □ 'Hello, caller. The number you wanted is ringing out now.' (Pause) 'I'm afraid they're not answering. Would you like to try again later?'

ring round[1] [B1i pass] form a circle round. ⇨ ring about/around/round.

ring round[2] [A1 A2] telephone one address after another. ⇨ ring around/round.

5404 ring up[1] [A1 B1i pass] call sb on the telephone □ 'I do wish he'd get out of the habit of ringing me up at mealtimes.' □ 'I'll ring (you) up some time during the week.'

5405 ring up[2] [B1i pass] record the amounts being paid for goods by pressing keys or buttons on a cash register. O: sale, purchase; goods, groceries □ In the village store our weekend groceries were rung up on an old-fashioned cash register.

ring the curtain up [B1i pass] ⇨ ring the curtain down/up.

5407 ring (with) [A2] be filled with a ringing sound; resound (with) (q v). S: hall, street; ears, head. o: shout, cry □ The playground rang with children's cries. □ Our ears rang with their insults (cf Their insults rang in our ears).

5408 rinse (out) [B1i nom pass adj] wash sth with clean water, in order to remove impurities etc. O: clothing; pot, basin; mouth □ After washing them in soapy water, rinse the clothes (out) thoroughly. □ Rinse your mouth (out) well (or: Give your mouth a good rinse(-out)) to get rid of the taste. ⇨ next entry.

5409 rinse out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] remove impurities etc by washing sth in clean water. O: dirt, impurities; soap; coffee-grounds. o: clothes; pan, cup □ Be careful to rinse all the soap out of your hair. □ Don't rinse the tea-leaves out into the sink: you'll clog the drain. ⇨ previous entry.

5410 rip across [B1ii pass] divide sth in two by pulling at it sharply and with force; tear across (q v). O: paper, letter; sheet, shirt □ In a particularly fierce tackle one player had his shirt ripped across*.* □ Without a word he ripped the report across and threw the halves into the basket.

5411-rip apart [B1ii pass] dismantle with sharp, forceful movements; disarrange a place (esp when searching for sth); tear apart[1] (q v). O: garment; book; room, flat □ 'For Heaven's sake, get my paper away from the kittens before they rip it apart*.'* □ 'The electrical wiring in the house will all need to be replaced, and I dare say the house will be ripped apart in the process.'

5412-rip away (from) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] take away, remove, (from) with a sharp, forceful movement. O: curtain, cover; cloak, veil (of secrecy etc). o: wall, bed; talk, activity □ He ripped away the faded hangings from the wall. □ With one remark he had ripped away the mask of pretence which covered their activities.

5413-rip down [B1i pass adj] take down with a sharp, forceful movement from a higher level; cause to fall by pulling sharply at the base; tear down (q v). O: curtain, picture; hut, fence; undergrowth, tree □ The crowd ripped down posters depicting their political opponents. □ The coarse grass and dry shrubs were ripped down by the blades of the cutter.

5414-rip in half/two [B2 pass] separate in two parts with a sharp, tearing movement; tear in half/two (q v). O: paper, cloth; document, form; shirt □ John ripped the letter in two and threw the halves in the fire. □ 'That last tackle was a bit dirty. The winger nearly had his shirt ripped in half*.'*

5415-rip into [A2 pass] make a hole in, with a vigorous, tearing movement; make a vigorous attack upon; tear into (q v). S: saw, cutter; bulldozer; boxer. o: tree; plaster, wall; opponent □ The animal's teeth ripped into the meat we had thrown him. □ Bullets from his wing guns ripped into the fuselage of the bomber. □ In the fifth round the champion ripped into his opponent with short jabs to the body.

5416-rip off[1] [B1i pass adj] remove, separate, with a sharp tearing movement. S: gale, wind; saw. O: roof; branch; limb □ Both wings of the aircraft were ripped off in the crash. □ He ripped off one end of the thick envelope and pulled out the letter.

5417-rip off[2] [B1i nom pass adj] (slang) steal; rob; knock off[6] (q v). O: money, car; bank, shop □ Is it surprising to find students ripping off books (cf ripping off a bookshop)? □ 'Gerry ripped off two old ladies in the street yesterday. He makes more out of rip-offs in one day than I earn in a week.'

5418-rip out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass rel] take, remove, from the centre of sth with a sharp tearing action; tear out/out of (q v). O: page, enclosure; middle, heart. o: magazine; city □ He ripped out and destroyed any news items referring to the theft. □ The planners have ripped out the maze of narrow streets and old buildings which formed the centre of the city.

5419-rip to [B2 pass emph] destroy with vigorous tearing movements; rend to (q v); attack critically, demolish. O: cloth, paper; wood; argument, speech. o: ⚠ pieces, shreds, matchwood, tatters □ Wooden buildings on the front were ripped to matchwood by the gale. □ 'Can't you see your story doesn't stand up to close examination? Anyone could rip it to shreds.'

5420-rip up[1] [B1i pass adj] destroy by pulling vigorously; tear up[1] (q v). O: paper, document; cloth; wood; road-surface, tarmac □ The machine rips up old cloth to provide fibres for new material. □ 'Do you get free coupons for soap stuck through your letterbox?' 'Yes, and I rip them up and throw them in the waste-bin.'

5421-rip up[2] [B1i pass] vigorously renounce, abandon, sth; tear up[2] (q v). O: treaty, agreement □ Very little faith can be placed in these bargaining processes if agreements can be ripped up when the ink is hardly dry on the paper.

5422-rise above [A2 pass rel] show that one is superior to sth and can abandon it; surmount, overcome. o: meanness, greed; strife, squabbling; difficulty, hardship □ Surely we can rise above petty personal jealousies. □ It must be hoped that the MCC (cricket club) will rise above this anxiety. G

5423-rise from the ashes [A2] return to its former state after having been badly damaged or destroyed. S: country, city; industry, economy □ After a few years of active reconstruction, many famous cities rose from the ashes of war. □ New factories were everywhere rising from the ashes of the old.

5424-rise from the dead/grave [A2] reappear alive after having been believed dead; become conscious after having supposedly died □ Jones had disappeared at sea a week before — now here he was, as if risen from the dead*.* □ No one could emerge from that avalanche alive, unless one believed that men could rise from the grave*.* ⇨ raise from the dead.

5425-rise from the ranks [A2] (military) become a commissioned officer (in the armed services) after having served, usu for some time, as a NCO □ Before the Second World War it was unusual to find a British officer who had risen from the ranks — most were the products of the military academies.

5426-rise in the world [A2] reach, achieve, a higher social and economic position in society □ The customs officer explained that he had once been a radio engineer, but it was difficult to understand whether he had risen or fallen in the world by local standards. BM □ He has risen far in the world*, financially, without however widening his interests or his sympathies.*

5427-rise to a/the bait [A2 rel] respond to sth aimed at interesting or attracting one; fall into a trap prepared for one □ She would wear her new perfume — this was a bait to which he had always risen in the past. □ They left food and ammunition on the track — but would the enemy rise to so obvious a bait*?*

5428-rise to the challenge/occasion [A2 rel] show the daring, imagination etc which fits a particular occasion □ Her breath was clean and fresh. I rose to the occasion like a shot. 'Kiss me, my sweet,' I said. SPL □ The challenge of risk or adventure was one to which he could be expected to rise*.*

5429-rise to one's feet [A2] stand up (usu to make a speech, propose a toast etc). S: chairman, member, guest □ Someone rose to his feet to question the chairman on a point of order. □ He rose unsteadily to his feet to reply to the speech of welcome.

5430-rise to the surface [A2] come to the surface of a lake, sea etc; become visible (after having been hidden). S: fish, submarine; fact, circumstance □ Great waves formed and spread as the hulk rose to the surface. □ Certain unpleasant aspects of this case are now rising to the surface. ⇨ raise to the surface.

5431-rivet on [B2 pass emph rel] give one's whole attention to, look very attentively at. O: ⚠ one's attention, eyes, gaze. o: scene, spectacle □ His whole attention was riveted on the little drama unfolding before him. □ He riveted his eyes on the door from which the procession was to emerge.

5432-rivet to the ground/spot [B2 pass] cause to remain completely still; root to the ground/spot (q v). S: news; shock, explosion. O: spectator, onlooker □ The sudden roar of low-flying aircraft riveted us to the spot. □ He stood riveted to the ground — it was some minutes before he could respond to the message.

5433-roam about/around [A1 A2] move about in an aimless way. S: vagrant; explorer; cattle, sheep. o: country, world; plain, prairie □ He was always a rather footloose character, roaming about all over the place, picking up odd jobs, but never settling to anything. □ Before the fencing of the open range the herds roamed around freely.

5434-roar (at) [A2 pass rel] address in a loud, deep voice (like that of a lion). S: crowd, mob; sergeant, teacher. o: speaker; squad, class □ I dislike being roared at as though I were a recruit on parade. □ The Liverpool captain waved to the crowd and the fans massed behind the goal roared back at him.

5435-rob (of)[1] [B2 pass rel] steal sth from sb. o: money, watch, wallet □ He was robbed of his week's wages by a pickpocket. □ 'It's a bit unfair to rob you of a cigar and then ask you personal questions into the bargain.' HD

5436-rob (of)[2] [B2 pass rel] prevent sb from enjoying sth that is within his grasp. o: success, victory; rest, sleep □ Arsenal were robbed of victory in the last minutes of play. □ 'That confounded cat robbed me of a good night's sleep.'

5437-rock to sleep [B2 pass] send sb to sleep by rocking his cradle, chair etc. O: baby, child □ David was rocked to sleep in his mother's arms. □ The movement of the ship rocked us to sleep.

5438-roll about [A1] (informal) enjoy oneself, laugh, hilariously. S: audience; spectator, listener. A: helplessly; in their seats, in the aisles □ The comedians of the silent movies don't seem to lose their appeal. They can still have an audience rolling about in the aisles.

5439-roll one's eyes at [B2] (informal) move one's eyes about so as to attract or seduce. S: girl, woman □ 'Stop rolling your eyes at every good-looking man that comes into the room!'

5440-roll away [A1] move away, recede, steadily. S: cloud, fog, mist, smoke □ A stiff breeze got up and the thick smoke rolled away.

5441-roll back[1] [B1i pass adj] remove sth by bending and turning it over and over. O: cover, tarpaulin, carpet □ The car has a soft hood, which can be rolled back in fine weather. □ 'Let's roll back the carpets and have a dance.'

5442-roll back[2] [A1] move back in steady succession. S: ⚠ the tide, waves □ The waves rolled back to reveal a black wooden box, half embedded in the sand.

5443-roll back[3] [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) move back, retreat, in a steady, uniform way. S: [A1] O: [B1] enemy; tide, wave (of disaffection, unrest) □ The battle line rolled back and forth with neither side being able to claim a clear victory. □ The new administration is confident of rolling back the tide of unrest which is sweeping the country.

5444-roll back[4] [A1 B1iii] (of a time in the past) return, recall it, steadily to one's consciousness. S: [A1] O: [B1] ⚠ the years, centuries □ As his father spoke, the years rolled back and John saw himself as a small boy again, playing on the beach at Sandgate. □ History as well narrated as this can roll back the intervening centuries and set the period vividly in focus.

5445-roll by [A1] pass in steady succession. S: ⚠ time; (the) months, years □ Months and then years rolled by until the most optimistic of the prisoners gave up hope of a reprieve. □ Many years had rolled by since I last sat talking to her.

5446-tear(s) roll down [A2] fall in a steady stream. o: ⚠ cheeks, face □ As his voice rose the tears began to roll down her cheeks.

5447-roll in[1] [A1] arrive in a steady stream. S: money, gift, donation; offer, promise (of help etc) □ Since the appeal was launched, cheques, postal orders and cash have kept rolling in. □ A flood of specimens (of wild life) would soon be rolling in. BB

5448-roll in[2] [A2] (informal) have a good deal of. o: money; jewels, furs □ 'What do the Americans want with £250? They're rolling in dollars.' RM □ continuous tenses only.

5449-roll off [B1i pass] print, duplicate, by passing paper etc through the rollers of a machine. O: copy, print, sheet □ You can quickly roll off some extra copies of the exercise on the duplicating machine. □ 'I'll roll you off a couple of dozen prints.' □ note the Indirect Object (you) in the second example.

5450-roll on [A1] (informal) (a stated wish or hope) may that day etc come quickly! S: Tuesday; next year, month; my time; death □ If the next few months are going to be as hard as this, then all I can say is: roll on death! □ 'Roll on my time!' (i e the time when a soldier's active service ends) □ Subject placed after roll on.

5451-roll-on/roll-off [nom (A1)] kind of ferry onto which, and from which, fully laden goods vehicles can be driven (thus saving the time and expense involved in transferring goods from a vehicle to an ordinary cargo vessel) □ One alternative which has been suggested for the Eastern Wharf is the provision of a roll-on/roll-off ferry terminal. SC □ Little has been heard of the roll-on/roll-off development since the question of North Sea oil arose. SC □ used attrib, as in the examples; a hyphen can replace the oblique: roll-on-roll-off.

5452-roll out [B1i pass adj] make flat and smooth by pressing with a roller, or rolling-pin. O: dough, pastry □ Spread some flour on the table and roll the pastry out very thin.

5453-roll over [A1] move to one side, esp in bed, by turning over □ Every time Stephen rolled over he pulled more of the bedclothes to his side. □ (children's song) 'There were ten in a bed and the little one said "Roll over!" They all rolled over and one fell out....'

5454-roll up[1] [B1i pass adj] form a flat object into a cylinder by bending and turning it. O: carpet, linoleum; map, chart □ The paintings were taken from their frames and rolled up for storage. □ She was tapping me with her rolled-up napkin. THH

5455-roll up[2] [B1i pass adj] (military) drive the flank of an enemy line back and round. O: line, position; flank □ If we can put a company on the enemy's weak flank, we can roll up his entire position without engaging our main force.

5456-roll up[3] [A1 emph] (informal) arrive, turn up[3] (q v), in some strength; arrive in an impressive or self-important way. S: crowd; dignitary, official □ The whole family rolled up to their daughter's first appearance on the stage. □ They'll be putting up the price of food when they see us roll up in this car. DBM □ (cry of a 'barker' outside a fair or circus) *'Roll up! Roll up! Second performance now beginning!'

5457-roll one's sleeves up [B1i pass] (informal) prepare oneself for serious work □ It's time you rolled up your sleeves and did an honest day's work. □ The girls rolled their sleeves up and got to work on her. 'You must get him out of your system,' they said. RATT

5458-romp home [A1] (racing) win easily. S: horse; runner □ The favourite romped home several lengths clear of the rest of the field.

5459-romp through [A1 A2] (informal) complete, pass, with no difficulty. o: course; test, exam; paper □ Patrick romped through his geography paper. □ It's a hard course: nobody romps through.

5460-roof over [B1i pass adj] put a roof over, cover with a roof. O: balcony, drive, approach □ They've roofed over an area at the back to make a sun-lounge. □ A walk roofed over with glass led to the greenhouse.

5461-root for [A2] (informal) strongly express one's support for sb. S: crowd, spectators; family, friends. o: contender, underdog □ 'Come on, Jeff, let's see some of the old form. You know we're all rooting for you.' □ In the last Presidential election, the young, the intellectuals and the racial minorities were rooting for McGovern.

5462-root out [B1i pass] get rid of, destroy, eliminate. O: slacker, parasite; unreliable, dissenting (element) □ Agents were sent to root out elements hostile to the regime.

5463-root to the ground/spot [B2 pass] cause to stand fixed and unmoving; rivet to the ground/spot (q v). S: fear, shock; noise, explosion □ Terror rooted him to the spot. □ He stood rooted to the ground, listening for the telltale rustling in the undergrowth.

5464-root up [B1i pass] pull from the ground with the roots, uproot. O: tree, shrub, flower □ They cut down the big trees and rooted up the stumps.

5465-rope in/into [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) persuade to join, enlist in, some body. O: member, follower. o: group, organization; joining sth, being a member □ She had roped in a recruit to the Women's Institute. PW □ Organizing the office party — now that's something you should avoid being roped into. □ He tried to rope me in on that swindle. DBM

5466-rope off [B1i pass adj] separate or enclose an area with a rope fence. O: field, pitch, paddock □ The judges' enclosure was roped off from the spectators. □ The horses paraded in a small roped-off area.

5467-rope up [B1i pass adj] tie a rope around sth, thus making it secure. O: bale, bundle, crate □ His cases and trunks were roped up for additional safety.

5468-rot away [A1] decay to the point where it breaks up, disintegrates, completely. S: body, flesh; limb, branch, tree □ Slates had been dislodged, and the wood underneath was rotting away. □ She would gradually rot away until she was as thin and dry as the boughs. DC

5469-rot off [A1] fall off, separate (from the main body) because of decay. S: branch, limb □ The ground is covered with stiff, dry branches which have rotted off as the trees die.

5470-rough in [B1i pass adj] enter roughly or in outline on a drawing. O: detail, shape, mass □ I roughed in one or two figures to give some idea of the finished drawing. □ The plan showed a few roughed-in trees and buildings.

5471-rough out [B1i pass adj] make a rough or outline plan. O: scheme, plan; route, itinerary □ So they roughed it (the future) out: Ned was going into the army and Robert into the navy. CON □ I've roughed out some arrangements for the move tomorrow.

5472-rough up [B1i pass adj] (informal) push sb about, tear and dirty his clothes etc (usu with the intention of frightening him, though not of hurting him badly). S: hooligan, ruffian □ A gang of youths set on him outside a pub and roughed him up. □ Keegan (a footballer) alleged that he had been roughed up by officials. BBCR

5473-round down [B1i pass] bring a price, weight etc to a round figure by lowering it. O: figure; price, cost □ Most shopkeepers don't like halfpennies and would even prefer to round their prices down if they can't round them up to the next penny.

5474-round off [B1i pass adj] make round and smooth. O: (sharp) edge, corner, angle □ Take a piece of sandpaper and round off the edges of the frame.

5475-round off (with) [B1i pass adj B3 pass rel] end, complete, suitably or satisfactorily. O: remarks, speech, sentence; meal, feast; performance, show. o: reference (to sth), mention (of sth); port, brandy; speech, sing-song □ The affair was pleasantly rounded off with a surprising resolution of thanks. SD □ This somewhat abstract description is rounded off with a number of examples. SNP

5476-round on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] turn to sb in sudden anger or irritation. o: companion; guard, questioner □ Stanley was irritated and rounded on his son: 'Why were you so late last night?' FFE □ He rounded upon her with an exasperated cry: 'Why must you keep following me?'

5477-round out [B1i pass adj] make fuller, more complete. O: story, narrative; sketch, painting □ Your narrative is rather thin: it needs rounding out, filling with interesting detail. □ The original scheme has now been rounded out with ideas from his colleagues.

5478-round up[1] [B1i nom pass adj] assemble, collect together (people or animals who are scattered, or who have fled etc). O: cattle, herd; fugitive, escapee, enemy; team, panel, party □ 'Round up the rest of the committee.' WDM □ The enemy were still there, though they should have been rounded up by that time. MFM □ *I have asked for the whole squad to be rounded up (or: for a round-up of the whole squad).

5479-round up[2] [B1i pass] bring a price or weight etc to a round figure by raising it. O: price, cost; amount □ When a decimal system is introduced, an existing price (e g £1 2s 6d) may be rounded down to, say, £1.12; however, it is more likely to be rounded up to £1.13.

round upon [A2 pass emph rel] ⇨ round on/upon.

5481-rout out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass rel] drive, chase, vigorously from. O: children; fugitive; pest. o: house, hiding-place, lair □ 'You can rout the children out of my study; I won't have them throwing everything into disorder.' □ We were routed out of our beds at three in the morning for a fire practice.

5482-rub along (together) [A1] (informal) live together smoothly, without friction. S: couple, colleagues □ They're rubbing along the same as ever. OI □ She and her boss have rubbed along together for years — for all the world like an old married couple.

5483-rub away [B1i pass adj] remove by continuous rubbing or friction. O: mark, letter; pain, stiffness □ The paint had been rubbed away from the arms of his chair. □ You need a good course of massage to get the aches and pains rubbed away.

5484-rub down[1] [B1i nom pass adj] prepare a surface for painting, distemper etc, by rubbing it with sandpaper etc. O: surface; woodwork; door, wall □ Give the doors a coat of primer, and then rub down well before applying the top coat. □ He rubbed down the old paintwork (or: *He gave the old paintwork a rub-down) before putting on a coat of emulsion.

5485-rub down[2] [B1i nom pass adj] dry oneself thoroughly (after a shower etc); dry a horse vigorously after exercise □ 'Rub yourself down properly after your swim; I won't have you catching cold.' □ The horses get a thorough rub-down after their morning gallop.

5486-rub sb's nose in it [B2 pass] (informal) remind sb forcibly of sth unpleasant he has done □ 'I know that I let you down badly over the arrangements for the party, but don't rub my nose in it in front of my friends.' □ People have no imagination. You've got to rub their noses in it before they'll recognize that they've offended someone.

5487-rub in/into[1] [B1i pass adj B2 pass emph rel] force sth into a material by rubbing it over the surface of the material. O: oil, polish, cream; ointment, linament. o: wood; furniture; skin, pores □ 'Rub linseed oil into the blade of your bat to prevent it from cracking. □ Rub some of this cream into your skin to protect it from the sun.*

5488-rub in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) constantly remind sb that he is unfortunate, inferior or dependent in some way. O: the fact, it; (it...) that he'd failed; how successful one is □ She first arranged to meet me and then changed her mind: I called that rubbing it in a little too far. SPL □ There's no need to rub (it) in that we lost by three goals. □ Father never failed to rub it into the family how much they depended on his money.

5489-rub off[1] [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove sth from a surface by rubbing. O: mark, letter, drawing; oil, paint; skin. o: blackboard, wall; table, shelf; knee, elbow □ 'Rub those words off the board before the teacher sees them.' □ *The plating on the spoons was so thin that it easily rubbed off (i e *one could easily rub it off).

5490-rub off[2] [A1 A2 B1i pass B2 pass] (cause to) appear less bright, remarkable, praiseworthy etc. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] gloss, glitter, shine. o: achievement, success □ [A1] With the passing of time some of the glitter of the achievement has rubbed off. □ [B2] The news of rigged ballots has rubbed some of the shine off their election victory.

5491-rub off onto/on to [A3] (informal) pass from one person or thing to another by contact or close association. S: quality; fame, success; nastiness, unpleasantness. o: family, associate, colleague □ Stay with him for a while, and let some of the glory rub off on to you. TT □ If he remains in the group, some of his warmth and outgoingness may rub off onto the shyer people.

5492-rub out[1] [B1i pass adj] remove, by rubbing, sth which is deeply or firmly marked or embedded in a fabric etc. O: dirt, stain, mark □ If you spill coffee on the carpet try to rub it out immediately with a damp cloth. □ *She tried to remove the mark from his jacket with a cleansing fluid, but it wouldn't rub out (i e *she couldn't rub it out).

5493-rub out[2] [B1i pass] (US slang) kill, murder. O: gangster, cop, boss □ A couple of mobsters were rubbed out in a fracas with the law.

5494-rub up[1] [B1i nom pass adj] polish sth until it is clean and shiny. O: silver, brasswork; table; leather □ *Those chairs will look fine once they've been given a good rub-up (or: *once they've been well rubbed up). □ 'Dust the mantelpiece and rub up the ornaments.'

5495-rub up[2] [B1i pass] (informal) refresh one's knowledge of a subject that has been neglected for some time; brush up (q v). O: French, Polish; maths, statistics □ If I'm to spend two weeks in Italy, I'd better rub up my knowledge of the language. □ Your shorthand is a bit rusty: you'd better rub it up.

5496-rub up the right way [B1ii pass] (informal) handle sb in a careful, soothing way (so as to get the best from him) □ He was careful to rub Mason up the right way, saying how invaluable his services had been to the club, and so on.

5497-rub up the wrong way [B1ii pass] (informal) treat sb clumsily, tactlessly (so as to anger or offend him) □ He's so easily rubbed up the wrong way: everything you say he seems to take offence at. □ 'Don't rub me up the wrong way: I'm in a foul temper this morning.'

5498-rub shoulders (with) [B2 rel] (informal) be on easy, intimate, terms (with), mix on terms of equality (with). o: great, distinguished (people) □ This is not the sort of club where the great rub shoulders with the humble (or: *where the great and the humble rub shoulders). □ He had freely ventured into the very heart of the industrial provinces and rubbed shoulders with the abori- gines (= the local people). CON

5499-ruffle up [B1i pass adj] (informal) disturb sth, make it untidy; annoy, irritate sb. O: hair, feathers; friend, colleague □ 'I've just had my hair set, Henry, and I can't bear you to ruffle it up.' □ 'You look rather ruffled up*. Has anything happened to upset you?' 'I'm not in the least* ruffled up*. I've never felt better in my life.'*

5500-rule against [A2 pass] (legal) make an official, or legally binding, decision that sth is not to be allowed. S: court, magistrate; council, committee. o: admitting evidence; allowing visitors □ The chairman ruled against admitting the press to this meeting. □ He will not be allowed to make his submission: the court has ruled against it.

5501-rule off [B1i pass adj] separate one part of a page etc from another by drawing a line with a ruler. O: drawing, footnote, heading □ Write out the figures in a column and rule off neatly at the bottom where you want the total to go. □ Put your name to one side of the page, leave a margin and then rule this off*.*

5502-rule out [B1i pass] regard as impossible or undesirable; dismiss; forbid. O: possibility, chance; occurrence, appearance □ The possibility cannot be ruled out that improvement is largely due to absence of fatigue. SNP □ I'm sure that Dr Macgregor would rule out visits from you as much too exciting for the patient. RM

5503-rule (over) [A2 pass emph rel] govern, have authority (over). S: king, president, elected chamber. o: empire, country □ European powers no longer rule (over) great overseas dominions. □ They resent being ruled over by a dictatorial boss.

5504-rule with a rod of iron [B2 pass emph] govern, manage, with great firmness or severity. O: people; employee; family, children □ A small kingdom ruled by herself with a rod of iron was what she liked. ASA □ 'How does he rule *his department?' 'With a rod of iron.'*

5505-rumour about/abroad [B1i pass] spread about news which is based on hearsay and is not very accurate. O: news; report, story (that he is leaving); it... that he has been dismissed □ It's rumoured about that he's been given a job in Scotland. □ To stop the wrong sort of story being rumoured abroad*, they've issued an official statement.* □ I suppose somebody in the Department first rumoured it about that Harry was leaving.

5506-runabout [nom (A1)] (informal) small car, esp of a kind in which one can make short journeys easily in towns □ 'We're getting rid of the station-wagon. We can never park it in town. What we need is a cheap little runabout that'll nip in and out of the traffic.'

5507-run across [A2 pass] meet sb, or discover sth, by chance. o: (old) friend, acquaintance; reference, allusion; picture, record □ I ran across one of my former colleagues on a visit to London. □ I ran across one of his earliest recordings in a second-hand shop.

5508-run after[1] [A2] run to try to catch sb or sth (e g because he has forgotten sth, because it has escaped etc) □ 'Quick, run after him: he's left his wallet on the counter.' □ 'Don't bother running after the bus — you'll never catch it.'

5509-run after[2] [A2 pass] (informal) follow persistently, pursue (in the hope of attracting). o: (attractive) girl, (eligible) man □ She had never before run after a man, and she was not very good at doing it seriously. H □ I hate to feel that I'm being run after*: it only makes me run in the opposite direction.*

5510-run one's head against/into a brick wall [B2] (informal) attempt sth in the face of immovable opposition; bang one's head against a brick wall (q v) □ To try to change the political convictions of these people would be like running your head into a brick wall. □ You may get your proposal accepted next year; at the moment you're running your head against a brick wall.

5511-run aground (on) [A1 A3 emph rel B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] (nautical) touch, and become fixed on, rocks, or on the seabed in shallow water. S: [A1 A3] O: [B1 B3] ship; tanker, liner. o: rock, sandbank □ [A3] Oil is gushing from the tanker which ran aground on the Seven Stones (reef). OBS □ [B1] 'Keep us out into the centre of the stream or you'll run us aground.' ⇨ go aground (on).

5512-run along [A1] (command to a junior, or familiar) go away, be off with you (because the person is being tiresome, or because one is busy) □ 'Be a good girl and run along*: Daddy's busy.'* AITC □ 'For God's sake run along*,' Robert snapped. 'You're dissipating my creative mood.'* CON

5513-run around [A1] (informal) move restlessly from one lover to another □ When is he going to stop running around and settle for one girl? □ (American Negro blues) She treated me right, she didn't let me down. But I wasn't satisfied, I had to run around*.*

5514-run-around [nom (A1 B1)] (informal) behaving towards sb in a fickle, deceitful or cunning way, so hurting or upsetting him □ He's certainly been getting the run-around from Sheila. He doesn't know where he stands from one moment to the next. □ Mogul is taking over the firm that is giving them the run-around in plastics production. BBCTV

5515-run rings around/round [B2] (informal) perform so skilfully that one's opponent looks clumsy or foolish. o: opposition, competition □ The visitors were so expert in every aspect of the game that they ran rings round the home team. □ Don't pick a fight with Roberts: he'll run rings around you.

5516-run at [A2] run towards sb as if to attack him, or towards sth with the aim of jumping over it. o: adversary; fence, wall □ A big fellow ran at me with a knife. □ He set his horse to run at the fence.

5517-run away (from)[1] [A1 A3 emph rel] escape (from), usu because the life is unpleasant. o: school, home □ He ran away from home when he was sixteen and went to sea. □ He ran away twice from his boarding school; he hated being cooped up in an institution.

5518-run away (from)[2] [A1 A3 pass emph rel] avoid sth or sb because one is shy, frightened, lacking confidence etc. o: difficulty, challenge; grown-up, teacher □ 'Don't run away*. I shan't eat you!'* □ Difficulties shouldn't be run away from*; they should be faced resolutely.*

5519-run away (with) [A1 nom A3 rel] leave home (with) (usu in the hope of marrying without parental consent). o: daughter, girlfriend □ John has run away with the boss's daughter (or: John and the boss's daughter have run away together). □ After making a runaway marriage, Elizabeth seemed to settle down to a fairly conventional life as a suburban housewife. □ runaway only used attrib, as in the second example. ⇨ run off (with).

5520-run away with[1] [A3] steal and carry away; run off with (q v). o: cash, takings; jewels; papers □ Someone in the office ran away with the plans of the new engine.

5521-run away with[2] [A3] consume, use up (q v), a great deal of sth. S: scheme, project; machine, appliance. o: money; gas, electricity □ Holidays abroad run away with a lot of money. □ Those new heaters run away with a lot of electricity.

5522-run away with[3] [A3] win clearly or easily. o: match, game, tournament □ The Brazilian team ran away with the first match in the series (cf The team scored a runaway win in the first match, where runaway is [nom (A1)]).

5523-run away with[4] [A3] gain complete control of, dominate. S: feelings, emotion, imagination □ You tend to let your feelings run away with you. TT □ He is not a good man for the job: he lets a fondness for intrigue run away with him.

5524-run away with the idea/notion [A3] (informal) be misled by an idea, accept an unfounded idea □ Don't ever run away with the idea that bankruptcy is a joke. TGLY □ The audience could be forgiven for running away with the idea that economic recovery was at hand. □ often in neg imper constructions, as in the first example.

5525-run back [B1i pass] wind a film etc in reverse so that it can be shown or heard again. O: film, tape, film-strip □ 'Just wait a minute while we have that sequence run back.' □ 'Run that excerpt back to the beginning and replay it in slow motion.'

5526-run back over [A3 rel] review, reconsider. o: events; career; year, month □ 'I should like to run back over the past term, singling out events of particular importance.' □ If you run back over the season, you can't pick out a game in which he played badly.

5527-run behind [A1 A2] not keep pace with one's timetable (for a meeting, radio programme etc). S: interviews, oral examinations; programme. m: five minutes, half an hour. o: △ schedule, time □ 'Please tell Miss Williams to cancel my appointment for eleven o'clock. We're running about fifteen minutes behind as it is.' □ 'If we run more than a few minutes behind schedule the whole evening's viewing will be thrown out of gear.'

5528-run counter to [A3 pass] contradict, not match; conflict (with) (q v). S: statement, behaviour, event. o: principle, professed belief, code □ This result runs counter to a very basic principle of human learning. SNP □ The situation runs counter to ordinary logic. SC

5529-run down[1] [A1 B1 pass adj] (cause to) suffer a loss of power, through neglect, age etc. S: [A1] O: [B1] engine, motor; clock; battery; industry, economy □ 'If you leave the car lights on all night you'll run the battery down.' □ The crusading spirit disappeared: there was the sensation of a machine that was running down. MFM □ Through a drying-up of capital investment much heavy industry in the area was in a thoroughly run-down state.

5530-run down[2] [A1 nom B1i pass adj] decline, reduce, in numbers or size. S: [A1] O: [B1] strength, forces; establishment, sales team. S: [B1] government, management □ The farm labour force is running down steadily (or: There is a steady run-down of the force). OBS □ We are running down our military presence in this area.

5531-run down[3] [B1i pass] knock to the ground, collide with. S: car, bus; liner, tanker. O: pedestrian, bicycle; boat □ I didn't get to her before she died. She'd been run down by a lorry. LLDR □ The destroyer was run down by an aircraft-carrier while manœuvring across her bows.

5532-run down[4] [B1i pass] find eventually after a long search. S: search-party, police. O: missing person, escaped convict □ I had a bit of trouble running Anderson down. AITC □ The suspect was finally run down at the home of one of his associates.

5533-run down[5] [B1i pass] criticize unkindly, belittle, disparage. O: family, friend; attempt, achievement □ 'The food had better be good after all that talk.' 'That's enough of running down my cooking,' she said. TT □ She's always running her husband down in public. I'm surprised he puts up with it.

5534-run down[6] [pass adj (B1)] (be) tired and in poor condition, because of overwork, lack of sleep etc □ 'You look thoroughly run down. Why don't you take a week's holiday?' □ He emerged from his ordeal in a completely run-down condition. □ passive with be, feel, look, seem. ⇨ run down[1].

5535-run-down [nom (B1)] (informal) (giving of) information, a briefing □ 'I've asked Mr Phillips to join us at this meeting because he can give us a run-down on the latest developments.' □ 'Go over to headquarters and try and get a run-down on the situation.'

5536-run down to [A3 rel] stretch as far as, extend to. S: garden, estate. o: river, road □ The grounds at Hampton Court run down to the water's edge.

5537-run (for) [A2 rel] (esp US) offer oneself as a candidate (for); stand (as) (for) (q v). o: mayor, governor □ Then Eisenhower retired from the United States Army; he had decided to run for President. MFM

5538-run for dear life/one's life [A2] leave, escape, quickly because one's life is in danger □ With pieces of burning masonry falling all around him, he ran for dear life. □ Office workers ran for their lives as an earth tremor shook the centre of town.

5539-run for it [A2] escape from danger by moving quickly □ At first he was a bit suspicious and ready to run for it should the animal attack him. DF □ 'Never mind your bloody boots. Run for it.' UTN

5540-run a mile (from) [B2] (informal) try hard to avoid sb (because he is boring, conceited etc) □ I could have been made into a boring, heartless (social) climber whom everyone ran a mile from. HAA □ 'I assure you I run a mile from people (or: run a mile to avoid people) unless I have to do business with them.' ASA 5541-run in[1] [B1i pass] (informal) arrest and take to a police station. O: vagrant, loiterer, drunk □ Trevor was run in for dangerous driving on Saturday night. SPL □ If you throw eggs at the speaker, you are liable to get run in for causing a breach of the peace.

5542-run in[2] [B1i pass adj] prepare an engine (esp of a motor car) for use by driving it slowly and carefully for a certain distance. O: car; engine □ 'Don't expect me to get you home quickly — I'm still running my car in.' □ The point of running your engine in carefully is not to cause excessive friction between the new working parts.

5543-run in the family [A2] be a feature (e g physical, moral) which keeps appearing in successive generations of a family. S: hair, nose, eyes; temper, courage, obstinacy □ We expect him to go into the navy: the tradition runs in the family. □ He refused to fill in personal details on some form. This idiosyncracy appears to run in the family. BM

5544-run into[1] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) strike, collide with. S: [A2] O: [B2] ship; bus, lorry. S: [B2] captain; driver. o: bank; wall, hedge □ He lost control of his car and ran it into a lamp-post. □ The prow of the boat ran into a bank of soft mud and stuck fast. □ Russian counter-attacks during the afternoon had run into the full strength of the 4th Panzer Army. B

5545-run into[2] [A2 B2 pass] (cause to) meet, encounter. S: [A2] O: [B2] country, firm, department. S: [B2] (bad) management, advice. o: trouble, difficulty; debt □ His wild extravagance is running his family into the red (i e debt). □ We expect to run into a few snags before the machine is ready for production.

5546-run into[3] [A2] meet, enter, an area of bad weather. S: ship, plane. o: storm, blizzard □ Climbing higher, we ran into a patch of thick mist which blotted out our route. □ Our boat ran into a force-nine gale in the Channel.

5547-run into[4] [A2] meet by chance. o: (old) friend, acquaintance □ I ran into my old English master while on holiday in Scotland. □ If you visit the studio, you may well run into someone you recognize from the cinema.

5548-run into[5] [A2] be of the size or order of, extend to. S: income, return, figure; book. o: hundreds, thousands (of pounds), five figures; (several) editions, printings □ The sum involved in the negotiation runs into five figures (i e tens of thousands of pounds). □ His latest novel has run into three editions within the year.

5549-run into the ground [B2 pass] (informal) (cause to) move, work, play etc so energetically that one is near to exhaustion. S: [A2] O: [B2] troops, transport; team, player. S: [B2] general; captain, coach □ While the Germans were slowly running all their divisions into the ground with fatigue and casualties the Red Army was building up a formidable reserve. B □ Ball is such a strong and willing player that in a key match he can be expected to run himself into the ground. □ often reflex.

run one's head into a brick wall [B2] ⇨ run one's head against/into a brick wall.

5551-run off[1] [A1 B1i pass adj] (cause to) flow from a vessel etc. S: [A1] O: [B1] liquid; wine, dye, fat □ 'The oil in your engine looks very dirty — get the garage to run it off.' □ When the temperature reaches melting point, the metal runs off as a liquid and flows into special moulds.

5552-run off[2] [B1i nom pass adj] reproduce, duplicate, print. O: copy, photocopy, print □ I have to run off a few hand-outs on the duplicating machine. □ 'Run me off some copies of his electoral address (or: Do me a run-off of his address).'

5553-run off[3] [B1i pass] cause to be run, contested (esp at an athletics meeting). O: race, heat; 100 metres □ The heats of the 200 metres are being run off tomorrow. □ The final of the 5 000 metres was run off in blazing heat.

5554-run off his feet [B2 pass] (informal) make sb work hard and/or move about a lot, thus tiring him. S: customer; patient; child, pupil. O: assistant; nurse; parent, teacher □ During the New Year sales rush, the girls in the clothing departments are run off their feet all day. □ 'Mother needs a holiday; the children do run her off her feet, you know.'

5555-run off the rails [A2] (informal) begin to lead a wild or unconventional life. S: son, daughter □ Since his girl went to art college, she's run completely off the rails, dressing like a gypsy and coming home at all hours. ⇨ go off the rails.

5556-run off (with) [A1 A3 rel] leave in the company of sb (having left one's husband, family etc). o: lover; (someone else's) wife, husband □ He decided that Art could only be some man or other that Rosemary had run off with. DBM □ Mary has run off with her music teacher (or: Mary and her music teacher have run off together). ⇨ run away (with).

5557-run off with [A3 rel] steal and carry away; run away with[1] (q v). o: receipts, takings; plan, secret □ 'Someone's run off with the keys to my safe.' □ If you leave your money lying about, somebody's sure to run off with it.

5558-run on[1] [A1 emph] flow, continue without a break (often monotonously or annoyingly). S: voice; words, speech □ 'How that woman's tongue does run on!' □ On he ran, until most of his audience were restless with impatience.

5559-run on[2] [A1 B1i pass adj] (cause to) continue, without indenting to mark the beginning of a paragraph; (in verse) allow a sentence to continue from one line, stanza etc to another. S: [A1] O: [B1] matter, text; sentence; sense □ 'Run on' is an instruction to a printer to ignore a paragraph indentation. □ In romantic poetry it becomes more normal to run the sense-groups on from one line to the beginning or middle of the next.

5560-run on[3] [A2 emph rel] have as its subject, be concerned with. S: discussion, argument; thought, address. o: subject, matter; event, occurrence; line, path □ His talk ran on recent developments in the industry. □ His thinking runs on familiar lines. □ Brigit's mind kept running foolishly on the same theme. DC

5561-run out[1] [A1] be finished, exhausted. S: supply, stock (of wines, cigarettes etc); patience; time □ *If his rice has run out (or: If he has run out of rice) he goes to the paddy-stores. NDN □ Our time is running out and I think we ought to say something about the ending (or: We are running out of time etc). ART ⇨ run out/out of.

5562-run out[2] [A1] expire, be no longer valid. S: lease, contract, agreement □ The lease on their

London flat runs out in a few months. ▫ The foreign companies seem well protected, until their concessions run out towards the end of the century. T

5563-run out[3] [B1i pass adj] (cricket) dismiss a batsman by striking his wicket while he is running ▫ Jones was run out in the final over of play before lunch. ▫ Peters ran his partner out (i e caused him to be run out by the other side) by calling for a run when there was none to be had.

5564-run out at [A3] (informal) reach a particular amount; work out at (q v). S: expenses, cost, estimate. o: £5 000; a good deal, more than we can pay ▫ What does the cost of converting the present building run out at? ▫ The actual bill runs out at considerably more than the original estimate.

5565-run out/out of [A1 A3] finish, exhaust. o: supply, stock (of commodities); ideas; patience ▫ 'There's been a tremendous demand for that brand. We've run out.' ▫ 'Stop at the next garage. We're running out of petrol (or: The petrol's running out).' ⇨ be out of[3], run out[1].

5566-run out of steam [A2] (informal) move more slowly, or halt, because the original driving force is lacking. S: campaign, advance, attack; movement, crusade ▫ Unless we can supply our forward units, the advance is in danger of running out of steam. ▫ House-to-house canvassing started in a fit of enthusiasm, but pretty soon ran out of steam.

5567-run out (on) [A1 A3 pass] desert, abandon, sb who needs or expects one's support. o: friend, ally, associate; family, children ▫ If he refuses help, he will be accused of running out on the Federal Government. OBS ▫ The aid did not arrive on the promised date, giving us the unpleasant feeling of having been run out on.

5568-run over[1] [A1] overflow. S: tank, jug ▫ 'You'd better fetch the plumber: the cistern is running over.' ▫ 'Don't fill the kettle too full: it'll run over.'

5569-run over[2] [B1i pass] knock sb down and pass over (part of) his body. S: car, bus. O: pedestrian, animal ▫ Two children were run over at that road junction last month.

5570-run over[3] [A2 pass] read or say sth quickly, aloud or to oneself, in order to learn it or refresh one's memory. o: notes, minutes; script, part (in a play) ▫ 'Just run over my lines with me before the rehearsal begins.' ▫ He ran over in his mind what he was going to say at the meeting. EM

5571-run an/one's eye over [B2 emph rel] (informal) examine sth or sb closely in order to estimate its or his merits or value. S: dealer, buyer, critic. o: livestock, goods; applicant, newcomer ▫ 'Just run your eye over these materials and tell me if there are any you like.' ▫ I had the chance of running my eye over the new members of the company during rehearsal.

5572-run over with [A3 rel] show an abundance of, overflow with. o: enthusiasm, joy; ideas, schemes ▫ The children are running over with energy and mischief — I can't keep them still for five minutes.

run rings round [B2] ⇨ run rings around/round.

5574-run through[1] [A2] pass quickly through. S: murmur, whisper; thought, tune. o: crowd, throng; head ▫ An angry murmur ran through the audience. ▫ A snatch of their conversation kept running through his head.

5575-run through[2] [B1ii pass] play (part of) a film etc by passing it through a machine. O: film, tape; sequence, excerpt ▫ 'Will you run that bit of tape through again? I didn't hear it the first time.' ▫ 'I'll run the whole of that sequence through again. Watch the action carefully.'

5576-run through[3] [A2 nom pass] review, summarize; pass over[5] (q v). o: argument, point, feature ▫ Let's run through the main points of the Budget so far (or: Let's have a run-through of the main points etc). BBCTV ▫ 'I think I've grasped your main proposals, but would you mind running through them once again?'

5577-run through[4] [A2 nom pass B2 pass] (cause to) act, perform (esp at rehearsal). S: [A2] O: [B2] actor, cast. S: [B2] producer, director. o: play, scene ▫ There'll be a run-through of the whole play at seven o'clock. ▫ 'I'd like to run you through that scene you have with Paula.'

5578-run through[5] [A2 pass] spend all that one has quickly and foolishly. o: fortune, inheritance, allowance ▫ He ran through no end of money while he was up at University. ▫ The money inherited from his father was quickly run through.

5579-run a comb through one's/sb's hair [B2 pass] (informal) comb the hair quickly (e g to improve one's appearance for a visitor) ▫ 'I must just dash upstairs and run a comb through my hair.' ▫ 'Run a comb through the child's hair — he can't go to a party looking like that.'

5580-run one's fingers/hand through one's hair [B2] (informal) pass one's fingers etc nervously through one's hair ▫ I could see from the way he kept running his fingers through his hair that the big occasion had tensed him up. ▫ (stage direction) She winces as she feels the pain in her arm. She runs her hand through her hair. LBA

5581-run through (with) [B1ii pass B3 pass emph rel] pierce sb's body (with a weapon). O: enemy, rival. o: sword, spear ▫ He attacked the post with grenades and ran the survivors through with the bayonet. ▫ One soldier was run through with a spear (or: had a spear run through him).

5582-run to [A2] be enough to cover, be sufficient for; afford, have enough money for. S: fund, allowance, budget; he etc; management, treasury. o: luxury, extras; holiday, outing; wine, cigar ▫ The budget would not run to champagne. BFA ▫ I'm afraid we can't run to central heating in all rooms.

5583-run to earth/ground [B2 pass] (informal) find, after a long and difficult search. O: quarry, (escaped) prisoner; book, document; house, shop ▫ Eventually, I was run to earth by a panting Ben, who reproached me for disappearing. BB ▫ We ran the bird shop to earth eventually, on one side of an enormous square. DF ▫ He was not in his office and I eventually ran him to ground in the lavatory. MFM ⇨ go to earth/ground.

5584-run to fat [A2] (tend to) become too fat (through neglect, overeating etc) ▫ Her mother was wealthy and discontented, running to fat and losing her looks from idleness. AITC ▫ After a year in a desk job, and only occasional weekend exercise, he was starting to run to fat.

5585-run to seed [A2] drop lower than a previous high standard, deteriorate (usu through neglect). S: appearance, looks, figure; business, estate; economy □ At one time she must have been a handsome woman, but now she had run slightly to seed. DF □ It annoyed him that his daughter should let her looks run to seed in that sort of academic dowdiness. ASA

5586-run together [A1 B1ii pass] (of two or more separate things) be combined, combine. S: [A1] O: [B1] colours; sounds, words; pictures □ 'I shouldn't wash those shirts in the same water, or else the colours will run together.' □ 'Don't gabble, Lucy, I can't understand when you run your words together.'

5587-run up[1] [B1i pass] hoist, raise. O: flag, banner, standard □ The admiral ran up a signal ordering all ships to close with the enemy. □ Then the white flag was run up: the post had surrendered.

5588-run up[2] [B1i pass adj] make, construct, quickly, and possibly from any materials that are near at hand (e g to meet a sudden emergency). O: dress, fancy-dress costume; shed, shelter □ She hadn't been able to get a bathing-costume to fit her. She had consequently run up two for herself. BFA □ To deal with the overcrowding problem, they were exhorting him to run up an annexe or lean-to. ILIH

5589-run up[3] [B1i pass] cause to rise sharply in amount. O: bill, account; overdraft, deficit □ She's been running up accounts at half a dozen big stores. □ The extra grant will only just cover the deficit that we've run up already. OBS

5590-run up[4] [A1 nom] (sport) run towards a bowling-crease, or jumping-off point, so as to increase the speed of one's delivery or jump. S: bowler, (long-, high-)jumper □ Trueman is now running up to bowl the last ball before lunch. □ The spin bowlers take quite a short run-up. ⇨ next entry.

5591-run-up [nom (A1)] (informal) period just before an important event (and in which that event is prepared for) □ Labour must in the run-up to the election reawaken its supporters' loyalty. OBS ⇨ previous entry.

5592-run up against [A3 pass] meet, encounter, come face to face with. o: obstacle, difficulty, problem; misunderstanding, incomprehension □ These were some of the snags we expected to run up against. □ The same opposition had been run up against when we last tried to introduce the measures.

5593-fools rush in (where angels fear to tread) [A1] (proverb) foolish men act over-hastily, and without considering the consequences of their actions □ 'Despite all our warnings, he had to go off and invest in that tin-pot venture. I suppose it's a case of fools rushing in where angels fear to tread.'

5594-rush into [A2 pass B2 pass rel] (cause sb to) undertake sth too quickly, and without considering the consequences. o: buying, selling; partnership, take-over □ 'Don't let anybody rush you into joining; think it over.' □ We may eventually become members; but this is not something that should be rushed into. □ He didn't want to marry — she rushed him into it.

5595-rush into print [A2] publish sth too quickly (e g without weighing one's evidence carefully) in order to beat one's competitors, capture a ready market etc. S: author, writer; hack(-writer) □ I deplore the writing of so-called military history by people concerned with rushing into print so as to catch a market that is still fresh. MFM

5596-rush through [B1i pass adj B2 pass] cause to become official policy, the law etc very quickly. S: government, assembly, committee. O: law, Bill □ The Chamber has rushed through legislation making the carrying of firearms a serious offence. □ Two Private Members' Bills were rushed through Parliament before the end of the session.

5597-rush to conclusions [A2] form an opinion too quickly, i e without waiting to consider all the evidence; jump to conclusions/the conclusion (q v) □ 'You were there last night. I saw your hat and coat.' 'Now don't start rushing to conclusions.' □ 'You were talking to Stevens at lunch. I wouldn't mind betting he offered you a job.' 'That would be rushing to conclusions.'

5598-rush to hospital [B2 pass] take sb to hospital very quickly (because of serious illness or injury). O: patient, casualty □ Two passengers were rushed to hospital suffering from severe head injuries.

5599-rustle up [B1i pass] (informal) prepare (e g for an unexpected guest); gather, collect, together (e g to meet a special need). O: meal, snack; support, help; friend, guest □ 'Make yourself comfortable. I'll see if I can rustle up a few sandwiches.' □ My list of girls, from whom I might have rustled up one for such an occasion, seemed to have dispersed. SML

S

5600-saddle up [A1 B1i pass] put a saddle on one's horse (a command to this effect being a signal to prepare to move off). S: trooper; patrol, squadron. O: horse, mount □ We got the order to saddle up just after dawn. □ The horses were saddled up and ready to move.

5601-saddle with [B2 pass rel] place a particular burden on sb, give to sb the responsibility of looking after sb or sth. S: employer, colleague, husband. o: job, task; burden, responsibility; family, child □ I'm always being saddled with extra duties. □ The government played some part in saddling industry with a heavier load. SC □ 'It was you who invited the Smiths to stay, and now you're saddled with them! (i e they are your responsibility, and you can't get rid of them).'

5602-sail in/into [A1 emph A2] (informal) enter an argument or dispute energetically; attack sb vigorously or angrily (usu with words). o: discussion, dispute, fray; him etc □ Just as we thought the heat had gone out of the discussion, Mrs Hughes sailed in. □ A back-bench critic of the official line sailed into the Minister at this point, his temper clearly roused.

5603-sally forth/out [A1] (formal, jocular) emerge suddenly (usu from a position where one is surrounded) and attack the enemy. S: (besieged, beleagured) army, force □ The citizens sallied out in an attempt to break the siege. □ An army of housewives sallied forth to do battle in the annual sales at the big stores.

5604-salt away [B1i pass] (informal) save, invest, for the future. O: part of one's income, salary; profits, earnings □ He's got a few pounds salted away for his retirement. □ Now's the time to salt something away for your old age. □ Allegations have been made that 'millions of pounds are being salted away' illegally in the Channel Islands by speculators. OBS

5605-salvage (from)[1] [B2 pass emph rel] recover sth which is undamaged and still usable (from a place which has suffered damage). O: furniture, machinery; box, bale. o: wreckage, debris; blaze, fire; (damaged) factory □ The walls were of wood and the flames spread rapidly. All that could be salvaged from the ashes was a small metal box containing instruments.

5606-salvage (from)[2] [B2 pass emph rel] rescue, preserve, sth worthwhile (from a situation that has deteriorated). O: some shreds of respectability, one's self-respect. o: (collapse, failure of) one's marriage, business, career □ There was very little, morally, that John had salvaged from the breakdown of his marriage. His self-confidence was so shaken that he was chary of forming any new relationship.

5607-sand down [B1i pass adj] remove rough parts of a surface by rubbing it with sandpaper. O: paintwork; wall, door □ The surface should be thoroughly sanded down before you apply any paint.

5608-saturate (with) [B2 pass emph rel] fill with a liquid, soak (with). O: ground, soil; cloth, rag. o: water, oil □ Press the sponge into the liquid until it is saturated (with it). □ We lay in the sun until our bodies felt saturated with the heat.

5609-save (from) [B2 pass emph rel] make, keep, sb safe (from). o: loss, injury; drowning, being burned □ By arriving when you did you saved her from more serious injury. □ He needs saving from the consequences of his own foolishness.

5610-save (up) (for) [A1 A2 pass emph rel A3 pass emph rel] put money in reserve (gradually, little by little) to obtain sth. o: car, bicycle, radio; holiday □ How can you manage to marry, she said, at your age? I told her I'd been saving up for her all my life. KLT □ This sea cruise was something for which he'd been saving for years. □ They couldn't buy a car tomorrow, but it could be saved for. □ 'We're saving up to get married.' TOH

5611-savour of [A2] (formal) suggest, indicate some (unpleasant) feeling or attitude on the part of the speaker. S: suggestion, plan, proposal. o: malice, mischief, ill-will □ The speaker's words savoured strongly of intolerance. □ Your remarks savour of impertinence.

5612-saw down [B1i pass] fell, bring to the ground, using a saw. O: tree, post, mast □ Some of their trees had to be sawn down and sold for their valuable timber.

5613-saw into [B2 pass] divide in pieces using a saw. O: tree, timber. o: lengths, planks, battens □ The trees are stripped of their bark and mechanically sawn into planks. □ Saw this board into pieces, each a foot long.

5614-saw off [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove part of sth with a saw. O: branch; piece, length □ If you saw six inches off the legs of the table, you can use it to rest the television on. □ 'Would you saw me off a piece two metres by one?' □ He sawed an inch off the barrel of his revolver to make it easier to draw (cf a sawn-off barrel). □ note Indirect Object construction in the second example.

5615-saw up [B1i pass adj] cut into pieces with a saw. O: tree, plank, board □ All the spare timber was sawn up to make logs for the fire. □ Get the carpenter to saw the wood up to your requirements.

5616-say (about) [B2 pass emph rel] make comments, observations (about). S: reporter; newspaper, article; reference book. O: a lot, plenty; nothing, very little; what. o: event, accident, case; musician, painter □ 'What does the 'Times' leader say about the prospects of a settlement in the rail dispute?' □ 'The physics master tells me you've not been exerting yourself this term, Walker. Now, what have you to say about that?' □ (film review) It's a thriller from the John Le Carré novel, with plenty to say about people. OBS

5617-scale down [B1i pass adj] reduce in relation to sth else. O: wage, salary; investment, expenditure; output, production □ Imports will have to be scaled down until exports begin to rise again. □ The effect of all this (i e inflation) is to scale down people's spending plans. BBCR □ Armies should be scaled down, but not if it meant giving one country an advantage over any other. BBCR

5618-scale up [B1i pass adj] increase in relation to sth else. O: income, earnings, benefit, bonus □ The salaries of teachers should be scaled up to correspond to those of people in comparable professions. □ (statement of director after securing a large order) 'It is now a matter of scaling up production, of making 30 000 retort stands instead of 1 000.' ST

5619-scar over [A1] close, heal, leaving a scar on the skin. S: wound; cut, gash □ The cut on his finger will eventually scar over.

5620-scare away/off [B1i pass] cause sb to stay at a distance, or go away, by frightening him. S: security arrangements; guard-dog, police; manner, voice; price, luxury. O: burglar, intruder; visitor; shopper □ Strangers never call at that house. I think the bulldog scares them away. □ A lot of potential visitors are scared off by the look of the place — it seems too luxurious for them.

5621-scare out of his wits [B2 pass] (informal) frighten very badly. S: atmosphere; noise, silence; appearance, face; film, show □ 'Don't go through the cemetery at night — it scares the girls out of their wits.' □ 'Never take me to a horror film again. I was scared out of my wits.'

5622-scatter about/around/round [B1ii pass B2 pass] leave, throw, things here and there in a haphazard or untidy manner. O: clothes, books, toys. o: place, room □ 'I know the children have been playing here: there are toys scattered about all over the carpet.' □ 'I've scattered some ashtrays around the room so that cigarettes don't get trodden into the floor.'

5623-scheme (for) [A2 pass emph rel] make plans (usu secret and dishonest) to achieve some end. S: rival, rebel. o: downfall, overthrow; power, control □ They came perilously near to achieving the ends for which they had been scheming. □ He had been scheming for a bigger share (or: to have a bigger share) in the running of the business.

5624-school (in) [B2 pass emph rel] teach sb the elements or principles of sth (usu the teaching is informal and by example; its purpose may be sinister or antisocial). O: child; follower, disciple. o: diplomacy, statecraft; cunning, double-dealing □ The young king was carefully schooled in the art of balancing one force in the kingdom against another. □ Movement at night, staying concealed, living off the land — these were all skills in which they had been well schooled.

5625-scoop out [B1i pass adj] remove sth using a deep, rounded shovel (or one's hand shaped as one); form a hole by removing soil etc in this manner. S: (burrowing) animal. O: soil, sand; hole, cavity, trench □ He scooped out a little of the earth, being careful not to disturb anything that was underneath. □ This small rodent can scoop out a long, narrow tunnel in a very short time.

5626-scoop up [B1i pass adj] raise sth in a deep, rounded implement or vessel (or in one's hand shaped as one). O: liquid; dust; filings, shavings □ He cupped his hands and scooped up a little water. □ He took a spoon and scooped up a few grains of the gold dust.

5627-score (for) [B2 pass] (music) include parts for particular instruments in a musical composition. S: composer. O: piece; concerto, symphony. o: strings, woodwind, brass □ Beethoven's Fifth is the first major symphony to be scored for trombones. □ He scored one quintet for two violas and the other for two cellos.

5628-score off[1] [A2 pass rel B2 pass rel] (cricket) score runs by striking the deliveries of a particular bowler. S: batsman. O: run; fifty. o: bowler; bowling □ 'He made fifty before lunch, and as you know, Carter is not easily scored off.' □ Edrich scored a quick century, mainly off the medium-pace bowling.

5629-score off[2] [A2 pass] (informal) make sb appear foolish, inadequate etc e g by a witty or unkind remark, or by one's own success. o: friend, rival, opponent □ 'You can cut the cheap cracks. It's too easy to score off poor old Fred.' □ If he had wanted to score off Robert, there were so many better ways than this. CON

5630-score out [B1i pass adj] cancel sth by drawing a line through it. O: line, mark, figure, letter □ Three of the names on the list had been scored out. □ The paper was covered with untidy drawings and scored-out calculations.

5631-scour off [B1i pass B2 pass] remove by rubbing with a rough brush, powder, wire pad etc. O: rust, grease, burnt food. o: pan, pot; stove □ See that all the burnt potato is scoured off the bottom of the pan. □ If the bath is stained, don't try to scour the stain off: you'll only scratch the enamel.

5632-scour out [B1i pass] rub the inside of sth with a rough brush etc, so as to remove dirt etc. O: (sauce)pan, pot, jar □ The boilers will have to be scoured out to remove the calcium deposits. □ She makes a regular point of scouring out the pots and pans.

5633-scout about/around (for) [A1 nom A3 rel] hunt, search, carefully (for). o: food, shelter, fuel □ *'*Scout around for a few bits of firewood.' □ 'I know he's not here; go and have a scout-around in the garden (or: go and scout around in the garden).'

5634-scrabble about (for) [A1 A3 rel] search, grope, in a blind, clumsy way (for sth) □ He scrabbled about under the counter for a minute, and came up with a small green bottle. □ Children scrabbled about on the floor for pennies that had been thrown to them.

5635-scramble for [A2 rel] struggle in rather a disorderly, undignified way to get more of sth than one's competitors. S: country, company, trader; spectator. o: possessions, market; seat, place □ The families that had enriched themselves in the previous generation now scrambled for official posts and honours. □ The European powers scrambled for trading posts in the areas that had been opened up.

5636-scrape along (on) [A1 A3 emph rel] (informal) manage for some time to live on very little money etc. o: a low wage, a few pounds (a week) □ She spent three years at college, scraping along on an allowance from her parents. □ They paid him a low salary, on which he was quite content to scrape along in the hope that something better would turn up.

5637-scrape by (on) [A1 A3 emph rel] (informal) manage to live (and esp to survive a difficult period) on very little money etc. o: small allowance, low grant, what one has saved □ The most difficult time was the winter, when we had all the fuel bills to pay, but we managed to scrape by with a little money in hand. □ The first year in the new house was the hardest, but they just scraped by on a loan from the bank.

5638-scrape in/into [A1 A2] (informal) just manage to enter a school etc (i e by getting the lowest acceptable marks). o: school, college, university; army, civil service □ If he just scraped into secondary school, he'll be lucky to get a place at university. □ 'How on earth did he get into the Foreign Service?' 'He must have scraped in by the barest margin, or perhaps he has influence among the selectors.'

5639-scrape off [B1i pass adj B2 pass] remove sth from a surface e g by passing a blade between it and the surface or by (accidentally) rubbing the surface against a rougher one. O: paint, tar; jam, butter; skin. o: wall, door; floor, table; hand, elbow □ *'*Scrape those bits of putty off the window pane.' □ He scraped the skin off his knee on a piece of corrugated iron.

5640-scrape out [B1i pass adj] empty, or clean, the inside of a vessel by passing a blade etc along its surface. O: dish, bowl; pipe, channel □ 'Would you like to scrape out the jam-jar? Here's a spoon.' □ Once in a while the bowl of his pipe is thoroughly scraped out.

5641-scrape through [A1 A2] just manage to pass (a test etc), pass with the lowest acceptable mark. S: student, candidate. o: test, examination; selection board □ He got a comfortable pass in zoology, but barely scraped through in botany.

□ She scraped through in the written papers, but may make up her marks in the oral.

5642-scrape together/up [B1i pass] (informal) save with difficulty; collect together (with difficulty) money from various sources, to meet an emergency. O: money; cash, funds, capital □ 'Well, you'll have to scrape the money up. I'm not going to dip into my funds to save you from a scandal.' HD □ 'Can't we just try to scrape together a few pounds for a holiday?'

5643-scrape up an acquaintance (with) [B1iii pass B3 pass rel] (informal) get to know sb with difficulty and/or superficially (because he is shy and aloof, or because you know no one in common etc). adj: some; slight, nodding, superficial □ I managed to scrape up an acquaintance with some of the single passengers, but the married ones tended to keep to themselves. □ He would nod over the garden wall once in a while and after a month we'd scraped up some kind of an acquaintance.

5644-scratch about (for) [A1 A3] dig here and there with sth sharp (in order to find sth). S: chicken, monkey; farmer, miner. o: corn, fleas; (signs, traces of) water, gold □ Sparrows were scratching about in the damp soil for worms. □ 'If you want to get through this rock, there's no sense in scratching about with a pick. You'll have to use explosive.'

5645-scratch (from) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] (sport) (cause to) withdraw from a sporting contest (e g because of illness). S: [A2] O: [B2] horse; runner, long-jumper. S: [B2] owner; manager. o: race; event □ Two competitors have scratched from the 10 000 metres with torn leg muscles. □ There will only be five runners in the 3.30 at Newbury as three horses have been scratched *(*from the race) at the last minute.

5646-scratch out [B1i pass adj] remove, cancel, by making a deep, scoring mark (with a sharp, narrow instrument). O: line, mark; name □ I looked at the list; somebody had scratched his name out. □ His essay was disfigured by many blots and scratchings-out.

5647-scratch sb's eyes out [B1ii pass] (informal) (threaten to) make a violent physical attack on sb (usu said by or of a possessive or jealous woman). S: wife, girlfriend □ 'Be careful, Harry: she'll scratch your eyes out if you so much as glance at another woman.' □ 'You'll stop fooling around with Mike if you don't want to have your eyes scratched out!' □ often with will/would.

5648-screen (from) [B2 pass rel] shelter, protect (from). O: eyes, face; table, bed; ceremony, procession; child, pupil. o: sun, daylight; watcher; view, gaze; influence □ Use a hood to screen the lens of your camera from direct sunlight. □ During her childhood she had been carefully screened from contact with 'undesirable' children.

5649-screen off [B1i pass adj] separate (e g from the rest of a room) by means of a screen. O: bed, table; patient, invalid □ He would retire to a desk, screened off from the rest of the room by a heavy bookcase. □ *'*Screen off her bed and make sure she's not disturbed.'

5650-screw down [B1i pass adj] fasten a cover to a box etc with screws. O: lid, cover; hatch □ After the mourners have paid their last respects, the undertaker screws down the lid of the coffin.

5651-(have) one's head screwed on [pass (B1)] (informal) (be) wise, sensible, of sound judgement □ 'I'm sorry you're all so easy to fool. You ought to have your heads screwed on right, with all your experience of the trade.' CON □ There's a lad with his head screwed on — he had the sense to buy in while the price was low. □ The next time you go into partnership, make sure the other fellow's got his head screwed on the right way.

5652-screw on/onto [B1i pass adj B2 pass rel] fasten one thing to another, either with screws, or by a screw-thread cut into each. O: plate, board; top, lid; handle, knob. o: wall, door; jar, bottle; shaft □ The carpenter came along and screwed on a shining brass plate: C. R. JONES, M.B., B.Ch. □ Don't forget to screw the lid back onto the jar.

5653-screw out of [B2 pass] (informal) get money etc from sb by undue persuasion, pressure etc. O: money; cash, pound; promise, guarantee □ 'Can't you manage to screw a bit extra out of your parents?' □ He's so unscrupulous that he'd screw the last penny out of a widow.

5654-screw up[1] [B1i pass adj] make into a tight ball in the hands. O: paper; letter, bill □ With an impatient exclamation Peter screwed up the second draft of his letter to the bank and threw it into the wastepaper basket. □ At the end of a normal morning's work the study floor would be littered with screwed-up bits of paper.

5655-screw up[2] [B1i pass] tighten the muscles of the face (so shading one's eyes, expressing surprise etc). O: ⚠ one's eyes, features, face □ Even under the broad brim of my hat I had to screw up my eyes against the ferocious glare. DF □ Janice screwed her face up into an expression of the utmost seriousness. PW

5656-screw up[3] [B1i pass adj] (informal) make sb nervous, tense; tense up (q v). S: occasion; waiting; fear, anxiety. O: patient, examinee; soldier, prisoner □ The last few minutes before going on stage always screw him up, so he has a cigarette and a chat with someone in the dressing room to help him relax. □ 'Going to the dentist never seems to bother my wife, but I get terribly screwed up at the mere thought.' □ Poor old screwed-up Mrs Whitehouse—the modern world seems to scare her stiff.

5657-screw up[4] [B1i pass adj] (slang) mishandle, mismanage; mess up (q v). S: manager, organizer; agency, office. O: planning, arrangements; deal □ 'We should never have left the arrangements to Smithers. He screwed the whole thing up from start to finish.' □ The opening stage of the attack was badly screwed up with the soldiers getting bunched into too narrow a front.

5658-screw up one's courage [B1iii] force oneself to be brave □ I've been screwing up my courage to tell you. EHOW □ 'Don't stand there— screw up your courage and jump.'

5659-scrub off [B1i pass B2 pass] remove sth from a surface etc by rubbing it with a stiff brush, soap and water. O: dirt, oil, glue, paint. o: hand; wall, floor □ *'*Scrub that mud off your fingers before you sit down to lunch.' □ I got paint on my hands and it won't scrub off (or: I can't scrub it off).

5660-scrub out[1] [B1i pass] remove a mark etc which is lodged in a fabric etc, by rubbing it with a stiff brush, soap and water. O: mark, stain; oil, tar; coffee □ When you spill ink on the carpet, remove it straight away — you won't be able to scrub it out later (or: it won't scrub out later).

5661 scrub out[2] [B1i pass] clean a place by rubbing the surface with a stiff brush, soap and water. O: room, hall; cupboard □ As soon as they moved in, they started scrubbing out the rooms (ie scrubbing the floors clean) and washing down the walls.

5662 scrub out[3] [B1i pass] (informal) cancel a future event, or sth which affects it; regard as invalid sth which has occurred. O: instruction, order; arrangements, programme; practice, trial □ The whole exercise has been scrubbed out*; you will receive fresh orders shortly.* □ We've scrubbed out event 1; move on to the next event. □ The researchers had to scrub out the first set of results and start again. □ scrub alone sometimes used in this sense: We've scrubbed event 1 etc.

5663 scrub round [A2 pass] (informal) not apply, waive, sth; avoid, circumvent, sth. o: rule, regulation; difficulty, obstacle □ It says here that an applicant should have three years' experience, but I think we can scrub round that. □ The entrance requirements are strictly applied: don't think you can scrub round them.

5664 scuffle (with) [A2 rel] fight, struggle (with sb) in a confused way. S: spectator, demonstrator, marcher. o: police, troops □ One or two hecklers in the crowd scuffled with the stewards.

5665 scurry for [A2] hurry in a nervous, excited way towards. o: ⚠ the door, exit; shelter, cover □ A sudden shower of rain sent them all scurrying for shelter. □ As the plaster cascaded onto the tables, the guests scurried for the door.

5666 seal off [B1i pass adj] close the entrance to sth, so that nothing can move in or out. O: channel, passage; exit, entrance □ We reached the Baltic and thus sealed off the Danish peninsula with about six hours to spare. MFM □ It did not seem to occur to the police to seal off the entrances or order nobody to leave. OBS

5667 seal up [B1i pass adj] close, fasten tightly. O: parcel, letter; hole, opening □ They sealed up the cracks in the window to stop the icy wind from blowing in. □ Make sure the parcel of examination scripts is properly sealed up*.*

5668 search (for) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] look carefully about a place, examine sb carefully, in order to find sth. S: rescue party; plane, helicopter; detective. O: area, neighbourhood; house; drawer, cupboard; pockets. o: missing climber, airman; weapon; papers, keys □ Police and tracker dogs searched the woods for the missing boy. □ 'I've been searching everywhere for those scissors. Where did they get to?' □ At last the evidence for which they had been searching came to light.

5669 search out [B1i pass] (try to) discover, reveal, bring to light (q v), by looking carefully for it. O: author, maker; culprit, one responsible; cause, source □ He went through drawer after drawer and eventually searched out a dusty portfolio.

5670 search through [A2 pass] look carefully for sth by moving steadily from one part of a room etc to another. o: drawer, cupboard; belongings; paper, book □ You can search through his autobiography without finding a single reference to his first wife. □ There's no point in looking there: his personal papers have all been searched through*.*

5671 secede (from) [A2 emph rel] (formal) withdraw from membership (of). S: state, province, region. o: union, federation □ The problem is to stop the richer provinces seceding from a federation most of which is poor.

5672 second (to) [B2 pass rel] transfer sb from his normal post (to another) for special duties. O: soldier, officer; official. o: staff, research establishment □ Major Smith has been seconded to us to advise on the new signals procedure. □ He enjoyed the small, up-country post to which he had been seconded*.* □ note the placement of stress: /sɪˈkɒnd/.

5673 secure (against) [B2 pass rel] make safe (against), strengthen (against). O: house; window, door; position, defences. o: intruder, thief; attack □ They secured the house against entry on either floor. □ Having placed some troops over to the right he was secured against sudden attack from that flank.

5674 seduce (from) [B2 pass rel] (formal) tempt sb to neglect or forget his duty etc. o: duty, (a life of) virtue, respectability □ The new government included two ministers from the centre parties, seduced*, as some would say,* from their traditional loyalties by the attraction of Cabinet rank. □ He regretted the passing of the simple life from which ambition had seduced him.

5675 see about [A2 pass] act to achieve, remedy etc, sth. o: cleaning, decorating; tax, insurance; damage, breakage □ That was how I got the idea of the market-garden, though I didn't get round to seeing about it till now. PW □ (advertisement) You're so pretty, Linda, it's a pity you neglect your breath. Why don't you see about it? WI

5676 see across [B1ii pass B2 pass] guide, escort, sb across. O: child, old person. o: road, street □ 'Ask a grown-up to see you across the main road.' □ I was there to make sure the children were seen safely across the road.

5677 see beyond [A2] (be able to) foresee and understand events etc which are at some distance in space or time; be farsighted. o: the immediate present, the here and now, the next few hours/days; one's own family circle; one's own immediate concerns □ He's not the man to put in charge of the food supply: he can't see beyond where the next meal's coming from. □ A man responsible for a large business must be able to see beyond short-term goals. He may need to plan for several years ahead. □ with can/could; often neg.

5678 see beyond the end of one's nose [A2] (informal) (be able to) understand more than is present and obvious □ 'No one would think he's your son. You treat him abominably. Just because you can't see beyond the end of your stupid, commonplace nose*.'* FFE □ 'I've got an idea of offering Pelican a directorship,' Robin said. 'It'll be a bit tricky with my fellow directors. Pelican'd be the hell of an asset, but they can't see beyond the end of their noses*.'* ASA □ with can/could and usu neg. ⇨ previous entry.

5679 see in a new etc light [B2 pass] regard, understand sth or colleague, brother. adj: new, fresh, different; best, more favourable, more flattering

□ 'We are all under somewhat of a strain, and in the morning we will probably see things in a totally different light.' TT □ Most people want to be seen in the best light. SNP

5680 see of [B2 pass pass(o) rel] meet, have contact with sb often, seldom etc. O: a lot, a good/great deal; more, less; (not) much, anything. o: each other, one another; friend, colleague, boss □ 'You've got the ready answer ready, haven't you?' she said. 'We'll have to see more of each other, I can see.' HAA □ Nothing was seen of him for six months, and then he turned up as large as life at our flat. □ Baker was the new man from London who was to transform everything by sheer force of personality. In fact he wasn't seen much of outside his office.

5681 see an end of/to [B2] witness the ending of sth (usu sth unpleasant). o: event, development; conflict, dissention; squabbling, bickering □ The most consistent opponents of Dr Verwoerd wish to see an end of violence in Africa. SC □ Perhaps with the appointment of our new managing director we would see an end to the inter-departmental rivalries and quarrels of the previous year.

5682 see off¹ [B1ii pass] say, bid, farewell to sb (e g at the railway station); send off² (q v). O: relative, friend □ A number of friends and well-wishers came to see him off at the airport.

5683 see off² [B1ii pass] drive, chase, away. S: guard, dog; defence. O: intruder, prowler; attacker □ Some boys came round hoping to steal apples, but the farmer saw them off with a few well-chosen words. □ If the enemy failed to see us off on the beaches, he would try to rope us off (= encircle us) inland. MFM

5684 see out/out of [B1ii pass B2 pass] lead, guide, sb out of a building □ 'Don't bother to come down. I can see myself out.' □ 'Miss Jones will see you out of the building.'

5685 see over/round [A2] visit and examine a place. S: visitor; prospective buyer. o: house; exhibition, show □ 'I shall need to see over the house and grounds before I can make you any kind of offer.' □ It took us two hours to see right round the Boat Show.

5686 see through¹ [A2 nom pass] (be able to) see from one side to the other of sth (because it is transparent). o: window, partition; fabric, garment □ 'Would you mind moving to one side? I can't see through your head, you know.' □ Barbara was wearing one of those see-through blouses; in fact it was so see-through that she needn't have been wearing one at all. □ see-through usu attrib, as in the first part of the second example.

5687 see through² [A2] (informal) understand the true nature of sb beneath a pleasant, deceptive appearance. o: him etc; act, show, manner; charm, glibness □ She learnt to see through the smooth exterior to the real person underneath. □ 'Don't think you can fool me — I can see right through you!'

5688 see through³ [B1ii B2] ensure that sb passes safely through a difficult time. S: friendship, support; skill, bravery. o: crisis, bad patch, troubled time □ She had known he might come back and trusted to him to see her through. PW □ His courage and good humour has seen him through worse times than these. □ 'I shall need more than a couple of drinks to see me through one of her ghastly parties.'

5689 see through⁴ [B1ii] (informal) handle a situation and bring events to a happy conclusion. O: △ it, the thing, things □ Together the whole team will see this thing through to the end. MFM □ Depend on him to see things through.

5690 see to [A2 pass] take care that sb is properly received, that sth is made, tended etc. o: visitor, guest; horse; room, bed □ 'Jo, go and see to that coffee!' TOH □ Large sums of money would continue regularly to be moved, and their security must be seen to. T see an end to [B2] ⇨ see an end of/to.

5692 see to it (that) [A2] ensure, take care (that sth happens, is the case etc) □ Matron has seen to it that the nurse did day duty only. WI □ Here concealment was impossible. I simply had to hope that some kindly deity would see to it that I met nobody. UTN □ 'I promise to get everything finished on time.' 'Well, see to it you do!' □ followed by finite (that) clause. ⇨ see to.

5693 see eye to eye (with) (about/on) [A2 emph rel] have the same views, sympathies etc, (as); agree (with) (q v) sb (about sth). o: (with) husband, child; employer; (about/on) money, housework, holidays; wages, hours (of work), conditions □ 'He wasn't a member of the Party either. He never saw eye to eye with Pollitt (or: He and Pollitt never saw eye to eye).' PP □ STANLEY: Clive, as you know, your mother and I didn't see eye to eye about sending you to University. FFE □ 'Patrick and I see pretty well eye to eye on most things.' TGLY □ eye to eye is an adv phrase; often neg.

5694 seek (for) [A2 pass adj emph rel] try to find, look (for) (q v). o: answer, solution; cause, explanation □ You should seek (for) a reason in the statements he has made over the past year. □ Talks have brought the results (for) which we were all seeking. □ Among the successes were some long sought-for changes in working conditions. □ for may be omitted, except in the adj form: sought-for.

5695 seek out [B1i pass] come looking for sb (e g to ask for help, pass on news etc). O: friend, colleague, confidant □ Supposing he sought her out again and he asked her what she really did mean? PW □ When Marlowe returned from lunch the secretary sought him out. 'Cable for you, Dr Marlowe.' TBC

5696 seethe (with) [A2] be restless (with), be agitated (by) (like water in a kettle coming to the boil). S: country, town; population. o: discontent, unrest; anger, fury □ The square was now fully alight and seething with still more revellers converging on the cafes. BM □ By now John was seething with indignation and we gathered round trying to pacify him.

5697 seize on/upon [A2 pass emph rel] choose in a keen, alert way some aspect of sth for special comment or criticism; fasten on/upon (q v). o: detail, feature; fault, flaw □ He quickly seized on a basic flaw in the argument I was developing. □ Any weakness in their position will be seized upon and exploited.

5698 seize up [A1] become fixed or jammed because of overheating etc. S: engine, motor; car □ 'If you never bother to lubricate your engine of course it will seize up!' □ I've been wagging my chin so fast these last months it'll seize up soon. TGLY

5699 seize with both hands [B2 pass] grasp sth eagerly, be quick to exploit sth. O: opportunity, chance, opening; offer, invitation □ An opportunity is presented to each one of us; some of us are not aware of the full significance of what has happened, and the moment is lost. Others, alert and enthusiastic, seize the opportunity with both hands and turn it to good advantage. MFM □ This offer was seized by Ernest Bevin with both hands and he organized a conference in Paris the next month. MFM

5700 sell (at) [B2 pass rel] give in exchange at a particular price level. o: price, figure; gain, loss; discount; £100, ten dollars □ 'What price are they being sold at?' □ I can't afford to go on selling several of my lines at a loss. □ He's selling his ties at a ten per cent discount below the normal retail price. □ one sells at a point on a scale (e g of loss or gain); one sells for (q v) a particular amount or sum of money.

5701 sell down the river [B2 pass] (informal) betray the interests of one's own people, of members of one's party, trade union etc. S: minister, leader; delegate, representative. O: country; union, member □ (letter to Editor) Sir: The phrase 'sold down the river' is American, and refers to the Mississippi. Before the Civil War the treatment of slaves in the northern tier of slave States was generally better than that further south. Consequently, the practice of selling recalcitrant slaves 'down the river' developed. OBS □ At a mass meeting of car workers called by shop stewards the official leadership was accused of selling the rank and file down the river.

5702 sell (for) [B2 pass rel] give in exchange for a particular sum of money. o: £100; less than one gives, next to nothing □ 'I'm thinking of selling the car.' 'Oh, how much for?' □ I can't remember what I sold the collection for. ⇨ (footnote at) sell (at).

5703 sell off [B1i pass] get rid of by sale, goods which have not sold well, or plant which is inefficient, so as to free the money invested in them. O: stock, line; holding, share; factory, store □ We are going to sell off some of the lines which have been cluttering up our storeroom for so long. □ Mogul have already undertaken to sell off Vornkind plastics (a subsidiary company). BBCTV

5704 sell out/out of [A1 A2 pass] sell one's entire stock (of a particular article). S: shopkeeper; store. o: cigarettes; bread; petrol □ 'I'm sorry, all the Sunday papers have gone: we've sold out.' □ 'We seem to have sold out of your size. Can you come back next week?'

5705 sell out (to) [A1 nom A3] (informal) betray one's cause, one's side (to sb). o: enemy, opposition □ They spoke of people who had sold out to the enemy. NM □ The union leaders were accused of selling out to the employers (or: of a sell-out to the employers). □ The meeting broke up amidst cries of 'Sell-out!' BBCR

5706 sell up [A1 B1ii pass] sell a business, house etc to pay one's debts, or because one is moving or retiring. O: property; shop, factory; all one has □ Before selling up their Clerkenwell place, they tried to borrow more money. OBS □ They're selling up next week, so go round if there's anything you want to collect before the sale.

5707 send about his business [B2 pass] tell sb to mind his own business; tell him to stop interfering in the affairs of others. O: onlooker, bystander; ghoul, busybody □ 'I soon sent him packing. Soon sent him about his business. Now would you like to go and lie down for a while?' TGLY □ Anybody taking too close an interest in what went on in the laboratories would soon be sent about his business. ⇨ go about one's business.

5708 send across (to) [B1i pass B2 pass B3 pass] send sb or sth from one side to the other of intervening water etc. O: messenger; delegate, salesman; freight, mail. o: (across) the road; the Channel; (to) shop, bank; France □ [B1] 'The evening paper hasn't come yet.' 'Oh, send Michael across for it.' □ [B2] Reinforcements were sent across the river under cover of darkness. □ [B3] The cross-Channel ferries are a quick and convenient means of sending goods across to the Continent. ⇨ get across[1], go/take across (to).

5709 send after [A2 B2 pass] ask sb to follow a person, to tell him he has left sth behind etc □ Mr Smith had left without his umbrella, so I sent one of the boys after him. □ 'Nobody told him to leave. Send after him and bring him back.'

5710 send ahead/ahead of [B1i pass B2 pass emph] dispatch sb in advance of a main party etc, to inquire, find lodgings etc; send sth so that it arrives sooner than one does oneself. O: patrol, scout; advance party; luggage, furniture. o: main force; the others, the rest □ Armoured cars were sent ahead of the main body of the division to spot enemy troop movements. □ 'I'm sending my trunks ahead by rail so that I'm not too loaded down for the journey.' ⇨ go ahead/ahead of.

5711 send away [B1i pass] make sb leave, depart, remove himself from one's presence □ 'And if that boy comes around distributing trade leaflets again send him away and tell him not to come back.' □ 'I wish you'd got home five minutes earlier. I had to send the milkman away without the money we owe him.' ⇨ go away[1].

5712 send away/off (for) [A1 A3 pass rel] post money, a coupon etc to a dealer to obtain a special offer, free gift etc; write away/off (for) (q v). o: wall chart, map; (set of) glasses, mats □ (advertiser's 'blurb') Have you sent off yet for your special guide to space-age exploration? □ He sent away to one of the daily papers for a free fisherman's almanac. ⇨ send for[2].

5713 send back [B1i pass] return sth to a shop (e g by post) because one is dissatisfied with it; ask a waiter to take food back to the kitchen because it is unsatisfactory. O: dress, blouse; book; soup, fish □ 'This coat is too short in one sleeve. Send it back to the shop.' □ Don't accept poor service. If the wine is not at the right temperature, send it back.

5714 send down [B1i pass] dismiss from a university (usu for misconduct). O: student, undergraduate □ Several students were sent down after incidents during the visit of a foreign Prime Minister. ⇨ be/come down (from); go down[8].

5715 send for[1] [A2 pass B2 pass] send sb to fetch help etc, or a message asking for it. S: parent, householder. o: police, fire brigade, doctor; help, assistance □ A doctor advises at what stage parents with ailing children should send for professional advice. OBS □ 'The plumber's been sent for. In the meantime help me mop up the water.' ⇨ go for[2].

5716-send for[2] [A2 pass] make a request, or order (usu through the post) for sth. o: catalogue, brochure; form; sample □ I'm going to send for that book on wild birds. □ Don't delay. Send now for a free catalogue. ⇨ send away/off (for).

5717-send in[1] [B1i pass] submit sth to a judge or assessor (in the hope of winning a prize, being accepted etc). S: competitor. O: entry, coupon; answer, solution □ Entries should be sent in to arrive by 1st August. □ I shan't bother to send in the manuscript; it's sure to be rejected.

5718-send in[2] [B1i pass] submit sth to an official, or one's superior, to inform him or obtain his approval. O: application, claim; information; report, statement □ If you want a visa, be sure to send in your application in good time. □ Situation reports were sent in three times a day, at 8 a m, 1 p m and 6 p m. OBS

5719-send off[1] [B1i pass] dispatch, post; start sb on a journey. O: letter, parcel; goods, consignment; wife, child □ 'Why haven't you got my letter? I sent it off last week.' □ Mother always makes sure the children are sent off with a good breakfast inside them.

5720-send off[2] [B1ii nom pass] bid sb farewell (e g at a railway station); see off[1] (q v). O: friend, relative □ The whole family arrived on the quayside to send him off. □ *He was given a good send-off (or: *got a good send-off) when he left for America.

5721-send off (the field) [B1i pass B2 pass] (sport) order sb to leave the field of play; order off (the field) (q v). S: referee. O: player □ 'Now don't try arguing with the ref. You'll only get sent off.' □ Two players were sent off the field for persistent fouling.

send off (for) [A1 A3 pass rel] ⇨ send away/off (for).

5723-send on[1] [B2 pass rel] dispatch sb for the purpose of. o: holiday, vacation; tour, safari; course □ This year the school is sending a number of senior boys on an Outward Bound course. □ 'John's company have been very good to him. Last year, when he was seriously ill, they sent him on a fortnight's convalescence.' ⇨ go on[1].

5724-send on[2] [B1ii pass] ask, get, sb to continue a journey ahead of others □ The marketing director had pressing business which kept him in Leeds, so he sent his deputy on to represent him in Edinburgh. □ The damage to the truck would keep us busy for a least an hour, and we sent the boys on to explain that we would be late back to camp. ⇨ go on[3].

5725-send on[3] [B1i pass] dispatch, forward, letters etc, after sb has left so that they reach him at his new address. O: mail, post; letter, bill □ 'Would you be kind enough to send on any mail to my new address?' □ Students are asked to leave their vacation addresses with the secretary so that examination results can be sent on.

5726-send out [B1i pass] emit, radiate; transmit. S: lamp, bulb; sun; stove; (signalling) station. O: light; heat; signal □ The oil-lamp sent out a gentle beam when you touched the knob. THH □ Long disused antennae send out and receive all kinds of messages. PW

5727-send out (for) [A1 A3 B1i pass B3 pass] ask sb to go from an office, shop etc (to fetch sth). O: secretary, messenger, office-boy. o: newspaper; coffee, sandwiches □ [A3] 'The coffee they make over the road is so much better than the foul stuff we brew up in the cupboard. Why don't we send out for some?' □ [B1] 'I forgot to pick up the flowers on my way in to the office. I suppose we could always send Anne out to collect them?'

5728-send out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] tell, ask, sb to leave a place (e g as a punishment, at the start of a game etc). O: pupil, child. o: class; room, office □ 'What are you doing out in the corridor, Mason?' 'Mr Naylor sent me out for throwing paper darts, sir.' □ 'Let's begin with a game of Hide the Thimble, shall we? Now, who shall we send out of the room?'

5729-send to [B2 pass rel] arrange for sb to attend a particular school, college etc. O: son, ward. o: public school, State school; Oxford □ There was no question of sending the boys to a public school. Paul disapproved, somewhat priggishly, of all forms of privilege in education. □ In the days when the expenses of a university education had largely to be met by parents it made some sense to talk of 'sending one's children to university'. Now, with government help available in the form of grants this is no longer the case. ⇨ go to[1].

5730-send to bed [B2 pass] make sb go to bed (e g because he is ill, as a punishment etc) □ 'John's been complaining of severe stomach pains all day. You'd better send him to bed and call the doctor.' □ 'If I get another cheep out of you two children you'll be sent to bed without any supper!' ⇨ go to bed.

5731-send to his death [B2 pass] act in a way, whether consciously or not, that will cause sb's death. O: soldier, policeman; fireman, lifeboatman □ Generals who, as young officers in the First World War, had seen thousands sent to their certain death in attacks on strongly held positions were much more chary of risking their own men's lives in foolhardy ventures. □ 'You're looking pleased with yourself,' Beatrice said. 'Doesn't it occur to you that you may be sending a man to his death?' OMIH □ note pl forms in: Men were sent to their death/deaths.

5732-send to sleep [B2 pass] make sb fall asleep. S: (mother's) singing, cooing; rocking motion (of a cot, a boat); hot drink; (boring, tedious) speech, harangue; play, concert □ The gentle lapping of the waves against the side of the boat sent him to sleep. □ If there's anything calculated to send me to sleep it's a party political broadcast on television.

5733-send up[1] [B1i pass] cause to rise. S: shortage, transport costs, strike; power failure, loss of oil. O: price, cost; temperature □ Any increase in production costs is bound to send up prices. □ A rise in temperature will send up the pressure inside the casing. ⇨ be up[1], go up[2], put up[4].

5734-send up[2] [B1i pass] destroy, esp by fire or explosion; blow up[4] (q v). S: direct hit, salvo; bomber. O: building; ship; ammunition dump. A: in flames, in smoke; with a bang, with a roar □ A convoy of petrol lorries a mile to the rear was sent up in flames. ⇨ go up[8].

5735-send up[3] [B1i nom pass] (informal) ridicule by means of a mock-imitation, satirize. S: cartoonist, singer, comedian. O: society, the monarchy; pop-singer, hippy □ In their most recent satirical sketch they send up fashionable young women who work for charitable causes (or: do a send-up of young women etc). □ His amusement turned to delight when those send-up songs rocketed into the hit-parade. H

5736 send up the wall [B2 pass] (informal) infuriate sb, annoy him unbearably; drive round the bend/up the wall (q v). S: noise, commotion; chatter, quarrelling □ 'How much longer are the builders going to be blasting away with that damned drill? It's enough to send anyone up the wall!' ⇨ go up the wall.

5737 sentence (to) [B2 pass rel] (legal) declare that sb is to have a certain punishment. S: court; judge, magistrate. o: six months, ten years; life (imprisonment); death □ The judge sentenced him to ten years' hard labour. □ Those convicted of murder are no longer sentenced to death.

5738 separate (off) (from) [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel B3 pass emph rel] divide one thing from another, set a barrier between persons or things. O: group, class; part, fraction; area, space. o: another, the rest; the whole □ 'See to it that the trouble-makers are separated off and given something special to do.' □ These tests and practical exercises are intended to separate the sheep from the goats (i e the more able from the less able). □ Two huts at the end of the camp were separated off from the rest by a wire fence.

5739 separate out [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) become distinct from each other. S: [A1] O: [B1] oil and water; cream and milk; elements, strands □ (note in cooking instruction) This pudding separates out in the cooking into a custard layer with a sponge topping (cf *The custard layer and the sponge pudding separate out). □ I have trouble in separating out the two parts of your argument.

5740 serve as [A2 B2] be suitable or useful for a particular purpose. S: stick, knife; weakness, absence. o: toothbrush, screwdriver; excuse, pretext □ A hollowed-out stick served him as a spoon and a flat shell as a plate. □ His unpunctuality served as an excuse to get rid of him.

5741 serve on[1] [A2 emph rel] act as a member of. S: administrator, academic, councillor. o: committee, board □ Sir John serves on the boards of several companies.

5742 serve on[2] [B2 pass emph rel] (legal) deliver a notice of the court to sb. O: ⚠ a writ, summons, notice to appear (in court), warrant □ A summons was served on him to appear at the next Quarter Sessions. □ They've served a writ on him (or: They've served him with a writ).

5743 serve under [A2 emph rel] be a member of a force, organization etc under the leadership of sb. o: (famous) leader, general □ He's not the sort of man I'd like to serve under. □ There was a move afoot to replace Forrest, under whose command we were serving at the time, with a younger general from England.

5744 serve up [B1i pass] offer (food) to sb; offer sth to sb for his consideration, entertainment etc. O: first course, pudding; same mixture (as before); nonsense, rubbish, tripe □ Mother was just serving up the meal as I walked in. □ Why do the television networks keep serving up the same diet of old movies and second-rate variety programmes?

serve with [B2 pass] ⇨ serve on[2].

5746 set about[1] [A2 pass] begin a task, undertake it purposefully and energetically. o: job, task; preparing, buying, selling □ We then set about the job of putting the animals into their travelling boxes. DF □ How could she set about finding him when she was lying helpless in bed? DC ⇨ go about[2].

5747 set about[2] [A2 pass] (informal) attack (with the fists or verbally) □ 'I'd set about them with this custard-ladle if we have any trouble,' said Mrs Fountain. TT □ A gang of boys set about a supporter of the other team.

5748 set against[1] [B2 pass] cause people who may be related, or close friends, to become enemies or rivals. S: war, politics, business; ambition, greed. O: father, brother. o: son, brother □ Competing for the favours of a woman often sets friend against friend. □ In France, the Dreyfus Affair divided many families, setting father against son and brother against brother.

5749 set against[2] [B2 pass emph rel] consider, weigh, sth as a piece of evidence balancing sth that has already been suggested. O: evidence, factor, consideration; cost, saving, economy. o: argument, case; expense, wastage □ Against the initial cost of buying a new car, you can set the considerable saving on repairs and servicing.* □ I know it's dearer to buy than rent a house, but you must set against that the fact that I own what I pay for.

5750 set apart (from) [B1ii pass B3 pass emph rel] make sb or sth special or unusual. S: family, birth; distinction, (noble) character; intelligence, talent. o: others, ordinary people, the normal run of people □ Exceptional gifts set him apart from other sculptors of his generation. □ For reasons he could not explain he was made to feel different, set apart, from the other boys.

5751 set aside[1] [B1i pass] place to one side, put aside[1] (q v). O: book, newspaper; task; knitting, sewing □ Peter set aside the papers he was marking and reached for his cigarettes and matches. □ Work on the library extension had to be set aside while labour was diverted to more urgent projects.

5752 set aside[2] [B1i pass] (legal) cancel, annul, quash. S: higher court, court of appeal. O: decision, verdict, judgment □ The judge's verdict was quashed and their prison sentences set aside. BBCTV □ (interview with trade union leader) 'There is a clause which says the Minister can set aside the decision of the Pay Board.' BBCTV

5753 set aside[3] [B1i pass] get rid of, make oneself free of; suspend, dispense with[2] (q v). O: difference; hostility, bitterness, strife; protocol □ In dealing with the man, he tried to set aside an instinctive mistrust of him. □ In these discussions, all formality was set aside.

5754 set aside (for) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] save, reserve; name, select (for a particular purpose). O: money; time; minute, day. o: emergency, contingency; reading, play; trial, tournament □ Don't eat all the tinned food. Set something aside for a possible emergency. □ He tried to set aside a few minutes each day for his exercises. □ This was the day set aside for his execution. WI

5755 set one's cap at [B2] (esp of a woman) try to attract, arouse, the sexual interest of sb (esp with a view to eventual marriage). o: eligible bachelor, unattached male, new boss □ 'She'll be jealous of you, you know, jealous of the good turns you've done me. She'll set her cap at you, I dare say.' □ now rather dated; prefer (try to) get off with (q v).

5756 set sb's mind at ease/rest [B2 pass] dispel, lighten, sb's anxieties about sth. S: adviser; doctor, solicitor, tutor □ Robert could become a fashionable money-making artist, just another version of Ned, only more repulsive because of his greater pretensions. That ought to set Ned's mind at ease. CON □ The specialist said Mrs Barnes need have no misgivings about her daughter's progress. In fact he could set her mind completely at rest: the new treatment was a total success. □ note pl form in: Let me set your minds at rest.

5757 set back[1] [B1i nom pass] hinder the progress of sth, or reverse it (by a certain amount). O: programme; progress, advance, development □ Difficulties in raising money have set back our building programme. □ Work on the new theatre has been set back three months. □ Shortage of the right materials has set us back (cf We have suffered a setback because of the shortage etc). □ Two years later, at the mid-term elections, his party suffered a very serious setback. OBS

5758 set back[2] [B1ii pass] (informal) be an expense to sb, cost him sth; knock back[2] (q v). S: house, car; party, celebration □ His daughter's wedding set him back a few pounds. □ If you have dinner there it'll set you back five pounds a head. □ back usu followed by an adv phrase of degree: quite a bit, a fair bit etc.

5759 set back[3] [B1i pass] place, situate, some distance away from a road etc. O: house, stable, greenhouse □ They've set the workshops well back, out of sight of the house. □ The house is set back some distance from the main road. □ usu passive; back usu followed by adv phrase of degree: some way, a fair distance etc.

5760 set great etc store by/on [B2 pass emph rel] regard as having a particular value or importance; attach to[1] (q v). adj: great, little; much, more, less, no. o: (outward) show, manner, appearance, dress; efficiency, competence, originality; kindness, tolerance □ Martin set more store by official honours than I did. NM □ It is odd that one so susceptible to the clash and glare of the theatre should set so much store by personal privacy. RT □ 'My wife, too, sets great store on the boys being at home.' ASA

5761 set down[1] [B1i pass] allow to alight (from a vehicle). O: passenger, fare □ 'Would you mind setting me down at the next corner?' □ The bus stops regularly to set down and pick up passengers. ⇨ put down[3].

5762 set down[2] [B1i pass] note, record, on paper. O: idea, thought, reflection □ I'll set down one or two points while they are fresh in my mind. ⇨ be down[3], get down[4], go down[9], put down[6], take down[3].

5763 set down[3] [B1iii pass] (legal) choose, name, a day when a case is to be heard. O: day, date; trial, hearing □ The day set down for the trial has still to be announced. □ 'You knew the hearing was set down for today.' BBCTV

5764 set sail (for) [B2 rel] (nautical) begin a journey by sea (to a certain place). o: America, France; New York, Lagos □ My speculations were suddenly interrupted by recalling that Tom had postponed his setting sail for the land of liberty. SPL □ The boat leaves Liverpool on the fifteenth, but before we set sail (for New York) I have to spend a few days in Scotland.

5765 set the stage (for) [B2 pass emph rel] make the preliminary arrangements (for), prepare (for what follows). S: government, minister; designer, inventor, planner. o: development, expansion; introduction, provision; discussion, argument, debate □ He was associated with the establishment of the blood transfusion service in the Middle East, and set the stage for the application of chemo-therapy to the wounded soldier as soon after wounding as possible. T □ When the Bill came up for a second reading at the end of March the stage was set for a first-class row — which duly materialised. MFM

5766 set forth[1] [A1] (formal) leave home, base etc at the start of an expedition, campaign etc □ David set forth to do battle with Goliath. □ We set forth on the last stage of our climb. □ set out (on) (q v) is more usual.

5767 set forth[2] [B1i pass] (formal) present, outline. S: secretary, accountant; document, manifesto. O: figure, cost; programme, aim, policy □ These figures are more clearly set forth in tabular form. PL □ The Prime Minister set forth the aims of his government in a speech to party workers.

5768 set in[1] [A1] begin and seem likely to continue, gain a hold and seem likely to spread. S: winter, autumn; freeze, thaw; decay, gangrene; habit, fashion □ The rails that remained looked as if the dry-rot had set in. CON □ The cold weather had set in. HD □ A new vogue in hats seems to have set in. SC

5769 set in[2] [pass (B2)] have fixed, established ways of behaving, reacting etc. o: one's behaviour; one's habits, ways, customs; a way, method (of doing sth); one's reactions, responses □ I think I expected her to refuse. I just thought of her as set in her ways, and this sort of thing certainly wasn't among her habits. CON □ The old ruin had got so set in this habit of drinking in the Grapes (a public house) every lunch-time that he would have been lost without it. CON □ passive with be, get, seem.

5770 set foot in [B2 pass(o) rel] enter, arrive in. o: the place; France; house □ She had never set foot in a place as grand as this before. SML □ No sooner had Isabel set foot in the house than she felt her mother's influence seeping into her. PW □ I had hardly set foot in England before somebody or other exclaimed, 'Oh, but you don't look in the least like your books!' AH □ often in a subordinate clause introduced by (from) the moment, as soon as, no sooner had he... than, he had hardly... before.

5771 set in motion [B2 pass] make sth begin to move; initiate. O: procession, parade; avalanche; campaign, invasion; debate, meeting □ With such efficient communications armies at some distance from each other can be set in motion at the same time. □ Suppose the Soviets lost control of the events they had set in motion*?* OBS □ There followed a wave of selling on the Stock Market, set in motion by the rumour that the currency was to be devalued.

5772-set one's (own) house in order [B2] restore one's business, one's family life etc to a proper state by removing disharmony, abuses etc; put one's (own) house etc (q v) □ 'Our brothers in the docks industry should set their own house in order before venturing to criticize the members of this union.' □ The Press must set its own house in order before the ultimate disaster of having order imposed upon it. SC □ often in the form of a recommendation introduced by should/ought to/must; note pl form in: They must set their own houses in order.

5773-the rot set in [A1] (informal) (of a decline, deterioration) begin □ *Smith made a few runs at number six and then the rot really set in (i e wickets fell cheaply). □ Since Humphries was appointed Headmaster, the rot has set in.

5774-set off[1] [B1i pass] cause to explode. O: bomb, mine; charge, explosive □ The slightest spark can set off the explosive stored here. □ If the TNT is shaken or roughly handled it will be set off. ⇨ go off[5], let off[4].

5775-set off[2] [B1iii pass] cause, prompt, stimulate. S: news, report; discovery, invention. O: rumours, speculation; investment, developments □ The threatened action by miners may set off sympathy strikes by transport workers. □ The further decline of the pound as reported today has set off a fresh wave of selling in the City.

5776-set off[3] [B1i pass] make sth appear more attractive by contrast. S: hair, lips; garden; carpet. O: complexion, pale skin; brick, stone; wall, curtain □ The outfit set off her dark red hair. PP □ The formal beauty of the groves was set off by the perfection of the grey stonework. HD

5777-set off (against) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] balance, match (one thing against another). O: loss, expenditure; quick temper, shyness. o: (salary) increase, award; generosity, determination □ The recent withdrawals from his account can be set off by a refund of income tax. □ You can set these heavy expenses off against a probable increase in salary. □ Yes, he is a difficult man at times. But you must set off against that his great kindness to the family when we really needed support.

5778-set off (on)[1] [A1 A3 rel] start to move, begin a journey; set out (on) (q v). S: runner, cyclist, explorer. o: race, journey; lap, stage □ The cars set off in a cloud of dust. BM □ The police set off in hot pursuit. BB □ Look, education is like setting off on an expedition into the jungle. FFE ⇨ be off[3], get off[3].

5779-set off (on)[2] [B1i pass B3 pass] start sb telling stories, laughing etc; start off (on)[2] (q v). S: remark, joke; reminiscence. o: tale, account □ 'Don't say anything, John. You'll only set him off on one of his interminable war stories.' □ That set all of them off laughing again. EM □ The look on his face is enough to set you off! ⇨ be off (on).

5780-set on [A2 pass B2 pass] (cause to) attack. S: [A2] O: [B2] dog; gang, follower □ He sets his dog on anyone who comes near the house. □ He was set on and beaten up in a dark alley.

set eyes on [B2 pass(o) rel] perceive, sight; lay eyes on (q v). o: each other; (new) home, place of work □ It seemed to me as if we'd done nothing but row and suffer like this from the moment we set eyes on each other. LLDR □ He had fallen victim to a jealous suspicion of all other men who might even set eyes on his wife, let alone speak to her. AH □ often in a subordinate clause introduced by (from) the moment, as soon as, no sooner had he… than, he had hardly… before.

5781-set on his/its feet [B2 pass] help to return to health, prosperity; put on his/its feet (q v). S: rest, holiday; doctor; loan, advance; bank. O: patient, sick man; business, industry □ You are aware of how much help you need to set you on your feet. WI □ The ship-building industry needs more than occasional injections of capital to set it back on its feet.

5782-set on fire[1] [B2 pass] cause sth to burn, set it alight. S: careless, negligent person; spark, heat; incendiary bomb, shell. O: place; house, barn; corn, hay; one's clothes □ 'How many times have I got to warn you against setting the place on fire?' HD □ The blaze was fanned by a stiff breeze and in this way all the farm outbuildings were set on fire. □ it is often things (not persons) which set sth on fire; the action tends not to be deliberate if caused by a person: 'Stop emptying your pipe into the wastepaper basket: you'll set the house on fire!' ⇨ set fire/light to.

5783-set on fire[2] [B2 pass] arouse great interest and excitement (in a place, in people). S: actor, singer, writer; newcomer, recruit (to industry etc). O: the place, the world; literary London, the West End □ 'Tomorrow is another day. Don't let's try to set the world on fire tonight.' AITC □ She was a lady who once set the whole of the literary world (if not the Thames) on fire. MM set great etc store on [B2 pass emph rel] ⇨ set great etc store by/on.

5785-set one's heart on [B2 pass emph rel] (informal) long deeply, with all one's heart, to do or achieve sth. S: student; scientist; athlete. o: career, prize; discovery, achievement; record □ She was mad on show-jumping; her heart was set on horses. DBM □ To take part in the Olympics — this was an ambition on which he had set his heart. □ Isabel, Jeremy, and Janice would enjoy material benefits too, and Isabel, whose heart was set on bringing this about, would be appeased. PW □ note pl form: set their hearts on.

5786-set the seal on [B2 pass emph rel] mark in some appropriate way the high or final point of one's progress etc. S: ceremony; formal reception, investiture (with a medal or honour); election, admission (to a society); marriage. o: career, life's work; progress, recovery □ Sir Francis Chichester's knighthood set the final seal on the remarkable career of this airman and lone yachtsman. □ 'Once a man marries a girl like you, I find it impossible to think of him as a fellow citizen. He's set the seal on his success today.' CON

5787-set one's sights on [B2 pass emph rel] have as one's goal or objective. o: job, career; championship, gold medal; breaking the record, winning the geography prize □ It was not that Virginia had a consuming passion to work on a women's magazine. She had set her sights on it because there was a chance for her in this place. AITC □ John's sights were set on acquiring the controlling interest in a group of stores.*

5788 set sb's/the teeth on edge [B2 pass] cause an unpleasant sensation in the teeth (as when one scrapes a fingernail on metal); annoy, irritate. S: the scrape of chalk on a blackboard; voice, accent; conversation □ 'The man I killed — I know him. He was Russian and he was very thin. I scraped the bone when I pushed the steel in. It set my teeth on edge.' OMIH □ 'You say things that set these people's teeth on edge. You make them feel you're getting at them.' SML

5789 set the Thames on fire [B2] (informal) arouse considerable excitement; achieve a remarkable success. S: actor, singer, conductor; manager, executive □ She was a lady who once set the whole of the literary world (if not the Thames*)* on fire (i e who achieved a limited, not a spectacular, success). MM □ 'Take young Jeffries, now. You wouldn't say he's the kind to set the Thames on fire*, would you?'* ⇨ set on fire².

5790 set out¹ [A1] begin work with the intention of achieving a particular aim. Inf to climb Mt Everest, to win support for his scheme □ The Mexican peasant sets out to burn an acre of woodland in order to plant his maize. HAH □ When I really set out to take care of somebody, I usually do the job properly. TOH □ always followed by an inf.

5791 set out² [B1i pass adj] arrange items on a table, board etc; present material in an orderly manner. O: wares, goods; stall; idea, point; essay, argument □ Michael set out the pieces on the chess-board. □ The ties were attractively set out to draw in the customers. □ I've seldom read such a well set-out piece of work from a student.

5792 set out³ [B1i pass adj] declare, state. S: chairman, secretary; delegate; paper. O: conditions, terms; objection, criticism □ The staff side have already set out the safeguards which they think should be observed. T □ Recent changes in the tax law are set out in the enclosed booklet.

5793 set out (on) [A1 A3 rel] start to move, begin a journey, leave on a journey; set off (on)¹ (q v). S: traveller; convoy, procession. o: trip, tour; stage, circuit □ Vanity made you set out after the King, when you didn't care for him. WI □ The reporters set out in high spirits. TBC □ This morning, competitors set out on the last stage of the round-Britain cycle race.

5794 set to¹ [A1] begin doing sth vigorously, go to work (on) (q v); begin eating hungrily □ He is the fastest worker and sets to straight away, not stopping until his station is ready. TK □ She set to to do all the housework. UL □ The pair of them set to and demolished a pork pie.

5795 set to² [A1 nom] begin to fight or argue. S: boxers; politicians; housewives □ When those two women set to (or: have a set-to*), the fur will really fly.* □ What began as a mild discussion developed into a regular set-to*.*

5796 set fire/light to [B2 pass(o) rel] apply a flame to sth, to burn it. o: rubbish, dried leaves, waste-paper; house, factory; store, dump (of food); one's clothes □ The Dutch set fire to all their military installations. TO □ In the retreat, wooden houses were set light to and stone buildings destroyed by explosives. □ a person or a thing (hot ash, an incendiary bomb) may set fire/light to sth; the action may be deliberate or accidental; cf John set fire to the papers. Hot ash from John's pipe set fire to the papers. ⇨ set on fire.

5797 set one's mind to [B2 pass] give one's full attention to; put one's mind to (q v). o: task, job; finishing on time, repairing the damage □ JO: I can do anything when I set my mind to it. TOH □ 'Now just you set your mind to meeting these orders on time.'

5798 set to work [A2] begin working □ After breakfast we set to work and made a cage for the armadillo. DF □ The floor was so encumbered with objects that I had to set to work to clear myself a space. UTN

5799 set the world to rights [B2] (informal) discuss, argue about, important problems, so creating the illusion that they have been solved. S: armchair critic, self-styled expert □ An intense-looking group had gathered at one end of the bar, setting the world to rights*, no doubt.* □ *'Do come round some time and talk about old times and,' she giggled slightly, '*set the world to rights again.' HAHA

5800 set up¹ [B1i pass adj] place in position, erect. O: stall; mounting, tripod; telescope, range-finder; post, flag □ I set the camera up in a small patch of shade. DF □ Nearby, he or one of his family set up an imposing Celtic cross. SD

5801 set up² [B1i pass] establish, institute. S: government, trades union, board of directors. O: office, centre; committee, commission; inquiry, investigation □ An operations room was set up in the Home Office with teleprinter links and weather charts. OBS □ The Minister of Commerce set up an emergency committee today to ensure the maintenance of bread supplies. OBS □ The same period would be required to set up the international control system. OBS

5802 set up³ [B1iii pass] begin to shout, protest etc, loudly. S: crowd; audience, class. O: commotion, caterwauling, din □ As soon as he appeared on stage the crowd set up such a commotion that the show had to be stopped.

5803 set up⁴ [B1iii pass] cause, produce. S: diet, climate. O: infection; swelling, rash □ Smoking sets up an irritation in the throat and bronchial passages. □ The doctor has no idea how the condition was first set up*.*

5804 set up⁵ [B1ii pass adj] (informal) make sb healthier, stronger, more lively etc. S: holiday, rest, break; diet, air □ 'Alice says that the sea air'll set me up*. But I don't know.'* ASA □ 'Marry me, Helen. I'm young, good-looking and well set up*'* (i e healthy and vigorous).' TOH

5805 set up⁶ [B1i pass] (sport) establish a record speed, time, distance etc in a sporting event. O: ⚠ a record, a time (of 2hrs 8min 33·6sec) □ Stewart set up a new Commonwealth Games record in the 10 000 metres.

5806 set-up [nom (B1)] organization, structuring (of a business, government department, household etc) □ The set-up in the business was far too hierarchical. THH □ It took him some time to find out what the set-up was at head office. □ By all accounts, this set-up has functioned with superbly improvised efficiency. OBS ⇨ set up².

5807 set up shop [B1iii] (informal) establish a business (shop, large store, agency etc); begin practising a particular trade or profession □ Ackroyd set up shop as a retail tobacconist in the High Street. □ Then eventually he set up shop as a freelance photographer.

5808 set up (as)[1] [A1 A3 B1i pass B3 pass] establish oneself in a business or trade; make it possible for sb to do so by providing the money etc. ≈ grocer, baker; locksmith, innkeeper □ [B3] There was enough money left to set the youngest boy up as a photographer. □ [A1 A3] His father moved to London and set up at the 'Golden Lion' (i e as an innkeeper).

5809 set up (as)[2] [A1 A3 B1ii pass B3 pass] consider, reckon sb (or oneself) to be special in some way; have pretensions to being such a person. O: him etc, oneself. ≈ authority, scholar; superior, something special □ [A3] I didn't want to set up as better than anyone else. NM □ [B3] He's not the wise, all-knowing father he sets himself up as. □ [B3] He's set up as (or: to be) something remarkable. We shall see. □ set up to be may be used instead of set up as [A3 B3].

5810 set up (in) [B1i pass B3 pass rel] make it possible for sb to start a business, buy a house etc, by providing the money. O: wife, brother; mistress; oneself. ≈ business, shop; flat, house □ One could do some things which otherwise could not be thought of, like setting up an unmarried daughter in a shop. UL □ Perhaps he could take a flat for her in Downhaven, and set her up there. PW □ If I have a big win on the Football Pools I shall be set up for the rest of my life!

5811 set up house (together) [B1iii] live together as man and wife (whether married or not) □ Military wives were not to be in the same area as their husbands, i e they were not to set up house together. MFM

5812 settle back [A1] lean comfortably back in one's chair □ The lights dimmed, the curtain went up, and we settled back to enjoy the play. □ 'Now, Mother, you're not to help with any of the housework. Just settle back in your armchair and read a magazine.'

5813 settle down[1] [A1] subside, lessen. S: noise, bubble; excitement, panic □ Don't come back for a day or two until the noise and commotion have settled down.

5814 settle down[2] [A1 B1ii pass] become or make calm, peaceful. S: [A1] O: [B1] guest, child, patient; house, place; things □ It was two days after the attack. For the moment, things had settled down. SD □ 'Go away a minute while I try to settle Mary down.'

5815 settle down[3] [A1] seat oneself comfortably (usu for some quiet, prolonged activity) □ Then they came back to their positions and settled down to watch again. TO □ We settled down to a quiet discussion of English slang. EM

5816 settle down[4] [A1] marry, and begin the routine, stable life usu associated with that state □ 'He isn't married, you know. I don't know why, but writers often don't settle down like other people.' PW □ He's no intention of settling down yet.

5817 settle down (in) [A1 A3 rel] establish oneself in a (permanent) job. ≈ trade, job □ Before you settle down to being an honest electrician, consider this offer. EHOW □ He's a man whose one aim is to settle down in a safe job. CON

5818 settle for [A2 emph rel] (be ready to) accept sth simple, undemanding etc, because one has modest tastes, or is lacking in ambition etc. ≈ the simple life; low-paid work, routine job; plain fare; ordinary girl □ She was not prepared to settle for being an ordinary housewife. □ He wants to make a quick sale, so he'll settle for a low price.

5819 settle in/into [A1 A2 rel B1ii pass B2 pass rel] (cause to) move into a new place and make oneself comfortable or at home there. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] family, child; pupil, student. ≈ district, area; house, flat; school □ [A1] We're a little disorganized after the move, but do come and see us when we've settled in. □ [B2] We'd hardly settled the children into a new school when we were posted to another district and had to uproot them again.

5820 settle on[1] [A2 pass rel] decide or agree to take, buy, use etc. ≈ date, rendezvous; meeting; house, car □ After some discussion we settled on a date in early July. □ 'Now that the meeting-place has been settled on, can we talk about the agenda?'

5821 settle on[2] [B2 pass emph rel] give, leave, money or property under the terms of a will etc. O: sum, amount; estate, fortune. ≈ wife, child □ The greater part of his fortune was settled on his three sons. □ It ought to have been enough to settle a lump sum on her, even if that might have meant mortgaging the place. WI

5822 settle up (with) [A1 A3 pass] pay the money one owes before leaving a hotel, restaurant etc; square up (with) (q v). ≈ manager; waiter, porter, doorman □ 'I'm tired of this place: let's settle up and go.' □ 'I'm short of cash. Have you enough to settle up with the waiter?'

5823 settle with [A2 pass B2 pass] punish sb for an injury one has suffered, get even with; square one's account/accounts with (q v). O: △ accounts, (old) scores; one's/an account, one's/a score □ 'He may think he has the better of us, but we'll settle with him before the week's out.' □ 'I hear Steve's back in town. It's just as well: I've got a score to settle with him.'

5824 sew down [B1i pass adj] with needle and thread, fasten completely to a surface sth which is already partly attached to it. O: pocket, flap, lapel □ The flaps of his jacket pockets were sewn down so that they did not crease or wrinkle.

5825 sew on/onto [B1i pass B2 pass rel] attach accessories etc to a garment with needle and thread. O: button, zip-fastener; pocket, sleeve. ≈ coat, trousers; suit □ Medal ribbons are usually sewn onto a uniform above the left pocket of the jacket. □ 'The zip has broken. Will you sew me a new one on?' □ note the Indirect Object (me) in the second example.

5826 sew up[1] [B1i pass adj] seal or close an opening by drawing the edges together with thread etc. O: cut, slit; wound, incision □ The cut in his finger was sewn up with a piece of fine silk.

5827 sew up[2] [B1i pass] (informal) organize an area etc, esp for purposes of trade; arrange, settle, a deal etc. S: salesman, agent. O: region, district; market, trading; deal, contract □ Give me a good assistant and I'll have the area sewn up for you inside six months. □ The deal was sewn up over drinks in the hotel bar. □ usu passive.

5828 shack up (together/with) [A1 A3] (slang) live in an informal, Bohemian style with sb to whom one is not married, and whom (possibly) one does not intend to marry □ 'Who is he shacking up with these days?' □ My parents would have a fit if they knew that their darling daughter was shacking up with a long-haired poet* (or: *their daughter and a poet were shacking up together). □ usu indicates disapproval on the part of the speaker.

5829-shackle with [B2 pass rel] impose some control or check on sb, so that he is not free to act. O: citizen, householder; trader, manufacturer. o: taxation, mortgage; control, regulation □ He's a bit young to shackle himself with the responsibilities of a family. □ Family doctors are anxious to provide a proper service for their patients, but they can't give them the attention they need if they're shackled with paperwork.

5830-shade (off) into [A2 A3] (of one colour adjoining another) merge gradually into that colour. S: red; blue. o: pink; green □ In the spectrum, what we call, or name as, distinct colours shade imperceptibly into each other.

5831-shake by the hand [B2 pass] shake sb's hand (esp to thank or congratulate him). O: rescuer; winner □ I should like to shake you and your men by the hand, and thank each one of you personally for all you have done. MFM □ 'Some day the world will know and acclaim, and then you, Virginia, will be able to say: "I knew him before you did. I saw his works in manuscript," and people will shake you by the hand.' AITC

5832-shake down [A1 nom] (informal) settle properly into position or running order; settle into harmony with one's companions etc. S: (new) machinery, engine; staff, students; course-members, participants □ Following extensive modifications after the accident to the turbine blades, the liner underwent further trials at sea to ensure that everything shook down properly (cf underwent further shake-down trials). □ The delegates were from many different backgrounds, but they quickly shook down in their new surroundings. □ shake-down used attrib, as in the first example.

5833-shake off[1] [B1i pass] by taking avoiding action, get rid of pursuers etc. S: ship, aircraft; fugitive, escapee. O: attacker, pursuer □ Our pilot dived into a bank of cloud in an attempt to shake off the enemy fighters. □ Walter shook off her unwelcome attentions and rushed into his room. FFE

5834-shake off[2] [B1i pass] get rid of, be cured of. O: cold, fever; mood □ I wish I could shake off this confounded cold. □ He went out to the pub with a few friends, hoping to shake off the depression which had seized him.

5835-shake the dust (of sth) off one's feet/shoes [B2] leave an unpleasant place, trying consciously to rid oneself of its associations. o: (of) home, school, army life □ However, it was not very long before I was called up for military service, and I shook the dust of the school off my shoes for ever. SPL □ 'If he wants me to work in his London office, he won't need to ask twice. I shall be glad to shake the dust of this one-horse town off my feet.'

5836-shake out [A1] (military) move into a more open formation (to offer less of a target to enemy gunners etc). S: troops; company, battalion □ 'The way your battalion shook out into artillery formation, company by company... was the most beautiful bit of parade-ground drill I've ever seen.' R GRAVES: GOODBYE TO ALL THAT

5837-shake-out [nom (A1 B1)] (industry) a vigorous redistribution of staff, fresh use of resources etc, aimed at making an industry more efficient □ Much of manufacturing industry is in incomparably better shape than a few years ago, largely as a result of the notorious shake-out in management and manpower of Heath's first year. ST

5838-shake out of [B2 pass] make sb change his normal way of life, attitudes or feelings by giving him a sharp shock. o: (set) ways, habits; complacency, apathy □ Perhaps this was the adventure that would shake him out of the neurosis of routine. NM □ He hoped to be shaken out of the ruts of ordinary perception (i e by taking drugs). DOP

5839-shake up[1] [B1i nom pass] move a bottle etc to and fro vigorously, thus mixing the contents well. O: mixture, medicine, tonic □ The contents should be well shaken up until all the sediment disappears. □ All the ingredients get a good shake-up in this new electric mixer.

5840-shake up[2] [B1i nom pass] shake a cushion etc after sb has been sitting on it, to restore it to shape. O: cushion, pillow, bolster □ As soon as the visitor was announced, Mother bustled around, shaking up the cushions and tidying away the newspapers. □ 'Give the pillows a bit of a shake-up and smooth the sheets.'

5841-shake up[3] [B1i nom pass] disturb, make uncomfortable, by shaking. S: journey; plane, tram. O: passenger, traveller □ When the aircraft finally landed, most of us felt badly shaken up. □ Don't go on the roller-coaster at the fair unless your bones can stand a thorough shake-up.

5842-shake up[4] [B1i nom pass] discipline idle or unruly people by handling them vigorously. S: teacher, officer. O: pupil, soldier □ 'What these recruits need is half an hour's drill on the square — that'll shake them up.' □ After the lethargy of the last headmaster's rule, the place was ready for a shake-up.

5843-shame into [B2 pass rel] cause sb to behave well by making him feel ashamed of his earlier wrongdoing. o: apology, confession, admission; giving up his privileges, donating money □ Mary stared at him hard and eventually shamed him into giving up his seat to the old lady. □ 'Don't imagine that he can be shamed into admitting it was all his fault.'

5844-shape (into) [B2 pass rel] give to material a particular form or shape. O: metal, clay, stone, wood. o: figure, vessel □ The wet clay is patted onto the wire framework and shaped into the body of an animal. □ You can shape the plastic into bowls or buckets by moulding it under pressure.

5845-shape up [A1] (informal) develop, progress. S: pupil, student; musician; athlete; economy, industry, currency □ 'How are the new boys in your team shaping up?' □ I've been coaching two long-jumpers for the next meeting and they're shaping up very nicely. □ The pound didn't shape up very well against other European currencies. BBCR

5846-share out (among) [B1i nom pass B3 pass rel] give a share of sth to each of a group of people. O: money; food, clothing; booty, spoils □ At the end of each day, they met for a formal sharing out of the money they had earned. HD □ Shared out among five people, the food won't go very far. □ After tonight's show, we'll have a share-out of the takings.

5847-share (with) [B2 pass rel] give to one or more persons a part of what one has; use facilities in common with one or more other people. O: food, tobacco, drink; bedroom, bathroom. o: relative, team-mate; guest, visitor □ 'Share the toffee with your brother and sister.' □ 'Would you mind sharing a bedroom with another guest? (or: Would you and another guest mind sharing a bedroom?)'

5848-shave off [B1i pass] remove with the razor a growth of hair that has been allowed to develop. O: moustache, sideboard(s), beard □ It might be a good idea to shave off your beard before going to London for the interview.

5849-shed light on [B2 pass emph rel] clarify, explain; throw light on (q v). adj: no, (not) any/much, little; fresh, new, additional. o: event, incident; mystery, enigma; theft, disappearance □ Considerable light was shed on recent events by his statement to the police. □ Government sources were refusing to shed any more light than appeared yesterday on the television interview with M Georges Bidault. SC

5850-shed tears over [B2 pass] express one's regrets esp about a person or over an event which do not merit them. adj: no, (not) any/much; few. o: ruffian, layabout, crook; failure, collapse (of an enterprise) □ 'You're not going to shed any tears over my Sandy, are you?' EHOW □ 'The famous Templar family is bankrupt.' 'I don't believe it.' 'I'm afraid it's true. The great and mighty Saunders wouldn't shed tears over anything but lack of money.' DC □ usu neg or interr.

5851-sheer away (from) [A1 A3 rel] move sharply away from sb or sth dangerous or unpleasant. o: bore, drunk, incessant talker; pitfall, trap □ If peers were unpopular, people would sheer away from them, would not want their daughters to marry them. T □ This was a topic from which he always sheered away, as though unwilling to face the embarrassment it caused.

5852-sheet down [A1] (of rain) fall heavily, in sheets. S: ⚠ the rain; it □ We sat gloomily by the hotel window, watching it sheet down. □ The wind blew, the rain sheeted down, and we were all soaked.

5853-shell out [A1 B1i pass] (informal) pay, meet (the cost); spend, donate (a sum). S: parent; firm, organization. O: money; cost; subscription, donation □ I know that when the collection box comes round I shall be expected to shell out the most. □ I'm tired of shelling out on repairs to this car.

5854-shelter (from) [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] use sth as cover or protection (from); offer or afford cover (from). S: [A2] O: [B2] child; soldier; animal. S: [B2] tree, porch; trench, bunker; hedge, shed. o: rain, storm; bombardment □ They huddled in a shop doorway to shelter from the rain. □ They covered the roof with earth and rock, thick enough to shelter the men from gunfire.

5855-shelve down (to) [A1 A3 rel] slope gently (towards), slope down (to) (q v). S: bank, cliff, shore. o: sea, water's edge □ At this point, the chalk cliffs shelve down to the beach.

5856-shield (from) [B2 pass emph rel] give protection (from). S: metal plate, glass screen, spectacles; police; parent. O: eye, face; (dead) body; children. o: sun, glare; spectators; harmful influence □ In winter your eyes should be shielded from light reflected from the snow. □ You are not helping your child if you try to shield him from every danger.

5857-shift for oneself [A2] manage to earn a living, run a home etc, without help from others □ If you're marooned on an island, I won't be able to help you — you'll have to shift for yourself. □ If he hadn't been able to shift for himself when his parents died, he would have starved.

5858-shift the blame/responsibility onto [B2 pass emph rel] claim that sb else is to blame for sth unpleasant. □ When his plans miscarry, he always looks around for somebody to shift the blame onto. □ Much of the responsibility for the disaster was shifted onto Menzies, and this was quite undeserved.

5859-shin up [A2] (informal) climb up. o: wall, drainpipe, rope □ Thieves probably got into the house by shinning up a drainpipe and forcing open the window.

5860-shine out [A1] give out a bright light; be clearly noticeable, outstanding, because of one's qualities. S: sun, light; virtue; integrity, generosity □ The curtains were suddenly drawn and a bright light shone out across the lawn. □ Among so much backsliding and indecision his courage and resolution shine out like a beacon.

5861-ship off [B1i pass] send, dispatch, esp by sea or air. O: load, consignment; goods, merchandise; reinforcements, drafts □ A dozen crates were shipped off by air freight last week. □ A younger son for whom there were no prospects at home might be shipped off abroad to make a career for himself.

5862-ship out[1] [A1] (nautical) go to sea as a crew-member □ Men from New England ports shipped out in these sailing vessels. BBCTV

5863-ship out[2] [B1i pass] (nautical) send, carry, from a port as cargo. S: maker, supplier; ferry, tanker. O: cargo, load; cement, iron-ore, oil □ The oil company will ship out piping and heavy equipment (i e to the oil rig). SC □ We have to suck in vast quantities of raw materials before we can convert them into exports and ship them out again. ST

5864-shoot a glance (at) [B2] look quickly at sb, and then away again; dart a glance/look at (q v). adj: curious, suspicious, hostile □ The glance he shot at Charles from beneath his straggling white eyebrows was, of all things, a slightly envious one. HD □ The clerk at the hotel desk shot an inquisitive glance at the young man near the newspaper kiosk (cf shot the young man an inquisitive glance).

5865-shoot down [B1i pass adj] cause to fall to the ground (usu out of control). S: fighter, anti-aircraft gun. O: bomber, transport □ Three out of a formation of eight were shot down in flames. □ You'd be lucky to shoot a fighter down with a light machine-gun.

5866-shoot in [B1i pass] (military) give covering fire for infantry assaulting an enemy position. S: tank, self-propelled gun, artillery. O: infantry, assault troops □ In this campaign, the tanks were often used in a support role, shooting in the infantry as mobile artillery.

5867-shoot one's mouth off [B3ii] (informal) speak in a loud, and indiscreet or boastful, way □ 'We were hoping to keep the party a secret — it was meant to be a surprise for Jane. What made you go and shoot your mouth off about it?' □ 'It's going to be one of those awful hearty evenings, with Bill swigging his beer and shooting his mouth off!'

5868 shoot out [B1i pass] (cricket) dismiss rapidly; (informal) expel, evict (from a house etc). S: bowler; landlord. O: team, batsman; tenant, occupant □ The Surrey team were shot out before lunch, thanks to a fine piece of spin bowling by Travers. □ Won't the Ministry of Agriculture people have something to say if they're shot out and we're moved in? TBC

5869 shoot it out [B1ii nom] fight to a conclusion, or decision (usu with small-arms) □ Since one man had no pistol, they agreed to shoot it out, on horseback, with rifles. □ There is always the risk of civilians being caught in the crossfire when terrorists and soldiers shoot it out (or: when there is a shoot-out between terrorists and soldiers).

5870 shoot out/out of [A1 emph A2 emph rel] emerge swiftly and suddenly (from). S: rabbit, snake. o: burrow, grass □ The lizard's tongue shot out and scooped up the fly. □ The dog shot out of the gate and was half-way across the field before we knew it.

5871 shoot up[1] [A1] (informal) grow, increase in size, quickly. S: plant, child □ 'My word, you have shot up since I saw you last.'

5872 shoot up[2] [A1] rise, increase, sharply; race up (into/to) (q v). S: price, cost, rent; temperature, pressure; applications, attendance □ We shall do what we can to stop prices shooting up still further. □ My pulse rate would suddenly shoot up alarmingly. DIL

5873 shoot up[3] [B1i pass] (informal) terrorize a place by moving through it and firing into the air, at houses etc. S: bandit, gangster. O: town; saloon □ 'Nobody can scare them off: they'll come back and shoot the place up, just for kicks.'

5874 shop around [A1] (informal) go from one shop, dealer etc to another until one finds the best value for money; examine claims, programmes, of various firms, colleges etc before deciding which to join □ It will pay you to shop around a bit before deciding which car to buy. □ 'Has Peter decided which universities he's going to apply to?' 'Not yet. He's shopping around for a course with a good choice of options.'

5875 shore up [B1i pass adj] support, prevent from falling down, with wooden props or pillars; protect (the economy etc) by fiscal or other means. O: house; wall, tree; economy, currency □ It only needs a heavy storm to bring the whole house down. We'll have to shore it up. BM □ The nations reacted blindly in 1929, shoring up their national defences and then standing by helpless as the tide of demand ebbed away. OBS

5876 shorn of [pass (B2)] have sth removed or cut away from it. S: book, document; legislation, Bill; proposal, scheme. o: passage, section; clause; provision □ The story is shorn of its individualizing features, the descriptive passages lose most of what peculiarities of style and content they possess, and the original phrasing is replaced by current, commonplace clichés. MFF □ In its passage through the House the Land Acquisition Bill was shorn of its most controversial provisions.

5877 shot up [pass adj (B1)] (military) (be) injured, damaged or reduced in numbers by enemy action. S: tank, plane; division, regiment □ John's regiment had been badly shot up in the last attack and was due to be relieved. □ The area just inside the enemy perimeter was littered with shot-up tanks and trucks. □ passive with be, get, seem, look.

5878 shoulder aside [B1i pass] push sb to one side with the shoulder □ A big fellow rushed from the store, shouldering aside anyone who got in his way.

5879 shout down [B1i pass] prevent a speaker from being heard by shouting while he is speaking. S: crowd; faction, claque. O: speaker; representative, leader □ An angry meeting shouted down one of the committee as he tried to address them through a loud-hailer. □ 'Don't try to talk to them in their present mood: you'll only get shouted down.'

5880 shout out [A1 B1i pass] call in a loud clear voice. O: name, address; price; abuse □ 'If you know the answer, don't shout out — wait till I ask you.' □ The first person to complete a card shouts out 'Bingo!' at the top of her voice.

5881 shove down sb's throat [B2 pass] (informal) repeat sth often in the hope that it will be learnt, accepted etc; ram down sb's throat (q v). O: lesson; history, Latin; view, opinion; merit, worth (of sth) □ 'You're always shoving it down my throat that you're the one with the job, but it's not so wonderful. I'm working far harder than you.' AITC □ He'd had French shoved down his throat for five hours a week. No wonder he grew to hate it.

5882 shove off[1] [A1] (nautical) move a boat away from the shore (by pushing the shore with a pole etc); push off[1] (q v) □ 'Is everybody safely aboard? Right, shove off!'

5883 shove off[2] [A1] (informal) go away, leave (usu indicating boredom, irritation etc on the part of the person leaving or asking another to leave); push off[2] (q v) □ 'Well, you've said your piece. Now why don't you shove off and leave us alone?' □ 'I can't stand his company any longer: let's shove off somewhere and have a drink.'

5884 show around/round [B1i pass B2 pass] take visitors on a tour of a place, guide them round a place; show over (q v). S: guide, receptionist. O: party, delegation; visitor, tourist. o: house, garden; factory, site □ If you are free at two o'clock on Friday, I shall be delighted to show you around the place. □ 'Mr Jones is busy at the moment. He's showing round a party of visitors.'

5885 show-down [nom (A1 B1)] (cards) moment when the cards in all hands are revealed; (esp informal) moment, in a trial of strength, when one side reveals the weakness, pretensions etc of the other and/or its own strength □ There is too much easy talk in the press of the Government forcing a show-down with the Unions. □ If it comes to a show-down with the bank we can point to the encouraging trading forecast for the next six months.

5886 show in/into [B1i pass B2 pass rel] lead, conduct, sb into a place. S: secretary, servant. O: caller, visitor; customer. o: waiting-room, drawing-room □ 'When the guests arrive please show them into the sitting-room.' □ 'Don't keep Mr Rodgers waiting. Show him in!'

5887 show off[1] [B1i pass] display sth, make it appear, to advantage. S: setting; room, frame, mounting; clothes. O: jewel; furniture, painting; figure, shape. A: well, admirably; to advantage □ The room, very plain, formal and grey, was intended primarily to show off the drawings that were hung there. ASA □ The cut of her dress shows off her figure to perfection.

5888 show off[2] [B1i pass] display, draw people's attention to, sb or sth (esp out of pride or vanity). O: son, daughter; skill, trick; song, poem; clothes, car □ You'll have to practise that trick a little more before you can show it off. DC □ Her aunt liked to boast about her and show her off when she came home in uniform. DC

5889 show off[3] [A1 nom] display one's own abilities etc in order to impress people □ 'Do stop showing off, Andrew. Nobody's impressed.' □ He shows off tremendously (or: *He's a tremendous show-off) in front of the ladies.

5890 show out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] lead, conduct sb from a place. S: butler, secretary. O: visitor, caller. o: house, office □ 'I think that just about concludes our discussion. Miss Jones, will you please show our visitor out?'

5891 show over [B2 pass] take visitors on a tour of a place, show around/round (q v). O: customer, buyer. o: plant, works □ 'I'll get a guide to show you over the factory.'

show round [B1i pass B2 pass] ⇨ show around/round.

5893 show through [A1 A2 rel] be visible underneath a covering. S: colour, texture; nature, character. o: paper, covering; façade, formal manner □ I've sprayed the bonnet, but the marks and scratches show through the paint. □ She has acquired a very good French accent, but her English speech habits still show through.

5894 show up[1] [A1 B1i pass] be easily visible, apparent; make visible, reveal clearly. S: [A1] O: [B1] line, wrinkle; mistake, imperfection; workmanship; (true) nature, character. S: [B1] light; (close) examination; stress, crisis □ Close study of the surface of the picture shows up a network of fine cracks. □ At times like these the true character of the man shows up.

5895 show up[2] [B1ii pass] (informal) make sb feel embarrassed by behaving badly in his company. S: child; pupil; friend □ I can take our children anywhere. I'm never afraid that they're going to show me up in some restaurant. □ 'That's the last time that you show me up in public!'

5896 show up[3] [A1] (informal) appear, arrive (often after some delay); turn up[3] (q v). S: guest, visitor □ Her place was laid for lunch and again for dinner. But she didn't show up. PW □ 'We've been waiting for hours for you to show up!'

5897 show up (as/for) [B1ii pass B3 pass] reveal that sb is, show sb to be (sth inferior, unpleasant etc). o: weakling, coward, blackguard, cad □ Should we expect him to tell the truth about himself if that truth would show him up as a rather poor sort of fish (or: show him up to be etc*). SNP □ Don't show yourself up for what you are! TOH

5898 shower upon [A2 emph rel B2 pass emph rel] be given, give to sb, freely, in abundance; rain upon (q v). S: [A2] O: [B2] gifts, presents; food, wine; compliments, praise. o: guest, visitor; hero, victor □ From the moment we arrived, hospitality was showered upon us. □ We were quite embarrassed by people's kindness: offers of meals and shelter showered upon us.

5899 shrink back (from) [A1 A3 pass emph rel] move back, withdraw (from sb or sth) out of fear, sensitivity etc. o: challenge, threat, danger; violence, disturbance □ Nicky shrank back: he couldn't bear sharp voices. DC □ Always he shrank back from actual commitment: he would rather be uninvolved.

5900 shrink up [A1] try to make oneself small and inconspicuous (e g out of shyness). S: awkward girl, shy teenager; stranger, newcomer □ He had a tendency to shrink up whenever attention was focused on him.

5901 shrivel up [A1] dry and curl up through old age, heat, frost etc. S: leaf, shoot, blade (of grass); skin; face □ In the long drought, the leaves shrivelled up and died. □ If you never give scope to your feelings, you'll shrivel up before you're forty.

5902 shrug off [B1i pass] dismiss sth as not deserving one's attention. O: protest, objection, complaint; whistles, catcalls □ He had a way of shrugging off criticism as though it were beneath his notice.

5903 shuffle off (onto) [B1i pass B3 pass] (informal) in a furtive way, try to pass one's responsibility for sth onto sb else. O: ⚠ the blame, responsibility; (feelings of) guilt □ (political broadcast) He's running away because that is the only opportunity to shuffle off his responsibility. BBCTV □ (political broadcast) He tried to shuffle off his own responsibility onto the men who dig the nation's coal. BBCR

5904 shut away (in) [B1ii pass B3 pass rel] enclose, confine (in a secure or quiet place). O: oneself; prisoner, hostage. o: country; castle □ Jeremy shut himself away for a month to catch up on his academic work. □ 'What made him shut himself away in the heart of the country?' □ Important military prisoners were shut away in a remote mountain village.

5905 shut down [A1 nom B1i nom pass adj] close, cease production at (permanently or for a time); close down (q v). S: [A1] O: [B1] plant, factory, workshop. S: [B1] owner, manager □ *The commission has ordered two mines to be shut down (or: has ordered the shut-down of two mines). □ Some businesses will have to shut down if there is a recession. □ The threat of a shut-down in the newspaper industry has not been averted. BBCR

5906 shut in [B1i pass adj] enclose, surround. S: mountain, forest; fog, snow □ For four months in the year the snow virtually isolates them and they are shut in upon themselves.

5907 shut off [B1i pass] stop, interrupt. O: supply; gas, water, steam □ 'I haven't had a bath for days — they've shut off the hot water supply.' □ Domestic supplies may be shut off at times of heavy demand.

5908 shut out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] prevent sth or sb from entering or being seen. O: light, sun, warmth; sound; view; visitor, spectator. o: room, studio; museum; ground □ The window was open, but the rain shut out the air as effectively as a curtain. HOM □ Ticket-holders who arrive late may find themselves shut out of the stadium. □ He tried hard to shut all thoughts of her out of his mind.

5909-shut one's eyes to [B2] pretend that one does not see sth; turn a blind eye (on/to) (q v). ◦: suffering, distress; crime, corruption; infidelity □ 'I can't help remembering how much I had to shut my eyes to in Godfrey. Lipstick on his handkerchiefs.' MM □ The company has to shut its eyes to petty pilfering, if only because it would be too expensive to prevent.

5910-shut up[1] [B1i pass] shut the windows and doors of a building securely (e g before leaving it at night); close up[2] (q v) O: office, shop, house □ I shut my room up securely and left the key with the porter.

5911-shut up[2] [A1 B1i pass] (informal) (cause to) be quiet (e g stop talking, making a noise); dry up[5] (q v). S: [A1] O: [B1] speaker, chatterbox; pest, nuisance □ 'For heaven's sake, shut him up: he's said quite enough already.' □ Generals were in the greatest awe of him and shut up like an oyster in his presence. MFM

5912-shut up (in) [B1i pass B3 pass emph rel] hold, confine, sb under lock and key as a prisoner; put sth away under lock and key for safe keeping. O: enemy, suspect; madman; valuables, jewellery. ◦: cell, dungeon; safe □ So let Catherine lie shut up in Kimbolton Castle, where it's said you're having her poisoned. WI □ He's mad as a hatter, poor chap, and shut up somewhere. PW □ The vital documents are kept shut up in a strongbox.

5913-shy away (from) [A1 A3 pass emph rel] avoid, move away from, out of shyness, prudery, fear etc. ◦: contact, involvement, commitment; danger, threat □ Clive shies away from the thought of contact as Stanley makes to touch his shoulder. FFE □ Modern English writers tend to shy away from using the stage for direct autobiographical expression. ITAJ

5914-sick up [B1i pass] (informal) vomit, bring up[8] (q v). O: food; meal; breakfast □ He can't keep anything down: he sicked up what little breakfast he had.

5915-sicken of [A2 pass emph rel] become weary of, disgusted with. ◦: old life, former companions; violence, cruelty; cant, hypocrisy □ After a few weeks working for him I sickened of his methods. □ The casual violence of the gang—this was something of which we sickened early on.

5916-side with [A2 pass] put oneself on the same side as sb, take sb's part. ◦: (weaker/stronger) faction, party; enemy, opposition □ He will always side with a minority against the official or established line. □ They're careful to side with the party most likely to win.

5917-sidle up (to) [A1 A3 pass] approach in a nervous or furtive way □ A small man sidled up to him and pressed a piece of paper into his hand. □ If someone sidles up and offers to buy currency, pay no attention.

5918-sign away [B1i pass] surrender, relinquish, sth by signing a document etc. O: property, estate; livelihood, career; right, privilege □ Read the document carefully, so that you know what you are signing away. □ With one stroke of the pen he had signed away his country's independence for a decade.

5919-sign in/into [B1i pass B2 pass] by signing one's name as a member enable a non-member to enter a club etc. O: friend, guest. ◦: club, discotheque □ 'It's not worth while paying the membership fee for one evening. I'll sign you in on my card.'

5920-sign off [A1] (informal) announce, mark in some way, the end of a radio programme. S: announcer, compère, disc-jockey (DJ) □ 'And this is your resident DJ, signing off with our signature tune.'

5921-sign on[1] [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) sign an agreement or undertaking to work for sb, or join a ship's company or the armed services for a specified period. S: [A1] O: [B1] man; labourer; recruit; seaman; footballer. S: [B1] employer; recruiting-sergeant; shipowner; manager □ Men who came forward as volunteers agreed to sign on for the duration of hostilities. □ We need to sign on some more deck-hands for the next trip.

5922-sign on[2] [A1] register one's name, when unemployed, at the local office of the Department of Employment (in Britain). S: workman; fitter, labourer □ A lot of men signed on at the Employment Exchange the week that they closed the big pit.

5923-sign on the dotted line [A2] (informal) sign a document which legally binds one to work etc for sb, or which is a marriage certificate, a bill of sale etc □ 'Now, Sir, if you will just sign on the dotted line the car becomes yours.' □ 'You have to give Liza credit for persistence. She's been trying to get James to sign on the dotted line for over three years.'

5924-sign out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] show by signing one's name that one has left, or intends to leave, a place. O: oneself; friend, workmate. ◦: camp; college, hall of residence □ 'I shan't be dining in college tonight. Would you mind signing me out?' □ After basic training the soldiers were allowed to spend weekends at home, provided they signed themselves out of camp.

5925-sign over [B1i pass] indicate, or confirm, a sale by signing papers. O: goods; consignment, load; property, land □ A senior executive signed over a delivery of six aircraft on behalf of his company. □ The top floor of the building was signed over for use as offices.

5926-sign up [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) join a club, enrol for a course. S: [A1] O: [B1] player; footballer, cricketer; member; student. S: [B1] club; secretary; registrar □ Arsenal have signed up a number of promising youngsters this season. □ Before you sign up for a course, make sure that the school is attached to an established employment agency. H

5927-silt up [A1 B1i pass adj] (cause to) become blocked with mud, sand etc. S: [A1] O: [B1] mouth (of river), cove, bay, harbour. S: [B1] sea; sand, shingle □ Places which were harbours in Roman times silted up long ago and are now some distance inland. □ The drains got silted up with mud and bits of twigs.

5928-simmer down [A1] (informal) become calm, calm down[1] (q v), after being angry, excited, critical etc. S: excited, irascible man; situation; things □ 'Give him a minute to simmer down—he's always like this when we discuss politics.' □ When things have simmered down a bit more, talks can be started. BBCTV

5929 sin (against) [A2 pass emph rel] break, transgress, some moral or religious law; offend (against) (q v). o: the Holy Ghost; decorum, propriety □ What is this unwritten law she is accused of sinning against*?* □ He is a man more sinned against than sinning (i e he does less harm to others than they do to him).

5930 sing to sleep [B2 pass] make (a child) fall asleep by singing to him. S: mother, nurse. O: baby, infant □ If the child grew restless, she would take him out of his cot and sing him to sleep*.*

5931 sing up [A1] sing more loudly □ *'Sing up, fellows, this is supposed to be a celebration, not a funeral!'* □ 'Tell the people at the back to sing up*: I can't hear them.'* □ usu direct or indirect command.

5932 single out [B1i pass] choose, pick, one person or thing from among several for special comment, treatment etc. O: assistant, companion; victim, prey; incident, event □ I imagine that to be singled out by the Captain for a farewell luncheon is indeed an honour. WI □ He singles out in human nature the ugly elements — the elements that hurt him. PW

5933 sink in[1] [A1] be fully absorbed and understood. S: announcement, statement; idea, suggestion □ He said nothing; he stood without moving, while the news sank in*.* WI □ Something good may result after all if the warnings sink in*.* T

5934 sink in[2] [B2 pass emph rel] invest capital etc (heavily) in some venture. S: investor, speculator. O: (a good deal of) capital, investment; personal savings, fortune. o: mining, transport, canning □ A lot of their money had been sunk in mineral shares that everybody had warned them not to buy. □ In this particular tin-pot venture he'd sunk half the sum left him by his father.

5935 sink into [A2 emph rel] fall fast asleep; fall to a lower physical or moral level. o: (deep) sleep; trance, coma; depressed state, black mood □ For a moment, Yusef seemed about to sink again into drugged sleep. HOM □ Nobody could rouse him from the mood of black depression into which he had sunk*.*

5936 sink into/to one's boots [A2] (informal) become low, depressed. S: △ one's heart; one's spirits, courage □ He got through his little scene with Jessica quite well till the moment for the song came, when his courage sank to his boots*.* WDM □ Was this the girl that he was to spend the evening with? Jeremy's heart sank into his boots*. She was immensely tall and must have weighed all of fourteen stone.*

5937 siphon off (from) (into)[1] [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] draw liquid (from a tank) by sucking it through a tube. O: petrol, oil, water □ If you're short of petrol you can siphon off a gallon from my tank.

5938 siphon off (from) (into)[2] [B1i pass adj B3 pass emph rel] (informal) transfer from one place, area of responsibility etc, to another; (esp) transfer funds from one person or account to another for dishonest purposes. O: work, job; money, funds □ There is a lot of pressure now to siphon off the motoring cases into a court of their own. TO □ There is no doubt that a good deal of the money paid into the campaign fund has been siphoned off *(*from it) into private pockets.

5939 sit about/around [A1] lounge idly, sit doing nothing □ School discipline is very largely relaxed, and you have time to sit about and gossip. CON □ The foreign correspondents seemed to spend most of their time sitting around in bars.

5940 sit at the feet of [A2 rel] (jocular) go to learn from some real, or would-be, authority. o: (of) master, seer, guru □ 'I was a Red (= communist) myself once. I even sat at the feet of Waterman and he was a phoney old prophet if you like.' PP □ The talk was given by an elderly don at whose feet Peter had sat*, many years before, at Cambridge.*

5941 sit back [A1] relax (usu after strenuous activity); be inactive; do nothing (when action is needed) □ After a long walk, it's pleasant to sit back with a drink and look out at the view. □ Now it was all over, we could sit back with our feet up. EHOW □ 'When we needed your help, all you did was sit back and twiddle your thumbs.'

5942 sit down [A1 nom B1ii pass] be seated (e g in an armchair); (cause sb to) take a seat □ When I came in, the others were already sitting down*.* □ 'I'll bandage your foot up and you can have a sit-down*.'* ARG □ *'*Sit your guests down and give them a drink.' □ *'*Sit yourself down*. I shan't keep you waiting more than a minute.'*

5943 sit-down (demonstration/strike) [nom (A1)] demonstration in which people sit down in the street, in the entrances to buildings etc, thus preventing others from passing; strike during which employees sit down in their place of work □ Groups advocating civil disobedience attempted to organize sit-down demonstrations in Whitehall. These formed part of the wider movement against nuclear weapons.

5944 sit down under [A3] endure, suffer, sth without protest or resistance. o: conditions; slight, insult, humiliation □ I couldn't sit down under things any longer. NM □ He is a patient man, but not even he could sit down under that kind of provocation.

5945 sit for [A2 rel] take an examination. o: examination, college entrance, Finals □ A number of sixth-formers came up that week to sit for university entrance.

5946 sit in [A1 nom] sit on the ground in, occupy, the building where one is employed etc, in protest against conditions, the action of authorities etc. S: worker, student, civil-rights campaigner □ A company admitted this week that it had passed information on to the Special Branch on certain workers sitting in at its factory. ST □ Sit-ins were staged at lunch-counters known to have refused service to Negroes.

5947 sit in judgement (on/over) [A2] judge the actions, character etc of sb. S: parent, teacher; critic, pundit. o: charge, pupil; work, conduct □ Virginia imagined that the woman knew the whole story, and was sitting there in judgement*.* AITC □ 'Don't set yourself up as some great moral authority, Ben. You know you're in no position to sit in judgement on any of us.'

5948 sit on[1] [A2 rel] serve as a member of. o: committee, board, jury □ A number of distinguished academics and teachers sat on the committee which recommended the expansion of higher education. □ This was only one of the many bodies on which he had sat during his life of public service.

5949 sit on[2] [A2 pass] (informal) neglect, suppress, a complaint etc; do nothing about sth (so as to avoid further complications). S: company, department; manager. o: letter; complaint, inquiry □ For weeks they did nothing about my case: they just sat on it. □ Jenkins sat on those students' applications for a month. I suppose it fed his sense of power to think he could obstruct them.

5950 sit on[3] [A2 pass] (informal) handle firmly sb who behaves impertinently etc; put in his place (q v). o: impertinent, conceited, opinionated fellow □ That young man is becoming insufferable: he needs to be sat on firmly. □ I wish someone would sit hard on Rogers — he'll be telling me how to run my department next.

5951 sit on the fence [A2] hesitate between, not decide between, two opposite lines of action, sets of beliefs etc. S: council, committee; businessman, director □ It was my view that he always sat on the fence*, never committed himself, and never gave a decision.* MFM □ COLONEL: I think you may take after me a little, my dear. You like to sit on the fence because it's more comfortable and more peaceful. LBA

5952 sit out[1] [B1i pass] (at a dance) leave the floor for one dance and sit down with one's partner. O: number; waltz, rumba □ 'Let's sit this one out*, shall we? I'm afraid I tango very badly.'*

5953 sit out[2] [B1i pass] remain in one's seat till the end of a performance (even though one may find it unpleasant). S: audience, public. O: play, concert; match, bout □ I found the show tedious — I don't know how I managed to sit it out*.* □ *'*Sit the first bit out patiently — the game will liven up later.' ⇨ next entry.

5954 sit through [A2] remain in a theatre etc till the end of a performance (even though one may dislike it). o: play, film; concert; meeting □ 'I'm not coming to the cinema if it means sitting through some awful supporting feature first.' □ 'Yes, I did sit through the entire programme. I didn't find it as bad as you seem to think.' ⇨ previous entry.

5955 sit up[1] [A1] move into an upright position after lying flat; sit straight upright after lounging in one's seat □ I think the patient is well enough now to sit up in bed. □ 'Don't slouch over your breakfast. Sit up straight!'

5956 sit up[2] [A1] move to an upright position, in a tense, alert way, usu from fear or surprise □ She sat up*, clapping her hands to her mouth, her eyes wide with fear.* DC

5957 sit up[3] [A1] stay awake and out of bed till past one's usual bedtime (to wait for sb, keep sb company etc); stay up [2] (q v) □ They sat up till the small hours, exchanging gossip. □ He had insisted on Nurse Ellen sitting up with her, although the need for a night nurse was past. DC □ 'I shall get back very late, so don't sit up for me.'

5958 sit up and take notice [A1] (informal) become suddenly and keenly aware and interested. S: opponent, rival; critic, sceptic □ But when she married the delightful Colonial Bishop, now Canon Joram, the County and the Close suddenly sat up and began to take notice and now no party in Barchester was complete without her. WDM □ 'Just you wait. In the New Year we'll spring our new sports model on them. That'll make them sit up and take notice*.'*

5959 size up [B1i pass adj] (informal) form a judgement or opinion of sb or sth. O: newcomer, stranger; situation; competition □ I was trying to size you up*, and failing because you didn't fit into any type I knew.* HD □ He attempted to size up the reaction of the audience: how were they being received?

5960 skate on thin ice [A2] (informal) handle a delicate situation skilfully; venture into a situation where there are risks, and where therefore one has to act carefully □ The managing director explained as carefully as he could that with the fall in demand we might be forced to lay people off, but of course he's used to skating on thin ice and managed the situation as well as could be hoped. □ 'If I were you, I shouldn't come in here telling experienced staff their business: you're skating on very thin ice*.'* □ continuous tenses only.

5961 skate over [A2 pass] move over the surface of sth, i e without really dealing with it or tackling it; slide over (q v). o: surface; problem, difficulty, issue □ He's so cautious and evasive: always skating over the surface, never coming to grips with the issues underneath. □ 'This is not something that can be skated over — let's get down to brass tacks.'

5962 sketch out [B1i pass adj] give a rough, outline picture of sth. O: plan, proposal, design; (housing) development, precinct, centre □ 'Give me a pad and pencil and I'll sketch out what I have in mind.' □ He showed me a hastily sketched-out plan of the road system.

5963 skim off[1] [B1i pass] remove sth floating on the surface of a liquid. O: cream, clots; oil, fat; scum, slime □ The gravy is too greasy: skim off some of the fat before you serve it.

5964 skim off[2] [B1i pass] take the best, the most able, part of a group. S: special school, elite university; specialist arm, service (in the armed forces). O: cream; most able, best qualified □ In some areas, Direct Grant and maintained grammar schools are still able to skim off the most able of the secondary school entry. □ The cream of manpower was skimmed off into the 'workers' battalions'. B

5965 skim through [A2 nom pass adj] read quickly through sth, getting a general impression of its contents. o: book, article; chapter, section; notes □ 'Give me a moment to skim through these notes before the meeting.' □ Don't read the book in detail: skim through it to get the general picture. □ 'Leave the essay with me: I'll give it a quick skim-through before lunch.'

5966 skip off [A1] (informal) leave furtively (esp to avoid some unpleasant task) □ 'Trust the men to skip off and leave us to do the clearing away.' □ 'I notice he skipped off pretty smartly when the moment came to pay the bill.'

5967 skirt around/round [A2 pass] go round the edge of sth, avoid it. o: question, matter; problem, difficulty □ 'Let's not skirt round the awkward questions — let's try and answer them.' □ 'The question of who is to pay has been skirted around*. I suppose that's because you assume I will foot the bill.'*

5968 skittle out [B1i pass] (cricket) dismiss the opposing batsmen in quick succession. O: side, team; batsmen □ The tourists were skittled out for 161 runs. ITV □ Kent skittled out Surrey on a green wicket that gave the ball plenty of lift.

5969 slacken off [A1] become less intense, less active; ease off (q v); weaken. S: trade, commerce; student, athlete; drama, tension □ Business usually slackens off at this time of the year. □ The one problem of the book is that the density and texture slacken off somewhat in the later pages. O

5970 slam down [B1i pass] put down, replace, violently and noisily. O: (telephone) receiver, window, hatch; money, paper □ Mr Gibbs was fighting a wild desire to slam down his receiver. DF □ He slammed a dirty bundle of notes down on the counter and walked out of the shop.

5971 slam the door in sb's face [B2 pass] (informal) shut the door violently to prevent sb unwelcome from entering, or to show he is unwelcome; reject some approach or initiative in a hostile way. o: (of) salesman, pedlar, beggar; visitor; negotiator, delegate □ In my name, we'd gate-crash everywhere — cocktails, weekends, even a couple of houseparties. I used to hope that one day, somebody would have the guts to slam the door in our faces*, but they didn't. They were too well-bred.* LBA □ He was a door-to-door salesman for a bit, but he soon got tired of having the door slammed in his face*.*

5972 slam the brakes on [B1i pass] (informal) apply the brakes of a vehicle abruptly and strongly; jam the brakes on (q v) □ Peter made the mistake of slamming the brakes on as he entered a tight corner, and slid into the path of an oncoming car. □ 'If you find yourself losing control on a slippery surface don't, for Heaven's sake, slam on the brakes*.'*

5973 slam to [B1ii pass] close violently and noisily. O: door, gate, window □ At this point, he became speechless with rage, slammed the gate to*, and strode away.* □ I didn't get a chance to speak to her — the door was slammed to in my face.

5974 slap down[1] [B1i pass] put down firmly (with the sound of a flat palm striking a surface). O: envelope, packet; money, banknotes □ A boy in uniform came into the shop, slapped a telegram down on the counter, and went out without waiting for a reply. □ The fishmonger picked up an enormous skate and slapped it down in front of the customer.

5975 slap down[2] [B1i pass] (informal) check, suppress, firmly a rebellious, venturesome (etc) person □ 'Anyone who speaks out of turn in the Old Man's presence is liable to be slapped down*.'* □ 'Getting admitted to that club is likely to be tough for upstarts like you and me. You can try it if you don't mind being slapped down*.'*

5976 slap on/onto[1] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) apply sth vigorously to a surface (making a dull, flat sound). O: paint, distemper; mud, clay. o: wall, fence; frame □ 'You'll need to slap a bit of creosote on those posts before you stick them in the ground.' □ 'The oil tank will rust unless you do something to protect it. So slap on a couple of coats of red lead.'

5977 slap on/onto[2] [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) add sth to the price etc of sth (in a way, or to an extent, that is unwelcome); clap on/onto (q v). O: tax, surcharge; levy; increase of 50 pence. o: beer, tobacco; betting; price, cost □ 'Before we had time to recover from the last rise, the building societies slapped another one per cent on our interest repayments.' □ Tourists arriving at the airport for their charter flights found that the tour operators had slapped a £10 surcharge onto the cost of their holidays.

5978 slave away [A1] work continuously, like a slave. S: housewife, servant □ 'Why should I slave away at a hot stove for half my life?' □ 'Look at them, we slave away and they play cards.' DPM

5979 sleep around [A1] (informal) move casually from one lover to another, have intercourse with a succession of men without becoming involved with any (usu said of a woman who behaves in this way) □ Men may not insist that their bride is a virgin any longer but they'll still avoid a girl who is known to have slept around*.*

5980 sleep in [A1] sleep on the premises where one works; live in (q v). S: porter, caretaker □ Most of the hotel staff sleep in*.*

5981 sleep off [B1i pass] (informal) lose, get rid of sth, by sleeping. O: indigestion, hangover; headache □ The clubroom seems to be used only by surgeons sleeping off official luncheons. DIL □ 'I know he's in an evil mood, but let's give him a night to sleep it off*, shall we?'*

5982 sleep on it [A2] (informal) have a night's sleep before making a difficult decision □ The thing to do with a problem is to sleep on it*.* TGLY □ I went back to my flat in Half Moon Street and sat down to write a letter to Janet Prentice. I slept on it*, tore it up, wrote it again,* slept on it the next night, and wrote it a third time. RFW

5983 sleep together/with [A1 A2] (informal) have sexual intercourse with □ She's a very strictly brought-up girl; I doubt very much if she's sleeping with her boyfriend (or: I doubt if she and her boyfriend are sleeping together).

5984 slew around/round [A1 B1i pass] (usu said of a heavy, awkward piece of machinery) turn around to face in a new direction. S: [A1] O: [B1] crane, rig; gun, tank; car, lorry. S: [B1] operator, driver □ It took time to slew the guns around to engage fresh targets. □ The car slewed around in a complete circle on the icy road.

5985 slice into [A2 pass] insert a knife into sth to cut a slice from it. o: loaf, pie, sausage; arm, leg □ I like to slice into a loaf when it's fresh from the oven. □ 'Don't draw the knife towards you when you're carving: you might slice into your own finger.'

5986 slice off [B1i pass] remove as a slice (from some larger object). O: end; crust, steak, cutlet; finger, toe □ The machine sliced off thin rounds of copper into a bin. □ He sliced off a thick crust and bit into it hungrily.

5987 slice up [B1i pass adj] cut into slices. O: loaf, cake; sausage, side of bacon □ The long loaves were sliced up ready for making into sandwiches.

5988 slick down [B1i pass adj] flatten down one's hair close to the head with oil etc. O: hair; wisp, lock □ Hair was drawn up from the side of his head and slicked down over the bald patch on top. □ Hair thickly slicked down with grease suggests the rock-and-roll fashions of the 1950s.

slide over [A2 pass] move quickly over sth without really tackling it, skate over (q v). o: surface; (delicate) question, problem, issue □ He slid over the events of the previous day, wishing to spare his guests any embarrassment. □ 'This is not a matter that can be slid over*; let us discuss it openly.'*

5989 slip away [A1] leave quickly and quietly (without attracting attention). S: guest, spectator, prisoner □ 'If you want to slip away*, now's a good time: everyone is dancing.'* □ Availing herself of the diversion caused by the landlord's appearance, the barmaid had slipped away*.* PW

5990 slip down [A1] be swallowed smoothly and easily. S: drink; medicine; beer, liqueur; ice-cream, porridge □ John was handed a glass filled with a thick, green liquid. It slipped down pleasantly enough.

5991 slip in/into[1] [A1 A2] enter quickly and quietly (without being noticed). o: room, garden, street □ Later, Mother slipped into the children's room to make sure they were all asleep. □ Aunt Annabel had slipped in early with three cats playfully following the trailing cord of her dressing-gown. DC

5992 slip in/into[2] [B1i pass B2 pass emph rel] mention sth important in conversation etc, so carefully that one does not appear to be drawing special attention to it. O: word, remark; reference, allusion. o: speech, address; conversation □ He liked, very casually, to slip in references to the important work he was doing. □ One or two appeals for funds were slipped into his opening address.

5993 slip into [A2 pass] put on, with a quick, easy movement. o: jacket, pair of trousers; dress, skirt □ She got up, slipped into a dressing-gown, and peered out of the window. □ They're an old pair of shoes I can slip into to do the gardening. ⇨ next entry.

5994 slip on [B1i pass] put on, with a quick, easy movement. O: jumper, shirt; slacks, trousers; shoes □ He slipped on a sweater and a pair of slacks and went down to open the door. □ *'*Slip your overcoat on*; it's getting chilly.'* ⇨ previous entry.

5995 slip out/out of [A1 A2] leave quickly and quietly (without being noticed). o: room, office, theatre □ He had suggested to Robert that they might slip out for a drink before lunch. HD □ 'I didn't see him leave: he must have slipped out of the room while we were talking.'

5996 slip over [B2 pass] pass a garment over some protruding part of the body so that it covers that, or some other part. O: shirt, sweater; sash, armlet. o: head, shoulders, arm □ 'It's a cool evening, so do slip a shawl over your shoulders.' □ 'You slip this kind of life-jacket over the head, so that the parts which provide bouyancy rest on the chest and back.'

5997 slip past [A1 A2 B1i pass B2 pass] (help, cause, to) pass, without being noticed, sb who is watching or guarding a place. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] prisoner, refugee, escapee; contraband; alcohol, tobacco; blow. S: [B1 B2] organization, gang; smuggler; boxer. o: guard; customs officer □ [A2] A well-staged diversion in the huts enabled two prisoners to slip past the men on the gate. □ [B2] He managed to slip one or two good punches past his opponent's guard.

5998 slip through [A1 A2 B1i pass B2 pass] (enable to) pass through, elude, sth which is intended to control or check such movement. S: [A1 A2] O: [B1 B2] article, product, specimen; suspect, captive. S: [B1 B2] dealer, agent. o: checkpoint, control-point; customs; net, trap; hands, fingers, clutches □ [A1] We are unable to prevent a small number of defective parts slipping through*.* □ [A2] Some valuable information has slipped through the security network. □ [B2] They are slipping very few aircraft through our defensive screen. □ [A2] There isn't a woman yet born who let her quarry slip through her fingers. HSG

5999 slip up [A1 nom] (informal) make a mistake, blunder. S: manager, organizer □ Somebody must have slipped up badly (or: made a bad slip-up*) in your report. They seem to have left out her stage name.* EGD □ There is a slightly uncomfortable feeling of somebody having slipped up (or: of there having been a slip-up on sb's part). L

6000 slit up [B2 pass] make a narrow opening at the back etc of a garment. O: coat, dress, shirt. o: back, front, side □ His jacket is slit up the back to make it more comfortable to wear when riding. □ Get your dressmaker to slit the skirt up the side seams a little more.

6001 slobber over [A2 pass] (informal) show too much sentimental feeling for. o: child, dog □ 'I am always embarrassed by the way he slobbers over small children.'

6002 slog away (at) [A1 A3 rel] (informal) work continuously, and in a hard, determined fashion (at sth). o: lesson, book; task, problem □ Nick's been slogging away at his multiplication tables all morning. □ 'Keep slogging away*! You've nearly broken the back of the problem.'*

6003 slog it out [B1ii] (informal) struggle, fight, until a conclusion is reached. S: contestants, opponents □ The audience were on the edge of their seats as the heavyweights slogged it out in the final round. □ I enjoy a good old intellectual rough and tumble, and I only wish I could stay and slog it out with the two of you. EGD

6004 slop about/around[1] [A1] (of a liquid) move about heavily (esp in a confined space). S: water, paint, petrol □ A couple of gallons of water were slopping around in the bottom of the boat.

6005 slop about/around[2] [A1] (informal) move about in a lazy, casual way; slouch about/around (q v) □ 'I've tried to get the boy interested in decorating the house, but all he does is slop around*, picking at jobs and not settling to anything in particular.'*

6006 slop over [A1] (of liquids) spill heavily over the edge of a vessel etc. S: water; coffee, tea □ A saucepan fell into the basin, and dirty water slopped over onto the kitchen floor.

6007 slop out [A1] (of prisoners in gaol) empty away dirty water, dregs, urine etc from vessels which have been kept overnight in the cells □ In the morning, prisoners in older gaols have to take their basins and buckets to the latrine for slopping out*.*

6008 slope down (to) [A1 A3 rel] form a slope stretching down from one point to another; shelve down (to) (q v). S: garden, lawn, field. o: river, road □ At the back, a flower garden slopes down to a line of poplar trees.

6009 slope off [A1] (informal) go away rather furtively, usu to avoid doing sth unpleasant □ 'Don't think that you can slope off just because my back's turned!' □ 'Let's slope off somewhere quiet and have a cigarette.'

6010-slosh on [B1i pass B2 pass] (informal) apply paint etc in a rough, vigorous way. O: paint, distemper; paste. a: wall; canvas; paper □ 'Don't be afraid — slosh on plenty of bright colour.' □ 'Careful, you're sloshing paste on your jersey!'

6011-slouch about/around [A1] move about in a lazy, slovenly way; slop about/around² (q v) □ 'I do wish the boy would stop slouching about with his hands in his pockets.'

6012-slough off [B1i pass] get rid of, abandon. O: responsibility; worry, anxiety; habit, practice □ He had sloughed off all the petty cares of home and work. RFW □ One's obligations to one's work and colleagues can't easily be sloughed off. □ lit, of a snake, discard its old skin.

6013-slow down¹ [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) move more slowly, decelerate. S: [A1] O: [B1] car, lorry; machine; pace, action. S: [B1] driver, police; operator; director □ At first he drove rather fast and then slowed down to a silent crawl. DBM □ 'The motor's overheating. Can't you slow it down*?'* □ 'Don't slow down the movement in this scene: it's tending to drag.'

6014-slow down² [A1 B1i pass] (cause to) live, work etc in a less active and intense way (usu because one's health is in danger) □ 'You really ought to slow down — all these late nights are doing you no good.' □ 'If I could find some way of slowing my father down I would; he's taking on far too much work.' ⇨ next entry.

6015-slow up [A1] act, work etc less energetically or effectively because of age, poor health etc. S: worker, sportsman, writer □ I think he's beginning to slow up — his latest book is much weaker than the previous one. □ He's over sixty, but he shows no signs of slowing up. ⇨ previous entry.

6016-sluice out [B1i pass adj] clear, clean, sth by using a heavy flow of water. O: channel; drain, sink, gutter □ If the pipe gets blocked try sluicing it out with hot water. □ The stables were sluiced out with water from a hose.

6017-smack of [A2] have a flavour of, suggest. S: life; conduct, behaviour; language. o: corruption, immorality; treason, heresy □ I never went to race meetings, which to me always smacked of the idle rich. SML □ To me, his suggestion smacks of underhand methods.

6018-smarten up [A1 B1ii] become or make more smart (i e cleaner, better-dressed etc). O: oneself; place □ 'You'll spend the rest of your life in the ice-cream factory if you don't smarten yourself up a bit.' ASA □ He's smartened up considerably since I last saw him. □ The shop will have to be smartened up a bit if you want to cater for the top end of the market.

6019-smash in [B1i pass adj] make a hole, dent or wound in sth by striking it a violent blow. O: window, door; wing, boot (of car); ribs, face, head □ The explosion had smashed in all the ground-floor windows. □ A single blow from an adult bear could smash in your rib-cage.

6020-smash sb's face in [B1ii pass] (informal) (threaten to) make a violent physical attack on sb (e g to stop him interfering) □ 'If you mess my girl about, I'll smash your face in!' □ Anyone trying to muscle in on (q v) the gang's territory would get his face smashed in. □ often with will/would.

6021-smash up [B1i nom pass adj] damage badly in a serious accident etc. O: car, lorry; train; furniture, crockery □ The place was badly smashed up in the air-raids. □ There has been a serious smash-up on the motorway, involving a container lorry and three cars.

6022-smear on [B1i pass B2 pass rel] apply a sticky or oily substance to sth. O: grease, ointment; paint; butter. o: hand, face; wall □ *'*Smear some of this cream on your face before putting on the grease-paint.' □ The children had smeared jam on the walls (or: had smeared the walls with jam).

smear with [B2 pass rel] ⇨ previous entry.

6024-smell of¹ [A2] have, give out, the smell of. S: house, room; dinner, meat; breath o: damp, decay; garlic; whisky □ The stew smelt deliciously of herbs and onion. □ His breath smelt suspiciously of drink.

6025-smell of² [A2] strongly suggest. S: conduct, behaviour; suggestion, offer. o: intrigue, double-dealing; treason □ 'If I were you, I should leave his offer alone. It smells strongly of shady dealing.'

6026-smell out [B1i pass] discover, detect, by means of one's sense of smell; discover by noticing and understanding certain clues. S: dog; patrol, search-party. O: rat, rabbit; fugitive □ 'Lead the way with the tracker-dog; he'll soon smell the fellow out.'

6027-smell to high heaven [A2] (informal) have, give off, a strong, unpleasant smell; strongly suggest dishonesty, corruption etc; stink to high heaven (q v). S: place; hall, cellar; deal, business □ 'When was the last time you cleaned out the parrot's cage? It smells to high heaven.' □ 'Of course there's been dirty dealing over the allocation of building permits. The whole thing smells to high heaven.'

6028-Fortune smile upon [A2 rel] (formal) be lucky, fortunate. o: him etc; endeavours, enterprise, venture □ He is the kind of man upon whom Fortune seldom smiles. □ 'May Fortune smile upon you in your new life together.'

6029-smoke out/out of [B1i pass B2 pass] drive from hiding by means of smoke or through cunning etc. O: insect, snake, fox, rabbit; terrorist, fugitive. o: greenhouse, hole, lair, burrow; hiding □ We used a piece of pipe connected to a car exhaust to smoke the rats out. □ 'I came back too late,' he said. 'You wouldn't have come at all if I hadn't smoked you out.' TLG

6030-smooth down¹ [B1i pass adj] make sth flat which is standing up (esp by stroking downwards). O: fur, feathers; lapel, pocket (of a coat) □ John straightened his tie, smoothed down his unruly hair, and went to welcome the first guest.

6031-smooth down² [B1i pass adj] restore (by soothing words etc) feelings which have been upset or disturbed. O: ruffled feelings, susceptibilities; angry boss, husband □ 'Father's in a dreadful temper, Sarah. Do what you can to smooth him down.' □ The rooms allocated to the visitors were found to be already occupied, and it took the intervention of the manager to smooth down injured national pride.

6032-smooth out¹ [B1i pass adj] make a surface smooth by removing irregularities. O: sheet, table-cloth; fold, wrinkle □ Mother brushed off the bread-crumbs and smoothed out the cloth. □ His face was suddenly young again, the lines of strain and fear temporarily smoothed out. DC

6033 smooth out² [B1i pass adj] remove difficulties etc, thus making a situation easier for sb. O: obstacle, snag, teething-trouble; situation □ The director has smoothed out some of the formalities, so you will get your certificate as arranged. □ There are some technical problems to be smoothed out before we can fly.

6034 smooth over [B1i pass adj] calm sb, settle a quarrel etc, by acting calmly and diplomatically. O: argument, disagreement, difference; crisis □ This was a genuine attempt to placate him and smooth this thing over. CON □ They were now arguing furiously, with James standing by and trying to smooth the quarrel over.

6035 smother (in/with) [B2 pass rel] cover thickly (with). O: hall, table; fire; visitor, guest. o: flower, decoration; earth, ash; gift, present; kisses, praise □ The general's chest was smothered in orders and medals (or: Orders and medals smothered his chest). □ We were smothered with soot and ashes cascading from the fireplace (or: Soot and ashes smothered us). □ The welcoming committee would always smother him in compliments — an embarrassing moment which he tried to cut short.

6036 smuggle in/into [B1i pass adj B2 pass] bring goods illegally into a country (i e without declaring them to the customs); pass sth illegally to sb in prison. O: whisky; watch, camera; letter, tool. o: country; camp, prison □ A strict watch is kept to prevent the smuggling in of drugs. □ Equipment was smuggled into the cell under the very noses of the warders.

6037 smuggle out/out of [B1i pass adj B2 pass] take goods illegally out of a country; get sth, illegally, out of prison. O: currency, literature; message. o: country; camp, gaol □ The penalties are severe for people caught smuggling banknotes out of the country. □ Information was smuggled out by a friendly guard.

6038 smuggle past [B1ii pass B2 pass] take goods illegally past a control point; get sb or sth past a guard etc without detection. O: wine, tobacco, perfume; message, food. o: customs; sentry □ 'You're very optimistic if you think you can smuggle five litres of wine past the customs.' □ A couple of prisoners were smuggled past the sentries on the gate in empty swill bins.

6039 snap at [A2 pass] try to grasp sth with the teeth by closing them sharply around it; try to seize by accepting, agreeing etc, quickly. S: dog, fish; buyer, negotiator. o: leg, ankle; bait; offer, bargain □ She must stop her dog snapping at visitors to the house. □ He'd snap at an opportunity to go abroad for us.

6040 snap one's fingers at [B2] (informal) treat sb or sth with contempt, derision etc. o: authorities, boss; rule, regulation; convention, established practices □ He is not, by their standards, in the Sixth or entitled to wear First XV colours, and yet he snaps his fingers at their most cherished taboos. T □ No petty official was going to stop Philip from getting into the enclosure. He would just snap his fingers at them.

6041 snap into it [A2] (informal) get started (e g on a job); start moving quickly □ 'I said I wanted that stuff moved. Now come on, snap into it!' □ 'We haven't got all day. Snap into it. Move!' □ usu direct or indirect command.

6042 snap sb's head off [B1ii pass] (informal) react sharply and angrily to sth that sb has said or done; bite sb's head off (q v) □ 'Don't ask him why he's come in late again — you'll only get your head snapped off.' □ I can't mention her boyfriend's name without her snapping my head off. □ note pl form in: If they spoke out of turn they would get their heads snapped off.

6043 snap out [B1i pass adj] exclaim in a sharp, unpleasant tone. O: reply, retort; instruction □ The colonel suddenly snapped out the information. QA □ 'I don't see why I should tell you anything,' she snapped out in reply.

6044 snap out of it [A2] (informal) briskly get rid of, shake off² (q v), a mood (esp depression, or a sense of defeat) □ 'All that self-pity, my dear! He really ought to snap out of it.' PW □ Quitting is a bad way to embark on life, and that young person had better snap out of it. NEW YORKER □ usu direct or indirect command.

6045 snap up [B1i pass adj] seize, buy quickly and eagerly; enrol, employ, marry sb (before sb else can do so). O: food, consumer item (in short supply); picture, antique; bargain; candidate; wife □ In this time of austerity, nylon stockings were snapped up as soon as they came into the shops. □ She'd stay with me rather than let herself be snapped up by a lousy provincial artist. CON

6046 snarl (at) [A2 pass] make an unpleasant, growling sound (at sb), speak (to sb) in this way. S: dog; boss; husband □ He has an unfortunate way of snarling at complete strangers. □ 'I'm not used to being snarled at — change your tone!'

6047 snarl up¹ [A1 nom B1i nom pass adj] (informal) (cause to) become blocked or jammed in a confused way. S: [A1] O: [B1i] traffic; car, lorry; communications; telephone/radio network, switchboard. S: [B1] controller; operator □ Private traffic snarled up completely on the approach road to the docks. □ Extra demand at these hours snarls up the whole system (or: causes a snarl-up of the whole system).

6048 snarl up² [A1 nom B1i nom pass adj] (informal) (cause to) become entangled, confused; get (sb) involved in a close, and possibly confused, way. S: [A1] O: [B1] talks, discussions; affairs, relations; colleague, member □ They (businessmen) can plan in the knowledge that ministers and civil servants are not busy setting traps, scoring points and looking for every chance to snarl up their affairs. ST □ Against all the odds, he (the Secretary for Trade) has got Labour all snarled up in the referendum commitment on Europe (i e tightly involved in the commitment to hold a referendum). ST

6049 snatch at [A2 pass] try to grasp by putting out one's hand suddenly; try quickly to seize or take advantage of. o: purse, handbag; hand; rope; chance, opportunity, opening □ A man darted from a doorway and snatched at his briefcase. □ He snatched at the rope-ladder, but it eluded his grasp. □ There are a few vacancies on the production side every year, but they come and go quickly. You have to snatch at them.

6050 snatch away [B1i pass] remove quickly (out of discourtesy, fear, suspicion, dislike etc). O: dish, tray; hand; child □ I dislike having my plate snatched away before I've half finished eating. □ In an uncontrollable nervous reaction, she snatched her hand away. DC

6051-snatch from/out of [B2 pass rel] remove sth or sb from quickly (out of fear, greed etc). O: paper, book; hand; occupant, passenger. ex friend; grasp, hand; fire, wreckage □ The letter was snatched out of my hand before I could read it. □ He was one of the few to be snatched from the holocaust.

6052-sneer (at) [A2 pass adj rel] show that one thinks little of sb or sth by smiling or talking in a mocking, superior way. ex effort, attempt; achievement, work □ She constantly sneers at his efforts to improve himself. □ It's very discouraging to be sneered at all the time.

6053-not sneeze at [A2 pass] (informal) not consider lightly; take seriously. ex offer, proposal; chance, opening □ 'Mason says the new job carries an increase of £500 a year. That's good money. Certainly not something to be sneezed at.' □ 'If you got the opportunity of working with his research team, you'd not sneeze at it, would you?' □ usu with would.

6054-(not) sniff at [A2 pass] (informal) (not) reject, (not) dismiss sth as unworthy of one's attention. ex offer; proposal, suggestion; idea □ 'You shouldn't sniff at this opportunity — you may not get another like it.' □ The agreement the employers proposed was certainly not to be sniffed at. The union leaders showed interest and undertook to report back to their executive. □ usu neg or interr.

6055-sniff out [B1iii pass] (informal) find by using the sense of smell; find by searching, investigating etc. S: dog; investigator; traveller. O: rat, rabbit; crime, racket; danger, excitement □ It's his job to sniff out abuses of power. SC □ He's off on his travels again, sniffing out adventure in Tunisia. THH

6056-snip off [B1i pass adj] cut off, separate, with short, quick movements of scissors etc. S: tailor, cutter, dressmaker. O: (loose) thread, end, piece □ The seamstress runs over the finished garment with the scissors, snipping off the loose threads.

6057-snipe (at) [A2 pass] (of a concealed marksman) fire (at); make sudden, sharp attacks (on). S: crack shot; rival, opponent; journalist □ Our position was being sniped at from a clump of bushes to the right. □ He is seldom irritated when newspapermen snipe at him in their columns. It's a matter of patience born of long experience.

6058-snoop around [A1 A2] (informal) search, in a persistent, irritating way, for sth (esp signs that people are breaking rules, misbehaving etc). S: (prison) guard, warder; inspector □ The man from the Ministry's snooping around again, trying to find out if we have a licence for one small chicken! □ The house prefects snoop around the dormitories at night.

6059-snort (at) [A2 pass emph rel] express contempt, annoyance etc, by puffing air sharply through the nose. ex interruption, delay; claim, conceit □ 'You can't come in here.' John snorted at the doorman: 'We'll soon see about that!' □ There was another long delay. At this Peter snorted angrily.

6060-snowed off [pass adj (B1)] (sport) (be) cancelled, or abandoned, because of heavy snow. S: match, game; race □ Several fixtures in the League programme have been snowed off. □ They are now playing the match which was snowed off at Manchester last Saturday. BBCR

6061-snowed under (with) [pass (B1 B3)] (informal) (be) overwhelmed (with), have a heavy load (of). S: staff; business; office. ex work; order, commission; letter; appeal, application □ 'Don't give me any extra jobs: I'm snowed under already.' □ Don't be a clock watcher... be willing to work late if he's snowed under with work. WI □ At that time we were being snowed under with requests for medical aid.

6062-snowed up [pass adj (B1)] (be) isolated by heavy snow, be unable to leave the house etc for this reason. S: house; occupant, traveller, guest □ We were snowed up for three days in our cottage in the mountains. □ The staging camps higher up the mountain would be snowed up if this blizzard continued.

6063-snuff out [B1i pass adj] extinguish, put out[10] (q v); kill, suppress. O: candle, lamp; hope, optimism; rising, revolt; enemy □ The candles on the long table were snuffed out. □ The authorities snuffed out the rebellion almost as soon as it began.

6064-snuggle down [A1] (informal) move under the bedclothes, to get warm and comfortable □ 'Now, snuggle right down and I'll tuck you up.' □ The child snuggled down with its doll and was quickly asleep.

6065-snuggle up (to) [A1 A3 pass] (informal) press up close to another person for warmth or comfort, or out of affection or desire; cuddle up (to) (q v). S: child; lover □ The children snuggled up to one another in the strange bed. □ She snuggled up to her boyfriend in the darkened cinema.

6066-soak (oneself) in [B2] absorb as much as possible of; steep (oneself) in (q v). ex history, lore, tradition □ During these long summer visits he had soaked himself in the traditions and customs of the place.

6067-soak off [B1i pass B2 pass] remove sth by soaking it in water. O: (postage-)stamp, transfer; wallpaper □ Rather than paint over the paper you'd do better to soak it off. □ (instruction in plastic model kit) Soak the transfers carefully off the backing paper and slide them onto the model.

6068-soak through [B1ii pass] make sb (including his clothes) thoroughly wet. S: rain; storm, downpour □ 'Don't stand out there: you'll be soaked through.'

6069-soak to the skin [B2 pass] make sb's clothes wet right through. S: rain; downpour, cloudburst □ A storm burst over them as they slept in a field and they were soaked to the skin. ASA □ A passing bus swept through a large puddle by the side of the road and soaked us to the skin.

6070-soak up[1] [B1i pass adj] absorb, take up[2] (q v). S: sponge, cloth; ground. O: water, tea □ If you spill ink on the carpet, soak it up straight away. □ This sandy soil soaks up moisture very quickly.

6071-soak up[2] [B1i pass adj] assimilate, absorb. S: student, class. O: information; figures, facts □ 'There's no holding the boy: he soaks up new information like a sponge.'

6072-soap down [B1ii pass] rub soap over one's body □ After a hard game, it is refreshing to soap oneself down and then stand under a hot shower.

6073 sob out [B1i pass] tell a story etc while crying bitterly. O: (sad) tale, story, account □ We listened sympathetically while she sobbed out the whole sorry tale.

6074 sob one's heart out [B1ii] (informal) (from pain or distress) cry bitterly, drawing in the breath sharply and noisily □ When she heard her husband was leaving, Mary just sobbed her heart out. □ There seemed no way of comforting the boy. He sat there sobbing his heart out.

6075 sober down [A1 B1i pass] (informal) (cause to) become calm and serious after a period of lighthearted or irresponsible behaviour; make sb calm and serious. S: [A1] O: [B1] child; student; reveller, party. S: [B1] parent; teacher □ 'Now just sober down, everybody. I've important news for you.' □ He doesn't take as many risks on the road as he used to. I suppose one bad crash and two near misses would sober most people down.

6076 sober up [A1 B1i pass adj] (informal) (cause to) leave, recover from, a drunken state; (of sb who is being foolish or thoughtless) become, make, serious or thoughtful □ 'Put his head under the cold tap — that'll sober him up.' □ When he finally sobered up, he found that his wallet had been taken. □ I stopped grinning; not out of politeness but because what he said really did sober me up.

6077 sod off [A1] (taboo) leave, go away; clear off[1] (q v) □ 'Don't stand for any trouble from him. Tell him to sod off.'

6078 soften up [B1i pass] (informal) weaken a place (by shelling etc) for later attack; weaken the resistance of sb whom one wishes to persuade, convert, seduce etc. S: bomber, artillery; salesman, preacher, (amorous) young man. O: position, trench system; housewife, audience, girl □ The beach defences were softened up before the landing craft went in. □ 'She's softening me up, you see, so that I will be amenable by the time she gets here.' AITC

6079 soldier on [A1] continue to serve as a soldier; continue to work, function etc, resolutely □ My regular engagement ends soon, but I'm thinking of soldiering on. □ Diesel engines failed badly in the freeze-up while electrics and steam soldiered on. OBS

6080 solicit for [A2] (formal) ask people for their custom (e g by calling on them, leaving handbills etc). S: shopkeeper; decorator, gardener, odd-job-man. o: trade, business, work □ Tradesmen used to call at the houses of newcomers to a district — soliciting for custom. This is almost unheard of now.

6081 sop up [B1i pass] raise, remove liquid by pressing sth absorbent over it. O: water, milk, tea, ink □ 'Get a towel and sop up the water before it runs over the floor.' □ I dislike his habit of sopping up the gravy with a piece of bread.

6082 sort out[1] [B1i pass adj] put, arrange, in groups, classes (according to size, shape etc). S: storekeeper, packer; teacher. O: part, fitting; box, tin; pupil, material □ She spent a happy afternoon sorting out her coins and stamps. □ Members of the armed forces have been sorted out by trades and occupations. MFM

6083 sort out[2] [B1i pass] settle; order, set straight; straighten out[2] (q v). O: dispute, quarrel; matter, problem; tangle, muddle, confusion □ You'd better send somebody over to sort the situation out. □ It's his job to sort out real grievances. SC

6084 sort out[3] [B1i pass] (informal) organize sb, make him behave in an orderly, disciplined way. S: leader, manager, teacher. O: force, unit; staff; class □ 'I'll give you a week to sort your men out, then I expect things to run smoothly.' □ I'll need time to sort out the office staff — they're hopelessly disorganized at the moment.

6085 sort out[4] [B1i pass] (informal) punish, chastize; handle, deal with[3] (q v), (in a fight). S: police, guard. O: trouble-maker, hooligan, bully □ 'If you don't stop that din, I'll come in and sort you out!' □ He went after the big fellow and really sorted him out.

6086 sort oneself out [B1ii pass] (informal) get organized, settle into a normal pattern. S: newcomer, trainee; situation, things; business, trade □ It's no good standing back and waiting for things to sort themselves out. □ You can sleep here till you get yourself fixed up… get yourself sorted out. TC □ the passive is formed with get.

6087 sort out from [B3 pass] separate, distinguish, one thing from another. O: good, true, clever; truth, news. o: bad, false, stupid; falsehood, comment □ Her difficulty lies in sorting out what's 'right' from what's 'natural'. H □ I have picked out a few fields of study in an attempt to sort out the chaff from the wheat. SNP □ the Object, when it is a noun or noun phrase, follows out.

6088 sort ill/well with [A2 emph rel] (formal) (not) match or fit, (not) be in accord with. S: statement, declaration; conduct, action. o: record, history; character □ His actions sort ill with his claim to be the champion of the oppressed.

6089 sought after [pass adj (A2)] (be) wanted, desired, in demand. S: (attractive) man, woman; property, house; china, jewellery □ At the time she was sought after by most of the eligible men about town. □ Houses in this area are very much sought after. □ We have acquired a much sought-after piece of Georgian silver.

6090 sound off[1] [A1] (military) blow a 'call' or signal (e g reveille, lights out) on a bugle. S: bandsman, drummer (who may also be a bugler, in the British army) □ 'Sound off, drummer!' (i e blow a particular call).

6091 sound off[2] [A1] (informal) talk noisily and boastfully (about sth); speak loudly and pompously (on some topic) □ I wonder when he will stop sounding off about this fabulous house he's building. □ 'Please don't raise that topic: you'll start George sounding off on his pet theory.'

6092 sound out [B1i pass] try to discover or elicit sb's feelings or opinions on a question. O: colleague, partner; staff, employee; wife, family □ 'Have you sounded out your wife on the move to Australia yet?' □ 'Where does he stand on this issue?' 'I don't know; I must sound him out.'

6093 soup up [B1i pass adj] (informal) improve the performance of a motor-car by modifying its engine. O: engine; production saloon □ 'If you soup up the engine, you'll have to do something to the suspension and brakes to take care of all that extra performance.' □ 'The boy spends all his time batting around in a souped-up sports car. He'll get himself killed one of these days.'

6094 souse (in) [B2 pass rel] put a lot of liquid on sth; place sth in salt water etc to preserve it. O: food, meal; herring, mackerel; cucumber. o: vinegar, (bottled) sauce; brine □ He souses everything he eats in tomato ketchup. □ Roll-mops are raw herrings cleaned and boned and soused in brine.

6095 space out [B1i pass adj] place, position, at intervals; set spaces between. O: post, pole; section, paragraph; output; children □ 'You've put the figures in this sum too close together; space them out clearly.' □ Contraceptive methods enable couples to space out their families in a way that is not burdensome to them.

6096 spare (for) [B2 pass emph rel] manage to find or give sth for a special purpose. O: money, time; thought, feeling. o: charity, activity; poor, unfortunate □ I'd like to join you in France, but I can't spare the time for a holiday. □ (child asking for money to buy fireworks for Guy Fawkes' Night) 'Spare a penny for the guy, please, Mister!'

6097 spark off[1] [B1i pass adj] cause to explode, detonate. S: stone, metal. O: charge; explosion □ The explosive was sparked off by someone striking the iron heel of his boot on the stone floor.

6098 spark off[2] [B1i pass adj] cause sth violent, disturbing etc to begin; touch off[2] (q v), trigger off (q v). S: action; appearance, intervention; remark, speech. O: war; argument, row; debate; trouble, controversy □ Local fighting might spark off a major war. MFM □ First are the miners, whose demands for £20 a week could spark off an uncontrolled wages rush in the autumn. ST □ The notorious third Reith lecture sparked off the present wave of preoccupation on the subject of sex. SC

6099 sparkle (with) [A2 rel] send out sudden, sharp flashes of light, intelligence etc. S: clothes, hair; eyes; conversation, writing. o: gem, ornament; mischief, excitement; wit, humour □ The dinner tables sparkled with silver and crystal. □ This was the one dull interlude in a speech sparkling with witticisms.

6100 spatter on/onto [B2 pass emph rel] cause liquid to fall in drops on sth. S: car, lorry; mechanic, painter. O: (drops of) water, mud; oil, paint. o: shoe, coat; floor □ A passing lorry spattered mud onto my new coat (or: spattered my new coat with mud). □ Green paint was spattered on the tiles (or: The tiles were spattered with green paint).

spatter with [B2 pass rel] ⇨ previous entry.

6102 speak about [A2 pass emph rel] discuss, talk about[1] (q v), talk of[1] (q v); mention □ 'What were you speaking about when I came into the room?' □ There was a rule that her late husband should never be spoken about in her presence.

6103 speak against [A2 rel] make a speech opposing sth. S: member, councillor, delegate. o: motion, proposal □ Earlier he had spoken against bringing the law in; now he was inclined to support its introduction. □ This was a measure against which he had spoken and campaigned vigorously.

6104 speak for[1] [A2 rel] speak (e g in a debate, at a meeting) on behalf of others, be their spokesman. S: delegate, representative. o: member, constituent; majority, few □ 'I know I am speaking for all of us when I say how grateful we are to our hosts.' □ The Minister wondered whether the Opposition's record gave them any special right to speak for pensioners.

6105 speak for[2] [A2 rel] make a speech in support of sth. S: member, councillor, delegate. o: motion, proposal □ Certain Members would be prepared to speak for the reintroduction of the death penalty for violent crime involving the use of explosives.

6106 speak for itself/themselves [A2] (informal) be so clear and impressive that any further comment is unnecessary. S: record, report; figure, profit □ There is little need to comment on this record; it is true to say that it speaks for itself. SNP □ 'I think you will agree, gentlemen, that the company's quarterly returns speak for themselves.'

6107 speak volumes for [B2] (informal) indicate a good deal about the nature of sb or sth, be strong evidence that sb or sth is of a particular character. S: action, conduct; appearance, manners; absence, silence. o: character, courage, honesty; upbringing □ 'They were mostly girls of impeccable morality — married in fact.' 'It speaks volumes for their husbands.' TT □ It speaks volumes for his kind disposition that he did not go straight out of the room and bang the door. WDM

6108 speak for yourself/yourselves [A2] (informal) don't speak or make decisions on my/our behalf □ 'I think we've done enough drinking for one evening.' 'Speak for yourself, John!' □ 'Perhaps it's time we were leaving.' 'Speak for yourselves, darlings.' □ only imper.

6109 speaking for myself/ourselves [A2] (informal) in my/our view or opinion □ 'Speaking for myself, I've got a feeling that you are in danger of oversimplifying things a bit.' TBC □ v in the -ing form; the expression is a non-finite adv clause.

6110 speak on [A2 rel] give a talk, make a speech, on a particular subject. o: topic, subject; education, sociology, Dickens, Victorian painting □ At our next meeting, Mr McDonald will be speaking on the early development of printing. □ The lecturer provided a list of topics on which he was prepared to speak.

6111 speak out (against) [A1 A3 pass] speak bravely and with conviction (on a particular question). o: corruption, scandal; immorality, vice; drugs, pornography □ I am glad that someone has had the courage to speak out against these abuses. □ We've been silent for too long: it's time to speak out.

6112 speak to[1] [A2 pass rel] address, talk to[1] (q v), to exchange news etc □ 'Have a word with grandmother — she doesn't often get a chance of speaking to young people.' □ 'Don't speak until you're spoken to!'

6113 speak to[2] [A2] have a word with sb, in the hope of getting sth done (e g of obtaining a favour for sb else). o: manager, director, producer □ 'There's something wrong with the plumbing. I'll have to speak to the landlord about it.' □ 'Did you manage to speak to the Bursar about my salary?' ⇨ speak about.

6114 speak to[3] [A2 pass] scold, reproach sb, with a view to changing his conduct for the better; talk to[2] (q v). S: father, teacher. o: child, pupil □

'You must speak to the children, Henry: they never listen to a word I say.' □ 'I'm not letting those rascals trample over my garden again. They'll have to be spoken to*.'*

6115 speak to[4] [A2] (formal) (at a meeting of a committee, council etc) make a statement on a particular question. S: member, councillor, deputy. o: question, item (on the agenda), matter □ 'The next item is student accommodation. Mr Peters, might I ask you to speak to this?' □ Patrick spoke to this question for some time, accommodating various points raised by Martha. TGLY

6116 speak up [A1] speak in a loud, clear voice, so that one can be heard □ *'Speak up; we can't hear you at the back!'* □ I do wish he'd stop mumbling and learn to speak up*.*

6117 specialize (in) [A2 emph rel] study, or work in, one narrow part of a general field (e g logic within the more general field of philosophy). S: student, research worker, scientist. o: biophysics; paediatrics; criminal law □ In the second year of the degree course you can choose one of four areas to specialize in*.* □ In the Sixth Form you can specialize in the humanities or the natural sciences.

6118 speculate (about) [A2 pass emph rel] form and state opinions about sth (with incomplete knowledge). o: future, fate, destiny; (possible) outcome, consequences □ About such matters it is useless to speculate*; what we need is exact knowledge.* □ At the moment all they can do is speculate about the future of the department — nothing is firm and definite.

6119 speculate (in) [A2 rel] buy and sell stocks and shares in the hope of profiting through changes in their market price. S: broker, investor. o: stock, share, bond; commodities, copper, rubber □ He made a fortune speculating in tin shares, and lost almost all of it in cocoa futures.

6120 speed up [A1 nom B1i nom pass adj] (cause to) go faster, increase its speed; quicken up (q v). S: [A1] O: [B1] train, engine; action, movement; process, procedure; production, delivery. S: [B1] driver, operator; plant, factory; management □ The water speeded up and hit the back of the funnel. PM □ There is now a system designed to speed up the work of factory inspection departments. NS □ The new road will ensure a speed-up in the movement of traffic to the docks.

6121 spell (for) [B2] indicate, mean, that trouble etc will ensue (for sb). S: arrival, appearance (of sb); change, deterioration (in the weather); strike, lay-off. O: trouble, disaster, ruin; suspension, delay; hunger, hard times □ His sight was now so bad that the line of each eye crossed and converged some distance in front of him. At the cinema he was forced down to the front row, and it spelt ruination for any football match. LLDR □ The appointment of a new Head spelt disappointment for any boy hoping for an easy passage through the middle school.

6122 spell out[1] [B1i pass adj] read slowly, going laboriously over each word. O: passage; page, chapter □ It was painful to hear him spelling out a page of an elementary textbook. □ 'I want him to digest the contents of the letter fully, even if you have to spell it out word by word.'

6123 spell out[2] [B1i pass adj] make clear or explicit the full meaning or implications of sth. S: speaker; article, book; statement, speech. O: policy, philosophy; intention, proposal; consequence. A: word for word, in detail □ His speech will spell out in some detail a short-term and a long-term strategy for growth. OBS □ The possible economic benefits of the treaty were spelt out in his recent book.

6124 spend (on) [B2 pass emph rel] pay money, give time, to achieve some object. O: money; fortune, pounds; time; hour, evening. o: house, car; family, girlfriend □ He has spent a small fortune on improving his property. □ Every spare minute he gets is spent on the car.

6125 spend-up [nom (B1)] (informal) occasion when money is spent in a carefree and even reckless manner; a spending spree □ ALBERT: I was thinking of having a bit of a spend-up*.* HAROLD: Well, you do that, you deserve it, you've worked hard for it. BBCTV

